g Artaxerxes not only provided for the temple worship, but by this decree he freed from taxes all the priests, Levites, singers, porters (gate keepers), Nethinims (temple servants), and others who ministered in the temple (v 24)

h Here we have Ezra's commission of authority to establish courts of justice west of the Euphrates, and to teach all men the law of Moses (v 25). The punishment for breaking the law of Moses and the king of Persia was death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment (v 26)

12 things God has done regarding Israel (Isa. 43:1):

1 Created them for His glory (v 1, 7, 15)
2 Formed them for Himself (v 1, 7, 21)
3 Redeemed them (v 1, 14)
4 Called them by His name (v 1, 7)
5 Ransomed them (v 3-4)
6 Loved them (v 4)
7 Made them (v 7)
8 Declared things to come (v 9, 12) such a time.

●13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Is'ra-el, and of his priests and Le'vītes, in my realm, which are minded of their own free will to go up to Je-ru'sā-lĕm, go with thee.

●14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Ju'dah and Je-ru'sā-lĕm, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

●15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Is'ra-el, whose habitation is in Je-ru'sā-lĕm,

●16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Bāb'y-lon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Je-ru'sā-lĕm:

●17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Je-ru'sā-lĕm.

●18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.

●19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Je-ru'sā-lĕm.

●20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

●21 And I, even I Ar-tăx-ĕrx'ēs the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ez'rā the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, ●22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

●23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

●24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Le'vītes, singers, porters, Nĕth'ī-nĭmş, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

●25 And thou, Ez'rā, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not.

●26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

5 Ezra's worship of God for the goodness of the king

27 ¶ Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Je-ru'sā-lĕm:

28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Is'ra-el chief men to go up with me.

411 CHAPTER 8

6 Ezra's companions: over 1,754 males

THESE are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Bāb'y-lon, in the reign of Ar-tăx-ĕrx'ēs the king.

2 Of the sons of Phĭn'e-has; Gēr'shŏm: of the sons of Ith'a-mär; Dăn'iel: of the sons of Dā'vid; Hăt'tush.

3 Of the sons of Shĕch-a-nī'ah, of the sons of Phā'rŏsh; Zĕch-a-rī'ah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty.

4 Of the sons of Pā'hath-mō'-ab; Ē-lī-ho-ē'na-ī the son of Zĕr-a-hī'ah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shĕch-a-nī'ah; the son of Jā-hā'zī-el, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of Ā'dĭn; Ē'bed the son of Jŏn'a-than, and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Ē'lăm; Jē-shā'iah the son of Ăth-a-lī'ah, and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of Shĕph-a-tī'ah; Zĕb-a-dī'ah the son of Mī'chaĕl, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of Jō'ăb; Ō-ba-dī'ah the son of Jē-hī'el, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shĕl'o-mĭth; the son of Jŏs-ĭ-phī'ah, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of Bĕb'a-ī; Zĕch-a-rī'ah the son of Bĕb'a-ī, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of Ăz'găd; Jō-hā'nan the son of Hăk'ka-tăn, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sons of Ā-dŏn'ī-kăm, whose names are these, Ē-lĭph'e-lĕt, Jē-ī'el, and Shĕm-a-ī'ah, and with them threescore males.

14 Of the sons also of Bĭg'-va-ī; Ū'tha-ī, and Zăb'bud, and with them seventy males.

7 New recruits: Levites and Nethinims a All statements in this chapter indicate that the temple at Jerusalem had been finished and proper worship was now to be carried on in it, according to the law of Moses (v 27)

b Again, it was out of Israel, not out of Judah only, that chief men were gathered to return to the new nation in Palestine with Jerusalem as the capital (v 28)

c In all these chapters we see that only those who could prove descent from some family in Israel were allowed to go up to Jerusalem

d 1,754 males in Ezra's company:

1	Sons of Phinehas, Ithamar, David, Shechaniah, Pharosh (v 2-3).....	150
2	Sons of Pahath-moab (v 4)..	200
3	Of Shechaniah (v 5).....	300

9 Saved them (v 12)
10 Showed them things to come (v 9, 12)
11 Profaned their backslidden priests (v 28)
12 Given them to curses and reproaches

12 things God will do for Israel (Isa. 43:2):

1 Be with them when they go through the waters (v 2)
2 Keep the waters from overflowing them
3 Keep them from being burned when in the fire. Fire and water are often mentioned in Scripture to denote calamity because one overwhelms and the other consumes (Ps. 66:12; 69:1; 73:10; 124:4-5)
4 Punish others in preference to them (v 4)
5 Gather them from all lands (v 5-7)
6 Protect them and work for them; and no man can hinder Him (v 13)
7 Punish their enemies (v 14-17)
8 Destroy their enemies forever (v 17)
9 Make abundant waters for them to use, even in the desert (v 19-21)
10 Make a way for them in the wilderness (v 19)
11 Blot out their transgressions (v 25)
12 Remember their sins no more

18 declarations of the existence of God (Isa. 43:13):

1 I existed before the day (v 13)
2 I am more powerful than anyone else
3 I work and none can hinder Me
4 I am your Redeemer (v 14)
5 I am the Holy One of Israel
6 I judged Babylon for your sakes
7 I am Jehovah, your Holy One (v 15)
8 I am the Creator of Israel
9 I am your King
10 I make ways in the sea and paths in the mighty waters (v 16)
11 I destroy mighty armies and quench them as tow (v 17)
12 I do new things and tell you about them before they happen so that you may know them (v 19)
13 I make ways in the wilderness
14 I make rivers in the desert
15 I cause the beasts of the field to honor Me by giving them an abundance of water in the desert and wilderness (v 20)
16 I make plenty of water for My people to drink
17 I have formed Israel for Myself (v 21)
18 I predict that they will eventually show forth My praise a The Levites were slack in choosing to return to Palestine (v 16). Only a small number accompanied Zerubbabel (2:36). This was not so with the priests (2:36-39)

b Eli-nathan occurs 3 times in this one verse; it must have been a popular name. The meaning is: God has given. Besides the 3 men mentioned here there was another one so named (2 Ki. 24:8; Jer. 26:22; 36:12, 25) c These were the Levites whom Ezra wanted to go back with him to Jerusalem. He finally persuaded 18 to return with him (v 15, 17-18)

d The Nethinims were the temple servants who helped the priests and Levites in all their work (v 20)

e Then-when all the exiles were gathered together and were ready to depart, Ezra proclaimed a fast to seek the protection of God on the journey, which would be a very dangerous one in view of so many enemies and roving bands of robbers between Babylon and Palestine (v 21-22)

f This expresses Ezra's faith in the workings of God in the earth, and shows why he did not ask for soldiers to protect his company on the journey. He no doubt had said many wonderful things about Jehovah to the king and his counsellors; and now it was time to live according to his own preaching. God honored him and he was protected on the journey (v 23-32)

g Then-just before the departure for Palestine, Ezra thought it would be best to divide the gold, silver, and other valuables for the temple, so that these could be more easily protected on the journey. He divided them by weight and gave a portion to each of 12 men whom he had selected to be responsible for these valuable things until they should reach Jerusalem (v 24-30)

h The 12 men were representative of the 12 tribes, thus indicating that the returning exiles recognized the fact that Israelites from the whole of the 12 tribes were being restored as a nation, not Judah and Benjamin only (v 24)

4 conditions of blessings (Job 11:13)

1 If you (Job) would prepare your heart
2 If you would stretch forth your hands toward God (v 13)
3 If you will put away iniquity far from your hands (v 14)
4 If you will not let wickedness dwell in your tabernacles

12fold blessing of God (Job 11:15)

1 Then (when conditions as in note g, above are met) you shall lift up your face without spot (v 15)
2 You will be stedfast
3 You will not fear
4 You will forget your misery (v 16)
5 You will remember your misery as waters passed away
6 Your age will be clearer than the noonday (v 17)
7 You will shine forth as the day
8 You will be as the morning
9 You will be secure, because there is hope (v 18)
10 You will dig about and take your rest in safety
11 You will lie down without fear from anyone (v 19)
12 Many will make suit (intreat your favor)

15 ¶ And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Â-hā'vá; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there [c]none of the sons of Lē'vī.

16 Then sent I for Ê-lī-ē'zēr, for Á'rĭ-el, for Shĕm-a-ī'ah, and for [b]Ēl'na-thăn, and for Já'rĭb, and for Ēl'na-thăn, and for Ná'than, and for Zĕch-a-rī'ah, and for Mē-shŭl'lam, chief men; also for Joi'a-rĭb, and for Ēl'na-thăn, men of understanding.

●17 And I sent them with commandment unto Id'dō the chief at the place Câ-sĭph'ĭ-á, and I told them what they should say unto Id'dō, and to his brethren the Nĕth'ĭ-nĭms, at the place Câ-sĭph'ĭ-á, that they should bring unto us [c]ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Măh'lĭ, the son of Lē'vī, the son of Ĭs'ra-el; and Shĕr-e-bī'ah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

19 And Hăsh-a-bī'ah, and with him Jĕ-shā'iah of the sons of Mē-rā'rī, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the [d]Nĕth'ĭ-nĭms, whom Dā'vid and the princes had appointed for the service of the Lē'vites, two hundred and twenty Nĕth'ĭ-nĭms: all of them were expressed by name.

8 Fasting and praying for protection from enemies (vs. 31)

21 ¶[e]Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Á-hā'vá, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, [f]The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us.

9 Twelve treasurers chosen for the temple riches

24 ¶[g]Then I separated [h]twelve of the chief of the priests, Shĕr-e-bī'ah, Hăsh-a-bī'ah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the [i]silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Ĭs'ra-el there present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty [k]talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred [k]talents;

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand [a]drams; and [b]two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD; the vessels are holy also; and the [c]silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

●29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Lē'vītes, and chief of the fathers of Ĭs'ra-el, at Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Lē'vites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm unto the house of our God.

10 Arrival at Jerusalem after 4 months (7:8-9)

31 ¶[d]Then we departed from the river of Á-hā'vá on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, and abode there three days.

11 Treasures delivered to the house of God

33 ¶ Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Mĕr'e-mŏth the son of U-rī'ah the priest; and with him was Ĕ-le-ā'zar the son of Phĭn'e-has; and with them was Jōz'a-băd the son of Jēsh'u-á, and Nō-a-dī'ah the son of Bĭn'nụ-ī, Lē'vites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered [e]burnt offerings unto the God of Ĭs'ra-el, twelve bullocks [f]for all Ĭs'ra-el, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD.

12 King's decrees delivered to the various governors

36 ¶ And they delivered the king's [g]commissions unto the king's [h]lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

VI Revival of religion under Ezra (9:1-10:44). 1 Sin is discovered a A dram-Heb. daric, $5.28 (v 27; 2:69; 1 Chr. 29:7)

b If the 2 vessels of copper were as precious as gold and weighed as many drams as the basons of gold (counting them as 50 drams each, since 20 weighed 1,000 drams), then the value of these vessels was $264.00 each. The 2, having a total weight of 100 drams, would have a value of $528.00, with a dram being worth $5.28

c The gold and silver entrusted to each of the 12 men were to weigh as much at the end of the journey as at the beginning. By this it would be known whether any had been stolen (v 29)

d Then-when all preparations had been made, the exiles departed from the river of Ahava on the 12th day of the first month (April); and they came to Jerusalem on the 1st day of the 5th month (August), after a journey of about 4 1/2 months from this point (v 21-32; 7:8-9)

For list of the amounts of flour, wine, and oil used with each kind of animal sacrifices, see Num. 15. Oil, wine, and flour were used with each sacrifice and in various other oblations to God. This indicated and recognized that His favor had provided all blessings of life, and that true life itself could only be had through obedience to Him and conforming totally to His will in all things according to His revealed plan (Lev. 17:11; 2 Tim. 3:15-17; Heb. 9:22; 10:1-22; 1 Jn. 1:7)

f 12 bullocks were offered for all Israel, one for each tribe besides Levi (v 35). This definitely indicates that there were men of Israel from each of the 12 tribes in the new nation; and all of them are called Jews several times in this book (4:12, 23; 5:1, 5; 6:7-8, 14)

b Israel was not to mingle with other nations by marriage. Israelites were to keep themselves a separate people (Ex. 19:6; 22:31; Dt. 7:6; 14:2) c This has been true of so many backslidings and apostasies. When the chief men of a city or nation lead in righteousness, most of the common people will follow (v 2) d Rending the garments, plucking out the hair, and sitting down astonished were signs of inward mourning over some great calamity (v 3, 5; Josh. 7:6; 1 Sam. 4:12; 2 Sam. 1:2; 13:31; 2 Ki. 18:37; Job 1:20)

2 Rent his garment
3 Plucked out hair
4 Sat down astonished
5 Arose from his heaviness (v 5)
6 Fell upon his knees
7 Spread his hands out to God
8 Prayed (v 6-15)

f 419-word prayer of Ezra said:
1 I am ashamed and blush at our sins that have grown up to heaven (v 6)
2 We have sinned from the days of our fathers until now (v 7)
3 For our sins we have gone into captivity and confusion as at this day (v 7)
4 You have showed us a little space of grace for our restoration (v 8)
5 We are slaves, but our God did not forsake us; He has given us favor in the sight of the kings of Persia to rebuild the temple and Jerusalem (v 9)
6 We have forsaken Your commandments
7 You have punished us less than we deserve (v 13)
8 You have given us deliverance
9 Should we do again the things that we were destroyed for?
10 Should You not destroy us again even more completely than before?
11 You are righteous, for we remain escaped, as it is today (v 15)
12 We are before You in our trespass; we cannot stand before You because of this (v 15)

g An expression showing security

The flight of Israel (Isa. 26:21):

This verse proves that the previous one does refer to the future tribulation and the flight of Israel from Judah, for it predicts the coming of Jehovah to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The only time God will ever do this will be at the 2nd advent of Christ, and the coming of the Father to the earth to destroy enemies and set up a literal kingdom over the kingdoms of men (v 21; 4:1-6; 9:6-7; 11:3-16; 63:1-5; Ezek. 38-39; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:14-27; Zech. 14; Mt. 24:29-31; 25: 31-46; Lk. 1:32;33; 17:26-31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 1:7; 11:15; 19:11-20:10)

Blood of the Earth (Isa. 26:21):

Blood here refers to guilt as in the case of the blood of Abel which was said to be crying from the ground (v 21; Gen. 4:10). The guilt of earth will be disclosed and it will no longer be able to cover its stain, that is, the earth will not be able to hide crimes so they will not be known. All sin committed in the Millennium will be fully exposed-never kept secret, due to the fact that the resurrected saints will be rulers and judges throughout the earth, and in their glorified, immortal, state of knowing as they were also known, they will be able to read the thoughts of men and thereby know the guilt of any transgressor (1 Cor. 13:12)

2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the [b]holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been [c]chief in this trespass.

2 True sorrow for sin

3 And when I heard this thing, I [d]rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonied.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Iṣ'ra-el, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonied until the evening sacrifice.

3 True prayer and confession of sin

5 ¶ And [e]at the evening sacrifice I [e]arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God,

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a [a]nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Pĕr'şiă, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Jū'dah and in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

10 And now, O our God, [b]what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, 11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye [c]may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 [b]Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 ¶ O LORD God of Iṣ'ra-el, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

413 CHAPTER 10

4 Separation from sin: true result of genuine confession

NOW [c]when Ez'rá had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him [d]out of Iṣ'ra-el a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore.

2 And Shĕch-a-nī'ah the son of Jĕ-hī'el, one of the sons of Ĕ'lăm, answered and said unto Ez'rá, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Iṣ'ra-el concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God [c]to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: [f]be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ez'rá, and made the chief priests, the Lĕ'vites, and [d]all Iṣ'ra-el, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware.

5 Ezra's continued fasting and prayer for all Israel

6 ¶ [a]Then Ez'rá rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jŏ-hă'nan the son of Ĕ-lī'a-shīb: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

6 Proclamation for a religious assembly of all Israel

7 And they made proclamation throughout Jū'dah and Jĕa 3 things giving strength and security:

1 Living free from uncleanness (v 11)
2 Living separated from marriage to pagans
3 Not seeking the eternal continuance of the wicked (v 12)

b Questions 8-9. Last in Ezra c Note the change from first to third person. Such changes are common. See Isa. 6:5-8; 7:3; 37:6; Jer. 20:1-6 with 20:7; 21:1 with 28:1, 5 d There was no Israel which could be referred to in this book other than the Jews from all the tribes of Israel that had come back from captivity. They were the only ones who could come out of Israel. This makes it clear that the Israel after the captivities was the nation of Jews having Jerusalem as their capital (v 1-2) e Here we have the proposed covenant-one the Israelites wanted to make with God. It was made with:

1 The chief priests
2 The Levites
3 All Israel (v 5)

f It took great courage and grace to put away wives and children who were no doubt loved as dearly as families today. Evidently many heartaches and much suffering continued for years (v 3-5)

g The term all Israel here is applied to the Jews of all the tribes who returned from exile, and it should be understood in the literal sense of this new nation being all Israel, just as we understand the term in other passages. This all Israel is called Judah in v 7, which means that Judah was recognized as Israel after the captivities

h Then-after praying in public before all Israel, and after the covenant was made to put away the foreign wives and their children, Ezra went into privacy, continuing in prayer and fasting for the people who were going through heartache and suffering because of the circumstances of such a separation (v 6)

1; 2 Sam. 2:17); heavy (1 Ki. 14:6); hard (Ex. 1:14; 18:26; 2 Sam. 3:39; Ps. 60:3; Isa. 14:3); and grievous (1 Ki. 12:4; 2 Chr. 10:4; Isa. 21:2)

2 Great. Heb. gadol. Trans. great (v 1, 13; 29:6; 34:6; 35:4, 13; 64:7); long (Dan. 10:1); mighty (Lev. 19:15; Dt. 4:37; 7:21-23; 9:29; Ezek. 17:17; Jonah 1:4); and proud (Pr. 12:3)

3 Strong. Heb. chazaq. Trans. strong (v 1; 40:10; Jer. 21:5; 50:34); hottest (2 Sam. 11:15); and loud (Ex. 19:16)

God's sword is strong, unbreakable, hard, grievous, long, mighty, invincible, unmerciful, and far reaching. It is pictured here as destroying Leviathan (another name of Satan; v 1; Job 41:1, 34)

5 facts about Leviathan (Isa. 27:1):

1 The piercing serpent (v 1)
2 The crooked serpent
3 He is a sea-serpent (v 1; Ps. 104:26)
4 He has 7 heads (Ps. 74:14; Rev. 12: 1-17; 16:13-16)
5 He is king over all the children of pride (Job 41:1, 34). The Heb. livyathan, meaning a wreathed animal, a large sea-monster, is trans. Leviathan 5 times (v 1; Job 41:1; Ps. 74:14; 104:26) and mourning (Job 3:8). Such a monster is a fitting symbol of Satan (Rev. 12)

7fold care of God's vineyard (Isa. 27:3):

1 I the Lord do keep it (v 3)
2 I will water it every moment
3 I will keep it night and day
4 I will go through the enemies of My vineyard (v 4)
5 I would burn them together
6 I will force them to make peace with Me because of My strength (v 5)
7 I will cause them to take root, blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit (v 6)

3 statements about Babylonians (Isa. 27:11):

1 They have no understanding of God, His plan, or His ways
2 God will have no mercy upon them
3 He will show them no favor
The reason for no mercy will be their ignorance, rebellion, and persecution of Israel under Antichrist (v 11) a The exiles, as in v 6-8, 16; 1:11; 2:1; 4:1; 6:19-21; 8:35; 9:4

b The penalty for not assembling at Jerusalem for this special convocation of separation was forfeiting all earthly goods and becoming separated from the congregation of Israel (v 8) c Then-after the urgent call for the assembling of all Israel, the men of all the tribes obeyed and held a convocation on the 20th day of the 9th month (December), or about 4 1/2 months after the coming of Ezra to Jerusalem with the 2nd group of exiles (v 9; 7:7-8; 8:31-33)
d There was a great rain at this particular time which hindered the assembly to some extent (v 9, 13)
e Ezra was plain and sincere in declaring the sins of the people, and quick to demand proper confession and restitution (v 10-11)
f Then-after his sermon, the whole congregation became enough affected to obey the demands made on them even to the point of separating husbands and wives and parents and children (v 12). They concluded that it would take time and wisdom to work out all the many details related to such marriages, so the people should go to the judges in the cities to settle these matters in the best way possible and as soon as possible in order to avert the wrath of God (v 13-14)
g It took 2 months to examine all the different cases which came before the judges (v 16-17). The commission sat for 60 to 62 days before the last case came before them

Books of Ezra and Nehemiah

The books of Ezra and Nehemiah were regarded as one book in two parts by the Jews and early Christians. In Hebrew manuscripts of the O. T. and in early printed editions of the Hebrew text, they were treated and reckoned as one book, the 685 verses being numbered from the first verse of Ezra on through to the last verse of Nehemiah. The middle verse was given as Neh. 3:32. The notes were placed at the end of Nehemiah. The division of the book Ezra-Nehemiah in later printed copies broke up the 4th of 10 Sedarim (or cycles for public reading) which began with Ezra 8:35 and ended with Neh. 2:10

10 public readings of Ezra-Nehemiah:

1 Ezra 1:1-2:12	6 Neh. 3:38-6:14
2 Ezra 2:13-6:17	7 Neh. 6:15-8:9
3 Ezra 6:18-8:34	8 Neh. 8:10-10:1
4 Ezra 8:35-Neh. 2:10	9 Neh. 10:2-12:25
5 Neh. 2:11-3:37	10 Neh. 12:26-13:31

The two books parallel each other in some respects; and they have two main subjects as follows:

1 Ezra-rebuilding the temple
2 Nehemiah-rebuilding the walls

While Ezra confined himself mainly to the rebuilding of the temple, Nehemiah concerned himself with the walls and the city. Ezra comes first in the Canonical order, because the temple is more important than the city or walls. It is supposed by some that there are certain fixed points in the books that must be recognized as the same, and as dealing with happenings of the same time, in order to get a true historical and chronological understanding of these writings. These so-called fixed points are:

Ezra	Nehemiah
1 Return under Zerubbabel (1:5-2:70)	1 Return under Zerubbabel (7:5-73)
2 Feast of the 7th month (3:1-7)	2 Feast of the 7th month (7:73-8:18)
3 2nd feast of the 7th month (9:1-4)	3 2nd feast of the 7th month (9:1-3)
4 Separation of the people (9:3-10:44)	4 Separation of the people (9:5-10:39)

It is argued that all the other sections of each book, before and between these fixed points, must be understood in the place where they are given in connection with these points. For instance, Ezra 1:1-4 is not in Nehemiah, but rų'sā-lĕm unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

7 Assembly of Israel before God and Ezra

9 ¶ Then all the men of Jū'dah and Bĕn'ja-mĭn gathered themselves together unto Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

8 Ezra's sermon demanding separation from strange wives

10 And Ĕz'rā the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Ĭs'ra-el.

11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

9 Effect of Ezra's sermon upon the people: the covenant

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

10 Two months examination of all who had married strange wives

15 Only Jŏn'a-than the son of Ā'sa-hĕl and Jā-hā-zī'ah the son of Tĭk'vah were employed about this matter: and Mē-shŭl'lam and Shăb'be-thāi the Lē'vīte helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ĕz'rā the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

11 Roster of all who had married strange wives

18 ¶ And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jĕsh'u-ā the son of Jŏz'a-dăk, and his brethren; Mā-a-sē'iah, and Ĕ-lī-ē'zĕr, and Jā'rĭb, and Gĕd-a-lī'ah.

19 And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass.

20 And of the sons of Ĭm'mēr; Hā'nā'nī, and Zĕb-a-dī'ah.

21 And of the sons of Hā'rĭm; Mā-a-sē'iah, and Ĕ-lī'jah, and Shĕm-a-ī'ah, and Jĕ-hī'el, and Ŭz-zī'ah.

22 And of the sons of Pāsh'ŭr; Ĕ-lī-o-ē'na-ī, Mā-a-sē'iah, Ĭsh'ma-el, Nĕ-thăn'e-el, Jŏz'a-bād, and Ĕl'a-sah.

23 Also of the Lē'vītes; Jŏz'a-bād, and Shĭm'e-ī, and Kē-lā'iah, (the same is Kĕl'Ĭ-tā,) Pĕth-a-hī'ah, Jū'dah, and Ĕ-lī-ē'zĕr.

24 Of the singers also; Ĕ-lī'a-shīb: and of the porters; Shăl'lum, and Tē'lem, and Ū'rī.

25 Moreover of Ĭs'ra-el: of the sons of Pā'rŏsh; Rā-mī'ah, and Jĕ-zī'ah, and Măl-chī'ah, and Mĭ'a-mĭn, and Ĕ-le-ā'zar, and Măl-chī'jah, and Bĕ-na'iah.

26 And of the sons of Ē'lăm; Măt-ta-nī'ah, Zĕch-a-rī'ah, and Jĕ-hī'el, and Ăb'dī, and Jĕr'e-mŏth, and Ē-lī'ah.

27 And of the sons of Zăt'tu; Ĕ-lī-o-ē'na-ī, Ĕ-lī'a-shīb, Măt-ta-nī'ah, and Jĕr'e-mŏth, and Zā'bād, and Ă-zī'zā.

28 Of the sons also of Bĕb'a-ī; Jĕ-hŏ-hā'nan, Hăn-a-nī'ah, Zăb'bāi, and Ăth'lāi.

29 And of the sons of Bā'nī; Mĕ-shŭl'lam, Măl'luch, and Ăd-a-ī'ah, Jāsh'ŭb, and Shĕ'al, and Rā'moth.

30 And of the sons of Pā'hath-mō'ăb; Ăd'nā, and Chĕ'lāl, Bĕ-nā'iah, Mā-a-sē'iah, Măt-ta-nī'ah, Bĕ-zăl'e-el, and Bĭn'nų-ī, and Mā-nās'seh.

31 And of the sons of Hā'rĭm; Ĕ-lī-ē'zĕr, Ĭ-shī'jah, Măl-chī'ah, Shĕm-a-ī'ah, Shĭm'e-on, 32 Bĕn'ja-mĭn, Măl'luch, and Shĕm-a-rī'ah.

33 Of the sons of Hā'shum; Măt-te-nā'ī, Măt'ta-thah, Zā'bād, Ĕ-lĭph'e-lĕt, Jĕr'e-māi, Mā-nās'seh, and Shĭm'e-ī.

34 Of the sons of Bā'nī; Mā-ād'āi, Ăm'răm, and Ū'el,

35 Bĕ-nā'iah Bĕ-dē'iah, Chĕl'lų̆h,

36 Vă-nī'ah, Mĕr'e-mŏth, Ĕ-lī'a-shīb,

37 Măt-ta-nī'ah, Măt-te-nā'ī, and Jā'a-sąu,

38 And Bā'nī, and Bĭn'nų-ī, Shĭm'e-ī,

39 And Shĕl-e-mī'ah, and Nā'than, and Ăd-a-ī'ah,

40 Măch-na-dĕ'bāi, Shāsh'a-ī, Shăr'a-ī,

41 Ă-zăr'e-el, and Shĕl-e-mī'ah, Shĕm-a-rī'ah,

42 Shăl'lum, Ăm-a-rī'ah, and Jō'seph.

a The priests were commanded in the law of Moses not to take foreign wives (Lev. 21:14). Here there were 18 that had transgressed in this matter, and all agreed to give up their wives (v 18-22)
b Of the Levites there were 6; of the singers 1; and of the porters 3 who had taken foreign wives (v 23-24) c Of others there were 86 who had married foreign women (v 25-44). Regarding the outcome in all these cases, nothing is said, except that the men agreed to put away such wives and their children (10:5, 12, 19)

should be understood as given, before the first fixed point. Also, Neh. 1:1-7:4 is not in Ezra but should be understood as between points 1 and 2. Again, Neh. 11:1-13:31 is not in Ezra but should be understood as after the 4th fixed point

To force such ideas into the two books in an effort to make them harmonize is going too far without definite proof of Scripture. For an example, to force Neh. 1:1-7:4 before the return of the exiles under Zerubbabel as in point 1, would make it out of harmony with all the facts, for Ezra 1:1-2:70 gives us a list of the returning exiles following the decree of Cyrus in his first year. There could be no returned Jews before this for Nehemiah to return to or help in the building of the walls as recorded in Neh. 1:1-7:4. When these returning exiles are referred to in the book of Nehemiah, it is clear that they had already returned and the genealogy had already been completed before Nehemiah got to Jerusalem. It was after the completion of the walls by him, as in Neh. 1:1-7:4 that he thought of the genealogy and then he found that it had already been completed (7:5). We are required to believe that the events of Neh. 1:1-7:4 were after and not before this genealogy. To say the fixed points, 3 and 4, refer to the same feasts in exactly the same years is, like other arguments, unfounded. There could have been such a feast every year during the many years between the time of Ezra and Nehemiah and their work in Jerusalem. It is impossible to make a complete harmony of these two books historically and chronologically from such scant records which give no dates other than mentioning certain kings who had the same titles. It is clear from what is recorded in Ezra 7, and from a study of the lists of the kings of Persia on p. 490-491, and p. 879 that Ezra returned to Jerusalem immediately after the temple was rebuilt; and Nehemiah was there long after this time-after the 20th year of Artaxerxes, which was 83 years after the decree of Cyrus. These facts place Ezra before Nehemiah, and Esther before Ezra and Nehemiah. Furthermore, they should settle the controversy over the so-called misplaced portions, false connections, and discrepancies charged by some, even to the inspired writers

2 blessings upon Judah (Isa. 33:24):

1 The inhabitant of Jerusalem will not say, I am sick. There will be universal healing and health (v 24; 35:3-6). This is what should be today through the church appropriating the full benefits of the gospel

2 The people will be forgiven of their sins (v 24). Both healing and forgiveness go hand in hand (6:9-10; Mt. 9:5; 13:15; Jas. 5:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:24)

This was promised O. T. saints:

(Ex. 15:25; 23:25; Lev. 26:1-13; Dt. 28:1-14; Ps. 34:9-10; 84:11; 90:1-12; 103:3; Pr. 3:7-8; Isa. 53:4-5; 58:8)

This was promised N. T. saints:

(Mt. 7:7-11; 8:17; 13:15; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 10:10; 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Rom. 1:16; 8:11; 1 Cor. 12:4-11; Jas. 5:14-16; 3 Jn. 2)

a See the complete list of those who had taken strange wives and were required to put them away, including priests, Levites, singers, porters, and a great number of others from the common people, in verses 18 to 43

43 Of the sons of Nĕ'bŏ; Jĕ-ĭ'el, Mât-tĭ-thĭ'ah, Zā'bâd, Ze-bi'nâ, Jâ-dā'u, and Jō'el, Bĕ-nā'iah.

44 All these had taken strange wives: and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

The words of the preacher (Eccl. 1:1):

The words of the preacher, not the words of God; and this is the way it should be understood, except that we must recognize that Solomon was a backslidden preacher at the time of the writing of this book. These words are the reasonings, searchings, and findings of natural man under the sun seeking to satisfy his soul

10 evidences of backsliding:

1 His attitude toward creation and human life, everything on earth being considered vain, empty, and extremely vexing
(1) The term vanity of vanities is used 3 times (1:2; 12:8)
(2) Vanity and vexation of the spirit is used 7 times (1:14; 2:11, 17, 26; 4:4, 16; 6:9)
(3) All is vanity is used 6 times (1:2, 14; 2:11, 17; 3:19; 12:8) 7)
(4) Divers vanities is used once (5:
(5) This is also vanity is used 12 times (2:1, 15, 19, 21, 23; 4:8; 5:10; 6:2; 7:6; 8:10, 14)
(6) Vanity is used 8 times in various ways (4:7; 6:4, 11; 7:15; 9:9; 11:8, 10). Life itself was considered vanity
(7) The words vanity and vanities are used 37 times throughout this short book, compared to 55 times in all the other books of the Bible. See list of things considered vanity, note c, below

2 His reasonings "under the sun" prove he was not speaking as an inspired preacher in harmony with God. The expression under the sun is used 31 times. No inspired preacher or prophet of God in any other book so reasons about things under the sun as Solomon. This must have been the period of his life after his wives had turned his heart away from Jehovah (1 Ki. 11:1-10). He had 1,000 in all - 700 wives and 300 concubines. His reference to them in 7:26-28 seems to indicate this as the time of his backsliding. He declared he had considered one by one and had not found a true woman - one who was pure and free from seductive traits, whereas, he had found one man among all his trusted servants. Compare this natural reasoning under the sun with the true teachings of a preacher who was not backslidden in heart (Mt. 6:25-34; Col. 3:1-4)

3 His general dissatisfaction with life (1:8; 4:8), indicates a backslidden heart. A true man of God will be satisfied and contented (Ps. 22:26; 36:8; Phil. 4:11; Heb. 13:5)

4 What he gave his heart over to during this time proves it was not right:
(1) He gave his heart to seek and search things done under the sun instead of devoting himself to the conversion of men to things above the sun (1:13)
(2) He gave his heart over to know madness and folly, something no true and sincere preacher will do (1:17)
(3) He gave his heart over to wine, folly, mirth and pleasure without restraint (2:1-3)
(4) He fulfilled all the lusts and passions, not withholding his heart from any kind of joy and pleasure (2:10)
(5) He deliberately caused his heart to despair (2:20)
(6) He gave his heart to know the wickedness of folly, and the foolishness of madness (7:25)

5 His self-exaltation proves that his heart was not right (1:16; 2:4-9). Solomon constantly referred to himself, using "I" 87 times, "me" 17 times, "my" and "myself" 25 times, and "mine" 9 times in 222 verses, as compared to the writing of John, the beloved preacher of the N. T. who used none of these personal pronouns in his entire Gospel of 879 verses

6 Being surprised that his wisdom still remained in him while his heart was in this condition indicates that he was not right (2:9)

7 His hatred of life shows that he had no peace with God (2:17). He actually praised the dead as being better off than the living (4:2-3)

8 His selfishness - worrying about leaving his works to others, after his death, proves he was not right in heart and had no love for others (2:18-19)

9 He gave some wrong advice concerning sin and principles of living, which no preacher in harmony with God will do

4 wrong principles he advocated:

(1) Enjoy mirth, pleasure, and wine - drinking and drunkenness (2:1-3; 9:7)
(2) Nothing better in life than to eat, drink, be merry (2:24-25; 8:15)
(3) Nothing better for a man than to rejoice in his own works (3:22) 19)
(4) Money answers all things (10:

10 He taught several false doctrines which he no doubt would not have taught had he been normal in his spiritual life:
(1) All things in life are vanity and vexation of spirit
(2) No new thing under the sun (1:9-10; 3:15). Because Solomon said this, some think that nothing whatsoever can be invented which did not exist in the past; but Daniel predicted an increase of knowledge, and this would indicate many new things (Dan. 12:4)
(3) No former things remembered (1:11). All things, good and bad, will be remembered and everyone will be judged for them (2 Cor. 5:9-10; Rev. 20:11-15)
(4) Crooked things cannot be made straight (1:15; 7:13). Not only is it possible to make things straight, but this has been done in all ages, both regarding material things and crooked ways of life. See Isa. 40:4; 42:16; 45:2; Lk. 3:5
(5) Increasing knowledge increases sorrow (1:18). This is true when knowledge is used in a wrong way as Solomon used his at various times in this book. When he used it in the right way it increased joy and brought rewards; even Solomon, himself recognized this (Pr. 1:5; 9:9). The N. T. encourages an increase in knowledge (2 Pet. 1:1-10; 3:18)
(6) No remembrance of the wise more than of the fool, and the past will be forgotten (1:11; 2:16). See statements to the contrary (Ps. 112:6; Mal. 3:16; 2 Cor. 5:9-10; Rev. 20:11-15)
(7) The day of death is better than the day of birth (7:1). This is not true of the wicked (Mt. 26:24; Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9)
(8) No just man upon the earth - one that does good and does not sin (7:20). This is contradicted by Rom. 5:1-11; 6:14-23; 8:1-13; 2 Cor. 5:17-21; 10:4-5; Tit. 2:11-13; 1 Pet. 2:21-22; 1 Jn. 1:7-9; 2:29; 3:5-10; 4:1-4, 18

Besides the above wrong principles and false doctrines, Solomon advocated many right things, for his wisdom remained with him during the period of backsliding, and when he respected what such wisdom revealed he gave good advice and uttered true facts

18 truths that Solomon stated:

(1) Eternal generations (1:4)
(2) Earth eternal (1:4)
(3) Sun circuits (1:5)
(4) Wind circuits (1:6)
(5) Water circuits (1:7)
(6) Wisdom excells folly (2:13)
(7) Seasons and times for all things (3:1-8)
(8) Creation made perfect (3:11)
(9) God is judge of man and will render to all their just dues (3:17; 5:7-8; 11:9; 12:14)
(10) Both men and beasts die physically and go back to dust (3:19; 6:6; 12:7; Gen. 2:7, 19; 3:19)
(11) Spirits of both men and beasts are not made of dust; and these go into the keeping of God at death (3:21; 12:7)
(12) Two are better than one (4:9-12)
(13) Better is a poor and wise child that will take correction than an old and foolish king that will not be admonished (4:13)
(14) The profit from the earth is for all men (5:9) 12-15)
(15) Riches are only temporary (5:
(16) A good name is better than precious ointments (7:1)
(17) Dead bodies know nothing (9:5)
(18) There is no human activity, such as work, in hell (9:10)

26 points of good advice he gave:

(1) Keep your foot from sin when you go to the house of God (5:1)
(2) Be more ready to hear than to give the sacrifice of fools (5:1)
(3) Do not make quick vows to God (5:2)
(4) Let your words be few before God (5:2)
(5) Be sure to pay vows to God (5:4)
(6) Better not to vow than to vow and refuse to pay it (5:5)
(7) Say not to the recording angel that your sin was only an error (5:6)
(8) Suffer not your mouth to cause your flesh to sin (5:6)
(9) Fear God (5:6; 8:12)
(10) Accept no bribe, for it destroys the heart (7:7)
(11) Be not hasty in your spirit to be angry like a fool (7:9)
(12) Be joyful in the day of prosperity; and in the day of adversity consider (7:14)
(13) Do not depend upon human merit or doing good as a basis of dealing with God (7:16)
(14) Do not pretend to be wise, for you will make yourself lonely (7:16)
(15) Be not wicked and foolish, for you will reap what you sow (7:17)
(16) Do not take to heart all the words that you hear, that is, do not be anxious to hear everything spoken, lest you hear something that will hurt you (7:21)
(17) Keep the king's commandment, as the oath of God (8:2)
(18) Do not be hasty in going from the presence of a king, lest you become an object of suspicion (8:3)
(19) Do not stand for any evil thing (8:3)
(20) Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might (9:10)
(21) In time of trouble, yield in order to pacify offence (10:4)
(22) Do not curse a king or a rich man, not even in your thought, for he will know of it (10:20)
(23) Cast your bread upon the water, for it will return after many days (11:1)
(24) Remove sorrow from your heart (11:10) (11:10)
(25) Put away evil from your flesh
(26) Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man (12:13-14)

Summary of Ezra

Date and place: written in Palestine 546-461 B. C., and perhaps right after the mixed marriages were annulled

Author: Jewish tradition ascribes the authorship of the entire book to Ezra. The first part (chs. 1-6) was probably compiled from public records; the latter portion, which is written in the first person (chs. 7-10) was likely added as the events transpired after the return of Ezra to Jerusalem. The book resembles the one by Daniel more than any other, possibly because both authors were Babylonian Jews

Proof of authorship: there is no more definite proof of authorship than the fact that the Jews have always taken it for granted that Ezra did this writing. He was president of the Great Synagogue and not only wrote this book, but helped settle the Canon of Jewish Scripture

Theme: the return of Jews from all the 13 tribes of Israel, the rebuilding of the temple, and the difficulties that faced the nation in respect to separation from the heathen world living around Palestine

Purpose: to record the first national regathering of Israel after the first dispersion among the Gentiles, and to show the problems connected with the new revival of religion conforming to the law of Moses

Statistics: 15th book of the Bible; 10 chapters; 280 verses; 7,441 words; no prophecy; no messages from God; no promises; 9 questions; 43 commands a All these - some of all classes in Israel who had come back from captivity. All, without exception, agreed to separate from their foreign wives and children by such women (v 44)

30 things considered vanity (Eccl. 1:2):

1 All things (v 2, 14; 2:11, 17; 3:19)
2 Man's labor under the sun (1:3)
3 Monotony of all things (1:8-11; 3:15) 13-14)
4 All things done under heaven (1:
5 Wisdom and knowledge (1:15-18)
6 Personal pleasures (2:1-3) 4-6)
7 Great public and private works (2:
8 Riches and glory (2:7-9) 11)
9 Unbridled lusts and passions (2:10-10 Wisdom, madness, and folly (2:12-11 Insecurity of works (2:18-19) 17)
12 Unworthy inheriters (2:20-21)
13 No personal profit from labors (2: 22-23) (2:24-26)
14 Hard life ending only in judgment
15 Weary round of life (3:1-22)
16 Oppression of poor (4:1-4)
17 Miser's life (4:7-8) 13-16) 18 No justice or lasting pleasure (4:
19 Love of money (5:10)
20 Riches saved by others (5:13-17)
21 No power to enjoy blessings of life (6:1-2)
22 Bringing up a large family and dying a pauper (6:3-6)
23 Desires and appetites never satisfied (6:7-9) 10-12) 24 Continual questions about life (6:
25 Oppression and sin (8:9-10)
26 Unequal rewards (8:14)
27 Man's ceaseless work (8:16-17)
28 Sameness of life (9:2-6)
29 Life itself (11:8)
30 Childhood and youth (11:9-10)

20 facts about God (Eccl. 1:13):

1 Gives men sore travail (1:13; 2: 10). See Gen. 3:17-19 20; 8:15)
2 Gives food and drink (2:24; 5:18-3 Gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy to men (2:26)
4 Gives travail to sinners (2:26)
5 Gives good appetite (3:13)
6 Gives riches (5:19; 6:2)
7 Creates all things (3:11; 7:13, 29; 8:17; 11:5)
8 His works are eternal (3:14)
9 Purpose of His works is that men should serve Him (3:14)
10 He is judge of all (3:15, 17; 5:6; 11:9; 12:14)
11 Convicts men (3:18)
12 Has a house (5:1)
13 Takes vows seriously (5:2-4)
14 To be feared (5:7; 7:18; 8:12-13; 12:13)
15 Sets a balance (7:14)
16 Those that please Him escape sin (7:18, 26)
17 To be obeyed (8:2)
18 Man's works are in His hand (9:1,7)
19 Spirit returns to Him (12:7)
20 Fearing and obeying Him is the whole duty of man (12:13-14)

5 personal vain things (Eccl. 2:22):

1 The laboring man spending a lifetime in hard labor (v 22)
2 Having vexation of heart all his days under the sun 23)
3 All his days being full of sorrows (v
4 His travail being for nothing but grief
5 Spending his nights in restlessness

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

Return of the Jews from Babylon under Nehemiah - Rebuilding of Jerusalem - Worship Restored

414 CHAPTER 1

I Third expedition: returning remnant under Nehemiah (1:1-2:10. Cp. Ezra 2: 1; 7:1). 1 Bad news from Jerusalem

THE [a]words of [b]Nĕ-he-mī'ah the son of Hăch-a-lī'ah. And it came to pass in the month [c]Chĭs'leū, in the [d]twentieth year, as I was in Shū'shan the palace,

2 That Hă-nā'nī, [e]one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Jū'dah; and I asked them concerning the [f]Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jē-rū'să-lĕm.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are [g]in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jē-rū'să-lĕm also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

2 Effects of the bad news on Nehemiah, cupbearer of Artaxerxes, king of Persia (vs. 11)

4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I [h]heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

3 Nehemiah's prayer to God

5 And said, [i]I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Iş'ra-el thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Iş'ra-el, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Mō'şes.

*8 Remember, I beseech thee, the [k]word that thou commandedst thy servant Mō'şes, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them [l]unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

CHAPTER 2 415

4 Answer to the prayer of 1:11: favor with the king

AND it came to pass in the month [a]Nī'san, in [b]the twentieth year of Ar-tăx-ĕrx'ēş the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, [c]Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then [d]I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: [e]why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For [f]what dost thou make request? So [g]I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Jū'dah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may [h]convey me over till I come into Jū'dah;

8 And a letter unto Ă'saph the keeper of the king's [i]forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the [j]wall of the city, and for the [k]house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

5 Journey and arrival at Jerusalem and letters delivered

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent [l]captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When [m]Săn-băl'lat the Hŏr'o-nīte, and [n]Tō-bī'ah the servant, the Ăm'mon-īte, heard of it, it [o]grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children a Some prophetical books begin with The words of, as in Jer. 1:1; Amos 1:1, but this is the only historical book that begins that way. Perhaps Nehemiah, while attaching his work to that of Ezra, marked the point at which his own composition began, in this manner (v 1) b Nehemiah, Jehovah has consoled, 3 so-called:

1 One of 12 men who were chiefs of the returning exiles (7:7; Ezra 2:2)
2 A ruler of half a district of Jerusalem who helped build the wall (3:16)
3 Cup-bearer of Artaxerxes, and governor of Jerusalem after Zerubbabel (v 1; 8:9; 10:1; 12:26, 47)
The office of royal cup-bearer was a place of great honor in the Persian court. Being in the daily presence of the king, and seeing him at his seasons of relaxation, the cup-bearer had many opportunities of gaining the good-will of the monarch and obtaining many favors which were denied others. Cup-bearers were generally eunuchs. They are often found represented on the Assyrian monuments, holding the cup in the left hand and a fly-flap made of split leaves of the palm, in the right hand. A long napkin, richly embroidered and fringed, is thrown over the left shoulder for the king to wipe his lips with. Solomon had cup-bearers to attend him (1 Ki. 10:5; 2 Chr. 9:4) c Chisleu, the 9th month (December)

d 20th year of Artaxerxes, p. 501

e One of my brethren. This suggests that Hanani was either an actual brother of Nehemiah or of close kin in the tribe of Judah, and that both were princes of this tribe (v 2)

f These Jews were those of the captivity that had returned under Zerubbabel and Ezra (v 2)

g The remnant in Judah were in great need and in much reproach. The wall of Jerusalem was broken down and the gates were burned with fire. This was the condition even after the temple was finished. As seen in the book of Ezra, the walls were being built gradually, but like the building of the temple, the work was long neglected until Nehemiah arrived to complete it (v 3)

h 6 acts of Nehemiah (v 4):
1 Heard the report
2 Sat down
3 Wept
4 Mourned certain days
5 Fasted
6 Prayed before God

i See Prayer of Nehemiah, p. 501

j Nehemiah prayed for the children of Israel who are called Jews in 1:2; 2:16; 4:1-2, 12; 5:1, 8, 17; 6:6; 13:23

k 1st prophecy in Neh. (1:8-9, v 8 fulfilled; 9 unfulfilled). Next, 2:20. The prediction about scattering has been and still is being fulfilled. The one about regathering was once fulfilled, but remains to be fulfilled again, and in fulness, in the gathering of Israel the second and final time under the Messiah (v 9; Isa. 11:10-12, notes)

l Palestine was the only place God ever promised Israel, and it is here where they are now being gathered. The so-called new promised lands of England and America have not been promised to the seed of Israel in any scripture. All God intended them to have was the land of Canaan and all that lies between the river Euphrates and the Mediterannean (Gen. 15:18-21; 17:8; Ezek. 47-48)

1 Grieving (2:10)
2 Laughter (2:19)
3 Wrath and indignation (4:1-3)
4 Fighting (4:7-8)
5 Subtlety or craft (6:1-2)
6 Compromise (6:5-7)

a Nisan was the name given by the Persian Jews to the month previously called Abib, the first month of the Jewish calendar (Apnu), and the 4th month after Chisleu of 1:1

b The 20th year (note d, 1:1)

c Questions 1-5, Next, v 19

d I was sore afraid. Nehemiah confessed that he had never been sad in the presence of the king before; and he no doubt sought to hide it on this occasion; but the sorrow for his people was so deep and complete that it showed on his countenance. Why he was afraid is not stated, but it is understandable because Persian kings were very exacting in their demands concerning servants. The ruler could have had him executed for this breach of court etiquette, instead of blessing him as the case was (v 2-8)

e Nehemiah was quick to speak up and tell the king why he was sad. The city of his fathers was in destruction and the gates consumed by fire (v 3)

f The king permitted Nehemiah to ask what he would, so he prayed God to touch the heart of the monarch to grant him his request. This was the second such prayer recorded here (v 4; 1:11)

g Nehemiah was a man of prayer (1:5-11; 2:4; 4:4-5; 5:19; 6:9, 14; 13:14, 22, 29, 31). His request to God had been that He would put it into the heart of the king to give him favor; and his request of the ruler now was that he might be permitted to return to the city of his fathers so he could build it (v 5). He received an answer from both God and man (v 6-8)

h This shows that Nehemiah did not go with either group of exiles-those that returned under Zerubbabel (Ezra 2: 1-70), or those under Ezra (Ezra 8), for he had no protection other than soldiers of the king and the various governors between Persia and Judah (v 7). Zerubbabel had gone back years earlier. Nehemiah returned about 69 or 70 years after Ezra did-in the 20th year of Artaxerxes (1:1; 2:1). It was customary in many parts of the East to obtain letters of recommendation, or orders for safe conduct, when the traveller desired to visit different districts under one central authority. Without these he could not travel in comfort of safety; but having them, those to whom he presented them were bound to protect him. Thus Nehemiah was able to travel safely throughout the Persian empire

i Heb. pardes, park; paradise; orchards; garden (v 8; Eccl. 2:5; Song 4:13)

j The walls of the city are the main subject of Nehemiah, as the temple is the subject of Ezra k The palace and house of this verse refer to the fortress and the temple. The fortress appertained to the temple (v 8)

l Nehemiah had a royal escort from Persia to Judah-captains of the army and horsemen (v 9)

m Sanballat, the enemy is secret. He was an enemy of the Jews, the nation of Israel, after the captivities. He opposed Nehemiah in the building of the wall of Jerusalem (2:10, 19; 4:1, 7; 6: 1-14; 13:28). An Aramaic papyrus discovered at Elephantine, Egypt, written by two Jews (Delaya and Shelemya) to the sons of Sanballat, who is called governor of Samaria, is dated the 17th year of Darius Hystaspis, Darius I-about 11 years after the completion of the temple and about 58 years before the coming of Nehemiah to Jerusalem. This would make him perhaps 85 or 90 years old at the time of Nehemiah in Jerusalem. He is called a Horonite and this may refer to Beth-horon or Horonaim; he was perhaps a Moabite n Tobiah, Jehovah is good. 4 Tobiah's:

1 Servant of Sanballat; he was an Ammonite (2:10; 4:3, 7)
2 A Levite (2 Chr. 17:8)
3 A returned exile (Neh. 7:62)
4 Another returned exile (Zech. 6: 10-14)

o 6 forms the opposition took:

a Again the term the children of Israel is used of Judah and the Jews of the new restored nation (v 10)
b The three days rest for Nehemiah (v 11) and three days for the exiles under Ezra may have been the normal time of rest from such a long journey (Ezra 8:32)
c These were not the only men in Jerusalem; there were but a few with him on this inspection tour by night (v 12)
d He could have a few men with him on such a tour without informing any one of them what was in his heart to do at Jerusalem (v 12)
e This means no extra beast, for the few men with him also rode animals (v 12)
f 12 gates of Jerusalem:
1 The valley gate (2:13; 3:13)
2 The gate of the fountain (2:14; 3:15; 12:37)
3 The sheep gate (3:1; 12:39)
4 The fish gate (3:3; 12:39)
5 The old gate (3:6; 12:39)
6 The dung gate (2:13; 3:14; 12:31)
7 The water gate (3:25, 26)
8 The horse gate (3:28)
9 The east gate (3:29)
10 The gate of Miphkad (3:31)
11 The gate of Ephraim (8:16; 12:39)
12 The prison gate (12:39)
g The exact tour of Nehemiah has long been in dispute, but it appears that he started near the pool of Bethesda on the east of the city, and proceeded northward, then westward and southward, and finally eastward to the pool of Siloam (v 12-16). What they viewed was not the outer wall but the inner wall of the city of David, which included the temple area h Here we have mention of rulers, priests, and nobles of the Jews; and this indicates it as a time after the return of those under Zerubbabel and Ezra. Before then there were no rulers, priests, or Levites in Jerusalem, according to what we have on record (v 16) i Called Gashmu (6:6), an Arab Sheik; one of the descendants of Hagar and Ishmael, called Hagarenes. See Index
j Questions 6-7. Next, 4:2
k 2nd and last prophecy in Neh. (2:20, fulfilled). The one prediction was that God would prosper the people in the work l 3 things not for the heathen (v 20):
1 No portion in Jerusalem
2 No right in Jerusalem
3 No memorial in Jerusalem
m Then-when the work on the walls and gates was begun again, Eliashib, the high priest and the other priests joined the workers and built the sheep gate (v 1) n Eliashib, God restores. 7 Eliashib's:
1 A high priest after the captivity (3:1, 20, 21; 13:4, 7, 28)
2 A priest in David's time (1 Chr. 24:12)
3 Descendant of Zerubbabel (1 Chr. 3:24)
4 A Levite singer (Ezra 10:24)
5 Son of Zattu (Ezra 10:27)
6 Son of Bani (Ezra 10:26)
7 One of Ezra's helpers (12:10-23; Ezra 10:6)
o The sheep gate was located at the northeast corner of the temple area, and was so-called because the sheep for sacrifice were brought in here (v 1. Cp. Jn. 5:2) p Sanctified-set it apart for sacred uses. Thus gates and other material things which have no sin problem, can be sanctified (v 1). See Sanctification in Index

3 classes of enemy officers (Isa. 33:18):
1 The scribe-the officer that counted, numbered, wrote and mustered the men for war, and listed the spoils
2 The receiver-the one who weighed the spoils of war and the wages for the soldiers
3 He that counted the towers-the one who made an estimate of the strength of cities to be besieged

4 things God will be to Judah (Isa. 33:22):
1 Their Judge (v 22; 11:4-9; 9:6-7)
2 Lawgiver (v 22; 2:2-4)
3 King (v 22; 2:2-4; 9:7; Zech. 14:9)
4 Saviour (v 22; 43:3, 11; 45:15, 21; 49:26; 60:16; 63:8; Hos. 13:4)

11 So I came to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and was there [b]three days.

II Restoration work on Jerusalem (2:12-3:32). 1 Inspection trip by night

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some [c]few men with me; neither [d]told I any man what my God hath put in my heart to do at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm: [e]neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.
13 And I went out by night by the [f]gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.
14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.
15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and [g]so returned.
16 And the [h]rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

2 Work begun on the walls of Jerusalem

17 [i] Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, that we be no more a reproach.
18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

3 Ridicule by enemies

19 But when Săn-băl'lat the Hŏr'o-nīte, and Tō'bī'ah the servant, the Ăm'mon-īte, and Gē'shem the [i]Ă-rā'bī-an, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and [i]said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?
*20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, [k]The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but [l]ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

416 CHAPTER 3

4 Builders of the wall of Jerusalem. (1) The sheep gate and walls

THEN [m]Ĕ-lī'a-shīb the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the [o]sheep gate; [p]they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Mē'ah they sanctified it, unto the [q]tower of Hă-năn'e-el.
2 And next unto him builded the [r]men of Jĕr'ī-chō. And next to them builded Zăc'cur the son of Im'rī.

(2) Builders of the fish gate and walls

3 But the [s]fish gate did the sons of Hăs-se-nā'ah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the [t]locks thereof, and the bars thereof.
4 And next unto them repaired Mĕr'e-mŏth the son of Ū-rī'jah, the son of Kŏz. And next unto them repaired Mĕ-shūl'lam the son of Bĕr-e-chī'ah, the son of Mē-shĕz'a-beel. And next unto them repaired Zā'dŏk the son of Bā'a-nā.
5 And next unto them the Tē-kō'ītes repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

(3) Builders of the old gate and walls

6 Moreover the [u]old gate repaired Jē-hoi'a-dā the son of Pā-sē'ah, and Mē-shūl'lam the son of Bĕs-o-dē'iah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.
7 And next unto them repaired Mĕl-a-tī'ah the Gĭb'e-on-īte, and Jā'dŏn the Mē-rŏn'o-thīte, the men of Gĭb'e-on, and of Mĭz'pah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river.
8 Next unto him repaired Uz'zī-el the son of Hăr-ha-ī'ah, of the [v]goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hăn-a-nī'ah the son of one of the [w]apothecaries, and they fortified Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm unto the broad wall.
9 And next unto them repaired Rĕph-a-ī'ah the son of Hūr, [x]the ruler of the half part of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.
10 And next unto them repaired Jē-dā'iah the son of Hă-rū'maph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hăt'tush the son of Hăsh-ab-nī'ah.
11 Măl-chī'jah the son of Hā'rim, and Hă'shub the son of Pā'hath-mō'ab, repaired the other piece, and [y]the tower of the furnaces.
12 And next unto him repaired Shăl'lum the son of Hă-lō'hesh, the ruler of the half part of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, he and [z]his daughters.

(4) Builders of the valley gate and walls

13 The valley gate repaired Hā'nŭn, and the inhabitants [a]of Zā-nō'ah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and [b]a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.

(5) Builders of the dung gate and walls a This place will figure in future fulfillment of prophecy (Jer. 31:38; Zech. 14:10). The 2 towers, Meah and Hananeel, were on either side of the sheep gate b It must be remembered that many of the 44, 114 registered men that came back (42, 360 with Zerubbabel, as in Ezra 2, and 1, 754 with Ezra as in ch. 8) did not settle in Jerusalem but in many other cities and places in Israel (Ezra 2:70; 3:1; 4:10; 10:14; Neh. 7:73; 8:15; 9:25; 10:37; 11:1-3, 20, 36; 12:44). 32 cities outside Jerusalem are listed in 11:20-26. This accounts for there being but a few people in Jerusalem and explains why the city was so long in being rebuilt (1:3; 2:3; 7:1-4). Each small group of exiles sought to build their own homes and city again, so Jerusalem was neglected for many years. They even had to draft men from other cities to live in Jerusalem (11:1-2). Many from the various places helped rebuild the temple but the city itself with streets and walls were not completed at that time. When Nehemiah came back for the express purpose of rebuilding the walls to make the city secure, he found it thus-that the temple had already been completed (2:8; 3:10; 6:10; 8:16; 10:32-39; 11:1-22; 12:40; 13:4-14). How could all these things be said of the temple if it had not been built yet, and if the events of Neh. 1:1-7:4 happened before the days of Cyrus, as taught by some?

Men of other cities came to help complete the walls-men of Jericho (v 2), Tekoah (v 5), Gibeon (v 7), Mizpah (v 7), Zanoah (v 13), Beth-zur (v 16), Keilah (v 17-18), and men of the plain (v 22). Before they came though, they made their own homes and cities livable; and it took several years to build up what had been destroyed over a period of many years. It is thus understandable why the walls of Jerusalem were not completed up to the 20th year of Artaxerxes, 69 or 70 years after Ezra and a group of exiles returned from captivity c The fish gate was so-called because the fish from the Jordan and the sea of Galilee were brought through it into Jerusalem. It was located in the north wall (v 3) d This refers to the cross bars that held the gate shut from within the wall. The word bars refers to the hooks or catches holding the cross-bar at its two ends (v 3)
e The old gate was either the modern Damascus gate, or the main entrance to the city on the north side, or a gate further eastward (v 3-5)
f This means that the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, though they worked for Nehemiah, were not under his government; they were subject to the Persian governor this side of the Euphrates (v 7)
g The refiners of metal h Men who made perfume
i It seems that large places were divided into halves with certain rulers being under the governor (v 9, 12, 16-18)
j This was either a tower at the northwestern corner of the city, or on the western wall. The origin of the name is not known (v 12). Since the duties of shepherds often led them into wild districts where their lives were in danger from wandering bands, it became necessary to erect towers into which they might retire for safety, and from which they could drive off marauders. Cp. 2 Chr. 27:4. Towers were also built in vineyards (Mt. 21:33)
k This shows that even women were pressed into service in repairing the walls and implies a concerted effort on the part of all the people who could possibly be spared from other duties. The purpose was to complete the repairs as soon as possible for there were many enemies seeking to hinder the new nation in its regeneration, even though Israel had the king's favor l Zanoah was located about 10 miles west of Jerusalem (v 13; 11:30; Josh. 15:34, 56; 1 Chr. 4:18)
m 1,000 cubits or 2,083 ft. 4 in., counting 25 in. to the cubit (v 13)

a The dung gate was perhaps so-called because more refuse was carried out here to the general dump heap than was carried out through any other. Anyone going to the mount of Olives or Jericho could witness such a dump heap against the wall; it existed for generations. The first mention of dung is in connection with sacrifices. The law required that the dung, and certain parts of the animal were not to be burned on the altar, but outside the camp Ex. 29:14; Lev. 4:11; 8:17; 16:27; Num. 19:5). The fertilizing value of dung is mentioned in Scripture (Lk. 13:8). Dung was used as fuel (Ezek. 4:12-15). During the summer, in some villages, it was gathered and mixed with straw, made into cakes and dried, and used for heat in the winter or for cooking all through the year where there was no wood, or other fuel. It burned slowly like peat and met the needs in various places. In Scripture, there is no idea of uncleanness associated with the use of animal dung when thus prepared and dried in the hot sun. The word dung is used frequently in the Bible, expressing worthlessness or referring to a perishable article--something no one cares about (1 Kl. 14:10; 2 Kl. 6:25; 9:37; Job 20:7; Ps. 83:10; Jer. 8:2; 9:22; 16:4; 25:33; Zeph. 1:17; Phil. 3:8). The word dung-hill is used in the same way (1 Sam. 2:8; Ezra 6:11; Ps. 113:7; Isa. 25:10; Dan. 2:5; 3:29; Lk. 14:35). It is also an expression of disgust (2 Kl. 18:27; Isa. 36:12) and rebuke (Mal. 2:3)

b The fountain gate was the one near the pool of Siloah (v 15). It is called the water of Shiloah (Isa. 8:6), and the pool of Siloam (Jn. 9:7. Cp. Lk. 13:4). It was not until the time of Hezekiah that the great tunnel aqueduct, Siloam's most famous work, was made (2 Kl. 20:20; 2 Chr. 32:30) c This flight of steps led from the lower valley up the steep side of Ophel to the city of David which it reached probably at the point not far south of where the temple stood (v 15)

d These tombs were in Zion, and included those of many kings of Judah (v 16; 1 Kl. 2:10; 11:43; 15:8, 24; 22:50; 2 Kl. 8:24; 9:28; 12:21; 14:20; 15:7, 38; 16:20)

e Keilah, about 15 miles southeast of Jerusalem, in the Hebron mountains

f This refers to the armoury or fortress at the corner of the wall (v 19)

g Eliashib, God restores. See note n, 3:10

h The fact that Eliashib was high priest at this time proves that the time of Nehemiah was long after the rebuilding of the temple, for Joshua or Jeshua was high priest when the temple was completed. See 86 high priests, p. 236

i The word plain is nearly always used of the Jordan valley (v 22)

j The Netinims were the wood and water carriers for the temple so they lived in Ophel near the water supply k The water gate was the one by the Virgin's Fount near Gihon spring, on the east side of Ophel in the Kedron valley.

Wrath on Judah (Isa. 51:21)

Judah and Jerusalem are pictured here as staggering, reeling, and falling down like a drunkard, but not with wine. They had drunk the cup of the Lord's wrath and the dregs of the cup trembling (v 17). This wrath had brought desolation, destruction, famine, and sword upon the whole nation (v 19). They had fainted at the head of every street and were like a wild bull caught in a net which it was trying to rend in order to free itself. The entire nation was full of the fury of Jehovah and the rebuke of God (v 20; Lam. 4:4-5). God now assured this afflicted and prostrate nation that He, Himself would plead the cause of the people and take out of their hand the cup of trembling and the dregs of His fury. They would not drink it anymore; and He would put the cup into the hands of their enemies, for them to drink (v 21-23). This same idea is found in Jer. 25:15-29; 49:12; 51:7-10; Lam. 4:21; Ezek. 23:31-33; Hab. 2:16

14 But the[a] dung gate repaired Măl'chī'ah the son of Rē'chăb, the ruler of part of Bĕth-hăc'-çe-rĕm; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

(6) Builders of the fountain gate and walls

15 But the gate of the[b] fountain repaired Shăl'lun the son of Cŏl-hō'zeh, the ruler of part of Mĭz'pah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Sĭ-lō'ah by the king's garden, and unto [c] the stairs that go down from the city of Dā'vid.

16 After him repaired Nĕ-hemī'ah the son of Āz'bŭk, the ruler of the half part of Bĕth'-zûr, unto the place over against the [d] sepulchres of Dā'vid, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

17 After him repaired the Lē'-vites, Rē'hum the son of Bā'nī. Next unto him repaired Hăsh-a-bī'ah, the ruler of the half part [e] of Kē'i-lah, in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren, Băv'a-ī the son of Hĕn'a-dăd, the ruler of the half part of Kē'i-lah.

19 And next to him repaired Ē'zĕr the son of Jĕsh'u-á, the ruler of Mĭz'pah, another piece over against the going up to [f] the armoury at the turning of the wall.

20 After him Bā'ruch the son of Zăb'bāi earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of [g] Ē-lī'a-shīb [h] the high priest.

21 After him repaired Mĕr'e-mŏth the son of Ū-rī'jah the son of Kŏz another piece, from the door of the house of Ē-lī'a-shīb even to the end of the house of Ē-lī'a-shīb.

22 And after him repaired the priests, the men of [i] the plain.

23 After him repaired Bĕn'ja-mĭn and Ha'shub over against their house. After him repaired Āz-a-rī'ah the son of Mā-a-sē'iah the son of Ăn-a-nī'ah by his house.

24 After him repaired Bĭn'-nu-ī the son of Hĕn'a-dăd another piece, from the house of Āz-a-rī'ah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.

(7) Builders of the prison gate and walls

25 Pā'lal the son of Ū'za-ī, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pĕ-dā'iah the son of Pā'rŏsh.

(8) Builders of the water gate and walls

26 Moreover the [j] Nĕth'ĭ-nĭms dwelt in Ō'phel, unto the place over against the [k] water gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

27 After them the Tē-kō'ites repaired another piece, over against [a] the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ō'phel.

(9) Builders of the horse gate and walls

28 From above the [b] horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

(10) Builders of the east gate and walls

29 After them repaired Zā'dŏk the son of Ĭm'mēr over against his house. After him repaired also Shĕm-a-ī'ah the son of Shĕch-a-nī'ah, the keeper of the [c] east gate.

30 After him repaired Hăn-a-nī'ah the son of Shĕl-e-mī'ah, and Hā'nŭn the sixth son of Zā'laph, another piece. After him repaired Mē-shūl'lam the son of Bĕr-e-chī'ah over against his chamber.

(11) Builders of the Miphkad gate and walls

31 After him repaired Măl-chī'ah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nĕth'ĭ-nĭms, and of the merchants, over against the gate Mĭph'kăd, and to the going up of the corner.

(12) Builders of the walls of the sheep gate

32 And between the going up of the corner unto [d] the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

CHAPTER 4 417

III Building of Jerusalem hindered (4:1-23). Cp. hindrance on the temple (Ezra 4:1-24). 1 Opposition by ridicule

BUT it came to pass, that when Săn-băl'lat heard that we builded the wall, [e] he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Sā-mā'rĭ-a, and said, [f] What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now Tō-bī'ah the Ăm'monīte was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

2 Ridicule overcome by prayer and work

4 [g] Hear, O our God: for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they

a The great tower, perhaps the tower of of Siloam (Lk. 13:4) b The horse gate was southeast of the temple and close to the city of David, which originally was the Jebusite fortress and later included the entire southeastern hill (2 Sam. 5:7; 1 Chr. 11:5). The gate was so-named perhaps because of the many horses connected with the kings of Israel and with the city of David (v 28)

c The east gate was east of the temple connected with it (v 29)

d See note o, 3:1

e 7fold opposition to building the walls:
1 By anger (v 1)
2 By ridicule (v 1-3)
3 By conspiracy and war (v 7-8)
4 By continual threatening (v 10-23)
5 By craftiness (6:1-4)
6 By accusation (6:5-9)
7 By treachery (6:10-14)

f Questions 8-12. Next, 5:8

g Prayer-5 requests:
1 Hear, O our God (v 4)
2 Turn their reproach upon their own head (v 4)
3 Give them for a prey in the land of captivity
4 Cover not their iniquity (v 5)
5 Let not their sin be blotted out from before You

20th year of Artaxerxes (1:1)

20th year-92 years after the Babylonian captivity of 70 years. Darius the Mede, the Ahasuerus of Esther 1:1, and father of Cyrus, reigned 2 years after the fall of Babylon. Cyrus reigned 9 years; Cambyses 7; Darius I 35; Xerxes 21; and Artaxerxes 20 years before Nehemiah was sent back to Jerusalem to complete the walls (1:1-7:4). There is controversy regarding when Nehemiah went to Jerusalem, some believing that it was about 45 years after the beginning of the Babylonian captivity, or about 35 years after the captivity of Jehoiachin, or 23 years from the destruction of Jerusalem; but this could not be. His first coming to Jerusalem was evidently in the 20th year of Artaxerxes who reigned 464-424 B.C. The signing of the covenant of ch. 10 could have been after he came to the city, for as governor at that time it would be natural for him to sign it. His signing does not mean that he was present in the 7th year of Darius I, some 60-70 years before, when Ezra came to Jerusalem. No doubt many signed the covenant as they came from time to time. See Kings of Persia, p. 490; 879

Prayer of Nehemiah (1:5)

1 To whom addressed: O Lord God of heaven, the great and terrible God (v 5)
2 God's character: You keep covenant and mercy for them that love You and keep Your commandments
3 6 requests:
(1) Let Your ear now be attentive (v 6)
(2) Let Your eyes be open
(3) Remember, I beseech You, the word commanded to Moses (v 8)
(4) Let now Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servants (v 11)
(5) Prosper Your servant this day
(6) Grant him mercy in the sight of this man (the king)
4 Confession:
(1) I pray before You day and night
(2) I confess the sins of Israel (v 6)
(3) We have all sinned against You
(4) My father's house and I have sinned
(5) We have dealt very corruptly against You (v 7)
(6) We have not kept Your commandments
(7) We have not kept Your statutes
(8) We have not kept Your judgments
5 Conditions of blessing:
(1) Turn to Me (v 9)
(2) Keep My commandments
(3) Do them
6 Promises and prophecy (v 9):
(1) I will gather you
(2) I will bring you to the place where I have chosen to set My name a The descendants of Hagar and Ishmael b These, no doubt, were the remnant of the Philistines who had fought with Israel so many times through the centuries

c Actual war preparations were made to fight the Jews, but through their prayer and constant vigilance to strike back, the threat of war ceased (v 7-12)
d This was a literal fulfillment of Dan. 9:25, about the wall and street being built again in troublous times (v 13-23)

3 things God will create (Isa. 4:5):

1 A pillar of cloud by day and fire by night upon every dwelling place of mount Zion-a visible, eternal symbol and manifestation of His presence over every home like that over Israel when He brought them out of Egypt (v 5; Zech. 2:5. Cp. Ex. 13:21; 40:38)

2 A pillar of cloud by day and fire by night upon every holy convocation of Israel in Jerusalem throughout all eternity to come (v 5; Zech. 2:5)

3 A tabernacle or covering over all the people to protect them from the excessive heat of the sun, and as a covering from storm and rain (v 6). It must be remembered that the light of the sun will be increased 7fold, and the light of the moon will be as our present light of the sun in the Millennium and forever (30:26). Then there will be a need for such protection from the rays of the sun. This tabernacle will perhaps be like the canopy which scientists tell us is now over the whole earth to difuse the rays of the sun to keep them from destroying us. It seems that the sun, moon, and stars which regulate day and night, seasons, and climates on earth will be made normal again, as before the curse in the days of Adam (Gen. 1:14-18; 8:22; Ps. 89:35-37; Jer. 31:35-36)

16 reasons for Judah's destruction (Isa. 5:24):

1 Producing wrong kind of fruit (v 4)
2 Unbearable oppression of poor (v 7)
3 Covetousness (v 8)
4 Drunkenness (v 11)
5 Pleasures of sin (v 12)
6 No regard for God's word
7 No consideration of His cause
8 Wilful ignorance (v 13)
9 Pride and boastfulness (v 14)
10 Multiplied sins (v 18)
11 Defiance of God (v 19)
12 Deadened and seared conscience (v 20)
13 Pride and self-conceit (v 21)
14 Drunken judges that justified the wicked and condemned the righteous for reward (v 22-23)
15 Casting away the law of God (v 24)
16 Despising the word of God

16 judgments upon Judah (Isa. 5:25):

1 Complete destruction (v 5)
2 Land laid waste (v 6)
3 Thorns and briers
4 No rain
5 Woes upon the people (v 8,11, 18-23)
6 Many houses destroyed-desolate, without inhabitants (v 9)
7 Famine and crop failures (v 10)
8 Captivity to Babylon (v 13, 29)
9 Famine and thirst (v 13)
10 Punishment in hell (v 14)
11 Humbling of all classes (v 15-16)
12 Human habitations made pastures for animals (v 17)
13 Conquerors enjoying the riches of the wealthy 14 Destruction by fire (v 24)
15 Destruction of the people (v 25)
16 Invasion by foreign nations to make the whole desolate, dark, and sorrowful (v 26-30)

16fold description of Babylonian invaders (Isa. 5:26):

1 They shall come from afar (v 26)
2 They shall come with great speed
3 None of them shall be weary (v 27)
4 None shall stumble among them
5 None shall slumber nor sleep
6 Their loins shall be tightened
7 Their shoes will be fully laced
8 Their arrows will be sharp (v 28)
9 Their bows will be bent, ready to slay as they come flint
10 Their horses' hoofs shall be like 11 Their wheels like a whirlwind have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

3 Opposition by conspiracy and anger

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that when Săn-băl'lat, and Tō-bī'ah, and the [a]Ă-rā'bī-ans, and the [b]Ăm'mon-ites, and the [b]Ăsh'dod-ites, heard that the walls of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And [c]conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and to hinder it.

4 Threat of war overcome by prayer and preparedness

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

5 Opposition by threatening

10 And Jū'dah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

6 Constant threatening overcome by constant preparedness

13 ¶ Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families [d]with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

●14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Jū'dah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 ¶ And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the [e]rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge [b]within Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, [c]none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

418 CHAPTER 5

IV Oppression in Judah put down (5:1-19). 1 Oppression discovered by Nehemiah

AND there was [a]a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

2 Nehemiah's plan to stop oppression of the Jews

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and [c]will ye even [f]sell your brethren? or shall they be sold a Long days were spent in rebuilding the walls-sun-up to sun-down and that without sit-down strikes and other work stoppages over minor differences as we sometimes see today (v 21). The people had a mind to work (v 6) b This lodging in Jerusalem has no possible meaning of scarcity of houses, as some teach. Such a large place as there was within the walls would take care of many thousands more than the people who had come back from captivity under Zerubbabel and Ezra, many of whom had settled in other cities outside Jerusalem. There were few inhabitants, comparatively speaking, and large spaces where no houses were yet built (7:4, note)

c For 52 days none of the workers put off their clothes except for washing them and taking baths (v 23; 6:15) d This cry from the common people was against the leaders, rulers, and money-lenders, who were oppressing them. Nehemiah acted swiftly and justly to put down all injustice and oppression in Israel. He rebuked the nobles and rulers for lending money on interest, and demanded that all land taken from Jews be returned at once (v 1-11). The nobles complied and all oppression ceased (v 12-19)
e Questions 13-15, Next, 6:3
f Selling brethren was a heartless thing to do even if it was lawful to pay a debt. It showed utter lack of love on the part of any who had this advantage over some poor man. No doubt bitter feelings were created many times by such a lack of interest in helping a poor person in his time of need. It is true that all slaves were automatically released in the sabbatic year and in the year of jubile, but this could not and did not do away with bitter feelings between brethren. Nehemiah's plan here to stop unjust practices among brethren was undoubtedly the will of God

12 Their battle cry like the roaring of lions upon their prey (v 29)
13 They shall lay hold of their prey like lions 14 They shall carry their prey away to a safe place
15 None shall deliver their captives out of their hands
16 They shall roar against Judah like the roaring of the sea (v 30)
17 There will be darkness and sorrow over all the land 18 Even the heavens will be darkened

6fold description of Jehovah (Isa. 6:1):

1 I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up (v 1)
2 His train filled the temple
3 Above the throne stood seraphims calling: Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is filled with His glory (v 3)
4 The posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried (v 4)
5 The house was filled with smoke
6 I heard the voice of Jehovah (v 8-13)

7 facts about God's throne (Isa. 6:1):

1 God is spoken of as sitting on a throne 14 times (v 1; 1 Ki. 22:19; 2 Chr. 18:18; Ps. 9:4; 47:8; Dan. 7:9; Rev. 4:2, 10; 5:1, 7, 13; 6:16; 19:4; 21:5)
2 It is now in heaven (Ps. 11:4)
3 It is called Thy throne (Ps. 89: 14; 93:2; 132:12)
4 It is called His throne (Ps. 97:2; 103:19; 132:12; Dan. 7:9; Rev. 1:4; 3: 21; 12:5)
5 It is called the throne of God (Mt. 23:22; Heb. 12:2; Rev. 7:9-17; 21:1-3)
6 It is called the throne of grace (Heb. 4:16)
7 It is called the throne of His majesty (Heb. 8:1)

The Heb. Adonai, trans. Lord in v 1, 8, 11 means the Lord in relation to the earth; Ruler; Master. This person is also called Jehovah in v 3, 5, 12. John spoke of Isaiah seeing the Messiah, Jesus Christ on this occasion (Jn. 12:41), proving that the names Adonai and Jehovah also apply to the Second Person of the Divine Trinity as they do to the Father a Such is good advice at any time. This principle should be the ruling one of our lives in Christ, lest we bring reproach upon God and the gospel (v 9). Only by a godly life can we set an example to sinners and build up confidence in God that He will answer our prayers

b The hundredth part. It was the custom in those days to pay one per cent per month, or 12 per cent yearly. The law forbad taking any interest from a brother (Ex. 22:25; Lev. 25:36)

c The lap was a fold made in the outer garment, near the breast; and it was used to hold various articles. To shake this was equal to a curse, and to empty it was a significant suggestion of utter extermination. It is said that the natives of India always carried a pouch made of leaves of the cocoa or some other tree, in their lap, and that they were careful never to have the pouch empty. They also shook the lap of the robe when they cursed one another. We are told that when the Roman ambassadors proposed a choice of peace or war to the Carthaginians they used a similar ceremony. Entering the senate of Carthage with their toga gathered up in their bosom, they said, "We carry here peace and war; you will have what you will." The senate replied, "You may have which you please." The Romans shook their toga, and said, "We bring you war." It was in this way that Nehemiah suggested to the money-lenders of his time their utter extermination if they failed to keep the covenant of restitution which they had made. See note m, Lk. 6:38; Acts 18:6

d Nehemiah and those with him, called my brethren, supported themselves for 12 years, not taking the usual pay and support as other governors and leaders had done (v 14). Besides this-taking no salary, flour, wine, or anything else from the people, Nehemiah bought no land for himself; his servants worked without pay; and he fed 150 Jews and rulers at his table daily, besides many others who came to him from the heathen to settle in Jerusalem (v 14-19)

e 40 shekels of silver at 64¢ each would be $25.60 in our money. Whether this was a daily, weekly, monthly, or yearly salary in money is not stated. It may have been daily, for it speaks of the daily cost of food for Nehemiah's household (v 18)

f Nehemiah's daily food bill:

1 ox @ $325.00	$325.00
6 sheep @ $20.00	120.00
Fowls (number not known)
Wine (amount not known)
Total est. daily cost	$445.00

The meat bill alone for a year would be $162,425.00, and for the 12 years, $1,949,100.00. This could not have been afforded by a poor man, so we have reason to suppose that Nehemiah was very wealthy or received a great amount yearly from Artaxerxes, who had permitted him to come to Jerusalem to repair the city of his fathers

g This is all he asked of Jehovah for the many years of service and blessing to the people in the restoration. If granted, which no doubt it was, it was after all, a great return for service; for God could not think upon anyone for good without the person receiving an abundance of His blessing (v 19)

Threshing grain (Isa. 28:27)

Here we have mention of several methods of threshing the various crops:

1 Fitches or peas were threshed by beating them with a staff (v 27)

2 Cummin seeds were beaten out with a rod (v 27). Even wheat was threshed this way when there was a small amount (Ruth 1:17) and when it was necessary to hide the wheat from the enemy (Judg. 6:11)

3 Wheat, barley, and rye were threshed by trampling them under feet of oxen (Dt. 25:4), by riding a sled over the sheaves, then using a fork to throw the straw up so the grain would fall to the ground, or by rolling over the sheaves with a cart having 3 or 4 heavy rollers of wood, stone, or iron (v 28; 21:15; 2 Sam. 24:22; 1 Chr. 21:23; Pr. 20:26) unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: [a]ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

●11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the [b]hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

3 Nehemiah's plan accepted and oppression stopped

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also I [c]shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Â-mĕn', and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

4 Nehemiah's governorship of Judah for twelve years

14 ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Jū'dah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Ăr-tăx-ērx'ēş the king, that is, [d]twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside [e]forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

19 [f]Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAPTER 6 419

V Building of Jerusalem further hindered (6:1-19. Cp. 4:1-23). 1 Opposition by craft

NOW it came to pass, when Săn-băl'lat, and Tō-bī'ah, and Ğē'shem the Ă-rā'bĭ-an, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)

2 That Săn-băl'lat and Ğē'shem sent unto me, saying, Come, [a]let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ō'nō. But they thought to do me mischief.

2 Craftiness overcome by wisdom and work

3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: [b]why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

3 Opposition by accusation

5 Then sent Săn-băl'lat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an [c]open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, [d]It is reported among the heathen, and Găsh'mū saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, saying, There is a [e]king in Jū'dah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

4 Accusation overcome by prayer and self-control

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. [f]Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

5 Opposition by treachery (vss. 12-14)

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shĕm-a-ī'ah the son of Dĕl-a-ī'ah the son of Mĕ-hĕt'a-beel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

6 Treachery overcome by prayer and bravery a The enemies of Israel requested Nehemiah to meet with them in some village in the plain of Ono, thinking to stop the work by assassinating him, but he was wise enough to say "No" (v 2). He sent messengers instead who said for him, "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down" (v 3). The opposers sent the same proposal 4 times, then sent a letter (v 4-5), but were rebuffed each time

b Question 16, Next, v 11

c The first mention of a letter in Scripture is the one David sent to Joab (2 Sam. 11:14). We also read of the letters which Jezebel wrote in the name of Ahab (1 Ki. 21:8). The king of Syria wrote a letter to the king of Israel (2 Ki. 5:5-7). Jehu also wrote letters (2 Ki. 10:1). On what substance these letters were written is not known. Perhaps it was skins dressed for the purpose, or palm-leaves, or papyrus, the use of which is now known to have been very ancient with the Egyptians. Letters from Persia to persons of distinction, after being rolled up in a scroll, were generally inclosed in a bag or purse which was sometimes made of very elegant and costly material. The end of the purse was then tied, closed over with clay or wax, and sealed (see Isa. 8:16; 29:11; Dan. 12:4, 9; Rev. 5:4, 9; 10:4; 22:10) d This was open accusation of planned rebellion against Persia; but it was denied. This was only an effort to force the Jews into counsel which they had already rejected 4 times (v 4-7)

e There was to be no king of David's line in Judah from Coniah, or Jehoiachin to the coming of the Messiah (Jer. 22:24-30, notes)

f Nehemiah, like a true man of God, prayed in every time of trouble; and God, as in all cases of true men of faith, answered all his prayers (note g, 2:4)

3 acts of God concerning Judah (Isa. 29:10):

1 He has poured out the spirit of deep sleep upon Judah
2 He has closed their eyes
3 He has covered the rulers and seers of Judah so they cannot see

This could only mean that God allowed the Jews to become blind to spiritual things and hard in heart toward Him, not that an act of God deliberately and wilfully made them blind. They closed their own minds and hardened their own hearts without God's interference; and their hearts became gross, their ears dull of hearing, their eyes blind, and their other faculties arrested in development according to their rejection of His program. This is the way Paul interprets this passage which is quoted in Rom. 11:8. Isaiah, himself confirms this conclusion in 6:9-12 as quoted by Christ in Mt. 13:13-16. See notes there

God's marvellous work (Isa. 29:14)

In view of the fact that men permit themselves to serve and honor Me only with the lips and not from the heart, I will proceed with a marvelous work and a wonder that will wake them up or cause them to perish (v 14). This marvelous work and a wonder was none other than the gospel work of the N. T.-teaching, preaching, and healing all manner of sickness and disease among the people; the creation of new lives; and the full program as demonstrated and recorded of Christ and His followers (v 14; Hab. 1:5; Acts 13:40-41). This work of wonder is referred to many times in the N. T. (Mt. 15:31; Mk. 6:51; Lk. 4:22; 8:25; 9:43; 11:14; Acts 8:13; 13:40-41). Not only did the miracles and signs of the gospel make men wonder, but they caused some to resist to the point of seeming madness and their own destruction; and the new doctrines taught caused the wise of the world to stumble, harden their hearts, and be lost (1 Cor. 1:18-31). Such a program was a savour of life unto life in those who conformed to the gospel, as well as a savour of death unto death in those who rejected it (2 Cor. 2:15-17)

a Questions 17-18, Next, 13:11
b The fact of the house of God and the temple being mentioned proves that the temple of Zerubbabel was already finished, so 1:1-7:4 could not have been fulfilled before the return of Zerubbabel with the 42, 360 of 7:5-67; Ezra 2:1-65, Nehemiah's return must have been after the temple was built, and after the walls had been worked upon for many years, for no group of men as small as the ones who helped him could have built the walls and gates of such a great city in 52 days (6:15). This work was simply that of completing what was yet to be done, to close up certain breaches, and make the gates, and not to build such a vast wall from the foundation to completion in this short period-less than 2 months
c This kind of revelation is always with men who walk close to God and are constantly looking to Him for guidance and light
d Elul, the 6th month-September

Scoffing (Isa. 28:9)

The sense of this passage (v 9-13) is that of contempt, scoffing, and rejection of the way God had been speaking to them by the prophet. The scoffers mentioned in v 14 said of Isaiah, Whom will he instruct? To whom will he impart his doctrines? Will he treat us as mere babes and infants just weaned? He does nothing but stammer about law upon law and line upon line as though we cannot understand anything but the most elementary lessons. Is he going to regard us as children and treat us as senseless babes by giving us endless repetitions? (v 9-10). The prophet answered their mockery by acknowledging their complaint was true and that they (drunkards as they were) should be dealt with by such methods seeing they were not capable of receiving sound doctrine, in their drunken stupor. Even though God would speak to them with stammering lips and in foreign and strange languages which would be the rest and refreshing for the weary, yet this people would not hear (v 11-12). In other words, since they considered the prophet's messages unintelligible, like words of stammerers and foreigners whose tongues they would not understand, God would use these very methods to reveal Himself to them and thereby give rest and refreshing; but this would be rejected also as foolish and unintelligible

Tongues (Isa. 28:11)

Heb. la'eg, a buffoon or clownish jester; foreigner; mocker; stammerer. From la'ag, to deride; imitate a foreigner; speak unintelligibly; mock; stammer; laugh. The idea here is that since the drunkards of Judah regarded the messages Jehovah had sent them by the prophet, as only adaptable for children, He would teach them in a manner they did not like and give them a knowledge through the language of foreigners, as a sign of their unbelief. Paul used this passage speaking of the gift of tongues in the church as a sign to unbelievers (1 Cor. 14:21-22). The word stammering does not mean that the language would not be real and genuine but that the people hearing it would not understand it (v 11; 33:19). These Heb. words are trans. mockers (Ps. 35:16); mockest (Job 11:3; Pr. 17:5; 30:17; Jer. 20:7); mock (Job 21:3); mocked (2 Chr. 30:10; Neh. 4:1); laughed to scorn (2 Ki. 19:21; Neh. 2:19, 21; Job 22:19; Ps. 22:7; Isa. 37:22); laugh (Job 9:23; Ps. 80:6); and have in derision (Ps. 2:4; 59:8). All this points to the experiences of the book of Acts, especially to those of the 120 who, on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:1-21) were baptized in the Spirit and spoke in other languages as the Spirit gave them utterance. This was in fulfillment of Isa. 28:11, etc. They became an object of mockery, laughter, scorn, and ridicule, and were accused of being drunk on new wine. See Tongues in Index

11 And I said, [a]Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into[b]the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, [c]I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tō-bī'ah and Săn-băl'lat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God, think thou upon Tō-bī'ah and Săn-băl'lat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Nō-a-dī'ah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

7 Completion of the walls and gates of Jerusalem in 52 days

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month [d]É'lŭl, in fifty and two days.

8 Effect of the finished work upon the Jews' enemies

16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

9 Treachery of many nobles of Judah

17 ¶ Moreover in those days the nobles of Jū'dah sent many letters unto Tō-bī'ah, and the letters of Tō-bī'ah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Jū'dah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shĕch-a-nī'ah the son of Ā'rah; and his son Jō-hā'nan had taken the daughter of Mĕ-shŭl'lam the son of Bĕr-e-chī'ah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tō-bī'ah sent letters to put me in fear.

420 CHAPTER 7

VI Change of governors and register of inhabitants (7:1-73). 1 New rulers of Judah

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Lĕ'vites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hă-nā'nī, and Hăn-a-nī'ah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were [a]few therein, and the [b]houses were not builded.

2 Register of the returned Jews from Babylon (7:5-73; Ezra 2; 1 Chr. 9:2-34). (1) The people (Ezra 2:1-35)

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. [c]And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar the king of Bāb'ў-lon had carried away, and came again to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm and to Jū'dah, [d]every one unto his city;

7 Who came with Zĕ-rŭb'-ba-bĕl, Jēsh'u-ā, Nĕ-he-mī'ah, Āz-a-rī'ah, Rā-a-mī'ah, Nā-hăm'a-nī, Môr'de-cāi, Bĭl'shăn, Mĭs'pe-rĕth, Big'va-ī, Nĕ'hum, Bā'a-nah. The number, I say, of the men of [e]the people of Ĭs'-ra-el was this;

8 The [f]children of Pā'rŏsh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two.

9 The children of Shĕph-a-tī'ah, three hundred seventy and two.

10 The children of Ā'rah, six hundred fifty and two.

11 The children of Pā'hath-mō'ab, of the children of Jēsh'u-ā and Jō'ăb, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen.

12 The children of Ē'lăm, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

13 The children of Zăt'tu, eight hundred forty and five.

14 The children of Zăc'ca-ī, seven hundred and threescore.

15 The children of Bĭn'nu-ī, six hundred forty and eight.

16 The children of Bĕb'a-ī, six hundred twenty and eight.

17 The children of Āz'găd, two thousand three hundred twenty and two.

18 The children of Ā-dŏn'ī-kăm, six hundred threescore and seven.

19 The children of Big'va-ī, two thousand threescore and seven.

20 The children of Ā'dĭn, six hundred fifty and five.

21 The children of Ā'tĕr of Hĕz-e-kī'ah, ninety and eight.

22 The children of Hā'shum, three hundred twenty and eight.

23 The children of Bē'zāi, three hundred twenty and four.

24 The children of Hā'riph, an hundred and twelve.

25 The children of Gĭb'e-on, ninety and five.

26 The men of Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm and Nē-tō'phah, an hundred fourscore and eight.

27 The men of Ăn'a-thōth, an hundred twenty and eight.

a Few compared to the greatness of the city which was large enough in space to hold multiplied thousands more than those who settled there from the first two groups of captives that returned under Zerubbabel and Ezra (v 4). In 11:1-2 we see that lots were cast to bring one out of every 10 people from the outside into Jerusalem to live, so as to make the city more inhabited, for few of the former inhabitants came back from captivity b This could only refer to the fact that the many houses which the open spaces of Jerusalem could hold were not built; that is, there was plenty of room for other houses. It could not mean that there were no houses built in Jerusalem at all, for many were already finished and people were living in them (3:10, 20, 23, 24, 28-29; 4:14; 5:3, 11, 12; 6:10; 7:3; 8:16) c Nehemiah, the cup-bearer, was not with those who returned in this group of exiles, so the Nehemiah of v 7 was an entirely different man. The one who served as cup-bearer to Artaxerxes became governor of Judah at this time of the building of the walls. When he sought to register the people in his day, he found a register of the genealogy of those that had come up at the first-he found written therein those that had come up from captivity. This is certainly proof that he did not know of the register, or that it was one made long before his day (v 6) d Every one unto his city. This shows that all the first exiles did not settle at Jerusalem only. Many went to their own cities where their inheritances were located (v 6). This explains why so few settled in Jerusalem, why the city was not built up to full capacity, and why houses were not built to fill the empty spaces, as in v 4 e These Jews that came back with Zerubbabel were of the children of Israel. Thus, all Jews are Israelites and all Israelites are Jews, without exception. There is no difference between the two terms as far as the people to whom they apply is concerned f For a list of these different families by number, see note e, Ezra 2:64

Tongues predicted (Isa. 28:12)

God not only predicted the spiritual exercise of speaking in various languages by the Holy Spirit, as fulfilled in Acts 2, 10, 19; 1 Cor. 12-14, but He also predicted that men in general would not hear or be open to such exercise during the time it was to happen (v 12). That this refers to N. T. spiritual experiences is not only clear from Paul's application of it to the church in 1 Cor. 14:21-22, but also from the fulfillment of v 16 (quoted by Peter and others in the N. T.), in connection with Christ in N. T. times, as the Stone and foundation of the church (Mt. 21:42-44; 1 Cor. 3:11; Acts 4:11; Eph. 2:20; 1 Pet. 2:4-8). Thus the speaking with stammering lips and another tongue does not refer to judgment upon Judah by a foreign nation, such as the Assyrians and Babylonians who were to teach them certain lessons, but to spiritual experiences which would be a rest and a refreshing to all who would hear in the church age

10 blessings of the Messiah (Isa. 32:2):

1 He shall be as an hiding place from the wind (v 2)
2 As a cover from the tempest
3 As rivers in a dry place
4 As the shadow of a great rock in a weary (or hot desert) land
5 He shall heal the eyes of the blind (v 3; 35:5)
6 Open the ears of the deaf
7 Give knowledge to the hasty (v 4)
8 Heal the stammerer
9 Strip the vile (impious) person of his honor and position (v 5)
10 Strip the churl (niggardly) of his standing a These were the temple servants who carried water and wood for the temple services. Only 392 returned with Zerubbabel (v 60; Ezra 2:58), and 220 with Ezra (11:21; Ezra 8:20). These perhaps were the descendants of the Gibeonites of Josh. 9:27

Virgin birth (Isa. 7:14):

Heb. ha-almah, the virgin-the only one that ever was, or ever will be a mother in this way. Almah means a lass; damsel; maid; virgin. Trans. virgin of Rebekah, meaning a pure unmarried young woman (Gen. 24:43); virgins, or unwedded young women (Song 1:3; 6:8); maid of the young, unmarried virgin sister of Moses who was about 14 years of age (Ex. 2:8), and of one who goes with man for the first time (Pr. 30:19); damsels as used of young ladies playing timbrels (Ps. 68:25-26); and virgin as here, meaning the mother of the Messiah who was to be born in Israel of one who, as later confirmed, knew no man until after He (Jesus) was born (v 14; Mt. 1:18-25; note d, Lk. 8:19). The argument that almah could mean a young married woman is not supported in any scripture; and in view of the plain record of Mary being a pure virgin who had not known man and one who conceived by the Holy Spirit, it only shows unbelief and rebellion against God's Word and the perfect plan of redemption through a virgin-born man-God manifest in the flesh-if we accept anything but what is plainly declared in v 14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:30-38; Jn. 1:1-14; Rom. 8:3; Gal. 4:4; 1 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 1:5-7; and 2:6-18

The Heb. bethulah, is trans- virgin 24 times (23:12; 37:22; 47:1; 62:5; Gen. 24:16; Lev. 21:3, 14; Dt. 22:19, 23, 28; 32:25; 2 Sam. 13:2; 1 Ki. 1:2; 2 Ki. 19:21; Jer. 14:17; 18:13; 31:4, 21; 46:11; Lam. 1:15; 2:13; Joel 1:8; Amos 5:2); virgins 14 times (23:4; Ex. 22:17; Judg. 21:12; 2 Sam. 13:18; Esther 2:2-3, 17, 19; Ps. 45:14; Lam. 1:4, 18; 2:10, 21; Amos 8:13); maid 4 times (Ex. 22:15-16; Job 31:1; Jer. 2:32; 51:22); maids 3 times (Lam. 5:11; Ezek. 9:6; Zech. 9:17); maiden 2 times (Judg. 19:24; 2 Chr. 36:17); and maidens 3 times (Ps. 78:63; 148:12; Ezek. 44:22). Almah denotes a girl of marriageable age, but not married, and therefore a true virgin. Bethulah refers to an unmarried girl and expresses virginity of a bride or one betrothed (62:5; Joel 1:8)

The Gr. parthenos in Mt. 1:23 and Lk. 1:27 means a maiden; an unmarried daughter; a virgin. Trans. virgin 14 times and in every case it means an unmarried maiden (Mt. 1:23; 25:1, 7, 11; Lk. 1:26; Acts 21:9; 1 Cor. 7:25, 28, 34, 36, 37; 2 Cor. 11:2; Rev. 14:4). This is the root word of parthenia, meaning maidenhood; virginity (Lk. 2:36)

None of these original words are used in connection with a married woman. Some contend that they simply mean any young woman, but this is not true; they mean only one who is a pure and undefiled virgin-any maid who has never known man

Immanuel (Isa. 7:14):

Immanuel, God with us (v 14; 8:8). Emmanuel in Mt. 1:23. This verse is the only part of the prophecy that is a direct prediction of the virgin birth and the coming Messiah. The other two verses refer to Isaiah's son whom the Lord said he should take with him to meet Ahaz (v 3). It seems that on the way, Isaiah began prophesying of the coming Messiah and the virgin birth, as in v 14, then pointed to his own son, saying that he would eat butter and honey up to the time of knowing how to choose between right and wrong and that before this the kings of Syria and Ephraim would be destroyed (v 15-16). This happened about 3 years later when Assyria invaded Syria (2 Ki. 16:9), and Pekah, king of Ephraim, was killed by Hoshea (2 Ki. 15:30), thus fulfilling the prophecy of v 15-16. Isaiah's son was evidently still a baby when he went to meet Ahaz, and if

(5) Children of Solomon's servants (Ezra 2:55)

60 All the Nĕth'ĭ-nĭms, and the children of Sŏl'o-mŏn's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

(6) Non-pedigreed people of the captivity (Ezra 2:59-60)

61 And these were they which went up also from Tĕl-mĕ'lah, Tĕl'-hă-rē'shā, Chĕ'rub, Ăd'dŏn, and Ĭm'mĕr: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were [b]of Ĭs'ra-el.

62 The children of Dĕl-a-ī'ah, the children of Tō-bī'ah, the children of Nē-kō'dā, six hundred forty and two.

(7) Non-pedigreed priests of the captivity (Ezra 2:61-63)

63 ¶ And of the priests: the children of Hā-bā'iah, the children of Kŏz, the children of Bär-zĭl'la-ī, which took one of the daughters of Bär-zĭl'la-ī the Gĭl'e-ăd-īte to wife, and was called after their name.

64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

65 And the [b]Tĭr'sha-thā said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, [c]till there stood up a priest [d]with Ū'rim and Thŭm'mim.

(8) Total of whole congregation: 42,360 besides 7,337 servants and 245 singers (Ezra 2:64-65)

66 ¶ The whole congregation together was [e]forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, 67 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

a All who could not prove they were of Israel by genealogy were not reckoned with those who were registered in the nation. Many so-called priests lost their place in the priesthood because of this (v 63-65). See note c, below

b Tirshatha was the Persian title for governor. Here it refers to Zerubbabel who was the governor of Judah at the time of this registration (v 65; Ezra 2:63)

c Some who claimed to be priests but could not prove their relationship with the priesthood, were really of the priestly families; and this was decided by the Urim and Thummim (v 65)

one reads the prophecy with this in mind, it should be clear

7 facts that are clear:

1 That v 14 has nothing to do with an immediate fulfillment of some virgin having a child before Rezin and Pekah would be destroyed. Nothing in the verse speaks of a double fulfillment, a virgin in Isaiah's day and another one later; so this theory need not be considered

2 That v 14 refers exclusively to only one virgin and one virgin-born child; and this is the way it was fulfilled (v 14 with Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:34-35; Jn. 1:14; 1 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 1:5-7; 2:9-18)

3 The above facts do not do away with the required immediate sign to Ahaz regarding the protection of the house of David by the 2 kings being killed as in v 15-16, for Isaiah's son, a mere suckling of a child, who was then present, could have served, and no doubt did serve as the immediate sign. The virgin-born child who was yet to come was to be a sign to the house of David regarding eternal protection from all enemies

4 Isaiah's sons are definitely stated to be for signs and wonders in Israel (8:18); the first son was a sign in connection with the predictions of 7:15-16 whereas, the second was a sign in connection with 8:14

5 We have another definite instance of the projection of the coming Messiah child into these prophecies in 9:6-7, it being suddenly inserted into the picture of prophecy, foreign to the idea of the virgin-birth as in 7:14. There can be no misunderstanding in either case about the coming virgin-born Son of God being referred to, so if we allow 9:6-7 to refer to the Messiah without forcing the idea of 2 virgins and 2 children, then the same can be true of 7:14, which cannot be applied to Isaiah's sons any more than 9:6-7. Both are Messianic and rise or fall on their own merits. Both refer to one virgin and one virgin-born child

6 The purpose in 7:14 is to give Ahaz assurance of future and eternal protection to the house of David before showing him that God would also give immediate protection to the house of David as signified by Isaiah's son. The assurance that the Messiah would come would be a double blessing of assurance and the greatest of all to the house of David

7 It is definite that v 14 applies to the virgin-born Messiah who was yet to come (Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:34-35); and since v 15-16 refer to Isaiah's son as a sign to Ahaz regarding both kings being destroyed in a short time, it is only proper that we make the two prophecies of distinct coming events, one immediate and the other remote

This is a clear example of the law of prophetic perspective-seeing more than one event at the same time, like one standing on a high mountain would see many peaks in the distance without seeing the valleys between them. If one will recognize this when reading many prophetic passages a more clear understanding of them will be the result. See the law of double reference and law of prophetic perspective under Law in the Index a This still refers to the governor of Israel at the time of the registration of the first returning exiles - Zerubbabel (v 70). See note b, Ezra 2:63

b See note a, Ezra 2:69 for a list of what some of these items would be valued at. The amounts given are slightly different in the 2 books, but this can be explained by the fact that Nehemiah recorded what some of the chiefs and the people gave while Ezra recorded only what some of the chiefs gave. Here the Tirshatha, or governor also gave along with the people (v 70-72). In v 70 it states what the governor gave personally; in v 71 what some of the chiefs gave; and in v 72 what the people gave c The Tirshatha gave 1,000 drams (Heb. daric, each one worth $5.28), which would be $5,280.00 in gold, besides 50 gold basons and 530 garments for priests (v 70)

d The chief fathers gave 20,000 drams (Heb. daric, each one worth $5.28), which would be $105,600.00 in gold. Besides this they gave 2,200 pounds of silver. There being 100 shekels to each maneh or pound, this would be 220,000 shekels which, at 64¢ each would amount to $140,800.00 (v 71)

e The people gave 20,000 drams (Heb. daric, each one worth $5.28), or $105,600.00 in gold, and 2,000 pounds of silver. There being 100 shekels to each maneh or pound, this would be 200,000 shekels, which at 64¢ each would amount to $128,000.00. Besides this they gave 67 garments for the priests (v 72)

f The broad open space

g It was the priests' duty to teach the people the Word of God (Dt. 17:11; 33:10; Mal. 2:7)

h This was the requirement every 7th year (Dt. 31:9-12). It was the feast of the blowing of trumpets (Lev. 23:23-25)

i Daylight to noon (v 3)

j Stage or platform above the people. 13 priests stood by him as he read (v 4-5). When the book was opened the people stood up, and as he blessed them they said, "Amen, amen" with the lifting up of the hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshipped with their faces to the ground (v 6)

Speaking out of the ground (Isa. 29:4)

Speaking out of the ground and low out of the dust is no prediction of a new Bible, or a new revelation from God as sometimes taught. It is a simple expression of complete defeat to Israel. Many times the term out of the dust is used of utter defeat or humiliation (1 Sam. 2:8; 1 Ki. 16:2; Ps. 13:7). Brought down to the dust is an idiom meaning defeat and complete subjegation to another (2:10; 25:12; 26:5; 49:23; 2 Sam. 22:41-43; 2 Ki. 13:7; Job 16:15; Ps. 44:25; 72:9; Nah. 3:18). Here, it was Jerusalem and Judah that was predicted that the multitude of strangers would also be brought down to the dust after Israel's experience in the dust. Judah was to become so low and defeated that the people would be confused and act strangely, like a witch with a familiar spirit (notes e-h, 8:19-20). In 52:2 Judah was commanded to "shake thyself" from the dust, would be defeated and brought down to lick the dust in humility. In v 5 it means that the Jews will be exalted after the defeat in the dust

5 similes of Gentile defeat (Isa. 29:5):

1 Like small dust
2 As chaff that pases away (v 5)
3 As a dream of the night vision (v 7)
4 As when a hungry man dreams that he eats, but when he awakes he is empty (v 8)
5 As when a thirsty man dreams that he drinks, but when he awakes he is still thirsty

6 things will destroy Gentiles (Isa. 29:6):

1 Thunder (v 6)
2 Earthquake
3 Great noise
4 Storm
5 Tempest
6 Flame of devouring fire

dred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five:

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70 And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The [a]Tĭr'sha-thā [b]gave to the treasure a thousand [c]drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

71 ¶ And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work [d]twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave was [e]twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

73 So the priests, and the Lĕ'vītes, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nĕth'ĭ-nĭms, and all Ĭs'ra-el, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Ĭs'ra-el were in their cities.

421 CHAPTER 8

VII Revival under Ezra (8:1-10:39; Ezra 9:1-10:44).

1 Preaching the word, prayer, and praise to God

AND all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the [f]street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ĕz'rā the scribe to bring the book of the law of Mō'şeş, which the LORD had commanded to Ĭs'ra-el.

2 And Ĕz'rā [g]the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, [h]upon the first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the [i]morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ĕz'rā the scribe stood upon a [j]pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Măt-tĭthī'ah, and Shĕ'mā, and Ăn-a-ī'ah, and Ū-rī'jah, and Hĭl-kī'ah, and Mā-a-sē'iah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pĕ-dā'iah, and Mĭsh'a-el, and Măl-chī'ah, and Hā'shum, and Hăsh-băd'a-nā, Zĕch-a-rī'ah, and Mĕ-shŭl'lam.

5 And Ĕz'rā opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

6 And Ĕz'rā blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered Ā-mĕn', Ā-mĕn', with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jĕsh'u-ā, and Bā'nī, and Shĕr-e-bī'ah, Jā'mĭn, Ăk'kŭb, Shăb'be-thāi, Hō-dī'jah, Mā'a-sē'iah, Kĕl'ĭ-tā, Āz-a-rī'ah, Jŏz'a-băd, Hā'nan, Pĕl-a-ī'ah, and the Lē'vītes, [k]caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the [l]reading.

2 Conviction of and repentance for sin by the word of God (Rom. 3:20; 7:7-14)

●9 ¶ And Nĕ-he-mī'ah, [c]which is the Tĭr'sha-thā, and Ĕz'rā the priest the scribe, and the Lē'vītes that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For [d]all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

3 Forgiveness and rejoicing after repentance

●10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, [e]and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

●11 So the Lē'vītes stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And [f]all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

4 Second preaching service

13 ¶ And [g]on the second day were gathered tcgether the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Lē'vītes, unto Ĕz'rā the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

5 Feast of Tabernacles restored (Lev. 23:33-44)

14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Mō'şeş, that the children of Ĭs'ra-el should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:

●15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch [h]olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ĕ'phrā-ĭm.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out a The Levites explained the law to the people, and caused them to understand the true sense (v 7-8) 3 things make good preaching:

1 Reading the holy Scriptures (v 8)
2 Giving the true sense, as written 3 Causing men to understand the truth fully b The way the book stated it is the way they caused the people to understand it, not giving their personal interpretation of what was read. They simply emphasized what was written. Thus it should be, for what is written is what is meant, and it is plainly stated so that all can see alike (v 8) c Nehemiah was the Tirshatha, or governor at the time of the reading of the law on this occasion. Ezra was an old priest by now, having brought exiles back with him 69 or 70 years before, the year after the temple was rebuilt. He was at least 90 years old if 21 when he led the captives from Babylon (Ezra 8)

d The weeping of repentance was to be changed to rejoicing now that the Word was to be obeyed (v 9)

e 8 commands to the people:
1 Mourn not, nor weep (v 9)
2 Go your way (v 10)
3 Eat the fat
4 Drink the sweet
5 Send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared 6 Do not be sorry
7 Hold your peace (v 11)
8 Do not be grieved

f 17 evidences of spiritual revival:
1 Weeping at hearing the Scriptures read (v 9)
2 Greatness of heart (v 10, 12)
3 Great joy and strength
4 Holy day unto Jehovah (v 9, 10, 11)
5 Holding peace (v 11)
6 Salvation from grief and sorrow (v 10-11)
7 Enjoyment of good things (v 12)
8 Joy in truth and understanding
9 Hunger for more truth (v 13)
10 Conformity to all rituals (v 14-17)
11 Daily search for truth (v 18)
12 Confession and restitution (9:1-3)
13 Fasting and prayer
14 Separation from evil (9:2)
15 True worship and praise (9:3-38)
16 Making of vows to God (10:1-30)
17 Whole-hearted support of God's work financially (10:32-39)

g Not only did they gather the second day to receive instruction from the law, but also on every other day of the convocation (v 18)

h Branches from all kinds of trees were gathered to make booths to dwell in during the feast of tabernacles (v 15-17)

Stumbling of Judah (Isa. 28:13)

This refers to the stumbling of Judah over the new religion, doctrines, and spiritual experiences that the Messiah (the Stone and foundation of v 16) would bring to men. Judah would not hear but would rather go contrary to these things, as if falling backward like a drunken man, and be broken Causes of Judah's destruction (Isa. 29:9):

In these verses (9-16) we have the causes for the destruction of Judah and Jerusalem described in v 1-8. The picture here is one of hysteria, bewilderment, and extreme mental distress over the calamity about to fall on them because of their sins and hypocrisies. This portion has to do with the more immediate troubles of Israel through sin that was to lead eventually to final judgment which would bring them to repentance under their Messiah in the last days. Even in Isaiah's day a state of stupefaction was upon the people and they were destined to chastening soon, without destruction, by Assyria (36:1-37:38), and to destruction later by Babylon (2 Ki. 25), and Rome (Lk. 21:20-24)

6fold effect upon Judah:

1 They would not hear (v 12)
2 Would go contrary to these things (v 13)
3 Would fall backward like a drunken man in darkness and unbelief
4 Would be broken
5 Would be snared
6 Would be taken of the captivity made booths, and [a]sat under the booths: for since the days of [b]Jĕsh'u-á the son of Nūn unto that day [c]had not the children of Iş'ra-el done so. And there was very great gladness.

6 Daily preaching the word (vss. 2, 13-14; 9:1, 3)

18 Also day by day, from the first day unto [d]the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

422 CHAPTER 9

7 Confession of sin and restitution

NOW in the [e]twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Iş'ra-el were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

2 And [f]the seed of Iş'ra-el separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

8 Levites exhort the people to stand up and praise God

4 ¶ Then stood up upon [g]the stairs, of the Lĕ'vites, Jĕsh'-ū-á, and Bā'nī, Kăd'mī-el, Shĕb-a-nī'ah, Būn'nī, Shĕr-e-bī'ah, Bā'nī, and Chĕn'a-nī, and [h]cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Lĕ'vites, Jĕsh'-u-á, and Kăd'mī-el, Bā'nī, Hăsh-ab-nī'ah, Shĕr-e-bī'ah, Hō-dī'jah, Shĕb-a-nī'ah, and Pĕth-a-hī'ah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your [i]God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

9 Levites confession and prayer. (1) Confess God as creator and sovereign of all

6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

(2) Levites recognize God's faithfulness to Abraham and Israel in the 430 years of the sojourn

7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Ă'brăm, and broughtest him forth out of Ŭr of the Chăl'dees, and gavest him the name of Ă'brā-hăm;

8 And [a]foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Că'năan-ites, the Hĭt'tītes, the Ăm'ŏr-ites, and the Pĕr'ĭz-zites, and the Jĕb'u-sītes, and the Gĭr'ga-shītes, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Ē'gўpt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea;

10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Phā'raōh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that [b]they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

(3) Levites recall Israel's rebellions and God's mercy and miracles in the exodus and wilderness wanderings

11 And thou didst [c]divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day [d]by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sī'nāi, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and [e]commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Mō'şes thy servant:

15 And [f]gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and [g]broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should [h]go in to possess the land which thou [i]hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt [j]proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and [k]in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a [l]molten calf, and said, This is thy god that brought thee up out of Ē'gўpt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

a In Abraham, God found what He does not find in many hearts-faithfulness (v 8; Gen. 22:12). According to Jer. 17:9 the heart of man is deceitful above all things and only God can know it

2 Hardened their necks (v 16, 17, 29)
3 Broke the commandments (v 16, 29, 34)
4 Refused to obey (v 17)
5 Did not appreciate Gods' miracles
6 Rebelled and appointed a leader to take them back to Egypt
7 Made a molten calf (v 18)
8 Attributed the works of God to an idol
9 Wrought great provocations (v 18, 26)
10 Were disobedient many times and rebelled against God (v 26, 28)
11 Cast God's law behind their backs
12 Slew the prophets which were sent to testify against them in an effort to turn them back to God and right
13 Did not appreciate God's deliverances enough to remain true to Him (v 28)
14 Sinned against God's judgments (v 29)
15 Withdrew their shoulder
16 Would not hear God (v 29-30) a Sitting under booths of limbs of trees was likely a very sobering experience (Lev. 23:39-43; Dt. 16:13-16). It reminded Israel of their temporary life in Egypt, of their journey through the wilderness when they wandered from place to place without permanent homes, and of their earthly pilgrimage to a better and an eternal world (v 17). Such days were no doubt times of great meditation, relaxation, and worship-times of drawing closer to God on the part of the godly. It gave them hours and days for waiting upon Him. Like Jonah who made a booth to sit under while waiting to see what God would do to Nineveh (Jonah 4:5), so these Israelites could, once a year, sit and reflect upon their past, present and future-take inventory of their lives and draw closer to Jehovah. By this time their prophets had given them hundreds of revelations of truth about waiting on God, meditation on God's Word, keeping the mind on Him, and many other things that would make these 8 days of the feast of tabernacles one of the most spiritual and restful periods of the year. It was on one of these occasions that Jesus Christ promised rivers of living water to flow out of the innermost being of all who would come to Him with a thirsty soul to drink (Jn. 7:37-39). Such an experience is now for all who wish to receive of the abundance of the benefits of the promises of God (Ps. 34:9-10; 84:11; 91:1-12; 103:1-3; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 11:1-13; Jn. 14:12-14; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; 2 Cor. 1:20; Heb. 11:5; 2 Pet. 1:4; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:14-15)

b Called Joshua in most places
c It seems from several statements like this that Israel failed to observe the law in many respects from the very first. How many of these feasts, rituals, and even essential commandments they failed to obey and how universal the disobedience was only God knows. Here it is clear that the feast of tabernacles had not been kept since the days of Joshua (v 17). In some places the passover was neglected for centuries, as stated in 2 Chr. 30:5, 26; 35:18
d The last day was always a special one. It was on this final day of the feast Jesus Christ attended that He gave His special message regarding the fulness of God for each believer (Jn. 7:37-39)
e According to the law, the feast of tabernacles was to be in the 7th month (October) from the 15th to the 22nd; but it seems here that it ended on the 24th, which indicates they were late in reading this in the law and deciding to obey it (v 1)
f These Jews are repeatedly called the children of Israel and the seed of Israel (v 1-2), proving that the term Israel is not used only of the 10 tribes

BIBLE INTRODUCTION (Ezra 4:8)

I Names of the Bible

The word Bible is not in the English version of Scripture. It is the equivalent of the Gr. word biblia, meaning books. The term the books (ta biblia in Gr.) occurs in Dan. 9:2 of the Septuagint, referring to the prophetic writings; similarly in 1 Mac. 12:9, the holy books. The usage was taken up by the Christian church for the O. T., and later was extended to mean the whole of the Scriptures. The Bible came to be termed such by Clement in the middle of the 2nd century; he called the sacred writings ta Biblia-The Books. Jerome's name for the Bible (4th century) was The Divine Library. Afterward there was an important change, from the plural to the singular meaning. In the 13th century The Books, by common consent, became The Book-The Bible

II How the Bible was given

See the following: 9 ways given to men, g 240-1°; Given in many ways, 236°; How received, d 224-1°

III Languages of the Bible

1 The O. T., with the exception of Ezra 4:8-6:18; 7:12-26; Jer. 10:11; Continued, column 4

20 Thou gavest also thy [a]good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy [b]manna from their mouth, and [c]gavest them water for their thirst.
21 Yea, [d]forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes [e]waxed not old, and their [f]feet swelled not.

(4) Levites acknowledge God's help in conquering Canaan

22 Moreover thou [g]gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into [h]corners: so they [i]possessed the land of Si'hŏn, and the land of the king of Hĕsh'bŏn, and the land of Óg king of Bā'shăn.
23 Their children also multipliedst thou [j]as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.
24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Că'năan-ītes, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.
25 And they took [k]strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

(5) Levites sum up Israel's backslidings and God's dealings under the judges 26 Nevertheless they [l]were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and [m]cast thy law behind their backs, and [n]slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore [o]thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them [p]saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.
28 But [q]after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore [r]leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

(6) Levites state Israel's continued rebellions under kings and reasons for the captivity

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) [a]and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.
30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: [b]therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.
31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst [c]not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.
32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, [d]since the time of the kings of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-ā unto this day.
33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly:
34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.
35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

(7) Levites acknowledge the present servitude to heathen kings and make a new covenant with God

36 Behold, [e]we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:
37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us [f]because of our sins; also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.
38 And [g]because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Lē'vītes, and priests, seal unto it.

423 CHAPTER 10

(8) The covenant signers (Ezra 10:16)

a Turned the back on Jehovah
b Finally let them go into captivity (v 30; 2 Kl. 17, 24 and 25; 2 Chr. 35-36)
c Jehovah always left a remnant so that He could preserve the nation of Israel, looking forward to the fulfillment of the eternal covenants with Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, David, and all Israel
d See 2 Kl. 17, 18, 19 and 24-25 e God never did intend for Israel to be servants and slaves to other nations, but because of the sins of this chapter they were brought down to such servitude f It was good that the Levites and others in Israel recognized the cause of their troubles. Their sins were the reason in this instance and others where Israel was defeated and cursed (v 37) g The final point in recounting all the past sin, failures, curses, and blessings of God in ch. 9. All this was said to lead up to the making of another start, a new covenant with God which the princes, Levites, and priests agreed to sign (v 38)
h Nehemiah, who was governor, was present when this covenant was made. It was different from the one requiring separation of the men from their foreign wives as in Ezra 9-10, which was made many years before

Dan. 2:4-7:28 was written in Hebrew. These passages were written in Aramaic (the so-called Chaldee), a dialect related to Hebrew which gradually took its place as the spoken language, after the exile

2 The language of the N. T. was the common (Hellenistic) Greek, or Hebrew-Greek, so-called because the Jews introduced so many of their own idioms into the Greek which became well known through the influence of the Septuagint and Jewish business men who travelled everywhere. This was the commercial language spoken throughout the Roman Empire at the time of Christ; and it was most adapted to express Christian doctrine. The Bible is now printed in over 1,100 languages and dialects

IV Divisions of the Bible

1 The O. T. 5 divisions-39 books:

(7) Dispensation of Grace (Mt. 4:1-Rev. 19:11)
(8) Dispensation of Divine Government-the Millennium (Rev. 20:1-15)
(9) Dispensation of the Redeemed and faithful Angels (Rev. 21:1-22:21)

V What the Bible is not:

1 The Bible is not an amulet, a charm, a fetish, or anything to work wonders by its very presence alone. It does not claim to be such; it does claim that if one will study and practice its teachings he will see wonders worked in his life both now and in the hereafter

2 The Bible is not a book of chronological events or an unbroken series of divine utterances. It was given, here a little and there a little, to many men through 18 centuries (Isa. 28:9-11); but regardless of this, it forms a perfect unity

3 The Bible is not a book of heavenly utterances in supernatural language; it is God's revelation in the most simple human language possible

4 The Bible is not a book of mysteries; it explains its so-called mysteries, and is so self-interpreting that no mystery remains

5 The Bible is not a book that says one thing and means another. Generally, the passages have one simple meaning. In the few which have a double meaning, this fact is quite clear, either from the verses themselves or from parallel passages. One cannot, as is sometimes said, get a thousand different meanings from the Scriptures

6 The Bible is not a specimen of God's skill as a writer or logician. It is a book written by men whom He used to record His revelation. The method was by giving them ways of expressing truth, and freedom in the use of their own language. What inspiration guarantees is unity of truth, not sameness of words and expressions

7 The Bible is not a book of systematic discourses on any one subject; but it does give divine information on practically every subject. One must collect together, from here and there, all God's information through various writers, in order to know the whole

(9) Terms of the covenant. A Remain a peculiar people from all other nations

28 ¶ And the rest of the people, the priests, the Lĕ'vītes, the porters, the singers, the Nĕth'ĭ-nĭms, and all they [a]that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding;

B To keep God's law by Moses

29 They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to [b]walk in God's law, which was given by Mō'şeş the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

C Have no intermarriage with Gentiles

30 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons:

D Observe the sabbaths and keep the year of rest (Ex. 23:10-11; Lev. 25:2-7)

31 And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

E Faithfully give offerings to the temple worship

32 Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the [a]third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;
33 For the shewbread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Ĭs'ra-el, and for all the work of the house of our God.

F Give tithes and offerings to the priests and Levites

34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Lĕ'vītes, and the people, for the [b]wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law:
35 And to [c]bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD:
36 Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God:
37 And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Lĕ'vītes, that the same Lĕ'vītes might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.
38 And the priest the son of Aăr'on shall be with the Lĕ'-vītes, when the Lĕ'vītes take tithes: and the Lĕ'vītes shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house.
39 For the children of Ĭs'ra-el and the children of Lĕ'vī shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

VIII Full establishment of Israel (11:1-13:3). 1 Roster of the inhabitants of Jerusalem

AND the rulers of the people dwelt at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm: the rest of the people also [d]cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other a The third part of a shekel-21 1/3 ¢, a shekel being worth 64¢

b Wood offerings were necessary to supply fuel for the many sacrifices made on the large altar (v 34)
c In these verses (34-39) we have the many kinds of offerings mentioned which were to be brought to the house of God-wood, firstfruits of the ground, firstborn of all beasts, the firstborn-son tax, offerings of all kinds, and all the tithes of the increase of Israel in general d Here we are told of the special way in which the inhabitants of Jerusalem were increased. So few of the nearly 50,000 exiles who had returned from captivity had settled there, as former occupants of the city. Most of the exiles had a family inheritance elsewhere and settled in other cities. It was therefore decided to cast lots to bring one out of every 10 from other places to live in Jerusalem. The people of Israel even blessed those that would become volunteers to live in the city (v 1-2) truth. When this is done there is perfect harmony, and everything which a man really needs to know about a subject, is clear

8 The Bible is not a book adapted to the tastes, customs, and habits of any one nation or people; it is not for any one age or period of time. It is a book to which all people in all ages can conform, and yet retain their own lawful customs and habits which are not contrary to the will of God

VI What the Bible is:

1 The Bible is God's inspired revelation of the origin and destiny of all things. Here heaven is opened, and the gates of hell disclosed. It is the traveller's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's charter

2 The Bible is the power of God unto eternal salvation and the source of present help, for body, soul, and spirit (Rom. 1:16; Jn. 15:7). Christ is its grand subject, man's good its design, and the glory of God its end. It is a mine of wealth, the source of health, and a world of pleasure

3 The Bible is God's will or testament to men in all ages, revealing the plan of God for man here and now, and in the next life. It will be opened at the judgment; and it will last forever. It involves the highest responsibility; will reward for the least to the greatest of labor; and will condemn all who trifle with its sacred contents

4 The Bible is the record of God's dealings with man in the past, present, and future. It contains His message of eternal salvation for all who believe in Christ, and eternal damnation for all who rebel against the gospel

5 As a literary composition, the Bible is the most remarkable book ever made. It is a divine library of 66 books, some of considerable size, and others no larger than a tract. These books include various forms of literature-history, biography, poetry, proverbial sayings, hymns, letters, directions for elaborate ritualistic worship, laws, parables, riddles, allegories, prophecy, and all other forms of human expression

6 The Bible is the only book that reveals the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers. Its doctrines are holy, its precepts binding, its histories true, and its decisions immutable. It contains light to direct, spiritual food to sustain, and comfort to cheer. Man should read it to be wise, believe it to be safe, and practice it to be holy; he should read it that it might fill his memory, rule his heart, and guide his feet in righteousness and true holiness. He should read it slowly, frequently, prayerfully, meditatively, searchingly, devotionally; and study it constantly, perseveringly, and industriously, and through and through-until it becomes a part of his being, generating faith that will move a There was such a scarcity of men in Jerusalem from the thousands of returned exiles that the rulers cast lots for one out of every 10 in other cities to move to Jerusalem (v 1). The need was so great that even those who volunteered to move there were blessed by the people of Israel (v 2). What a contrast between this time and when David and Solomon and other great kings of Israel lived in Jerusalem. Room was at a premium then. So will it be in the days of the Messiah, no doubt, for many from all the earth will want to live near Jesus Christ and His capital city. Many nations in that day will go up to the mountain of the Lord's house to be taught (Isa. 2:2-4; 52:7; Zech. 8:23; 14:16-21)

b 25 chiefs of the provinces (v 4-24):

1 Athaiah	14 Shemaiah
2 Maaseiah	15 Shabbethai
3 Sallu	16 Jozabad
4 Gabbai	17 Mathaniah
5 Sallai	18 Bakbukiah
6 Joel	19 Abda
7 Judah	20 Akkub
8 Jedaiah	21 Talmon
9 Jachin	22 Ziha
10 Seraiah	23 Gispa
11 Adaiah	24 Uzzi
12 Amashai	25 Pethahiah
13 Zabdiel

c Note that Israel dwelt in the cities of Judah, which indicates that the two terms were synonymous. Judah was the ruling tribe and for this reason the name was used of the whole nation of Israel (v 3) d 3,044 men of Jerusalem:

Judahites (v 6)	468
Benjamites (v 8)	928
Priests (v 12)	822
More priests (v 13)	242
More priests (v 14)	128
Levites (v 18)	284
Porters (v 19)	172
Total mentioned	3,044

From this we can see how very few men were in the city originally (7:4), for after the casting of lots one out of every 10 elsewhere to move to Jerusalem, there was a total of only 3,044 recorded. At first there were not enough for their enemies to be concerned; but when Nehemiah came and recruited men from all Israel and the concerted effort was made to complete the walls, the trouble of chs. 1-6 began in earnest. Jerusalem being a city that formerly held multiplied thousands and now only a few, it can be understood why there would be many wide, open spaces with not many houses built (7:4)

VII Canon of the Bible

The term Canon of Scripture means the complete collection of books which are regarded as of Divine authority. The word canon in Gr. means a straight rod, rule, or measure. As applied to Scripture it means the rules by which certain books were declared to be inspired and accepted as such. The points governing which should be rejected are given under VIII below

The Canon of Scripture was at first, gradual and not created by ecclesiastical authority. The beginning was made by Moses (see note g, Ex. 17:14; and Summary of Genesis, p. 51). In David's time the office of recorder was established and detailed records were kept by all the kings of Israel. The final collection of writings and the Canon of the O. T. was completed during the time of Ezra, Nehemiah (Ezra 7:6; 8:1-8; 2 Mac. 2:13), the Great Synagogue, and Simon the Just (about 292 B.C.). At least the O. T. Canon of Scripture was completed by the time of the Septuagint translation of the O. T. accepted books into Greek (294-289 B.C.)

After the destruction of Jerusalem, 70 A.D., the Sanhedrin moved to Tiberius and later to Jammia, a small town 13 mi. south of Joppa where, in 90 A.D. the Canon of the O. T. was again decided upon, the apocryphal cities.

2 And the people[a] blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jĕ-ru̇-sā-lĕm.

3 ¶ Now[b] these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jĕ-ru̇sā-lĕm: but[c] in the cities of Jū'dah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Is̈'ra-el, the priests, and the Lĕ'vītes, and the Nĕth'ī-nīms, and the children of Sŏl'o-mon's servants.

4 And at Jĕ-ru̇'sā-lĕm dwelt certain of the children of Jū'dah, and of the children of Bĕn'ja-mĭn. Of the children of Jū'dah; Ăth-a-ī'ah the son of Ŭz-zī'ah, the son of Zĕch-a-rī'ah, the son of Ām-a-rī'ah, the son of Shĕph-a-tī'ah, the son of Mā-hā'la-lĕ-el, of the children of Pē'rĕz;

5 And Mā-a-sē'iah the son of Bā'ru̇ch, the son of Cŏl-hō'zeh, the son of Hā-zā'iah, the son of Ad-a-ī'ah, the son of Joi'a-rīb, the son of Zĕch-a-rī'ah, the son of Shi-lō'nī.

6 All the sons of Pē'rĕz that dwelt at Jĕ-ru̇'sā-lĕm were[d] four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

7 And these are the sons of Bĕn'ja-mĭn; Săl'lu the son of Mĕ-shŭl'lam, the son of Jō'ed, the son of Pĕ-dā'iah, the son of Kŏl-a-ī'ah, the son of Mā-a-sē'iah, the son of Ith'ī-el, the son of Jĕ-sā'iah.

8 And after him Găb'ba-ī, Săl'la-ī, nine hundred twenty and eight.

9 And Jō'el the son of Zĭch'rī was their overseer: and Jū'dah the son of Sĕ-nū'ah was second over the city.

10 Of the priests: Jĕ-dā'iah the son of Joi'a-rīb, Jā'chin.

11 Sĕr-a-ī'ah the son of Hil-kī'ah, the son of Mĕ-shŭl'lam, the son of Zā'dŏk, the son of Mĕ-rā'ioth, the son of Ă-hī'tub, was the ruler of the house of God.

12 And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and Ad-a-ī'ah the son of Jĕr'o-hăm, the son of Pĕl-a-lī'ah, the son of Ām'zī, the son of Zĕch-a-rī'ah, the son of Pāsh'ūr, the son of Măl-chī'ah,

13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Ă-măsh'a-ī the son of Ă-zăr'e-el, the son of Ă-hăs'a-ī, the son of Mĕ-shĭl'le-mŏth, the son of Im'mēr, 14 And their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zăb'dĭ-el, the son of one of the great men.

15 Also of the Lĕ'vites: Shĕm-a-ī'ah the son of Hā'shub, the son of Az'rĭ-kăm, the son of Hăsh-a-bī'ah, the son of Bŭn'nī;

16 And Shăb'be-thāi and Jōz'-a-băd, of the chief of the Lĕ'vites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God.

17 And Măt-ta-nī'ah the son of Mī'chā, the son of Zăb'dī, the son of Ā'saph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bāk-bŭk-ī'ah the second among his brethren, and Ăb'dā the son of Shăm-mū'a, the son of Gā'lăl, the son of Jĕd'u-thŭn.

18 All the Lĕ'vites in the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.

19 Moreover the porters, Āk'kŭb, Tăl'mon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were an hundred seventy and two.

2 Dwellers in other cities

20 ¶ [e]And the residue of Is̈'ra-el, of the priests, and the Lĕ'vites, were in all the cities of Jū'dah, every one in his inheritance.

21 But the Nĕth'ī-nīms dwelt in Ō'phel: and Zī'hā and Gĭs'pā were over the Nĕth'ī-nīms.

22 The overseer also of the Lĕ'vites at Jĕ-ru̇'sā-lĕm was Ŭz'zī the son of Bā'nī, the son of Hăsh-a-bī'ah, the son of Măt-ta-nī'ah, the son of Mī'chā. Of the sons of A'saph, the singers were over the business of the house of God.

23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.

24 And Pĕth-a-hī'ah the son of Mĕ-shĕz'a-beel, of the children of Zē'rah the son of Jū'dah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Jū'dah dwelt at Kĭr'jath-ăr'bā, and in the villages thereof, and at Dī'bŏn, and in the villages thereof, and at Jĕ-kăb'ze-el, and in the villages thereof,

26 And at Jēsh'u-ā, and at Mŏl'a-dah, and at Bĕth-phĕ'let,

27 And at Hā'zar-shu̇'al, and at Bĕ'er-shĕ'bā, and in the villages thereof,

28 And at Zĭk'lăg, and at Mĕk'o-nah, and in the villages thereof,

29 And at Ĕn-rĭm'mon, and at Zā're-ah, and at Jär'mŭth, 30 Zā-nō'ah, Ā-dŭl'lăm, and in their villages, at Lā'chish, and the fields thereof, at Ā-zē'kah, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Bĕ'er-shĕ'bā unto the valley of Hĭn'nom.

31 The children also of Bĕn'ja-mĭn from Gĕ'bā dwelt at Mĭch'mash, and Ā-ī'jā, and Bĕth'-el, and in their villages,

32 And at Ăn'a-thŏth, Nŏb, Ăn-a-nī'ah,

33 Hā'zŏr, Rā'mah, Gĭt'ta-ĭm,

34 Hā'dĭd, Ze-bō'im, Nĕ-băl'lat,

35 Lŏd, and Ō'nŏ, the valley of craftsmen.

36 And of the Lĕ'vites were divisions in Jū'dah, and in Bĕn'ja-mĭn.

3 First priests and Levites to return from captivity under Zerubbabel

NOW[d] these are the priests and the Lĕ'vites that went a All the priests, Levites, and other Israelites not listed in note d, v 6, dwelled in other cities throughout Israel. Many of these places are listed in v 20-34

b 32 cities of Judah:

1 Kirjath-arba (v 25)	17 Azekah
2 Dibon	18 Geba (v 31)
3 Jekabzeel	19 Michmash
4 Jeshua (v 26)	20 Aija
5 Moladah	21 Bethel
6 Beth-phelet	22 Anathoth (v 32)
7 Hazar-shual (v 27)	23 Nob
	24 Ananiah
8 Beersheba	25 Hazor (v 33)
9 Ziklag (v 28)	26 Ramah
10 Mekonah	27 Gittaim
11 Enrimmon (v 29)	28 Hadid (v 34)
12 Zareah	29 Zeboim
13 Jarmuth	30 Neballat
14 Zanoah (v 30)	31 Lod (v 35)
15 Adullam
16 Lachish	32 Ono

There were other communities from Beersheba to the valley of Hinnom (v 30), besides all the villages mentioned in connection with the major cities. Scattering about 50,000 returned exiles throughout all these places would not make any of them largely populated. This condition explains why Jerusalem had to be populated to some extent, by lots being cast to bring one out of 10 from other places, and shows the reason for not many houses being built there (v 1-2; 7:4) c The singers were supported as well as priests and Levites (v 23) books (most of which were written the last 3 centuries B.C.) being rejected from the Jewish Canon of Scripture. This list of O.T. books called the Palestinian Canon has been universally accepted by the Protestant Church

Many N.T. scriptures prove that the present Canon of Scripture of the O.T. was accepted in the days of Christ and the apostles (Mt. 21:42; 22:29; 23:33; Lk. 11:51; 24:27-32, 44; Jn. 5:39; 10:35; 2 Tim. 3:15-17). Not once is there a reference to a controversy over the O.T. Canon. It was a settled subject at that time, and should have never been brought up again by any church in this age

Formation of N.T. Canon

Of the 8 authors who wrote the 27 books of the N.T. not one ever suggested that he was adding to a collection of holy Scriptures (Lk. 1:1-3; Jn. 20:30-31; 1 Cor. 15:1-9; 1 Jn. 1:4; 2:1, 7, 12, 25; 5:13; 2 Pet. 3:13-16; Jude 3; Rev. 1:11-19); nevertheless, the N.T. books written by the apostles and other inspired men were soon held to be as sacred and inspired as the O.T. books; and together, they became the rule of faith for the church

In the formation of the N.T. Canon, 20 out of 27 books were universally accepted immediately as genuine. Only Hebrews, 2 and 3 John, 2 Peter Jude, James, and Revelation were questioned by some. The main objections were that Hebrews did not bear the name of its author; 2 Peter differed from 1 Peter in style; the writers of James and Jude called themselves servants instead of apostles; and the writer of 2 and 3 John called himself an elder instead of an apostle. The book of Revelation was questioned because of its peculiar character. After deliberate examination, however, these books were also received as genuine and authentic. By the beginning of the 4th century all 27 books of the present N.T. had been received by most churches; and by the end of that century they had been received by all churches without further doubt. There being many in those days who were writing novels and fantastic stories about Jesus Christ, His life and His parents, and other Bible characters it became a problem for the early church to decide

a This was not the Ezra of the book of Ezra, for he did not go to Jerusalem until after the building of the temple (Ezra 7-8), about 21 or 22 years after this one went there with Zerubbabel (v 1) b 22 are listed here as the heads or chiefs of the priests in the days of the high priest Jeshua (v 1-7) c These 6 Levites were over the music and singing of praises (v 8)

d 2 men were overseers of those who kept the watches of the city (v 9)

e The names of v 10-26 were those of the chief men of the priests and Levites (v 12, 22)

f This was Darius I, or the Artaxerxes who permitted Nehemiah to return to Jerusalem in the 20th year of his reign (1:1; 2:1)

g Here we have further proof that Nehemiah was governor of Jerusalem long after the temple was built, and after the return of exiles under both Zerubbabel and Ezra, instead of before this, as some teach. Jolakim was high priest in the days of Nehemiah, the governor (v 26). He was the son of Jeshua who was priest in the days of Zerubbabel and Ezra's return; therefore, Jeshua, Zerubbabel, and the rebuilding of the temple had to be before Jolakim and Nehemiah. Jeshua was high priest when Zerubbabel built the temple (Ezra 2:2; 3:1-3; 5:1-2; Hag. 1:1-2; Zech. 3:1-7; 4:8-10). Ezra, the priest, continued to live a long time after Zerubbabel and Jeshua. He was alive at this time of Nehemiah (v 26) which books were inspired. The question was finally settled at the Council of Nice, 325 A. D., Hippo, 394 A. D., and Carthage, 397 A. D. One can therefore whole-heartedly reject the so-called lost books of the Bible (p. 92[2]) and the Apocrypha, as being uninspired

VIII The Apocryphal books

In some large family Bibles there is a section of 14 books called the Apocrypha - a group of spurious books that were rejected from our present canon of Scripture because they did not pass the tests required of inspired books:

1 They were not written or approved by a prophet

2 They were not recognized by the Jews, as inspired and a part of Scripture

3 They were not recognized or quoted by Christ and the apostles, a fact that is more striking when we realize that Paul even quoted twice from heathen poets

4 The last O. T. prophet predicted that the next messenger coming to Israel from God would be the forerunner of Christ (Mal. 3:1). Most of the Apocryphal books were written during the period between Malachi and Christ

5 Divine authority is not claimed by their authors, and by some it is virtually disowned (2 Macc. 2:23; 15:38)

6 The books contain statements at variance with the Bible history

7 They are self-contradictory and, in some cases, opposed to doctrines of Scripture

8 Josephus, who lived at the time of the apostles, did not regard the Apocryphal books as Scripture. He stated that the O. T. books (the ones in our present version) were the only inspired writings (see Josephus, Book I, section 8)

9 The Apocryphal books were not a part of the ancient versions of Scripture. They were first added after 300 A. D. The Laodicean Council in 363 A. D. rejected them as being uninspired, thus proving that by that time some were claiming inspiration for them. (They first appeared in the Vatican Version of the 4th century. At the Counsil of Trent in 1546 A. D. Catholics accepted 6 of these books as inspired and added them to their modern versions of Scripture. They are: Wisdom of Solomon, Ecclesiasticus, Tobit, Judith, 1 and 2 Maccabees)

6 Shĕm-a-ī'ah, and Joi'a-rĭb, Jĕ-dā'iah,

7 Săl'lu, Ă'mok, Hĭl-kī'ah, Jĕ-dā'iah. [b]These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jĕsh'u-á.

8 Moreover the Lĕ'vītes: Jĕsh'u-á, Bĭn'nu-ī, Kăd'mĭ-el, Shĕr-e-bī'ah, Jū'dah, and Măt'ta-nī'ah, which was [c]over the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

9 Also Băk-bŭk-ī'ah and Ŭn'nī, their brethren, were [d]over against them in the watches.

4 Chief of the priests and Levites

10 ¶ And Jĕsh'u-á [e]begat Joi'a-kĭm, Joi'a-kĭm also begat Ē-lī'a-shĭb, and Ē-lī'a-shĭb begat Joi'a-dá, 11 And Joi'a-dá begat Jŏn'a-than, and Jŏn'a-than begat Jăd-dū'á.

12 And in the days of Joi'a-kĭm were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Sĕr-a-ī'ah, Mĕr-a-ī'ah; of Jĕr-e-mī'ah, Hăn-a-nī'ah;

13 Of Ez'rá, Mē-shŭl'lam; of Ăm-a-rī'ah, Jē-hō-hā'nan;

14 Of Mĕl'ĭ-cū, Jŏn'a-than; of Shĕb-a-nī'ah, Jō'şeph;

15 Of Hă'rim, Ăd'ná; of Mĕ-rā'ĭoth, Hĕl'ka-ī;

16 Of Id'dŏ, Zĕch-a-rī'ah; of Ĝĭn'ne-thŏn, Mē-shŭl'lam;

17 Of Ā-bī'jah, Zĭch'rī; of Mĭn'ĭ-a-mĭn, of Mō-a-dī'ah, Pĭl'tāi;

18 Of Bĭl'gah, Shăm-mū'á; of Shĕm-a-ī'ah, Jē-hŏn'a-than;

19 And of Joi'a-rĭb, Măt-te-nā'ī; of Jĕ-dā'iah, Ūz'zī;

20 Of Săl'la-ī, Kăl'la-ī; of Ă'mok, Ē-bĕr;

21 Of Hĭl-kī'ah, Hăsh-a-bī'ah; of Jĕ-dā'iah, Nē-thăn'e-el.

22 ¶ The Lĕ'vītes in the days of Ē-lī'a-shĭb, Joi'a-dá, and Jō-hā'nan, and Jăd-dū'á, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign [f]of Dā-rī'us the Pĕr'şian.

23 The sons of Lĕ'vī, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Jō-hā'nan the son of Ē-lī'a-shĭb.

24 And the chief of the Lĕ'vītes: Hăsh-a-bī'ah, Shĕr-e-bī'ah, and Jĕsh'u-á the son of Kăd'mĭ-el, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of Dā'vid the man of God, ward over against ward.

25 Măt-ta-nī'ah, and Băk-bŭk-ī'ah, Ō-ba-dī'ah, Mē-shŭl'lam, Tăl'mon, Āk'kŭb, were porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates.

26 These were [g]in the days of Joi'a-kĭm the son of Jĕsh'u-á, the son of Jŏz'a-dăk, and in the days of Nē'he-mī'ah the governor, and of Ez'rá the priest, the scribe.

5 Dedication of the walls of Jerusalem

27 ¶ And at the [a]dedication of the wall of Jĕ-rụ'sá-lĕm they sought the Lĕ'vītes out of all their places, to bring them to Jĕ-rụ'sá-lĕm, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jĕ-rụ'sá-lĕm, and from the villages of Nĕ-tŏph'a-thī;

29 Also from the house of Gĭl'găl, and out of the fields of Ge'bá and Az'ma-vĕth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jĕ-rụ'sá-lĕm.

30 And the priests and the Lĕ'vītes [b]purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 [c]Then I brought up the princes of Jū'dah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate:

32 And after them went Hŏsh-a-ī'ah, and half of the princes of Jū'dah, 33 And Az-a-rī'ah, Ez'rá, and Mē-shŭl'lam,

34 Jū'dah, and Bĕn'ja-mĭn, and Shĕm-a-ī'ah, and Jĕr-e-mī'ah,

35 And certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zĕch-a-rī'ah the son of Jŏn'a-than, the son of Shĕm-a-ī'ah, the son of Măt-ta-nī'ah, the son of Mī-chā'iah, the son of Zăc'cur, the son of Ā'saph:

36 And his brethren, Shĕm-a-ī'ah, and Ā-zăr'a-el, Mĭl-a-lā'ī, Gĭl'a-lāi, Mā-ā'ī, Nē-thăn'e-el, and Jū'dah, Hă-nā'nī, with the musical instruments of Dā'vid the man of God, and Ez'rá the scribe before them.

37 And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of Dā'vid, at the going up of the wall, above the house of Dā'vid, even unto the water gate eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;

39 And from above the gate of Ē'phrā-ĭm, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hă-năn'e-el, and the tower of Mē'ah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks [d]in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Ē-lī'a-kĭm, Mā-a-sē'iah, Mĭn'ĭ-a-mĭn, Mī-chā'iah, Ē-lĭ-o-ē'na-ī, Zĕch-a-rī'ah, and Hăn-a-nī'ah, with trumpets;

a It took 52 days to complete the walls after the return of Nehemiah (6:15); and soon after that the dedication was held. From all over Israel the Levites were brought to Jerusalem to help in the ceremonies. All the singers and musicians were Levites (v 27-29)

b Both the priests and the Levites purified themselves; and then they purified the people as well as the gates and walls (v 30). This means that certain ceremonial cleansings took place which caused the people and the walls to be considered clean

c Then - after the purification ceremonies of the people and the walls, Nehemiah brought the princes of Judah upon the wall and appointed two great companies to give thanks - one company walking on the wall toward the dung gate with half the princes, certain priests and trumpeters and musicians led by Ezra the scribe. The other company of singers and those with them went in the other direction. When the companies met again on the other side they stood still in the prison gate and give thanks (v 38-43)

d How could they give thanks in the house of God if the temple was not yet built?

IX Inspiration of the Bible

See the following: Inspiration defined, discussed: Degree the writers were inspired; 20 proofs of inspiration, 241[a]

X The Bible a revelation

Christianity is a revealed religion, the record being contained in the sacred Scriptures. See: Revelation defined, 190[a]; 207[a]; a 286-1[a]; Source of revelation, j 18-1[a]; 6 new revelations, 227[a]

Much of the Bible is a revelation. Man could never have known about ages of the eternal past, the pre-Adamite world, Lucifer's past, the creation of the spirit and material worlds, the future eternal ages, and many other things related to God's plan for man except by direct revelation of these things through the Holy Spirit (Rom. 16:25; Eph. 3:3; Col. 1:26; 2:3; Rev. 1:1). The many hundreds of prophecies are a direct revelation of things to come, which God alone could give (Acts 15:18; Eph. 2:7; 3:9-10; Rev. 1:1)

Revelation discovers new truth while inspiration superintends the communication and recording of it. Revelation guarantees that what God has revealed is truth; inspiration guarantees that not only all revelation, but all other records of Scripture are truth - that what is recorded actually happened, as recorded. All the Bible is inspired whether each passage is a revelation or not (2 Tim. 3:15-17). Furthermore, Inspiration records with equal accuracy the language of God, Satan, angels, demons, and men; but it does not place all that is said on the same level. For example, when Satan, evil spirits, or men are recorded as speaking lies to deceive, inspiration only records what was actually said; it does not affirm that what was said was truth. No lie can be truth, but inspiration can faithfully record both

The ignorance of man regarding his origin, past, and eternal future; his lack of knowledge concerning the will of God; and the fact that all philosophers have failed to construct a complete, coherent, and adequate religion - these things make revelation absolutely necessary

XI Genuineness and authenticity of the Bible

Genuineness defined. By genuineness we mean that the books of the Bible were actually written by the men whose names they bear, or that there is sufficient proof of their authorship, and that they were written at the time claimed a The dedication ceremonies:

1 The gathering of the people (v 27-29)
2 The purification ceremonies (v 30)
3 Ascension of the people to the top of the wall (v 31)
4 The processional of two great companies of singers of the wall (v 31-39)
5 Giving of thanks (v 40)
6 Blowing of trumpets (v 41-42)
7 Singing of the two great choirs (v 43)
8 Offering of sacrifices with rejoicing and singing 9 Wives and children entering the joyful ceremonies

b The sound of the joy of the dedication was heard afar off, as evidently testified by some who might have been coming to the city and the ceremonies (v 43)

c At that time–at the dedication ceremonies, some were appointed to take care of the treasures of the temple, and to store the many offerings and tithes of the people (v 44)

d Both the singers and gate-keepers were on hand every day to take care of their duties, as provided by the law (v 45-47)

e Again, we have another proof that the days of Zerubbabel were before the days of Nehemiah (v 47)

f On that day–the day of the dedication of the walls, they separated the mixed multitude from the temple worship (v 1-3) g The Moabite (masculine) being excluded from the congregation of God forever was the rule. Ruth, the Moabitess was an exception. See Dt. 23:3-6

h Num. 22:5-6; Dt. 23:3-4

i Num. 22:5-6; Josh. 24:9-10

j The mixed multitude was always a snare to Israel (Ex. 12:38; Num. 11:4)

k Here is another indisputable proof that Nehemiah's work was a long time after that of Zerubbabel, and not before. Jeshua was the high priest in the days of the first journey of Nehemiah to Jerusalem, and when the walls were dedicated in the first year of Nehemiah's 12-year stay as governor, Joiakim's son, Eliashib was high priest during the second stay of Nehemiah in Jerusalem (12:10, 26; 13:4-9)

5 To them that carry heavy loads of sin (5:18)
6 To them that call evil good (5:20)
7 To the self-conceited (5:21)
8 The drunkards that justify the wicked for reward and cause the righteous to stumble (5:22-23)

1 Haughtiness and pride (v 16; 10:33; Pr. 6:17; 16:12; Ezek. 16:50; Zeph. 3:11)

2 Walking with stretched forth necks (v 16; Neh. 9:16; Pr. 75:5). This means displaying the neck, elevating and extending it as far as possible, thus indicating pride and haughtiness

3 Walking with wanton eyes (v 16). The Heb. shagar means to lie, deceive, 42 And Mā-a-sē'iah, and Shĕm-a-ī'ah, and Ĕ-le-ā'zar, and Uz'zī, and Jĕ-hō-hā'nan, and Măl-chī'jah, and Ĕ'lăm, and Ĕ'zĕr. And the [a]singers sang loud, with Jĕz-ra-hī'ah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the[b]joy of Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm was heard even afar off.

6 Temple order and worship

44 ¶ And [c]at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Lē'vītes: for Jū'dah rejoiced for the priests and for the Lē'vītes that waited.

45 And [d]both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of Dā'vid, and of Sŏl'o-mon his son.

46 For in the days of Dā'vid and Ā'saph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Ĭs'ra-el[e] in the days of Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl, and in the days of Nĕ-he-mī'ah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Lē'vītes; and the Lē'vītes sanctified them unto the children of Aār'on.

CHAPTER 13 426

7 Obedience to the law concerning worshippers

ON that day they read in the book of Mō'şeş in the audience of the people; and therein was[a]found written, that the Ām'mon-īte and the Mō'ab-īte should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

2 [b]Because they met not the children of Ĭs'ra-el with bread and with water, but[i]hired Bā'laam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Ĭs'ra-el all the[j]mixed multitude.

IX Nehemiah's second visit to Jerusalem. 1 Treachery of the priest Eliashib

4 ¶ And before this, [k]Ĕ-lī'a-shīb the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tō-bī'ah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Lē'vītes, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

2 Nehemiah returns to Jerusalem: cleanses the temple

6 [a]But in all this time was not I at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm: for in the two and thirtieth year of Ăr-tăx-ērx'ēş king of Bāb'ў-lon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, and understood of the evil that Ĕ-lī'a-shīb did for Tō-bī'ah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore [b]I cast forth all the household stuff of Tō-bī'ah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

3 Restoration of the ministers and their support

10 [c] And [d]I perceived that the portions of the Lē'vītes had not been given them: for the Lē'vītes and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, [d]Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Jū'dah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries.

13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shĕl-e-mī'ah the priest, and Zā'dŏk the scribe, and of the Lē'vites, Pĕ-dā'iah: and next to them was Hā'nan the son of Zăc'cur, the son of Măt-ta-nī'ah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

4 Sabbath observance restored

15 [e] In those days saw I in Jū'dah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tўre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Jū'dah, and in Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Jū'dah, and said unto them, [e]What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

a Here Nehemiah explained that he had made a visit back to Persia and then a second trip to Jerusalem in the 32nd year of Artaxerxes (v 6). He had been governor 12 years (5:14) when he went back to Persia for certain days only. It was on the second trip to Jerusalem that he dealt with Eliashib and his son-in-law, Tobiah (v 7-9)

b His authority was not disputed. He cleansed the temple and put back the vessels and offerings of the house of God (v 8-9)

c 24 acts of Nehemiah on second trip:
1 Discovered sin (v 7)
2 Grieved deeply (v 8)
3 Cast forth all the household things of Tobiah
4 Cleansed the chambers (v 9)
5 Brought again the vessels of the temple, the meat offering and frankincense
6 Found out about the mistreatment of the Levites and singers (v 10)
7 Contended with the rulers of the city for forsaking the temple (v 11)
8 Gathered the rulers together
9 Set the rulers in their places
10 Made treasurers to take care of all the tithes and offerings (v 12-13)
11 Prayed (v 14)
12 Stopped all work on the sabbath (v 15-17)
13 Stopped all selling on the sabbath
14 Contended with the rulers for allowing such breaking of the sabbath (v 17-22)
15 Commanded gates to be shut at dark (v 19)
16 Charged they not be opened during the sabbath
17 Set watchmen to see that no burden was brought into the city
18 Rebuked people for lodging at the walls (v 21)
19 Commanded Levites to cleanse themselves (v 22)
20 Charged them to keep the gates
21 Prayed again (v 22)
22 Commanded separation from foreigners (v 25)
23 Chased the son-in-law of Sanballat (v 28)
24 Prayed another time (v 29-31)

and no doubt here refers to the art of alluring by a wanton and fascinating look of the eyes; making the eyes glance about wantonly (Pr. 6:13; 10:10). The Moffatt and Berkeley versions read, ogling eyes, meaning to look at another with admiration and coarse familiarity. This is the opposite of shamefacedness (note k, 1 Tim. 2:9) which is the godly reserve known to chaste women

4 Walking and mincing as they go, tripping along with short steps and so moving their bodies as to attract the lusts of men (v 16)

5 Making a tinkling with their feet (v 16). In Isaiah's time the women adorned themselves with ankle rings, bells and other kinds of ornaments which they would cause to strike together as they walked, so as to call attention to themselves in trying to charm and attract men. Some joined the ankle rings with short chains which would make a sound as they walked and also compel the wearer to take short steps. Such caused the walking described as mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet

Because of these customs the prophet pronounced the judgment of God upon the women, proving that they were lascivious in purpose and practice–a thing which God hates (v 17-24)

8 judgments upon women (Isa. 3:17):

1 Sending a scalp disease upon them (v 16-17)
2 Making them naked (v 17)
3 Taking away their fine clothes, beautiful ornaments, and useful things (v 18-23)
4 Cursing with a stink instead of a sweet smell (v 24)
5 Giving a rent (rope) instead of a girdle
6 Baldness instead of healthy hair
7 Girding with sackcloth (girding with a rope instead of silk)
8 Burning (branding) instead of beauty

Authenticity defined. By this we mean that the Bible relates truthfully the matters it deals with, and the contents are as originally written 6 proofs Bible genuine and authentic:

1 Claims of the Bible itself:

(1) The prophets of the O. T. claimed they were sent of God and that their messages were given to them by God (Lk. 1:70; Acts 3:31; 2 Pet. 1:21). Over 2, 500 times the prophets claimed that God spoke by them (Isa. 6:5; Jer. 2:2; Ezek. 2:4; etc.)

(2) The whole Bible centers around the person and work of Jesus Christ. In the O. T. we have hundreds of predictions, and in the N. T. we have the fulfillment and continuation of His life and ministry. He, Himself claimed to have been sent by God (Jn. 8:42; 7:16; 17:8). He performed miracles to confirm His mission (Acts 10: 38); what He foretold came to pass and will yet come to pass. He put His seal upon the genuineness and authenticity of the O. T. (Mt. 5:17-18; 8:17; 12:40-42; Lk. 24:44; Jn. 5:39)

(3) The Bible also represents the commission of the apostles as divine. God confirmed their ministry by signs and wonders (Mk. 16:15-20; Acts 2:41-46; 5:1-15; Heb. 2:1-4). In all their writings they confirmed the teachings of Christ; and their declaration thereof was by supernatural powers

(4) The testimony of the N. T. to the genuineness and authenticity of the O. T. is plain to see. The O. T. is quoted about 250 times in the N. T., and alluded to about 850 times. All O. T. books are either quoted or alluded to except Esther, Ezra, Nehemiah, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Solomon

2 Testimony of secular history

The events of Bible history were well known among all nations. Happenings of the N. T., having come to the knowledge of the then known world, were referred to by various secular authors of the first 4 centuries of the Christian era. Jerome, in 392 A. D., mentioned about 50 other authors as making quotations about and referring to N. T. events. They belonged to all parts of the world, but they agreed on one thing-that the Jewish scriptures were genuine and authentic, referring to them as a distinct volume universally received as such. No event in ancient history can produce more than a fraction of the evidence by which the Bible in its entirety is sustained as genuine and authentic

3 Ancient manuscripts

No original MS. can be produced due to the perishable material written on, such as paper and vellum (skins of 19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Je-ru'sa-lem began to be dark before the sabbath, [h]I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So [c]the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Je-ru'sa-lem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, [i]Why lodge ye about the wall? [e]if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Le'-vites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to [g]sanctify the sabbath day. [h]Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

5 Separation from heathen wives

23 ¶ [i]In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ash'dod, and of Am'mon, and of Mo'ab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ash'dod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

25 And I [c]contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26 [b]Did not Sol'o-mon king of Is'ra-el sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Is'ra-el: nevertheless even him [c]did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

28 And one of the sons of Joi'a-da, the son of E-li'a-shib the high priest, was son in law to San-bal'lat the Hor'o-nite: therefore I chased him from me.

29 Remember them, O my God, because [d]they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Le'vites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Le'vites, every one in his business;

31 And for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. [e]Remember me, O my God, for good.

Summary of Nehemiah

Date and place: the book was written in Palestine 446-430 B. C., sometime after the second trip of Nehemiah to Jerusalem in the 32nd year of Artaxerxes (5:14-19; 13:6-9)

Author: Nehemiah or Ezra, or perhaps both. See Proof, below

Proof of authorship: originally Ezra and Nehemiah were one book known as The book of Ezra. Later a division was made and the two sections became distinguished as The first and The second book of Ezra. About the 4th century A. D. the second was called The book of Nehemiah, by Jerome. All of chs. 1-7 and 12:27-43 are written in the first person, and 8:1-10:30 and 12:44-13:3 in the third person; so it maybe that both Nehemiah and Ezra had a part in writing the book. In Neh. 1:1 it is stated that these are the words of Nehemiah. It could be that Ezra and the Great Synagogue (of which he was founder and president) took the writings of Nehemiah and compiled the work in its present form, making the two books one writing of Ezra, the scribe - originally called The book of Ezra

Theme: the book is in 4 sections. Chs. 1-7 contain the history of Nehemiah in Babylon and his 12 years of governorship in Judea; this part was no doubt composed by Nehemiah; it is written in the first person. Chs. 8-10 contain a record of events in charge of Ezra and Nehemiah - written in the third person. The section of ch. 11-12:26 consists of 6 important lists of Jewish exiles who came back to Jerusalem; and 12:27-13:31 contains a record of the dedication of the walls and certain reforms made by Nehemiah in his second governorship of Judea

Purpose: to show the long and slow process connected with the rebuilding of Jerusalem and the restoration of Israel after the Babylonian captivities, to give information about the many problems facing the Jews in their rebirth as a nation, and to reveal how these difficulties were overcome by the help of God

Statistics: 16th book of the Bible; 13 chapters; 406 verses; 10,483 words; 3 verses of fulfilled prophecy; 3 predictions; 14 commands; no promises; and no new messages from God; 24 questions

Gentile proselytes (Isa. 56:3)

In all ages it has been common for Gentiles to become proselytes to the Jewish religion. The idea here is that no man should think he is cut off from the blessings of Jehovah; everyone can enjoy the rights and privileges of the people of God, even a stranger or eunuch who was formerly excluded from certain rights in the congregation (Dt. 23:1-3). This teaches that in the Millennium such restrictions in the law of Moses will be abolished so that all classes will enjoy the same rights and privileges. Cp. Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11.

12 rewards for obedience (Isa. 56:5):

1 Salvation (v 1)
2 Righteousness
3 Happiness (note n, v 2)
4 Union with God's people (v 3)
5 Healing (note q, v 3)
6 Access to God's house (v 5)
7 A sure place in God's city
8 A name better than that of having children
9 An everlasting name
10 Access to God's holy mountain (v 7)
11 Joy in the house of prayer
12 Acceptance of sacrifices to God a 10 acts regarding segregation:

1 Nehemiah contended with Jews who had married foreign wives (v 25)
2 Pronounced a curse upon them
3 Smote certain ones of them
4 Plucked off the hair
5 Made them vow to God to live segregated
6 Lectured to them (v 26-27)
7 Chased one of them (v 28)
8 Prayed for them (v 29)
9 Cleansed them by segregation (v 30)
10 Appointed priests and Levites to their duties b Questions 23-24. Last ones in Nehemiah c See 1 Ki. 11:1-9 d Some of the priests and Levites had been guilty of inter-marriage with other nations. This was surely illegal, and they had to be segregated from their foreign wives and sanctified to God again before being given their regular work (v 29-30; Lev. 21:14)
e Nehemiah is the only book of Scripture that ends with a prayer except Lamentations. A number end in salutation, praise, prophecy, or history, but only these of the 66 books finish with prayer. Nehemiah was always inserting a short prayer at the end of experiences; and this shows the earnest and godly disposition of the man animals). However, because of the dry climate of Egypt and Palestine, many thousands of copies-whole books or parts thereof, have been preserved for us. It is not necessary to produce original MSS. to prove the genuineness and authenticity of the Bible any more than it would be necessary to produce the original Declaration of Independence to prove the many copies we have contain the statements of the original. Scholars are willing to admit the genuineness and authenticity of other writings if there are as many as 10 copies of the originals to be found. On this basis the Bible can be proved genuine and authentic thousands of times

Number of manuscripts:

(1) Uncial manuscripts. All letters of uncial copies are 1 in. high; they are the oldest MSS. before the 9th century A. D.

Gospels	101
Acts; general epistles	22
Pauline epistles	27
Apocalypse (Revelation)	9
Total	156

(2) Cursive manuscripts. Cursive copies are those in running hand-writing as introduced about the 9th century A. D., and used in Bible making up to the invention of the printing press, 1456 A. D.

Gospels	1,420
Acts; general epistles	450
Pauline epistles	520
Apocalypse (Revelation).	195
Total	2,585

Since the catalog of these MSS. was made there have been many new discoveries of whole books and portions of the Bible-the Dead Sea scrolls of Isaiah and other ancient writings, for instance. Some Bible texts have been found which are at least 100-200 years earlier than the above. Besides these Greek MSS. there are many in Syriac, Coptic, Latin, and other languages, of both testaments, some dating back to the 3rd century, B. C. In 1897 literally tons of papyri were found in the Nile valley about 120 mi. south of Cairo, thousands of pieces being written in the language of the N. T. In another discovery there were at least 1,000,000 papyri; and of these many thousands have never been edited. Other collections have also been located, some dating back to 100-600 A. D., and new discoveries are being made all the time. A recent report says that there are about 5,000 Greek MSS. of the N. T. In all, and from 20,000 to 30,000 in other languages besides 100,000 to 200,000 quotations in the writings of the early church fathers. See point 5, below

BOOK OF ESTHER

Jewish Queen of Persia - Plot to Exterminate the Jews - Their Great Deliverance - The Feast of Purim

427 CHAPTER 1

I The story of Vashti. 1 The longest display of riches on record: 180 days

NOW it came to pass in the days of [a]Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs, (this is Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs which reigned, from In'dĭ-ā even unto Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ā, over [c]an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

2 That [d]in those days, when the king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in [e]Shu'shan the palace,

3 [f]In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of [g]Pēr'şiă and Mē'dĭ-ā, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

4 [h]When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

2 Great feast for the people

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shu'shan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the [i]court of the garden of the king's palace;

6 Where were [j]white, green, and blue, [k]hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: [l]the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

7 And they gave them [m]drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and [n]royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the [o]drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

3 Vashti's feast for women

9 Also Văsh'tĭ the queen made a [p]feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs.

4 The king commands Vashti to parade her beauty before his subjects

10 ¶ On the [q]seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mē-hū'man, Bĭz'thā, Hăr-bō'nā, Bĭg'thā, and Ă-băg'thā, Zē'thăr, and Căr'cas, the seven [r]chamberlains that served in the presence of Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs the king, 11 To bring Văsh'tĭ the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

5 Vashti refuses to obey the king and display her beauty

12 But the queen Văsh'tĭ [a]refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was [b]the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

6 The king in his wrath counsels how to punish Vashti

13 ¶ [c]Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Căr-shē'nā, Shē'thăr, Ăd'mā-thā, Tär'shish, Mē'rēş, Mär'se-nā, and Mē-mū'can, the seven princes of Pēr'şiă and Mē'dĭ-ā, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)

15 [d]What shall we do unto the queen Văsh'tĭ according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs by the chamberlains?

7 Advice of Prince Memucan to keep wives in subjection

16 And Mē-mū'can answered before the king and the princes, Văsh'tĭ the queen [e]hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs commanded Văsh'tĭ the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Pēr'şiă and Mē'dĭ-ā say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 If it please the king, [f]let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Pēr'şians and the Mēdes, that it be not altered, That Văsh'tĭ come no more before king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rūs; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) [g]all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

8 The king decrees the headship of husbands in all homes

21 [h]And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Mē-mū'can:

a This was an unusual demand for an Oriental king to make of his queen-exposing herself before a company of drunken revellers. Such was not only unbecoming to the modesty of her sex, but to her rank as queen. Furthermore, household servants instead of nobles were sent to bring her, and the showing of herself was to be before the common people (v 12). According to Persian customs, the queen, more than the wives of other men, was to be secluded from public gaze. The king, himself would not have tolerated this exposure had he been sober. He would have known that his own honor as well as hers would be insulted

b Queens and concubines of kings were subject to the complete will of monarchs, the same as slaves. For her to refuse him before his subjects humiliated him; and because of this he became very angry (v 12)

c Then-when the queen refused to obey the king, he consulted with the wise men regarding what should be done to her according to the law (v 13-15)

d Question 1. Next, 3:3

e The wise men concluded that the queen had wronged the king, all the princes, and all the other people in the kingdom; they believed that when her actions became known other women would despise their husbands; and they predicted much contempt and wrath throughout the empire if she went unpunished (v 16-18)

f To avoid all the confusion and trouble that her rebellion would create in other women, it was decided that the king should put her away and choose another queen. This would stop the rebellion that could be the result in other homes (v 19-20)

g See Name of God in Esther, p. 516

h The advice of Memucan was taken; the law was made that Vashti should never come before the king again, and that every man should rule his own house (v 21-22)

object of luxury in Persia

m The drinking vessels were of various sizes and shapes, but all of gold (v 7)

n Many kinds of wine were made and used by the kings of ancient times. That which was made especially for kings was called royal wine (v 7)

o Revellers of all nations had their own particular drinking habits, which were as binding as laws. Among the Egyptians wine was offered before as well as during the meal. Among the Greeks, each guest was obliged to drink the round with all others or leave the company. "Drink or be gone" was the proverb. At Roman feasts a master was chosen by throwing dice. He prescribed the rules for the company which all were to observe. Among the Jews the master of ceremonies was called the governor of the feast (Jn. 2:8). On the occasion of v 8 here Ahasuerus did not compel his guests to drink; the matter was left up to each man's choice p In the East the women of many countries did not have their feasts in the same room with the men. Such separation of the sexes was an ancient custom which was observed at this time

q The 7th day of the special 7-day feast for all the people ended the 180 days of feasting. At this time the king was merry with wine and wanted to show off the beauty of his queen to all his subjects, so he commanded the 7 chamberlains who served in his presence to bring her in before the princes and others (v 10-11)

r The Heb. sarisim is variously rendered chamberlains, officers, and eunuchs. They were emasculated persons who had charge of the harems of Oriental monarchs, and who were also employed by them in various offices about the court. They often became the confidential advisers of the monarch, and were frequently men of great influence, sometimes having high military office. This was especially the case in Persia, where they acquired great political power, and filled positions of great prominence

a After these things-after the rebellion of Vashti and the making of the new law stating that every man should rule his own house (v 21-22), the wrath of the king subsided; and he remembered Vashti and the decree against her (v 1) b Then-in his sobemess, the servants of the king laid before him the new plan for a queen (v 2) c 6fold plan for a new queen:
1 Let fair young virgins be sought for the king (v 2)
2 Let him appoint officers in all the provinces of the kingdom (v 3)
3 Let them gather together all the fair young virgins to Shushan the palace
4 Let them be placed in the house for women in the custody of Hege, the king's chamberlain, the keeper of women
5 Let their things for purification be given them
6 Let the maiden which pleases the king become queen instead of Vashti (v 4) d The king was pleased with such a plan-bringing beautiful and talented virgins from all over the kingdom for him to choose a queen from; and so he commanded it should be done (v 4) e Just how Mordecai got to Shushan, the palace in Persia when he was taken by Nebuchadnezzar to Babylon is not revealed. He could have been brought as a slave by the king of Persia, or he could have been selected for his special talents to stand in the court of Persia (v 5) f Mordecai was from the tribe of Benjamin. Here he is called a Jew, proving that the term is used of any Israelite from any tribe and not Judah only (v 5). In the book of Esther the term is even applied to Gentiles who became proselytes (8:17). Benjamites were of the seed of the Jews (6:13); and on the same basis so were the Israelites from all the other tribes, for they too were of the seed of Israel or Jacob. Mordecai is called a Jew in 2:5; 3:4; 5:13; 6:10; 8:7; 9:29-31; 10:3. Of the 90 times the words Jew and Jews are used in the O. T. they are found 53 times in Esther. They are used 197 times in the N. T. referring to all the tribes of Israel. These were the terms used by Gentiles of all the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob g Mordecai was taken to Shushan but Daniel and Ezekiel remained in Babylon

h With Jehoiachin, king of Judah, after Jehoiakim had reigned 11 years, and just before Zedekiah's reign of 11 years (2 Ki. 24; Jer. 52:24-34)

i Hadassah, myrtle. She was an orphan, her father, that is, Mordecai's uncle (his father's brother) as well as his aunt having died. Mordecai brought his cousin Esther up as his own daughter (v 7). She evidently lived outside the palace with him and he carried on his duties in the palace j Esther, star. She is mentioned 56 times in the book that bears her name k Esther was brought to the king's house to enter the contest to determine who was the most beautiful and talented virgin in all the empire-the first and only beauty contest of the Bible (v 8). She received special favor from Hegai, keeper of the women, who gave her all things for her purification, 7 maidens to be her attendants and the best place in all the harem (v 9). Besides the influence of God upon Hegai it could be that there was a warm friendship between him and Mordecai, as palace servants which added to Esther's opportunities. We do know that it was in the plan of God to favor Esther for the preservation of the Jews in this period of their history, so that the Messiah could finally come to restore man's dominion. Otherwise, Satan would have had his way in the destruction of the Seed of the woman who was predicted in Gen. 3:15 and by many of the prophets from Adam to the N. T. days. This is an example of how God works even among the heathen to fulfill His will and carry out His original plan for man 22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

428 CHAPTER 2

II Esther made queen. 1 The beauty contest

[a]AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 [b]Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let[c]there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. [d]And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

2 Mordecai enters Esther in the beauty contest

5 ¶ [e]Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain [f]Jew, whose name was [g]Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away [h]with Jechoniah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up [i]Hadassah, that is, [j]Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that [k]Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

3 Esther pleases Hegai, the keeper of women and is given the choice place to live

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

4 Esther's secret and Mordecai's anxiety for her

10 Esther had [a]not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had [b]charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, [c]to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

5 One year's preparation

12 ¶ Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

6 Presentation of Esther

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she [d]required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month [e]Tebeth, in the [f]seventh year of his reign.

7 Esther chosen queen

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

8 Wedding feast of Esther

18 [g]Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai [h]sat in a It was part of Mordecai's plan not to reveal this until later, as in 7:3-5 (v 10)

b This was sufficient, for she obeyed the commandment of Mordecai as when she was being brought up by him (v 20) c Such solicitude and secrecy suggest that he wanted to make it appear that Esther was a Persian virgin. Although the Persians did not have any particular hatred for the Jews, they did despise all captive races more or less. Hadassah was her Jewish name while Esther was her Persian name and one given to her perhaps, so that she could pose as a Persian virgin better. With both parents dead so that she would not have to make it known who her father and mother were, and by looking like a Persian, it seems the plan was not faced with too much difficulty (v 10-11, 20; 7:3-5) d The other virgins required many ornaments and other things which they thought would appeal to the king (v 13); but Esther required nothing extra, except what Hegai suggested. Perhaps her very simplicity made her beauty stand out more than all the others. When she was taken to the king he indicated his love and favor toward her above all others, and set the royal crown upon her head (v 15-17). Among the wives of Persian monarchs there was one who occupied a higher position than anyone else, and to her alone the title of "queen" belonged. This chief wife was privileged to wear a royal tiara or crown on her head; and she was the acknowledged head of the female departments, the others recognizing her dignity at all times. On great occasions when the king entertained the males of his court, she feasted with all the females in her own part of the palace. The queen had a large revenue of her own assigned her, not so much by the will of her husband, as by an established law or custom. Her dress was splendid, and she was able to indulge freely in ornamentation. Such was the elevated position held by Vashti at first, and by Esther afterward
e The 10th month (January, v 16)
f 4 years had gone by since he made the 180-day feast and Vashti was set aside (1:3; 2:16). He reigned for 35 years, so this could be 28 years before the close of his rule. If Cyrus was born to him and Esther this same year, after they were married in January, then their son was about 25 years old when he commanded the armies of his father which took Babylon, as in Dan. 5. Astyages or Darius the Mede, the father of Cyrus, reigned 2 years after this which would make Cyrus about 27 when he began to reign and when he made the decree for the Jews to return to their native land and rebuild their city and temple-in fulfillment of Isa. 44:28-45:1-5, 13; 46:11; 48:14-15
g Then-after Esther had been crowned queen, Astyages made a great feast, even Esther's feast, making a release in all his provinces, and giving gifts, according to the state of the King (v 18-20) h Mordecai was one of the king's house-hold. He was thus able to guard Esther's interests and also obtain information needful for the well-being of his people (v 19)

120 princes (1:1)

In Dan. 6:1 it says 120 princes. The number changed continually to suit the requirements of government in the various provinces. Only in Dan. 6:1 do we find 120. Plato says that "when Darius (i. e. the Maimainer-Astyages) came to the throne, being one of seven, he divided the country into seven portions" (De Legibus III). These rulers were the 7 princes of Persia named in v 13-14. When Babylon fell into the hands of this Ahasuerus or Darius the Mede, he divided the newly acquired kingdom into 120 parts (Dan. 9:1. Cp. 6:1). The 127 could have been the previous 7 parts and the newly formed 120 (v 1; 9:30). In the days of Darius Hystaspis these were reduced to 23 parts, as stated on the Behistun inscription a In those days-the days following the making of Esther queen, and while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the monarch's chamberlains became angry with him and sought to assassinate him. When Mordecai learned of this he told queen Esther about it and she told the king. When investigation was made the men were executed and the report of the saving of the king's life by Mordecai was written in the records of the kings of Persia (v 21-23)

b This was a wise move on the part of Esther, for it proved invaluable later when her own life and the lives of her people were at stake (v 22; 4:4-6:14)

c After these things-about 5 years after the crowning of Esther, the king promoted Haman to the position of Grand Vizier (v 7)

d Haman, well disposed. Called the Agagite because of his Amalekite descent. He is mentioned 53 times in Esther (3:1-9:24). He was a Jew hater with a burning passion to be exalted higher than others-a combination of traits which caused his own destruction as well as that of his family. He never considered principle when seeking honor e Mordecai was the chief thorn in Haman's life. From Mordecai's viewpoint, how could he honor one whom God had cursed? (Ex. 17:14-16). Haman almost succeeded in destroying the Jews of the world; and it was Esther who saved them from their planned fate (4:6-6:14)

f Then-when the servants of the king saw that Mordecai would not bow to Haman even though the king had commanded it, they questioned him as to his reason (v 3)

g Question 2. Next, 4:14

h Another example of men seeking favors at the expense of others and finally to their own hurt (v 4). In this case it cost the lives of several men and almost destroyed the great nation of God's chosen people. If they had known what the outcome would be perhaps they would not have made the report on Mordecai i When Haman heard about this one Jew not bowing to him, he began to notice him; and deep hatred began to increase in his heart. He proceeded to plot the total destruction of all Jews (v 5-9)

j This was another one of Satan's attempts to destroy the very people of God through whom the Messiah and Saviour of the world would come (v 6) k The casting of lots from month to month was to see which would be the most favorable time to request the destruction of the Jews. This, of course, was done by the monthly prognosticators as in Isa. 47:13

l Pur is the Persian for lot, the lot of the monthly prognosticators chose the 13th day of the first month (April) for the best time (v 7, 12)

Ahasuerus (1:1)

Ahasuerus, meaning the Mighty or Venerable king, was a title of certain Persian kings. Some think the one here was Xerxes, the son of Darius Hystaspis, but this could not be, for the events of the book had to take place much earlier than this. It is clear from 2:5-7 that Mordecai was the cousin of Esther. She was his uncle's daughter; and he had brought her up because she had no father or mother. Mordecai had been taken captive with Jehoiachin, king of Judah, by Nebuchadnezzar. This was 11 years before the final captivity of Judah and destruction of Jerusalem (2 Ki. 24:1-25:30; Jer. 25:1). The servitude to Babylon for 70 years began in the 4th year of Jehoiakim (Jer. 25:1, 9-11; note k, Dan. 9:2). If Mordecai was a young man, say 20 years old, at the time of his captivity 11 years after the beginning of the 70 years of servitude, about 627 B. C., and Xerxes reigned 485-464 B.C., this would make him 162 years old in the first year of Xerxes. Esther would be an old woman by this time also the king's gate.

20 Es'thĕr had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Môr'de-cāi had charged her: for Es'thĕr did the commandment of Môr'de-cāi, like as when she was brought up with him.

9 Mordecai providentially saves the king's life

21 ¶ In those days, while Môr'de-cāi sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Big'thăn and Tē'resh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs.

22 And the thing was known to Môr'de-cāi, who told it unto Es'thĕr the queen; and Es'thĕr certified the king thereof [b]in Môr'de-cāi's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER 3 429

III Haman's plot against the Jews. 1 Haman's exaltation

[a]AFTER these things did king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs promote [d]Hā'man the son of Hăm-mĕd'a-thā the Ā'găg-ite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and reverenced Hā'man: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Môr-de'cāi [c]bowed not, nor did him reverence.

2 Haman's thorn in the flesh

3 [f]Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Môr'de-cāi, [g]Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that [h]they told Hā'man, to see whether Môr'de-cāi's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And [i]when Hā'man saw that Môr'de-cāi bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Hā'man full of wrath.

3 Haman's plot to destroy all Jews because of Mordecai

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Môr'de-cāi alone; for they had shewed him the people of Môr'de-cāi: wherefore Hā'man sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs, even the people of Môr'de-cāi.

7 ¶ In the first month, that is, the month Nī'san, in the twelfth year of king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs, [k]they cast [l]Pūr, that is, the lot, before Hā'man from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Ă'dăr.

8 ¶ And Hā'man said unto king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs, [e]There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and [b]their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay [e]ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

4 Haman's request granted

10 And [d]the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Hā-man the son of Hăm-mĕd'a-thā the Ā'găg-ite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Hā'man, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

5 Decree to destroy all Jews

12 Then were the king's scribes called on the [e]thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Hā'man had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Ă'dăr, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shu'shan the palace. And [f]the king and Hā'man sat down to drink; but the city Shu'shan was perplexed.

430 CHAPTER 4

IV Haman's plot frustrated (4:1-7:10). 1 Fasting and praying among the Jews

[f]WHEN Môr'de-cāi perceived all that was done, Môr'de-cāi rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's coma Haman finally approached the king, and upon laying his case against the Jews before him, received permission to destroy all of them in his realm (v 9-16)

b 4fold proposition of Haman:
1 The Jews are different from other people (v 8)
2 They do not keep the king's laws
3 They do not profit the king
4 I will pay 10,000 talents of silver to get rid of them (v 9)

c 10,000 talents of silver at $1,920,000 each-$19,200,000,000

d The king, without thinking of what could be behind this plot, and having full confidence in Haman, took off his ring and gave it to seal a decree for the destruction of all the Jews in his kingdom (v 10-15). The king gave Haman the 10,000 talents and a decree to destroy the Jews, for the asking (v 11)

e This was the day before the passover of the Jews, which was always to be the 14th day of the first month, Nisan (April). Messengers were sent to all provinces that on the 13th day of the coming month (Adar or March), the Jews should be killed and all their property taken by those who would carry out the order (v 12-15)

f After such a devilish decree the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the people were perplexed (v 15)

g Mordecai did what most godly men do in time of trouble-fasted and prayed, furthermore, he walked the streets in bitter wailing; and he came to the king's gate even though no man was allowed to do so in sackcloth (v 1-2). Also in every province there was mourning among the Jews (v 3)

The fact is that Esther was the young and beautiful wife of Darius the Mede, of Dan. 5, and the mother of Cyrus, the commander of the Persian armies which took Babylon at the end of the 70 years of servitude. This Darius (the father of Cyrus) reigned 35 years, 33 of which were during the latter part of the 70 years of servitude of Israel to Babylon. This fits into all the historical facts about Mordecai being carried away captive with Jehoiachin as a very young man. It is possible that he lived throughout the entire captivity. He could have easily been the Mordecai of Ezra 2:2; Neh. 7:7. Some Jews did live through the 70 years of servitude and returned to see the foundation of the temple laid (Ezra 3:12). See Kings of Persia, p. 490; 879

Name of God in Esther (1:20)

It has been observed by many that the name of God is not found in the book of Esther. This is more remarkable in view of the fact that in the 167 verses of the book, the king is mentioned 192 times; his kingdom 26 times; and his title Ahasuerus is given 29 times. However, in the ancient Hebrew text there were 5 places where the name of God was hidden, being abbreviated-JHVH for JeHoVaH, 4 times, and EHYEH (I Am that I Am) once. These letters were used as acrostics in certain statements, and in 3 of the MSS. they were written larger than the rest of the text so that they stood out boldly on the scroll. The statements wherein these letters occurred in the Hebrew text are:

1 All the wives shall give. Uttered by Memucan (1:20)

2 Let the king and Haman come this day. Uttered by queen Esther (5:4)

3 This availeth me nothing. Uttered by Haman (5:13)

4 That there was evil determined against him. Uttered by the author of Esther (7:7)

5 Who is he, and where is he (7:5). This is where the acrostic EHYEH was used while in the above points JHVH was used a One can imagine the effect such a decree had on all Israel -having the knowledge that they would be exterminated on the 13th day of the coming 12th month which would be March (Adar, 3:13). All the tribes were involved, not only Judah and Benjamin. Being of the northern or southern division made no difference; the decree concerned all the seed of Jacob (v 3)

b 4fold effort by the Jews:
1 Great mourning (v 3)
2 Fasting in desperation
3 Weeping
4 Wailing

c Esther found out about the decree through her cousin's unlawful act of going before the king's gate in sackcloth and being in bitter mourning (v 1-4). Otherwise, she may have been so sheltered from the outside world that she might have passed the whole time away in ignorance

d Esther's reaction to seeing her cousin in such a state at the king's gate was that of grief. She sent raiment to clothe him so that he might not be arrested for appearing thus;but from Mordecai's viewpoint desperate action needed to be taken; so he rejected the clothing. Then Esther sent a messenger to find out what the trouble was (v 5-6)

e 4fold answer of Mordecai to Esther:
1 He sent word of all that had happened to him (v 7)
2 He told of the sum of money which Haman had promised to pay the king's treasurers for the destruction of the Jews
3 He sent her a copy of the decree to destroy all Jews (v 8) 4 He charged that she should go in to the king, to make supplication and request before him for her people

f Up to this time it was not known to the king that he had married a Jewess and that he had made a decree to destroy her people

g Esther's reply to Mordecai through her messenger was that he knew it could mean her death even to approach the king in the inner court if he had not called her -and he had not called her for 30 days (v 10-12). The etiquette of the Persian court was very strict. To come into the king's presence without being summoned was a capital crime; and the severity of the Persian punishments may be seen in the fact that an act like this was dealt with the same as murder or rebellion. The intruder was instantly put to death by the attendants unless the king, by extending his golden sceptre, showed his approval of the act. It was well understood, therefore, that whoever thus appeared before the king deliberately risked his life. Thus it was an evidence of the influence which Esther had gained over Ahasuerus that, when she appeared, the sceptre was extended

h Mordecai's answer to Esther was that it could mean her death if she did not go to the king and have this decree cancelled; she could not escape any more than the other Jews; if she held her peace at this time she would fail to be the deliverer of the Jews; deliverance would come from another source; her father's house would be destroyed along with all the others; and she no doubt had come to the kingdom for such a time as this (v 13-14)

7fold honor suggested by Haman (6:8)

1 Let the royal apparel be brought -that which the king usually wears (v 8)
2 Let the king's horse be brought 3 Let the royal crown which the king wears be brought 4 Let this apparel and the horse be delivered into the hands of one of the king's most noble princes (v 9)
5 Let the prince array the man with the king's garment and crown
6 Let the man be brought on the king's horse through the street of the city
7 Let them proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor mandment and his [a]decree came, there was great [b]mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

2 Esther inquires of Mordecai the reason of his conduct

4 ¶ So Ĕs'thĕr's maids and her chamberlains [c]came and told it her. Then [d]was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Môr'de-cāi, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Ĕs'thĕr for Hā'tăch, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Môr'de-cāi, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hā'tăch went forth to Môr'de-cāi unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

3 Mordecai informs Esther of the plight of the Jews

7 [e]And Môr'de-cāi told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Hā'man had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shu'shan to destroy them, to shew it unto Ĕs'thĕr, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hā'tăch came and told Ĕs'thĕr the words of Môr'de-cāi.

4 Esther's problem in approaching the king

10 ¶ [f]Again Ĕs'thĕr spake unto Hā'tăch, and gave him commandment unto Môr'de-cāi;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Môr'de-cāi Ĕs'thĕr's words.

5 Mordecai's charge to Esther

13 Then Môr'de-cāi [h]commanded to answer Ĕs'thĕr, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and [a]who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

6 Esther's decision to face all dangers for her people

●15 ¶ [b]Then Ĕs'thĕr bade them return Môr'de-cāi this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shu'shan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, [c]night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

17 So [d]Môr'de-cāi went his way, and did according to all that Ĕs'thĕr had commanded him.

CHAPTER 5 431

7 The courage of Esther

NOW it came to pass [e]on the third day, that Ĕs'thĕr put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Ĕs'thĕr the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Ĕs'thĕr the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Ĕs'thĕr drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

8 Esther's banquet of wine and her request of the king

3 Then said the king unto her, [f]What wilt thou, queen Ĕs'thĕr? and what is thy request? [g]it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Ĕs'thĕr answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Hā'man come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

●5 Then the king said, Cause Hā'man to make haste, that he may do as Ĕs'thĕr hath said. So the king and Hā'man came to the banquet that Ĕs'thĕr had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Ĕs'thĕr at the banquet of wine, [f]What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Ĕs'thĕr, and said, My petition and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Hā'man come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and [d]I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

9 Haman's joy and pride

9 ¶ [f]Then went Hā'man forth

a Question 3, Next, 5:3

b Esther's reply to Mordecai was that the Jews should fast and pray for her, that she and her maidens would do likewise, and then she would go in to the king though it was contrary to the law. She consecrated to perish if need be (v 15-16) c The Hebrew day began at sunset, and one complete day was 24 hours. Thus night or day meant fasting this whole time (v 16; Jonah 1:17; Mt. 12:40)

d Mordecai went to get the Jews to fast and pray in co-operation with Esther and her maidens in such affliction, that they might move the God of heaven to touch the heart of the king to spare Esther and her people (v 17)

e On the third day -following the third night, Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's house. He was seated on the throne in the royal house, over against the gate. When he saw Esther she obtained favor in his sight; and he held out the golden sceptre to her. When she drew near and touched it the king inquired of her request and promised it would be granted to half of his kingdom. The queen's simple request was that he and Haman would make haste and attend a banquet prepared by her (v 1-5). Who gave her wisdom to carry out such a plan is not stated. It could be that she had a conference with Mordecai; or, it may be that divine inspiration alone guided her. In either case, what she did was the right thing and God worked out every detail of the plan for the good of His people (3:5-7:10)

f Questions 4-5, Next, v 6

g This seems to have been a customary statement of kings wishing to honor someone who had obained favor from them (v 3). It was said by Herod to step-daughter (Mk. 6:23). Cp. 1 Ki. 13:8

h The statement, Let the king and Haman come this day is the second acrostic where the name of Jehovah is hidden in the ancient Hebrew text, and the second pivot on which the history turns. See note g, 1:20

f Questions 6-7, Next, 6:3

j The king must have seen that there was something behind the mere banquet, hence this second request to know what it was that she wanted and the second promise to grant it even to the half of his kingdom (v 3, 6)

k Esther sensed that the king believed there was something back of her invitation to the banquet;so she promised to tell him what her request was at a banquet on the following day (v 8)

l When Haman heard the invitation and command for him to attend a banquet with the king and queen on the morrow, he went forth with great joy and a glad heart (v 9)

20fold grief of Job (Job 19:14)

1 My breath is corrupt (v 1)
2 My days are extinct
3 The grave (Heb. qeber, not sheol) is ready for me
4 There are mockers with me (v 2)
5 My eye continues to see their provocations
6 Lay down a pledge for me (v 3)
7 Give me security
8 Strike hands with me in agreement
9 You have hid their heart from understanding my case (v 4)
10 He has made me a byword of the people, when before I was a tabret (v 6)
11 My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow (v 7)
12 All my members are as a shadow
13 Upright men shall be amazed that God has suffered a holy man to be plunged into such calamities (v 8)
14 My days are past (v 11)
15 My purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart 16 Neither day nor night is natural to me (v 12) 13)
17 If I wait, the grave is my house (v
18 I have made my bed in darkness
19 Corruption is my father and the worm is my brother and sister (v 14)
20 I have no hope (v 15)

a This was the only fly in Haman's ointment. To see this stubborn lone Jew sitting thus when he, the important Haman came to the king's gate was more than this man could bear. It took all the joy and light-heartedness from him. Though full of indignation toward Mordecai, he restrained himself until he arrived at his home (v 9-12)

b For Mordecai to know the cause of the trouble brought upon the Jews and not to stand up in an effort to remove the cause makes it appear that he was a man of stubbornness beyond reason. On the other hand it demonstrates that he was one of principle who would not compromise regarding what he thought was right even at the risk of life-his own and the lives of his people. One thing stands out-he had faith in God that deliverance would come in one way or another (4:14). He seemed to have the utmost confidence that all would be well, even if Esther failed to do her part. The law, the psalms, and most of the prophets were already written and in his hands, and he could know from the Holy Scriptures that the Jewish race was destined to be great in all eternity; therefore, they would not be destroyed. Even Abraham (Gen. 12:12; 20:2,11), Isaac (Gen. 26:7), and Jacob (Gen. 31:13; 32:6-32) had been afraid and lived in unbelief at times, thinking they would be killed before the promises of God could be fulfilled; but it seems Mordecai did not have the slightest fear of this enemy of the Jews. He had fasted and prayed and already settled it that God would bring deliverance from some source; therefore, he refused to pay homage to Haman, the enemy of God's people (v 9) c This again reveals the smallness of Haman's character, and demonstrates his pride and narrowness. He called his friends and wife so that he could pour out to them his one small complaint and brag on the success that he had made (v 10-13)

d 4fold self-exaltation of Haman:
1 He told of the glory of his riches. The king had given him 10,000 talents or $19,200,000.00 to be used in destroying the Jews (3:9-11)
2 He spoke of the multitude of his children (v 11)
3 Of his promotion over all the princes and servants of the great king (v 11; 3:1)
4 He mentioned the latest great honor-being invited by the queen to a banquet where he would be the sole guest besides the king (v 12). It was a rare privilege for a subject, however high his position, to be permitted to banquet with the king

e Haman was not aware of what else the queen had in mind for him, or he would not have bragged about the great honor paid him; he did not realize that he was plotting his own death by plotting against the Jews

f In all his success and glory Haman permitted one minor detail to overshadow everything else. He told his wife and friends about it. All of his glory did not satisfy him as long as the one stubborn Jew, Mordecai, refused to honor him in the king's gate. The statement, all this availeth me nothing is the third acrostic in Esther where the name of Jehovah is hidden in the ancient Hebrew text, and the third pivot on which the history turns (v 13). See note g, 1:20

g Haman's wife and friends devised a plan whereby his happiness should be complete. They suggested that gallows be made 50 cubits high (104 ft. 2 in. high, counting 25 in. to the cubit); that Haman speak to the king on the morrow about hanging Mordecai thereon; and that he then proceed to the banquet merrily (v 14). The gallows was a stake to which a criminal was fastened until he died. The same idea was used in making the cross for Christ (Acts 5:30; 10:39; 13:29; 1 Pet. 2:24). The plan sounded perfect to Haman, so he commanded the gallows to be built even before he spoke to the king about the matter, it never entering his mind that such a request would be denied, since the monarch had already granted the request for the destruction of every Jew at a later date. In the meantime though, God was intervening; and when that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Hā'man saw Môr'de-cāi in the king's gate, that he[a]stood not up[h]nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Môr'de-cāi.

10 Nevertheless Hā'man refrained himself: [c]and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zē'resh his wife.

11 And Hā'man[d]told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Hā'man said moreover, Yea, Ēs'thēr the queen[e]did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

10 Haman's new plot to destroy Mordecai

13 [f]Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Môr'de-cāi the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zē'resh his wife and all his friends unto him,[g]Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Môr'de-cāi may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Hā'man; and he caused the gallows to be made.

CHAPTER 6 432

11 Divine intervention for Mordecai

ON [h]that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Môr'de-cāi had told of Big'tha-nā and Tē'resh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ā-hăş-ū-ē'rūs.

3 And the king said, [i]What honour and dignity hath been done to Môr'de-cāi for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

12 Haman compelled to exalt Mordecai the Jew

4 ¶ [j]And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Hā'man was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Môr'de-cāi on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

●5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Hā'man standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Hā'man came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Hā'man thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

7 And Hā'man [a]answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour,

8 [b]Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

●10 [c]Then the king said to Hā'man, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so [d]to Môr'de-cāi the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Hā'man the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Môr'de-cāi, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

13 Haman's fall predicted

12 ¶ And Môr'de-cāi [e]came again to the king's gate. But Hā'man hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.

●13 And Hā'man [f]told Zē'resh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. [g]Then said his wise men and Zē'resh his wife unto him, If Môr'de-cāi be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Hā'man unto the banquet that Ēs'thēr had prepared.

CHAPTER 7 433

14 Esther's banquet for the king and Haman

SO the king and Hā'man came to banquet with Ēs'thēr the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Ēs'thēr on the second day at the banquet of wine, [h]What is thy petition, queen Ēs'thēr? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

15 Esther's request for her life and the life of the Jews

3 Then Ēs'thēr the queen answered and [i]said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

a Haman answered with this point of view-that it was he, himself the king wished to honor, but it proved to be his worst enemy that the honor was pronounced upon-Mordecai, the Jew. Furthermore, Haman was to be the one doing the honoring (v 7-11)

b See 7fold honor suggested by Haman, p. 517

c Then the king told Haman to make haste to do all these things to Mordecai the Jew who sat at the gate-with nothing failing of all that had been spoken (v 10). What a shock! to learn that he had suggested the way to honor the man he hated and for whom he had already caused the gallows to be made to hang him on. Thus Haman was forced to humble himself before the very man he sought to destroy that day (v 11)

d One can imagine how the lone Jew felt with such sudden honors, being under the sentence of death with all his people, and having been through days of humiliation, fasting, and prayer. Perhaps he realized that God was working and this was the beginning of the end of the decree against the lives of his people

e Note the contrast in the effect of this upon both men. Mordecai simply returned to his lowly duty of sitting at the king's gate, perhaps as the keeper; but Haman hasted to his house mourning, having his head covered (v 12)

f Haman now had a different story to tell his wife and friends, compared with the one he told the day before (5:10-14). The wise men made a true prediction that if Mordecai was of the seed of the Jews, before whom Haman had begun to fall then he would not prevail against the man; he would surely fall before him (v 13). Even while this prediction was being made the king's chamberlains came to take Haman to the banquet of queen Esther where he would learn more of his own downfall (v 14)

g 1st and only prophecy in Esther (6:13, fulfilled). This prophecy was made by the wise men and God could have put such a prediction in their minds; or, they could have prophesied in the same way that the wicked high priest did concerning Jesus Christ (Jn. 11:49-51)

b Questions 12-13, Next, v 5

i Having received 3 definite promises from the king that he would grant her request even to the half of his kingdom (5:3, 6; 7:2), Esther simply requested the only thing anyone could request under the circumstances. She asked for her own life and the lives of her people (v 3-4)

Mordecai was saved Haman began to fall (6:1-14)

b God always makes a way for His people in a crisis. The very night before Haman was to request the life of Mordecai, Jehovah, the covenant-God of Israel was working invisibly to save His chosen nation. He caused sleep to pass from the king; and he became interested in the record book of the kings. When Ahasuerus had servants to read the records before him, it was found that Mordecai had told of the plot to assassinate the king. He inquired as to what had been done to honor the man who had thus saved his life; and it was told him that nothing had been done. Ahasuerus decided right then to do something to show his appreciation (v 1-3)

i Questions 8-11, Next, 7:2

j Evidently the night had passed and it was in the morning when Haman came to ask the life of Mordecai. Before he could request this though, Ahasuerus asked Haman what should be done to the man whom the king delighted to honor. In his exalted state of pride Haman could think of nobody more worthy than himself, so he suggested the highest public honors in the belief that they would soon be bestowed upon him (v 4-11)

a Pleading for her life and the lives of her people, Esther explained how they had all been sold to be destroyed, to be slain, to perish; if they had been sold as slaves she would not have asked the king to spare them even though the enemy could not compensate for the damage done (v 3-4) b Countervail, make good; compensate c Threatened and said
d Question 14. Next, v 8. This passage, Who is he, and where is he is the forth acrostic in Esther where the name of Jehovah is hidden in the ancient Hebrew text, and the fourth pivot on which the history turns. The Heb. letters here are EHY EH, the abbreviation for I Am that I Am, Cp. Ex. 2:23-25 with 3:14-15. See note g, 1:20 e This statement from Esther was one of the greatest surprises of his life. To think that anybody would presume in his heart to kill his queen and her people! This shows that neither the king nor Haman knew she was a Jewess and that her people were Jews. No doubt the king would not have made such a decree if he had realized who the people were that Haman wanted to destroy. The monarch had not examined the facts in the case and was therefore himself guilty of negligence of justice to his subjects. He had only taken the accusations and lies of Haman in the case, trusting him to be doing the right thing (3:8). Haman himself was a tool of Satan, permitting pride to exalt him to destruction; all he did was so unreasonable f Esther was not afraid to make her accusation, to point out the enemy and tell of his wickedness to his face, saying that the adversary was this wicked Haman. This was also a shock to Haman and one of the greatest surprises of his life. Little did he think the day before, when he received the honor of an invitation to the banquet of the queen that this was her purpose. Haman became desperately afraid before the king and queen (v 6)
g The rising of a king in this way showed his displeasure and desire for vengeance. It being such a shock to hear of the wickedness of his trusted Haman, the king found it necessary to think the matter over by himself, so he went into the palace garden alone. Only recently he had promoted Haman above all others in his kingdom (3:1); now he had been proved a fool to have trusted such a man. Knowing evil was determined upon him, Haman stood up to request from the queen that his life be spared (v 7). He was so desperate that by the time the king returned he had fallen upon the bed where queen Esther was. At the knowledge of this indignity Haman was dazed and his face covered (v 8). Covering the face of a criminal was a sign of condemnation and death, and that he was no longer worthy to look upon the face of the king. One of the chamberlains told of the gallows Haman had made to hang Mordecai on; and the king commanded that Haman be hung thereon (v 9-10) h The statement, that there was evil determined against him is the fifth acrostic in Esther where the name of Jehovah is hidden in the ancient Hebrew text, and the fifth pivot on which the history turns (v 7). See note g, 1:20
i Question 15. Next, 8:6
j A cubit being counted as 25 in., the 50 cubits would be 104 ft. 2 in. The very height of such gallows emphasized the enmity and hatred of Haman. He wanted the entire country to see the end of Mordecai k On that day. Contrast On that night in 6:1
l The king gave the house of Haman to Esther and she set Mordecai over it (v 1-2). Thus the Jews triumphed at last over the ancient enemy of Israel as God had predicted (Ex. 17:16; Num. 25:7; 1 Sam. 15:8, 32)
m Esther finally told the king of her kinship to Mordecai (v 1). He then brought her cousin before him and gave him his own ring which he had given to Haman, thus exalting Mordecai the Jew in the place of Haman the Amalekite (v 2, 7-17). This is another instance

4 [a]For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we have been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not [b]countervail the king's damage.

16 The king's inquiry and Esther's accusation of Haman

5 ¶ Then the king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'-rŭs [c]answered and said unto Ĕs'thēr the queen, [d]Who is he, and where is he, that [e]durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Ĕs'thēr /said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Hā'man. Then Hā'man was afraid before the king and the queen.

17 The king's wrath and Haman's plea for mercy

7 ¶ And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath [g]went into the palace garden: and Hā'man stood up to make request for his life to Ĕs'thēr the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

18 Haman hung on his own gallows made for Mordecai

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Hā'man was fallen upon the bed where Ĕs'thēr was. Then said the king, [f]Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Hā'man's face.

●9 And Hăr-bō'nah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty [i]cubits high, which Hā'man had made for Môr'de-cāi, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Hā'man. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Hā'man on the gallows that he had prepared for Môr'de-cāi. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

CHAPTER 8 434

V Haman's plot reversed (8:1-9:19). 1 Vengeance on Haman

ON that day [j]did the king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs give the house of Hā'man the Jews' enemy unto Ĕs'thēr the queen. And Môr'de-cāi came before the king; [m]for Ĕs'thēr had told what he was unto her.

2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Hā'man, and gave it unto Môr'de-cāi. And Ĕs'thēr set Môr'de-cāi over the house of Hā'man.

2 Esther's heart-rending plea for the life of her people

3 ¶ And Ĕs'thēr spake [n]yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Hā'man the Ă'găg-īte, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 [o]Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Ĕs'thēr. So Ĕs'thēr arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, [p]If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Hā'man the son of Hăm-mĕd'a-thā the Ă'găg-īte, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 [q]For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

3 The new decree to spare the Jews and spoil their enemies

7 ¶ [r]Then the king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'-rŭs said unto Ĕs'thēr the queen and to Môr'de-cāi the Jew, Behold, I have given Ĕs'thēr the house of Hā'man, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

●8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the [s]third month, that is, the month Sī'van, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Môr'de-cāi commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from In'dĭ-ā unto Ē-thĭ-ō'-pĭ-ā, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, 12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ă-hăş-ū-ē'-rŭs, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Ă'dăr.

c Questions 16-17. Next, 9:12
d Not deciding to see the queen and her people in such danger and fear, Ahasuerus turned the house of Haman over to her and Mordecai to do as they pleased with it; and they were permitted to write letters to all the Jews in the king's name and sealed with his ring, saying that they should come together in every city throughout the kingdom to destroy all who would seek to destroy them (v 7-14)
e The decree to destroy the Jews had been made on the 13th day of the first month (Nisan, April, 3:12). Now the decree to cancel it by authorizing the Jews to defend themselves was made on the 23rd day of the 3rd month (Sivan, June, v 9). According to the letters sent to the king's officers and the Jews of all the 127 provinces of the empire (v 9), they were to gather on the appointed day of the destruction to kill and take all the spoil of their enemies (v 11-14)

XII How we got our English Bible

Our English Bible is the result of 1200 years of work by all kinds of learned men. Portions were trans. from the Vulgate, the Latin version, beginning as far back as 700 A.D., when Aldhelm trans. the Psalms into Saxon. Egbert trans. the 4 gospels sometime later. In 735 A.D. Bede trans. parts of the Scriptures into Saxon. King Alfred undertook a translation of the Psalms but died in 900 A.D. before it was finished. Elfric trans. the Pentateuch and some of the historical books in the 10th century. Nothing else was done about translation from then to the time of John Wyclif, who made the first complete English Bible from the Vulgate in 1380 A.D. The next was a N.T. by William Tyndale in 1535 and the Pentateuch in 1530. In 1535 Miles Coverdale made the first complete printed English Bible. Then came the Geneva Bible in 1560 A.D., followed by Bishop's Bible in 1563 and revised in 1568. The Roman church came out with the Douay version of every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shu'shan the palace.

4 Mordecai and the Jews exalted

15 ¶ [b]And Môr'de-cāi went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shu'shan rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land [c]became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

435 CHAPTER 9

5 Fear of Mordecai and the Jews fall on their enemies

NOW in the twelfth month, that is, the month Â'dār, on the [d]thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;)

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Â-hăş-ū-ē'rūs, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Môr'de-cāi fell upon them.

4 For [e]Môr'de-cāi was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Môr'de-cāi waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

6 Five hundred enemies of the Jews slain in Shushan palace

6 And in Shu'shan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And Păr-shăn'da-thā, and Dăl'phon, and Ăs'pa-thā,
8 And Pŏr'a-thā, and Ăd-a-lī'ā, and Ă-rĭd'a-thā, 9 And Păr-măsh'tā, and Ă-rĭs'a-ī, and Ă-rĭd'a-ī, and Vā-jĕz'a-thā, 10 The ten sons of Hā'man the son of Hăm-mĕd'a-thā, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but [e]on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shu'shan the palace was brought before the king.

7 Esther granted further petitions of the king

12 ¶ And [b]the king said unto Ĕs'thēr the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shu'shan the palace, and the ten sons of Hā'man; [f]what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

8 Esther requests the hanging of Haman's ten sons and further punishment of Jews' enemies: 300 more are slain in Shushan

13 Then [g]said Ĕs'thēr, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shu'shan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Hā'man's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shu'shan; and they hanged Hā'man's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shu'shan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Â'dār, and slew three hundred men at Shu'shan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

9 Seventy-five thousand enemies of the Jews are slain in other provinces

16 But the [e]other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey,

10 Rejoicing by all the Jews

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Â'dār; and [h]on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shu'shan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Â'dār a day of gladness and feasting, a Perhaps they remembered the curse of God upon Saul for taking spoil and refusing to obey (1 Sam. 15) b The king reported to Esther the number of men slain in Shushan. The Jews had killed 500 and the 10 sons of Haman. He wondered what they had done in all the other cities of the empire. Then he favored Esther more-he asked her what her further request was and assured her it would be granted (v 12)

c Questions 18-20. Next, 10:2
d Esther's request was that the 10 sons of Haman be hanged on the gallows made for Mordecai and that the rest of the enemies of the Jews in Shushan be destroyed. This was granted, 300 other enemies of the Jews in Shushan were killed on the next day, the 14th; but the Jews would not touch the spoils (v 13-15)
e The other Jews in the 127 provinces gathered together on the 13th day of the 12th month (Adar, March) and slew 75,000, but they would not touch the spoils (v 16)
f On the 14th day of the 12th month (Adar, March) the Jews outside Shushan instituted a feast to commemorate their deliverance. Those in Shushan rested and feasted on the 15th day, having slain many others on the 14th (v 17-19)

In 1604 King James authorized 47 men to make a complete translation of the Bible from the original languages. It was finished in 1611 after 7-8 years of diligent work. It has been the most popular and accepted version of the English speaking world from that day until now. There have been several revised versions since then, and a number of Bibles in the so-called modern English, but none have been as well accepted and as lasting as the King James version - and perhaps never will be

XIII Bible chronology

The length of certain periods is definitely stated in Scripture which, added to the years of doubtful dates given in the most widely accepted encyclopedias, give a total of 6,163 years between the creation of Adam and 1962, as follows:

Adam to Noah (Gen. 5)	1,656
Noah to call of Abraham at 75 yrs. of age (Gen. 11:10-12:5)	427
Abraham to exodus (Ex. 12:40; Gal. 3:17; note o, Gen. 15:15)	430
Exodus to Christ's ministry (p. 60-61)	1,718
From Christ's ministry (about 30 A.D.) to 1962	1,932
Total-Adam to 1962	6,163

XV How to read the Bible

1 Frequently, daily (Josh. 1:8)
2 Not for controversy, but for profit (Pr. 3; 2 Tim. 3:16-17)
3 Meditatively (Ps. 1:3)
4 In love (Ps. 119:97-104)
5 With consciousness of need (Mt. 5:6; Jn. 7:37-39; 2 Pet. 1:1-10; 3:18)
6 In faith (Rom. 10:17; Heb. 11:6)
7 Searchingly (Jn. 5:39)
8 Openness to all of it (2 Tim. 3:16-17; Heb. 4:12; Jude 3)
9 By comparing scripture with scripture (1 Cor. 2:13)

a The next act of Mordecai was that of writing letters to all the Jews in all the provinces of the empire to establish among them a new feast on the 14th and 15th days of the 12th month (Adar, March), the same to be observed yearly (v 20-21). These were the days when the Jews rested from their enemies, when their bitterness and sorrow were turned into joy, and when they were brought from mourning to a good day. They were to make this a time of feasting and gladness, when they would send portions to one another, and give gifts to the poor (v 20-22). These days were called Purim, a word which came from Pur, meaning the lot and referring to the casting of lots to destroy the Jews by Haman and his monthly prognostications (v 24-28; 3:7). Purim is the name of the feast to this day. At this time the books of Esther, Daniel, Nehemiah, and Ezra are read by the Jews

b The Jews ordained the feast of Purim; it was a man-made feast whereas the ones of Lev. 23 were divinely ordained (v 27-28). Nevertheless, they have been very faithful to observe Purim and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

VI Yearly Feast of Purim instituted to commemorate Jewish deliverance under queen Esther

20 ¶ And [a]Môr'de-cāi wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ā-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Ā'dăr, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Môr'de-cāi had written unto them;

24 Because Hā'man the son of Hăm-mĕd'a-thā, the Ā'găg-īte, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pûr, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

25 But when Ĕs'thēr came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Pū'rim after the name of Pûr. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews [b]ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

28 And that these days should be [c]remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Pū'rim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

29 Then Ĕs'thēr the queen, the daughter of Ăb-i-hā'il, and Môr'de-cāi the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm [b]this second letter of Pū'rim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ā-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs, with words of peace and truth,

31 To confirm these days of Pū'rim in their times appointed, according as Môr'de-cāi the Jew and Ĕs'thēr the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Ĕs'thēr confirmed these matters of Pū'rim; and it was written in the book.

CHAPTER 10 436

VII Mordecai's exaltation in the kingdom of Persia

AND the king Ā-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs [c]laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Môr'de-cāi, whereunto the king advanced him, [d]are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Mē'dĭ-ā and Pēr'şĭa?

3 For Môr'de-cāi the Jew was next unto king Ā-hăş-ū-ē'rŭs, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

a The Jews not only ordained such a feast (on the 14th and 15th days of March) to be kept while they were among the heathen, but they agreed it should be observed throughout their generations in every family, city and province, in captivity or out of captivity-wherever they would be in life (v 28)

b Esther and Mordecai sent out a second letter concerning the feast of Purim, so the custom became firmly fixed in the national life of all Israel. All the Jews throughout the world became acquainted with the fact that the queen of the Persian empire was a Jewess and had been brought to the kingdom for the very purpose of saving the Jewish race. Thus a woman was used of God to preserve the Seed of the woman that was to come into the world

c Ahasuerus taxed all lands under his dominion and became a great king in all the earth. His new Grand Vizier also became great in the eyes of all nations, for the king exalted him next to himself in all the affairs of the kingdom. Jews in all lands accepted him and he sought the welfare of all his people (v 1-3). The fact that he and queen Esther were Jews helps to explain much concerning Cyrus, the son of Esther, and his zeal for God and the Jews, as predicted in prophecy and recorded in history. See Cyrus in Index

d Question 21. Last question in Esther

Summary of Esther

Date and place: the records of the events of Esther were no doubt kept in the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia (2:21-23; 6:1-3; 10:2); and the compilation of the facts in book form was perhaps done in Shushan the palace, or Susa, the ancient capital of Persia (Neh. 1:1; Esther 1:1-2), about 516-506 B.C.

Author: Ezra, the scribe

Proof of authorship: Jewish tradition ascribes the book to Ezra. Augustine also ascribes it to him. The Talmud ascribes it to the Great Synagogue which, with Ezra, its founder and president, completed the Jewish Canon of Scripture. There is no other likely author living after these events who could have written the book, so Ezra seems acceptable

Theme: the great deliverance of the Jews from extermination during the time of the Babylonian captivity

Purpose: to show by whom and how the great deliverance of the Jews in all lands came about; to record the institution of the feast of Purim; and to reveal the historical background of the liberator of the Jews from captivity-Cyrus, the son of Esther and Darius the Mede

Statistics: 17th book of the Bible; 10 chapters; 167 verses, 5,637 words; 11 commands; 21 questions; no prophecy; no promises; and no distinct message from God

THE BOOK OF JOB

The History of Afflictions and the Example of Patience - the Sufferings and Deliverance of Job the Prophet

437 CHAPTER 1

I Historical background (Gen. 46:13; Ezek. 14:14-20; Jas. 5:10-11). 1 Job's character

THERE was a man in [b]the land of Uz, whose name was [c]Job; and [d]that man [e]was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 Job's family (cp. 42:13-17)

2 And there were born unto him [f]seven sons and three daughters.

3 Greatness and riches: $790,000.00 live stock, and many servants and houses

3 [g]His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the [h]east.

4 Job's piety (vss. 1, 8, 20-22; 2:3, 10; Jas. 5:10-11)

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one [i]his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were [j]gone about, that Job sent and [k]sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and [l]offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

II God, Satan, and Job (1:6-2:8). 1 God and Satan. (1) Angelic worship in heaven (2:1; 38:7; Ps. 103:20; 148:2; Lk. 2:13; Heb. 1:6; Rev. 5:11-14)

6 ¶ Now [m]there was [n]a day when the [o]sons of God came [p]to present themselves before the LORD, and [q]Satan [r]came also among them.

(2) God's twofold inquiry of Satan (2:2-3)

■7 And the LORD said unto Satan, [s]Whence comest thou? Then [t]Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

■8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

(3) Satan's fourfold theory of Job (2:4-6)

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, [u]Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou [v]made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

11 But [w]put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and [x]he will curse thee to thy face.

(4) God's limited permission to Satan to test Job (2:6)

■12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, [y]all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

2 Satan and Job. (1) Job's fourfold loss. A Servants, oxen, and asses

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And the [z]Sa-be'ans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

B Servants and 7,000 sheep

16 [a]While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The [b]fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

C Servants and 3,000 camels

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chal-de'ans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

D Servants, sons, daughters, and ranch house

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came [c]a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell a There was a man. This is a statement of historical fact and not a myth. So it is with the same kind of statement in Lk. 16:19-31: There was a certain rich man... And there was a certain beggar. The word certain further confirms the historical fact of these two men, actually both beggars, for whereas the one begged in this life, the other begged in the next. All three - the two beggers and Job - lived and had the experiences as stated by Jesus Christ and the author of Job who was inspired by God. Their stories are not myths, parables, or allegories any more than any other historical part of the Bible

b The land of Uz was located south of Edom and west of Arabia, extending to the borders of Chaldea. In those days it could have been comprised of even Arabia-Petra itself (Jer. 49:7, 20; Lam. 4:21; Ezek. 25:13; Amos 1:11-12; Oba. 8-9) c Job, afflicted. He was the 3rd son of Issachar, the son of Jacob (Gen. 46:13; Ezek. 14:14, 20; Jas. 5:11). He is mentioned 56 times in the book that bears his name d That man, emphasizing a particular man who actually lived at one time

e See 4fold character of Job, p. 412

f The same number as in his second family (v 2; 42:14)

g Job's wealth:

7,000 sheep @ $20.00 each	$140,000.00
3,000 camels @ $100.00	300,000.00
1000 oxen @ $325.00 .	325,000.00
500 asses @ $50.00 ...	25,000.00
Total est. value ..	$790,000.00

Among Nomadic peoples it was customary to estimate wealth by the number of animals owned (v 3; 42:12; Gen. 13:3, 5; 24:35). Special mention is made of she-asses because they were more valuable than males on account of their milk which was used

h See 7 uses of "The East", p. 433

j When they had come around k As far as biblical history is concerned this is the second reference to sanctification, inasmuch as Job is no doubt the oldest book of the Bible and the happenings recorded therein took place before the time of the law of Moses as in Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. The first reference to sanctification concerns a day - the setting apart of a day for God to rest (Gen. 2:1-4). Here, in Job, it means that a father simply went through religious ceremonies before God in the hope that He would have mercy on his offspring (v 5). He set them apart in his own mind and religious acts; but this did not save them or protect them even from physical death. There is no hint of their being cleansed from sin; the idea is that of dedicating them to God, and this is all any parent can do. The actual salvation of children must come by their meeting God's requirements for salvation

l The mention of offerings here shows that sacrifices were continued from Abel's time as in Gen. 4, on through Job's time (v 5). They became an institution carried on through all the ages up to the time of Christ

m There was a day when angels in heaven came to present themselves before Jehovah. This happened twice (1:6; 2:1), implying that there are regular days in which angels do this. Worship on the planet heaven as well as on other planets where there is life, is no doubt carried on regularly, as here on earth. Other activities on the other planets where there is intelligent life, are likely carried on as here also, for we are told in Scripture that the invisible things are understood by those that are visible (Rom. 1:20; Col. 1:15-18; Rev. 4:9-11; 5:8-13; 19:1-10). See Spirit-world, p. 632

n Although there may be set times for all things in heaven, as on earth, this does not necessarily mean that there are a Questions 3-4. Next, 2:2. These two questions of Satan probably influenced Jehovah to permit the testing of Job

b You have made a hedge about him so that I cannot touch him (v 10) c Satan's statement suggesting that God put forth His hand and touch all that Job possessed was really suggesting that God withdraw His hand of protection so that he, himself could bring destruction to Job's property (v 11-12). Satan and evil forces are the agents of destruction, not God. The only sense in which God destroys is to withhold His protection and thereby turn an individual over to the devil to carry out his work upon that person. This truth is plainly demonstrated in the case of Job. Who was it that destroyed (v 12-19), and afflicted the body (2:7), when God permitted it to be done? The answer is Satan, and this will always be the case in instances of affliction and destruction, as taught in Lk. 13:16; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38. Satan brings about the actual happenings of accidents, sickness, disease, and calamity, then causes men to think that God brings these things to pass. Thus He is blamed erroneously for the work of the devil by millions, even so-called Christians who should know better. Permission of God is never the same as the work of Satan after permission is granted him: withdrawing protection and allowing another to destroy is not the same as the destruction itself. God's work is that of deliverance; Satan's is that of destruction (Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38)

d Satan's theory was that no man serves God without personal material gain; if He would not bless a person in such a way he would automatically curse and hate Him (v 11). This of course, is not true, for millions have loved and served God without such personal material gain

e All that he had was turned over to Satan; and all that was left to him after Satan had finished his work was one servant out of each calamity, and his wife who co-operated with the devil in the trial of Job (v 11, 15-17, 19; 2:9)

f 6 agents of Satan on earth:
1 The Sabeans (v 15)
2 Fire from heaven (v 16)
3 Chaldeans (v 17)
4 The elements (v 19)
5 Disease (2:7)
6 An ungodly wife (2:9)

g This emphasized the rapidity of the calamities so as to overwhelm Job all at once, if possible (v 16, 17, 18, 20-22)

h This was perhaps a great bolt of lightning which would seem to be of God. Even today men consider every storm, all lightning, winds and other things causing disaster to be the calamity of God, not realizing that the devil is the prince of the power of the air (Eph. 2:1-3) who is permitted the use of such things in a limited way. It is true that God can also make use of such things, but for man to decide whether God, or Satan at the permission of God, in any particular instance, would not be possible

i This was a cyclone or hurricane that struck the house where Job's sons and daughters were feasting (v 19)

(2) Job's sevenfold integrity (2:9-10; 10:4; 13:14; 16:15; 23:10; 27:3; 31:1)

20 [e]Then Jŏb [b]arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and [c]the LORD hath taken away; [d]blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Jŏb sinned not, nor [e]charged God foolishly.

CHAPTER 2 438

3 God and Satan. (1) Angelic worship in heaven (1:6, refs.)

[f]AGAIN there [g]was a [h]day when the [i]sons of God came [j]to present themselves before the LORD, and [k]Sā'tan [l]came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

(2) God's twofold inquiry of Satan (1:7-8)

■2 And the LORD said unto Sā'tan, [m]From whence comest thou? And Sā'tan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

■3 And the LORD said unto Sā'tan, Hast thou considered my servant Jŏb, that there is none like him in the earth, [n]a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and [o]still he holdeth fast his integrity, although [p]thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

(3) Satan's twofold theory of Job (1:9-11)

4 And [q]Sā'tan answered the LORD, and said, [r]Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But [s]put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

(4) God's limited permission to Satan to test Job (1:12)

■6 And the LORD said unto Sā'tan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life.

4 Satan and Job: boils or ulcers (7:5, 13, 15; 16:8; 19:17; 30:17)

7 ¶ So went Sā'tan forth from the presence of the LORD, [t]and smote Jŏb with sore [u]boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a [v]potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

III Job's wife (19:17): maintains his integrity (1:20)

9 ¶ [w]Then said his wife unto him, [x]Dost thou still retain thine integrity? [y]curse [z]God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? [a]In all this did not Jŏb sin with his lips.

IV Job and three friends: arrival and 7 days' watch

11 ¶ Now when Jŏb's [b]three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Ĕl'i-phāz the Tē'man-ite, and Bĭl'dăd the Shū'hite, and Zō'phar the Nā'a-math-ite: for they [c]had made an appointment together [d]to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and [e]knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAPTER 3 439

V Job and his three friends: discourses (3:1-31:40). 1 Job's first of 8 discourses in 20 of the 42 chapters of the book. (1) Birth lamented: 17 curses on his birthday - two reasons

[f]AFTER this opened Jŏb his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Jŏb spake, and said,

3 [g]Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 [h]Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

(2) Infancy lamented: 13 reasons

11 [i]Why died I not from the womb? why did I not [j]give up the ghost when I came out of a Then - when Job had received the report of the destruction of his sons, daughters, his eldest son's house, his live-stock (valued at an estimated $790,000.00), and no doubt his crops where the oxen were plowing (v 14), he simply arose, and refused to blame God as Satan had hoped he would (v 11, 20-22)

o Still - up to this point. Later, after he was afflicted and his friends came to taunt him, he charged God with many things foolishly. See 74 charges against God, p. 420 p Satan moved God to test Job, and to destroy him without cause (v 3). This must be understood as being limited to the permission of Satan to proceed only so far, so as to accomplish the test, not to destroy Job (1:11; 2:6)
q See note c, 1:11
r This was evidently a familiar proverb in Job's time, and perhaps refers to bartering by means of skins of animals. A man would give all the skins he owned for food that would save his life s The next test Satan suggested to God was that of allowing him to afflict the body of Job. It was supposed by him that the man would then curse God to His face. It seems the Lord saw fit, for the benefit of all generations to come, to test Job thus and record the experience in a book so that men everywhere could learn many lessons therefrom. See 50 lessons to learn from the book of Job, p. 430 t This is plain enough for all to understand if they will - that Satan is the author and propagator of sickness and disease among men. See 20 proofs sickness Satan's work, p. 484 u Heb. shechiyn, to burn; inflamation; ulcers; boils; botch. It is trans. boils (v 7; Ex. 9:11); boil (Ex. 9:9-10; Lev. 13:18, 19, 20, 23; 2 Ki. 20:7; Isa. 38:21); and botch (Dt. 28:27, 35). It denotes a tumor on the flesh accompanied with severe inflamation; a sore angry swelling. What Job had caused him restless nights; the flesh broke out with running ulcers so severe that he would bite his flesh for pain. See 60 facts and statements - Job's suffering, p. 429 k 2 reasons for the 17fold curse:

1 Because the day of his birth did not shut up his mother's womb (v 10)
2 Because it did not hide sorrow from his eyes

l Questions 10-13. Next, v 20
m The first of 5 times this is found in the book (v 11; 10:18; 11:20; 13:19; 14:10). It is found 4 times in Genesis (25:8, 17; 35:29; 49:33. See also Jer. 15:9; Lam. 1:19; Mt. 27:50; Mk. 15:37-39; Lk. 23:46; Jn. 19:30; Acts 5:5, 10). It simply means to expire, to have the inner man leave the outer man or the body, so that it may go to its place in heaven or hell while the body goes back to dust. The passage here teaches the leaving of the soul and spirit from the body at physical death as plainly as 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Jas. 2:26

a Questions 7-9. Next, 3:11 b Cursing God is what Job feared his sons would do, so he offered sacrifices continually for them (1:5). Now his wife urged him to curse God and die (v 10). How senseless! for this is the time one should be making more complete preparations, instead of cursing Him - preparations to be rewarded in the next life. In this advice Job's wife proved herself a very foolish woman
c See Great Bible doctrines in book of Job, p. 451
d In all this, but only up to the point where his friends came to torment him and his trial became prolonged enough to test the patience of any man. Then, he weakened and sinned in many statements from his lips. See 74 charges against God, p. 420. Job finally acknowledged that he had sinned with his lips (40:1-6; 42:1-6)
e Job's 3 friends (v 11):
1 Eliphaz the Temanite. He was connected with Esau and Edom (Gen. 36:4, 11; 1 Chr. 1:35-36, 53). The Temanites were famous for their wisdom (Jer. 49:7). Eliphaz argued from the standpoint of human experience. He was the first to answer Job. The record of all he said takes up 4 chapters (chs. 4, 5, 15, 22)
2 Bildad the Shuhite. He was perhaps a descendant of Shuah, youngest son of Abraham by Keturah who settled east of Palestine (Gen. 25:2, 6). Bildad argued from the standpoint of human tradition. He was the second one to answer Job and the things he said are found in 3 chapters (chs. 8, 18, 25)
3 Zophar, the Naamathite. He was probably from Naamah on the southern frontier of Judah. He was the last of the 3 friends to answer Job and argued from the standpoint of human merit. The record of what he said takes up 2 chapters (chs. 11, 20)

f It could have taken quite awhile to send messages one to the other and make arrangements for a meeting place so that they could go together to see Job. Weeks may have passed by before they arrived at Job's ranch. By this time Job had suffered so long that he was about ready to give vent to his feelings and thoughts. At first these friends seemed to have a genuine sympathy - they lifted up their voices in weeping, rent their mantles, and sprinkled dust upon their heads. Then, they sat down with Job on the ground for 7 days and 7 nights without saying one word to him, seeing that his grief was very great (v 11-13) g 2fold purpose of their visit:
1 To mourn for him (v 11)
2 To comfort him
They accomplished the first purpose, for they did weep, mourn, tear their clothes, and sprinkle dust upon their heads; but they made an utter failure in the second - that of comforting Job. When he opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth, when he began to justify himself and accuse God, they began immediately to make a tirade against him; and this provoked him further into saying many foolish things, even against God
h This can be taken literally, for Job was no doubt swollen and changed so much by the sore boils over the entire surface of his body that he could not be recognized (v 12)
i After this - after the arrival of his 3 friends who came to mourn and comfort him, and after the 7 days of silence when they all stared at one another, then Job opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born (v 1) j 17 curses on his birthday:
1 Let the day perish in which I was born (v 3)
2 Let the night perish in which it was said, There is a man child born
3 Let that day be darkness (v 4)
4 Let God not regard it from above

d Questions 14-15. Next, 4:2

e 7 reasons manhood lamented:
1 Because of life's misery (v 20)
2 Bitterness of soul
3 Death better than life (v 21)
4 Desperation to end it all
5 The grave would be a relief (v 22)
6 Life is so hedged in (v 23)
7 Because of the sufferings and troubles that are met day and night (v 24)

f The idea here is that when calamity began to befall him Job feared it would continue until he had lost all his wealth -in the beginning of his trials, when he heard of the first loss, he feared that other losses would follow; and that is what happened in rapid succession

g When this verse is read interrogatively, as in the Septuagint, it is better understood -Was I not in safety? Had not rest? Was I not in comfort? Yet trouble came (v 26). Moffatt translates it: "I get no peace, I get no rest, I get no ease, only attacks of agony." This could also read: I had no peace; I had no rest; I had no respite, as the trouble came on h Then -when Job had sat silent for 7 days and 7 nights, and when his friends had seen the great curse upon him, and heard him curse the day he was born, and spoke up to reprove him, Eliphaz had heard enough to convince him that regardless of Job's past outward goodness in helping the poor, instructing the needy, and upholding the weak (v 3-4), he was a wicked man who had committed many sinful acts in secret and now he was reaping what he had sowed. This friend argued that all of Job's past public and private acts of goodness were for show and to cover up his real self (v 5-6). He called attention to the fact that by observing what had happened to other wicked men, one could see that Job's reaping was only normal and something to be expected. His questions were provoking -Who ever perished, being innocent? Where are there examples of the righteous being cut off? His reasoning was that God is the one who causes wicked men to perish, so if Job was reaping the results of wickedness, it was proof of his great sinfulness and hypocrisy (v 7-11). He argued that God was justified in punishing Job for his wickedness (v 12-21), that if he were a righteous man God would hear his prayers and deliver him (5:1-2), that trouble is bound to come, but not the fulness of it upon the righteous (5:6-7), that if Job would seek the Lord, He was able to deliver him (5:8-16), and that the evidence of God's chastening upon him was proof that he was being chastened by God (5:17-27). One can see from all that Eliphaz said that he was arguing only from what he had observed in human experience

i Questions 16-17. Next, v 6

j If we try to offer you advice and help with our words, will you be grieved? Regardless of your grief and the way you feel about it, how can anyone keep quiet? (v 2). Thus Eliphaz indicated that somebody should reprove Job

l But now. You have done some good deeds, but now the whole truth is coming to the surface and the picture is not so good. You are reaping what you have sowed and you do not like the harvest; now you faint and are troubled. CHAPTER 4 440

2 Eliphaz's first of 3 discourses in 4 chapters.

(1) His apology and desire to speak

[h]THEN Ĕl'i-phăz the Tē'manite answered and said,
2 [i]If we [f]assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking?

(2) Fourfold commendation of Job's past goodness

3 [d]Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.
4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou has strengthened the feeble knees.

(3) Eightfold condemnation - Job is reaping what he sowed - past goodness merely a cover for real self

5 [f]But now [m]it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; [n]it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.
6 [o]Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

(4) Sevenfold observation of the wicked reaping proves Job is reaping what he has sown

7 [p]Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?
8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.
9 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.
10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion. and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

12 Now a [d]thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.
13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men,

18 Behold, he put no trust in his servants; [f]and his angels he charged with folly:
19 How much less in [s]them that [d]dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?
20 They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.
21 Doth not their [t]excellency which is in them go away? they [f]die, even without wisdom.

CHAPTER 5 441

(6) Fourfold reproach - if Job were not reaping God would hear his prayers

[u]CALL [f]now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the [v]saints wilt thou turn?
2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

(7) Eightfold reaping of the wicked - Job is suffering these calamities so must be wicked

3 [w]I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.
4 His children are far from a 7fold observation of wicked reaping:

1 I have never seen an innocent man perish (v 7)
2 I have not seen the righteous cut off
3 I have seen that those who sow iniquity and wickedness reap the same (v 8)
4 By God's blast the wicked perish (v 9)
5 By His breath they are consumed
6 Even the strongest of lions are often destroyed; so are the wicked (v 10) 7 The old lions perish as well as the strong, so Job is not immune from the judgments of God (v 11)

b See 10fold experience-vision of a spirit, p. 451

d Mortality refers to the body which was made out of dust and must return to dust. At physical death only the body dies (Jas. 2:26). The soul and spirit, the inner man, is immortal (1 Pet. 3:4, note m) e This earliest of all Bible books teaches the mortality of man, and the creation of man by God (v 17)

f The fall of angels as well as the fall of man is one of the earliest facts of history (v 18). Charging His angels with folly no doubt refers to the original fall of the angels with Lucifer in the pre-Adamite world. It could also refer to the folly of fallen angels marrying the daughters of men and producing races of giants on the earth, which was a well known fact in Job's day. Gen. 6:4 speaks of some angels doing this before the flood of Noah, and also after that, that is, after the flood. They committed this horrible sin in an effort to keep the Seed of the woman from coming into the world. See Sons of God and Giants, p. 62

g Another clear reference to the truth that men are not merely houses of clay -they dwell in houses of clay, in houses made of dust that will return to dust. The inner man is spirit and life, and that is what dwells in the house or physical body which is the outer shell. When the real, living, immortal man moves out of the body he continues to live elsewhere in an eternal state of consciousness (v 17, 19). See Immortality in Index

h The houses of clay, or the earthly bodies are made of dust (v 19; Gen. 2:7; 3:19). These can be crushed because they are material. They are destroyed from morning to evening, but the soul and spirit which constitute the inner man cannot be so destroyed daily. Man can destroy the body, but not the soul (Mt. 10:28). The excellency in bodies does go away (v 21), but the bodies remain and go back to dust (Gen. 3:19)

i The excellency of the body here could not refer to the material dust out of which it was made, but to the real life and spirit, the spiritual part that dwells therein (v 21)

j They die, referring to physical death, which is the separation of the inner man from the outer man (Jas. 2:26). When the inner man leaves the body it is dead and lifeless, without wisdom or consciousness k Here we have a challenge for Job to prove that he was of God by getting an answer to prayer (v 1). This was not unreasonable, for when a man does not get an answer something is wrong. It may not be some sin capable of damning the soul which stands in the way; it could be the sin of doubting God and unbelief (Rom. 14:23; Heb. 11:6; 12:1-2; Jas. 1:5-8)

l 4fold reproach of Job:
1 Call now and see if you can get an answer (v 1)
2 To which of the saints will you turn?
3 Wrath kills the foolish man (v 2)
4 Envy slays the silly one m The reference here is to angels, the holy ones of God, not to some earthly saint to whom some ignorantly pray. See 4:18; 15:15; Dt. 33:2

n 8fold reaping of wicked:
1 I have seen the foolish taking root
2 I cursed his habitation (v 3)
3 His children are far from safety (v 4)
4 They are crushed in the gate
5 There is no one to deliver them
6 The hungry eat up their harvest (v 5)
7 They take it even out of thorns
8 Robbers swallow up their substance

a The custom of some farmers was to lay the grain aside with the chaff under thorn bushes to keep it from being carried away and eaten by animals. Robbers who found and seized such grain would literally take it from among the thorns (v 5)

b Affliction does not come from the dust, and trouble does not spring out of the ground like weeds growing out of the earth by themselves. Back of each affliction or trouble there is a cause. Such was the argument of Eliphaz (v 6)

c This is good advice to any man in times of trouble or blessing (v 8)

d 2 good things to do:
1 Seek God (v 8)
2 Commit all problems to Him

e See 10 great acts of God among men, p. 454

f Eliphaz told Job that he should be happy because he was being corrected by God, and advised him not to despise the chastening of the Almighty (v 17). He then mentioned 20 acts of God, according to his thinking (v 18-27)

g Quoted in Heb. 12:5

h 20 acts of God:
1 He makes sore (v 18)
2 Binds up
3 Wounds
4 Makes whole
5 Delivers in trouble (v 19)
6 Preserves from all evil
7 Redeems from death (v 20)
8 Preserves in war from the sword
9 Hides from the scourge of the tongue
10 Keeps from fear of destruction (v 21)
11 Causes one to laugh at destruction and famine (v 22)
12 Removes all fear for the beasts of the field
13 Causes harmony in creation (v 23)
14 Stills the enmity of the beasts of the field
15 Gives peace in one's own house (v 24)
16 Keeps from sin
17 Makes children great (v 25)
18 Increases offspring as grass
19 Protects even to old age (v 26)
20 Gives a fruitful harvest at the end of life

i 7 troubles God keeps from:
1 Sickness (v 18)
2 Famine (v 20, 22)
3 War (v 20)
4 Gossip and slander (v 21)
5 Destruction and calamity (v 21-22)
6 Wild beasts of the field (v 22-23)
7 Sin (v 24)

j The ultimate purpose of God in all creation is to redeem it from all rebellion and sin, and to restore it to original sinlessness and perfection (v 24; Rev. 21:3-7). This is the purpose of the reign of Christ (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 22:3)

ple, Satan is the thief, the destroyer, and the killer (Jn. 10:10; Heb. 2: 14-15). Death is an enemy (1 Cor. 15: 26) and it is not the plan of God to answer any prayer for an enemy to destroy His children. He permits the law of reaping to take the harvest because man has sinned, but when He reigns on earth to destroy death there will be no more death (Rev. 21:3-7)

u Then-If God would cut me off in death, I would then find comfort and freedom from my sufferings, and I would triumph in my sorrows (v 10)

o I have publicly maintained faith and consecration to the words of the Holy One (v 10)

p Questions 30-35, Next, v 22

q The reference here is to that of giving up to die before dishonoring the Almighty. Job's idea was that there was no more hope of his holding out to the end, or enduring any longer because he was not as strong as stones and his flesh was not brass; his strength was gone and his wisdom departed; he knew not what to do further (v 11-13)

r See 44 statements-comdemnation of friends, p. 466 safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and [a]taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

(8) Trouble is inevitable

6 Although affliction [b]cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

(9) Job advised to seek God: tenfold greatness of God

8 [c]I would [d]seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number:

10 [e]Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields:

11 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

15 But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

(10) Job is being chastened by God for his good: twentyfold result of chastening

17 Behold, [f]happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore [g]despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:

18 For he [h]maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in [i]seven there shall no evil touch thee.

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword.

21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and [j]shalt not sin.

25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to [k]thy grave in a [l]full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.

27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

CHAPTER 6 442

Job's reply to Eliphaz. (1) His unbearable grief - accuses God of being his enemy

BUT Job answered and said,
2 Oh that my [a]grief [b]were throughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore [c]my words are swallowed up.

4 For [d]the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the [e]terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 [f]Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the [g]white of an egg?

7 [h]The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

(2) Job prays for God to destroy him in his misery

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that I long for!

9 Even that it would please God [i]to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 [j]Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; [k]for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

11 [l]What is my strength, [m]that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

(3) Job reproves his friends for their deception and lack of understanding of his case

14 [n]To him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the [o]stream of brooks they pass away;

16 Which are [p]blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

17 What time they wax warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

a Thy grave. Heb. qeber, the place for the body at death; not sheol, the place for all the departed spirits in those days. An individual can have his own qeber, but an individual sheol is never mentioned. See Hell, p. 620 b The ideal, even under the curse, is to live to be of full age and then die a natural death, like wheat being harvested in the final ripening stage of its growth (v 26; Ps. 91)

c Heb. ka'as, vexation; anger; grief; indignation; provocation; sorrow (v 2; 16:5; 1 Sam. 1:16; Ps. 6:7; 31:9; Pr. 17:25; Eccl. 1:18; 2:23). Job wanted his anger, complaint or suffering placed on a balance with his calamity to see which was weightier (meaning he had not complained unjustly and unreasonably); or, he wished for his affliction to be placed on a balance with the sands of the sea to determine which was the heavier (meaning that his sufferings were infinitely heavy). Job was hoping to impress his friends concerning how hard his trials were. As is usually the case, those who looked on did not understand or appreciate what he was having to endure; instead, they were beginning to find fault and even accuse him of being the cause of his own troubles. His plea was that they should estimate things rightly before condemning him, for he could tell by the answer of Eliphaz that there was no true understanding or sympathy for him in his present state d Job was convinced that if his sufferings were placed on a balance and thoroughly weighed against the sands of the sea that his troubles would be proved heavier than the sands (v 2-3)

e My words are swallowed up, that is, I have no words with which to express my grief adequately (v 3). This was Job's acknowledgement that he had spoken rashly and immoderately of the day in which he was born (3:1-26)

f Here we have the actual beginning of false concepts of God in his speeches, although before this he had wrongly accused God of the works of Satan (1: 21; 2:10). From this point on he said very little by way of praise and submission to the Almighty; but he made many statements slandering God and accusing Him of doing the work which was clearly done by Satan. See 74 charges against God, p. 420

g 3 slanderous concepts of God:
1 The arrows of the Almighty are within me (v 4)
2 The poison of His arrows drinks up my spirit
3 The terrors of God have set themselves in array against me How could God do these things to a child of His? How could He shoot one with poisoned arrows, and terrorize the one He loved? God was blamed for this when it plainly says that Satan went forth from the presence of God and destroyed all Job's wealth, killed his 7 sons and 3 daughters, and afflicted him with sore boils (1:12-19; 2:7). See note c, 1:11; note c, 1:21

h Questions 26-29, Next, v 11

i The braying of the ass, and the lowing of the ox are indications that they are hungry, thirsty, or in some other need; so the sufferings and pains of Job indicated that he was in the greatest of misery and need of relief-that there was a reason for his complaints (v 5)

j That which is unsavory cannot be enjoyed until it is seasoned with salt; and the white of an egg must be thus seasoned to be enjoyed; so also Job needed to be relieved from his sufferings and pains to be normal and desirous of living (v 6). He was saying that suffering and lamentation complement each other. It may be that he also had the speech of Eliphaz in mind and thus compared it to unsavory food and the white of an egg which has no taste

k Heb. riyr, rendered spittle (1 Sam. 21:13)

l The sufferings of Job were as sickening to him as unsavory food and the white of an egg (v 6-7)

m In ch. 3 we have the record of Job cursing the day in which he was born; here we see he prayed for death, which was just as foolish (v 9). In the first place God does not answer such prayers, for He is not the destroyer of His peo-

a These two verses (19-20) refer to the disappointment of wandering peoples who had hoped for water in some of the gorges because of the melting of the winter's ice and snow, as pictured in v 15-18. At last they were completely disappointed and ashamed because the deceitful brooks had passed away and were dry. Job applied this to the disappointment and shame of his so-called friends (v 21)

c 4fold independence of Job (v 22-23):
1 I did not say to you: bring to me
2 Give a reward to me of your substance
3 Deliver me from the hand of the enemy
4 Redeem me from the hand of the mighty Job was telling his friends: I have been absolutely independent and free from any obligation to you for supplying me with material things, so I do not owe you anything d 2 requests to his friends (v 24):
1 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue
2 Cause me to understand where I have erred and have done wrong e 4 reproofs to his friends:
1 Right words are forcible, but your arguments do not reprove me (v 25)
2 You imagine to reprove me, and answer my speeches with words which are but wind (v 26)
3 You overwhelm the fatherless (v 27)
4 You dig a pit for your friend
f 5 requests to his friends:
1 Be content to let me alone (v 28)
2 Look upon me, for you can see for yourselves that I lie not
3 Return, I pray you to the argument
4 Let it not be considered sin to come back to my argument (v 29)
5 Return again to my argument, for my righteousness (vindication) is in it i 13 comparisons-the brevity of life:

1 Life like the days of an hireling (7:1)
2 As a servant earnestly desiring the shadow of evening (7:2; 14:6)
3 An hireling looking for the reward of his work (7:2)
4 Swifter than a weaver's shuttle (7:6)

7 A passing shadow (8:9; 14:2)
8 Swifter than a post (9:25)
9 As swift ships passing on the sea (9:26)
10 An eagle that hastes to his prey
11 Like a flower that is cut down (14:2)

3 Bildad referred to Job's words as being like the strong wind (8:2)
4 Eliphaz spoke of Job as being full of the east wind (which was the hot wind that brought heat and drought, 15:2)
5 Job stated that the wicked and the rich are like stubble and chaff before the wind (21:18; 27:21), that terrors pursued his soul as the wind (20:15), and that God had destroyed his substance by the wind (30:22)
s Bildad believed that God did not pervert judgment and justice; and from this he concluded that Job's children had sinned and that God was therefore justified in casting them away (v 3-4)
t Evidently Bildad thought that Job had not been as great a sinner as his children because he had been spared from death. This speaker's reasoning was that if Job would seek God and make supplication to the Almighty, and if he would become pure and upright, God would awake for him and make him prosperous again (v 5-7)

19 The [a]troops of Tē'mā looked, the companies of Shē'bā waited for them.
20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.
21 For now ye are nothing; ye see my casting down, and are afraid.

(4) Job maintains his independence

22 [b]Did I[c]say, Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?
23 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

(5) Job reproves his friends for their bitter words

24 [d]Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
25 [e]How forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?
26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?
27 Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

(6) Job appeals to his friends to have faith in him

28 [f]Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is evident unto you if I lie.
29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.
30 [g]Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things?

CHAPTER 7 443

(7) Job longs to die: twelvefold grief

1 [h]Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also[i]like the days of an hireling?
2 As a servant [j]earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:
3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.
4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and[k]I am[l]full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.
5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.
6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.
7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.
8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.
9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the [a]grave shall come[b]up no more.
10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

(8) Job bitterly accuses God of ill-treatment and injustice: twentyfold complaint of God

11 [c]Therefore I will[d]not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 Am[e]I a sea, or a[m]whale, that thou settest a watch over me?
13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;
14 Then[f]thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:
15 [g]So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.
16 I loathe it; I would not live alway: [h]let me alone; for my days are vanity.
17 [i]What is man, [n]that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?
18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment?
19 [o]How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?
20 [p]I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?
21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? [q]for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAPTER 8 444

4 Bildad's first of 3 discourses in 3 chapters.

(1) Job is reproved for his words

1 THEN answered Bil'dăd the Shu'hite, and said,
2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a [a]strong wind?

(2) Job and children accused of being wicked or they would not be suffering

3 [b]Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?
4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;
5 [c]If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;
6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
7 Though thy beginning was a Heb. sheol, the place of departed spirits, not qeber, the grave. See Hell in Index b All these statements-come up no more; return no more to his house; his place know him no more-refer to returning in the natural body to live not again in his earthly home (v 9-10). It could not mean that men who go to sheol will never come out again, for Rev. 20:11-15 teaches that they will come out to be judged, and then the wicked will be cast into the lake of fire forever c 3fold purpose of Job to complain (v 11):

1 I will not refrain my mouth
2 I will speak in the anguish of my spirit
3 I will complain in the bitterness of my soul d My distress and prospect of dying are so great that I must express myself. The idea of having to leave this life and all that I have enjoyed here is so painful that I must give vent to my feelings (v 11)
e Question 47. Next, v 17
f See 20fold complaint of God's dealings, p. 432
g Am I a raging and untamed sea or a monster, so that it is necessary to restrain and confine me by divine power and limits?
h Heb. tannin, crocodile; dragon; sea-monster. See note q, Ex. 7:9
i Job talked about God as if He were a super-ghost that delighted in terrifying men with dreams and visions (v 15). This is far from the right concept of God. Job, himself did not believe this at first, but when Satan and his agents were troubling him in this test, they no doubt used this method to terrify him. The mistake Job made was that of many today-he attributed the work of Satan to God and accepted evil things that happened to him as the dealing of the Lord j Men are limited when it comes to endurance; it is possible for one to become so terrified and tormented that he chooses to die rather than live. Job loathed to live any longer (v 15-16) k Suffer me to live without afflicting me. Let me live my normal life, for life is short at the longest and the days are vanity while I do live (v 16)
l Questions 48-58. Next, 8:10
m What do You see in man that You should make him great and spend time with him in order to redeem him and save his soul in the end? What is there about man that You should set Your heart on him, visit him every day, and try him every moment? (v 17-18) n How long will You keep me afflicted? When will You let me alone for a moment so that I can swallow my spittle? (v 19)
o Job finally acknowledged his sin. In some versions this reads: "If I have sinned what can I do, O Spy upon mankind?" It could be rendered: Have I sinned; what did I against You? Why do You not forgive my sin and take away the wrong that I have done? (v 20-21)
p I shall soon die and go back to dust; and you will not find me in the morning (v 21)
q Then-when Job had ended his speech in answer to Eliphaz, Bildad the Shuhite was ready to give vent to his feelings and thoughts. He accused Job of uttering words of no more value than a strong wind which would tend to destroy (8:1-2). He referred to Job's children as being destroyed because of their sins, and declared that Job, himself would not be suffering if he were righteous and prayed to God (8:3-7). He appealed to Job to learn these facts from tradition and nature (8:8-12). He concluded his speech by classing Job as a hypocrite who had forgotten God, by stating that God would not destroy the perfect man, and saying that the wicked will be destroyed (8:13-22)
r The wind was a favorite subject of all these speakers. Both sides accused the other of words like the wind
1 Regarding the first speech of Eliphaz, Job said it was like wind (6:26)
2 Job acknowledged that his life was like wind (7:7)

a Bildad made his appeal through the lessons of the past age, the traditions of the fathers (v 8), declaring that the present generation knew nothing like the fathers of the past (v 9-10), and that nature itself was the best teacher (v 11-12)
b Questions 59-61, Next, 9:2
c This verse must be understood in the light of v 11-12 about the rush and flags withering and dying soon if they have no mire and water. Thus it will be with all that forget God; and so will the hope of hypocrites be (v 13-14)
d The hypocrite is one who acts a false part, one who makes a false profession; a cheat; deceiver; dissembler; impostor; pretender. The hypocrite assumes a character other than the real, and tries to give false impressions in regard to himself. He seeks to cover up his devices, and to gain credit for his virtues. He hopes to prosper through deceit. This passage could be rendered: his support shall rot away (v 13)
e 2 illustrations of a hypocrite's hope:
1 The spider's web, which is frail, light and easily swept away. Such hope is called his house; but like the spider's house it shall not support in time of judgment any more than a spider's web (v 14-15)
2 A green rush or flag, which soon withers when the sun is up and there is no mire or water to grow in (v 11-12, 16-19). Likewise, the hypocrite's hope is destined to wither and fall
f Bildad's reasoning about Job was that he was receiving no help from God because of his sins (v 20). This friend argued that God will never cast away a perfect man or help evil doers; therefore, since Job was being cast away he was to blame g Though the translation is a little obscure, these verses (20-22) contain an appeal for Job to return to God. He was assured that God would not cast the righteous away, that He would fill his mouth with laughing and his lips with rejoicing, and that they who hated him would be clothed with shame (v 21-22). Other versions support this idea h Then—when Bildad finished his speech, Job answered him by pointing out that God's power was great but how to be justified before Him he did not know (9:1-12). Nevertheless, he would pray to God (9:13-15), though he was even doubtful of answered prayer (9:16). He blamed God for his miserable condition (9:17-18); spoke of injustice and helplessness (9:19-21); and even accused God of being unmerciful and in league with the wicked (9:22-24). Job complained bitterly about God's dealings and tried to maintain integrity before Him (9:25-10:17). He finished his discourse by lamenting his birth and dreading his death (9:18-22)
i Job acknowledged the fact that a man could be justified before God, but how was something he did not know (v 2). He reasoned that if one contended with Him, that is, if God contended with a man, charging him with a thousand sins he could not answer for one sin in a thousand (v 3). The meaning is that man could not answer the charges of God at all. Man's sins are many and are counted by the thousands; they grow more numerous as the years come and go; and they become an overwhelming weight on the soul to sink it into the lowest sheol. By his continual sinning man only stores up more wrath against the day of wrath and righteous judgment of God. Sin must be blotted out, removed, and cleansed completely through faith in the blood of the Redeemer (Mt. 26:28; Acts 3:19; Rom. 3:21-25; 1 Jn. 1:7-9; Rev. 1:5; 5:9-10); and then a man is justified in the sight of God as though he had never sinned (Rom. 5:1; 1 Cor. 1:9-11; 2 Cor. 5:17-21; Eph. 2:8-9; Tit. 2:11-14; 3:5; Heb. 7:25; 1 Jn. 1:9; 2:29; 3:5-10; 5:1-4, 18). In his former days, before this test, Job, himself had known God and stood justified before Him (1:1, 5, 8-10, 22; 2:3, 9-10); but after experiencing many days of his trial, the darkness overwhelmed him and he became doubtful of ever being justified small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

(3) Appeal for Job to learn from tradition and nature

8 [c]For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:
9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)
10 [b]Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?
11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?
12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

(4) Twentyfold application to Job the hypocrite

13 [c]So are the paths of all that forget God; and the [d]hypocrite's hope shall perish:
14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall [e]be a spider's web.
15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.
16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.
17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.
18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.
19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.
20 Behold, [f]God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers:
21 [g]Till he fill my mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.
22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

CHAPTER 9 445

5 Job's reply to Bildad.

(1) Job unable to answer how a man can be just with God

THEN Jōb answered and said,
2 [i]I know it is so of a truth: but [j]how should man be just with God?
3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.
4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

(2) God's twelvefold power

5 Which [l]removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.
6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.
7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.
8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.
9 Which maketh [a]Ārc-tū'rus, [b]Ō-rī'ŏn, and [c]Plē'ĭa-dēş, and the [d]chambers of the south.
10 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.
11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.
12 Behold, he taketh away, [e]who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

(3) Job unable to answer God but will yet pray to Him

13 If God [f]will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.
14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?
15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

(4) Job is confused and doubtful of answered prayer

16 [h]If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

(5) Job accuses God for his miserable plight

17 [i]For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds [j]without cause.
18 He will [k]not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

(6) Job's sixfold complaint of injustice and helplessness

19 [l]If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, [m]who shall set me a time to plead?
20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.
21 [n]Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

(7) Job accuses God of being unmerciful and in league with the wicked

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, [o]He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.
23 If the scourge slay suddenly, [p]he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.
24 The earth is [q]given into the hand of the wicked: he [r]covereth the faces of the judges thereof; [s]if not, where, and who is he?

(8) Job's twelvefold complaint and accusation of God

25 [t]Now [u]my days are swifter than a [v]post: they flee away, they see no good.
26 They are passed away as a Arcturus—the name that is still connected with the Great Bear, a constellation in the northern hemisphere (v 9; 38:32) b Orion—the constellation commonly known as the Giant (v 9; 38:31; Amos 5:8). The space in the sword of the Giant alone is estimated to be 2,200,000,000,000,000,000 (2 trillion, 200,000 billion) times larger than the sun

c Pleiades—the name given the 7 stars in the neck of the constellation Taurus (v 9; 38:21)
d Just what is referred to by the chambers of the south is not known, but the word for chambers means a private apartment of a dwelling (v 9). Here it may mean the abode of the stars of the south or that division of the stars in the southern part of the heavens e This was Job's way of expressing the invisibility of God (v 11)
f Questions 64-66, Next, v 67
g To Job it seemed that God's anger was burning hot against him. He was unable to answer the Lord, but he was determined to continue praying and making supplication to Him (v 13-15) h Here Job expressed the idea that even if God did answer prayer he would be doubtful that it was an answer (v 16). Such is the faith of some who pray today i Beginning here, in his 3rd discourse, he accused God of doing 21 things which He actually had nothing to do with. See p. 418. He was blaming God for the work of Satan j This is absolutely contrary to truth. God does not wound His children, especially without cause any more than good human parents (Mt. 7:7-11; Lk. 11:9-13). An earthly parent doing this would be punished by civil law; and for God to do this is unthinkable k If this had been true Job would have been dead already. To accuse God of trying to cut off the breath, and of filling with bitterness meant only that Job was adding sin upon sin and storing up punishment to come. God warns us against bitterness as a condition we are responsible for. No scripture ever teaches that God is responsible for it; only these false human accusations of Job mention it thus (Eph. 4:31; Heb. 12:15)
l See 9 "If's" of Job, p. 483
m Question 67, Next, v 24
n If I were perfect I would be ignorant of it; I certainly would not advertise or mention it (v 21) o God does not do either. This is the work of Satan (Jn. 10:10) p The only time God will laugh at the calamity of anybody will be when a person has rejected and mocked Him until it is His time to judge (Pr. 1:23-33)
q God did not do this. He gave the earth to a sinless person on two different occasions and both caused it to become wicked and corrupt. One time was when Satan or Lucifer ruled, long before Adam (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17), and the other was when Adam was given the dominion, which he soon submitted to Satan (Gen. 1:26-31; 3:1-19; Rom. 5:12-21) r Covering the faces of judges. This accused God of causing the judges to become confused and blind so they would be partial, unjust and always making decisions to further their own profit (v 24)
s Question 68, Next, v 29
t See 12fold complaint and accusation of God, p. 483 u 5 facts about man's days:
1 They are swifter than a runner (v 25)
2 They flee away
3 They see no good
4 They pass like swift ships (v 26)
5 They fly as an eagle to his prey
v Swift runners were often employed in ancient times to convey important messages. Kings kept a number of such in their service as a part of the royal household. In the time of Jeremiah there seems to have been a regular postal service (Jer. 51:31). While there may not have been a systematic communication of this sort in the time of Job, yet it is evident that men fleet of foot were employed when occasion required

a Question 69, Next, 10:3
b Ancients believed that snow water possessed particular virtues for the cleansing and whitening of the skin, and that it contracted the fibres to prevent perspiration. An old fable speaks of the black man washing his body in snow water to make it white. Mohammed prayed: Lord, wash me from my sins white with water, snow, and ice c It seems that Job's accusations of God were becoming worse. Here he went so far as to accuse God of intentions to cast him into a ditch even though he made himself ever so clean (v 30-31)
d Heb. yakach, to be right; argue; decide; justify; convict; dispute; judge; maintain; plead; rebuke; reason; umpire; a mediator (v 33). Job did not understand the coming work of Christ as mediator between God and man (1 Tim. 2:4-5) e Here Job came back to one of his favorite subjects, that of accusing God of mistreating him. It was now becoming Job's habit to blame God for his troubles and bodily affliction. In this passage he asked God to take away the rod and cease terrifying him, then he would speak and not fear Him. He also remarked, "but it is not so with me," that is, God will not take away His rod and terrors (v 34-35)
f 4fold state of Job's soul:
1 Weary of life (v 1)
2 Full of complaints
3 Full of bitterness
4 Full of accusations against God (v 2-3)
g 7 times Job spoke of the bitterness of his soul (3:20; 7:11; 9:18; 10:1; 13:26; 21:25; 23:2) 10 examples of bitterness:
1 Jo5 (see above scriptures)
2 Esau in losing blessing (Gen. 27:34)
3 Israel in slavery in Egypt (Ex. 1:14)
4 Naomi in losing family (Ruth 1:20)
5 Hannah because of having no child (1 Sam. 1:10)
6 Israel in defeat (2 Kl. 14:26)
7 Mordecai because of Haman (Esther 4:1)
8 Judah in defeat (Lam. 1:4)
9 Jeremiah because of the destruction of Judah and Jerusalem (Lam. 3:15)
10 Peter because of sin (Mt. 26:75)
h 5 accusations against God by Job:
1 You condemn me (v 2)
2 Contend with me
3 Oppress me (v 3)
4 Despise me
5 Shine upon the counsel of the wicked
God did not condemn and contend with Job until he began accusing Him and making false statements about Him. He did not contend until He answered Job as in chs. 40-42. Regarding the last 3 accusations above, God was not guilty in the least. It was Satan who oppressed Job (1:10-19; 2:1-8), and made him think that God despised him and favored the wicked

i Questions 70-74, Next, v 9
j Job was speaking contrary to facts. He knew that God was just; and if he had been as good as he maintained here, he should have known that God would not be the one to afflict and torment him. Being convinced that he was not wicked, Job should have realized that it was Satan attacking him. In the beginning of his afflictions he justified what he thought was God's dealings with him (1:22; 2:9-10) k This shows the basis of Job's belief that God was guilty of oppression. He knew that God has all power and none can deliver out of His hand; and he erroneously thought that he was in God's hands, that He had afflicted him, and was yet tormenting him. If God had the power of deliverance and did not use it to deliver him, Job further reasoned that He must be using the power to oppress (v 7). It is still easy for the modern man to think the same because of the average false concepts among us about God and His dealings

l God fashioned only Adam and Eve with His hands. Job and all other men have been reproductions by the original power given man to reproduce his own kind (v 8). Job could only say this then, as being an offspring of one literally formed by the hands of God m Here again the destructive work of Satan was attributed to God (v 8, 10)
n Questions 75-78, Next, v 18

the swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.
27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:
28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.
29 If I be wicked, [a]why then labour I in vain?
30 If I wash myself with [b]snow water, and make my hands never so clean;
31 Yet shalt thou [c]plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

(9) Job unable to answer God because there is no mediator

32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.
33 Neither is there any [d]daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

(10) Job again accuses God of terrifying him

34 [e]Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:
35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

446 CHAPTER 10

(11) Job in bitterness accuses God of injustice, oppression, and being in league with the wicked

MY [f]soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the [g]bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say unto God, [h]Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.
3 [i]Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

(12) Job maintains his integrity to God and declares that God is seeking his destruction

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?
5 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,
6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?
7 [j]Thou knowest that I am not wicked; [k]and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.
8 Thine hands [l]have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou [m]dost destroy me.

(13) Job prays to God for help yet accuses God of increasing His wrath upon him

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; [n]and wilt thou bring me into dust again?
10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?
11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.
12 Thou hast [a]granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.
13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.
14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou [b]wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
15 If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction;
16 For it [c]increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.
17 Thou renewest thy [d]witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; [e]changes and war are against me.

(14) Job laments his birth and dreads his death

18 [f]Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? [g]Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!
19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are not my days few? cease then, and [h]let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,
21 Before I go [i]whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;
22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

447 CHAPTER 11

6 Zophar's first of 2 discourses in 2 chapters.
(1) He accuses Job of five sins

THEN answered Zō'phar the Nā'a-math-ite, and said,
2 [a]Should not [b]the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?
3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
4 For thou hast said, [c]My doctrine is pure, and I am clean [d]in thine eyes.

(2) Zophar claims that Job is not reaping enough

5 But [e]oh that God would speak, and open his [f]lips against thee;
6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are [g]double to that which is! [h]Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

(3) God's twelvefold omniscience and omnipotence

7 Canst thou by searching find a Job said a few good things about God, as here (v 12), but soon returned to accusing Him - this time blaming Him for increasing his affliction, hunting him as a fierce lion, renewing witnesses against him, increasing indignation upon him, and constantly bothering him (v 16-17, 20)

b This literally means that God will not acquit one until he makes proper confession of sin and meets the conditions of forgiveness (v 14)
c The idea here is that his affliction lifted up its head, or exalted itself and became more and more prominent as the days would come and go d The witnesses referred to were the plagues or calamities which were proofs to his friends of his wickedness e Literally, successions of attacks are made on me - one attack follows another, as if one company of tormentors shoots its arrows and passes on, and then another and another, until there is no ceasing (v 17). Job was being continually attacked by a whole host of calamities, until he was overwhelmed
f Questions 77-78, Next, 11:2
g Again Job lamented the day of his birth and wished that he had not been born h If God would only refrain from afflicting me then I could get a little comfort (v 20) i 6 things said of the state of death:
1 A place of no return (v 21)
2 The land of darkness
3 A land of the shadow of death
4 Darkness itself (v 22)
5 A place without order
6 A place where light is as darkness j Then - after Job's 3rd discourse, after answering Eliphaz and Bildad, Zophar the Naamathite thought it was time for him to answer Job and accomplish what the other two had failed to do up to this point. All three were seeking to convince him of his sinfulness and hypocrisy, and to show him that he was reaping what he had sowed. Zophar began by accusing Job of sins (11:1-4); and proceeded by reasoning that he was not reaping enough for his sins (11:5-6), that man is helpless before Almighty God (11:7-12), that if Job would stop sinning and pray he would be blessed, and that he must be wicked because of suffering the judgments of the wicked (11:20). Zophar argued from the standpoint of human merit k Questions 79-83, Next, v 7
l 5 great sins charged to Job:
1 Much talk (v 2, Cp. Pr. 10:19)
2 Self-justification (v 2)
3 Lying (v 3)
4 Mocking
5 False claims (v 4)
m 2 claims of Job (v 4):
1 My doctrine is pure
2 I am clean in Your eyes
n Job knew better than to claim to be clean in the eyes of his critics, but he considered being clean in God's eyes to be true. Such is the case many times, for while man lookson the outward appearance, God looks on the heart (1 Sam. 16:7) o Zophar longed for God to speak and condemn Job, seeing that he and the other friends were making such a failure of this (v 5). He evidently believed that Job would listen to God even though he would not listen to them. He reasoned correctly, for when God did speak to Job he melted immediately and repented of all that he had spoken against the Almighty (40:1-7; 42:1-7) p All the characters of the book of Job recognized God to be a person, not some invisible nothingness floating around everywhere filling all matter and space. In fact, this is the first book in the Bible to call God a person (13:8; Cp. Heb. 1:3). Job and his friends spoke of God as having bodily parts, soul passions, and spirit faculties in a literal sense. They knew about the many appearances of God to their fathers in the past, for all had descended, no doubt, from the sons of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob - men who had experienced visible appearances of God to the extent of seeing His body, seeing Him eat, walk, talk, wrestle and do other things that a real person might do. See 44 appearances of God, p. 63
q Manifold, not only double r God is punishing you far less than you deserve (v 6) a These questions - Can you by searching find out God? Can you find Him out to perfection? - are sometimes used as proof that He is so great that the most learned cannot comprehend Him; but this is an improper use of the questions. One cannot find the person of God in the telescope, in the laboratory or in other ways that some seek for Him. One would not seek to know any man by such methods, so why try to find God that way? To know a man one must be introduced to him, become acquainted with his traits and ways by association and living with him continually, under all circumstances of life. So it is with God - one must become acquainted with Him, fellowship Him, daily experience Him, and read and accept His own revelation of Himself in the many thousands of plain statements of Scripture. It may be true that some of the learned cannot comprehend Him, but it is a fact that the most simple-hearted believer can do so. If one has been taught to question the literalness of Bible statements about God, and if he will not accept what God says about Himself, then a knowledge of Him is impossible; whereas, if one will believe the Bible when it speaks of His person, His body, His soul and His spirit faculties in the same way he would believe if the description was of an ordinary man, then knowledge of Him is the result. See note r, Jn. 4:24 and God in Index

b Questions 84-88. Next, 12:3

c The height of heaven is here contrasted with the depths of sheol, this identifying heaven as above the other infinite heights of creation and hell as in the lowest parts of the earth beneath (v 8). The hell beneath could not possibly be the grave on the surface of the earth

d Heb. sheol, the place of departed spirits, not the grave, the place of the body. See Hell, p. 620

e The measure of the knowledge of God

f This signifies the weakness of man, his unsubdued nature, and dullness (11:12)

g 4 conditions of blessings, p. 495

h 12fold blessing of God, p. 495

i After mentioning the many blessings that would come to Job if he would meet the 4 conditions of blessing, Zophar finished his discourse by warning him that if he persisted in wickedness he would come to a sad end (v 20)

j 3fold curse on the wicked (v 20):
1 The eyes of the wicked will become blind
2 The wicked will not escape judgment
3 Their hope will be as the giving up of the ghost

k This answer to Zophar's speech was Job's 4th discourse. He denied being inferior to these friends who had come to see him, and declared that he knew all the things they said as well as they did (12:1-3; 13:1-3), that they were missing the mark in their answers, they were mere mockers of a just and praying man (12:4-5), that inasmuch as the tabernacles of robbers prospered, their accusation of him reaping what he had sowed was not necessarily true (12:6), that he could reason about God and nature also (12:7-13:3), that they were forgers of lies (12:4), and should listen to his pleadings for mercy and cease bothering him (12:5-13), that he was determined to trust God or die (12:14-18), and that he was so full of sufferings that he had to speak of God and of man here and hereafter (12:19-14:22)

l This is plain irony - saying just the opposite of what he meant (v 2)

n Instead of being original, their arguments were very common (v 3)

o I am as one held in contempt by his neighbors; a laughingstock to them all. They have no sympathy for me in my sufferings and no respect for my opinions (v 4) p A man who used to call upon God and get an answer; a just and an upright man who is now despised (v 4)

q A man ready to slip with his feet is despised by those that are at ease; and there are blows for the man that falters (v 5) out [a]God? [b]canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

8 It is as [c]high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than [d]hell; what canst thou know?

9 The [e]measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

10 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

11 For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

12 For vain man would be wise, though man be born [f]like a wild ass's colt.

(4) Zophar assures Job of a twelvefold blessing if he would only pray and quit sinning

13 [g]If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

15 [h]For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:

16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

(5) Zophar declares Job must be wicked or he would not be suffering like the wicked

20 [i]But [j]the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

448 CHAPTER 12

7 Job's reply to Zophar.
(1) Job's irony: his inferiority denied

AND [k]Jôb answered and said,

2 [l]No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I have understanding as well as you: I am not inferior to you: yea, [m]who knoweth not such [n]things as these?

(2) Job states the attitude of others when a man is down

4 I am [o]as one mocked of his neighbour, [p]who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

5 [q]He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

(3) Job again accuses God of being in league with the wicked

6 [a]The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

(4) Thirtyfold greatness of God (cp. 38:1-41:34)

7 [b]But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 [c]Who [d]knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

11 Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?

12 With the [e]ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a man, and [f]there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 With him is strength and wisdom: the [g]deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors away [h]spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

20 He removeth away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 [i]He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and [j]bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and [k]straiteneth them again.

24 He [l]taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

(5) Job's inferiority again denied: accuses his friends of lying and being quack doctors

LO, mine eye hath seen [m]all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 [n]What ye know, the same do a 3 more false accusations of God (v 6):

1 The tabernacles of robbers prosper
2 They that provoke God are secure 3 God brings abundance to robbers

b 4fold source of knowledge, p. 482

c Questions 90-92. Next, 13:6

d 30fold greatness of God:
1 He created all things (v 7-9) 10)
2 Is Sovereign of all living things (v
3 Governs the breath of all men
4 Has wisdom and strength (v 13)
5 Has counsel and understanding
6 He breaks down (v 14)
7 Shuts up man, and there can be no opening
8 Withholds waters (v 15)
9 The rivers dry up
10 He sends rains
11 They overrun the earth
12 With Him is strength and wisdom (v 16)
13 The deceived and the deceiver are His 14 He leads counsellors away spoiled
15 Makes judges fools (v 17)
16 Looses the bond of kings (v 18)
17 Girds the loins with a girdle
18 Leads princes away spoiled (v 19)
19 Overturns the mighty
20 Moves away the speech of the trusty (v 20) 21 Takes away the understanding of the old men 21) 22 Pours out contempt upon princes (v
23 Weakens the strength of the mighty
24 Discovers deep things out of darkness (v 22)
25 Brings out to light the shadow of death
26 Increases the nations and destroys them (v 23)
27 Enlarges nations and straightens them again
28 Takes away the heart of the chief people of the earth (v 24)
29 Causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way
30 Makes them grope in the dark and stagger like a drunkard (v 25)

e The ancient here refers to God whose works are mentioned in all this section (v 7-25). God is called the Ancient of days in Dan. 7:9-14, 22. In a secondary sense the passage here could also refer to old men

f God can put a man into such a place that he cannot liberate himself (v 14)

g The idea here is that all classes of men are in the hands of God being dependent upon Him for life; and He will be the judge of all in the end (v 16)

h Counsellors are led captive and their houses are plundered like those of others (v 17)

i God reveals truths to man which are beyond his power of knowing (v 22). This could refer to revelations of things unknown to men, like the creation, and to predictions of things to come which man could not foreknow by himself

j The expression shadow of death refers to the state of the dead and to the darkest place in man's knowledge. The idea of the verse is that God can bring to light any information concerning such a place, and that all things and places are naked before the Almighty (v 22)

k This means that God confines the nations to their own boundaries even though they are enlarged (v 23). It is another passage teaching that God has divided the nations unto their inheritances, and that He plans their eternal segregation within the boundaries assigned them (Dt. 32:8-9; Acts 17:26). This will be literally enforced when the Messiah comes to reign

l He takes away the wisdom and counsel of the rulers of the earth and they are left confounded and helpless, wondering what to do. They are like persons wandering in a large wilderness where there is no way. They grope in darkness and stagger like a drunkard (v 24-25). This applies only where rulers rebel and war against God and His plan on earth. Otherwise, if they are in harmony with Him the Lord gives wisdom in time of need

m All the many works of God in 12:7-25

n Job claimed again that all they knew he, himself already knew, so their arguments were a failure as far as throwing any light upon his case was concerned (v 2) a Not only did Job claim to know all that they knew, he made it known that he did not feel inferior to them in any way (v 2. Cp. 12:3)

b Job expressed a desire to go directly to the Almighty with his arguments, to one who would appreciate them. He felt that his friends were totally lacking in understanding of his case; they had no sympathy for his feelings and did not understand his motives. They perverted his words and heaped false accusations upon him when they should have shown pity. These forgers of lies and physicians of no value caused him to sink deeper into despair and provoked him into saying things that otherwise he would not have said (v 3-4) c The lies here were perhaps the false accusations, errors, and false positions. These friends did not see the truth of the divine dealings, the character of Job, or the works of Satan. They maintained that Job was a hypocrite, that God was punishing him for his sins, and that the Almighty dealt with men according to their character in this world, all of which Job regarded as false doctrine

d They had come to Job to console him and to sympathize with him, but nothing they had said helped him in the least. He only became more provoked from time to time to utter things which he did not want to utter. These friends were doctors of no value to him (v 4)

e Here Job burst out with one of the most amazing statements of the book, which paraphrased could read: O that you would altogether stop your vain talk -it would prove you had some sense! (v 5). A statement in Pr. 17:28 is similar: Even a fool, when he holds his peace, is counted wise

f See Job's plea to his friends, p. 425

h The idea here seems to be that Job was in such misery that he even bit his own flesh to ease the pain; or this could be a proverb about taking his life in his own hands (v 14)

i Job was determined to trust in God and maintain his own ways before Him, regardless of the outcome (v 15). According to this Job thought that his ways were righteous, for he confessed that God would be his salvation, and that the hypocrite could not come before Him. Concerning himself he declared that he would be justified (v 16-18)

j Questions 102-106. Next, 14:3

k This verse indicates that Job, himself was the only one that could plead his case. All the others were against him; so with this fact in mind he declared that if he had to hold his tongue after all their words and hard-heartedness, he would die and give up the ghost. In other words, I must speak or die (v 19)

l 2fold appeal of Job to God (v 20-21):
1 Withdraw Your hand far from me
2 Let not Your dread make me afraid.
Job wanted these things done so that he could have a clear mind to plead his case before God, He was confident that if he could present his case to Jehovah he would be vindicated. He said that if He would favor him thus (as in the above appeal) he would answer God's call and then ask of Him and expect an answer (v 21)

m The word not only applies to one of the two things as translated in v 21. The word is not in the Septuagint, Moffatt, Berkeley, and some other versions; but the Peshitta gives it thus: "Do not withdraw Thy help from me; and let not Thy dread terrify me" n No man can know the exact number of sins that are on record against him; and to know this is not necessary for him to be forgiven. All one needs to do is to say, God be merciful to me a sinner in true repentance from the heart, and he will be justified (Lk. 18: 13-14; Rom. 10:9-10)

o Sometimes it is good to pray for conviction by the Holy Spirit, as well as to take inventory of ourselves, facing facts as we truly find them to be in the light of God's Word (v 23; Jn. 16: 7-11; Heb. 4:12-13)

p 10 false accusations of God, p. 425

I know[a] also: I am not inferior unto you.

3 [b]Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of [c]lies, ye are all[d] physicians of no value.

(6) Job's twentyfold appeal to his friends to let him alone and let God deal with him

5 [e]O that ye would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom.

6 [f]Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 [g]Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

(7) Job's declaration to trust God even to death: maintains his integrity and confidence in his God and innocence

14 Wherefore do [h]I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

15 [i]Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

(8) Job's twentyfold appeal to God for fair play

19 [j]Who is he[k] that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 [l]Only do[m] not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from thee.

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 [n]How many are mine iniquities and sins? [o]make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 [p]Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feet also in the [a]stocks, and [b]lookest narrowly unto all my paths; [c]thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

28 And [d]he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

450 CHAPTER 14

(9) Job's philosophy of man: here and hereafter

MAN that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 [e]And dost thou [f]open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 Who can bring a [g]clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

6 [h]Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

7 [i]For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and [k]where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: [m]till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the [n]grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest [o]appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 [p]If a man[q] die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.

15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 My transgression is [r]sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And [s]surely the mountain falling cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevailest for ever a Stocks, a mode of punishment, were of two types-a clog attached to one foot or to both feet to hinder walking; or a fixed frame to which both feet were attached so as to prevent all walking and motion (Pr. 7:22). Jeremiah (Jer. 20:2; 29:2-6), Paul, and Silas (Acts 16:24) were put into stocks. Here Job accused God of putting him into stocks; but this would have to be figurative of punishment and restriction. Cp. 33:11. The word is sometimes used of idols (Lev. 25:46; Isa. 40:24; 44:19; Jer. 2:27; 3:9; 10:8; Hos. 4:12)

b God sees that my every way of escape is blocked, so there is no way to be free from the sufferings I endure (v 27)

c This could refer to one of several things-one, the stocks made a print upon my feet. The Sept. reads, "hast tracked the soles of my feet;" the Berkeley, "has set bounds to my footsteps;" the Peshitta, "Thou seest the imprints of my feet"

d Job was so filled with disease and corruption that it seemed he was being consumed like a moth-eaten garment (v 28)

e 7 facts about man:
1 He is born of a woman (v 1)
2 He lives but a few days. Cp. Gen. 47:9
3 His life is full of trouble
4 He comes forth like a flower (v 2)
5 He is soon cut down like a flower
6 He flees through life like a shadow 7 He does not long continue

f Questions 107-108. Next, v 10

g Is it possible that one so weak, so short-lived and unworthy is watched constantly by God? Why should He bring such an one to judgment? Why would the Almighty seek to deal with such an inferior creature? (v 3)

h Here Job acknowledged his faults, his sinfulness, and depravity, asking how could it be otherwise, coming from a race of this type

i Since man is limited, short-lived, and depraved, let him alone that he may pass his time in rest and fulfil his day

j See Job reasons on Immortality, p. 425

k Question 109. Next, v 14

l In Job's time all souls-those of the righteous as well as the wicked-went to sheol; but they were confined to separate compartments, one being a place of bliss and the other one of torment (Lk. 16:19-31). When Christ went into sheol to liberate the righteous souls and take them to heaven with Him at His ascension, this ended the entrance of righteous souls into sheol (Ps. 16:10; Eph. 4:8-10; Heb. 2:14-15). Now when a righteous person dies the body still goes into the grave, but the soul and spirit go to heaven to await the time of the resurrection of the dead body (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11). See Hell in Index

m This is a poetic expression making reference to the renovation of the heavens and the earth at the end of the Millennium and at the time of the resurrection of the bodies of the wicked dead (2 Pet. 2:10-13; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). The heaven and earth will be passed from one state to another, the former will be no more; that is, they will both be changed to a pure and perfect state wherein righteousness will reign forever (Rom. 8:21-25; Heb. 1:1-12; 12: 25-29; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 20:11-15; 21:1-7). Both the heavens and the earth are eternal. See Heaven and Earth in Index

n Heb. sheol, the place of departed spirits, not qeber, the grave or place of the body at death. See Hell in Index

o God does have a set time for the resurrection of the dead-a time for the righteous before the Millennium, and a time for the wicked after it (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15)

p Questions 110-111. Next, 16:2

q All men will die their own appointed death until death is destroyed at the end of the Millennium; and all men will live again (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15)

r 7 great changes for all men, p. 425

t Job spoke of earthquakes here (v 18), floods (v 19), and of God's dealings with men (v 20-22)

a Job plainly expressed the often repeated doctrine of the material and spiritual natures of man. The flesh was upon him and his spirit within him. The body only is material and of dust and will return to dust (Gen. 2:7; 3:19; Eccl. 3:19-21). The inner man, which is made up of soul and spirit, is spiritual; it was created to live inside the body (Gen. 2:7). At death the body dies and the inner man leaves it, going to heaven or hell, depending on the way the individual lived in his lifetime, whether he accepted God's provision of salvation and conformed to the righteousness taught in the Bible. All souls are fully conscious between death and the resurrection, the righteous souls being conscious in heaven (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11), and the wicked souls in hell (Isa. 14:9; Lk. 16:19-31; Rev. 11:11-15)

b Then-after Job had answered all three of his so-called friends in turn, it was time for the second round of discourses, so Eliphaz who had spoken first, began his speech. He accused Job of 16 sins (v 1-16) and mentioned 20 judgments of God upon the wicked, coming to the conclusion that Job must be wicked because of suffering the judgments of the wicked (v 17-35)

c Questions 112-127. Next, v 23

d 15 sins of Job, according to Eliphaz:
1 Uttering vain knowledge (v 2)
2 Filling his belly with the east wind, that is, indulging in vain words
3 Using unprofitable talk (v 3)
4 Making speeches that were no good
5 Casting off fear of God (v 4)
6 Restraining prayer
7 Uttering iniquity (v 5)
8 Choosing to use a deceitful tongue
9 Being guilty of things he spoke of, which condemned him (v 6)
10 Boasting of himself as some great one in the earth (v 7)
11 Restraining wisdom (v 8)
12 Claiming superior knowledge (v 9)
13 Having a proud heart (v 12)
14 Winking at sin
15 Turning his spirit against God (v 13)

e The word saints refers to angels, whom he charged with folly (v 15; 4:18)

f All the arguments of Eliphaz were based on human experience, which he spoke of in many details (v 17-35)

g This indicates the way many facts were passed down from Adam to men of Job's time - before any of the Bible was written with its information about God, creation, and other things. Statements of fact were handed down generation after generation by word of mouth (v 18)

h The land in which they lived in utter simplicity with no strangers bringing in foreign gods or introducing different ways of life (v 19)

i 20 judgments of God upon the wicked:
1 He travails with pain (v 20)
2 His years are uncertain
3 He lives in fear and dread (v 21)
4 Is subject to destruction
5 Has no confidence (v 22)
6 The sword waits for him
7 He suffers want (v 23)
8 Is insecure
9 Lives in trouble and anguish (v 24)
10 Fights with no hope of victory (v 25-27)
11 Lives a lonely life (v 28)
12 Suffers many hardships
13 Lives in need (v 29)
14 Loses his substance
15 Suffers for being intemperate
16 Lives in darkness (v 30)
17 Is destroyed by God like a tree
18 He trusts in vanity and this is what he reaps (v 31)
19 He becomes unfruitful (v 32-33)
20 His life shall be blasted (v 33)

right, for Satan was the one responsible for all of the man's misery (1:12-19; 2:7-8). Why would God want to do all these things to a child of His? It is understandable why Satan would want to do even more, for he is the enemy of God and all of God's people. Would any good earthly parent seek to do any of the above things to his child? The answer is no; therefore no Christian should think of the Heavenly Father as being guilty of such (Mt. 7:7-11; Lk. 11:9-13) against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his [a]flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

451 CHAPTER 15

8 Eliphaz' second discourse.
(1) Accuses Job of 15 sins

THEN answered Él'i-phăz the Tē'man-ite, and said,

2 [c]Should a wise man [d]utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

4 Yea, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his [e]saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

(2) Eliphaz appeals to tradition: twenty judgments on the wicked - Job must be wicked for he is suffering the judgments of the wicked

17 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which [f]I have seen I will declare:

18 Which wise men have [g]told from their fathers, and have not hid it:

19 Unto whom alone the [h]earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man [i]travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come unto him.

22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, [j]Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

25 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.

26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the [k]thick bosses of his bucklers:

27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

28 And he dwelleth in [l]desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

29 He shall [m]not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the [n]perfection thereof upon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darkness; [o]the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

31 [p]Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.

32 [q]It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the [r]congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 [s]They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

CHAPTER 16 452

9 Job's reply to Eliphaz.
(1) Reproves his miserable comforters

THEN Jŏb answered and said,

2 [t]I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

3 [u]Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should asswage your grief.

6 Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged: and though I forbear, what am I eased?

(2) Job's twentyfold accusation against God and man

7 [v]But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness

a Question 128. Next, 16:3

b The boss was the external convex part of the round shield, its thickest and strongest portion. Here Eliphaz expressed the uselessness of the attack which the wicked man makes on God by running upon Him with the thickness, or convex part, of his shield (v 26)

c Many were the crude huts in the East, some built with small stones or with mud. The roofs were made by covering the beams with brushwood, and this in turn with earth. The rains would soak into the earth roof and the weight and rotting of the brush would soon break it down unless there was an industrious occupant keeping the roof in repair. When it was broken down the walls would easily fall, and the whole house become a heap of ruins. This was not only true of mud huts, but those also of sun-dried brick, as the ruins of Babylon and Nineveh testify (v 28)

d He will continue poor all his days, and his substance shall be taken from him (v 29). This particularly referred to the loss of Job's substance; and Eliphaz thought he made a point here to prove him a wicked man

e This expresses the idea that the fulness of the wealth of the wicked man will not be extended - his wealth will not be increased because of losing it (v 29)

f He shall have calamity like a fire that burns up the green branches of a tree. By the breath of God he shall be taken away (v 30)

g Let him not trust in vanity lest he should be deceived. He should not trust in riches, houses, lands, position, or human power for support. All these are hopeless and will be his only recompense (v 31)

h He shall be like a tree cut off before its time to produce fruit. His life will be destroyed like the vine and olive tree before bearing ripe fruit (v 32-33)

i The assembly of hypocrites, or the men who assemble around the hypocrite, will be swept away and he will be left desolate. The fire of judgment shall come to the homes of those who bribe. This also was particularly applied to Job who had lost some of his substance by fire from heaven (v 34; 1:16)

j The wicked man continually conceives deceit and mischief, which lead to nothing but vanity (v 35)

k Then-after Eliphaz had finished speaking it was time for Job to make a reply. He reproved his friends for being miserable comforters (v 1-6), accused God and man (v 7-14), maintained that his suffering was not because of any injustice in his hands (v 15-22), and expressed grief, and complained to God (17:1-16)

l You have not given me anything that is new. You are nothing but miserable comforters; and one of you is no better than the others. Your words have been vain and endless. If you were in my place I could heap up words against you and shake my head in disdain; instead of that I would give you words of comfort and seek to lessen your grief. As it is now, it makes no difference to me whether I speak or remain silent. My sufferings continue and I am being insulted all the while (v 1-6)

m Questions 129-131. Next, 17:2

n 16 accusations against God:
1 He has made me weary (v 7)
2 Made all my company desolate
3 Filled me with wrinkles (v 8)
4 He tears me in His wrath (v 9)
5 Gnashes upon me with His teeth
6 He has delivered me to the ungodly (v 11)
7 Turned me over into the hands of the wicked
8 Broken me asunder (v 12)
9 Taken me up by the neck and shaken me to pieces
10 Set me up for His mark 13) 11 His archers compass me about (v
12 He cleaves my reins asunder
13 Does not spare me
14 Pours out my gall upon the ground
15 Breaks me with breach upon breach 16 Runs upon me like a giant (v 14)

to my face.
9 He[e]teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; [b]mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.
10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.
11 God hath [c]delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.
12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also [d]taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and [e]set me up for his mark.
13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.
14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

(3) Job maintains that his suffering is not because of any injustice on his part 15 [f]I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;
17 [g]Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.
18 [h]O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.
19 Also now, behold, [i]my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.
20 My friends scorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.
21 [j]O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!
22 When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall [k]not return.

CHAPTER 17 453

(4) Job's twentyfold grief and complaint to God

MY [l]breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, [m]the graves are ready for me.
2 [n]Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their provocation?
3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?
4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.
5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.
6 He hath made me also a byword of the people; and aforetime I was as a[o]tabret.
7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.
8 Upright men shall be astonied at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.
9 The [p]righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.
10 But as for you all, [q]do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.
11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.
12 [r]They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness.
13 If I wait, the[d]grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.
14 I have [s]said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my [t]sister.
15 And [u]where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?
16 They shall go down to the bars of the [v]pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

454 CHAPTER 18

10 Bildad's second discourse. (1) Sevenfold reproof of Job

THEN answered Bil'dad the Shu'hite, and said,
2 [j]How long will it be ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.
3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?
4 He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of his place?

(2) Thirtyfold doom of the wicked: Job's doom therefore is foretold

5 Yea, [k]the [l]light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.
6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.
7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.
8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.
9 The [m]gin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against him.
10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.
11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

a This shows how far man can go from God and truth in times of trial (v 9, 12). Why would God want to tear him in wrath, hate him, gnash upon him with His teeth, shake him, or do any of these other things to Job whom He had declared perfect-one that feared Him and shunned evil?
b 4 accusations against man:
1 My enemy (Eliphaz whom he was answering) sharpens his eyes upon me (v 9)
2 They (Eliphaz and the other comforters) have gaped upon me with their mouth
3 They have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully (v 10)
4 They gathered themselves together against me
c Here Job plainly called his friends the ungodly and the wicked; they were the ones who had him in their hands at this time (v 11). What we must keep in mind is that God did not deliver him into their hands d The figure here is of an animal taking its prey by the neck and shaking it to death. According to Job, this is the treatment God had given him (v 12) e This figure is that of archers shooting at a mark. He accused God of sending His archers to compass him round about and use him as a target (v 13). In a previous discourse Job accused God of shooting poisoned arrows into him (6:4). Here he claimed God permitted arrows to split his reins asunder and pour his gall out like water upon the ground (v 13, Cp. Lam. 2:11). His complaint was: Not only has He pierced my vitals with His arrows, but He has broken me by breach after breach (or attack after attack), and runs upon me like a giant to overcome me completely with one blow (v 14)
f 6fold suffering of Job (v 15-20):
1 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin
2 I have defiled my horn in the dust
3 My face is foul with weeping
4 The shadow of death is on my eyelids
5 My friends scorn me
6 My eyes pour out tears to God
g 2 claims of Job (v 17):
1 I am not suffering for any injustice in my hands
2 My prayer is pure
h 2 requests of Job (v 18):
1 O earth, do not conceal the cause of my death or leave me unavenged
2 Let not my cry be hid or concealed in some place, but let it become known i 2 proofs of Job's innocence (v 19):
1 God in heaven is witness
2 The record in heaven proves it
j O that it might be for a man to contend with God, that is, in a judicial controversy as a man would contend with his neighbor in a court of justice (v 21) k Shall not return again to natural life. He will return from the state of death in body to immortality, by resurrection, and from the place where his soul and spirit have been fully conscious since death (Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15; Phil. 3:20-21) put out is symbolic of death (v 5-6; 21:17; Pr. 13:9; 20:20; 24:20). Light is used 31 times and darkness 28 times in Job, often in figurative statements. See darkness used as the figure of a great curse (3:4-6; 5:14; 10:21-22; 15:22-23, 30; 17:13; 18:18; 19:8; 20:26; 22:11; 23:17; 28:3; 29:3) and light as an emblem of blessing (3:20,23; 12:22; 22:28; 25:3; 29:3; 30:26; 38:15)

m Gin-a snare

n A figure of death (v 14. Cp. v 11). Many times death is referred to in Job and other books of the Bible as being a horrible thing. It is, for it deprives man of his own eternal and original creative life on earth. He was made to live eternally in his body and enjoy the many things that are lawful for him. See Death in Index a The words of this verse were uttered in reference to himself perhaps, but they apply to the righteous in general. There is no doubt regarding how his friends applied them as can be seen from their discourses (v 9)

b This likely refers to a return to the debate, or suggests that his friends might repeat their arguments as often as they wished; even so, he had not found a wise man among them (v 10) c They-probably the thoughts of the heart of v 11-cause me to spend sleepless nights so that I am awake as in the day. The day is short compared to the darkness of the night (v 11)
d Heb. sheol, hell, the place of departed conscious souls and spirits; not geber, grave, as in v 1, which is the place for the body at death (v 13)
e Job felt that he belonged to the grave where his body would see corruption and be eaten by worms, for his hope was all gone (v 14-16)
f The word sister is used here because the noun rendered worm is in the feminine gender (v 14)

i Then-after Job finished answering Eliphaz, it was time for Bildad's 2nd discourse. He gave a 7fold reproof of Job (v 1-4), and stated a 30fold doom of the wicked, applying this to Job as being a wicked man because of suffering the judgments of the wicked (v 5-21)
j 7fold reproof of Job:
1 How long will it be before you make an end of words? (v 2)
2 Mark, and afterwards we will speak
3 Why are we counted as beasts? (v 3)
4 Why are we reputed vile in your sight?
5 You tear yourself in your anger (v 4)
6 Shall the earth be forsaken for you?
7 Shall the rock be removed out of its place for you?
k 30fold doom of the wicked:
1 The light of the wicked shall be put out (v 5)
2 His fire shall be put out
3 His tabernacle shall be dark (v 6)
4 His candle shall be put out with him
5 His steps shall be limited (v 7)
6 His own counsel will destroy him
7 He destroys himself in his own net
8 He walks upon his own snare (v 8)
9 The gin shall take him by the heel
10 The robber shall prevail against him
11 The snare is laid for him in the ground (v 10)
12 A trap is set for him in the way
13 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side (v 11)
14 He shall be forced to run
15 His strength shall be hungerbitten (v 12)
16 Destruction shall be ready at his side
17 It shall devour the strength of his skin (v 13)
18 The firstborn of death shall devour his strength
19 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle (v 14)
20 It shall bring him to the king of terrors
21 Terror shall dwell in his tabernacle because it is none of his (v 15)
22 Brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation
23 His roots shall be dried up (v 16)
24 His branches shall be cut off
25 His remembrance shall perish from the earth (v 17)
26 He shall have no name in the street
27 He shall be driven from light into darkness (v 18)
28 He shall be chased out of the world
29 He shall have neither son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwelling (v 19)
30 They that come after him shall be astonished at his day, as they that went before were affrighted (v 20)

l Oriental light is something to be greatly desired and the darkness something to be dreaded. The lamp is usually kept burning in the house all night; and its light is considered an emblem of prosperity while extinguishing it is a symbol of great calamity. The word candle is used in Scripture many times, of the life of man. The candle being a The words roots, leaves, branches, and trees describing blessings and curses are familiar ones in Oriental language. It must be remembered though that such words are not figurative every time they are used. The Bible should always be taken as literal in its statements unless it is clear that the wording is figurative in certain places. Here it is plainly evident that the roots and branches are figurative, for they are used of the wicked, referring to his dying like a tree and his branches being cut off (v 16-17. Cp. 5:3; 8:17; 18:16; 29:19; 31:8). Many times the righteous are compared to green and fruitful trees and the wicked to dead and fruitless ones (Ps. 1:3-4; 52:8; 92:12; Jer. 17:5-8)

b Men do not speak of the wicked as a great loss to society (v 17). It was a custom when men met in the street or on a journey in Job's day to pause and speak of someone who was missed because of his godliness or benevolence. It was not so with the wicked; for this was one of the rewards of virtue and righteousness c The wicked person shall be driven into darkness and death; and men will hurry to get rid of the last remembrance of him (v 18). All his family will be cut off (v 19). Those who are left will be astonished at the calamity that has befallen him. All this was understood by his friends as applying to Job who had lost his sons and daughters, his wealth, and his health. Job could not deny the fact that calamity had come to him. He had lost his family, and his friends were greatly astonished at what had befallen him; so it was easy to conclude that he was wicked and did not know God d Then-when Bildad had answered Job and had sought to convince him of his wickedness, Job made his 6th reply. He accused these friends of vexing his soul by breaking him in pieces with their words (19:1-5). Again he made more accusations against God (19:6-13), made complaint against his relatives, friends, and servants (19:14-20), and appealed to his friends to have pity upon him (19:21-22). He also requested that his experience be written in a book; and this was fulfilled in due time by the book we now have in our Bible which bears his name (19:23-24). Job still maintained his faith in God regardless of his accusations against Jehovah as being the cause of his sufferings (19:25-27). Finally, he took the full responsibility for his own life and future (19:28-29)

f You are not helping me or comforting me; all you are doing is vexing me and breaking me in pieces with your vain words (v 2)

g This must be a figurative expression meaning a number of times, for literally they had not answered him 10 times. This was only the 5th time they had answered him out of 9 times altogether; but to a suffering man like Job it would seem like 10 times or more (v 3)

h Job did not acknowledge that he had erred, but stated that if he had done so, it was his own fault (v 4). He was willing to take the consequences for any wrong that he had done; but since he knew of no wrong his problem was still with him and he was puzzled as to why he was suffering without cause on his part i Instead of magnifying yourselves against me, setting yourselves up as judges in my case, and instead of overwhelming me with reproaches and increasing my pain and sufferings, you should show some sympathy. You are using my calamities as a means of reproach against me and proof of God's wrath upon me instead of showing compassion even if I am in the hands of God (v 5)

455 CHAPTER 19

11 Job's reply to Bildad. (1) Eightfold reproof of his friends

THEN Job answered and said,

2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:

(2) Twentyfold accusation of God as the cause of his sufferings

6 Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

9 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.

12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

(3) Fifteenfold complaint against his kinfolk, friends, servants and his own wife

14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I intreated him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

18 Yea, young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.

19 All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

20 My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

(4) Job appeals to his friends to have pity upon him

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

(5) Job's request to have his experiences written in a book

23 Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

(6) Job still maintains faith in spite of accusations of God as the cause of his sufferings

25 For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

26 And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:

27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.

(7) Job takes responsibility for his own life

28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me?

29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

456 CHAPTER 20

12 Zophar's second discourse: thirty judgments on the wicked and hypocrites. Job must be both or he would not be suffering their judgments

THEN answered Zo'phar the Na'a-math-ite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste.

3 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Knowest thou not this of a The breath of Job became repulsive to his wife; she turned away from it and would have nothing to do with him, though he pleaded with her for the sake of the children whom they had brought into the world. He intreated-appealed to her by all that was tender and loving, yet to no avail; she only hardened herself against him and wished him to die (v 17. Cp. 2:9; 31:10)

b This shows to what extent he was rejected by all classes. Children, being so innocent and trustful, would be the last to lose respect for him. Perhaps their parents had made Job such an object of ridicule and one to be shunned that the children followed their example in casting him out and mocking him (v 18)

c The idea here is that he was so thin and had wasted away so much that he was but skin and bones. The shape of his bones could be seen-the skin and flesh could not hide them (v 20)

d This is either a figurative statement referring to his barely escaping death so far, or it is a statement of fact, meaning that he lost his teeth through the great disease put upon him (v 20)

e It seems that heart-rending appeal for pity should have had a favorable effect upon his friends; but it did not. Instead, it seems they became more hardened and harsh in their answers to Job (v 21). After this Zophar went into a long tirade against him about his wickedness (20:1-28). Eliphaz continued to insist that he was a hypocrite and guilty of many sins against the poor and suffering (22:1-9), so that they were forced to class him with the lowest of the low wicked men of earth (22:12-30). Bildad argued that no man can be just and clean before God and that not even the stars are clean in His sight; so how much less was Job clean and free from sin (25:1-6)

f Again Job blamed God for his calamity and not Satan (v 21-22. Cp. 1:12-19; 2:6-8; 42:10). See note c, 1:11; note c, 1:21; also 6 things Christians should not suffer, p. 420, and 20 proofs sickness Satan's work, p. 484

i Job's 3fold request (v 23-24):
1 Oh that my words were written!
2 Oh that they were printed in a book!
3 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever!
We know nothing of his experience being written in a rock, but we do know that a record of it was made in a book so that we can all examine it freely to get the great lessons taught thereby j The iron pen was a stylus or an engraving tool used to make writing on lead or stone. Such an instrument to be used on wax was made with a flat head so that any mistake could be pressed out to smooth the wax for use again

o Then-when Job finished answering Bildad's 2nd discourse, it was Zophar's time to speak. He gave a long list of judgments on the wicked, making the application to Job and reasoning that he must be wicked because of receiving the judgments of the wicked (20:1-29)

29 The earth shall rise up against him
30 He shall lose his substance (v 28)

c Though the wicked are exalted very high, yet they shall perish eternally in the end (v 6-9)

d Question 145, Next, 21:4

e The effects of the sins of his youth will follow him to the grave (v 11)

f The sweetness of sin will finally turn into gall in his bowels (v 12-16)

God does not afflict His children (Job 19:21):

God's hand has never touched a child of His, and never will, to afflict and torment him as Satan did Job. The hand of God heals and delivers only. One proof of this is what the Bible says about the future. When He comes to reign and have His will done on earth as it is in heaven, there will be no more sickness, pain, death, and sorrow (Rev. 21:1-7). Even in the Millennium there will be no sickness (Isa. 33:24; 25:3-6). Furthermore, God wants His will done on earth now regarding this matter; and when He can find a man to believe for this, the same is accomplished in his life (Mt. 7:7-11; 8:17; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 10:10; 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Acts 1:4-8; 2:38-39; 5:32; 1 Cor. 12; Heb. 2:1-7; Jas. 5:14-16; 1 Jn. 3:21-23; 5:13-14; 2 Jn. 2). That God would afflict His own people with disease or persecute them as He was accused of doing here (v 22), is unthinkable. The hand of the Lord has been against His enemies (Dt. 2:15; Judg. 2:15; 1 Sam. 5:6-11; 7:13), but never against His children. In the N.T. His hand is seen as the healer of all men (Acts 4:30; 11:21). See Jas. 4:7; 5:10-16; cp. 1 Pet. 5:8-9. See also Healing in Index 23 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

27 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

CHAPTER 21 457

13 Job's reply to Zophar. (1) Appeals to his friends to hear and be reasonable, then mock on

BUT Job answered and said,

2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.

3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

5 Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

(2) Fifteenfold prosperity of the wicked proves he is not wicked as they believe he is 7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

(3) Both the wicked and good perish so their arguments of only the wicked suffering judgment proves nothing in his case

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

19 God layeth up his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his a In this verse we have Zophar's application of stated judgments of the wicked applied to Job. Zophar believed he was, for all that had happened to Job should have been expected. If he had sowed sin worthy of God's judgments, then he should be punished (v 29)

b Job answered Zophar by appealing to these friends again to hear him and be reasonable; otherwise, then mock on (21:1-6). He pointed out that the judgments of Zophar's previous answer would not prove him to be wicked, because many wicked men prosper and are not punished (21:7-15); some even die in prosperity; and furthermore, both the wicked and the righteous die alike. Thus Job reasoned that their arguments concerning a wicked man being punished in this life did not hold true in all cases (21:16-26); then he made another appeal for his friends to consider what they said in future arguments (21:27-34)

d 15fold prosperity of the wicked:
1 The wicked continue to live (v 7)
2 They become old like the godly
3 Are mighty in power
4 Their seed is established in their sight with them (v 8)
5 They live to enjoy their offspring
6 Their houses are safe from fear (v 9)
7 The judgment of God is not upon them
8 Their bull gendereth and does not fail (v 10)
9 Their cows produce and do not cast their calves prematurely
10 They send forth their little ones like a flock (v 11)
11 Their children dance
12 They enjoy music (v 12)
13 Spend their lives in wealth (v 13)
14 Die eventually as the godly do 15 Defy God all their days and yet are not cut off (v 14-15)

e Questions 149-150, Next, v 21

f Job continued his argument of v 7-15 that the wicked also prosper sometimes without being judged of God in this life any more than the righteous, so the reasoning that he was a wicked man because of suffering the judgments of the wicked proved nothing in his case (v 16-26), interpreting providence has been a favorite pastime for man in all human history. The average person seems to know immediately all the great acts of God. Some are quick to judge an experience as from the devil if it happens to a Christian, and as God's judgment if it happens to a sinner. Others conclude that it is God's doing in every case. One should learn to apply common sense and logical reasoning in this as well as other things

Kinsman redeemer (Job 19:25):

Heb. gaal, kinsman redeemer; the next of kin who is able to redeem or buy back a relative's property which has been sold (Lev. 25:25-26, 48-49; 27:12-20, 31; Ruth 4:4-6; Ps. 69:18; 72:14; Hos. 13:14; Mic. 4:10). The word is trans. redeemer here; Ps. 19:14; 78:35; Pr. 23:11; Isa. 41:14; 43:14; 44:6, 24; 47:4; 48:17; 49:7, 26; 54:5, 8; 59:20; 60:16; 63:16; Jer. 50:34. The Redeemer in all these passages is identified as God Himself, or the Messiah. In harmony with Job's prediction the Messiah will stand upon the earth, in the latter day. See Isa. 2:2-4; 59:20; Zech. 13:6; 14:4-8, 16-21; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10. Job will yet see God in his flesh, in the resurrection when all the righteous will receive flesh and bone bodies like the one Christ received after His resurrection (Lk. 24:39; Acts 1:11; 1 Cor. 15:1-54; Phil. 3:20-21; Zech. 13:6). Job even saw God before he died, for 42:5 says that his eyes saw God; but this does not exclude seeing the Messiah and God, the Father in the future, in the latter day upon the earth-an experience which will require a resurrection. The time Job was to see the Redeemer, that is, the time he longed for was when He would stand in the latter day upon the earth and after the time that skin worms had destroyed the body of Job in death-when he would be in his flesh again through resurrection (v 26). This would require the whole passage (v 25-27) to have a latter day-fulfillment destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 [e]For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 [h]One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His [e]breasts are full of milk, and his [e]bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall lie down [e]alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

(4) Job appeals to his friends to consider what they say

27 Behold, I [f]know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, [g]Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not asked them that [h]go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens, 30 That the wicked is reserved to [i]the day of destruction? they [j]shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 [k]Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the [l]grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

34 [m]How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

458 CHAPTER 22

14 Eliphaz' third discourse.

(1) Still maintains that Job is a hypocrite

THEN Él'i-phăz the Tē'man-ite answered and said,

2 [o]Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

(2) Accuses Job of eight sins

5 [p]Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 [q]For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou [r]hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the [s]arms of the fatherless have been broken.

(3) Job's fourfold reaping

10 [t]Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

(4) Job accused of covering up his sins

12 [u]Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 [d]And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

Job is classed as wicked

15 [v]Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden?

16 Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood:

17 [w]Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them?

18 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 [x]The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

(6) Job assured of blessing if he would only repent

21 [y]Acquaint [z]now thyself with him, and be at peace: [a]thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

23 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of O'phir as the stones of the brooks.

25 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person.

30 He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

459 CHAPTER 23

a Questions 161-162. Next, v 28

b The fact is that some of the good and some of the bad live long lives and prosper till they die, whereas others suffer calamity; nevertheless, whether they are righteous or wicked, all finally lie down and die (v 23-26)

c Breasts-skin bottles held in both arms (v 24). Some translate it milk-pails, others, his sides filled out with fat

d A statement from the belief that bones full of marrow are an indication of good health (v 24)

e They all die in like manner by giving up the ghost, and the worms feed on their bodies in the grave (v 26). The mention of worms after death here is further proof that 19:26 also refers to the time of Job's death; and if so, it proves that the whole of 19:25-27 refers to the future latter days of the resurrection and actual seeing of the Messiah with the eyes

f I know your arguments regarding the punishment of all the wicked in this life. You seek to prove that I am wicked because of my calamities; and you know full well that there are many dwelling places of the wicked that are not destroyed. The wicked are reserved to the day of destruction. They are brought down to the grave like the righteous, so your arguments do not prove anything as far as my wickedness is concerned

g Questions 163-166. Next, 22:12

h Ask the travellers that go into other countries whether all the wicked are brought to calamity in this life. They will confirm the truth of what I have said, that the wicked are often prosperous and happy, that they are not punished in this life as you maintain, and that their judgment will be after this life (v 29-30)

i This definitely teaches a future day of judgment for the wicked (v 30)

j A clear reference to the faith of Job in the final resurrection, even that of the wicked. If they are to be brought forth to the judgment in the days of destruction of the wicked, and to the day of wrath from God, they will need to be resurrected from the grave (Heb. qeber), and their souls will need to be out of hell (Heb. sheol). Thus, they shall be brought forth (v 30)

k Job reasoned: Who will dare accuse the wicked to his face, and who shall repay him for what he has done in this life? The answer being that no man will do it indicates Job's faith in a future retribution in the day of resurrection and wrath from God (v 31)

l Heb. qeber, the grave or tomb where the body goes, not sheol, the place in the unseen world of departed spirits. See Hell in Index

m In view of what I have proved to you-that the wicked prosper many times and are not punished in this life-you can see how you have sought to comfort me in vain, and that there are falsehoods in your arguments (v 34)

n Then-when Job had finished answering Zophar, Eliphaz gave his last discourse in which he sought to prove Job a hypocrite (v 1-4), a sinner (v 5-9), one reaping what he had sowed (v 10-11), to accuse him of covering up sins (v 12-14), to convince him that he was wicked (v 15-20), and to assure him of blessing from God if he would only acknowledge his sins and repent (v 21-30)

o Eliphaz hoped to show Job that God was entirely independent and that it was no advantage to Him one way or the other-whether he was righteous or sinful, wise or foolish. He reasoned that a wise man may be profitable to himself, but not to God; a righteous man may also be profitable to himself, but it would be no advantage to God if he was righteous or perfect; furthermore, God did not reprove and judge because He feared man (v 2-4). From this Eliphaz wanted Job to know that he was no special somebody in God's sight, and that Jehovah could do very well without his claims of holiness and perfection. Eliphaz proceeded to point out the sins of Job (v 5-9) a The word arm is used many times in Scripture as a symbol of power. We find: Break the arm of the wicked (Ps. 10:15); I have broken the arm of Pharaoh (Ezek. 30:21); You have a mighty arm (Ps. 89:13); and His holy arm has got Him the victory (Ps. 98:1). Breaking the arm of the orphan meant robbing him of his substance and destroying his power to help himself. All the accusations of v 5-9 were applied to Job. His friends actually believed that he must have driven the poor from their possessions, taking what rightfully belonged to them so as to enrich himself greatly. That is why Job, in his next discourse, maintained earnestly that he was not guilty of any of these charges (24:2-25), and why, in his last discourse he denied them in detail (29:12-17; 31:16-40)

b 4fold reaping of Job:
1 In view of your many sins, there are snares round about (v 10)
2 Sudden fear troubles you
3 You are in darkness and cannot see 4 The abundance of waters covers you

c Questions 167-171. Next, 23:6

d Here Eliphaz accused Job of covering up sin (v 13-14)

e In these verses Eliphaz classed Job with the wicked regardless of his denial of being wicked. He even attempted to prove the point by referring to the overthrow of the wicked world by the flood of Noah (v 15-16). He concluded that if Job was being destroyed that he was like the Ante-diluvians who were so depraved they had to be destroyed (Gen. 6)

f If Eliphaz was correct as to what the Ante-diluvians said to God-Depart from us (v 17)-then we have another revelation regarding the cause of the flood. From Rom. 1:18-32 we learn that they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, so He gave them up to reprobate mind and to deep sex sins. It is entirely possible that Eliphaz made a correct statement here

g The righteous see the destruction of the wicked and are glad, and the innocent take pleasure when they are punished. The substance of the righteous is not cut down, but that of the wicked is consumed by fire (v 19-20). This was the justification of Eliphaz and his friends in their present attitude toward Job. Their reasoning was: If the righteous in other ages rejoiced in the destruction of the wicked, our own conduct has not been out of place in this instance. The joy they referred to as the experience of the righteous upon seeing the wicked punished, is the kind that is manifest when enemies of society are punished for their crimes against that society-murder, robbery, and other things. It is the joy of seeing the law executed. Thus, the friends of Job considered that they were fully justified in their attitude toward him

h Eliphaz, having concluded that Job was a sinner, wholly unreconciled to God and unacquainted with Him, believed his sinful state was the source of his calamities, and that as long as he remained in such a state he would continue to be miserable by reaping what he had sowed. He proceeded with an appeal to win Job for God, assuring him that if he would repent and turn to Him the Lord would forgive and bless him (v 21-30). His advice to Job as a sinner, was sound and the best that could be given anyone who was really the sinner these friends thought Job was; but with him it was entirely out of place. He had not been a wicked man and he was not deserving of the treatment they gave him debt. Later the law of Moses required that such pledges be given back before night (Ex. 22:26-27). The charge here was that Job had taken the pledge by force where there was no legal claim, or where a debt had been paid and the pledge was not returned. Thus he was accused of becoming rich through robbing the poor and needy (v 6)

r See Description of Job, p. 486

a Then - when Eliphaz had finished answering Job, seeking to convince him of his wickedness and need of conversion. Job wished for a fair trial with God, inasmuch as he was not having one with his friends (v 1-5). He was confident of the outcome of the fair trial (v 6-7), and so He searched for God to lay his case before Him (v 8-9). Again maintaining his integrity (v 10-12), he concluded that God's ways were inscrutable (23:12 - 24:1). He mentioned 30 sins of the wicked and declared that he was not guilty of any of them; therefore, his friends should not continue to maintain that he was a wicked man (24:2-25)

b 8fold complaint of Job:
1 Even now my complaint is bitter (v 2)
2 My stroke is heavier than my groaning
3 If I only knew where I could find Him
4 Where I might come to His seat (v 3)
5 I would order my cause before Him (v 4)
6 I would fill my mouth with arguments
7 I would know the words which He would answer me (v 5)
8 I would understand what He would say to me

c Question 172, Next, v 13

d If I could only find Him I know He would not use His power against me; He would put strength in me. At His seat I know the righteous might dispute with Him, so I would be delivered forever from my judge (v 6-7). This expresses Job's confidence in a fair trial, if he could get one with God personally - he would be delivered forever from any guilt and punishment

e Regarding his desire to plead his case before His throne, Job said he could not find God in any direction that he turned, and that Jehovah had hid Himself so that He could not be found (v 8-9)

f 2nd and last prophecy in Job (23:10). Job concluded that although he could not find God that He did know the way he took, and when he had been thoroughly tried by Him, he would come forth like gold

g Job continued to maintain his integrity - that he had kept the ways of God and had not declined from His paths. He had not gone back from His commandments, but had esteemed them more necessary than his daily food (v 11-12)

h Question 173, Next, 24:1

i Job reasoned that God has a mind of His own, that no man can change it and that He does what His soul desires - and that is final (v 13). Furthermore, His ways cannot be found out and one must be reconciled to His decisions (v 14). Believing it was this way, Job did not know which way to turn and this made him fearful of Him (v 15). Not knowing what might be the next development of His plan, Job revealed that he was troubled and fearful; but he wanted to be ready to submit to any purpose made known to him

j The fear of an Eternal Being who has an eternal plan, which we cannot doubt is wise, though it is inscrutable to us, is a fear mingled with confidence as we go into the future. Whatever He does we know that it is the wise thing. However, we should be sure that what we submit to is from Him and not from Satan as in the case of the calamities suffered by Job

k After expressing confidence in God, and stating that God would not use His power against him, that He would give him strength (v 6), and that he was sure of coming out of his troubles like gold (v 10), Job had a slight relapse into unbelief and accused God again of causing his heart to faint and be troubled (v 16); he complained again about not being cut off while in prosperity and when he had the light of God upon him (v 17)

m This could be rendered several ways: Why are not doomdays kept by God, so that an offender against Him might see his time on earth? Or, Why are 15 Job's reply to Eliphaz. (1) Wishes for a fair trial from God

THEN Jŏb answered and said,

2 [b]Even to day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

(2) Job is confident of the outcome of a fair trial

6 [c]Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but [d]he would put strength in me.

7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

(3) Job searches for God

8 Behold, [e]I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

9 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

(4) Job again maintains his integrity (1:20, refs.)

★10 [f]But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11 [g]My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.

12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

(5) God's ways are inscrutable

13 [h]But [i]he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

14 For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.

15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am [j]afraid of him.

16 For God [k]maketh my heart soft, and the Almighty troubleth me:

17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

CHAPTER 24 460

WHY, [m]seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

(6) Thirty more sins of the wicked. Job maintains he is not guilty of these sins so should not be classed as wicked

3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they [b]take the widow's ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way: the [c]poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, [d]go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.

7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and disguiseth his face.

a 30 sins of the wicked:
1 They remove the landmarks (v 2)
2 Violently take away flocks and pasture them as their own (v 3)
3 Drive away the ass of the fatherless
4 Take away the widow's ox for a pledge
5 Turn the needy out of the way (v 4)
6 Drive the poor and helpless people from their own society
7 Go forth to plunder (v 5)
8 Rise early to plunder caravans
9 Plunder desert travellers
10 Plunder the fields of others (v 6)
11 Plunder the vineyards of others
12 Rob the poor of their garments (v 7)
13 Rob caravans of their tents so that they have to seek shelter in the rocks and mountains (v 8)
14 Steal unprotected children and sell them into slavery (v 9)
15 Take the pledge from the poor and keep it so that they go naked (9-10)
16 Rob the poor of their sheaf of grain so that they go hungry (v 10)
17 Compel the poor to make oil inside their walls (v 11)
18 Compel them to tread their winepress and suffer thirst
19 Oppress men in the cities (v 12)

21 Rebel against the light (v 13)
22 Leave the paths of light
23 Commit murders in the day (v 14)
24 Steal at night
25 Commit adultery (v 15)
26 Break into houses of others (v 16-20)
27 Mistreat the barren (v 21)
28 Take advantage of widows
29 Deceive even the mighty (v 22)
30 Make life uncertain to others

b The wicked will take away the last thing of value, even from orphans and widows, and will show no mercy (v 3) c The poor have to segregate from the rich in order to exist at all (v 4) d In v 5-9 we have mention of the plunder of the wicked in various places; in v 10-12 we have the oppression of the poor by them and, they seem to be without fear of punishment. They rebel against the light of God, murder, steal, commit adultery, and live in danger of death at all times (v 13-17); they are cursed upon earth; and they make the lives of others miserable (v 18-22)

e This refers to houses built of clay. Of these there were several varieties, some having a framework of wicker hurdles thickly daubed with mud. In others the walls were made of layers of mud placed one over the other, each being allowed to dry before another layer was put on. Still others were made of sun-dried bricks, which were common in many parts of the East in ancient times. A thief might easily break through a wall of this kind. Modern thieves are just as ready to dig as in the days of Job. Cp. 4:19; Ezek. 12:5; Mt. 6:19; 24:43

f Heb. sheol, the place of the soul, not geber, the place of the body. See Hell in Index

g It was an Oriental opinion that worms existed in the skin and all other parts of the body, and that they were among the principal causes of its destruction. An ancient Indian medical work speaks of 18 kinds of worms which the author supposed were in the human body. In view of the belief of his day it was only natural that Job should make such a statement about the body (v 20)

h Though the wicked are in comparative safety, yet God's eyes are upon their ways. They may be exalted for a little while, but they are soon brought low and cut off (v 23-24)

a Question 175, Next, 25:3
b Then - after Job had answered Eliphaz, Bildad gave his 3rd and last discourse, seeking to show that no man can be justified before God. His only argument was that man that is born of a woman is unclean, and that since the stars are not even pure in the sight of God, no unclean man can be (v 25: 1-6)
c Questions 176-187, Next, 26:14
d This was Job's 9th and last reply to his friends. The record of it continues through chs. 26-31. When he finished Zophar failed to answer, so Elihu took up the story and continued to answer Job and his friends (32:1-37:24) until God broke in with the final conclusion of the debate in His own answer to Job (38:1-41:34). In this last answer of Job he asked some ironic questions of his friends (26:1-4), spoke of 15 works of God (26:5-14), accused God of causing his sufferings (27:1-2), maintained his integrity (27:3-12), restated some of Zophar's argument about the wicked (27:13-23), mentioned many natural and supernatural things (28: 1-11), gave the price, source, and definition of wisdom (28:12-28), lamented the past (29:1-25) and the present (30:1-31), and declared his innocence of all sin (31:1-40) e Heb. rapha, the Rephaim; giants; the offspring of fallen angels and the daughters of men. The Septuagint reads: Are giants going to rise up from beneath the water and the places near its neighborhood? Moffatt: Before Him the primeval giants writhe, under the ocean in their prison; the underworld lies open to His eyes. Fenton: the Rephaim, themselves, were destroyed, And rest under the seas. Young: The Rephaim are formed, beneath their waters, also their inhabitants. See Giants, p. 62. Thus not only does God's power exist in heaven as Bildad stated (26:2), but also in the low places and the region of the dead, so that they whose bodies are in corruption still feel in their souls and spirits the power of God in hell. The place of the departed spirits of giants and ordinary wicked men is beneath the oceans and underneath the earth
f See 15 works of God, p. 441
g Formed - Heb. hul, remain. It means they remain under the waters and by no stretch of the imagination could it refer to the graves of men on the surface of the earth - they are never under the oceans with all the creatures in them h Heb. sheol, the unseen world of departed spirits, not geber, the grave or place of the body. See Hell in Index i Heb. abaddon, destruction; abyss, or place of destruction. Here it means where the departed spirits of giants and wicked men abide after death. This place is bare and naked before God, having no covering that will hide itself from Him (v 6, Cp. Rev. 9:11)
j Stretched out of the north over the empty place without any support to it but the power of God. So the earth also is suspended in space without any support other than God's power. All suns, moons, planets, and heavenly bodies continue to rotate and revolve around one another by God's power. See Solar system in Index k The clouds retain waters and the rain is poured out on earth without rending the clouds by the weight of the waters in them (v 8) l This explains what is meant by holding back the face of His throne. He covers it with a cloud so that it cannot be seen by man (v 9)
m This refers to setting bounds to hold the oceans so that they do not cover the earth (v 10; Ps. 104:1-9) n Day and night are eternal; thus the bounds around the oceans are also eternal (v 10; Gen. 1:14-19; 8:22)
o This perhaps refers to the constellations known as the Serpent or Dragon p Questions 188-189, Next, 27:8. Questions like these show how little was known of God in the days when men had no complete revelation of Him as we have in the Bible now. It is regrettable that even with such a revelation many still look on God as a mystery beyond all human comprehension. See God in the Index ways.

24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.
25 [a]And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

461 CHAPTER 25

16 Bildad's third discourse: man cannot be just before God

THEN answered Bil'dăd the Shu'hite, and said,
2 Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.
3 [b]Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?
4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?
5 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.
6 How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

462 CHAPTER 26

17 Job's reply to Bildad. (1) Mockery and ironic questions to his friends

BUT Jŏb [c]answered and said,
2 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?
3 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?
4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

(2) Fifteen works of God

5 [d]Dead things [e]are [f]formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.
6 [g]Hell is naked before him, and [h]destruction hath no covering.
7 [i]He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.
8 [k]He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.
9 He holdeth back the face of his throne, and [l]spreadeth his cloud upon it.
10 He hath compassed the waters with [m]bounds, [n]until the day and night come to an end.
11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof.
12 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.
13 By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath [o]formed the crooked serpent.
14 Lo, these are parts of his ways: [p]but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder [a]of his power who can understand?

463 CHAPTER 27

(3) Job accuses God of causing his sufferings

MOREOVER Jŏb [b]continued his parable, and said,
2 [c]As God liveth, who [d]hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

(4) Job maintains his integrity (1:20, refs.)

3 All the while my breath is in me, and [e]the spirit of God is in my nostrils;
4 [f]My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.
5 [g]God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.
6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: [h]my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.
7 [i]Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.
8 For [j]what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?
9 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?
10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?
11 I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.
12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

(5) Job's philosophy. A Fourteenfold end of the wicked

13 [k]This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.
14 [l]If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.
16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and [m]prepare raiment as the clay;
17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.
18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.
19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.
20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.
21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.
22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

a The thunder of His power is in contrast with little portion (faint whisper). The idea is that which He has made known to us of Himself is nothing compared to the glorious reality of His person - the comparison is like that of the gentlest whisper with words fully spoken loud and clear (v 14)
b Perhaps he paused to see if Zophar would reply; and since he did not Job continued his parable or comparison of one thing with another. This mode of conveying truth was a favorite in the East (v 1) c As God liveth is a solemn adjuration - an oath by the living God (v 2). It is the form by which God Himself often swore (Ezek. 16:16; 33:11), and the one used by others in Scripture d Job again came back to accusations of God, never giving it a thought that Satan could be involved in his calamities (1: 10-19; 2:1-8). Such became a habit in his discourses 2 accusations against God (v 2):
1 He has taken away my judgment
2 He has vexed my soul
e This does not refer to the Holy Spirit but to the breath that God breathed into the original man when He created him (v 3; Gen. 2:7)
f 7fold statement of integrity:
1 My lips shall not speak wickedness
2 I will not utter deceit (v 4)
3 God forbid that I justify you in your condemnation of me as a sinner (v 5)
4 I will not remove my integrity until I die
5 I will hold fast my righteousness (v 6)
6 I will not let it go
7 My heart shall not reproach me as long as I live
g God forbid that I should admit that your arguments are right, and concede that I am nothing but a wicked hypocrite. Job was conscious of his integrity and sincerity, and nothing could induce him to abandon that position. He declared: I will not agree with you as long as I live (v 5) h The heart here refers to the conscience which decides the lawfulness, the right or wrong of a matter in the inner man (v 6). When a man knows that he has not committed sin he can maintain his position as Job did, in face of all things. Only one thing about Job is regrettable - he did not take into consideration his accusations against God, due to ignorance or not being really conscious of what he was saying during his sufferings. Evidently he was not conscious of wrongdoing on this point; and no doubt he honestly thought that God was responsible for his calamities. See note c, 1:11; note c, 1:21 i Let my enemy be wicked and unrighteous, for the hope of such hypocrites is nothing when God shall take away the soul (v 7-12). All his life he is miserable in professing to love what he does not love, trying to find pleasure in what his heart hates, mingling with people with whom he has no sympathy, and taking part in religious worship that his heart is not in
k This passage (v 13-23) is taken by some to be the 3rd speech of Zophar which would make the book complete with 3 answers from each of the 3 friends. It is contended that the language is that of Zophar, and that it is contrary to all that Job maintained; but there is no authority in any of the MSS. for the name of Zophar here as in the introduction to other speeches. It has been suggested by others that in v 12 Job referred to the vain arguments of his own to disprove their claims. This seems to be the case
l See 14fold end of the wicked, p. 441 m Eastern people have always multiplied raiment as part of their wealth along with gold and silver. This is what Christ referred to in Mt. 6:19 when He spoke of moth and rust corrupting treasures. Paul made reference to the same when he said he had coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel (Acts 20:33, Cp. 1 Tim. 2:9; Jas. 5:2)

a See note k, Isa. 5:26

b 25 facts - natural and supernatural:
1 There is a vein for silver (v 1)
2 A place to refine gold
3 Iron is taken from the earth (v 2)
4 Brass (copper) is melted from stone
5 Man sets an end to darkness (v 3)
6 Searches out all perfection
7 Finds the stones of darkness
8 Knows the shadow of death
9 Floods break out on earth (v 4)
10 They dry up
11 They recede from men
12 Bread comes from the earth (v 5)
13 Fire is under the earth
14 Sapphires come out of the earth (v 6)
15 The earth contains dust of gold
16 There is a path which no fowl knows (v 7)
17 Which no vulture's eye has seen
18 Where no lion has trodden (v 8) 19 Where no fierce lion has passed by 20 Man overturns rocks (v 9)
21 Uproots mountains
22 Cuts out river beds in rocks (v 10)
23 Finds every precious thing
24 Binds (or controls) floods (v 11)
25 Brings hidden things out to light

c Veins of gold, silver, diamonds, coal, oil, and other precious stones and minerals (v 1)

d Places to refine and use many metals speaks of the wisdom, skill and understanding of man. Working in metals was one of the earliest trades known to man. Tubal-cain, the son of Lamech, the 7th from Adam in Cain's line was an instructor of those who would become an artificer in metals (Gen. 4:22)

e Tubal-cain worked in both brass and iron long before the flood of Noah (Gen. 4:22). Thus the making of brass from copper and zinc was early known

f He refers to man who mines the metals from under the earth

g Man delves into the darkest parts of the earth in his mining operations

h Man makes the complete search for hidden treasures in the earth (v 3)

i Man penetrates the earth everywhere in his search for precious metals and stones, even the darkness of the shadow of death or the most dark regions (v 3)

j The stones turned up glow like fire, referring to diamonds and other precious gems (v 5-6) k The path referred to here is that of the miner searching in the earth for gold, silver, and precious stones. Birds and beasts have not found these paths under the earth (v 7-8)

l This refers to man overturning rocks and even mountains to cut river beds, make dams and carry on mining operations (v 9-11) m Questions 195-196. Next, v 20

n Man does not know the true value of wisdom and knowledge, neither is their source to be found among men; it must be found in God (v 13). Wisdom and knowledge cannot be found in the depths of the earth or in the ocean; they cannot be bought with gold, silver, or precious stones; they are more valuable than the jewels, find gold, coral, or pearls; they are worth far more than rubies and other things of material value (v 14-19); they are hid from all living things and come only from God (v 20-23)

o Crystal, perhaps the rock crystal (v 17; Ezek. 1:22; Rev. 4:6; 21:11; 22:1) p Coral, perhaps the red coral (v 18; Ezek. 27:16) found in abundance in the Red Sea

q Pearls, a species of precious jewels produced by a shell-fish of the oyster species through a malady said to develop in 7 years; if not secured by the end of that time the creature died and the pearl was lost. A single pearl has been valued as high as $350,000.00. The pearl is mentioned only once in the O. T. (v 18), but 9 times in the N. T. (Mt. 7:6; 13:45-46; 1 Tim. 2:9; Rev. 17:4; 18:12, 16; 21:21)

r Rubies, rose-red colored precious stones of great beauty and value. Mentioned only in the O. T. (v 18; Pr. 3:15; 8:11; 20:15; 31:10; Lam. 4:7)

s Questions 197-198. Next, 30:2

t Wisdom is kept from the eyes of the living, and from the fowls of the air. Destruction (Heb. abaddon) and death have heard of its fame, but are not possessors of it (v 21-22). God alone

CHAPTER 28 464

B Twenty-five natural and supernatural things which show the knowledge of mining and other industries of man in Job's time

SURELY there[b] is a [c]vein for the silver, and a [d]place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and [e]brass is molten out of the stone.

3 [f]He setteth an [g]end to darkness, and searcheth [h]out all perfection: [i]the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under [j]it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold.

7 There is a [k]path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 [l]He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

C The price, source, and definition of wisdom

12 [m]But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 [n]Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ō'phĭr, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the [o]crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

18 No mention shall be made of [p]coral, or of [q]pearls: for the price of wisdom is above [r]rubies.

19 The topaz of Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ā shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

20 [s]Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

21 Seeing [t]it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

23 God [u]understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;

25 To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:

27 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, [v]that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

465 CHAPTER 29

(6) Lamentation - Job's past.

A His tenfold prosperity

MOREOVER Jŏb [c]continued his parable, and said,

2 [d]Oh [e]that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light [f]I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When I [g]washed my steps with butter, and the [h]rock poured me out rivers of oil;

B Job's eightfold honor

7 [i]When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my [j]seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

C Job's twelvefold character

12 [k]Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

D Job's sixfold security

18 Then I said, [l]I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply a See 14 facts about God, p. 441

b This is in harmony with what was said later by Solomon - the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom (Pr. 1:7; 9:10; Ps. 111:10) c This indicates that he, not Zophar, was the speaker in all of ch. 28 (v 1)

d 2 phases of Job's lamentation:
1 Lamentation over the past (v 29:1-25):
(1) 10fold past prosperity (v 1-6)
(2) 8fold past honor (v 7-11)
(3) 12fold past character (v 12-17)
(4) 6fold past security (v 18-20)
(5) 12fold past honor (v 21-25)
2 Lamentation over present (30:1-31):
(1) Character of persecutors (v 1-8)
(2) Conduct of persecutors (v 9-14)
(3) Present sufferings (v 15-18)
(4) 12fold accusation of God (v 19-24)
(5) Present sufferings (v 25-31)

e 10fold past prosperity:
1 Oh that I were as in months past (v 2)
2 As in the days when God preserved me
3 When His candle shined upon me (v 3)
4 When I walked by His light in darkness
5 As I was in days of youth (v 4)
6 When the secret of God was in my house
7 When God was yet with me (v 5)
8 When my children were about me
9 When I washed my steps with butter
10 When the rock poured me out rivers of oil (v 6)

f This is the 200th "I" in the book of Job, wherein it is used 333 times. Note the frequency of "I" (self-occupation) in the next 3 chapters as follows:
1 The "I" of past prosperity (ch. 29)
2 The "I" of present adversity (ch. 30)
3 The "I" of self-righteousness (ch. 21)

g A figurative statement meaning prosperity

h This perhaps refers to the stone oil presses, from which the oil flowed into vessels as it was being made (v 6; Dt. 32:13; Ezek. 32:14)

i 8fold honor of Job's past:
1 When I travelled I was greatly honored (v 7)
2 When I sat in the street with the elders of the city I was respected
3 Young men saw me and hid themselves (v 8)
4 Aged men arose, and stood up
5 Princes refrained from talking and laid their hand on their mouth (v 9)
6 Nobles held their peace and would not speak (v 10)
7 When man heard me they blessed me (v 11)
8 When they saw me they gave witness to me with great respect

j It was customary for elders of the city to sit in the open place at the entrance of the gates. Judgment was meted out here and many other activities were carried on (v 7)

k 12fold character of Job:
1 I delivered the poor that cried (v 12)
2 I delivered the fatherless
3 I delivered the helpless
4 I blessed those that were ready to perish (v 13)
5 I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy
6 I put on righteousness as a garment
7 I put on judgment as a robe and a diadem (v 14)
8 I was eyes to the blind (v 15)
9 I was feet to the lame
10 I was a father to the poor (v 16)
11 I defended the cause of the needy 12 I broke the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of their teeth (v 17)

l 6fold past security of Job:
1 I said, I shall die in my nest (v 18)
2 I shall multiply my days as the sand
3 My root was spread out by the waters and made me prosperous (v 19)
4 The dew lay all night upon my branch
5 My glory was fresh in me (v 20)
6 My bow was renewed in my hand; I was well protected from enemies understands the way of wisdom and the place where it is found (v 23); He defines wisdom as the fear of the Lord, and understanding as departure from evil (v 28)

my days[a] as the sand.

19 My [b]root was spread out by the waters, and the [c]dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My [d]glory was fresh in me, and my [e]bow was renewed in my hand.

E Job's twelvefold honor

21 [f]Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

466 CHAPTER 30

(7) Lamentation - Job's present. A Character of his persecutors

BUT [g]now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, [h]whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.

4 Who cut up[i]mallows by the bushes, and [j]juniper roots for their meat.

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the earth.

B Conduct of his persecutors

9 And [k]now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

11 [l]Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the [m]youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

C Job's sufferings: body and soul (vs. 25-31)

15 [n]Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

D Job's twelvefold accusation of God causing his suffering

19 [o]He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to [p]the house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

E Job's sufferings: body and soul (vs. 15-18)

25 [q]Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26 [r]When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled, and rested not: the [s]days of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in [t]the congregation.

29 [u]I am a brother to dragons, and a [v]companion to owls.

30 My [w]skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat.

31 My [x]harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

467 CHAPTER 31

(8) Job's twelvefold innocence declared (1:20, refs.). A Not guilty of lust after women

I MADE a [y]covenant with mine eyes; [z]why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

B Not guilty of deceit a Days multiplied as the sand would be innumerable. Thus Job expressed faith for a long life (v 18). He did live 140 years (42:16) - longer than Ishmael, Joseph, Moses, Joshua, and many other Bible characters

b The root by the waters was always a picture of prosperity (v 19; Ps. 1; Jer. 17:6-8)

c Dew was used as a symbol of prosperity in figurative passages (v 19; Gen. 27:28, 39; Dt. 32:2; 33:28; Ps. 133:3; Pr. 19:12; Hos. 14:5; Mic. 5:7)

d Glory here was symbolic of youth, vigor, and strength (v 20)

e The bow was also an emblem of vigor and strength (v 20. Cp. Gen. 49:24)

f 12fold past honor of Job:
1 Men gave ear unto me (v 21)
2 Men waited to hear me speak
3 They kept silence at my counsel
4 My words ended the matter (v 22)
5 My speech was accepted as final
6 Men waited for my advice as the rain (v 23)
7 They opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain when I gave advice
8 If I laughed on them they were not offended (v 24)
9 They were satisfied at the light of my countenance on any matter
10 I chose out their way (v 25)
11 I dwelled as a king in the army
12 I dwelled as one that comforted the mourners

g After picturing his past prosperity, glory, and honor, Job described his present state as one of rejection, persecution, and suffering in body and soul (30:1-31)

h 12fold picture of his persecutors:
1 They are younger than I (v 1)
2 Their fathers were not even worthy to be trusted with my flock
3 They are of no value to me (v 2)
4 They have no respect for old age
5 They are miserable outcasts (v 3)
6 They live on what the desert produces
7 They live off mallows and juniper roots (v 4)
8 They were driven forth from society as a thief would be (v 5)
9 They dwell under cliffs and in caves of the earth (v 6)
10 They roam among the brush and gather under nettles to rest (v 7)
11 They were children of fools and base men (v 8) 12 They were viler than the earth

i Question 199, Next, v 25

j Mallows. It is thought that these were a kind of bramble without thorns, the young leaves of which resembled lettuce and were gathered and boiled as food for the poor (v 4) k The juniper here refers to a broom tree, said to be still common in the deserts of Arabia. The roots were sometimes used as food (v 4. Cp. 2 Ki. 4:38-39; Amos 7:14; Lk. 15:16)

l 14fold persecution of Job:
1 I am their song (v 9)
2 I am their byword
3 They abhor me (v 10)
4 They flee far from me
5 They spare not to spit in my face
6 They have loosed the bridle before me - cast away all restraint (v 11)
7 The youth rise up against me (v 12)
8 They push away my feet and cause me to stumble
9 They raise up against me the ways of destruction to get rid of me
10 They mar my path (v 13)
11 They set forward my calamity
12 They have no helper, that is, they do this of their own accord
13 They rush upon me like a flood (v 14)
14 In my desolation they rushed upon me

m 2 accusations of God (v 11):
1 He has loosed my word, that is, made me incapable of vindicating myself
2 He has afflicted me
Both of these accusations were untrue, for Satan was the one who had brought Job to this place (1:10-19; 2:1-8)

n In the East the youth were held in complete control, so when they rose up against Job it indicated they had the sanction or at least the permission of their parents. This shows to what extent Job was rejected by the whole of society; none stood with him in his deepest need a 8fold suffering of Job:

1 Terrors are turned upon me (v 15)
2 They pursue my soul as the wind
3 My welfare is passed away as a cloud
4 My soul is poured out upon me (v 16)
5 Days of affliction have taken hold of me
6 My bones are pierced in me in the night season (v 17)
7 My sinews take no rest
8 My disease causes me to change my garment which sticks to my body like a collar of my coat (v 18)

b 12 accusations against God:
1 He has cast me into the mire (v 19)
2 He has made me like dust and ashes
3 You do not hear my prayers (v 20)
4 You do not regard me when I stand
5 You have become cruel to me (v 21)
6 You oppose me with Your strong hand
7 You lift me up to the wind (v 22)
8 You cause me to ride upon it
9 You dissolve my substance
10 You will bring me to death (v 23)
11 You will bring me to the state appointed for all living 12 You will permit me to be afflicted even to the grave though I cry to You with my last breath (v 24)

c The house of death is appointed for all living (v 23). This is the same as the appointment to die referred to in Heb. 9:27

d This verse has been rendered various ways, but it seems clear that its true meaning is that Job accused God of trying to bring him down to the grave in affliction regardless of his cry for deliverance with his last breath; afterward God would not afflict any longer (v 24)

e Questions 200-201, Next, 31:1

f 12fold suffering of Job:
1 When I looked for good as a reward for my weeping with those in trouble and helping the poor, I received only evil (v 25-26)
2 When I waited for light, there came darkness instead (v 26)
3 My bowels boiled and had no rest (v 27)
4 Days of affliction came upon me
5 I went mourning even though I was not exposed to the terrible heat of the sun as a slave (v 28)
6 I stood up in the congregation and cried
7 I am a brother to dragons (v 29)
8 I am a companion to owls
9 My skin is black upon me (v 30)
10 My bones are burned with heat
11 My music is turned to mourning (v 31)
12 My singing is changed to weeping

g How many days of affliction is not stated, but in 7:3 Job spoke of months of suffering h Before this he was respected in the congregation and looked to for advice; and when he gave it, what he said was accepted by all men (29:8-11). Now, in the midst of suffering he stood up to weep and no man regarded it or offered him sympathy (v 28)

i My loud complaints and cries resemble the doleful screams of wild animals in the night (v 29). The Heb. for dragons could mean jackals, and perhaps does refer to their night cries in the desert

j The word companion here has the same meaning as brother and denotes resemblance. Job's life of suffering caused him to stay awake at night and make a mournful cry like the owls (v 29)

k It seems the disease of Job covered his entire body, making his skin dark and his bones feverish with heat (v 30)

l The harp and organ of Job could be understood literally; and this could refer to his music and singing coming to an end, or at least being turned into songs of mourning instead of joyfulness (v 31). Man had been making musical instruments for hundreds of years before Job's time. Jubal who lived centuries before Noah's flood was the first to make harps and organs (Gen. 4:21)

m 12fold innocence declared, p. 540

n Job made a covenant vowing he would not lust after women or take advantage of a virgin (v 1. Cp. Pr. 6:25; Mt. 5:28)

o Questions 202-207, Next, v 14

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted [a]to deceit;
6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

C Not guilty of dishonesty

7 [b]If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;
8 [c]Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

D Not guilty of adultery

9 [d]If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;
10 [e]Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.
11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.
12 [f]For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

E Not guilty of injustice

13 [g]If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me;
14 [h]What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?
15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

F Not guilty of inhumanity

16 [i]If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;
17 Or have [k]eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof:
18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb;)
19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;
20 If his [l]loins have not blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:
22 [m]Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.
23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

G Not guilty of covetousness

24 [n]If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;
25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

H Not guilty of idolatry

26 [o]If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness;
27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:
28 [p]This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge:
for I should have denied the God that is above.

I Not guilty of malignity

29 [q]If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him:
30 Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.
31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

J Not guilty of inhospitality

32 [r]The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveller.

K Not guilty of hypocrisy

33 [s]If I covered my transgressions as Ad'ăm, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:
34 [t]Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?
35 Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.
36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.
37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.

L Not guilty of fraud

38 [u]If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;
39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:
40 [v]Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. [w]The words of Jŏb are ended.

468 CHAPTER 32

VI Job and Elihu - Elihu's discourse to Job and his three friends. 1 The connecting narrative

SO these three men ceased to answer Jŏb, [x]because he was righteous in his own eyes.
2 [y]Then was kindled the wrath of Ĕ-lī'hū the son of Băr'a-chĕl the [z]Bū'zīte, of the kindred of Răm: against Jŏb was his a Ch. 31 gives the last part of Job's final answer to his friends, in which he sought to convince them that he was not guilty of any one of the major soul-damning sins they had accused him of. He denied being lustful after women or taking advantage of a virgin (v 1-4). He declared himself not guilty of vanity and deceit, which are the roots of all sin (v 5-6). In this matter he was willing to face God and be weighed in the balance. He was willing for his integrity to be placed on one side of the scale and vanity and deceit on the opposite side to see which one outweighed the other (v 6) b 3fold denial of dishonesty (v 7):

1 If my step has turned out of the way
2 If my heart has walked after my eyes
3 If any blot has cleaved to my hands Job was saying: If I have been dishonest and have taken anything that does not belong to me, then I am willing to be punished (as in v 8). His friends had accused him of robbery and oppression (20:10, 18-20); now he frankly denied any such guilt by being willing to be punished if found guilty (v 7-8) c 2 punishments Job willing to suffer if found guilty of dishonesty:

1 To sow and give the increase to others to repay what had been taken (v 8)
2 His family to be rooted out of their possessions

d 2fold denial of adultery (v 9):
1 If my heart has been deceived by a woman
2 If I have laid wait at my neighbor's door to sin with his wife e 2 punishments Job willing to suffer if found guilty of adultery:

1 To reap the same concerning his own wife (v 10)
2 Submit to punishment by the civil judges among men (v 11)

f Adultery was described by Job as being a fire that would destroy him and cause the loss of all his increase (v 12). Such reaping often happens to men, as also referred to in other scriptures

g Job denied being guilty of injustice to his servants who contended with him (v 13) and it can be rightly concluded that he was likewise not guilty of injustice toward other people

h 3 reasons he maintained justice:
1 He was afraid of God (v 14)
2 He would have no excuse before God for any injustice
3 God made all men and he had no right to be unjust to others (v 15)

i Questions 208-211, Next, v 34

j 12fold denial of inhumanity:
1 If I have withheld the poor from their desire (v 16)
2 If I have caused the eyes of the widow to fail
3 If I have eaten my food in selfishness and by myself (v 17)
4 If I have not given of my food to the fatherless
5 If I have not given to the man that was brought up with me (v 18)
6 Or the woman that I have guided from my beginning
7 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing (v 19)
8 If I have kept necessary covering from the poor
9 If his loins have not blessed me for the covering I supplied (v 20)
10 If he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep
11 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless (v 21)
12 Or have refused to champion the cause of my help when they have been tried in the gate

k Part of the Oriental etiquette was to invite others to partake of food. It was customary to call for others to partake of one's hospitality; and it is said that once an Arab had eaten with anyone he was counted a friend ever afterward, even though he may have once been an enemy

l The idea here is that while the loins of the poor were blessed with the covering supplied, Job also was blessed by seeing the poor clothed (v 20)

m Then - if I have been guilty of inhumanity (as in v 16-21), let these curses come to me (v 22-23)

n 4fold denial of covetousness:
1 If I have made gold my hope (v 24)
2 If I have put confidence in fine gold
3 If I rejoiced because of wealth (v 25)
4 If I rejoiced because my hand was successful, making me rich

o 4fold denial of idolatry:
1 If I beheld (in worship) the sun when it shined (v 26)
2 If I beheld (in worship) the moon when it became full
3 If my heart has been secretly enticed (to deny God in idol worship, v 27)
4 If my mouth has kissed my hand (which touched an idol)
Here we have reference to the early form of idolatry, the worship of sun and moon as well as images which men either kissed or touched, afterward kissing the hand that had touched the idol p 2 results of idolatry (v 28):

1 Judgment from the judge
2 A denial of God, Himself

q 4fold denial of malignity:
1 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me (v 29)
2 If I have lifted up myself when evil found him
3 If I have suffered my mouth to sin in speaking a curse to his soul (v 30)
4 If the men of my tabernacle would insist on taking vengeance on him (v 31), let me be punished (v 40)

r In this verse Job denied being guilty of inhospitality (v 32) s Here Job denied being guilty of covering up his sins as Adam did (v 33; Gen. 3:1-19). He claimed he did not fear the multitude (public opinion), that he was not terrified by contempt of many families, and that he did not keep silence or stay within the tabernacle for fear (v 34). He then cried out for God to hear him, see his desire, answer him, and write down His charge against him. He would then take the book of charges from the Almighty, put it upon his shoulder, and bind it for a crown upon his head. He would also make a proper confession of his life before God (v 35-37)

t Question 212, Next, 33:13

u 4fold denial of fraud:
1 If my land cries against me (v 38)
2 If the furrows likewise complain
3 If I have eaten the fruits of the land without paying for them (v 39)
4 If I have caused the owners to lose their life by oppression

v Then let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley in my fields (v 40)

w His words as far as his friends were concerned. He had words for God later (40:3-5; 42:1-6) x In this chapter we have the beginning of the speech of Elihu, which covers 32:1-37:24. He did not appear before in the controversy, but it is clear that he heard all the arguments (v 1-9). Nothing more is known of him besides what is stated here. It is not even known whether he came with the 3 friends or whether he was visiting Job when they arrived. The 3 friends had been completely silenced, and now Elihu was greatly provoked because of Job's justification of himself and the fact that these men had no answer for his arguments (v 2-3). He considered both sides at fault and came in as a mediator between the two contending forces (v 2-6). He did not settle the controversy; it took God to do that (40:1-6; 42:1-10)

y This gives the author's reason for the 3 friends of Job ceasing to answer him - he was righteous in his own eyes (v 1)

z Then - after the 3 friends ceased to answer Job, the wrath of Elihu was kindled and he proceeded to take up the case, answering as he felt inspired to do (v 2) m Elihu was a descendant of Buz, the 2nd son of Nahor, the brother of Abraham (Gen. 22:20-21)

12fold innocence declared (Job 31:1):
1 I was not guilty of lust for women (v 1-4)
2 Not guilty of deceit or vanity (v 5-6)
3 Of dishonesty (v 7-8)
4 Of adultery (v 9-12)
5 Of injustice (v 13-15)
6 Of inhumanity (v 16-23)
7 Of covetousness (v 24-25)
8 Of idolatry (v 26-28)
9 Of malignity (v 29-31)
10 Of inhospitality (v 32)
11 Of hypocrisy (v 33-37)
12 Of fraud (v 38-40)

a Used 3 times in these verses for emphasis (v 2-3). Wrath can be kindled very easily where a man's religious theories are involved. Elihu had heard several things that contradicted his religious beliefs. While he listened the fire burned in his soul and when he found opportunity he began speaking his mind to all 4 debaters (v 6, 8, 10-22)

b 2fold reason of Elihu for answering:
1 Because Job had justified himself rather than God (v 2)
2 Because the mouths of the 3 friends had been stopped, and yet they condemned Job (v 3) c This was the custom in those days. Young men spoke only when all elders were finished. When Elihu saw that the others had no further answer for Job he began to speak. He said very little to the 3 friends because his burden seemed to concern Job. In this respect he joined them against Job, but instead of Job answering him, the Almighty intervened, ignoring what Elihu had said altogether and bringing the 3 friends to trial (42:1-10) d Elihu must have been a very young man to be calling Job and his 3 friends very old. He was at least young enough to be afraid to show his opinion (v 6-7)

e This was the basis of Elihu's reason for speaking. The spirit of man being truly and genuinely inspired by the Almighty, is reason enough for anyone to speak. In such instances one does not need to be great, aged, or reputedly wise. The inspiration of the Holy Spirit is enough (v 8-9; Acts 3:21; 2 Tim. 3:15-17; 2 Pet. 1:21)

f 15fold reason of Elihu for speaking:
1 I have an opinion (v 10, 17)
2 I waited for your words (v 11)
3 I waited carefully for your reasons while you searched out what to say
4 I saw that none of you convinced Job
5 None of you answered his words (v 12)
6 You were not permitted to refute him, lest you become proud (v 13)
7 God only can drive Job from his position and humble him
8 I am better prepared to answer him than you are, for I am not irritated at remarks said to me (v 14)
9 I will not answer him with your line of arguments
10 I am full of the right answer (v 18)
11 The spirit within me constrains me
12 I have a burning desire to answer him; I am like new bottles that have no vent and are ready to burst with the wine in them (v 19)
13 I will speak that I may be refreshed (v 20)
14 I will not have respect of persons
15 I will not use flattering titles to man, for I would sin against God if I did so (v 21-22)

brought low, interpreters will be sent to him (v 23)
4 If the chastened one accepts God's message and conforms to His will he will be saved and healed (v 24-28)
The above was Elihu's concept of the dealings of God with man, and many times such dealings have brought desired results, as revealed in some cases of sickness and disease in the Bible. See Healing in Index

g 6 purposes of God dealing with man:
1 To withdraw man from his intent to sin and do wrong (v 17)
2 To hide pride from man
3 To keep his soul back from the pit (v 18)
4 To keep his life from perishing by the sword in war
5 To give him divine enlightenment (v 29-30)

h See Healing and chastening, p. 445

i 6fold correction of a rebel:
1 With pain upon his bed (v 19)
2 His bones full of pain
3 His life abhors bread (v 20)
4 His soul abhors dainty meat
5 His flesh is consumed away (v 21)
6 His bones that were not seen stick out
7 His soul draws near the grave (v 22)
8 His life draws near the destroyers j Heb. sheachath, a pit dug out of the earth, as trans. in v 18 wrath [a]kindled, [b]because he justified himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Jŏb.

4 Now Ē-lī'hū had [c]waited till Jŏb had spoken, because they were elder than he.

5 When Ē-lī'hū saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

2 Elihu's reason for keeping quiet so long

6 And Ē-lī'hū the son of Băr'a-chĕl the Bū'zite answered and said, I am [d]young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

3 The source of his wisdom

8 [e]But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

4 Fifteenfold reason of Elihu for speaking

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; [f]I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say.

12 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Jŏb, or that answered his words:

13 Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;)

17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

5 Elihu's first reply to Job.

(1) His fitness to answer

WHEREFORE, Jŏb, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 [a]My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 [b]The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish [c]in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

(2) Job's eight errors

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 [d]I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy, 11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 [e]Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.

(3) God's dealings with men.

A Reveals His will and purpose

14 For [f]God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, a 5 promises of Elihu to Job:

1 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart (v 3)
2 My lips shall utter knowledge clearly
3 I will answer you in God's stead, according to your wish (v 6)
4 My terror shall not make you afraid; that is, my speaking in God's stead will not overawe you like His words if He were speaking (v 7)
5 My hand will not be heavy upon you

b Elihu claimed equality with Job on the grounds of having the same breath of life and being formed and made from clay as he was (v 4, 6)

c There is no indication in the book that God had sent Elihu as a mediator between Himself and Job. He made some statements that God would not be guilty of. All efforts to compare him to Jesus Christ as the mediator between God and man are mere human speculation 10 facts disproving this claim:
1 Elihu appealed for the favor of Job's 3 friends, which God would not sanction (34:1-4). If they were so right God would not have rebuked them as in ch. 42
2 His accusation that Job spoke without knowledge was contradicted by God as in 42:7 (34:35)
3 His desire for Job to suffer more than what he was already suffering was not like God (34:37)
4 His accusation of Job saying that he was more righteous than God was false, for Job did not say this (35:2)
5 He accused Job of wickedness and in this respect agreed with the enemies of Job (35:8)
6 His agreement that God had afflicted Job in His anger was wrong (35:15)
7 That Job's words were multiplied without knowledge was also contradicted by God as in 42:7 (35:16)
8 Elihu's claim as spokesman for God was without foundation (33:6; 36:2)
9 His claim to perfect knowledge was false and contradicted by above facts (36:4)
10 Many of his statements concerning God and the wicked are not always true, among them: God not preserving the lives of the wicked as in the case of other men (36:6), the prosperity of all who serve God (36:11), the wicked perish with the sword (36:12), all hypocrites dying in their youth (36:14), the poor always being delivered from affliction (36:15), Job suffering the judgment of the wicked (36:17), God's wrath on Job being the cause of his sufferings (36:18), and men not knowing God (36:26)
Besides the above, the fact that it became necessary for God, Himself to speak at last, proved that Elihu did not speak to Job in God's stead as a mediator to be compared with Jesus Christ

d 8 errors Elihu accused Job of:
1 You have said, I am clean without transgression (v 9)
2 I am innocent
3 I have no iniquity in me
4 God finds occasions against me (v 10)
5 He counts me as His enemy
6 He puts my feet in the stocks (v 11)
7 He marks all my paths
8 You strive against God who does not need to give account of any of His matters (v 13)
Elihu was mostly right regarding these accusations against Job, for he did claim to be suffering without cause (9:17). However, he did not use the word innocent as Elihu said here, although he implied it in some of his statements. Job did say that God counted him as an enemy (13:24), had put his feet in stocks (13:27) and looked on all his paths (13:27); and it is true that he was striving to know the cause of his calamities, as is clear in all his discourses

f 4fold dealing of God with men:
1 God reveals His will and purpose to man (v 14-18)

23 [c]If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, [b]to shew unto man his uprightness:

D If the chastened one accepts God he is both saved and healed

24 [c]Then he is [d]gracious unto him, and saith, [c]Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a [e]ransom.

25 [d]His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

E Reason for God's dealings

29 Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man,

(4) Elihu's challenge to Job

31 [h]Mark well, O Jŏb, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for [i]I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

(5) Elihu's reply to Job's three friends. A Appeals for their favor

FURTHERMORE Ê-lī'hū answered and said,

2 [j]Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

B Elihu accuses Job of eight sins against God and man

5 For Jŏb [k]hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.

6 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

7 [l]What man is like Jŏb, who drinketh up scorning like water?

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

C First call to hear: twelvefold vindication of God

10 Therefore [c]hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

13 [b]Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

14 [c]If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his [d]spirit and his breath;

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

D Second call to hear: thirtyfold vindication of God

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may [e]hide themselves.

23 For he will not lay upon man [f]more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God.

24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.

25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.

26 He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others;

27 Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 [g]When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

31 [h]Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

32 That which I see not teach a Elihu believed that there are very few messengers of God and they are not always able to contact the one whom God is dealing with; but if one does contact such a person the messenger can interpret the uprightness of God and point out His will for him who is sick (v 23), showing him how to be healed and delivered. This, of course, is the real call of every messenger of God, but unfortunately very few understand the true dealings of God and the way of healing and deliverance from satanic powers. To help the sick an interpreter must recognize sickness as coming from Satan, believe that God has made provision for healing, appropriate the Bible's many promises for such, and understand that God will heal today through Christ, as well as forgive sins. See Healing in Index

b To show man the uprightness of God is the idea here. Such uprightness has provided healing and deliverance for all who desire it and believe Him for it. If there is any failure it is because of the interpreter of v 23. If he, being ignorant of the truth that sets free, gives the wrong interpretation of God, if he teaches that the sick one is in the will of God by being sick, or preaches that anyone should not expect healing from God, that healing is not provided for him, that God does not heal all men alike, that one might be under the chastening of God and therefore should accept sickness as His work, that God healed in times past and we do not need miracles today, that miracles ceased with the apostles, that Satan has nothing to do with sickness of Christians, and that they should resign themselves to any curse that comes to them as from God-if the interpreter preaches such as this, he will surely fail to prove the uprightness of God

c Then-when the sick one has had the uprightness of God interpreted correctly for him, God will be gracious and say, "Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom" (v 24)

d He is gracious providing the interpreter gives the proper message of God to the sick one, a message that will build up faith which is the only principle God recognizes in answering prayer (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8). Faith comes by hearing the Word of God (Rom. 10:17); and the interpreter must inspire faith through the promises thereof (v 26-28; Jas. 5:14-16)

e Heb. pada, deliver; redeem; loose; to ransom by price (v 24; Dt. 7:8; Ps. 34:22; Jer. 15:21). Here it is clear that the deliverance depends on the graciousness of God which, in turn, dependson finding a ransom (v 24). The ransom is what makes it possible for God to restore the sick to life. It was God, not the sick, who found a ransom which makes it possible for Him to be just in extending graciousness to the sick. The idea is that God was looking for a ransom, some reason to deliver the sick one and restore him to health-and such a ransom appeared. There was then no reason for the sick not being healed and restored to perfect health. The ransom God found was atonement, as seen in note f, below. It was something that His righteousness demanded, and since finding it, there could be no excuse for keeping the benefits of atonement from the ones for whom it was provided. This puts healing of the body on a purely legal and redemptive basis. The debt having been paid, the benefits are now freely given to all who have faith in the cancelled debt. Those who can prove to Satan by proper authority and legal rights that he has no claim on them anymore can go free from any of his works (1 Jn. 3:8)

f Heb. kophar, from kaphar, to cover; explate; placate; cancel; make atonement; cleanse; disannul; forgive; pardon; purge; reconcile. Kopharis trans. ransom (v 24; 36:18; Ex. 30:12; Ps. 49:7; Pr. 6:35; 13:8; 21:18; Isa. 43:3). Cp. Mt. 20:28; Mk. 10:45; 1 Tim. 2:6. See Atonement, p. 119. The atonement God found was in Christ on the cross which made it possible to heal all and forgive all alike (Isa. 53, notes; Mt.

c The idea is that if God would wish such a thing or mark the faults of all men strictly, they would perish in judgment at the same time (v 14-15)

d See Spirit and Breath, p. 445

e The wicked are still in existance after their bodies go back to dust, and there is no place where they can hide from God (v 22). If they were extinct at death as some teach, then they would be out of existence; but this would be out of harmony with the verse and scores of others which teach continued existence after death

g Questions 223-224. Next, v 33

h This advice was particularly fitting for Job, according to Elihu who thought he should confess being under the chastening of God and promise that he would not sin any more (v 31-32)

g 7 major benefits of the atonement:
1 Bodily healing-his flesh (not his spirit) shall be fresher than a child's (v 25)
2 Rejuvenation-he shall return to the days of his youth (v 23; Ps. 103:4-5; Jn. 10:10; 2 Jn. 2)
3 Answered prayer-he shall pray unto God, and He will answer him (v 26; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 11:1-13; 18:1-8; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:7-8; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:13-14)
4 Hope-he shall see His face with joy (v 26; Tit. 2:13; Heb. 3:6; 6:11, 18-19; 7:19; 1 Pet. 1:3, 13; 1 Jn. 3:3)
5 Righteousness-He will render unto man His righteousness (v 26; Rom. 3:21-26; 4:1-25; 5:17-21; 1 Cor. 1:30; 2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 2:24; Jn. 2:29; 3:7-10)
6 Salvation of the soul, or forgiveness of sins (v 27-28; Mt. 26:28; Lk. 13:1-5; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9)
7 Resurrection-his life shall see the light-to bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living (v 28, 30; 18:5; Jn. 5:28-29). This could refer to eternal life as well as to resurrection of the body

h Here Elihu plead with Job to hear all that he had to say, perhaps pausing first to see if Job wanted to answer him (v 31-33)

i It could be that there was a partial desire in Elihu to justify Job or at least a desire not to pervert what he had said for the mere sake of argument and not to blame him if he could avoid it (v 32)

j Here Elihu addressed Job's 3 friends, making an appeal for them to hear favorably all that he had to say (v 1-4) k 8 sins Elihu accused Job of committing:

1 Saying: I am righteous (v 5)
2 God has taken away my judgment
3 I am made a liar though I have proved myself to be right (v 6)
4 I am suffering because of no transgression of my own
5 Gulping down blasphemy like water (v 7)
6 Associating with workers of iniquity
7 Walking with wicked men (v 8)
8 Saying: It does not profit to delight in God (v 9)
These wrongs were supposed to have been committed against both God and man. Elihu's reasoning was that Job insulted man when he claimed to be righteous, accused his friends of making him a liar in face of his proof of righteousness, and held that he was sinless when he associated with wicked men. Elihu's further reasoning was that Job sinned against God by claiming to be as righteous as He was, and by saying that God had taken away his judgment, he was suffering at the hand of God for no sin of his own, and that there was no profit in serving God

b God is sovereign and will do whatever He pleases whether you like it or not (v 33) c Elihu accused Job of being in ignorance of things he had discussed, and said that he therefore was not wise in speaking of them. He then expressed his desire, which was like that of Job's other 3 friends - wanting him to suffer yet more for speaking the words of wicked men (v 35-36). He also accused Job of adding rebellion to his sin and clapping his hands in smug confidence while continuing to multiply many words against God (v 37). It is true that Job did say many things about God in his extreme suffering which he would not have spoken otherwise, but he did not speak in behalf of the wicked. He only tried to justify himself before these friends who maintained that he was wicked because of suffering the judgment of the wicked; and in doing this he pointed out that many wicked men prosper who are not judged throughout all the days of their lives, and many righteous men suffer calamities as well as some of the wicked. These were facts of human experience that should have been well known to his friends; and calling attention to them was not speaking in defence of the wicked; it was merely Job's way of showing that he was not sinful and wicked simply because calamity had overtaken him. This was neither sin, nor was it adding rebellion to sin d Elihu paused perhaps at the end of the previous discourse to see if Job or one of the 3 friends would answer him; and when no one spoke he continued, talking to Job in particular (v 1)
e Questions 226-233, Next, 36:19
f 3 great errors Elihu accused Job of:
1 My righteousness is more than God's (v 2)
2 What advantage will it be unto me to be cleansed from my sin? (v 3)
3 What profit shall I have if I be cleansed from my sin?
In no place did Job say these things in his discourses, but Elihu considered them the substance of what he had said. Job had dwelled much on his own sincerity and uprightness, maintaining his innocence of any sin that brought calamity upon him; and in this he was right, for he was simply suffering an attack from Satan (1:10-19; 2:6-10). What Job had said that was wrong was making accusations against God as the one who had brought the calamity upon him g Elihu proposed here to answer Job and his 3 friends, make things more clear than the friends had, and to show Job where he had been in error (v 4). Eliphaz had taken up the same questions as Elihu (22:2-30) but had soon turned to charges against Job instead of making the matter clear. Now Elihu promised to state facts clearly and remove all the objections of Job. It is doubtful whether he accomplished this end, but he did try. One thing is certain - that the Christian doctrine of a future state was necessary in all these answers in order to make the subject clear h 3fold vindication of God:
1 God dwells in the heavens and is much higher than man (v 5)
2 The sin of man cannot affect His plan or conduct; it affects only man in his destiny (v 6)
3 The righteousness of man cannot affect His plan or conduct; it affects only man in his destiny (v 7)
i Elihu now contended that oppressions of men come from men and not from God (v 9-12); that the mighty in the earth cause others to suffer, and that while God tolerates such He is not the cause of these sufferings. This was said perhaps because Job had repeatedly accused God of being the one responsible for his sufferings. Thus Elihu vindicated God and reproved Job for his many accusations against Him j In oppression the oppressed cry out by reason of the arts of the mighty, but none cry out to God for relief the right way. They always complain to God, but they do not look to Him for wisdom for deliverance and songs in the

(7) Elihu's further defense of God. A Claims to speak for God

Ē-LI'HŪ [b]also proceeded, and said,
2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.
3 [c]I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my [d]Maker.
4 For truly my words shall not be false: [e]he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

B God's eighteen dealings with men

5 Behold, [f]God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.
6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor.
7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.
8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;
9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.
10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.
11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.
12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.
13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.
14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.
15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

C Elihu applies God's dealings with man to Job

16 [g]Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.
17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.
18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.
19 [h]Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.
20 Desire not the night, when a But now - since Job was not trusting God for deliverance, believing he was being visited with sufferings through God's anger, all he did was fight back at the Almighty (v 15-16)

b Again it appears that Elihu paused a moment to see if Job or his friends would answer him; and when they did not he continued his defence of God, feeling constrained to speak yet in His behalf (v 1-2) c 5 claims of Elihu: - I will
1 Yet speak in God's behalf (v 2)
2 Bring knowledge from afar (v 3)
3 Ascribe righteousness to my Maker
4 Speak only the truth (v 4)
5 Give you perfect knowledge
d God as Creator and Maker of man is recognized throughout the book (4:17; 10:8-9; 32:22; 33:4; 35:10; 36:3)
e This certainly proves the youthfulness of Elihu if nothing else does, for an older and experienced man would not make such a statement. The older and wiser one becomes, the farther away he is from declaring such an opinion of himself (v 4)
f 18 facts about God:
1 He is mighty (v 5)
2 Despises nobody
3 Is mighty in strength and wisdom
4 Preserves not the life of the wicked
5 Gives right to the poor (v 6)
6 Does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous (v 7)
7 Establishes the righteous forever
8 Exalts them
9 If they sin and are punished, reminds them of their sins for which they have been punished (v 9)
10 Opens their ear to discipline (v 10)
11 Commands them to turn from sin
12 If they obey and serve God, He causes them to spend their days in prosperity and pleasure (v 11)
13 If they do not obey, He causes them to perish by the sword; and they die without knowledge (v 12)
14 He heaps up wrath against hypocrites
15 Binds them (v 13)
16 Cuts them off in their youth (v 14)
17 Delivers the poor in affliction 18 Opens their ears in oppression (v 15)
g 16fold application to Job:
1 If you had obeyed and served God (v 11-12), then He would have removed you out of the strait into a broad place (v 16)
2 You would have plenty of food for your table
3 But you have suffered the judgment of the wicked (v 17)
4 Judgment and justice take hold of you
5 God is angry at you, so beware lest He take you away with His stroke (v 18)
6 If He does then a great ransom cannot deliver you
7 He will not esteem your riches (v 19)
8 He will not esteem gold or forces of strength
9 You should not desire the night, when people are cut off (v 20) 10 Take heed, regard not iniquity (v 21) night, even though they are wiser than beasts and birds (v 10-12)

k Here Elihu gave the reason for the oppressed not being relieved by God - their cry is a mere vain, empty, heartless petition for relief from personal sufferings without thought of genuine love, worship, and faith in a deliverance from Him that will enable them to be of better service to Him (v 13)
l In this verse we have an appeal to Job to have faith in God and His justice - to trust Him to bring him out of his troubles (v 14)

a You have chosen to complain and accuse the Almighty rather than submit patiently to His chastisement (v 21). The idea is that, according to Elihu, Job chose iniquity rather than affliction, like a man preferring a life of crime to one of hard work with its suffering and adversities. See 10 false accusations by Elihu against Job p.478

c These two questions were directed to Job whom Elihu accused of seeking to tell God what to do and charging Him with committing wrong by afflicting him (v 23-24). Elihu thought that Job had complained too much about the government of God and His dealings with man. Job was guilty of maintaining he was being afflicted by Jehovah without cause (9:17); and he had also complained about God not giving him a trial so that he could plead his own case before Him (23:1-10) d Elihu was a poor spokesman for God if he did not know Him (v 26). However, it may be that he referred to the infinite power and works of God which he did not know. In this, others are like him, for no man knows God in all fulness

e The number of years that God has lived cannot be known, for He has existed from all eternity and will continue to exist throughout all eternity in the future (Ps. 90:2)

f See 34 great works of God, p. 411

g Referring to thunders in the clouds

h Referring to lightnings and even the sun above the clouds (v 30)

i God uses lightnings, storms, and various other weather conditions to correct man

j The earth produces abundantly through the elements of the heavens (v 31)

k The hearts of men are moved with fear through the raging elements and when rain is withheld from the earth (v 1)

l The idea in these verses is that both men and beasts have their activities curbed by the snows, storms, and ice conditions on earth (v 6-8)

m Whirlwinds are mentioned several times as coming from the south (v 9; Isa. 21:1; Zech. 9:14), and once as from the north (Ezek. 1:4) n Cold out of the north is natural and God-produced. It is said that the lowest ever recorded in the Antarctic was 100 degrees below zero. In modern times we have man-made cold also. Chemical companies have been reported to produce temperatures down to 450 degrees below zero. They say startling things can be accomplished at this unearthly cold temperature. Many types of living tissue can be preserved; certain metals become perfect conductors of electricity; and air is turned to liquid, Oxygen, nitrogen, and other atmospheric gases in their pure form are produced on a big scale to meet the demand of industry

o The morning stars are the infinite suns out in space which are suns to other planets like our sun is to our earth and its related planets. This passage proves that the whole of the heavens was created before the earth itself or these stars could not have been singing when God laid the foundations of the earth (v 7). That the material creations do sing and speak their own languages is plainly stated in Ps.19 and many other scriptures. In fact, all creations have some means of communication with one another and with God and man. This will be more in evidence after the curse is removed from all creation (Rom. 8: 21-24; Rev. 22:3) p These were angels (v 7; 1:6; 2:1; Gen. 6:1-4, notes)

Circle of the earth (Isa. 40:15)
Literally, He that sitteth above the circle of the earth; or, Who sits so far above the round earth that its inhabitants seem as mere grasshoppers or locusts (v 22). God looks upon man, from above, as a busy, agitated, moving, impatient, and raging multitude spread over the earth like locusts in bands over the plains of the East. This is a very striking illustration of the insignificance of man as viewed by God in the heavens people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: [a]for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: [b]who teacheth like him?

23 [c]Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

D Thirty-four great works of God

26 Behold, God is great, and we [d]know him not, neither can the [e]number of his years be searched out.

27 For [f]he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:

28 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the [g]noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he [h]spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them [i]judgeth he the people; he [j]giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

CHAPTER 37 473

AT this also my [k]heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He [l]sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 [m]Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and [n]cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scatereth his bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.

E Job advised to consider the power and works of God and not presume to be wiser than God 14 [a]Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 [b]Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings [c]of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; [d]for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

CHAPTER 38 474

VII Jehovah and Job. 1 Jehovah's first discourse.
(1) Jehovah's demands

THEN the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 [f]Who is this that [g]darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

3 [h]Gird up now thy loins like a man: [i]for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

(2) Thirty-six questions about the inanimate creation

4 [j]Where wast thou when [k]I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 [l]Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? [m]or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the [n]foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof;

7 When [o]the morning stars sang together, and all [p]the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,

b Questions 239-243. Next, 38:2

c Do you know how the clouds are suspended in the air with so much heavy water in them? This is a mystery, but having faith in God we know that He holds them up by His own power in the same way that He hangs the earth and all planets on nothing. They are held up and revolve by definite laws executed by God; and they never vary unless God causes them to do so d Job had repeatedly professed a desire to bring his case personally before God to argue the matter in His presence. He was confident that if he could do this he would be justified in his contentions of innocence (13:3, 18-22). Here Elihu sought to show Job that if he had a true concept of God he would know that he would be so over-awed by the Divine Presence that he would not know what to speak (v 19-24)

e Then—after Elihu had ended his long discourse against Job, the Lord came upon the scene and answered Job out of a whirlwind (38:1-40:2)

g These were the first of 184 questions which God asked Job, as in chs. 38-42. He first accused Job of darkening counsel by words without knowledge; that is, instead of explaining the reason for the divine dealings and vindicating God, Job had made many false accusations against Him and His government. Job had indulged in murmuring and complaining against God and lived in bitter feelings against Him; he had confused the issue with his feelings instead of keeping clear of false statements about Him. Job had not given the true facts about God any more than his friends had. One of the greatest lessons we get from this book is that we should always clear God of fault and take blame on ourselves instead, for there is no fault with Him in any of His dealings

h This was an allusion to the loose-flowing robes which were the mode of dress in ancient times. They were fastened with girdles or sashes when men ran, labored, or fought. The idea was that he should make himself strong and prepared for what he was about to hear from God which would explain the many facts of nature-things which occur constantly in the universe (v 3)

i The whole passage may be considered ironical. Job had undertaken to tell what he knew about the government of God, and He challenged him here to demonstrate his calling to such an office as expositor. Such a wise man should be able to expound the acts, works, and purposes of the Almighty in creation which could be seen. If he could not expound that which was seen how could he expound those things not seen? (38:3-39:30)

j See 35 questions about inanimate creation, p. 478

k God laid the foundations of the earth (v 1). It was the work of a Person and not the development of an evolving, self-existant, molecule or any number of molecules. Job was asked to tell how the earth was formed under God's hand, if he had understanding. If he could not do this he was a poor critic of God's government

l See Example of infinite perfection, p. 478

m The expression here gives the idea of a carpenter using a line to lay out his work. The earth is represented as a building, the plan of which was laid out beforehand; and it was then made according to the plan. The earth therefore, is not the work of chance or fate; it was constructed according to certain specifications; and the method used proves infinite and personal skill n This simply means that the Creator formed the earth on a solid and eternal basis. It is not the idea of the earth resting on a solid foundation like a building, but being suspended and rotating in space fully governed by the law of gravitation. If Job did not know these things how could he be qualified to criticize God and His government?

a The bounds which God has set truly do stop the proud waves of the oceans. They advance as if nothing could stop them, but when they come to God's bounds they are broken and stopped in a moment as if by the commanding voice of God (v 10-11; Ps. 104:1-10)
b Questions 251-275. Next, v 35 c God has fixed days and nights to continue eternally; and they are ruled by the sun, moon, and stars (v 12-13; Gen. 1:14-19; 8:22) d The earth is stamped by the seal of the morning like an image in clay is made with a seal (v 14)
e The light is kept from the wicked and their high arm (strength) shall be crushed (v 15)
f This refers to the springs and fountains in the depths of the sea, or the constant supply of water in the oceans, including the rivers and streams that flow from all parts of the earth into them (v 16)
g This reveals openings and doors to hell and death (v 17; Rev. 1:18; 9:1; 20:1) h In Job's day the exact measurements of the earth were not known; today we understand the diameter is about 8,000 miles and the circumference 25,000
i This refers to the rising and setting of the sun, or to day and night being fixed as if they dwelled in certain places and came forth regularly from their dwelling (v 19-20; Ps. 19)
j Snow and hail are formed in the clouds when they are at an elevation where the temperature is below 32 degrees. Particles of moisture congeal and fall to the earth, or the flakes of snow melt and fall as rain. Hail stones, being greater in size and falling more rapidly often reach the earth in warm weather, when the temperature is much higher than 32 degrees. Thus, we have hailstorms in summer sometimes k This means that the hail and snow are under the direction of God. Several times He has used hail to destroy His enemies (Ex. 9:22-26; Josh. 10:11; Ps. 18:12-13; 78:47-48; 105:32). In the future hail will fall again as a part of judgment (Rev. 8:7; 11:19; 16:21; Ezek. 38:22)
l God made clouds to be filled with rain that would be poured out upon the earth. It rained in Lucifer's kingdom long before the creation of man (Isa. 14:12-14), and from the time of Adam until now. On day 2 of the re-creation God restored the clouds to their work of giving rain (Gen. 1:6-8). It is therefore erroneous to say that it did not rain before the flood of Noah. See notes, Gen. 2:5-6 m This states the main purpose of rain; and there never was a time on earth when it was not needed and there never will be such a time (v 26-30)

g 6 great sins of Job:
1 He contended with the Almighty to instruct Him (40:2)
2 Reproved God (40:2)
3 Disannulled God's judgment (40:8)
4 Condemned God to make himself appear righteous (40:8)
5 Hid counsel without knowledge (42:3)
6 Uttered what he did not understand (42:3)
h Then - after Jehovah had asked him 60 questions about the animate and inanimate creations, Job answered but he was not as bold and self-confident about being justified if he could talk to God in person, as he had bragged about in his discourses (v 3-5) i Compare this brief answer and the attitude of Job here (v 4-5) with his bragging of 23:1-8. He said then that he would fill his mouth with arguments if God would only come to him and give him a fair trial. But what did he do? He had nothing to say except that he was vile and did not know what answer to give God j The first of only 2 questions Job asked during the whole trial in God's presence. There were 186 questions and God asked 184 of them; it was like a courtroom cross-examination. Where were all the arguments Job said he would give should he ever have the opportunity to see God and talk to Him? (23:3-5). Now, all he wanted to do was lay his hand upon his mouth (v 4). In this first barrage of questions from Jehovah, Job was brought to complete silence and acknowledgement of his vileness (v 4-5). After the second barrage Job was brought to complete repentance (42:1-6) k Then - after Job had answered Jehovah briefly and made his confession of vileness, God continued by asking 25 more questions (40:6-41:34)
l 13 commands of God to Job:
1 Gird up your loins now like a man; for I will demand of you, and answer Me (38:3)

21 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.
22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.
24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.
25 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
26 [c]Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?
27 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?
28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.
29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.
30 Her young ones also [d]suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

CHAPTER 40 476

[a]MOREOVER the LORD answered Jôb, and said,
2 [j]Shall he that [k]contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

(4) Job's reply to Jehovah

3 ¶ [l]Then Jôb answered the LORD, and said,
4 Behold, [i]I am vile; [i]what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.
5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

2 Jehovah's second discourse. (1) Four questions about Job

■6 ¶ [k]Then answered the LORD unto Jôb out of the whirlwind, and said, ●7 [l]Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
8 [m]Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?
9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

(2) Eightfold challenge to Job

●10 [n]Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.
11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.
●12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.
●13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.
14 [a]Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

(3) Sixteenfold description of the behemoth

15 ¶ Behold now [b]behemoth, which [c]I made with thee; [d]he eateth grass as an ox.
16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.
17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.
18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.
19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.
20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.
21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.
22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.
23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jôr'dan into his mouth.
24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

CHAPTER 41 477

(4) Twenty questions about leviathan (serpent or dragon, vs. 34; Isa. 27:1; Rev. 12:1-17; 13:1-4; 16:13; 20:2)

[e]CANST [f]thou draw out leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?
2 Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?
3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?
4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?
5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?
7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?
8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.
9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?
11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven[g]is mine.
12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely a Then (when you can do all these things - the 8 of v 10-13) I will also confess that you can save yourself by your own power (v 14)

b It is not definite what animal is referred to here. A study of this passage by critics and naturalists has brought the conclusion that either the elephant or hippopotamus is meant; but there are some remaining difficulties, for parts of the description do not fit either animal. It could be that an animal now extinct is referred to. We do know that beasts of tremendous size have roamed the earth in ages past, especially in the pre-historic times. Actual bones have been found to indicate a beast 25 ft. high and 60 ft. long, they tell us. The bones of the toes of such an animal are about 3 ft. long and one tooth weighs 4 lbs. 8 ozs. The fact that behemoth was chief of the ways of God (v 19) suggests that he was something more than an elephant or a hippopotamus c Whatever the animal was, as described here, it was made when Adam was, according to this statement to Job. God said, "which I made with thee," meaning He made behemoth when He created man (v 15) d 16fold description of behemoth:
1 He eats grass like an ox (v 15)
2 His strength is in his loins (v 16)
3 His force is in his belly
4 His tail is like a cedar (v 17)
5 The sinews of his stones are wrapped together
6 His bones are as strong pieces of brass (v 18)
7 His bones are like bars of iron
8 He is chief of the ways of God (v 19)
9 He can be killed by the sword of God, This implies that it would be difficult for man to kill him
10 He feeds upon the mountains (v 20)
11 He lies under shady trees (v 21-22)
12 He lies in the reeds and fens (v 21)
13 He feeds in the willows of the brook (v 22)
14 He drinks a great amount of water (v 23)
15 He is a slow moving creature
16 Man cannot take him off guard or take him in a snare (v 24)

g All things under the whole heaven belong to God and He knows the parts, power, and proportions of Leviathan (v 11-12)

God's promise of comfort (Isa. 51:19)

God promised to comfort Judah and Jerusalem (40:1; 51:3), but by whom was the problem. No ordinary son of Israel had been able to comfort the nation thus far. It was soon to go into Babylonian captivity and all the sons of Israel would be powerless to stop such defeat. They were to faint and be trapped like a wild bull in a net (v 18-20). In themselves Israel was powerless to provide a deliverer; only God could provide a way of comfort and restoration. This He did in sending the Messiah-His only Son and a descendant of Abraham and David, according to the flesh; He was to redeem and deliver the nation and restore them to their own land, an eternal and a righteous people (7:14; 9:6-7; Mic. 5:1-2; Mt. 1; Jn. 1:14; 3:16; Rom. 1:1-5, 16; Gal. 1:4; 4:4-8; Col. 1:15-18) proportion.

13 [a]Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

(5) Fifty-sixfold description of leviathan

15 His [b]scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

30 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

33 Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.

34 He beholdeth all high things: [c]he is a king over all the children of pride.

478 CHAPTER 42

(6) Job's reply to Jehovah

THEN Jōb answered the LORD, and said,

2 [d]I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

3 [e]Who is he that hideth counsel [g]without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

6 Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

VIII Jehovah and Job's three friends

■7 ¶ And it was so, that [a]after the LORD had spoken these words unto Jōb, the LORD said to Ĕl'i-phăz the Tē'man-īte, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Jōb hath.

●8 Therefore [b]take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Jōb, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Jōb shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, [c]like my servant Jōb.

9 So Ĕl'i-phăz the Tē'man-īte and Bĭl'dăd the Shu'hīte and Zō'phar the Nā'a-math-īte went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Jōb.

IX Jehovah, Satan, and Job (cp. 1:6-22; 2:1-8): "the end of the Lord" (Jas. 5:10-11)

10 And the LORD [d]turned the captivity of Jōb, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Jōb [e]twice as much as he had before.

11 [f]Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: [g]and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Jōb more than his beginning: [h]for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

13 [i]He had also seven sons and [j]three daughters.

X The conclusion of Job

14 And he called the name of the first, Jĕ-mī'mà; and the name of the second, Kĕ-zī'à; and the name of the third, Kĕr'en-hăp'puch.

15 And in all the land were no women found so [k]fair as the daughters of Jōb: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 After this lived Jōb [l]an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

17 So Jōb died, [m]being old and full of days.

a Questions 326-328. Next, 42:3

b See 56fold description of Leviathan, p. 548

c This is no doubt a symbol of Satan, as a great dragon, who is the enemy of both God and man. Certain statements in this description could refer only to a supernatural being, as in Isa. 27:1; Rev. 12. Here in v 34 he is called the king over all the children of pride. The Berkeley and Young versions read, "he is king over all the sons of pride;" Moffatt reads, "the monarch of proud creatures." Thus Leviathan could be none other than Satan, the spirit that now works in all sons of disobedience and pride (Eph. 2:1-3). The word pride is not used of beasts in all the book of Job. Cp. 9:13; 26:12; 40:11-12 where the word proud is used of men. Outside the book of Job pride is used 45 times and always of men; proud is used 42 times of men. Not once are these used of animals; and in Job pride is used only of men (33:17; 35:12) and Leviathan (v 15); so the children of pride of v 34 must refer to men. To interpret this verse as meaning that Leviathan is king over all the animals is out of harmony with truth. If he is king over all the sons of the proud human race, then beyond doubt, he is Satan

d Then - after the second barrage of questions by Jehovah, Job answered again; by now his vileness had become something to be abhorred (v 1-6)

e 10fold answer of Job to Jehovah:
1 I know You can do everything (v 2)
2 No thought can be withheld from You
3 I have hid counsel without knowledge (v 3)
4 I uttered what I did not understand
5 I uttered things too wonderful for me, which I did not know
6 Hear what I have to say (v 4)
7 I want an answer from You
8 I have heard of You by the ear (v 5)
9 Now I see You
10 I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes (v 6)

f Question 329. Last question in book of Job

g If Job ever had any misunderstanding about the person of God he was now being enlightened, for in v 5 he declared he had heard of Him "by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee." God made a visible appearance to him and Job was able to see His bodily shape. That God is a literal person with bodily parts is proved many times in Scripture

Anthropomorphism

Anthropomorphism is the ascription of human bodily parts, attributes, and passions to God, and taking the substantiating statements of Scripture to be literal, and not figurative. In support of such teaching an appropriate question is: If God did not mean all He said about Himself in over 20,000 scriptures then why did He say such things? They certainly do not add to a true understanding of Him if the passages do not mean what they say. Furthermore, why would God, in hundreds of places, refer to Himself as having bodily parts, soul passions, and spirit faculties if He does not have them? Would it be necessary for Him to tell us He has such in order to reveal that He does not have them? Would He not be more likely to say in plain language that He does not have eyes, hands, mouth, ears, and other bodily members?

It is logical not to question the plain, simple statements of Scripture about God and His body; it is logical to understand them in the same literal way that we understand like statements about angels, men, and other beings. We have no Bible authority to do otherwise. Rom. 1:20 alone proves this

The truth is that God has revealed Himself to be seen by the natural eyes of men repeatedly; and Bible writers have given a clear record concerning what He is like. The many personal descriptions of God's body and thousands of plain declarations regarding a When God was through with answering Job, He addressed the 3 friends, completely ignoring Elihu for reasons not explained, God told them that they had not spoken of Him the things that were right, as His servant Job had done (v 7). Although He had rebuked Job for contending with Him, reproving Him (40:2), disannulling His judgment and condemning Him (40:6), God called Job His servant and acknowledged that, in comparison with these 3 friends, he had spoken right things

b God commanded the 3 friends to go to Job with 7 bullocks (value: $2,275.00 figuring each at $325.00), and 7 rams (value: $140.00 figuring each at $20.00) and offer them for themselves (not for Job), as a burnt sacrifice. Job would pray for them and be accepted, for God said, "him will I accept" (v 8). God threatened to deal with these friends according to their folly which He explained a second time as speaking wrong things about Him (v 7-8)

c God knew that whatever Job had said (which might be questioned) was under great pain, suffering and satanic pressure-things in heated debates which he would not have uttered under normal circumstances. He knew also that the 3 friends had spoken through satanic pressure and fallacy, not understanding at all about the cause of Job's troubles. He considered what Job had said as the thing which is right when it was compared to what the others had said (v 7-8)

d This means that God healed Job, and restored all that he had possessed before the trial (v 10)

e Job's restored wealth:

14,000 sheep @ $20.00	$ 280,000.00
6,000 camels @ $100.00	600,000.00
2000 oxen @ $325.00	650,000.00
1,000 asses @ $50.00	50,000.00
Total est. value..	$1,580,000.00

Cp. note g, 1:3 for his former wealth

f Then - when the test was over, his body was healed, and Satan was completely defeated, all his brethren, his sisters and former acquaintances came back to him and partook again of Job's hospitality (v 11)

g 3 blessings through his friends:
1 Bemoaned him (v 11)
2 Comforted him
3 Gave him a piece of money and an earring each. In some parts of the East it was customary for friends and relatives to visit a man in trouble at an appointed time to bring presents which would reimburse him somewhat for what he might have lost through calamity. After a feast the guests would express their wishes for future prosperity, leave their gifts and depart

h See note e, above

i In due time he had children again, which numbered the same as those he lost in the cyclone of 1:19 (v 13)

j 3 beautiful daughters of Job:
1 Jemima, resembling a clear day; fair as the day; a dove (v 14)
2 Kezia, Cassia, or Cinnamon - after one of the most valuable and fragrant spices of antiquity
3 Keren-happuch, horn of the eye-paint, referring to a vessel made of horn, wherein the Oriental women kept the paint used about their eyes to make them appear large and beautiful

k Beautiful and attractive l If Job lived 70 years before his trial, as some scholars judge, and 140 afterward, he was 210 years old when he died

m Being satisfied with his life and the number of his days. The Septuagint adds to v 17 the following: And it is written that he shall rise again with those whom the Lord raises up

Thus ended the life of the prophet Job who has been named in history as one of the most patient and godly men of all ages. The only failure recorded of him was during his severe trial in the months of his extreme sufferings with sore boils over his entire body. The N. T. not only confirms the facts of Job's life and trial, but also of his being an example of all Christians in suffering patiently though being tried under an attack from Satan (Jas. 5:10-11)

56fold description of leviathan (Job 41:15):

1 Cannot be taken with a hook like a fish (v 1)
2 Tongue cannot be snared with a rope
3 Nose cannot be hooked (v 2)
4 Jaws cannot be bored through with a thorn (ring)
5 Does not beg for his life (v 3)
6 Cannot be made a servant of man (v 4)
7 Cannot be tamed (v 5)
8 Is not edible (v 6)
9 Cannot be divided and sold
10 Skin cannot be filled with barbed irons in taking him (v 7)
11 His head cannot be filled with fish spears in capturing him. Fish spears were slender rods 10 to 12 ft. long and feathered on one end like an arrow, having 2 sharp points on the other, about 2 ft. in length, on which fish were impaled
12 In seeking to take him, all that a man can do is to fight him and no more (v 8)
13 The hope of taking him in battle is vain (v 9)
14 Men give up in any fight with him when they see him
15 No man is so fierce that he can stir him up any more than he can stand against God-and who will dare fight with God? (v 10-11)
16 God alone is not confounded by his parts (limbs), power, and frame (v 12)
17 No man can discover the face of his garment or his skin (v 13)
18 No man can bridle him
19 No man can open his jaws (v 14)
20 His scales are his pride (v 15)
21 His scales are shut up together as with a close seal
22 One scale is so near another that no air can come between them (v 16)
23 The scales are joined one to another (v 17)
24 They stick together
25 They cannot be separated
26 Light shoots out of his nostrils when he sneezes (v 18)
27 His eyes look like two suns that come up in the morning
28 Burning torches shoot out of his mouth when it is open (v 19)
29 Sparks of fire leap out when his mouth is open 30 Smoke goes out of his nostrils when he breathes, as out of a boiling pot
31 His breath kindles the coals of his mouth into flames of fire (v 21)
32 His neck is exceedingly strong (v 22)
33 Sorrow (terror) is turned into joy (dances) before him
34 His flesh is not flabby and soft, but solid and firm (v 23)
35 His flesh cannot be moved
36 His heart is as firm as a hard millstone (v 24)
37 The mighty are afraid when he raises himself up to attack (v 25)
38 By reason of breakings (destruction wrought by him) the mighty purify themselves (miss the mark and flee in terror)
39 The sword (harpoon) that is put into him cannot hold (penetrate his hard skin, v 26)
40 The spear, dart, and other weapons have no effect on him
41 He esteems iron as weak straw (v 27)
42 He esteems brass as rotten wood
43 Arrows have no effect on him (v 28)
44 Slingstones fall off him like stubble
45 Darts are also counted as stubble by him (v 29)
46 He laughs at the spear
47 He walks and lies on sharp stones which have no effect on him (v 30)
48 Sharp pointed stones are as soft to him as clay
49 Wherever he goes he makes the water to boil like a pot (v 31)
50 He stirs the sea up into a foam like a pot of ointment
51 He makes a foamy path in the water after him (v 32)
52 He makes the deep to appear hoary and foamy
53 There is nothing like him on earth (v 33)
54 He is without fear
55 He beholds all high things (v 34)
56 He is king over all the children of pride

Summary of Job

Date and place: the events of Job took place in the latter part of the 430-year period of the dispensation of Promise (note a, Gen. 15:13). Judging from this and the time of the birth of Jacob's sons (p. 30), we suppose that Job died about 15 years before the exodus from Egypt. This is based upon the supposition that Issachar was born to Jacob when he was about 90 years of age; and Job was born to Issachar when he was about 20 years of age. Job was around 70 years old when he experienced his trial; and he lived 140 years after that (Job 42:16). We can say that the time of the events of his testing period was about 1845 B.C.; and if the book was written during the last 140 years of Job's life, the date of writing was probably 1843-1703 B.C. The events took place in the land of Uz (note b, 1:1)

It is certain that Job lived before the giving of the law, for there are no references to Jewish rites, manners, customs, religious ceremonies, priesthood, festivals, fasts, sabbaths, or anything else commanded in the law of Moses. The references to religion and God in the book make it clear that Job's religion and concept of God were the same as that which prevailed in the days of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Israel before the giving of the law (1:5; 42:8). Job was the one who offered sacrifices as the head of his own family and in behalf of the children, as Noah (Gen. 8:20); Abraham, and the other pre-law patriarchs did (Gen. 12:1-13; 15:9-11)

The theory that Job was not a real person and that the book is simply an allegory with all events, persons, and other details being figurative ideas, is unscriptural. The fact of his existence is stated in Gen. 46:13; Ezek. 14:14, 20; and Jas. 5:11 as well as in the book itself. The first two chapters and the last ones are in such simple narrative form that they remove any doubt regarding the historical facts they relate. The remaining chapters are poetic but in none are we led to believe that the characters and their words are figurative and the events untrue. God and various Bible writers refer to the people as real persons; the names of Job's friends and their particular parts of the country are mentioned; the Chaldeans and Sabeans, are also refered to. As to the meetings between God and Satan, these can be taken as literally as the meetings of men reported in the book. By revelation, God no doubt showed the author the facts of such conversations in heaven, so that he could write them for our enlightenment. As to the various speeches given in poetic form, in heated arguments, one immediately after the other, such was possible with Oriental people of great intelligence; they were trained to speak this way in daily conversation. Furthermore, we must recognize that supernatural powers could have inspired them in their reasonings

Author: it is impossible to prove fully who the author of Job really was; but there are certain facts that make it seem that the main part of the book was written by one person, before the giving of the law of Moses. It could be that Job was the author of all but the last verses giving the record of his end; or, it could be that the book was the work of two men; these could have been Job and Moses. In either or both cases the book could have been produced during the 40 years Moses was in the desert

Proof of authorship: there is no definite proof regarding who wrote the book, but there are some outstanding facts that would indicate the possibility of a certain author or authors:

1 Whoever wrote it had to receive a special revelation from God concerning the scenes and conversations in heaven of chs. 1-2

2 The author was especially inspired by the Holy Spirit (2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21) to record the events and conversations between Job and his friends; or, if someone besides Job, he had records of all that was said in the various speeches, from a person who may have been present to listen

3 The book was no doubt written by an Israelite like all the other books of the Old Testament, for through Israel came the revelation of God (Rom. 3:2)

4 It was written before the law of Moses, for there is not the slightest reference to the law or any of its institutions

5 Job lived 140 years after the experience of calamities (Job 42:16), which would bring him into the period of the life of Moses

6 The art of making books was known at this time, as proved within the book itself (19:23-24; 31:35). See note on Ex. 17:14

7 Job's 140 years of leisure after his trial provided him with more than enough time to work on a record of his experiences, even leaving out the idea of divine influence and help in recording the many details of the conversations. How much more could we conceive of Job, or Moses, writing the book by divine inspiration!

8 Moses received a revelation concerning the creation and many other things which form a part of his writings; so, if this book was not written by Job, then it could have been written by Moses, in part or in its entirety

9 No doubt Job and Moses lived at the same time in the vast wilderness section of the country from Arabia-Petra to the Persian Gulf (note b, 1:1). For 40 years Moses was in this part of the world herding the flocks of Jethro, priest of Midian; and these men could have spent much time together. The book could have been produced by either one of them or by both men together, before Moses went back to Egypt. This much is certain: Moses accepted the book as part of the divine revelation of God entrusted to the Hebrew people, and thus transmitted it to future generations

10 The style of the poetry does not seem to be that of Moses, but that in itself would not exclude him as having written part of the book, at least the last part, the history recording the end of Job's life

11 Tradition says that the book was written by Moses; and this could well have been the case through inspiration. He could have also been given a record of the poetical section (chs. 3-42:6), and could have added the historical parts of both the beginning and the end. We can at least say that regardless of who wrote the book it is definitely inspired of God

Theme: there are so many wonderful lessons in the book of Job that it is almost impossible to single out one particular theme, other than to say that it is a treatise on human sufferings and the effects upon the sufferer and his friends, and reasoning about why these things happen even to the godly of the earth. It also makes it clear what part Satan and God have to do with human suffering

Purpose: the main purpose is to give light concerning human sufferings, through calamities and sicknesses, record the reasonings of ordinary men concerning these experiences, identify Satan as the author of such misery, teach patience (Jas. 5:10), and reveal God as the Deliverer of His people when He is called upon to help in time of need

Statistics: 18th book of the Bible; 42 chapters; 1,070 verses; 10,102 words; 1,066 verses of history; 1 verse of fulfilled prophecy; 3 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; 329 questions; 13 commands; no promises; 4 predictions; 10 messages from God (1:7, 8, 12; 2:2, 3, 6; 38:1; 40:1, 6; 42:7). It can be seen by this that there is very little prophecy in the book of Job, as well as only a few messages from God. The reason is easy to understand. The book is one of many charges and counter-charges between men who did their reasoning without consulting God on any matter whatsoever

His soul passions and spirit attributes should not be denied or interpreted contrary to what is written; they should be believed in all simplicity. The constant rejection of revealed facts about God certainly will not give us a true understanding of Him. To acknowledge them as truth will not make God any less glorious or powerful or great than He really is. God can be like man in bodily form and still be as magnificent as we have always thought Him to be. He can have a spirit-substance body and still be like man in size and shape; and He can have passions, feelings, desires, intelligence, and will power without being confined to man's limitation and sinfulness. Truly He is not only all that man, angels, and other beings are in this respect, but infinitely greater in everything; and man, in reality, is simply a miniature of God in attributes and powers. See God in Index; also 44 appearances of God, p. 63

He has appeared to many as a person-to Adam and Eve (Gen. 2:7, 19:25); Cain (Gen. 4:6, 9, 16); Abraham (Gen. 17:1-22; 18:1, 22; 19:1); Isaac (Gen. 26:2-4; 26:24); Jacob (Gen. 28:12-15; 32:24-32; 35:1); Moses (Ex. 3:1-4; 24:12-18; 33:9-11); Joshua (Josh. 5:13-15); Samuel (1 Sam. 3:10, 21); Elijah (1 Ki. 12:11-18); David (1 Chr. 21:16-17; 2 Chr. 3:1); Isaiah (Isa. 6); and others

63 facts about God:

1 He is a person (Job 13:8; Heb. 1:3)
2 He has a spirit body (Dan. 7:9-14; 10:5-19; Isa. 6; Ezek. 1; Rev. 4)
3 Shape (Jn. 5:37)
4 Form (Phil. 2:5-7)
5 Image and likeness (Gen. 1:26; 9:6; 1 Cor. 11:7; Jas. 3:9)
6 Back parts (Ex. 33:23)
7 Heart (Gen. 6:6; 8:21)

53 Wisdom (1 Tim. 1:17)
54 Discernment (Heb. 4:12)
55 Immutability (Heb. 6:17)
56 He wears clothes (Dan. 7:9-14)
57 Eats food (Gen. 18:1-8; Ex. 24:11)
58 Rests (Gen. 2:1-4; Heb. 4:4)
59 Dwells in a city (Jn. 14:1-3)
60 Sits on a throne (Isa. 6; Dan. 7:9-11)
61 Walks (Gen. 3:8; 18:1-8, 22, 33)
62 Rides (Ps. 18:10; 68:17; Ezek. 1)
63 Manifests other powers and bodily presence like other beings

THE BOOK OF PSALMS

Hymns of Prayer, Praise, Distress, History, Prophecy, Trust, Promise, Hope, Instruction, Confession, Judgment, Testimony and Deliverance of the Hebrew People before and after the Exile

THE FIRST BOOK OF PSALMS - The Genesis Book: Concerning Man (Psalms 1-41)

PSALM 1

First Psalm of the Righteous (godly and ungodly contrasted). 1 Five conditions of blessing (84:11; Isa. 58; Col. 1:23; 2 Tim. 2:12-13)

BLESSED is [b]the man that walketh not in the counsel of the [c]ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.◂

2 [d]But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

2 Four blessings of the righteous (32:6; 33:18)

▸3 And he shall be [e]like a tree planted by the [f]rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit [g]in his season; [h]his leaf also shall not wither; [i]and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

3 Ungodly: opposite of godly (15:2; 24:3; 37:16)

4 The ungodly are not so: but are [j]like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

4 The end of both (9:17; Mt. 25:46; Dan. 12:2)

●5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

▸6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM 2

First Messianic Psalm

1 Messiah rejected of men (Isa. 53; Mt. 21:42; 27:15)

[a]WHY do the [l]heathen [m]rage, and the people [n]imagine a [o]vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, [p]against the LORD, and against his [q]anointed, saying,

3 Let us break [r]their [s]bands asunder, and cast away their [r]cords from us.

2 Tribulation and millennium (Jer. 30:4, refs.; Isa. 2:1, refs.)

4 [t]He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set [u]my king upon my holy hill of [v]Zi'on.

3 Messiah's birth and ministry (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 18)

7 [w]I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; [x]this day have I begotten thee.

▸8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the [y]earth for thy possession.

4 Millennial reign of Messiah (Isa. 2:1, refs.; Rev. 20)

9 [z]Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

●10 [a]Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

●11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

●12 [b]Kiss the [c]Son, lest [d]he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM 3

First Prayer of Distress

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom, his son (2 Sam. 15:13). 1 David's complaint to God (74:1, 3; 80:4, 12; 89:38)

LORD, how are they [e]increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. [f]Se'lah.

2 David's trust in trouble (20:1; 61:3; 62:1, 5; 63:1)

3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Se'lah.

5 I laid me down and [g]slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me.

6 [g]I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

3 David's prayer in trouble

7 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: [h]for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Se'lah.

PSALM 4

Second Prayer of Distress. To the chief Musician on Neginoth (stringed instruments). A Psalm of David. 1 Three requests; one blessing

[i]HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

a Heb. asher, how happy. Trans. blessed 18 times and happy 17 times (Dt. 33:29; Job 5:17; Ps. 127:5; 128:2; 144:15; 146:5; Pr. 14:21; 16:20; etc.)
16 blessed classes: They that 1 Live godly (1:1; 106:3; Isa. 56:2)
2 Put their trust in God (2:12; 40:4)
3 Have sins forgiven (32:1)
4 Are free from imputed sin (32:2)
5 Help the poor (41:1)
6 God fellowships (65:4)
7 Live in God's house (84:4)
8 Draw strength from God (84:5)
9 Know how to worship God (89:15)
10 Are chastened by God (94:12)
11 Fear God (112:1; 128:1)
12 Live undefiled lives (119:1)
13 Obey God's Word (119:2)
14 Walk in wisdom (8:32, 34)
15 Hear wisdom (8:34)
16 Wait upon God (Isa. 30:18)

b The emphasis is on THAT man who lives to the end in life for which God created him (Rev. 4:11)

c 3 sinful classes (v 1):
1 The ungodly. Heb. rasha, morally wrong; actively bad; wicked; unjust. Trans. ungodly (1:1-6; 3:7; 73:12; 2 Chr. 19:2; Job 34:18) and wicked 248 times (Gen. 18:23-25; Ps. 9:17; etc.)
2 Sinners. Heb. chatta, criminal; to miss the mark; pass the limits of the law. Trans. sinners (1:1, 5; 25:8; etc.)
3 The scornful. Heb. luwts, to make mouths at; to scoff; to mock (v 1; 22:7)

d 7 acts of a righteous man:
1 Delights in the Word of God (v 2)
2 Meditates in it day and night (v 2)
3 Consecrates to obey it (v 1)
4 Makes it his rule of life and conduct (Jas. 1:22-27)
5 Makes it his standard of faith and religion (2 Tim. 3:16-17)
6 Reads it to gain knowledge and wisdom (Mt. 24:15; Eph. 3:4; Rev. 1:3) 7 Feeds on it to grow spiritually (1 Pet. 2:1-3; Rom. 10:17)

e 2 comparisons:
1 Righteous like a tree planted, cultivated, and well watered; not like one growing wild in the field (v 3)
2 Wicked: like chaff that blows away and soon perishes (v 4, Cp. 35:5)

f Heb. palgey mayim, divisions of waters. A term used in the East for small channels which divide a garden for purposes of irrigation

g In the season expected, governed by proper irrigation and cultivation h Portraying a rich, fruitful, and perfect Christian life. Cp. Jn. 15:1-8

i Material prosperity is as much the will of God as soul and body health (v 3; Josh. 1:5-9; 1 Sam. 2:7-8; 3 Jn. 2)

j 12 things the wicked are like:
1 Chaff that wind drives away (v 4)
2 Grass that soon perishes (Ps. 37:2)
3 Wild beasts (Ps. 49:20)
4 Poisonous snakes: adders (Ps. 58:4)
5 A deceitful bow (Ps. 78:57; Hos. 7:16)
6 Vanity (Ps. 144:4)
7 Potsherd (Pr. 26:23)
8 The troubled sea (Isa. 57:20)
9 A heath in the desert (Jer. 17:6)
10 Foxes in the desert (Ezek. 13:4)
11 A roaring lion (Ezek. 22:25)
12 Ravening wolves (Ezek. 22:27)

k Is prophecy in Ps. (2:1-12, unfulfilled except v 7). Next, 8:2. Question 1, Next, 4:2. This psalm was written by David (Acts 4:25-26)

l Heb. goyim, nations or Gentiles 4 raging classes (v 1-2):
1 Heathen (Gentiles, nations)
2 People (Jews, Acts 4:27)
3 Kings (Gentile rulers, Acts 4:26)
4 Rulers (Jewish leaders, Acts 4:26)
5 acts of the ungodly:
1 They rage (v 1)
2 Imagine (plot vain things - v 1)
3 Set themselves against God and Messiah (v 2)
4 Counsel together against God and Messiah (v 2)
5 Encourage themselves to get rid of God and Messiah (v 3) m Heb. ragash, to be tumultuous. It refers to the rushing together of the mob who smashed their teeth at the Messiah n Heb. hagah, to imagine (2:1; 38:12); meditate (1:2; 63:6; 77:12; 143:5; Gen. 24:63; Josh. 1:8; Isa. 33:18); mourn (Isa.

o Heb. reek, a worthless thing. Trans. vain (2:1; Lev. 26:16, 20; Ps. 73:13; Isa. 49:4; 65:23) and empty (Judg. 7:16; Ezek. 24:11) p A plain reference to two separate persons. Note their bands, their cords, v 3 q Heb. mashiyach, anointed. Trans. Messiah (Dan. 9:25-26) and anointed 37 times (1 Sam. 2:10, 35; Isa. 61:1).

r Jehovah's and Messiah's

s Heb. mocerah, chastisement; halter; restraint. Trans. bands (2:3; Job 39:5; 107:14; Isa. 28:22; 52:2; Jer. 2:20) and bonds (Ps. 116:16; Jer. 5:5; 27:2; 30:8; Nah. 1:13)

t Heb. aboth, something entwined. Trans. cords (2:3; 118:27; 129:4; Judg. 15:13-14); ropes (Isa. 5:18; Judg. 16:11-12); and wreathen (Ex. 28:14-25; 39:15-18)

u 16 personal acts of God:
1 Sits in the heavens
2 Laughs at the vain plans of man
3 Has men in derision (v 4)
4 Speaks to men
5 Becomes angry with men
6 Vexes men because of their sins
7 Is sore displeased with men (v 5)
8 Sets the Messiah King in Zion (v 6)
9 Speaks to the Messiah
10 Begets a Son (v 7)
11 Gives Messiah nations to inherit 12 Gives Messiah earth to possess (v 8)
13 Crushes His enemies on earth (v 9)
14 Gives advice to kings (v 10-12)
15 Gives instruction to judges (v 10)
16 Blesses those who trust Him (v 12)

v God's King is the Messiah who will reign on David's throne forever (v 6; Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15)

w A hill immediately south of Moriah. Occurs 38 times in Psalms x The Messiah declares the gospel (v 7)

y See note f, Acts 13:33

16:7; 38:14; 59:11); mutter (Isa. 8:19; 59:3); roar (Isa. 31:4); speak (Pr. 8:7; Ps. 37:30); talk (71:24); and utter (Job 27:4)

z Heb. reek, a worthless thing. Trans. vain (2:1; Lev. 26:16, 20; Ps. 73:13; Isa. 49:4; 65:23) and empty (Judg. 7:16; Ezek. 24:11) a 2 rewards of incarnation and preaching:

1 Heathen converted (v 8)
2 Kingship over earth (Dan. 7:13)

b Rev. 19:15, Cp. 2:27-28; 12:5

c 4 commands to kings, rulers (v 10-12):
1 Be wise
2 Be instructed
3 Serve the Lord
4 Kiss the Son

d Heb. nashak, submit to; be ruled by. Occurs 32 times and trans. kiss (Gen. 27:26-27; etc.); armed (1 Chr. 12:2; 2 Chr. 17:17; Ps. 78:9); touched (Ezek. 3:13); and be ruled (Gen. 41:40). Kissing was a sign of subjection and friendship (1 Sam. 10:1; 1 Kl. 19:18; Hos. 13:2)

e The Messiah of v 2 is God's Son in v 7-12; Pr. 30:4; Isa. 9:6-7

f Lest Jehovah of v 11 be angry

g All the hearts of Israel were after Absalom (2 Sam. 15:13)

h A word used 71 times in Psalms and 3 times in Hab. 3. It is used in 39 psalms out of 150. Of these 39 it is in 31 psalms that are to the chief Musician. It occurs 4 times in the middle of verses (55:19; 57:3; Hab. 3:3, 9). In 4 cases 2 psalms are connected by it (Ps. 3-4; 9-10; 24-25; and 46-47). Most of the time it is at the end of verses. Scholars are divided as to its meaning 7 suggested meanings of Selah:
1 A thought-link, connecting ideas in Hebrew poetry
2 The Sept. trans. it by diapsalma, a pause in the psalm by the singers
3 The Chaldee sometimes trans. it by lealmin, "for ever"
4 A word equivalent to da capo in music directing the choir to repeat
5 A word from Heb. sal, to raise or elevate the voices of singers
6 A word from salah, to spread out, indicating that the subject should be meditated on by the reader
7 A word denoting an instrumental interlude or louder accompaniment

i At Mahanaim (2 Sam. 17:27-29)

j David's confidence in God to give him victory in his son's rebellion (v 6-7)

k Here he expresses confidence in victory as if it were already a reality, illustrating faith (Mk. 11:22-24)

l This Psalm was composed on the same occasion as Ps. 3 when Absalom rebelled (note g, above)

a Questions 2-3, Next, v 6
b 3 ancient-modern universal sins:
1 Turning God's glory to shame (Rom. 1:21-32). This will end when all enemies are put down (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10)
2 Loving vanity (v 2; 10:7; 12:2; 39:5, 11; 62:9; 94:11; Eccl. 2; 2 Ki. 17:15; Rom. 8:20; Eph. 4:17; 2 Pet. 2:18)
3 Leasing. An old Anglo-Saxon word for lying and falsehood (Pr. 17:4; 19:22)
c See note h, 3:2
d Marked such and set him aside as His own property - made him a special subject of grace and providence (Ps. 91)
e This expresses the same as "be ye angry, and sin not" (Eph. 4:26)
This is perhaps addressed to his faithful followers who were zealous for David advising them to check their wrath (2 Sam. 16:9; 18:5-15)
f One can do this only if he has kept himself from sin by obeying v 4
g Question 4, Next, 6:3
h This may suggest that David had no priest with him in his flight from Absalom to bless as commanded in Num. 6:23-26. See 2 Sam. 15:32-37 i Here David testifies to the joy of God in his soul in the midst of fleeing from Absalom, his son, and in the midst of his people forsaking him for another. It was a joy greater than the increase of corn and wine, which were always expressive of the highest temporal blessings of man (v 7; Dt. 33:28; 2 Ki. 18:32; Isa. 36:17)
j Here we have David's absolute confidence in God. He had peace of soul and sleep for the body in spite of all the plots against his life (2 Sam. 17:2) k This is a morning Psalm (v 3), as Psalm 4 is an evening hymn (v 4, 8). Having had good sleep in 4:8, he awakes to meditate upon God and pray (5:1) l God was David's king to rule, govern, and direct his life, and his God to save, defend, and protect him (v 2, 4-6, 10-12) m 7 times to pray:
1 In the morning (v 3; 88:13; 143:8)
2 Day and night (88:1)
3 Morning, noon, and night (55:17; Dan. 6:10)
4 All night (Lk. 6:12)
5 Without ceasing (1 Th. 5:17)
6 Always (Eph. 6:18)
7 In time of need (Heb. 4:16)
n This is the proper attitude in prayer (v 3; Mk. 6:41; Jn. 17:1)
o 7 things God opposes (v 4-6):
1 He takes no pleasure in wickedness
2 He cannot dwell with evil (v 4)
3 He cannot tolerate the foolish (boasters) to stand in His presence
4 He hates workers of iniquity (v 5)
5 He hates leasing (falsehood)
6 He abhors bloody men
7 He abhors deceitful men (v 6) p God is absolutely holy, so He cannot take pleasure in wickedness. That God takes pleasure in things (v 4), hates sin (v 5), and abhors evil is proof that He has a personal soul. The soul of any being is the seat of the feelings, emotions, and desires (note r, Jn. 4:24)
q Heb. halal, to be clear: to shine, hence to make a show or boast; to rave. Trans. foolish (v 5; 73:3; 75:4) and boast (1 Ki. 20:11; Ps. 10:3; 34:2; 44:8; 49:6; 52:1; 97:7; Pr. 20:14; 25:14; 27:1) r Heb. aven, iniquity, specially connected with idolatry (Hos. 4:15; 5:8; 10:5, 8). Hence, it is used of vanity (Job 15:35; Ps. 10:7; Pr. 22:8). It expresses bad conduct flowing from the heart and fallen nature s See note b, point 3, v 2 above
t See other occurrences (17:15; 26:11; 35:13; 41:12; 55:16; 69:13; 73:2)

v Heb. checed, kindness: favor; mercy; grace (v 7; 13:5; 18:50; 21:7; etc.)
w In Thy reverence I will worship x Heb. heykal, palace. It refers to the heavenly temple itself, the dwelling place of God, which was used as the pattern for the earthly tabernacle as being the dwelling place of God among men on earth (1 Sam. 1:9; 3:3)
y The same idea as in the Lord's prayer: lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil (Mt. 6:13) z Make Your path for me level and straight so that I may see how to proceed

2 God's two great questions

2 O ye sons of men, [a]how long will ye [b]turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? [c]Se'lah.

3 Seven secrets of peace: five commands and two blessings

▸3 But know that the LORD hath [d]set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.
●4 [e]Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Se'lah.
●5 [f]Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

4 Man's great question; one request and two blessings

6 There be many that say, [g]Who will shew us any good? LORD, [h]lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.
7 [i]Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.
8 [j]I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM 5

First Prayer for Judgment
To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth (inheritances). A Psalm of David. 1 Prayer to Jehovah: three requests; daily consecration [k]GIVE ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, [l]my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.
3 My voice shalt thou hear in the [m]morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will [m]look up.

2 Six reasons to pray: God's character revealed

4 For thou art not a [n]God that hath [o]pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.
5 The [p]foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of [q]iniquity.
6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak [r]leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

3 David's character: two requests of God

7 But [s]as for me, I will come into thy house in the [t]multitude of thy [u]mercy: and in thy [v]fear will I worship toward thy [w]holy temple.
8 [x]Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; [y]make thy way straight before my face.

4 Fourfold character of the enemies of God: three requests for their destruction

9 For there is [z]no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.
10 [a]Destroy thou them, O God; let them [b]fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their [c]transgressions; for they have [b]rebelled against thee.

5 Three requests: five blessings for the righteous

▸11 [d]But let all those that put their [e]trust in thee [f]rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou [d]defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.
▸12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with [g]a shield.

PSALM 6

Third Prayer of Distress
To the chief Musician on Neginoth (stringed instruments) upon Sheminith (eighth octave). A Psalm of David. 1 Prayer: 7 petitions; 10 reasons for an answer

O LORD, [h]rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.
3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, [i]how long?
4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.
5 [j]For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in [k]the grave [l]who shall give thee thanks?
6 [m]I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.
7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

2 Answer to prayer: 3 demands to enemies; 3 reasons

8 [n]Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.
9 [o]The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer.
10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

PSALM 7

Second Prayer for Judgment
Shiggaion (praise) of David, which he sang unto the Lord, concerning the words of Cush the [p]Benjamite. 1 Prayer: 8 requests; 12 reasons for an answer

O [q]LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: [r]save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

a 4 main traits of wicked men (v 9):
1 Unfaithful. Heb. kuwn, Trans. stable (1 Chr. 16:30); stablish (2 Sam. 7:13; 1 Chr. 17:12; 2 Chr. 17:5; Ps. 93:1; Hab. 2:12); standeth (Judg. 16:26); firm (Josh. 3:17; 4:3); and establish (2 Sam. 7:12; 1 Chr. 17:11; 22:10; etc.). Here it means no steadfastness or stability. No dependence upon what is said
2 Inwardly wicked - corrupt to the core. Heb. qereb, the center. Trans. inward part (v 9; 49:11; 62:4; 64:6; Isa. 16:11; Jer. 31:33) and inwards (Ex. 29:13-22; Lev. 1:9-13; 3:3-14; 4:8-11; 7:3; 8:16-25; 9:14-19)
3 The throat is an open sepulchre. Heb. qeber, grave (v 9; Isa. 22:16; Jer. 5:16). Streams of impurities come from within (Mk. 7:19-21)
4 They flatter with their tongue (v 9; 12:3; Pr. 26:28; 28:23; 29:5) b The prayer here should be understood in the future tense to harmonize with v 4-6, when one prays for the kingdom to come he is asking for the destruction of sin, sickness, rebellion, and for all the curse to be removed. This is the purpose of the coming kingdom (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Jude 14; Zech. 14; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 19:11-20:10) c This prayer was answered in Ahithophel (2 Sam. 15:31; 17:14, 23) d Heb. pasha, revolt; rebellion; sin against lawful authority. Often trans. transgression (v 10; 51:13; Pr. 28:21; Isa. 43:27; etc.)
e The wicked rebel against God, not only against David, hence they are subject to the judgments of God
f After praying for himself (v 7-8) and for the wicked (v 9-10), David prays for the righteous (v 11-12) g 3 chief characteristics of the godly:
1 They trust in God (v 11)
2 They love God and His name (v 11)
3 They are righteous (v 12)
h 5 blessings of the righteous:
1 They have a refuge (trust) in God
2 They are joyful in God
3 They have security in God (v 11)
4 They are blessed of God
5 They have God's favor or grace (v 12)
i Heb. sakak, to entwine as a screen; to fence in; cover over; protect. It is trans. defence (v 11; Nah. 2:5); and cover (Ex. 33:22; 37:9; 40:3, 21; 1 Sam. 24:3; Job 40:22; Ps. 91:4; etc.)
j Heb. zinnah, a shield of the largest size to cover the whole body. It is found in Psalms here and 35:2; 91:4, Cp. 1 Sam. 17:7, 41. In other Psalms it is magen, a smaller shield. The shield here is the favor or grace of Jehovah k 7 requests of David:
1 Rebuke me not in Thine anger
2 Chasten me not in wrath (v 1)
3 Have mercy upon me (v 2)
4 Heal me (v 2)
5 Return, O Lord (v 4)
6 Deliver my soul (v 4)
7 Save me for Thy mercies' sake (v 4)
These requests indicate that David had a grievous disease after his sin with Bath-sheba. They reveal a deep consciousness of sin and of God's displeasure at him. See Ps. 38:1-15, notes
l Question 5, Next, v 5
m Death claims only the body (Jas. 2:26), not the soul and spirit, which are immortal (1 Pet. 3:4, note). It is true that the dead bodies of dust do not remember God (v 5; 30:9; 115:17; Eccl. 3:19-20), but the soul and spirit are not dust and continue in consciousness after death to the body (16:10; Isa. 14:9; Mt. 12:40; Lk. 16:19-31; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11; etc.). See Hell, p. 620-622 n Heb. sheol, the unseen world; the place of the soul. It is not qeber, the grave, the place of the body (see Hell, p. 620
o Question 6, Next, 8:4
p See 8fold grief of David, p. 618
q In his sickness his many enemies reproached him for his sins r Here David rallies, encouraging himself that God will hear his prayer and save his enemies, so that they may be suddenly ashamed (v 9-10). The Heb. for return is shuwb, recover, convert, restore. It is trans. converted (Ps. 19:7; 51:13; Isa. 1:27). Thus it is not that David wanted his enemies destroyed, but converted s Who he was is not known t Jehovah my Elohim. In thee do I put my trust, or flee for refuge (v 1) u 8 requests of Jehovah-Elohim, p. 618

a Here David's chief persecutor is compared to a lion and David with no one to deliver him (v 2). As the lion is the king of beasts, so Saul was king of the land. As the lion in his fierceness seizes and tears his prey to pieces, so David was in danger of being seized and destroyed by Saul. All this answers to the 21 attempts of Saul to kill David (1 Sam. 18:1-26:2, headings)

b David was accused by Saul of seeking the kingdom and an opportunity to kill the king. David here denies these charges before God offering to lay down his own life if such be true (v 3-5)

7 denials of David (v 3-5):
1 I have not plotted to get the kingdom
2 I have not plotted the murder of Saul
3 I have not rewarded evil to Saul, but have been at peace with him (v 4)
4 I am not guilty or I would not have delivered Saul from death after he became my enemy (v 4; 1 Sam. 24:1-22; 26:1-25)
If I am guilty:
5 Let Saul capture me (v 5)
6 Let him destroy my life (v 5)
7 Let him take away my honor (v 5)

c See note h, 3:2

d David prays after the pattern of Moses in Num. 10:35 (v 6; 3:7; 9:19; 10:12). Arise is the same as lift up thyself (Ps. 94:2; Isa. 33:10) and awake (35:23; 44:23; 59:5)

e David has the conception of God that He must be stirred up. Cp. Jer. 33:3

f David prays for judgment that God has commanded, so such prayers are in harmony with God and His Word. We are still to pray for God to come and judge the world and for His kingdom to come and His will to be done on earth as it is done in heaven (Mt. 6:10). Naturally, many will be destroyed when this is fulfilled (Mt. 25:41; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14; Zech. 14; Joel 3; Ezek. 38-39). Then people will compass God and be drawn to Him (v 7); then the righteous will be vindicated (v 8); then all wickedness will be put down (v 9); and then shall the righteous inherit the earth and be established in it (v 9; 1 Cor. 15:24)

g God does try the hearts that are so deceitful and desperately wicked (Jer. 17:9-10) and the reins, the innermost mind and feelings (Job 16:13; 19:27; Ps. 16:7; 26:2; 73:21; 139:13; Pr. 23:16; Isa. 11:5; Jer. 11:20; 12:2; 17:10; 20:12; Rev. 2:23)

h My shield is God who saves the just. Hence, I have no uneasy or fearful feeling as to the future i Continually. This does not refer to the outbreaking of the wrath of God every day, but to the abhorrence of God of the wicked continually. His is not sudden emotion that breaks forth in wrath and then changes or passes away. It is the uniform attribute of God that is as unchanging as His own being and nature. The idea is, there is no change in His attitude toward sin. The wicked will find Him no more favorable to sin tomorrow than He was yesterday. What He is today He will be tomorrow. Cp. Heb. 13:8; Mal. 3:6. Also, could this not refer to the wicked storing up daily wrath against the day of wrath (Rom. 1:18; 2:5)? Some versions read, God is not angry every day, if he (the wicked man) turn not, He (God) will whet His sword. . He (God) hath prepared him (the wicked) the instruments of death. He (God) ordained His arrows against the persecutors (v 11-13)

j Here we have the wicked dealt with again as conceiving sin and giving birth to iniquity (v 14-16)

k The smooth skull or scalp. The reference is to falling into one's own pit, as in v 15. See note l, Pr. 26:27

l Heb. Elyon, possessor of heaven and earth; the Dispenser of God's blessings in the earth. First occurrence, Gen. 14:18. Used 36 times in Psalms

m Heb. Yehovah Adonai, Jehovah our Sovereign, Director, Ruler, Judge, and Supporter. The psalm begins and ends with this phrase (v 1, 9) n God's name is excellent in all the earth and His glory is higher than the heavens (v 1). He has been greatly magnified by the gospel in this age of grace o 2nd prophecy in Psalms (8:2). Next, v 4. Partially fulfilled in Mt. 21:16.

p Heb. yasad, to lay a foundation, appoint (v 2; 1 Chr. 9:22). See 16 reasons God chooses babes, p. 618

2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, [b]if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. [c]Se'lah.

6 [d]Arise, O LORD, [e]in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to [f]the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just; [g]for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

▶10 [h]My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

2 God and wicked: 7 sins of the wicked; 6 ways of God

11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked [i]every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, [j]he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own [k]pate.

3 David's praise to God

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD [l]most high.

PSALM 8

Second Messianic Psalm
To the chief Musician upon Gittith (Gittite harp). A Psalm of David. 1 First advent of Messiah (Mt. 21:16)

O [m]LORD our Lord, how excellent is [n]thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

★2 [o]Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou [p]ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

2 Second advent of Messiah (Heb. 2:6-8; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)

3 When I consider thy [q]heavens, the work of thy [r]fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast [s]ordained;

★4 [t]What is man, that thou art [u]mindful of him? and [v]the son of [w]man, that thou [x]visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little [y]lower than the [z]angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him [a]to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put [b]all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM 9

First Prayer-Praise Psalm
To the chief Musician upon Muth-labben (to die for the son). A Psalm of David. 1 Fourfold praise to God

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my [c]whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 [d]I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.

2 Tenfold destruction of the wicked

3 [e]When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

3 The Lord: judge of world; refuge of the righteous

★7 [f]But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And [g]he shall judge the world in righteousness, [h]he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

▶9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

4 Praise: reasons for praise

●11 [i]Sing praises to the LORD, which [j]dwelleth in Zi'on: [k]declare among the people his doings.

c David omits the sun here, indicating his meditation was at night. If he had considered the heavens in the day all he could have seen would be the sun and sky, not the moon and stars. These he wished to introduce because of their immense variety and splendor. The sun he describes in Ps. 19:1-6 x God will eventually avenge all the righteous and punish oppressors and criminals (v 12, 17, note) them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

5 Prayer and reason for it

14 [c] That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zi'ŏn: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

6 The wicked are snared in their own nets

15 The heathen are sunk down in the[d] pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 [e] The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: [f] the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. [g] Hig-gā'ion. [h] Sē'lah.

7 The destiny of the righteous and the wicked (Mt. 25: 46; Rev. 20:11-15; Isa. 66: 22-24)

★17 [i] The wicked shall be turned into [j] hell, and [k] all the nations that forget God.

▶18 For the [l] needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

8 Prayer: 4 requests; reason

19 Arise, O LORD; let not man[m] prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in[n] fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Sē'lah.

PSALM 10

First Psalm of the Wicked
1 First appeal to Jehovah to punish the wicked: 22 sins of the wicked

[o] WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 [p] The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

7 [q] His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the[a] poor.

9 He lieth in wait secretly[b] as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his[c] strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, [d] God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

2 Second appeal to Jehovah to punish the wicked and help the righteous in his oppressions 12 [e] Arise, [f] O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

13 [g] Wherefore doth[h] the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

★15 [i] Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

16 The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

PSALM 11

First Psalm of Trust
To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David. 1 Reasons to trust in God

[j] IN the LORD put I my trust: [k] how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 [l] For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 [m] If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

2 The righteous are tested

4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is[n] in heaven: his eyes behold, [o] his eyelids try, the children of men.

5 The LORD [p] trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his [q] soul hateth.

3 The wicked are punished and the righteous are preserved

★6 [r] Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest:

a 6 requests of David:
1 Have mercy upon me (v 13)
2 Consider my trouble (v 13)
3 Arise, O Lord (v 19)
4 Let not man prevail (v 19)
5 Let the heathen be judged (v 19)
6 Put them in fear (v 20)

b 2 kinds of gates:
1 The gates of death - figurative of powers that cause death and receive and hold one in the state of the dead (v 13; 107:18; Isa. 38:10; Heb. 2:14-15)
2 The gates of the daughter of Zion (v 14). These were the gathering places of Israel where instruction of life was given, so that one might escape the gates of death of v 13 c 3 reasons for the 6 requests:

1 That I may show forth all Your praise to Israel in the gates (v 14)
2 That I may rejoice in Your salvation
3 That the nations may know that they are but men and not God (v 20)

d See note j, 28:1

e Not every accident or calamity to man can be called the judgment of God. Judgments are always sent after many acts of mercy and much longsuffering on God's part toward rebels. He judges and takes action only when it is necessary to carry out His will among men and to vindicate His righteous government on earth. When God judges, His purpose of doing so is clearly seen. There are no natural causes to which such judgments can be legally attributed as, for instance, the flood of Noah, the destruction of Sodom, the seals, trumpets, and vials of Rev. 6, 8, 9, 16

f All a wicked person does works against himself. He takes more pains to destroy his own life than a righteous one does to save his soul and gain eternal life (v 16)

g This means to meditate. The idea is for man to think on the end of the wicked as in v 15-18

h See note h, 3:2

i 5th prophecy in Ps. (9:17-18, partially fulfilled and will be completed when the last of the wicked are in hell and the righteous are vindicated and safe with God forever). Next, 10:15

j See Where are the dead? p. 619

k Why should the wicked and all nations that forget God be turned into hell if hell is the grave? Do not the righteous also go to graves at death?

l The needy and poor will be remembered in the next life, providing they are saved and righteous. Otherwise, they will be forgotten in the next life as well as in this one m Heb. azaz, be strong. Do not let man become strong, so that he may carry out his designs, God has had to intervene and will yet do so to prevent man from self-destruction. This is why He sent the flood (Gen. 6-8), the confusion of tongues (Gen. 11), the destruction of Sodom (Gen. 19), and other judgments. This is why He will send the judgments of the future tribulation, and why He will send Jesus. The current talk of man destroying himself by his own inventions will never come to pass, for the earth, man, and present creations on earth are eternal. See notes on Rev. 20-22

n Send them some terror, so as to keep the nations humble and show man how frail and helpless he is without God

o Questions 9-10, Next, v 13

p 22 sins of the wicked (v 2-11):
1 Is full of pride (v 2, 4)
2 Persecutes the poor (v 2)
3 Sets snares for the just (v 2)
4 Imagines evil against righteous (v
5 Boasts of his great plans (v 3) 2)
6 Blesses the covetous (v 3)
7 Rejects God (v 4)
8 Dismisses religion (v 5)
9 Travails to bring forth sin (v 5)
10 Is blind to God's judgments (v 5)
11 Puffs at his enemies (v 5)
12 Boasts of getting what he wants (v 6)
13 Blasphemes (v 7)
14 Deceives others (v 7)
15 Cheats others (v 7)
16 Speaks mischief and vanity (v 7)
17 Plots against neighbors (v 8)
18 Murders the innocent (v 8)
19 Takes advantage of the weak (v 8)
20 Plots against the poor (v 9)
21 Manifests cruelty (v 10)
22 Lives secure in his sins (v 11)

q Quoted in Rom. 3:14

a Heb. helkah, weak ones

b The wicked here is pictured as a lion watching for his prey, and then to a hunter taking wild animals into his net (v 8-9). Again, in v 10 he is compared to a wild beast crushing his prey

c This refers to the powerful teeth and claws of the lion (v 9), or the companions in crime of the wicked

d 2fold false security of the wicked:
1 He thinks God will not remember (v 11)
2 He thinks God is not interested enough in His creation to see evil

e 10 times God is asked to arise: Arise,
1 Save me, O my God (3:7)
2 In Thine anger (7:6)
3 Let not man prevail (9:19)
4 Lift up Thine hand (10:12)
5 Disappoint him; cast him down (17:
6 Cast us not off forever (44:23) 13)
7 Redeem us for Thy mercies' sake (44:26)
8 Plead Thine own cause (74:22)
9 Judge the earth (82:8)
10 Into Thy rest (132:6) 6:41) Used only once outside Psalms (2 Chr.

f Here the psalmist prays for deliverance
5 requests to God (v 12, 15):
1 Arise, O Lord (v 12)
2 Lift up Thine hand (v 12)
3 Forget not the humble (v 12)
4 Break the arm (power) of the wicked and evil man (v 15)
5 Destroy his wickedness until there is no more to be found (v 15)

g Question 11. Next, 11:1

h 7 reasons why God should answer:
1 The wicked blasphemes God (v 13)
2 The wicked thinks God will not require (investigate) sin (v 13)
3 God sees sin (v 14) (v 14)
4 He beholds all mischief and spite
5 God will render justice to all (v 14)
6 The poor depends upon God (v 14)
7 God is helper of fatherless (v 14)

i 6th prophecy in Psalms (10:15-18, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the Millennium and New Earth). Next, 11:6 7 future events predicted:
1 The arm (power) of the wicked will be broken in the Millennium (v 15; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10)
2 No wickedness will be found among men at the end of the Millennium (v 15; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 21:3-7)
3 The Lord will be King forever beginning with the Millennium (v 16; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Lk. 1: 32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)
4 All heathen will be destroyed off the earth at the end of the Millennium (v 16; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 21:3-7)
5 The desire of the humble for universal peace and righteousness will be realized in the Millennium and New Earth (v 17; 37:11; Isa. 2:2-4; Rev. 21:3-7)
6 The fatherless and oppressed will be vindicated (v 18; Isa. 11:3-9; 65: 20-25; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10)
7 The lawless will oppress no more (v 18; Isa. 11:9; 65:20-25; Rev. 20)

j 16 blessings of trust in God:
1 Many blessings (Ps. 2:12)
2 Defense - protection (Ps. 5:11)
3 God's abiding presence (Ps. 9:10)
4 Deliverance from enemies (Ps. 17:7; 37:40; 91:4-7)
5 God a buckler and shield (Ps. 18: 30; 91:4; 115:9-11; Pr. 30:5)
6 Goodness of God (Ps. 31:19)
7 Fruitfulness (Ps. 34:22)
8 Safe dwelling place (Ps. 37:3)
9 Food - daily supply (Ps. 37:3)
10 Answers to prayer (Ps. 37:5) 10)
11 Freedom from fear (Ps. 56:11; 91:4-12 Immunity from evil and plagues (Ps. 91:4, 10)
13 Stability (Ps. 125:1)
14 Fatness (Pr. 29:25)
15 Perfect peace (Isa. 26:3)
16 Everlasting strength (Isa. 26:4)

k Question 12. Next, v 3

l This is the reason the righteous need to have God as a trust and a refuge

m Question 13. Next, 12:4

n See Heaven, p. 622

o His eyelids are drawn close together so as to get a more single, direct, and penetrating look at men (v 4) p The Lord tests the righteous (Gen. 22)

q God has a personal soul - the seat of emotions, feelings (note r, Jn. 4:24)

r 7th prophecy in Psalms (11:6, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled when all the wicked are put into the lake of fire, Rev. 20:11-15; Isa. 66:22-24). Next, 12:3

a Jehovah is altogether righteous in all His dealings with free moral agents.
b Help. Heb. yasha, save; give safety. Used 11 times in 8 different ways:
1 Moses defending Jethro's daughters from the shepherds (Ex. 2:16-19)
2 Soldiers helping each other in battle (2 Sam.10:11, 19; 1 Chr. 19:12, 19)
3 Pleading for help (2 Ki. 6:26-27)
4 God's help in trouble (2 Chr. 20:9)
5 The Lord helping men (Ps. 116:6)
6 The Lord saving Israel from total rebellion and depravity (Ps. 12:1)
5 reasons for calling for help:
1 The godly (religious, saintly) man ceases to exist (v 1)
2 The faithful man has passed away from among men (v 1)
3 The wicked speak vanity (v 2)
4 They speak flattery (v 2)
5 They speak with double heart (v 2) c 2 things God will cut off (v 3):
1 All flattering lips
2 Tongues that speak proud things
d Quoted in Jas. 3:5
e Great swelling words of promise and flattery (2 Pet. 2:18-19)
f The smooth tongued man relies upon his lips and flattering speech to deceive and to overcome others (5:9; 36:2; 55:21; 78:36; Pr. 5:3; 7:5, 21; 20:19; 26:28; 28:23; 29:5; 1 Th. 2:5; Jude 16)
g Many think that because they have a gift for speaking they can say what they please, but such shall receive greater damnation (Mt. 12:36-37)
h Question 14. Next, 13:1
i God will arise and judge 2 things:
1 Oppression of the poor (v 5)
2 Causing the needy to shriek (v 5)
j 8th prophecy in Ps. (12:3-5, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled at the judgment (Rev. 20:11-15). Next, v 7.
k 12 things about the Word in Psalms:
1 It is pure (12:6; 119:140)
2 It is tried (12:6; 18:30)
3 It is right (33:4)
4 It creates (33:6)
5 It heals (107:20)
6 It quickens (119:25, 50, 154)
7 It is eternal (119:89)
8 It is sweet (119:103)
9 It is a lamp to the feet (119:105)
10 It is a light (119:130)
11 It is true (119:160; 146:6) 12 It controls the weather (147:18;
l As silver, purified of all impurities in a furnace or crucible, purified perfectly of all dross (v 6) m 9th prophecy in Ps. (12:7, partially fulfilled and being fulfilled eternally). Next, 14:7
n The lawless prosper when the ungodly rule and vile men are exalted (v 8)
o Questions 15-19. Next, 14:4. These complaints of David are normal for man who is oppressed, condemned, and reaping what he sows. This was perhaps written during his sin with Bathsheba or during his reaping in the rebellion of Absalom (2 Sam. 11:1-18:33). It could not have been written during the captivity in Babylon which was long after David's time p Repeated 4 times in v 1-2:
1 How long? God will never forget
2 How long? God will never hide His face unless sin is involved. Then He will turn from the sinner as long as he lives in sin (Gal. 6:7-8)
3 How long? Man can take counsel in his soul and have sorrow as long as he chooses. He can stop when he chooses (Isa. 26:3; Mt. 6:25-34; Phil. 4:6)
4 How long? The enemy will be exalted as long as sin is committed (1 Jn. 3:8; Jn. 8:44) or as long as reaping is necessary (Gal. 6:7-8)
q 3 requests of David (v 3):
1 Consider
2 Hear me
3 Lighten my eyes
r Receive me: 3 reasons:
1 Lest I die (v 3)
2 Lest my enemy brag of victory (v 4)
3 Lest those that tempt me rejoice over my fall (v 4) s God's mercy is promised to all men upon condition (Ex. 20:6; 34:6-7; 2 Chr. 30:9; Ps. 62:12; Isa. 55:7; Rom. 2:4-10; Eph. 2:4; Tit. 3:5; 1 Pet. 1:3; 2:10). Mercy is an attribute of both God and man. In many O. T. scriptures it means grace and lovingkindness t 2 effects of trusting God's grace:
1 Rejoicing in salvation (v 5)
2 Singing to God (v 6)

this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

PSALM 12

Fourth Prayer of Distress
To the chief Musician upon Sheminith (eighth octave). A Psalm of David. 1 Prayer: 3 sins of the wicked

[b]HELP, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

2 Fivefold judgment: 5 sins of the wicked; words of God and the wicked contrasted

★3 The LORD shall [c]cut off all flattering lips, and the [d]tongue that speaketh [e]proud things:

4 [f]Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; [g]our lips are our own: [h]who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, [i]now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will [j]set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD [k]are pure words: [l]as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

★7 [m]Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

8 [n]The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

PSALM 13

Fifth Prayer of Distress
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. 1 Five complaints of David [o]HOW long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 [p]How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

2 Three requests; 3 reasons

3 [q]Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: [r]lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

3 Three secrets of answered prayer

5 But I have trusted in [s]thy mercy; [t]my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM 14

First Psalm of Instruction (about the wicked)
To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David. (12 things of fools: 5 of God). 1 Words and deeds of fools (Ps. 53:1)

[a]THE [b]fool hath [c]said in his heart, [d]There [e]is no [f]God. They are [g]corrupt, they have done abominable works, [h]there is none that doeth good.

2 God's search to find godly men on earth (Ps. 53:2)

2 The LORD [i]looked down from heaven upon the [j]children of men, [k]to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 God's discovery: all men are ungodly (Ps. 53:3)

3 They are all [l]gone aside, they are all together [m]become filthy: [n]there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 [o]Have all the workers of iniquity no [p]knowledge? who [q]eat up my people as they eat bread, and [r]call not upon the LORD.

5 There were they in great fear: for [s]God is in the [t]generation of the righteous.

6 [u]Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.

4 God's ultimate purpose: men on earth to be godly (Ps. 53:6)

★7 [v]Oh that the salvation of Is'ra-el were come out of Zi'on! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Ja'cob shall rejoice, and Is'ra-el shall be glad.

PSALM 15

Second Psalm of the Righteous
A Psalm of David. 1 The great question of man

[w]LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 God's answer: the perfect man; 12 characteristics of a righteous and perfect man

★2 [x]He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that [y]backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

▸5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that [z]doeth these things [a]shall never be moved.

PSALM 16

a Heb. nabal, stupid, wicked, impious, vile. From nabel, to fall away, lightly esteem (v 1; 39:8; 74:18, 22; 53:1; Dt. 32:6, 21; 2 Sam. 3:33; Pr. 17:7, 21; Ezek. 13:3). See notes r, b, Pr. 1:7; 15:5
b 2 things fools say:
1 There is no God (v 1; 53:1)
2 Take your ease, eat, drink, and be merry (Lk. 12:18-19)
c See 10 "lams" in error about God, p. 623
d See 10 arguments for God's existence, p. 623 e See 22 attributes of God, p. 623
f 12 characteristics of fools:
1 Deny the existence of God (v 1)
2 Live corrupt lives (v 1)
3 Do abominable works (v 1)
4 Are without understanding (v 2)
5 Ignore God - do not seek Him (v 2)
6 Are not good, not one (v 1, 3)
7 Have all gone astray from God (v 3)
8 Have become filthy in life (v 3)
9 Live in ignorance of God (v 4)
10 Destroy God's people (v 4)
11 Never pray (v 4)
12 Oppress the poor (v 5)
g Quoted in Rom. 3:10-12
h Literally, bowed Himself over to get a better and closer look of examination of men and their wicked ways (v 2; 53:2. Cp. Gen. 11:5; 18:21). Note what He saw (v 1, 3-6)
i The sons of Adam whom He created j This is what God is constantly looking for among men (33:13-14; 69:20; Job 33:27; Isa. 63:5) k This is a statement of fact - the whole race had left God and the straight way for crooked paths. Note the 12 steps in backsliding and apostasy in note f, above. The denial of God is the first step in total apostasy (Rom. 1:21-32).
l Becoming filthy is the result of forsaking God and going aside (v 3) m Quoted in Rom. 3:10-18 n Question 20. Next, 15:1
o The knowledge here is true understanding of the fear of the Lord, the beginning of wisdom (v 4; 111:10; Pr. 1:7; 9:10; 15:33; Isa. 11:2; 1 Cor. 12:8) p An idiom of destruction (Jer. 10:25; Amos 8:4; Mic. 3:3; Num. 14:9)
q The soil of prayerlessness produces a crop of sin and damnation (Gal. 6:7-8)
r This gives the reason for the terrors of judgment upon the wicked. God dwells among His people and reserves the right of vengeance for their mistreatment (Heb. 10:30-31)
s Circle or class of the righteous t Your shame of the counsel of the oppressed has been in vain, for the Lord is his refuge (v 6) u 10th prophecy in Ps. (14:7, unfulfilled) Next, 15:2. This verse is a prophetic cry for the Messiah who shall yet come to Zion and bring deliverance to Israel (Isa. 59:20-21; Rom. 11:25-29)
v Questions 21-22. Next, 18:31. The tabernacle and holy hill no doubt refer to the heavenly Mt. Zion and the city of God, the New Jerusalem, where God lives (Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 14:1, note). They are not types, but the realities themselves. The word abide means to dwell there continually, not to visit, be a guest, or spend time in worship there. The ungodly might worship in the earthly tabernacle, but one has to meet the conditions of v 2-5 to go to God's house and dwell with Him forever w 11th prophecy in Ps. (15:2-5, unfulfilled). Next, 16:5. See 12 qualifications for entering heaven, p. 624 x 12 uses of the tongue condemned:
1 Gossiping (Dt. 22:13-19)
2 Talebearing (Lev. 19:16; Pr. 11:13)
3 False witnessing (Ex. 20:16; 23:7)
4 Whisperings (Rom. 1:29)
5 Slandering (1 Tim. 3:11)
6 False accusations (Tit. 2:3)
7 Vain talking (Tit. 1:10)
8 Defaming (Jer. 20:10)
9 Tattling (1 Tim. 5:13)
10 Lying (Pr. 6:17; Rev. 21:8; 22:15)
11 Deceiving (Rev. 12:9)
12 Backbiting (v 3; Rom. 1:30)
y The O. T. requirements of salvation in the end are the same as those in the N. T. One must do, not hear only, as is required in Mt. 7:21-29; Jn. 15:10-14; Rom. 8:12-13; Jas. 1:22-27; 2:10-26; 2 Pet. 1:4-10 z On condition of doing the things of v 2-5, one will be eternally secure and unmoved (v 5; 125:1) a This is David's one request.

3 reasons for his request:
1 In Thee I put my trust. Heb. hasah, to flee for refuge to, take shelter in. Trans. trust 37 times (Dt. 32:37; Judg. 9:15; Ruth 2:12; 2 Sam. 22:3, 31; Ps. 2:12; 5:11; 7:1; 11:1; 16:1; 17:7; 18:2, 30; 25:20; 31:1, 19; 34:8, 22; 36:7; 37:40; 57:1; 61:4; 64:10; 71:1; 73:28; 91:4; 118:8-9; 141:8; 144:2; Pr. 30:5; Isa. 14:32; 30:2-3; 57:13; Nah. 1:7; Zeph. 3:12)
2 Thou art my Lord. Jehovah is my prop, my stay, and my support (v 2)
3 My goodness extendeth not to Thee--I have no goodness beyond Thee, or, my goodness comes from Thee (v 2) b As for the saints (holy ones) and the excellent ones in whom I (Jehovah) delight (v 3) they are in the earth
c Many are their sorrows that hasten after other gods (v 4) d I will not offer blood to other gods nor speak their names in worship (v 4) e 12th prophecy in Ps. (16:5-11, fulfilled in the life, death, resurrection, and exaltation of Jesus Christ. See notes on these verses). Next, 17:15

f The personal pronouns of v 5-11 refer to the Messiah. Some even think that those of v 1-4 refer to Him, but in all scriptures of double reference 2 persons must be understood. It is difficult to tell just where David is referred to and where the Messiah is exclusively meant. The general rule to follow is: take those things that could refer to David as referring to him, and those that could only refer to the Messiah as referring to Him. What could refer to both, should be taken as doing so. For example, v 5-7 could refer to both David and Messiah, but v 8-10 could only refer to Messiah for they are fulfilled in Him (Acts 2:25-28; 13:35)

20 references to Messiah (v 5-11):

1 The Lord is the portion of My inheritance, or share in life (v 5). This figure is taken from the idea of the general division of the promised land. The tribe of Levi had no inheritance, but were to live of the parts of the offerings which fell to the share of divine service. Jehovah, Himself is called their share (Dt. 10:9; 18:1-2). All Israelites were to be a kingdom of priests to God (Ex. 19:6; Jer. 10:16)
2 The Lord is the portion of My cup. A figure of salvation or deliverance (v 5; note q, Mt. 20:22)
3 God maintains that which has fallen to Me by lot (v 5). An allusion again to the division of the promised land (note 1, above). The Messiah's lot was the redemption of the race (Heb. 2:9-15)
4 The lines are fallen unto Me in pleasant places (v 6)
5 I have a goodly heritage (v 6). Again, the allusion in these last two statements is to the division of the promised land. The Messiah's heritage was the redemption of men and the restoration of the earth to God (Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21-22)
6 I will bless the Lord (v 7)
7 God has given Me counsel (v 7; Isa. 50:4; Lk. 2:40, 52)
8 My reins (thoughts) instruct Me in the night (v 7; 1:2)
9 The Lord is ever before Me (v 8)
10 He is at My right hand, i. e., I have His constant presence and support (v 8)
11 I shall not be moved (v 8; 125:1)
12 My heart is glad (v 9; Heb. 12:2)
13 My glory (tongue) rejoiceth (v 9; Acts 2:26)
14 My flesh shall rest in hope, because it shall be resurrected (v 9; Acts 2:27)
15 God will not leave My soul in hell (sheol, v 10; 9:17, note; Mt. 12:40; Eph. 4:8-10, notes)
16 My body will not be left to suffer corruption in the grave (v 10; Acts 2:25-29)
17 I am God's Holy One. He is not the Father and only person in the Godhead (v 10. See Trinity, p. 280 of N. T.)
18 God will show Me the path of life, i. e., I will be the first to be raised from the dead to immortality (v 11; 1 Cor. 15:20-23). Because of this, I shall be able to lead others out of death

Third Messianic Psalm Michtam (graven, a permanent writing) of David. 1 Concerning David, saints, and apostates aPRESERVE me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;
3 bBut to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.
4 Their csorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: dtheir drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

2 Concerning the Messiah (v 8-11 quoted, Acts 2:25-28; 13:35)

★5 eThe LORD is the portion of fmine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.
6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.
7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.
8 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.
10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to gsee corruption. John 20:9
▸11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM 17

Sixth Prayer of Distress
A Prayer of David. 1 Eight requests for God to hear: David's test and integrity aHEAR the fright, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.
3 Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.
4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.
5 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.
6 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

2 Three requests for preservation from the wicked: 5 sins of the wicked. Cp. 7: 7; 10:1; 12:1; 35:17; 50:14

7 aShew thy marvellous bloving-kindness, O thou that savest by thy cright hand them which dput their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.
8 Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings.
9 From the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.
10 They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.
11 They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;
12 gLike as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

3 Four requests for deliverance from the wicked: sixfold state of men of the world

13 Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword:
14 From men which hare thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

4 David's threefold hope

★15 iAs for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.◂

PSALM 18

First Psalm of Deliverance (Cp. 2 Sam. 22)

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the Lord, who spake unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: and he said,

1 David's God: 9 things of God (2 Sam. 22:1-3)

I WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.
2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the khorn of my salvation, and my high tower.

2 David's prayer of distress (2 Sam. 22:4-7)

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.
4 The lsorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

a 3 great blessings from God:
1 Manifestation of loving-kindness (v 2 Being kept from harm (v 8) 7) 3 Being hid in the shadow of His wings (v 8; Ps. 91:1-10).

b Heb. chesed, kindness, beauty, favor, mercy, pity. Trans. loving-kindness 30 times (v 7; 25:6; 26:3; 36:7, 10; 40:10, 11; 42:8; 48:9; 51:1; 63:3; 69:16; 88:11; 89:33,49; 92:2; 103:4; 107:43; 119:88,149,159; 138:2; 143:8; Isa. 63:7; Jer. 9:24; 16:5; 31:3; 32:18; Hos. 2:19). Some translations read, Make thy Holy One a wonder and a saviour to those who trust. Others, Distinguish thy holy ones, or Do wonders to those who trust in thee. Whatever the rendering, the thought is deliverance from enemies (v 7-14)

c The right hand of God is frequently mentioned as the instrument of deliverance (v 7; 44:3; 98:1; Judg. 7:2; Isa. 59:1)

d Flee for refuge to (note a, 16:1)

e Heb. ishon, the little man of the eye; the pupil or ball of the eye (v 8; Dt. 32:10; Pr. 7:2). It is an idiom meaning what is dearest to us and that which must have extreme care and protection. If the eye is lost one is blind and handicapped forever. God in creation saw to it that the eye was well protected, being deeply entrenched in the skull and where the hands could easily protect it. He designed it to be further protected from dust and other harm by the eyelashes, eyelids, and eyebrows

f This figure is taken from the hen who protects the chickens under her wings. It is frequently used of God's protection (v 7; 36:7; 57:1; 61:4; 63:7; 91:4; Mt. 23:37). Both figures - this and the apple of the eye - are used together in Dt. 32:10-11

g This refers to the prosperity (v 10; 22:29; 92:14; 119:70; Pr. 11:25; 13:4) and dulness of his enemies (Isa. 6:10)

h David's enemies were lurking for him like a lion for his prey (v 9-11)

i This no doubt refers to Saul chasing David to destroy him (v 7-14; 1 Sam. 24:1-22; 26:1-25)

j This should read, From men, by Thy hand, i. e., deliver me from men by Thy hand; from men of the world - mortal men of time - men of temporal life. The rest of this verse expresses the idea that God gives the worldly minded the portion they have chosen - children in abundance and prosperity enough to leave them much. This is their portion in this life (v 14)

k 13th prophecy in Ps. (17:15, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the resurrection). Next, 18:50. Nothing but God can satisfy the immortal spirit. Bodily we shall be like Jesus (Phil. 3:21)

l See 8 things God is to His people, p. 624

m Quoted in Lk. 1:69

n Heb. cheibel, cords, throes, pains, pangs, sorrows - of death set by Saul (1 Sam. 20:1-26:25)

o This refers to the troops of Saul rushing upon David like a torrent or the waves of the sea so as to overwhelm him, but God turned the flood aside and he escaped (1 Sam. 24 and 26)

19 Fulness of joy is in God's presence so I look forward to eternal happiness (v 11; Heb. 12:2)
20 I will also have eternal pleasures with God (v 11)

g This refers to the body, proving that Christ came from the grave bodily and not as an invisible spirit, as some cults teach. See note k, Jn. 21:14

h Note the 8 requests of David, which are self explanatory (17:1-6)

i 10 facts about David:
1 Right - righteousness (v 1)
2 Cry - desperate in prayer (v 1)
3 Unfeigned lips - sincerity (v 1)
4 Proved - a tested man (v 3)
5 Find nothing - innocent (v 3)
6 Purposed - consecrated mouth (v 3)
7 Not transgress - sinless life (v 3)
8 Kept - victorious in temptation (v 4)
9 Thou wilt hear - confidence in God and answered prayer (v 6)
10 Trust - full of trust in God (v 7) a Heb. chebel, cords, throes, pangs, sorrows. This proves sheol could not be the grave. In geber, the grave, there is no sorrow or consciousness, for the body only goes there. In sheol, the spirit-world of those who have left their bodies, there is full consciousness (see Hell, p. 620-622)

b Heb. mogesh, noose, hook, snare. The Heb. word is generally used of traps set to destroy lives of men and beasts 12 things that ensnare men:
1 Hardening the heart (Ex. 10:1, 7)
2 Idolatry (Ex. 23:33; 34:12; Dt. 7:16; Judg. 2:3; 8:27; Ps. 106:36)
3 Jealousy (1 Sam. 18:6-21)
4 Any means causing death (v 5; 2 Sam. 22:6; Pr. 13:14; 14:27)
5 Wicked plotting against the just (Ps. 64:6)
6 Sin (Ps. 69:22)
7 A fool's lips (Pr. 18:7)
8 Indiscretion, irreverence (Pr. 20:25)
9 Anger (Pr. 22:25)
10 Evil acts (Pr. 29:6-8)
11 Fear of man (Pr. 29:25)
12 Rejection of Christ (Isa. 8:14-16) c Heb. qadam, to anticipate or go before (v 5, 18; 21:3; 59:10; 79:8; 88:13; 119:147-148; 2 Sam. 22:6, 19; Job 3:12; 30:27) d 2 things to do in time of distress:
1 Pray - call upon the Lord (v 6)
2 Be desperate - cry unto God (v 6)
Note the results of such prayer and desperation (v 6-20)
e Heb. hekal, palace, temple. The temple in heaven where God has His throne, where He is worshipped by the heavenly hosts, and from which He rules the universe (v 6; Isa. 6:1; Rev. 7:15; 11:19; 14:15, 17; 15:5-8; 16:1, 17)
f THEN: when God heard my desperate cry
g 10 material manifestations of God:
1 The earth shook and trembled (v 7)
2 The hills moved and were shaken (v 7)
3 The heavens were bowed down (v 9)
4 Darkness appeared (v 9-11)
5 A cyclone went forth (v 11)
6 Clouds passed swiftly by (v 12)
7 Hail stones fell (v 12-13)
8 Lightning flashed (v 12-14)
9 Mighty thunders were heard (v 13)
10 An earthquake rent the earth (v 15)
h 25 personal manifestations of God:
1 He was wroth (v 7)
2 Smoke came out of His nostrils (v 7). Among ancients the nose was the seat and organ of wrath. Cp. Ps. 74:1; Dt. 29:20
3 Fire came out of His mouth (v 7)
4 Coals of fire were kindled by Him (v 8)
5 He came down (v 9)
6 He stood on darkness (v 9)
7 He rode a cherub and did fly (v 10. Cp. Ezek. 1:4-24)
8 He rode the wind (v 10)
9 He made darkness His secret place (v 11)
10 He made dark waters and thick clouds His pavilion (v 11. Cp. Nah. 1:3)
11 Brightness paved the way before Him through the darkness (v 12)
12 He caused hail and lightnings to pass by (v 12-14)
13 He thundered in the heavens (v 13)
14 He spake with an audible voice (v 13)
15 He rebuked the earth (v 15)
16 He blasted the earth with His breath until the waters and foundations were seen (v 15)
17 He sent me help from above (v 16)
18 He saved me from many waters (v 16) 17)
19 He delivered me from enemies (v
20 He was my stay in trouble (v 18)
21 He enlarged my place (v 19)
22 He delivered me (v 19)
23 He delighted in me (v 19) 20) 24 He rewarded my righteousness (v 25 He recompensed me for my cleanness (v 20)
i 7 bodily parts of God:
1 Nostrils (v 8)
2 Mouth (v 8)
3 Feet (v 9)
4 Body (v 11-12)
5 Voice (v 13)
6 Breath (v 16)
7 Arms (v 16) See note r, Jn. 4:24

k 6fold testimony of David:
1 I kept the ways of the Lord (v 21)

5 The [a]sorrows of hell compassed me about: the [b]snares of death [c]prevented me.
6 [d]In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his [e]temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

3 God's answer: 35 miraculous manifestations (2 Sam. 22:8-21)

7 [f]Then the [g]earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because [h]he was wroth.
8 There went up a smoke out of his [i]nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.
9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.
10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.
11 He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.
12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.
13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.
14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.
15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.
16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.
17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.
18 They [j]prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.
19 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.
20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

4 Testimony: 5 practices (2 Sam. 22:22-25)

21 [k]For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.
23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.
24 Therefore [l]hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

5 God's fifteenfold character (2 Sam. 22:26-28)

25 With the [a]merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an [b]upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;
26 With the [c]pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the [d]froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.
27 For thou wilt [e]save the [f]afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.
28 For thou wilt [g]light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
29 For [h]by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.
30 As for God, his way is [i]perfect: the word of the LORD [j]is tried: he is a [k]buckler to all those that trust in him.
31 [l]For who is [m]God save the LORD? or who is a [n]rock save our God?

6 God's 21 blessings (2 Sam. 22:33-51)

32 It is God [o]that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.
33 He maketh my feet like [p]hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.
34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of [q]steel is broken by mine arms.
35 Thou hast also given me the [r]shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath [s]holden me up, and thy [t]gentleness hath made me great.
36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.
37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.
38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.
39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.
40 Thou hast also given me the [u]necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.
41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.
42 Then did I beat them small [v]as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.
43 Thou hast delivered me from the [w]strivings of the people; and thou hast made me [x]the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.
44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me.
45 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.
46 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my [y]rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.
47 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people

6 Eternal (v 9)
7 True (v 9)
8 Altogether righteous (v 9)
9 Sweeter than honey and the honeycomb (v 10) p 6 blessings of the Word of God:
1 Converting the soul of those who return to God as the sun returns in the heavens (v 7)
2 Making the simple wise (v 7)
3 Rejoicing the heart (v 8)
4 Enlightening the eyes as the sun enlightens all living things on earth (v 8)
5 Warning the servants (v 11)
6 Rewarding the obedient (v 11). By living in the Word as the sun does in the heavens, and by keeping watch, as the observers do the heavenly bodies, one is blessed q The secret of blessing by the Word of God (v 10; note b, Pr. 2:9)
r Question 25, Next, 22:1. This cannot be done except by the Word (v 7–11) s 5 desires of the righteous:
1 Cleanse me from secret faults (v 12)
2 Keep me from presumptuous sins (v
3 Let sin not dominate (v 13) 13)
4 Let words be acceptable to God (v 14)
5 Let meditations of the heart be acceptable to God (v 14)
t Secret faults refer to those deeply imbedded traits that have not come to the surface or manifested themselves in life and conduct, and also to those secret things of life that one may be conscious of and may be hiding from public view u See Presumptuous sins, p. 624 v Much transgression, habitual sinning under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the [c]violent man.
49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.
★50 [b]Great deliverance giveth he to [c]his king; and sheweth mercy to[d]his anointed, to Dā'vid, and to his seed for evermore.

PSALM 19

Second Prayer-Praise Psalm
To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David. 1 The heavens: 6 blessings

THE heavens [c]declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.
2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.
3 There is no speech nor language, where [e]their voice is not heard.
4 Their [f]line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In [h]them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
5 Which is [i]as a bridegroom coming out of his [j]chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.
6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and [k]his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is [l]nothing hid from the[m]heat thereof.

2 The Word: 6 titles and 6 blessings

▸7 [n]The law of the LORD is [o]perfect, [p]converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.
▸8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.
▸9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be [q]desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

3 Prayer: 5 requests and 6 blessings

12 [r]Who can understand his errors? [s]cleanse thou me from secret [t]faults.
13 Keep back thy servant also from [u]presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the[v]great transgression.
14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

PSALM 20

Second Psalm of Trust
To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David. 1 Six things in which we may trust: His name, sanctuary, sacrifice, salvation, prayer, and power (3:3; 61:3; 62:1; 63:1)

THE LORD [a]hear thee in the [b]day of trouble; the [c]name of the [d]God of Jā'cob [c]defend thee;
2 Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zi'ŏn;
3 [f]Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice; Sē'lah.
4 [g]Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.
5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.
6 Now know I that the LORD saveth [h]his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the [i]saving strength of his right hand.

2 Contrasted trusts: results

7 [j]Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.
8 [k]They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.
9 Save, LORD: let the [l]king hear us when we call.

PSALM 21

Fourth Messianic Psalm
To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David. 1 The coronation: 8 things God has done for the Messiah

★THE [m]king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
2 [o]Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Sē'lah.
3 For thou [p]preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.
4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever.
5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.
6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.
7 For the king trusteth in the LORD, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.

2 The reign: 8 things God will do for the king

8 [q]Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

a 7 statements of trust and confidence:
1 The Lord hears in time of trouble (v 1; 34:15, 17–19; 37:39; 59:16)
2 His name will defend you (v 1; 82:3)
3 He will send help from the sanctuary (v 2; 77:13; 96:6; Heb. 8:2)
4 He will strengthen you out of Zion (v 2; 50:2; Isa. 2:3; 59:20)
5 The Lord fulfill all thy petitions (v 5; 34:9–10; 84:11; Mt. 21:22)
6 He will hear from heaven (v 6)
7 God is our trust (v 7; 125:1)
b The day of trouble is found 12 times (v 1; 50:15; 59:16; 102:2; 2 Ki. 19:3; Isa. 22:5; 37:3; Jer. 51:2; Ezek. 7:7; Nah. 1:7; Hab. 3:16; Zeph. 1:15) and the time of trouble 14 times (Neh. 9:27; Job 38:23; Ps. 9:9; 10:1; 27:5; 41:1; 77:2; 86:7; Jer. 2:27–28; 11:12; 14:8; 30:7; Dan. 12:1). The last two passages refer to the future great tribulation during which Rev. 11–19 will be fulfilled
c 3 blessings of the name of the Lord:
1 A defense (v 1) 5)
2 A standard around which to fight (v
3 A trust and means of deliverance (v 7)
d This title is found 13 times (v 1; 46:7, 11; 75:9; 76:6; 81:1,4; 84:8; 94:7; 114:7; 146:5; Isa. 2:3; Mic. 4:2). This is the God who met Jacob when he had nothing and deserved nothing (but wrath), and who gave him everything. It is the equivalent of the N.T. God of all grace (1 Pet. 5:10)
e To this day among some tribes, it is said that calling out the name of a chief or person of rank and power can bring protection to one in danger of violence from an enemy f 2 kinds of offerings here (v 3):
1 Gratitude offerings – no blood offerings were made with these 2 Burnt offerings – blood sacrifices. These were the basis of all answered prayer in the O.T. program g Perhaps the words of the high priest to the people after offering their sacrifices (v 4–5)
h His Messiah (v 6; 2:2; 18:50; 28:8; 45:7; 84:9; 105:15)
i An idiom meaning God's almighty power
j 3 sources of trust or confidence:
1 Chariots (v 7; Isa. 31:1; 36:9)
2 Horses (v 7; 33:17; 147:10)
3 The name of the Lord (v 7)
k This shows the result of trust in horses or chariots and trust in God (v 8) l Here God is addressed as King (v 9; 5:2; 10:16; 24:7–10; 29:10; 44:4; 47:2–7; 48:2; 68:24; 74:12; 84:3; 89:18; 95:3; 98:6; 145:1; 149:2) m 15th prophecy in Ps. (21:1–13, partially fulfilled in David, but to be completely fulfilled in David's Son – the Messiah. V 1–7 have been fulfilled. V 8–13 are unfulfilled). Next, 22:1
n This is no doubt an example where the law of double reference applies – both David and Messiah are in view, as is clear from the Psalm. Cp. Mt. 16:23, note x. In v 1 and 7 we have the joy and trust in God that enables one to be stable in the faith
o 8 past blessings God has 1 Given the heart's desire (v 2)
2 Not withheld answers to prayer (v 2)
3 Given blessings of goodness (v 3)
4 Crowned with a crown of gold (v 3)
5 Given eternal resurrection life (v 4)
This refers only to Messiah, not David (Acts 2:27–32)
6 Given glory and honor. This applies particularly to Messiah (Heb. 2:7–18)
7 Blessed forever (v 6). This could not apply to David, but to Messiah (Eph. 1:21–23; Phil. 2:9–11; 1 Pet. 3:22)
8 Made Him exceedingly glad (v 6; Heb. 12:1–2) p See note c, 18:5
q 8 future blessings God will 1 Find out His enemies (v 8)
2 Find out those who hate Him (v 8)
3 Consume them in His anger (v 9)
4 Swallow them up in His wrath (v 9)
5 Burn them with fire (v 9)
6 Destroy their offspring (v 10)
7 Destroy their seed from among men (v 10)
8 Make them flee in defeat (v 12)

a Here David, by the Holy Ghost, speaks of hell as being like a fiery oven (v 9). Christ calls it a furnace of fire (Mt. 13:42, 50; 25:41, 46)

b Heb. bala, to make away with; destroy. It is never used of annihilation, but figuratively of ruin, being marred, punished (v 9; 35:25; 2 Sam. 20:19; 20:20; Eccl. 10:12; Isa. 25:8; 28:7; 49:19; Lam. 2:2, 5, 16)

c Heb. akal, to eat, consume, devour. Used in a figurative sense as bala in note b, above (v 9; 79:7; Pr. 30:14; Isa. 9:12; Ezek. 36:14; etc.)

d 16th prophecy in Ps. (22:1, fulfilled, Mt. 27:46; Mk. 15:34). Next, v 6

e Questions 26–27. Next, 24:3

f Heb. shegagah, lamentation, moaning. Used of the roar of a lion (Job 4:10; Isa. 5:29; Ezek. 19:6–7; Zech. 11:3) and of lamentations (v 1; 32:3; Job 3:24)

g V 2–5 are David's own experience, not that of Messiah, for he is not heard (v 2). God has always heard the Messiah (Jn. 11:42)

h This is the right attitude toward God. Though prayer is not heard (v 2), yet thou art holy (v 3). Men should refrain from laying charge to God if prayer is not heard, for either sin (Ps. 66:18) or unbelief is to blame (Mt. 17:20; Jas. 1:5–8)

i David uses the record of past answers as a basis of prayer (v 4–5)

j 17th prophecy in Ps. (22:6–31, v 6–21 are fulfilled in Christ's 1st advent, v 22–31 will be fulfilled at His 2nd advent). Next, 23:6

k 30 facts – sufferings of Messiah, p. 624

l Heb. tola, a maggot, the crimson-grub, a coccus worm. It is used in making dye of scarlet color. The word is trans. crimson 1 time (Isa. 1:18); scarlet 31 times (Ex. 25:4; 26:1, 31, 36; 27:16; etc.); and worm 6 times:

1 Of worms in food and plants (Ex. 16:20; Dt. 28:39; Jon. 4:7)

2 Of man in his unclean, sinful state as contrasted with God (Job 25:6; Isa. 41:14)

3 Of the conscience or never-dying souls of men in hell (Isa. 14:11; 66:24. Cp. Mk. 9:43–48)

4 Of Christ, meaning that He took the lowest place among men to be rejected, scorned, spit upon, and even humiliated to infamy and shame for them (v 6. Cp. Phil. 2:5–8; 1 Pet. 2:24; Isa. 49:7; 52:14; 53:1–12)

m Heb. ish, the word for man when used of great men in contrast with ordinary men (Ps. 49:2; 62:9; Isa. 2:9; 5:15; 31:8), and when angels and God are spoken of as man (Ex. 15:3; Josh. 5:13; Dan. 9:21; 10:5; 12:6–7; Zech. 1:8). It should read, "I am the lowest of the people, and no great man" n These verses show the Father and Son relationship between God and Messiah from the womb (v 9–10. Cp. Isa. 50:4–6; Lk. 2:40, 52). They confirm the humanity of Christ – God manifest in flesh (Isa. 7:14; Mt. 1:23; Lk. 1:32–35; 2:40–52; Jn. 1:1–2, 14; Rom. 1:1–2; 8:3; 9:5; Gal. 4:4; 1 Tim. 3:16)

o Proving He was alone in His work

p Bulls are emblems of brutal strength. They gore and trample down all before them. Bashan was a district east of Jordan where the largest and fattest cattle were raised. Strong bulls of Bashan symbolize the head-strong rulers of Israel determined to destroy the Messiah (Mt. 27:1–66; Acts 2:36; 3:13–18; 4:10, 27)

q They opened their mouths to devour Me like a ravening lion (v 13)

r I am (My life blood is) poured out like water (v 14; Jn. 19:34)

s This would naturally be the condition of the limp, lifeless body of Jesus hanging by nails in His hands and feet (v 14, 16; Jn. 20:25; Col. 2:14)

t An idiom meaning complete surrender; no retaliation left (v 14; Josh. 7:5)

u This refers to the Messiah giving up His life for men (v 15)

v The mouth was so dry He could hardly speak (v 15; Jn. 19:28)

w This does not mean that Christ saw corruption, for He did not (16:10), but He was brought down to death and His body was like that of Adam before God breathed into it (Gen. 2:7)

x Referring to the Gentiles who were called dogs and who compassed Christ to crucify Him (v 16; Mt. 15:26–27; 20:19; Acts 4:27)

9 Thou shalt make them[a] as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall[b] swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall[c] devour them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

PSALM 22

Fifth Messianic Psalm

To the chief Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar (hind of the morning). A Psalm of David. 1 Twenty-seven sufferings of the Messiah

1 [a][b]MY God, my God,[c] why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my [d]roaring?

2 O my God,[e] I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent.

3 [f]But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of [g]Is'ra-el.

4 [h]Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 [i]But I am a [j]worm, and[m] no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8 He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

9 [n]But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is[o] none to help.

12 Many [p]bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Ba'shan have beset me round.

13 They[q] gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 [r]I am poured out like water, and [s]all my bones are out of joint: [t]my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 [u]My strength is dried up like a potsherd; [v]and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; [w]and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 [x]For dogs have compassed me: the[y] assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: [z]they pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all[a] my bones: they look and stare upon me.

18 They [b]part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

2 Fivefold prayer of the Messiah

19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my [c]darling from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the [d]horns of the unicorns.

3 Twentyfold glory and exaltation of the Messiah

22 [e]I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Ja'cob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Is'ra-el.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard.

25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

▸26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

28 For the kingdom is the LORD's: and he is the governor among the nations.

29 All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.

30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation.

31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

PSALM 23

Sixth Messianic Psalm
A Psalm of David
Sevenfold ministry: 14 blessings of the Messiah

1 [f]THE [g]LORD is my [h]shepherd; [i]I shall not want.◂

▸2 [j]He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

▸3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

▸4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for a Mt. 27:20, 24; Acts 2:36; 4:27

b Mt. 27:35; Jn. 19:37; 20:20–25 c His form was out of shape, limp and hanging by nails in His hands and feet. The whole description is by crucifixion only d 5 scriptures in Ps. 22 quoted in N. T.:

1 My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me (v 1; Mt. 27:46; Mk. 15:34)?
2 He trusted on the Lord that He would deliver Him (v 8; Mt. 27:43; Mk. 15:29; Lk. 23:35)
3 They pierced My hands (v 16; Jn. 19:37)
4 They parted My garments (v 18; Mt. 27:35; Mk. 15:24; Lk. 23:34; Jn. 19:24)
5 I will declare Thy name unto My brethren (v 22; Heb. 2:12)

e Heb. yachid, only one, referring to the soul of the previous statement – My soul, My darling (v 20). Used in this same sense in Ps. 35:17. The word dog no doubt has the same meaning as in v 16, and, if it is figuratively used here of Gentiles, then the word in the singular would refer to the one man that had the power of life and death over Christ to save or to crucify him – the Roman governor, Pilate. In Ps. 35:17 it is "my soul. . . my darling from the lions." Even here the prayer continues with pleading to be saved from the lion's mouth (v 20–21). This could only refer to Satan who tried to kill Christ in the garden before getting to the cross to defeat all powers of darkness. Satan is compared to a lion in 2 Tim. 4:17; 1 Pet. 5:8

f If the horns here refer to those of the bulls of Bashan of v 12, then it simply means that God has heard the Messiah in the very midst of His enemies who seek to destroy Him (Heb. 5:7). The Peshitta says, "Save my meekness from the haughty, that I may declare thy name to my brethren" (v 21–22)

g 20 blessings of Millennium, p. 624

h This is the John 10 of the O. T. Here we have the sheep experiencing the more abundant life provided for them by the Messiah (v 1–6; Jn. 10:1–18)

i Heb. Jehovah-Ro'i, the Lord My Shepherd. This is one of the Jehovah titles. See note, Gen. 22:14

j God is called the Shepherd of Israel (Gen. 49:24; Ps. 80:1; Isa. 40:9–11). He predicts setting over them one shepherd who will be true to Israel (Ezek. 34:23; 37:24; Zech. 13:7; Mt. 26:31)

k The doctrine of supplying lawful wants as well as needs is taught in both testaments (v 1; 34:9–10; 84:11; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22–24; Lk. 11:9–13; Jn. 15:7, 16; 16:23–26; Jas. 1:5–8; 1 Jn. 3:20–22; 5:13–14; 3 Jn. 2)

l 14 blessings of sheep: They have 1 The Lord as their Shepherd (v 1)
2 No want (v 1; 34:9–10; 84:11)
3 Rest in choice green pastures (v 2)
4 Guidance to still, deep, waters of rest and refreshing (v 2. Cp. Jn. 4:14; 7:37–39)
5 Restoration of soul (v 3)
6 Guidance in paths of right for His name's sake, which gives no cause for stumbling, falling or going astray (v 3)
7 Safe passage through the valley of the shadow of death – the deep, waterless, gloomy, wild, beast-infested, rocky, dangerous, death-lurking ravine so common in Palestine (v 4)
8 No fear of evil because of the Shepherd's constant companionship, watch, and protection (v 4)
9 The comfort of the Shepherd's rod and staff (club and crook, the only two things carried by shepherds for defense and help – the club for the sheep's enemies and the crook for the sheep's protection, v 4)
10 Prepared and full tables of food to feast on in the presence of enemies (v 5). They feast in safety while the Shepherd watches, fights, and protects 11 Heads anointed with perfumed oil (v 5). This preceded feasts of ancient times (Ps. 104:15; Mt. 26:6–7; Mk. 14:8; Lk. 7:45–50)
12 Cups running over (v 5). Not only plenty of food, but plenty of wholesome drink
13 Confidence that such goodness and mercy will follow them to the end of life (v 6)
14 Faith that in the next life they will dwell in God's house forever (v 6; Jn. 14:1–3; Heb. 11:10–16; 14:13; Rev. 21–22)

a 18th prophecy in Ps (23:6, being fulfilled and will be completely fulfilled in all who go to live in the house of the Lord forever - v 6; Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 21-22). Next, 24:1

b 19th prophecy in Ps (24:1-10, unfulfilled). Next, 27:2. This prophecy is in 3 parts, as seen in the outline of the psalm c God created the earth (Gen. 1:1), so it legally belongs to Him (v 1). It is now in rebellion against Him, being dominated more or less, by Satan and evil spirit forces (2 Cor. 4:4; Eph. 2:2; 1 Jn. 5:19). God's position now is that He faces sending an expeditionary force from heaven to dispossess Satan and put down all rebellion. This is the purpose of the 2nd advent of Christ (Zech. 14:1-5, 9, 14-21; Mt. 13:39-50; 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21). Christ will take over the governments of this world for God and will rule to put all enemies down and restore God's dominion as before rebellion started (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10). Then the earth will become the Lord's without opposition. All who will then live on it will be saved and will carry out the program God intended Adam to carry out before he sinned (Gen. 1:26-31; Acts 3:21; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 21-22; Isa. 66:22-24). By virtue of His creation and ownership He has a right to dispossess Satan and evil men so as to continue His original program (v 1-2) d Questions 28-29. Next, v 8. The holy place refers to the capital building of Christ (Ezek. 43:5; 48:1-35) and to the heavenly city (Heb. 12:22-23)

e The type of people that will inherit the earth and multiply and replenish it forever (v 4-6; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; 2 Pet. 3:13; Rev. 21:3-7, 21-27; 22:1-5)

4 qualifications for eternal life:
1 He that has clean hands (v 4; 15:1-5)
2 He that has a pure heart (v 4; 51:7; Mal. 3:2-3; Mt. 5:8; Jn. 15:3)
3 He that has not exalted his soul to vanity of idols and sin (v 4; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Heb. 12:14)
4 He that is truthful (v 4; Rev. 21:8)

f This is the reward of meeting the 4 qualifications of v 4; 15:1-5 (v 5-6)

g This term is used in 22:30 of the eternal people on the new and etemal earth (2 Pet. 3:13; Rev. 21-22; Isa. 66:22-24)

h Here we have the identification of the eternal ruler on the eternal earth (v 7-10). God is the head of Christ (1 Cor. 11:3; 15:24-28), but both will reign forever (Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)

i The future eternal doors or entrances to the eternal temple (Ezek. 43:5) and the eternal city (Rev. 21:9-27)

j Questions 30-31. Next, 25:12. This twice repeated question (v 8, 10) introduces the revelation, who the King of glory is. He is the strong Lord, the mighty Lord of battle, and the Lord of hosts (v 8, 10; Ex. 15:3; Zech. 14:3) k God the Father is the one we are instructed to pray to (Jn. 16:23-26)

l 12 requests of David to God:
1 Let me not be ashamed (v 2)
2 Let not my enemies triumph (v 2)
3 Let none who pray be ashamed (v 3)
4 Let sinners be ashamed (v 3)
5 Show me Your ways (v 4)
6 Teach me Your paths (v 4)
7 Lead me into truth (v 5)
8 Teach me truth (v 5)
9 Remember Your mercies (v 6) 6)
10 Remember Your lovingkindness (v
11 Remember not my youthful sins (v 7) (v 7)
12 Remember for Your goodness' sake

m Waiting on God all day was one of David's secrets of being a man after God's own heart (v 3, 5, 21; 27:14; 33:20; 37:7, 9, 34; 40:1; 52:9; 59:9; 61:1; 62:5; 69:6; 130:5-6) thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

▸5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
★6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.◂

PSALM 24

First Psalm of God
A Psalm of David. 1 God's right to the earth

★ THE earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.
2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

2 Character of God's people

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?
▸4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.
▸5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Já'cob. Sē'lah.

3 Earth's future ruler revealed (Rev. 22:4-5)

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.
8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.
9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.
10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Sē'lah.

PSALM 25

Seventh Prayer of Distress
A Psalm of David. 1 Twelve requests of God

UNTO thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.
3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.
4 Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.
5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.
6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.
7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

2 Sixfold instruction and prayer for sinners

▸8 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.
▸9 The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.
▸10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
11 For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

3 Sixfold blessing to those who repent and fear God

▸12 What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.
▸13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.
▸14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.
15 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

4 Twelve requests of God

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.
17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.
18 Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.
19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.
20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.
21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.
22 Redeem Is'ra-el, O God, out of all his troubles.

PSALM 26

First Prayer-Testimony Psalm
A Psalm of David
(Nine requests; tenfold testimony; eightfold vow)

JUDGE me, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide.
2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.
3 For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth.
4 I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.
5 I have hated the congregation of evildoers; and will not sit with the wicked.

a God created all things for His own pleasure and glory, and that He might make Himself known by manifesting His goodness (Col. 1:15-16; Rev. 4:11). It is, therefore, proper to use this as the basis of answered prayer (v 7)

b 4 things prove God is good: He will 1 Teach sinners His way (v 8)
2 Guide the meek in judgment (v 9)
3 Teach His way to the meek (v 9)
4 Manifest mercy and truth to those who keep His covenant (v 10) c 10 blessings of the meek:

1 Satisfaction (22:26)
2 Guidance in judgment (25:9)
3 Knowledge of God (25:9)
4 Earth as an inheritance (37:11; Mt. 5:5)
5 Salvation (76:9; 149:4) 5:5)
6 Help from God (147:6)
7 Increased joy (Isa. 29:19)
8 Holy Spirit (Gal. 5:22-23)
9 A blessing to others (Gal. 6:1)
10 Patience (2 Tim. 2:24-25)

10 examples of meekness
1 Abraham (Gen. 13:8)
2 Isaac (Gen. 26:20-22)
3 Moses (Ex. 2:13; 14:13-14; 15:24; 16:7-8; 17:2; Num. 12:3; 16:4-11)
4 Gideon (Judg. 8:2-3)
5 Hannah (1 Sam. 1:13-16)
6 Saul (1 Sam. 10:27)
7 David (1 Sam. 17:29; 2 Sam. 16:9-14; Ps. 38:13-14; 120:5-7)
8 Paul (Acts 21:20-22; 1 Th. 2:7; 2 Tim. 4:16)
9 Thessalonians (2 Th. 1:4)
10 Jesus Christ (Isa. 42:1-4; 53:7; Mt. 11:28-30; 26:47-54)

d This is an O. T. prayer for forgiveness (v 11). Cp. it with the N. T. (Lk. 18:13). Salvation in both testaments has been on the same basis (Ps. 51; Rom. 10:9-10; Gal. 3:8; Eph. 2:8-9; Heb. 4:1; 1 Jn. 1:9)

e Question 32. Next, 27:1. This confirms the often repeated statement that God will give truth to honest seekers (v 12, 14)

f 5 blessings to him who fears God:
1 He will be taught by God (v 12)
2 He will be safe and at peace (v 13)
3 His children will be blessed (v 13)
4 He will know God's secrets (v 14)
5 He will know God's covenant (v 14)

g 2 important things David did:
1 Walked upon God (v 3, 5, 21) (v 15)
2 Kept his mind and eyes toward God

h This was David's constant faith in God

i 12 requests of David to God:
1 Turn unto me (v 16)
2 Have mercy on me (v 16)
3 Bring me out of distresses (v 17)
4 Look upon my affliction (v 18)
5 Look upon my pain (v 18)
6 Forgive my sins (v 18)
7 Consider my enemies (v 19)
8 Keep my soul (v 20)
9 Deliver me (v 20)
10 Let me not be ashamed (v 20)
11 Let integrity preserve me (v 21)
12 Redeem Israel from trouble (v 22)

j 9 requests of David to God:
1 Judge me (v 1)
2 Examine me (v 2)
3 Prove me (v 2)
4 Try my reins (v 2)
5 Try my heart (v 2)
6 Gather not my life with sinners (v 9)
7 Gather not my life with bloody men
8 Redeem me (v 11) (v 9)
9 Be merciful to me (v 11)

k David's 10fold testimony:
1 I have walked in integrity (v 1)
2 Trusted in the Lord (v 1)
3 I will not slide (v 1)
4 I have kept Your lovingkindness before me (v 3)
5 Walked in Your truth (v 3)
6 Not sat with vain persons (v 4)
7 Hated evildoers (v 5) (v 8)
8 Loved the habitation of Your house
9 Loved the place of Your honor (v 8)
10 My foot stands in an even place (v 12)

l Kidneys and heart. An idiom for thoughts (v 2) m 8fold vow of David: I will 1 Not go with dissemblers (v 4)

2 Not sit with the wicked (v 5)
3 Wash my hands in innocency (v 6)
4 Compass Your altar (v 6)
5 Give thanks with my voice (v 7)
6 Tell of Your wondrous works (v 7)
7 Walk in my integrity (v 11) 12)
8 Bless You in the congregations (v a It is not necessary to assign this psalm to a period after David and the building of the temple, for altars were in use from Abel's day (Gen. 4). The tabernacle of Moses had an altar (Ex. 27:1–8) b Not the temple, but David's tabernacle in Zion where the ark was (2 Sam. 6) c God promised to dwell between the cherubim on the mercy seat (Ex. 25:10–22). This ark and the mercy seat which was its lid were the symbols of God's presence among men d The two main tools of the wicked are plunder and bribery (v 10) e Heb. zimmah, wicked thought or device (v 10; 119:150; Pr. 10:23) f In all my public trust I will walk uprightly and pay strict attention to truth, justice, and mercy. I will not plan evil, use public trust to enrich myself, or give bribes as the wicked do (v 10–11)

g I stand firm (on principles of note f, above) and will not turn aside (v 12)
h David's 10fold confidence in God:
1 The Lord is my light (v 1)
2 My salvation (v 1)
3 My trust (v 1)
4 My strength (v 1)
5 My life (v 1)
6 My confidence (v 1)
7 My protector from the wicked (v 2)
8 My protector from enemies (v 2)
9 My refuge from the multitudes (v 3) 10 My help in war (v 3)
i Questions 33–34. Next, 30:9
j 20th prophecy in Ps. (27:2, fulfilled in Christ, Jn. 18:6). Next, 34:19 k 3fold desire of David (v 4):
1 To dwell in God's house until death
2 To behold the beauty of the Lord
3 To enquire in His temple
This will I seek after. The temple here may refer to God's palace in heaven, not to Solomon's temple which was yet to be built. Or, it may refer to the tabernacle of worship among Israel at that time. See note l, below l Heb. hekal, palace, temple. It is trans. temple referring to the tabernacle of worship (1 Sam. 1:9; 3:3). In this sense it could be understood in Ps. 5:7; 11:4; 18:6; 27:4; 29:9; 48:9; 65:4; 68:29; 79:1; 138:2. That this temple was in Jerusalem is clear from Ps. 68:29. The word is also used of God's temple in heaven (Isa. 6:1. Cp. Rev. 3:12; 7:15; 11:19; 14:15, 17; 15:5–8; 16:1, 17). In all other places it refers to the temple of Solomon or later temples at Jerusalem (1 Kl. 6:3–33; 7:21, 50; etc.)
m 4fold confidence in God during trouble:
1 He will hide me in His pavilion (v 5)
2 In the secret of His tabernacle (v 5)
3 He will set me upon a rock (v 5)
4 He will lift me above my enemies who are around me (v 6) n Because of God's protection I will offer sacrifices of joy and sing praises to Him (v 6)
o 10 requests of God by David:
1 Hear when I cry (v 7)
2 Have mercy upon me (v 7)
3 Answer me (v 7)
4 Hide not Your face from me (v 9)
5 Put not Your servant away in anger (v 9)
6 Leave me not (v 9) (v 9)
7 Neither forsake me (v 9)
8 Teach me Your way (v 11)
9 Lead me in a plain path (v 11)
10 Deliver me not to the will of my enemies (v 12) p This is what God has demanded of men from the beginning of His written revelation (Dt. 4:29; 12:5; 1 Chr. 16:11; 2 Chr. 14:4; Ps. 105:4; Isa. 55:6; Zeph. 2:3; Mt. 6:33; Col. 3:1) 12 things promised seekers:
1 God will be found (Dt. 4:29; 1 Chr. 28:9; 2 Chr. 15:2; Jer. 29:13) 7:14)
2 God will hear from heaven (2 Chr.
3 Forgiveness (2 Chr. 7:14)
4 Healing of the land (2 Chr. 7:14)
5 Goodness from God (Ezra 8:22)
6 Not want of any good thing (Ps. 34:
7 Life (Ps. 69:32; Amos 5:4–8) 9–10)
8 Knowledge (Pr. 28:5)
9 Righteousness (Hos. 10:12)
10 All blessings of life (Mt. 6:33)
11 Finding what is sought (Mt. 7:7–11)
12 Answers to prayer (Heb. 11:6)
q The heart must say this before God will hear (Dt. 4:29; Jer. 29:13)
r 5fold confidence in God:
1 Thou hast been my help (v 9) 9)
2 God of my salvation (deliverance, v
3 The Lord will take me up (v 10) 11)
4 I believe in the goodness of God (v
5 He shall strengthen my heart (v 14)

6 I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine[e]altar, O LORD:
7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.
8 LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy [b]house, and the place where thine [c]honour dwelleth.
9 Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men:
10 [d]In whose hands is [e]mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes.
11 But as for me, [f]I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.
12 My foot standeth in an [g]even place: in the congregations will I bless the LORD.

PSALM 27

Eighth Psalm of Distress
A Psalm of David. 1 Tenfold confidence: basis of answered prayer

THE LORD is [h]my light and my salvation; [i]whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
★2 [j]When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

2 Eight blessings of answered prayer and confidence in God

4 [k]One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his [l]temple.
▶5 For [m]in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.
6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: [n]therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

3 Ten requests: fivefold confidence in God

7 [o]Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
8 When thou saidst, [p]Seek ye my face; [q]my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.
9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: [r]thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
▶10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will [s]take me up.
11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, and [t]lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.
12 [u]Deliver me not over unto the [v]will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.
13 I had fainted, [w]unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in [x]the land of the living.
▶14 [y]Wait on the LORD: [z]be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

PSALM 28

Third Prayer for Judgment
A Psalm of David. 1 Two requests for God to hear

UNTO thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; [a]be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into [b]the pit.
2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy [c]holy oracle.

2 Four requests for judgment on the wicked: tenfold reason

3 [d]Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.
4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.
5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

3 Praise for seven blessings

6 Blessed be the LORD, [e]because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.
7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with [f]my song will I praise him.
▶8 The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his [g]anointed.
9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: [h]feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSALM 29

First Psalm of Praise
A Psalm of David. 1 Four commands to praise God

GIVE unto the LORD, O ye [i]mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.
2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the [j]beauty of holiness.

a Receive and protect me as His very own. He will gather me up as a lamb to His bosom; He will not forsake me b Lead me in the path of righteousness, because of my enemies, who watch for my downfall (v 11; 23:3–6) c My enemies thirst for my destruction. Let them not be gratified. Many bear false witness against me. Confound them and unmask their evil designs (v 12)
d If wicked men have wills, so do saints e This verse raises the question of what would happen if faith in the goodness of God were not manifested f This expression is used 3 times with the article the (Job 28:13; Ps. 142:5; Isa. 38:11) and 8 times without it (v 13; Ezek. 26:20; 32:23–32). Contrast this expression with the idea of the state of the dead (see p. 619
g See 21 reasons to wait on God, p. 625
h See 10 commands to have courage, p. 625
i 2 requests of David:
1 Be not silent: reason (v 1)
2 Hear my supplications (v 2)
j Heb. bor, a digged well or cistern, a deep place, dungeon, well. Not the grave (Isa. 38:18). It is trans. pit 36 times (Gen. 37:20–29; Ex. 21:33–34; Lev. 11:36; 1 Sam. 13:6; 2 Sam. 23:20; 2 Kl. 10:14; 1 Chr. 11:22; Ps. 7:15; Zech. 9:11; etc.); dungeon 13 times (Gen. 40:15; 41:14; Ex. 12:29; Jer. 37:16; 38:6–13); cistern 5 times (2 Kl. 18:31; Pr. 5:15; Eccl. 12:6; Isa. 36:16; Jer. 2:13); and well 9 times (Dt. 6:11; 1 Sam. 19:22; 2 Sam. 3:26; 23:15–16; 1 Chr. 11:17–18; 2 Chr. 26:10; Neh. 9:25). Graves were sometimes dug in the sides of a bor (pit, Ezek. 32:23). Bor is used figuratively of the state of sin (40:2; Isa. 51:1) and of the state of death (28:1; 30:3; 88:4, 6; 143:7; Pr. 1:12; 28:17; Isa. 14:15–19; 24:22; 38:18; Ezek. 26:20; 31:14, 16; 32:18, 24–30). It is never trans. grave, sepulchre, tomb, or hell k Heb. debir, trans. oracle 16 times, and means speaking place of God in the most holy place (v 2, 1 Ki. 6:5, 16, 19–23, 31; 7:49; 8:6–8; 2 Chr. 3:16; 4:20; 5:7–9). Cp. Acts 7:38; Rom. 3:2; Heb. 5:12; 1 Pet. 4:11). Its use here does not prove that the temple was built, for there was a most holy place in the tabernacle (Ex. 26:33–34; Heb. 9:3, 8)
l 4 requests of David:
1 Draw me not away with the wicked. Literally, Let me not be punished with the wicked (v 3–4)
2 Give them according to their deeds
3 Give them after the work of their hands (v 4) 4 Render to them their desert (v 4)
m 7 favors from God:
1 He has heard my prayer (v 6)
2 He is my strength (v 7, 8)
3 My shield (v 7)
4 My help (v 7)
5 My salvation (v 9)
6 My blessing (v 9)
7 My food and support (v 9)
n 3fold praise to God:
1 Blessed be the Lord (v 6)
2 My heart greatly rejoices (v 7)
3 My song will praise Him (v 7)
o His Messiah, as in 2:2; 18:50; etc.
p Tend as a shepherd (Ps. 23)
q Angels are no doubt the thought here, for they constituted the heavenly company surrounding God in David's day (Job 1:6; 2:1; 1 Kl. 22:19; Neh. 9:6); are called sons of God (Gen. 6:2, 4; Job 1:6; 2:1; 38:4–7). Since Christ led captivity captive (Eph. 4:8–10), all the saved are in heaven to swell the number of the heavenly host (Heb. 12:23)
r This expression is found 5 times (v 2; 96:9; 110:3; 1 Chr. 16:29; 2 Chr. 20:21). Christians are commanded to be perfect in holiness in body and spirit (Lk. 1:75; Rom. 6:19, 22; 2 Cor. 7:1; Eph. 4:24; 1 Th. 3:13; 4:7; Heb. 12:10–14). Such is possible in Christ (1 Cor. 1:30; 2 Cor. 5:17–18). God is spoken of as being glorious in holiness (Ex. 15:11). His throne is called one of holiness (Ps. 47:8). He dwells in a holy city (Rev. 21:2, 10; 22:19). Day and night living creatures call attention to His holiness (Isa. 6:3; Rev. 4:8). He dwells among holy angels and redeemed men (Rev. 14:10; 18:20; 22:6). In fact, everything in creation was created holy and all will be eternally holy except the rebels in eternal hell. See 80 holy things in Scripture, p. 625 a Found 7 times here (v 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9). The word voice is found 515 times in Scripture, the first occurrence being the voice of the Lord in Eden. Paul says there are many kinds of voices in the world. See 45 uses of "voice" in Scripture, p. 625

b This word is found 666 times in Scripture, being generally used of literal water. It is used also figuratively as follows:
15 figurative uses of water:
1 Instability (Gen. 49:4)
2 Spiritual life in Christ (Ex. 17:6; 1 Cor. 10:4; Rev. 22:17)

q Facts about God's anger:
1 It can be kindled (Ex. 4:14; Num. 11:10; 12:9; etc.). The word kindled is used 18 times and provoke 40 times of His anger (Dt. 4:25; 9:18; etc.)
2 It can get hot (Ex. 32:22; Dt. 29:24)
3 It can be fierce (37 times, Num. 25:4)
4 God is slow to anger (103:8; 145:8)
5 His anger is momentary (30:5; 103:9)

2 Twenty reasons to praise: description of God's voice and great power

3 The [a]voice of the LORD is upon the [b]waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD [c]is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lĕb'a-non.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lĕb'a-non and [d]Sir'i-ŏn like a young [e]unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the [f]flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of [g]Ka'desh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to [h]calve, and [i]discovereth the forests: and [j]in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD [k]sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

▸11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM 30

Third Prayer-Praise Psalm

A Psalm and song at the dedication of the house of David (2 Sam. 5:11; 7:1).

1 Five personal reasons to praise God

I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast [l]lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the [m]grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the [n]pit.

2 Two commands to praise and two reasons for praise

4 Sing unto the LORD, O [o]ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of [p]his holiness.

▸5 For his [q]anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

3 Prayer: confidence in blessing and distress in adversity

6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

8 I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication.

9 [r]What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

4 Prayer: two requests and the threefold answer

10 [s]Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my [t]helper.

11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou [u]hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

5 The chief end of all prayer (Jn. 14:13; Rev. 4:11)

12 To the end that [v]my [w]glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will [x]give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSALM 31

Ninth Prayer of Distress

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David. 1 Eight requests: eight secrets of answered prayer; sixteen blessings to those who pray

IN thee, O LORD, [a]do I put my trust; [b]let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness.

2 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong [c]rock, for an house of defence to save me.

3 For thou art my [d]rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

5 [e]Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

6 I have hated them that regard [f]lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; [g]thou hast known my soul in adversities;

8 And hast not [h]shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in [i]a large room.

2 Fifteenfold distress of king David

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for [j]I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my [k]soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

3 Eight requests: eight reasons for an answer

14 But I trusted in thee, O

c David speaks as if God personally took off his sackcloth or unclothed him, but the idea is that God caused David to take it off by hearing his prayer. When it is said that God sends sickness, afflictions, etc. it must be understood that God's agents do this, not God personally. He made the laws of sowing and reaping (Ex. 15:26; Dt. 7:15; 28:1-68; Isa. 45:7; Gal. 6:7-8); and they are executed by proper agents. Sickness, infirmities, and death are in Satan's power (Mt. 12:22-28; Lk. 13:16; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38; Rom. 8:2; Eph. 2:1-3; Heb. 2:14-15; 1 Jn. 3:8)

h Heb. tsur, a sharp rock, a cliff. Used figuratively of both God and Christ as a refuge for men:
1 God the refuge and foundation of His people (Dt. 32:4, 30, 31; 2 Sam. 22:3, 32, 47; 23:3; Ps. 18:31, 46; 28:1; 31:2; 61:2; 62:2, 7; 78:35; 89:26; 92:15; 94:22; 95:1; Isa. 17:10)
2 Christ the smitten rock and foundation of the church (Ex. 17:6; Dt. 8:15; 32:13, 15, 18; Ps. 78:20; 105:41; 114:8; 1 Cor. 3:11; 10:4. See p. 624, col. 1)

i Heb. sela (see point l, p. 624, col. 1)

j Quoted in Lk. 23:46

k Idol gods that lie and deceive the people into thinking they are the true God (v 6; Dt. 32:21; 1 Kl. 16:13, 26; Jer. 8:19; 10:8; 14:22; Jon. 2:8; Acts 14:15)

l God knows and stands by His people in adversity as well as in prosperity.

m To shut one up in the hand of another is to abandon him to that person's power (v 8). This, God did not do to David n This is figurative of enlargement of the place of David's sojourn, making plenty of room for his wanderings (1 Sam. 22). Or, it could refer to his acceptance as king by the men of Judah (2 Sam. 2), and later by all Israel (2 Sam. 5)

o This was David's lot during:
1 His stay with Saul who made 21 attempts to slay him (1 Sam. 18:1-26:25)

f Heb. sether, a covering: hiding place; secret place; protection (v 20; 18:11; 27:5; 32:7; 81:7; 91:1; 119:15; Pr. 9:17; 21:14; Cant. 2:14; Isa. 45:19; 48:16)

g Heb. panim, face; countenance: presence (v 20; 16:11; 17:2; 51:11; 68:2, 8; 95:2; 97:5; 114:7; 139:7; 140:13; Gen. 3:8; 4:16)

h Heb. rokes, snares; plottings; entanglements; conspiracies (v 20)

i Heb. tsaphan, to hide by covering over; protect (v 20); and lurk (Pr. 1:11, 18); hide (Ex. 2:3; Job 14:13; Ps. 27:5; 56:6); hideth (Pr. 27:16)

j Heb. sukkah, trans. pavilion (v 20; 18:11; 2 Sam. 22:12; 1 Ki. 20:12, 16); tabernacle (Dt. 16:13; 31:10); booth (Gen. 33:17; Lev. 23:42-43)

k Heb. rib, strifes; contentions; plots (v 20; 55:9; Pr. 15:18; 17:1; 26:17)
The verse means: Conceal them in the covering of Thy countenance from the snares of men; keep them protected in Thy tabernacle from the plots of men (v 20)

l See 8 things God has done, p. 625

m Many times in haste and under pressure of trial, saints say things that are untrue and which must be repented of when more sober moments come (v 22. Cp. Job's hasty answers at the end of the book of Job)

n This is sound advice. David is back to soberness after his false accusation of v 22 regarding God's faithfulness. He now declares that Jehovah keeps faith with His people and punishes the wicked (v 23)

o 9 reasons for being of good courage:
1 God's great goodness laid up for those who fear and pray (v 19)
2 God's goodness manifest to those who trust and have faith (v 19) 20)
3 Concealment from snares of men (v
4 Protection from plots of men (v 20)
5 God's marvelous kindness (v 21)
6 Certainty of answere prayer (v 22)
7 God keeps faith with men (v 23)
8 God punishes the wicked (v 23)
9 God will strengthen the heart (v 24)

p 4fold blessing of the blessed man:
1 His sins are forgiven (v 1)
2 His sins are covered (v 1)
3 His forgiven sins are not imputed to him any longer (v 2) 15:1-5; 24:3-5) 4 His spirit is cleansed of guile (v 2;

q Forgiveness of sins (v 1). Promised (2 Chr. 7:14; Ps. 86:5; Jer. 31:34; Mt. 12:31-32; Lk. 6:37; 1 Jn. 1:9)

1 Forgive Thy people that have sinned (1 Ki. 8:30, 34, 36, 39, 50)
2 I have sinned (Job 7:20)
3 I am vile (Job 40:4)
4 I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes (Job 42:6)
5 Forgive all my sins (Ps. 25:18)
6 Be merciful unto me; heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee (Ps. 41:4)
7 Forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us (Lk. 11:4) 18:13) 8 God be merciful to me a sinner (Lk.

r Covering for sin (v 1). Heb. Kasah, to cover; conceal. The Gr. epikalupto, to cover over so as not to be seen because pardoned (Rom. 4:7. This pardoning is done by God when one confesses his sins and exercises faith in the atoning blood of Jesus Christ (Mt. 26:28; Rom. 3:25-31; 5:1-11; 8:1-3; 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9; Col. 1:20; 2:12; 1 Jn. 1:7, 9; 3:5-10; 5:1-4, 18; Rev. 1:5)

y This always follows true confession

LORD: I said, Thou art my God.
15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.
16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.
17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.
18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

4 Praise for nine great blessings for those who pray

▸19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!
▸20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
21 Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.
22 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
▸24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

PSALM 32

Second Psalm of Instruction (on chastening of God)
A Psalm of David, Maschil (instruction). 1 Four things which constitute a blessed man BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

2 Four evidences of chastening

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.
4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Sĕ'lah.

3 Four results in chastening

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Sĕ'lah.

4 Four blessings after chastening

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.
▸7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Sĕ'lah.

5 Four blessings of instruction: illustration of ignorance

▸8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.
●9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.◂
▸10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

6 Final instructions to the chastened

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM 33

Fourth Prayer-Praise Psalm
1 Five commands to praise

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.
●2 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.
●3 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

2 Eight reasons to praise

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.
5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.
6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

3 Two commands to fear God

●8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

4 Five reasons to fear God

9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.
10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.
11 The counsel of the LORD

g Shout for joy. This psalm has no title; it was probably written by David. Some think that v 1 should be the last of the preceding psalm, but there is no authority for this. It is as good a beginning as an ending. Where there is no proof of a change it is better to leave the psalms as they are h Heb. naveh, becoming; suitable; beautiful (v 1; 147:1; Cant. 1:5; 2:14; 4:3; 6:4; Jer. 6:2). It is the duty, honor, and glory of the righteous to praise the Lord, just as on the contrary, silence is their shame and dishonor because they are the only ones who have the experience of acquaintance with the glorious government of God. They alone are suitable for praise (v 1)

p 8 reasons to praise God:
1 The Word of God is right (v 4)
2 All His works are done in truth (v 4)
3 He loves righteousness and judgment (v 5)
4 His goodness fills the earth (v 5)
5 His Word made the heavens (v 6)
6 He gave life to the host of heaven by His breath (v 6. Cp. Gen. 2:7)
7 He controls oceans (v 7; Gen. 1:10)
8 He divides the watercourses and stores them for His purposes (v 7)

q Heb. tehom, the abyss as the surging mighty waters; the subterranean water supply (Gen. 1:2; 7:11; 8:2; Ex. 15:5, 8; Dt. 8:7; Ps. 33:7; 42:7; 104:6; 107:26; Pr. 3:20; 8:24, 27). Here it refers to the depths of water being in storehouses for divine uses (v 7)

r Heb. etsah, advice; purpose (v 10-11; 73:24; 107:11; Pr. 1:25, 30; 8:14; 19:21; Isa. 46:10) a All generations is another term for eternity, for there will be eternal generations of natural people (Gen. 8:22; 9:12, 16; 17:8; 2 Sam. 7; Isa. 9:6-7) b How happy is that nation. Cp. 144:15 c Here we have the providence of God referred to. It is over all creation (v 12-17). See Providence, p. 633 d God's habitation is the planet heaven (v 14; Mt. 6:9-10; 1 Pet. 3:22)

e He made all men alike-- reproductions of a single pair with the same powers, faculties, passions, bodies, souls, and spirits, every essential part of a human being. God gave Adam power to reproduce himself in his own image and likeness (Gen. 1:26-28; 5:3; 1 Cor. 15:45-50). This has no reference to making men sinful, corrupt, depraved, or imperfect in body, soul, or spirit. These have come through sin and misuse of created faculties that were originally created perfect (Dt. 32:4)
f A king is just a man and can lose his life as easily as an ordinary soldier unless he has God's protection. The same is true of a mighty man (v 16) g A horse cannot save one from death in battle. God alone can protect and preserve a man from death (v 18-19)
h After stating that no king, mighty man, or soldier is saved by multitudes, strength, or horses, and that the Lord alone is one who can save from death (v 16-19), the writer declares that his whole trust is in God (v 20-22)
i David again begins in accordance with his familiar habit of praising God continually (v 1). Not only does he vow to praise God, but vows his boasting will also be in the Lord (v 2). Praise and glory should be given to God for all good things in life (34:9-10; 84:11; Jas. 1:5, 17). To teach man this lesson, God has many times used weak and foolish things to confound the strong and wise of this world, that no flesh should glory in His sight (1 Cor. 1:25-31)

1 Answers prayer (v 4)
2 Delivers from all fears (v 4)
3 Enlightens His people (v 5)
4 Gives His people boldness (v 5)
5 Saves from all troubles (v 6-7)
6 Supplies all wants of His people (v 9-10; 23:1; 84:11; Jn. 15:7)
7 Punishes the wicked to curb all sin and rid His creation of it (v 16)
8 Remains near the broken in heart and saves the contrite in spirit (v 18)
9 Redeems souls of His people (v 22)
10 Prospers all who trust in Him (v 22)
m 14 kinds of fear God delivers from:
1 Man fear (Gen. 15:1; Lk. 12:5; Heb. 13:6). 35 times fear of man is referred to in Scripture. Fear of God is referred to 160 times. We are to respect, reverence, and honor God, and have no fear of man. 80 times man is told not to fear, referring to fears that should not distress anyone who trusts in God
2 Death (Gen. 21:17; 35:17; Heb. 2:15)
3 The future (Gen. 46:3; 50:19-21)
4 Danger (Ex. 14:13)
5 Idol gods (Judg. 6:10; 2 Ki. 17:35-38)
6 Dreams (Job 4:14-16)
7 Evil (Ps. 23:4; Pr. 1:33)
8 War (Ps. 27:3)
9 Nothing - imaginative fear (Ps. 53:5)
10 Enemies (Ps. 118:6)
11 Punishment (Pr. 1:26-27)
12 Darkness (Cant. 3:8)
13 Ghosts (Mt. 14:26)
14 Spirit of fear (2 Tim. 1:6-7)

1 Look within is to be miserable (77:1)
2 Look around is to be distracted (73:3)
3 Look expectantly to God brings blessing (v 5; 121:1)
o To get men out of troubles is God's work (v 6, 17, 19; 25:17; 40:2; 54:7; 81:10; 107:6, 13, 19, 28) standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

5 What constitutes a blessed nation

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

6 Ten blessings upon a blessed nation

13 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

7 Four blessings to those who fear God

▶18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

▶19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

8 Prayer and confidence of the righteous

20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

PSALM 34

Second Psalm of Deliverance
A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed (1 Sam. 21). 1 Sevenfold praise for deliverance

I WILL bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

●3 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

2 Sevenfold testimony of deliverance

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

3 Sevenfold promise of deliverance

▶7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

●8 O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

●9 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

4 Tenfold condition of deliverance

●11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

●13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

●14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

5 Fifteenfold ministry of the Great Deliverer

▶15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

▶16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

▶17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

▶18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

★19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

▶21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

▶22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM 35

Fourth Prayer for Judgment
A Psalm of David. 1 Eighteen requests for judgment upon the wicked

PLEAD my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them.

a The angel of the Lord, found in Psalms only here and in 34:5-6, but elsewhere it is used many times of God's manifestation to men. See The spirit-world, p. 632
b 10 promises of Ps. 34:
1 The angel of the Lord encampeth around about them that fear Him, and delivereth them (v 7)
2 There is no want to them that fear Him (v 9; 84:11; Lk. 11:9-11)
3 They that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing (v 10; Mt. 7:11)
4 The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears are open unto their cry (v 10, 15, 17; Jn. 15:7)
5 The face of the Lord is against them that do evil (v 16)
6 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles (v 17; note o, v 6)
7 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit (v 18)
8 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all (v 19)
9 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate (v 21)
10 The Lord redeemeth the soul of His servants: and none of them that trust in Him shall be desolate (v 22) c The doctrine of no want to believers is one of the clearest and most comprehensive declarations of Scripture (v 9-10; 23:1; 84:11; 91:1-12; 103:3; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 11:9-13; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:13-14). In view of the simple and complete promises, the only excuse for not having every need and want met within the bounds of Scripture is unbelief (Mt. 17:20-21; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8) and ignorance of truth (Jn. 15:7, note) d The second time this truth is emphasized. It confirms the truth of note c, above. If this is truth, then our unbelief is a lie and the cause of failure to appropriate fully what is promised (Jn. 8:32) p Heb. nechim, smiters; probably hired assassins. They were everywhere lying in wait to take the life of David as well as that of the Messiah q This seems to be prophetical of Christ when He suffered blindfolded, knowing not who they were except by supernatural knowledge and discernment. Other sufferings were by the tongue of men who continually plotted to take His life (v 15-16; Mt. 26:3, refs.)

3 Let not proud and haughty men come against me (v 11)
4 Let not the hand of the wicked take my life or remove me from my heritage (v 11)

6 Let their way be [a]dark and slippery: and let the [b]angel of the LORD [c]persecute them.
7 [d]For without cause have they hid for me their net in a [e]pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.
8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

2 Praise for judgment on the wicked

9 [f]And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.
10 All my bones shall say, LORD, [g]who is [h]like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is [i]too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

3 Contrasted character of the righteous and wicked: ten sins of the wicked; six good deeds of the righteous

11 [j]False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not.
12 They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul.
13 But as for me, [k]when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and [l]my prayer returned into mine own bosom.
14 I behaved myself as though he had been [m]my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.
★15 [n]But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and [o]gathered themselves together: yea, the [p]abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; [q]they did tear me, and ceased not:
16 [r]With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

4 Sixteen requests to judge the wicked and vindicate the righteous: 10 sins of the wicked

17 [s]Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, [t]my darling from the lions.
18 [u]I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.
19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that [v]hate me without a cause.
20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.
21 Yea, [w]they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.
22 This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O Lord, be not far from me.
23 [x]Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even unto my cause, [y]my God and my Lord.
24 [a]Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me.
25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have [b]swallowed him up.
26 [c]Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt: let them be [d]clothed with shame and dishonour that [e]magnify themselves against me.

5 Praise from the righteous

27 [f]Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.
28 [g]And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

PSALM 36

Second Psalm of the Wicked To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the Lord. 1 Ten sins of the wicked

THE [h]transgression of the wicked [i]saith within my heart, that [i]there is no fear of God before his eyes.
2 For he [k]flattereth himself in his own eyes, [l]until his iniquity be found to be hateful.
3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.
4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is [m]not good; [n]he abhorreth not evil.

2 Ten characteristics of God and blessings on the righteous

5 Thy [o]mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.
6 Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.
7 How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the [p]shadow of thy wings.
★8 [q]They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.◂
9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy [r]light shall we see light.

3 Four requests for the righteous (Cp. 32:1, 7; 33:18; 40:11; 43:1)

10 [s]O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.
11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

a Heb. shaphat, to act as a magistrate; vindicate. Requested 4 times in Psalms (v 24; 7:8; 26:1; 43:1). It is used of vindication (Gen. 16:5; 31:53; Ex. 5:21) of ordinary judgment in courts of justice (Ex. 18:13-26; Dt. 16:18; 25:1; Judg. 3:10; 4:4; Isa. 2:4; 11:4; 16:5). This request shows the strong confidence David had because of his own innocence
b We have gulped him down (note b, 21:9) c This was granted when Saul and his army were put to shame in defeat (1 Sam. 31)
d Cp. 109:29; 132:18
e 10 sins of the wicked (v 17-26):
1 Seek destruction of others (v 19)
2 Are enemies to the righteous (v 19)
3 Hate without cause (v 19)
4 Constantly speak of war (v 20)
5 Plan deceitful acts (v 19)
6 Hold righteous in contempt (v 21)
7 Hope in heart for the destruction of the righteous (v 25) 25)
8 Work at swallowing up the godly (v
9 Gloat over the hurt of others (v 26)
10 Magnify themselves against God's chosen leader (v 26)
f Here we have prayer for blessing upon those who favor the righteous cause of God's servant (v 27-28). It is the opposite of the prayer for judgment upon those who seek his destruction (v 17-26) g This is the second time in this psalm that David vows to rejoice if God will but answer his prayer. See note f, v 9 h 10 sins of the wicked (v 1-4):
1 Transgress God's laws (v 1)
2 No fear of God before his eyes (v 1)
3 Flatters himself (v 2)
4 Is sinful and hateful (v 2)
5 Speaks iniquity and deceit (v 3)
6 Rejects wisdom (v 3)
7 Rejects goodness (v 3)
8 Plans sin (v 4)
9 Sets himself against all good (v 4)
10 Loves sin (v 4)
i This expression has no meaning as translated here. How can the transgressions of the wicked speak within the heart of the servant of the Lord? The sins of the wicked are in their own hearts. The passage should read, "The speech of rebellion to the wicked is in the midst of his heart" or "The ungodly conceives wickedness in his own heart, for there is no fear of God before his eyes." It is not by example that he commits sin; the heart itself is the fountain that sends forth the streams of sin (Mk. 7:19-23). There is a spirit of sin in man - the very nature of the devil (Jn. 8:44; Eph. 2:1-3; 1 Jn. 3:8). See note f, 2 Cor. 5:17
j Quoted in Rom. 3:18 k Heb. chalag, to make smooth; flatter (v 2; 5:9; Pr. 2:16; 7:5; 28:23; 29:5). The wicked persuades himself that he may safely follow the evils of his own heart. He smooths over his sins until they do not appear sin to him l This could be understood to mean that he sins so boldly and wickedly that he, himself awakes to see himself as corrupt; and turns to hate his own depravity (v 2) m 10 things that are not good:
1 For man to be alone (Gen. 2:18)
2 To overwork (Ex. 18:17) 26:16)
3 To fail in responsibility (1 Sam.
4 To oppress the poor (Neh. 5:9)
5 To plot evil and take a stand against good (Ps. 36:4)
6 To overthrow the righteous in judgment (Pr. 18:5)
7 To be without knowledge (Pr. 19:2)
8 To cheat (Pr. 20:23)
9 To exalt and glorify self (Ps. 25:27; 1 Cor. 5:6) 21)
10 To have respect of persons (Pr. 28:
n He has cut off all connection between himself and righteousness
o See 10 attributes of God, p. 626 p A figure of protection (v 7; 17:8; 57:1; 61:4; 63:7; 91:4; Ex. 19:4; Ruth 2:12; Mal. 4:2; Mt. 23:37) q 23rd prophecy in Ps. (36:8-9, unfulfilled). Next, 37:2. This passage refers to the time when saints will be in heaven with God
r Life and light are many times coupled together (v 9; 56:13; Job 3:20; Pr. 16:15; Jn. 1:4-9)

4 The end of the wicked
(Cp. Mt. 13:40; 25:46)

12 [d]There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM 37

Third Psalm of Instruction (on blessings and curses)
A Psalm of David. 1 Thirteen commands: 10 blessings of obedience

FRET not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.
*2 [c]For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.
●3 [d]Trust in the LORD, and do good; [e]so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.◂
●4 Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.◂
●5 [f]Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.◂
▸6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy [g]judgment as the noonday.
●7 [h]Rest in the LORD, and [i]wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.
●8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.
*9 [j]For evildoers shall [k]be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.◂
▸10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.
▸11 But [l]the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

2 Tenfold sowing and reaping of the wicked

12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.
*13 [m]The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that [n]his day is coming.
14 The [o]wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.
15 [p]Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

3 Five contrasts between the righteous and the wicked

16 [q]A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.
*17 [r]For the [s]arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.◂
▸18 The LORD [t]knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.
▸19 [u]They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
20 But the wicked shall [v]perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be [w]as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.
21 [x]The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.
*22 [y]For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and [z]they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.◂

4 Seven blessings of the righteous

23 The steps of a [a]good man are [b]ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.
▸24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.
25 [c]I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.
26 He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

5 Three commands: 10 blessings of the righteous; 2 sins and curses of the wicked

*27 [d]Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore●
▸28 For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not [e]his saints; they are [f]preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
▸29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and [g]dwell therein for ever.
30 [h]The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.
▸31 The law of his God is [i]in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.
32 [j]The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.
▸33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

6 Four commands: destiny of the righteous and wicked

●34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.◂
35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green [k]bay tree.
36 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.
*37 [l]Mark the [m]perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.●
▸38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

7 Six blessings of the right-a Referring perhaps to the place or state of pride of v 11 in which the wicked fall and will not rise again. It was pride that caused Lucifer to fall (Ezek. 28: 11-17). Pride is one of the chief causes of men being lost (v 12; 31:20; 73:6; Pr. 16:18; Mk. 7:22; 1 Jn. 2:16)

b Heat not thyself with vexation 17 commands of Ps. 37:
1 Fret not because of evildoers (v 1)
2 Do not be envious of evildoers
3 Trust in the Lord (v 3, 5) (v 1)
4 Do good (v 3, 27)
5 Delight yourself in the Lord (v 4)
6 Commit your way unto the Lord (v 5)
7 Rest in the Lord (v 7)
8 Wait patiently for God (v 7, 34)
9 Fret not because of prosperity of others (v 7)
10 Fret not because of wicked plots against you (v 7)
11 Cease from anger (v 8)
12 Forsake wrath (v 8)
13 Fret not yourself to do evil (v 8)
14 Depart from evil (v 27)
15 Keep His way (v 34)
16 Mark the perfect man (v 37)
17 Behold the upright (v 37)

1 Dwell in the land forever (v 3, 29)
2 Be fed (v 3)
3 Give desires of the heart (v 4)
4 Bring things to pass (v 5)
5 Bring righteousness to light (v 6)
6 Bring judgment as noonday (v 6)
7 Evildoers be cut off (v 9, 20, 22, 34, 38)
8 Earth as an inheritance (v 9, 11, 22, 29, 34; Mt. 5:5)
9 Abundance of peace (v 11)
10 Upheld by God (v 17, 24)
11 Eternal inheritance (v 18)
12 Not be ashamed in evil times (v 19)
13 Satisfied in time of famine (v 19)
14 Not be cast down in a fall (v 24)

20 Lord will not condemn (v 33)
21 In the end will have peace (v 37)
22 Salvation (v 39-40)
23 Strength from God in trouble (v 39)
24 Help from God (v 40)
25 Deliverance from the wicked (v 40)

f Heb. galal, to roll upon, or repose on (v 5; Pr. 16:3)

g Vindication made clear as the noonday

h Heb. dom, be silent; still; dumb (v 7; Job 30:27). Calmly resign and leave all things in the hands of God. A sure cure for dissatisfaction

i Heb. chul, to stay self (v 7). Set self to expect God to answer. Be determined to expect an answer

j 25th prophecy in Ps. (37:9-11, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the Millennium). Next, v 13 k Heb. karath, to be cut down; die (v 9, 22, 28, 34, 38; Pr. 2:22). Used of the Messiah (Dan. 9:26)

l Quoted in Mt. 5:5

m 26th prophecy in Ps. (37:13, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled when the wicked will be punished for their sins; Rev. 20:11-15). Next, v 17. God will laugh. This is said of Him in v 13; 2:4; 59:8. Cp. Pr. 1:26

n See 28 kinds of days in Scripture, p. 626

o There is a natural enmity in the souls of sinners against the godly who are promised persecution (2 Tim. 3:12) p This again expresses the law of sowing and reaping (Gal. 6:7-8). The wicked fall into their own traps which they set for the righteous (v 15; 9:15; 35:7-8; 141:10)

q This is always true due to the blessing of God upon the little. A righteous man is contented with little under the most trying circumstances when it is blessed by his heavenly Father (Pr. 15:16; 16:8; 1 Cor. 10:31; 1 Th. 5:18)

r 27th prophecy in Ps. (37:17-20, unfulfilled, except v 19 which is still being fulfilled in some cases). Next, v 22

a The upright shall not be ashamed of his trust in God when troubles come; and in times of famine he shall be satisfied with food

b See Perish, p. 627

c The enemies of the Lord shall be consumed by God's wrath like the fat of lambs that is consumed in the fire of sacrifice (v 20)

d The wicked is often reduced to poverty and forced to borrow. He does not pay back because he is wicked or does not have anything to pay back with. The righteous shows mercy by grace and gives of his bountiful blessing from God (v 21-22, 26)

e 28th prophecy in Ps. (37:22, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the Millennium; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 20:1-10). Next, v 27

f All backslidden angels or sons of God (Gen. 6:1-4; Job 1:6; 2:1; 38:4-7; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7), backslidden spirits or demons (Mt. 8:29; Rev. 9), and backslidden human beings (Heb. 6:4-8; 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2:20-22; etc.) will be cut off and lost. All among men who sin are cursed and, unless converted, will have to pay the death penalty (Gen. 2:17; Ex. 32:32-33; Ezek. 18:4, 20-26; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; etc.). All thus cursed will be cut off (v 22)

g There is nothing in the Heb. for good. The Heb. for man is geber, a strong man; mighty man; a conqueror. The idea is that even the most powerful man must be guided and supported by the Lord; otherwise his strength and courage will fail. Though he fall the righteous will be upheld by God (v 23-24)

h Heb. kun, prepared; established (v 23)

i This is literally true in all generations. His seed is so blessed (v 26), there is no need to beg. If a truly righteous man appropriates the smallest part of the promises of God he cannot be considered forsaken of God; nor does he need to beg bread (v 25-26; 23:1; 34:9-10; 84:11; 91:1-12; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 11:9-13; Jn. 14:12-15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:13-14)

j 29th prophecy in Ps. (37:27-34, partially fulfilled, but will not be completely fulfilled until the Millennium and New Earth, Rev. 20-22). Next, v 37. After giving 13 commands in v 1-8, and contrasting the righteous with the wicked (v 9-26), David again gives commands which show how to become the kind of righteous man worthy of the many blessings listed in this psalm (v 27-40). If one obeys the entire 17 commands of this psalm, listed in note b, v 1, he is entitled to the fulfillment of the 25 promises listed in e, v 3. One cannot expect the full blessing of God if he does not render full obedience to Him. The promises are, after all, primarily to the righteous, or saints (defined on p. 627)

k See Saints, p. 627

l How can they be preserved forever if the soul and spirit are not immortal? Immortality of the inner man is many times stated in Scripture in various ways. See note m, 1 Pet. 3:4

m See Where saints spend eternity, p. 627

n They propagate the truth of God to all nations (v 30-31; Isa. 52:7; Mt. 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; 1 Cor. 1:18-24)

o This is where it should be, and, if it is, his steps will not slide (v 31; 1 Jn. 1:7; 2 Pet. 1:4-10) p Here we have the preservation of the righteous (v 32-33. Cp. v 28)

q Heb. ezrach, native born. Only here. It means a green tree in its native soil. The Sept. reads, "cedars of Lebanon"

r 30th prophecy in Ps. (37:37-38, fulfilled, being fulfilled, and will be completely fulfilled when all the righteous have entered eternal life and all the wicked are punished). Next, 40:6

s Heb. tam, complete; pious; gentle; undefiled; upright; plain. Trans. perfect (v 37; 64:4; Job 1:1, 8; 2:3; 8:20; 9:20-22)

s The arms of the wicked refer to the instruments of his wickedness and the means of his power (v 17; 10:15; 37:17; 1 Sam. 2:31)

t God watches over the days of the upright and lovingly cares for him throughout his life (Rom. 8:28)

a All salvation is of God, not man (Rom. 1:16; Eph. 2:8–9; Tit. 2:11–14; 3:5–6)
b Heb. maor. Trans. strength (v 39; 27:1; 28:8; 31:4; 43:2; 52:7; 60:7; 108:8; 2 Sam. 22:33; Neh. 8:10; Ps. 10:29; Isa. 17:10; 23:4, 14; 25:4; 27:5; 30:2–3; Ezek. 24:25; 30:15; Dan. 11:31; Joel 3:16; Nah. 3:11); and stronghold (Isa. 23:11; Nah. 1:7)

24 My enemies plot to finish me (v 12)
25 They speak slander against me (v 12)
26 They imagine deceits all day (v 12)
27 I ignore their slander (v 13–14)
28 I act dumb as if I had not heard them (v 14)
29 I do not retaliate (v 14)
30 They magnify themselves against me (v 16)
31 My foot is slipping (v 16)
32 I am ready to give up (v 17)
33 I sorrow continually (v 17)
34 I confess my iniquity (v 18)
35 I am sorry for my sin (v 18)
36 My enemies are lively (v 19)
37 They are strong (v 19)
38 They wrongfully hate me (v 19)
39 They are multiplied against me (v 19)
40 They render evil for good (v 20)
g Heb. chets, a piercer; an arrow; dart; wound. Used literally of an arrow shot in a bow (1 Sam. 20:20–38; 2 Kl. 13:15–18) and figuratively in 7 ways of:
1 Pains (v 2). Trans. wound (Job 34:6)
2 Plagues (Job 6:4; Ps. 91:5)
3 God's judgments upon men and nations (Num. 24:8; Dt. 32:23, 42; Ps. 7:13; 45:5; 64:7)
4 Lightning (2 Sam. 22:15; Ps. 18:14)
5 Slander (Ps. 57:4; 64:3; Jer. 9:8) 6 Destruction (Ps. 25:18; 26:18)

j 10 evidences of a venereal disease:
1 My loins are filled with a loathsome disease (v 7). The loins are that part of the body between the lower rib and the hip bone. In Scripture loins are sometimes referred to as the life producing part of the body – the seat of generation or procreation (Gen. 35:11; 46:26; Ex. 1:5; 1 Kl. 8:19; 12:10; 2 Chr. 6:9; 10:10)
2 I have a burning disease in my loins. The Heb. for loathsome means burning
3 Arrows (acute pains) shoot through my loins (v 2)
4 There is no soundness in my flesh (v 3, 11). This refers to sores and ulcers that also affected the bones and caused him extreme restlessness

eous: reason for blessings

▸39 But the [a]salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their [b]strength in the time of trouble.
▸40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, [c]because they trust in him.

PSALM 38

Tenth Prayer of Distress
A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance. 1 Two requests: eighteenfold sin and suffering in body - David's venereal disease

O LORD, [d]rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither [e]chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
2 [f]For thine [g]arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.
3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.
4 [h]For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
5 My wounds stink and are corrupt [i]because of my foolishness.
6 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.
7 For my [j]loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.
8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.
9 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.
10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

2 Eighteenfold sin and suffering in soul and spirit

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my [k]sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off.
12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt speak [l]mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.
13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and [m]I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.
14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.
15 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt hear, O Lord my God.
16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: [n]when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.
17 [o]For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.
18 For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.
19 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.
20 They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because [p]I follow the thing that good is.

3 Three requests for healing and forgiveness

21 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.
22 Make haste to help me, O Lord my salvation.

PSALM 39

Second Prayer-Testimony Psalm
To the chief Musician, even to Jeduthun (Ethan, a choir leader), A Psalm of David.

1 Sevenfold testimony

I SAID, [a]I will take heed to [b]my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a [c]bridle, while the wicked is before me.
2 I was [d]dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.
3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue,

2 Three requests: sevenfold testimony of the natural man

4 LORD, [e]make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.
5 Behold, thou hast made my days [f]as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether [g]vanity. [h]Sē'lah.
6 Surely every man walketh in a [i]vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.
7 [j]And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

3 Three requests: sevenfold testimony of chastening

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the [k]reproach of the foolish.
9 I was [l]dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.
10 Remove thy [m]stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.
11 When thou with rebukes dost [n]correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Sē'lah.

4 Four requests for strength

12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.
13 O [o]spare me, that I may a This is the only safe way of life and security and the final result of chastening (v 20; Heb. 12:9–11)

b 7fold vow and testimony:
1 I will take heed to my ways so as not to sin with my tongue (v 1)
2 I will muzzle my mouth while the wicked are before me (v 1)
3 I kept my vow and was dumb with silence (v 2, Cp. 38:13)
4 I held my peace even from saying good or bad words (v 2)
5 My sorrow increased but still I did not complain or misuse my tongue (v 2)
6 My heart was hot within me but I smothered my passions and sorrows (v 3)
7 Finally, when I could no longer forbear the smouldering fire broke out into a flame and I spoke (v 3)

1 My ways (v 1)	9 My frailty (v 4)
2 My tongue (v 1)	10 My age (v 5)
3 My mouth (v 1)	11 My hope (v 7)
4 My peace (v 2)	12 My sins (v 8)
5 My sorrow (v 2)	13 My prayer (v 12)
6 My heart (v 3)	14 My cry (v 12)
7 My end (v 4)	15 My tears (v 12)
8 My days (v 4–5)	16 My fathers (v 12)

d Heb. machsom, muzzle (v 1). A good thing to do in the presence of both the good and the bad e See why he was dumb (38:13, note m)
f 10 requests of David:
1 Make me to know my end (v 4)
2 Make me to know the measure of my days (v 4)
3 Make me to know how frail I am (v 4)
4 Deliver me from all sins (v 8)
5 Make me not a reproach (v 8)
6 Remove Your stroke from me (v 10)
7 Hear my prayer, O Lord (v 12)
8 Give ear unto my cry (v 12)
9 Hold not Your peace at my tears – do not permit my tears to blind You to justice (v 12)
10 Spare me and give me strength to meet You in peace (v 13)
g My life is as short as a span h A true picture of man in his best state. His imaginations, plans, schemes, and ways soon come to nothing. He himself comes to dust and passes away
i See note h, 3:2
j Heb. tselem, shadow; image; resemblance; a phantom. Occurs 33 times and always trans. Image except here and Dan. 3:19. Every man walks as a shadow – appears today and is gone tomorrow. He heaps up treasure and knows not what will happen to it after he is gone (v 6)
k Question 41, Next, 41:5
l The foolish claim that there can be no such forgiveness of all sins, so let them know that they are wrong by saving my soul (v 6)

n Heb. nega, stroke (v 10; Dt. 17:8; 21:5) and plague (Lev. 13:42–44; 2 Chr. 6:28–29). It may refer to the plague of David here. See Ps. 38:7, note j o All chastening from God is for a purpose – to correct man of his sin (v 11), to hide pride from him (Job 33:14–29), and cause him to be a partaker of holiness (Heb. 12:5–11) p Take me not from my period of probation until I am prepared for the state of eternal trust and bliss (v 3)

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt (v 5, 11). This proves the discharge from his ulcers had an offensive smell and caused rottenness of the flesh
6 My disease is caused by my sin (v 3, 5, 18). What sin if not adultery with Bathsheba (2 Sam. 11:1–12:25)?
7 I am bowed down greatly because of my sickness in soul and body (v 6)
8 I am weak and miserable because of the despair of my heart (v 8)
9 My heart flutters or palpitates. My strength is gone. My eyes are becoming blind because of my disease (v 10)
10 My friends stand aloof from me for fear they will contract my plague (v 10. Cp. 66:4)

PSALM 40

Seventh Messianic Psalm
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. 1 Seven blessings of waiting on God

I [b]WAITED patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of an [c]horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a [d]rock, and [e]established my goings.

3 And he hath [f]put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

2 Three great principles of a blessed man (Ps. 15:2; 32:1)

4 [g]Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

3 Two infinite things of God

5 [h]Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

4 Sevenfold ministry of the Messiah

★6 [i]Sacrifice and [j]offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou [k]opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, [l]Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,

8 I delight [m]to do thy will, O my God: yea, [n]thy law is within my heart.

9 [o]I have preached [p]righteousness in [q]the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy [r]faithfulness and thy [s]salvation: I have not concealed thy [t]lovingkindness and thy [u]truth from the great congregation.

5 Twelve requests and twelve reasons for an answer

11 [v]Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my [w]heart faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 Let them be ashamed and [x]confounded together that seek after my [y]soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified.

17 But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord [z]thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

PSALM 41

Eighth Messianic Psalm
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. 1 Seven blessings of generosity

[a]BLESSED is he that [b]considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

▸2 The LORD will preserve him, and [c]keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

▸3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

2 Two requests: seven things that enemies say and do

4 I said, LORD, [d]be merciful unto me: [e]heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, [f]When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7 [g]All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt.

8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.

3 Betrayal of the Messiah

★9 Yea, [h]mine own [i]familiar friend, [j]in whom I trusted, which did [k]eat of my bread, hath lifted up his [l]heel against me.

4 Two requests: four blessings

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and [m]raise me up, that I may [n]requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favourest me, because [o]mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

★12 [p]And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.

13 [q]Blessed be the LORD God of Is'ra-el from everlasting, and to everlasting. Â-mĕn', and Â-mĕn'.

a A Heb. idiom meaning departure from this life. David did not believe that death ended all existence, but that the soul and spirit went to sheol where they continued in a full state of consciousness (see Hell, p. 620-622)
b ?blessings of waiting on God, p. 627
c The words here are figurative of the state of sin and death out of which God alone can save a man (v 2). The Syriac and Arabic translate, "The pit of perdition and the mud of corruption" d Heb. sela (point 1, p. 624, col. 1)
e You have changed my life from guilt to justification; sinfulness to holiness, and made my way perfect (v 2; 1 Jn. 1:7)
f The new song is here stated to be praise to God for His many mercies given (v 3. See note 1, 33:3) g 3 characteristics of the blessed man:
1 Makes God his trust (v 4)
2 Respects not the proud (v 4)
3 Respects not the liar (v 4)
h 2 wonderful things of God (v 5):
1 His many works (see p. 618)
2 His many thoughts (p. 623-624)
i 31st prophecy in Ps. (40:6-10, fulfilled during the 1st advent of Christ, Heb. 10:5-9). Next, 41:9. Heb. zebach, any offering slain - hence, to offer what is slain (v 6; 51:16; Gen. 31:54; 46:1; Lev. 3:1-6; 4:10, 26, 31, 35; 7:11-37; Isa. 1:11; Dan. 9:27; Hos. 3:4)
j Heb. minchah, a sacrificial offering; a donation; a gift (v 6; 20:3; 96:8; Gen. 4:3-5; Num. 5:18-26; Mal. 1:10-13; 2:12)
k Heb. karah, digged; opened by boring or digging (v 6; 7:15; 57:6; 119:85; Gen. 50:5; Num. 21:18; Jer. 18:20-22). The idea is that the Messiah had no stopped ear to God and His Word. In Isa. 50:5 the Heb. word for opened is pathah, opening as one would a door. One cannot stop his ear to God or truth and reap benefits (Mt. 13:14-16). The reference also is to boring the ear through as a sign of a perpetual servant (Ex. 21:2-6)
l Lo, I come - here I am. A term of an obedient servant ready for service m Obedience is the great lesson here. It was not God's will for animals to be offered to redeem man, but that a human victim of infinite merit should be offered for his redemption. That there might be such a victim, a body was prepared so God could be manifest in flesh and take man's place (Gen. 3:15; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:18-23; Heb. 2:9-18; 10:5-9). Christ came to be just such a sacrifice (v 8; Heb. 10:5-9) n Thy law is in my bowels or inward parts. Cp. 2 Cor. 3:3; Heb. 8:10; 10:16
o Here we have the ministry of the Messiah, His preaching, teaching, and healing (v 9-10; Mt. 4:23-24; 9:35; Lk. 4:16-21; Acts 10:38) p This refers to the plan of redemption for Jews and Gentiles (Rom. 3:24-31)
q The multitudes of Jews and Gentiles who received benefits from the Messiah's ministry (Jn. 3:16; Mk. 16:15-20)
r This refers to the fulfillment of the covenants and promises through Jesus Christ and His great salvation (Jn. 1:16-17; Rom. 3:2; 9:4-5; 2 Cor. 1:20) s Christ is God's salvation to all men (Mt. 1:21; Jn. 4:42; Acts 5:31; 13:23)
t Christ is the highest expression of the loving-kindness of God (Jn. 3:16) u Christ is the truth of God (Jn. 1:1-2, 14; 14:6)
v 12 requests of David:
1 Withhold not Your tender mercies (v 11)
2 Let Your loving-kindness continually preserve me (v 11)
3 Let Your truth continually preserve me (v 11)
4 Be pleased to deliver me (v 13)
5 Make haste to help me (v 13)
6 Let them be ashamed that seek to destroy my soul (v 14)
7 Let them be confounded that seek to destroy me (v 14)
8 Let them be driven back that wish me evil (v 14)
9 Let them be put to shame that wish me evil (v 14)
10 Let them be desolate that mock me (v 15)
11 Let all those that seek You rejoice and be glad in You (v 16)
12 Let those that love Your salvation magnify You (v 16) w The kind of heart failure that will not kill you (v 12)

a See note u, 35:4
b Heb. nephesh, the seat of the emotions, passions, feelings, and desires. See notes on Job 6:7; 12:10; 14:22; 16:4

d 7 blessings for considering the poor:
1 Deliverance in time of trouble (v 1)
2 Preservation (v 2)
3 Revived to life again (v 2)
4 Blessed upon earth (v 2)
5 Deliverance from enemies (v 2)
6 Strength (Heb. saad, support; refreshing; healing) upon the bed of languishing (Heb. deval, sickness; sorrow, v 3; Job 6:7)
7 Made to recover in weakness (Heb. choli, v 3; Dt. 7:15; 28:59, 61; 1 Ki. 17:17; 2 Ki. 13:14; 2 Chr. 21:15, 19; Eccl. 5:17; Isa. 38:9; Hos. 5:13)
e Heb. chayah, to keep alive; restore life, hence, resurrection (v 2; 22:29; 30:3; 33:19; Gen. 6:19-20; 7:3; Num. 31:18; Josh. 14:10; 2 Sam. 8:2)
f 4 requests of David:
1 Be merciful unto me (v 4)
2 Heal my soul of sin (v 4)
3 Be merciful unto me (v 10)
4 Raise me up (v 10)
g Soul healing is mentioned only one time while bodily healing is mentioned hundreds of times in Scripture 10 kinds of healing in Scripture:
1 Bodily healing (Ex. 15:26; Ps. 103:3; Mt. 10:1-8; Jas. 5:14-16, notes)
2 Soul healing (v 4)
3 Healing of land (2 Chr. 7:14)
4 Backslidings (Jer. 3:22; Hos. 14:4)
5 Brokenhearts (Ps. 147:3; Lk. 4:18)
6 Water (Ex. 15:25; 2 Ki. 2:21-22; Ezek. 47:8-11)
7 Hurt (Jer. 6:14; 8:11; Nah. 3:19)
8 Empires (Jer. 51:8-9; Rev. 13:3, 12)
9 National healing (Isa. 30:26)
10 Healing of nations - preservation of life (Rev. 22:2)
h Question 42, Next, 42:2; This is to be expected of enemies (Mt. 5:10-12)
i It is difficult to tell whether any statements in v 5-8 refer in particular to the Messiah, but v 9 does without question. There is no doubt a double fulfilment in these verses of both David and Christ. Every statement could be understood of both men. The one in v 4 could not refer to Christ, for He knew no sin (1 Pet. 2:22) 8 statements revealing enmity:
1 When shall he die (v 5)?
2 When shall his name perish (v 5)?
3 He speaks falsely to the face (v 6)
4 His heart increases iniquity against me (v 6)
5 He slanders me in public (v 6)
6 All that hate me whisper against me when they gather (v 7)
7 They plan my hurt (v 7)
8 They say that an evil thing is poured out upon him and he will not recover from it (v 8)
j 32nd prophecy in Ps. (41:9, fulfilled in Judas, Jn. 13:18). Next, v 12 k Heb. shalom, peace; prosperity; completeness (v 9; Jer. 20:10) l This shows to what extent Judas was a familiar friend of Christ. He was a genuine trusted disciple at one time, but fell by transgression (Acts 1:25). See 120 facts about him under Judas in the Index m It is considered an act of great baseness among Eastern nations for one to do an evil deed against those who gave him hospitality. Quoted in Jn. 13:18 n An idiom which means taking action against one o Heb. qum, to cause to raise up (v 10). Here it means raised up from the deep humility and seeming defeat David experienced as he fled from Absalom and was betrayed by Ahithophel (2 Sam. 15:31), who no doubt is also referred to in v 9 as the betrayer of David p Heb. shalam, to finish; complete; repay (v 10; Judg. 1:7; 2 Ki. 9:26; Jer. 51:56)
q This proves that his trial was during the rebellion under Absalom (2 Sam. 15-18) r 33rd prophecy in Ps. (41:12, unfulfilled). Next, 45:6. Here we have David's faith in God and his destiny referred to. Cp. 23:6
s Cp. 1 Ki. 1:47-48; 1 Chr. 16:36; 29:10; Lk. 1:68-70

THE SECOND BOOK OF PSALMS - The Exodus Book: Concerning National Israel (Psalms 42-72)

a First of 10 psalms for the sons of Korah (42, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 85, 87, 88). See Korah (Num. 16: 26-9; 27: 3; Jude 11). The Syriac says, "It is a Psalm which David sang when he was in exile, and desired to return to Jerusalem." The Arabic says, "A Psalm for the backsliding Jews."

b The hart is fond of feeding near the waters. When hunted he will take to the river, stay submerged as long as his breath permits, then swim down stream in the middle so as not to touch the branches of trees on either side. He thus prevents the hounds from finding his scent. Sometimes he will stay in the water submerged with only his nose out, until he is routed. In a chase he becomes faint and longs for the water intensely. Cp. Joel 1: 20 c God is often pictured as the source of living water for the refreshment of the spiritually thirsty (36: 8-9; Isa. 12: 3; 32: 2; 41: 17-18; 44: 3; Jn. 4: 14; 7: 37-39)

d 4 "P's" in Ps. 42:
1 Panting (v 1) 3 Pouring (v 5)
2 Pouring (v 4) 4 Praising (v 11)
This is not the quiet longing and inward desire, but the audible panting produced by the agony of thirst - the intense desire and overwhelming sense of want e 10fold intensity of seeking:

1 Soul panting (42: 1) 1B)
2 Tongue failing for thirst (Isa. 41: 17-3 Soul fainting for thirst (Ps. 107: 5)
4 Flesh longing for God as a dry and thirsty land longs for water (Ps. 63: 1; 143: 6)
5 Pouring out the soul in prayer (42: 4)
6 Following hard after God (63: 8)
7 Flesh crying out after Him (84: 2)
8 Watching for God more than they that watch for the day (130: 5-6)
9 Going forth weeping (42: 3; 126: 5-6)
10 Seeking as for hid treasures (Pr. 2: 3-5)

e 5 things to thirst for:
1 The living God (v 2; 63: 1; 143: 6)
2 Righteousness (Mt. 5: 6)
3 Spiritual waters of salvation (Jn. 4: 14; 6: 35; Rev. 22: 17; Isa. 55: 1-3)
4 Wisdom and knowledge (Pr. 2: 1-11)
5 Spirit baptism (Jn. 7: 37-39)

g 10 personal references in Ps. 42, p. 627

h 3 times a year all males were to appear before God in Israel (Ex. 23: 17). The word holyday is used only here and in Col. 2: 16

i Questions 45-46. Next, v 9

j Heb. shachach, to sink or depress; bend down; humble self (v 5, 6, 11; 43: 2). This may indicate that the psalm was composed when David fled from Absalom, at the time he crossed the Jordan and headed toward the mountains of the north, the source of Jordan (2 Sam. 17: 22). See Examples of despondency, p. 627

k A large sacred mountain forming the S. portion of the Anti-Lebanon range, about 9,166 ft. high, the summit of which consists of 3 peaks which are rarely free from snow. The cool heights condense the moisture of the atmosphere so rapidly that mists fall frequently and cover the mountain. Dew is so thick at night as to be like rain (42: 6-7; 133: 3). The upper part is bare, but the slopes are covered with vegetation. In ancient times ship-builders got fir from the mountain (Ezek. 27: 5). It was a haunt for wild beasts (Cant. 4: 8)

l This is a small hill between the Hermons and the Jordan. It means little hill and is probably the northern part of the Anti-Lebanon range called Sion (Dt. 4: 48), Sirion and Senir (Dt. 3: 9) and is distinguished from Hermon (1 Chr. 5: 23; Cant. 4: 8)

m Heb. tehom, an abyss, as a surging mass of water; the deep sea or subterranean water supply (v 7; 36: 6; 104: 6; 148: 7; Gen. 1: 2; 7: 11; 8: 2; 49: 25; Dt. 33: 13; Job 38: 30; 41: 32; Pr. 8: 28; Isa. 51: 10; 63: 13; Ezek. 26: 19; 31: 4, 15; Amos 7: 4; Hab. 3: 10). It literally means the confused noise of deep waters on the shore when the proud waves roar or to the floods of a waterspout, as in note n, below n Heb. tsinnor, to be hollow; a gutter;

PSALM 42

Fourth Psalm of Instruction (on help in distress)
To the chief Musician, Maschil (instruction), [a]for the sons of Korah. 1 Twofold thirst of the soul

[b]AS the hart panteth after the water brooks, [c]so [d]panteth my soul after thee, O God.
2 My soul [e]thirsteth for God, for the living God: [f]when shall I come and appear before God?

2 Sevenfold depression of the soul

3 [g]My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?
4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept [h]holyday.

3 Fourfold appeal to the soul (v 11; 43: 5)

5 [i]Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

4 Fourteenfold prayer of distress and appeal to God

6 O my God, my soul is [j]cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jŏr'dan, and of [k]the Hĕr'mon-ites, from the [l]hill Mi'zar.
7 [m]Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy [n]waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.
8 [o]Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.
9 I will say unto God my rock, [p]Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

5 Fourfold appeal to the soul (v 5; 43: 5)

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou [q]disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the [r]health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 43

Eleventh Prayer of Distress
1 Eightfold request for deliverance from distress

JUDGE me, O God, and plead [b]my cause against [c]an ungodly nation: O [d]deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.
2 For thou art the [e]God of my strength: [f]why dost thou cast me off? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
3 O send out thy [g]light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy [h]holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

2 THEN: 3 promises to God

4 [i]Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.

3 Fourfold appeal to the soul (42: 5, 11)

5 [j]Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou [k]disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the [l]health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM 44

Fifth Psalm of Instruction (on help in distress)
To the chief Musician [m]for the sons of Korah, Maschil (instruction). 1 Eightfold deliverance by God of Israel under Joshua

WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what [n]work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.
2 How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.
3 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst [o]favour unto them.

2 Eightfold confidence in God as Israel's Deliverer

4 [p]Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jā'cob.
5 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.
6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.
7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.
8 In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. [q]Sē'lah.

3 Sixteenfold judgment on Israel: God blamed for sufferings

9 [r]But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and [s]goest not forth with our armies.

a 8fold request of David:
1 Judge me (v 1)
2 Plead my cause (v 1). These two requests ask God to be his lawyer in his case against the ungodly 1)
3 Deliver me from deceitful men (v
4 Deliver me from unjust men (v 1)
5 Send out Your light (v 3)
6 Send out Your truth (v 3)
7 Let them lead me (v 3)
8 Let them bring me unto Your holy hill, and to Your tabernacles (v 3)

b 6 personal references
1 My cause (v 1)
2 My strength (v 2)
3 My exceeding joy (v 4)
4 My God (v 4, 5)
5 My soul (v 5)
6 My countenance (v 5)
There are 17 personal pronouns; 8 requests; 4 questions; and 3 vows in this short psalm

c Here Israel is called an ungodly nation because of her ungodly king who was deceitful and unjust to God's chosen king - David (v 1)

d This is David's prayer for deliverance from Absalom (2 Sam. 15-18)

e God is my defence and refuge (v 2)

f Questions 52-53. Next, v 5. Cp. with questions in v 5; 42: 5, 11; 77: 7-9

g A reference to the Urim and Thummim, lights and perfections, i. e., two stones by which light and perfect knowledge of the will of God were attained. See note on Ex. 28: 30

h This is Zion, therefore, the psalm was composed when David fled from Absalom and from Zion. Now he prays to be led back to Zion and to the place of worship in the tabernacle of God (v 3; 2 Sam. 15-18)

i 3fold vow of David:
1 If God permits me to get back to Zion and His tabernacle (v 3), then will I go to the altar of God (v 4)
2 Then will I go to God in prayer who is my exceeding joy (v 4)
3 Then will I praise God upon the harp (v 4). This indicates that David was the author of this psalm, for he was the sweet harpist and singer of Israel (2 Sam. 23: 1)

j Questions 54-55. Next, 44: 21. These questions prove that David was the author of this psalm, for the whole tone of the song is like that of Ps. 42. Cp. 42: 5, 11 a waterspout (v 7). It refers to large tubes formed by the clouds something like funnels which often hang from the clouds along the Mediterranean coast. They pour out vast quantities of water in torrents on the earth. In all western Asia the rains, though comparatively infrequent, are copious and heavy while they last. The uneven and often abrupt surface of the country, steep mountains and deep valleys, and rapid gathering of waters to a single point, make it possible for mighty torrents to appear suddenly, rushing along the gorges where there was not a drop of water a moment before. These pour down with irresistible force, often tearing away rocks and trees. Houses erected near them are in great danger of being carried away by these angry flash floods. Should there be any weakness in the foundation, the rushing waters soon work their way beneath and take the house away. Cp. Mt. 7: 24-29

o Here we have David's renewal of faith when he remembered God and His goodness (v 6). See notes on Ps. 77 a The idea of this verse is: You permit us to become slaves to our enemies and do not profit by it. That is, You make us a present to our enemies without seeking profit (v 12)

b Nearly all these statements are previous predictions of what would come upon Israel if they rebelled against God and refused to keep the law (Lev. 26: 16–45; Dt. 28:15–68)
c This is just like the average person who is cast down and finds it hard to get his prayers answered. He accuses God wrongfully and maintains innocence for himself. Here the psalmist brags on his own faithfulness to God and his clean living (v 17–22)
We have not:
1 Forgotten God (v 17)
2 Dealt falsely with Your covenant
3 Turned back in our hearts
4 Declined from Your way
5 Forgotten the name of God
6 Stretched out our hands to idols
Yet, all the curses (of v 9–16) have come upon us. God has sore broken us, covered us with the shadow of death (v 19), and we are killed all day long for His sake (v 22)
This is an unjust picture of God's dealings and one which many men give; it is untrue as proved in note b, above. See Job's great mistake at end of the book Job

l The king here is supposed to be Solomon and the song about his marriage to Pharaoh's daughter (1 Ki. 3). This seems clear from the fact that kings' daughters were in his harem (v 9–16; 1 Ki. 11). The whole picture is that of compliments paid the bride-groom (v 2–5, 8) and the bride (v 9–16) by their friends and companions. The Messiah is referred to only in v 6–7 as far as proof can be given. See Heb. 1:6–9. To force Christ and the church in all this psalm is out of the question, as seen in note v, v 9. Note carefully the 7 points in the text outline of the psalm m This is a highly complimentary statement of king Solomon who no doubt was a very handsome man. It is not any more extravagant than some of the language used of the shepherd-lover in the Song of Solomon (Song 5:2, 10–16); or used of the Shulamite shepherdess by Solomon and the shepherd-lover (Song 1:10–11, 15; 4:1–5, 11–16; 6:9–10; 7:1–9). The statement could be made of any handsome man, not Christ only. It refers to the king of v 1. Only v 6–7 are prophetic of the Messiah (Heb. 1:8–9).
n This refers to the divine gift of wisdom that God poured out upon Solomon (1 Ki. 3:5–15; 4:29–34; 10:1–13)

z When an Asiatic princess was brought to her spouse, she was clothed in a palakee, with no part of her person being seen. She was attended by principal friends and the ceremony was accompanied with great rejoicing. Following the palakee, the attendants thus entered the king's palace. There is no comparison of this with the marriage supper of the Lamb (Rev. 19) a Your own children shall be rulers in the earth (v 16). It is not a divine prophecy requiring fulfillment b 35th prophecy in Ps. (45:17, being fulfilled, for Solomon is known in all generations as a wise man). Next, 46:4

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.
11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.
12 [a]Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.
13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.
14 Thou makest us a [b]byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.
15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.

4 Eightfold accusation of God and declaration of innocence

17 [c]All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.
18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way;
19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.
20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god;
21 [d]Shall not God search this out? for he [e]knoweth the secrets of the heart.
22 [f]Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

5 Eightfold prayer for deliverance from distress

23 Awake, [g]why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.
24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our [h]affliction and our oppression?
25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.
26 [i]Arise for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

PSALM 45

Ninth Messianic Psalm
To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim (lilies), [j]for the sons of Korah, Maschil (instruction), A Song of loves.
1 The Psalmist inspired

MY heart is [k]inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching [l]the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 The beauty of the king: his gift of graciousness an eternal blessing from God

2 [m]Thou art fairer than the children of men: [n]grace is poured into thy lips: [a]therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 The power, majesty, and moral traits of the king

3 [b]Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O [c]most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.
4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously [d]because of truth and meekness and righteousness; [e]and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.
5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

4 Sixfold exaltation and eternal reign of the Messiah (Isa. 9:6–7; Dan. 7:13–14)

★6 [f]Thy throne, O [g]God, [h]is for ever and ever: the [i]sceptre of thy kingdom is a [j]right sceptre.
7 [k]Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath [l]anointed thee with the [m]oil of gladness above thy [n]fellows.

5 The garments of the king: their beauty and fragrance

8 All [o]thy garments smell of [p]myrrh, and [q]aloes, and [r]cassia, out of the [s]ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

6 The queen: her attendants

9 [t]Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy [u]right hand did stand the [v]queen in gold of Ophir.
10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also [w]thine own people, and thy father's house;
11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty; for [x]he is thy Lord; and [y]worship thou him.
12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.
13 The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.
14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.
15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall [z]enter into the king's palace.
16 [a]Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.

7 The Psalmist inspired

★17 [b]I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

PSALM 46

Tenth Messianic Psalm
To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, A Song upon Alamoth (maidens or virgins). 1 Three things a In view of your blessing of beauty and grace, I conclude that God has blessed you forever (v 2) b This must be understood as an exaltation of king Solomon by those of the wedding party (v 3–5). To say that such an expression could not be used of any but a man mighty in war, hence Solomon, a man of peace could not be referred to is wrong. It merely is an expression showing him to be as capable of commanding as he was glorious and majestic (v 3–5) c There is no word in the original for mighty, hence it has no special reference to God or Messiah. Solomon's glory and majesty were something to behold by even those accustomed to splendor (1 Ki. 10:1–10) d This shows the true spirit of Solomon at the time God loved him and before he became old, loved many strange women and turned from Him (2 Sam. 12:24; 1 Ki. 3:5–15; 4:29–34; 11:1–13)

e This is figurative of the triumph of Solomon over all enemies round about (v 4–5). He had peace for 40 years (1 Ki. 11:42)
f 34th prophecy in Ps. (45:6–7, fulfilled in Christ, Heb. 1:8–9). Next, v 17
g This is proof that Jesus Christ is God – one of the 3 divine persons in the Trinity (Trinity, p. 280*. Cp. Isa. 7:14; 9:6–7; Jer. 23:6; 33:16; Mic. 5:1–2; Mt. 1:18–23; Jn. 1:1–2; Heb. 1:1–2; Rev. 1:8, 11; 21:6; 22:13)
h Christ's kingdom, which He sets up at His 2nd advent, will be eternal, not only for 1,000 years (Isa. 9:6–7; Ezek. 43:7–9; Dan. 2:44–45; 7:13–14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32–33; Heb. 1:8; 12:28; Rev. 11:15; 22:4–5). The purpose of the first 1,000 years is to rid the earth of all rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24–28; Eph. 1:10). Christ will then continue to reign forever over the people who go from the Millennium into the new earth i Heb. shebet, an ornamental rod or staff used as a symbol of sovereignty and power (v 6; Gen. 49:10; Num. 24:17; Isa. 14:5; Ezek. 19:11, 14; Amos 1:5; Zech. 10:11)
j Heb. mishor, upright place or thing (v 6; 67:4). Christ's sceptre is one of righteousness (v 6–7; Heb. 1:8. Cp. Isa. 11:4–5; 16:5; 32:1; Jer. 23:6; 33:15) k This describes the character of the Messiah (Heb. 1:8–9). Because He did love righteousness and hate lawlessness His God, even God the Father, made Him the Messiah and anointed Him with the oil of gladness above His fellows (v 7; Acts 2:36; Eph. 1:20–23; Phil. 2:9–11; Heb. 1:1–3; 12:1–2; 1 Pet. 3:22)
l Messiah-Christ means the anointed One m This indicates that all mourning, sorrow, and death had come to an end. Ancients did not anoint themselves while mourning n Heb. chaber, companion (v 7; Eccl. 4:10; Isa. 44:11; Ezek. 37:19). The companions of the Messiah were the apostles and other disciples (Mt. 10:1–8; Acts 1:1–8, 15–26; Eph. 2:19–22)
o Here we come back to king Solomon of v 1–5. The Asiatics are very partial to perfumes, everything with them being perfumed, especially their garments (v 9; Song 1:12, 14; 3:6; 4:10–11; 5:5, 13; 6:2) p This substance is mentioned as a perfume (v 8; Pr. 7:17; Cant. 3:6; 4:14) and as one of the ingredients of the holy incense (Ex. 30:23). It comes from the dried gum of a balsam tree in Arabia. It has a faint though agreeable smell and a bitter taste
q A substance for perfuming garments (v 8), beds (Pr. 7:17; Cant. 4:14), and the dead (Jn. 19:39) r A fragrant plant growing in Asia closely allied to the cinnamon. The powdered bark was used in perfumes (v 8), and in the holy anointing oil (Ex. 30:24) s Ivory houses are mentioned in v 8; 1 Ki. 22:39; Amos 3:15. Ivory thrones (1 Ki. 10:18), benches (Ezek. 27:6), horns (Ezek. 27:15), beds (Amos 6:4), and vessels (Rev. 18:12) are also mentioned in Scripture t Kings' daughters being among the kings' honorable women certainly suggests Solomon (1 Ki. 11:1–3) u This would not be a fitting picture of the bride of Christ, as seen on p. 629

a 3 things God is:
1 A refuge (v 1, 7, 11)
2 Strength (v 1) 5)
3 A very present help in trouble (v 1,
This is supposed to have been written during the siege of Jerusalem by Sennacherib. It fits no other period of Israel's history. It is the picture of a successful defense, not a victorious campaign

b 4 times not to fear Though:
1 The earth be removed (v 2)
2 Mountains be carried into the sea
3 Waters roar and be troubled (v 3) 4 Mountains shake by an earthquake

c 36th prophecy in Ps. (46:4-11, unfulfilled). Next, 47:1

d This is no doubt the river that will flow out from the sanctuary, the temple, the capital building of Christ when He comes to reign. It will flow southward from the temple through Jerusalem and then be parted into two streams. Half of the river will flow into the Mediterranean Sea and half into the Dead Sea. The waters of the Dead Sea will then be healed and fish will come from the Mediterranean into the Dead Sea, exceedingly many (Ezek. 47:1-12; Zech. 14:8). This could also refer to the river flowing out from the capital building of God in the New Jerusalem when it is moved to the planet earth (Rev. 22:1-2, notes)

8 reasons for future fulfillment:
1 There is no such river in Jerusalem now to fulfill v 4. There will be one when the Messiah comes (Ezek. 47:1-12; Zech. 14:8)
2 God is not in the midst of Israel to fulfill v 5, 10-11 literally
3 Verse 6 is not a description of any past history of Israel. It fits more the prophecy of Armageddon when the Lord will utter His voice before His armies and defeat the raging nations surrounding Jerusalem (Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 2:1-11; 3:1-21; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21)
4 The desolations in the earth, of v 8, will be caused by the seals, trumpets, and vials of Rev. 6:12-9:21; 11:15-19; 16:1-21. No desolations have been made in the earth during Israel's history in Palestine as there will be during these judgments of the future tribulation, and as seen in the passages above
5 Making wars to cease unto the end of the earth has not come to pass yet. This will happen at the 2nd advent of Christ and the Millennium (v 9; Isa. 2:2-4; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10)
6 The destruction of weapons of war will not take place until the Millennium (v 9; Isa. 2:2-4; Mic. 4:1-5)
7 Israel will not know God until the Messiah comes (v 10; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Mt. 23:37-39; Acts 15:13-18; Rom. 11:25-29)
8 God will not be exalted in the earth and among the heathen until the Millennium (v 10; Isa. 2:2-4, 11-21; 11:3-16; Ezek. 37:16-28; 38:16-23; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Mt. 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-20:10)

e See note h, 3:2

f 3 works of God:
1 Making desolations in the earth (v 8; Rev. 6:12-17; 8:7-9:21; 16:1-21)
2 Causing wars to cease (v 9; Isa. 2:2-4)
3 Breaking the weapons of war (v 9; Isa. 2:2-4; Mic. 4:1-5)

g This is God's ultimate purpose in all the earth. To this end He will send Jesus Christ with the armies of heaven to take over the governments of this world, reign 1,000 years and rid the earth of all rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-20:10). After that God will become all and all as before rebellion began with Lucifer and the pre-Adamites, and later, Adam and the Adamites of this period (1 Cor. 15:24-28)

h 37th prophecy in Ps. (47:1-9, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the Millennium and forever). Next, 48:1

i Clapping hands was one method of rejoicing in Israel (v 1; 2 Ki. 11:12. Cp. 98:8; Isa. 55:12). This is looking forward to the kingdom age when all the earth will rejoice because of its eternal deliverance (Rom. 8:21-25; Isa. 35). Only once is there a command to clap hands (v 1)

What God is to His people: Five-fold confidence

GOD *a*is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will *b*not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Sē'lah.

2 The Millennial river (Ezek. 47:1-12; Zech. 14:8)

*4 *c*There is *d*a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

3 Tenfold reign of God and Messiah over Israel (Isa. 2:2-4; 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14; Rev. 11:15; 1 Cor. 15:24)

5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

7 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Já'cob is our refuge. *e*Sē'lah.

4 Invitation: 5 works of God

8 Come, behold the *f*works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

5 Command: God's ultimate purpose in the earth

●10 Be still, and know that I am God: *g*I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Já'cob is our refuge. Sē'lah.

PSALM 47

Eleventh Messianic Psalm
To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

1 Two commands to praise: 7 reasons to praise

*h*O *i*CLAP your hands, all ye people; *i*shout unto God with the voice of triumph.●

2 *k*For the LORD most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.

3 He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

4 He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Já'cob whom he loved. Sē'lah.

5 God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

2 Five commands to praise: 7 reasons to praise. Cp. 48:9; 54:4; 56:12; 68:3

●6 *a*Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

●7 *b*For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

9 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Á'brā-hām: for the *c*shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM 48

Twelfth Messianic Psalm
A Song and Psalm for the sons of Korah.

1 Fifteen-fold greatness of God and His capital city

*GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his *c*holiness.

2 Beautiful for situation, *f*the joy of the whole earth, is mount *g*Zi'ŏn, on the *h*sides of the north, the city of the great King.

3 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

4 For, lo, *i*the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

5 They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

7 *j*Thou breakest the ships of Tär'shish with an east wind.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Sē'lah.

2 Seven commands to praise God: 7 reasons to praise

9 We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy *k*temple.

10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

11 *l*Let mount Zi'ŏn rejoice, let the daughters of Jū'dah be glad, because of thy judgments.

12 Walk about Zi'ŏn, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

▸14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: *m*he will be our guide even unto death.

PSALM 49

Sixth Psalm of Instruction (on riches, wisdom, and honor)
To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.

1 Universal call to hear: three commands

HEAR this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabit-a 4 times in this one verse men are commanded to sing praises to God (v 6). 50 times in Scripture men are commanded to sing praises to God (v 6, 7; 66:2; 68:4, 32; 81:1; 96:1-2; 98:1, 4-5; 105:2; 135:3; 147:7; 149:1, 3, 5; Ex. 15:21; Num. 21:17; 1 Chr. 16:9, 23; Isa. 12:5; 26:19; 27:2; 42:10-11; 44:23; 49:13; 52:9; 54:1; Jer. 20:13; 31:7; Zeph. 3:14; Zech. 2:10; Rom. 15:9; Jas. 5:13)

b 7 reasons for singing praises to God:
1 He is our King (v 6)
2 He is King of all the earth (v 7)
3 He reigns over the heathen (v 8)
4 He sits upon the throne of His holiness (v 8)
5 Princes are gathered together (v 9)
6 The shields of earth are His (v 9)
7 He is greatly exalted (v 9)
These statements are yet to be fulfilled in a more literal sense c The Sept. trans. it, the strong ones of the earth. The idea is that all the rulers and defences of the earth belong to God (v 9) d 38th prophecy in Ps. (48:1-14, partially fulfilled, but is mainly a description of the eternal city of Jerusalem, v 8, 14). Next, 49:14

e See Holiness, p. 627

f This will be true in the Millennium and forever when Messiah reigns in Jerusalem over all nations (v 1; Isa. 2:2-4; Ezek. 48; Zech. 14)

g Immediately south of Mt. Moriah

h With Moriah and the temple immediately on the north side of Mt. Zion i Many Gentile kings have envied the prosperity of Israel and coveted the riches of the temple, but they have had no power against it until God brought judgment for sin. In the future restoration many will see the glory of the eternal temple and fear God (Isa. 2:2-4; Zech. 14:16-21)

j See 1 Ki. 9:26; 10:11, 22; 22:48

k Mention of a temple gives no clue of when written (see note 1, 27:4)

l 7 fold command to praise God (v 11-13):
1 Let Mt. Zion rejoice
2 Let the daughters of Judah be glad
3 Walk about Zion
4 Go round about her
5 Tell the towers thereof
6 Mark well her bulwarks
7 Consider her palaces

m 7 reasons to praise God:
1 His lovingkindnesses (v 9)
2 God is in the midst of the temple
3 Because of His name (v 10)
4 His right hand is full of righteousness (v 10)
5 Because of His judgments (v 11)
6 He is God forever (v 14)
7 He will guide until death (v 14)

n 2 commands to all men:
1 Hear this (v 1)
2 Give ear (v 1)
This is the 7th of 10 anonymous psalms for the sons of Korah (note a, 42:1)

j 13 times in Scripture men are commanded to shout (v 1; 5:11; 32:11; 35:27; 132:9, 16; Josh. 6:5, 16; Isa. 12:6; 42:11; 44:23; Zeph. 3:14; Zech. 9:9)

7 examples of shouting:
1 Israel in false worship (Ex. 32:17-18)
2 Israel when fire fell (Lev. 9:24)
3 Israel at the fall of Jericho (Josh. 6)
4 Israel when the ark came home (1 Sam. 4:4-5; 2 Sam. 6:15)
5 Israel when Saul was chosen (1 Sam. 10:24)
6 Judah in battle (2 Chr. 13:15)
7 Israel when the temple foundation was laid (Ezra 3:11-13)
These and other examples of shouting in Scripture are those of national triumphs, shouts in battle, or some other special occasion k 7 reasons to shout and praise God:

1 A time of triumph (v 1)
2 God is most high and terrible (v 2)
3 He is a great King over earth (v 2)
4 He shall subdue all enemies (v 3)
5 He shall subdue all nations (v 3)
6 He shall choose our inheritance (v 4)
7 He Himself is triumphant (v 5)

ants of the[c]world:
2 [b]Both low and high, rich and poor, together.
3 [c]My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.
4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

2 Riches cannot redeem the soul and give eternal life

5 [d]Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?
6 They that [e]trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;
7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a [g]ransom for him:
8 (For the redemption of their soul is[h]precious, and [i]it ceaseth for ever:)
9 [j]That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

3 All men die alike and all bodies see corruption like the beasts (v 8-9; Gen. 3:19; Eccl. 3:19-20; Dan. 12:2)

10 [k]For he seeth that wise men [l]die, likewise the fool and the brutish person [m]perish, and leave their wealth to others.
11 Their [n]inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.
12 [o]Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.
13 [p]This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Sē'lah.

4 Resurrection of the body and redemption from sheol. The confidence of the Psalmist. Cp. 1 Jn. 3:21

*14 [q]Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the [r]upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.
15 [s]But God will redeem my soul from the power of the [t]grave: for he shall receive me. Sē'lah.

5 Two commands not to fear the rich who see corruption like beasts (v 10, refs.)

●16 "Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;
17 [v]For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
18 [w]Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.
19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never [x]see light.
20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that[y]perish.

PSALM 50

Psalm of Judgment
A [z]Psalm of Asaph. 1 The Judge: tenfold work of judgment

*1 [a]THE [b]mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth, from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.
2 Out of Zī'ŏn, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.
3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.
4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.
5 Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.
6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. [c]Sē'lah.

2 Fourteenfold reproof of Israel: two commands

●7 [d]Hear, O my people, and [e]I will speak; O Is'ra-el, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.
8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.
9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.
10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.
11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.
12 If I were [f]hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.
13 [g]Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

3 God and man's part in answered prayer

●14 [h]Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High:
●15 And "call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.◂

4 The wicked reproved: their twelve sins

16 But unto the "wicked God saith, "What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?
17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.
18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.
19 Thou givest thy mouth to a The ungodly will be cast into outer darkness (Mt. 8:12; 25:30; Jude 13)

b Heb. damah, to be cut off (v 12, 20). Not the same word as in note m, v 10 c The 1st of 12 psalms of Asaph, son of Berachiah, one of the chief leaders of music in David's organization of tabernacle worship (1 Chr. 15:16-19; 16:5-7; 25:1-9; 2 Chr. 5:12; 35:15; Neh. 12:46). He was a composer of both words and music (2 Chr. 29:30). The 12 psalms of Asaph are 50, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83. Some object to the authorship of Ps. 74 and 79 as being by Asaph and claim they refer to the Babylonian captivity, but there is nothing in them to prove this. Many times Jerusalem was taken and plundered, and the writer by inspiration, could have predicted in song such desolation for any one of these times
d 40th prophecy in Ps. (50:1-6, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled when God the Father comes to earth with Christ (Dan. 7; Zech. 14; Tit. 2:13), Next, 52:5 e Heb. El Elohim Jehovah, meaning the God of Gods, even Jehovah. Occurs only here and in Josh. 22:22 (twice) f See 10 reasons this is the judgment of the nations, p. 628 g See note h, 3:2
h 5 commands to God's people:
1 Hear, and I will speak (v 7)
2 Hear, and I will testify against you (v 7)
3 Offer unto God thanksgiving (v 14)
4 Pay your vows to God (v 14)
5 Call upon God in trouble (v 15)
i 10 reasons for the 5 commands
1 Because I speak to you (v 7)
2 Because I testify against you (v 7)
3 I am the true God (v 7)
4 I am your God (v 7)
5 I will not rebuke you for not offering to Me those things that are already Mine (v 8-11)
(v 12)
6 I do not complain to you of hunger
7 I do not depend upon flesh and blood for life as you do (v 12-13)
8 I desire your praise (v 14)
9 I want truth and faithfulness from you - pay your vows (v 14)
10 I want you to pray and depend upon Me in trouble (v 15)
j That God and angels can and do eat food is one of the clearest facts of Scripture (Gen. 18:8; Ex. 24:9-11; Ps. 78:25; Lk. 22:16, 18, 30; 24:43; Rev. 19:9) k Question 60, Next, v 16. This question was not asked to prove that God cannot or that He does not eat food, but to emphasize the fact that He is not dependent upon the food that man must have to keep alive. He could not say that He never did eat meat, for He ate beef as seen in Gen. 18:7-8 l Offering praise to God is true worship and glorifying to Him (v 14-15, 23; 40:6; 51:17; Heb. 13:15). This is the opposite of being unthankful (2 Tim. 3:2) m The promises are always based upon meeting conditions. When one has faithfully offered praise to God and paid his vows to Him, as commanded in v 14, then he can claim the deliverance of v 15 n 12fold charge against the wicked: You 1 Are insincere in declaring My statutes (v 16)
2 Break My covenant (v 16)
3 Hate instruction (v 17)
4 Cast My words away (v 17)
5 Find pleasure in thieves (v 18)
6 Partake with adulterers (v 18)
7 Give your mouth to speak evil (v 19)
8 Deceive with the tongue (v 19)
9 Speak against your brother (v 20)
10 Slander your brother (v 20)
11 Think that I am lawless and corrupt as you are (v 21) 12 Forget God (v 22)

3 They shall go in death like others
4 They shall never see light
5 Their bodies perish like the beasts. This could only refer to the body going back to dust again (v 9, 12; Eccl. 3:19-20; Jas. 2:26; p. 620-622)
w 2 common practices (v 18):
1 Men satisfy themselves as long as they live
2 Men will praise another when he is prosperous a Heb. cheled, age; the world as transitory, as in 17:14. Only found twice b A term meaning all mankind. The call is for all classes to realize the need of redemption (v 5-15) c 5 personal references:

1 My mouth shall speak wisdom (v 3)
2 My heart shall understand (v 3) 4)
3 My ear shall incline to a parable (v
4 My dark saying will I put to music and play it upon a harp (v 4) 5 My heels (my feet) are surrounded by the wicked (v 5). The true rendering is: Why should I fear in the evil day, when the iniquity of my enemies surrounds me?
d Question 59, Next, 50:13
e Heb. batah, to confide in, so as to be secure without fear. It is rendered trust 107 times. Trusting and boasting in riches is a fool's confidence and it soon vanishes. Cp. Lk. 12:15-21 f 4 things riches cannot buy:
1 Redemption for a brother's soul (v 7)
2 Ransom for one's own soul (v 7)
3 Eternal life for the soul (v 8-9)
4 Immortality of the body (v 9)
g Heb. kopher, to cover; a redemption price that will satisfy the claim; atonement (v 7; Ex. 30:12; Job 33:24; 36:18; Pr. 6:35; 13:8; 21:18; Isa. 43:3). Here it is not redemption of property, but of the soul (v 8)
h The redemption price of the soul is too high to be paid by corruptible things, as silver and gold. It takes the priceless blood of Christ to redeem the soul (Mt. 26:28; Col. 1:20; Heb. 9:12-28; 10:4-23; 13:12, 20; 1 Pet. 1:18-23; Rev. 1:5; 5:8-10; 7:14; 12:11)
i The redemption of themselves ceases forever; and is impossible by riches (v 6-9). The idea is that riches could never be the ransom price of the soul, for it is more valuable than all the world (Mk. 8:36; Lu. 9:16)
j The price for a man to be given life for the soul forever, and for the body to become immortal is too high for riches to buy (v 6-9). These facts of redemption constitute the dark saying the psalmist was to utter (v 4) k Lit., it must be seen that the rich die as do fools, even though they are rich and their wisdom teaches them the best method of managing their riches to get the best good out of them. Their wealth is left to others (v 10)
l Physical death is separation of the inner man from the outer man, the soul leaving the body (Jas. 2:26) m The word perish here is the equivalent of physical death. See Perish, p. 627. It never means annihilation of the body or soul n 3fold inward thought of the rich (v 11):
1 Their families shall continue forever
2 Their dwelling places shall continue to all generations
3 Their lands will be a memorial of their names
o In spite of man's effort to continue his name, family, and greatness his honor soon perishes and his memory is forgotten (v 12; Eccl. 3:19-20; Jas. 2:26) p It is folly for man to seek to continue his name and greatness, as in v 11. One's posterity seeks to preserve his memory, but it is useless (v 13)
q 39th prophecy in Ps. (v 14-15, unfulfilled). Next, 50:1. Here, rich men die like sheep and other beasts (v 12, 14), and go to sheol, the unseen world. The word sheol is used 3 times here and is wrongly translated grave (Hell, p. 620)
r The godly shall be resurrected and have dominion over the wicked. This refers to the resurrected saints reigning over the coming perpetual generations of natural people (Gen. 9:12; Dan. 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 22:30; 1 Cor. 6:2-4; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 1:5-6; 5:10; 11:15; 22:4-5) s This refers to the time when Christ went to hell, liberated all the righteous souls, and led them captive to heaven (v 15; 16:10; 68:18; Eph. 4:7-10)
t Heb. sheol, hell (v 14-15; p. 620-622) u 2 things not to fear (v 16):
1 Man when he is made rich
2 One whose glory of his house is increased v 5 reasons not to fear wicked rich men:
1 They can carry no more to the grave than the poor man - nothing (v 17)
2 Their glory will vanish with them (v a God is longsuffering toward all sinners not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance (2 Pet. 3:9)

b God knows the thoughts of all men. The wicked here consider God no better than themselves - lawless and unfaithful (v 21) c 2 things related to salvation:

1 Offering praise to God (v 23)
2 Ordering the conversation (Heb. derek, way: course of life: walk) aright (v 23) d 21 requests of David for restoration:

1 Have mercy upon me (v 1)
2 Have mercy upon me according to Your lovingkindness (v 1)
3 Have mercy upon me according to Your many tender mercies (v 1)
4 Blot out my transgressions (v 1)
5 Wash me thoroughly from iniquity
6 Cleanse me from my sin (v 2)
7 Purge me with hyssop
8 Wash me (v 7) (v 8)
9 Make me to hear joy and gladness

11 Blot out all my iniquities (v 9)
12 Create in me a clean heart (10)
13 Renew a right spirit within me (v
14 Cast me not away from Your presence
15 Take not Your Holy Spirit from me (v 11, Cp. 1 Sam. 16:14)
16 Restore unto me the joy of Your salvation (12)
17 Uphold me with Your free Spirit (v
18 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness 19 Open my lips (v 15) (v 14)

f See note b, 17:7

g All statements in this psalm seeking forgiveness and restoration to grace as in the 21 requests of note d, above, show that seeking God, repentance, praying, confession of sin, and meeting other conditions are required of men who backslide
All scriptures require re-instatement with God when sin is committed (Ps. 51; Isa. 1:16-20; 55:7; 59:1-2; Mt. 3:2; 4:17; Lk. 13:3, 5; 24:47; Acts 2:38-39; 3:19; 26:18; Rom. 2:4-7; 3:24-31; 6:1-23; 8:1-13; 1 Cor. 1:18-24; 9:27; 1 Jn. 1:7-9; 3:5-10; Rev. 2:5; etc.)
The term blot out means to erase, as a debt from a book. Confession is always a condition of forgiveness (Lk. 13:3, 5; Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9)

h How could he be washed if his sin was not held against him?

i Why is this if it is not required of God?

j This only emphasizes the awfulness of sin in God's presence. The sins of all men are committed against others besides God, David's sin was also against Uriah, Bathsheba, and all Israel (2 Sam. 12)

k Quoted in Rom. 3:4

l This is one of a number of texts proving the doctrine of being born in sin (v 5; Gen. 3:15-19; Jn. 8:44; Rom. 2:12-16; 5:12-21; Eph. 2:1-3; 1 Jn. 3:8)

m This is the center of all true religion and righteousness if one is saved (2 Cor. 5:17-18), and of sin in all unsaved (Mk. 7:19-21; Rom. 1:18-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 3:5-10)

n All blood of sacrifices was sprinkled with hyssop, hence the expression here to be cleansed from all sin by faith in the true atoning blood (Mt. 26:28; Col. 1:20; Heb. 9:8-22; 10:1-23; 13:12, 20; 1 Jn. 1:7; Rev. 1:5; 5:8-10. Cp. Lev. 14:4-6; Num. 19:6, 18; Isa. 1:16-18)

o All these requests are useless if one does not need washing and cleansing from sin again when he goes back into sin. Sins of a backslider have to be blotted out (v 1, 9), washed (v 2, 7), cleansed (v 2, 7), acknowledged (v 3), and purged again. God must show mercy (v 1), be kind to (v 1), forgive (v 1, 9), and hide His face again from the sins of a backslider if he is restored to God. A new heart must be created and a right spirit renewed in a backslider again or he will be cast away from God's presence and have the Holy Spirit taken away from him, as stated in v 10-14. See note d, Gal. 4:19

p See Spirit, p. 628

evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, [e]and I kept silence; [b]thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

5 How to avert judgment

▶23 [c]Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

PSALM 51

First Prayer Psalm

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba (2 Sam. 12).

1 Four requests for forgiveness and cleansing

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, [d]according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies [g]blot out my transgressions.

2 [d]Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

2 Tenfold confession of sin

3 [i]For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4 [j]Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: [k]that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, [l]I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the [m]inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

3 Fifteen requests: 22 results if granted

7 [n]Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 [o]Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right [p]spirit within me.

11 [q]Cast me not away from thy presence; and [r]take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 [s]Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me [t]with thy free spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be [e]converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from [b]bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou [c]desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17 [d]The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, [e]thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto [f]Zi'ŏn: build thou the walls of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with [g]the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM 52

Seventh Psalm of Instruction (on treachery of the righteous)

To the chief Musician, Maschil (instruction), A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech (1 Sam. 21).

1 Sixfold character of Doeg (1 Sam. 22:7-23. Cp. 2 Sam. 15:1-12, 31; Ps. 55:12-14)

[a]WHY [b]boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. [l]Sĕ'lah.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

2 Threefold judgment of God

5 [k]God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Sĕ'lah.

3 Fourfold attitude of the righteous under the law

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but [l]trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

4 Four blessings of the just

8 [m]But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

PSALM 53

a Heb. shub, to turn back: retreat; recover; restore; to bring back (v 13; 19:7; Isa. 1:27; 6:10. Cp. Mt. 13:15; 18:3; Mk. 4:12; Lk. 22:32; Jn. 12:40; Acts 3:19; 15:3; 28:27; Jas. 5:19-20). Conversion, new birth, and all the phases of salvation we know in the gospel were known to O.T. saints. See p. 158 of N. T.

b This refers to the crime of having Uriah, the husband of Bathsheba, killed (2 Sam. 11:14-21) c This truth is stated two times (v 16; 40:6). God's real desire has always been that there be no sin to make it necessary for sacrifices to be offered. David is saying that crimes like his are not to be forgiven by animal sacrifices, that the law does not provide sacrifices to atone for deliberate murder and adultery. He realizes he is at the mercy of God as his judge; and mercy must come from His grace and not from His law. The law could only kill. It could not forgive transgressions of its precepts or give life unless perfect obedience to it was rendered d 2 sacrifices that are always acceptable:

1 A broken spirit. Heb. shabar, to shiver; break in pieces; reduce to splinters. See 35 broken things, p. 626
2 A broken and contrite heart. Heb. dakah, from daka, to crumble; beat to pieces; bruise; crush; humble (v 17; 34:18; Isa. 57:15). Cp. nakeh, smitten; maimed; dejected; contrite; lame (Isa. 66:2)

e God will not despise a broken and a contrite spirit or heart because of His infinite compassion, mercy, and grace which are promised to all who are crushed and beaten to pieces by sin and satanic powers

f The Heb. Zion or the Gr. Sion was the name of the city of David (2 Sam. 5:7). That Ophel and Zion are equivalent names applied to the highest point of the ridge running due south from Mount Moriah is now generally conceded (2 Chr. 27:3; 33:14; Neh. 3:26-31; 11:21). The word is never used in Scripture of the church or Christians

g The animal sacrifices and offerings of the law are here called the sacrifices of righteousness because it was right to offer them in faith in the coming Redeemer who fulfilled their predictive and shadowy program (Lk. 24:27, 44; Heb. 9:1-28; 10:1-23). They were righteous sacrifices because God commanded them until Christ came to be the fulfillment of them. Now, if they would be offered, they would be unrighteous sacrifices, for God ended them in Christ (Rom. 10:4; Gal. 3:19-28; 4:21-31; Heb. 7:11-10:23)

h Question 62, Next, 53:4

i 6fold character of Doeg (1 Sam. 21:7):
1 Boastful and treacherous (v 1)
2 A liar and a slanderer (v 2)
3 A deceiver for personal gain (v 2)
4 A lover of evil more than good (v 3)
5 A lover of lies more than truth (v 3)
6 A lover of seeing others hurt (v 4)

j See note h, 3:2

k 41st prophecy in Ps. (52:5-7, fulfilled in the judgment on Doeg and in the lessons men get from his treachery). Next, 53:6

l Doeg had much and trusted to get more from his treachery of David m 6 contrasts between David and Doeg:

1 David was like a green olive tree in God's house (v 8); Doeg like a dead tree cast out (v 5)
2 David trusted in the mercy of God (v 6); Doeg trusted in riches (v 7)
3 David will be blessed for ever (v 8); Doeg cursed for ever (v 5)
4 David will praise God for ever because of God's help (v 9); Doeg will live in remorse for ever (v 5)
5 David waited upon God's name (v 9); Doeg did not (v 7)
6 David was a good example for God's saints (v 9); Doeg was an example of evil (v 6-7)

s He had lost it so it had to be restored if he was ever to have it again

t With a willing and unforced spirit a Heb. nabal, stupid, wicked, vile, impious (see note a, 14:1). The psalm as a whole is like Ps. 14, therefore the notes there should be studied

b 6 things fools say:

c See 10 facts about atheism, p. 628
d See 12 characteristics of fools, note f, 14:1
e Quoted in Rom. 3:10-12
f Literally, bowed Himself over to get a better and closer look in His examination of men and their wicked ways (v 2; 14:2. Cp. Gen. 11:5; 18:21). Note what He saw (v 1, 3-5) g The sons of Adam whom He had created h This is what God is constantly looking for among men (33:13-14; 69:20; Job 33:27; Isa. 63:5) i This is a statement of fact. The whole race had left God and the straight way for crooked paths. Note the 12 steps in backsliding and apostasy in note f, 14:1. The denial of God is the first step in total apostasy (Rom. 1:21-32). When one loses faith in God he gradually sinks into the depraved life of the ungodly j Becoming filthy is the result of forsaking God and going aside (v 3)
k Quoted in Rom. 3:10-18
l Question 63. Next, 54, title m The knowledge here is true understanding of the fear of the Lord, the beginning of wisdom (v 4; 111:10; Pr. 1:7; 9:10; 15:33; Isa. 11:2; 1 Cor. 12:8)
n An idiom meaning destruction (Jer. 10:25; Amos 8:4; Mic. 3:3; Num. 14:9)
o The soil of prayerlessness produces a crop of sin and damnation (Gal. 6:7-8) p This gives the reason for the terrors of judgment upon the wicked. God dwells among His people and reserves the right of vengeance for mistreatment (Heb. 10:30-31)
q Circle or class of the righteous r Your shame of the counsel of the oppressed has been in vain, for the Lord is his refuge (v 5) s 42nd prophecy in Ps. (53:6, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled at the 2nd advent of Christ. Rom. 11:25-29; Isa. 59:20-21). Next, 55:12
t It was not necessary for psalms mentioning the captivity to have been written after the captivities, any more than it was necessary for prophecies of other events to have been written after they were fulfilled. Men forget inspiration when they seek to relieve God of any blunder in the time elements of His Word. Could not David by the Spirit refer to a future captivity? This no doubt refers to the final regathering of Israel under the Messiah (Isa. 11:10-12; Ezek. 37; Mt. 24:31)

Eighth Psalm of Instruction (on the wicked)

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath (entreat or make prayer), Maschil (instruction), A Psalm of David. (12 things of fools; 5 of God). 1 Words and deeds of fools (Ps. 14:1)

THE [a]fool hath [b]said in his heart, There is [c]no God. Corrupt are they, and [d]have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

2 God's search to find godly men on earth (Ps. 14:2)

2 God [f]looked down from heaven upon the [g]children of men, [h]to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

3 God's discovery: all men are ungodly (Ps. 14:3)

3 [i]Every one of them is gone back: [j]they are altogether become filthy; [k]there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 [l]Have the workers of iniquity no[m]knowledge? who [n]eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not [o]called upon God.

5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was: [p]for God hath scattered the bones of him that [q]encampeth against thee: thou hast put them [r]to shame, because God hath despised them.

4 God's ultimate purpose: men on earth to be godly (Ps. 14:7)

*6 [s]Oh that the salvation of Is'ra-el were come out of Zi'on! When God bringeth back [t]the captivity of his people, Ja'cob shall rejoice, and Is'ra-el shall be glad.

PSALM 54

Ninth Psalm of Instruction (on prayer and praise)

To the chief Musician on Neginoth (stringed instruments), Maschil (instruction), A Psalm of David, when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, [a]Doth not David hide himself with us? (1 Sam. 23:19; 26:1). 1 Four requests: 3 reasons. Cp. Ps. 55:1; 56:1; 57:1, 7; 59:11; 86:1, 12; 106:4; 108:5

[v]SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 [w]For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. [x]Se'lah.

2 Praise: 6 reasons

4 Behold, [y]God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto mine [a]enemies: cut them off in thy truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, O LORD; for it is good.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: and [c]mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

PSALM 55

Tenth Psalm of Instruction (on prayer for judgment)

To the chief Musician on Neginoth (stringed instruments), Maschil (instruction), A Psalm of David. 1 Four requests: 8 complaints against the wicked

[b]GIVE ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: [c]I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

3 [d]Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for [e]they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me: and [f]the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

5 [g]Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me.

2 Sixfold desire of the just to escape the wicked

6 And I said, [h]Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. [i]Se'lah.

8 I would hasten my [j]escape from the windy storm and tempest.

3 Two requests: 5 sins of the wicked

9 [k]Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

10 [l]Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

4 Betrayal of the Messiah (Ps. 41:9; Jn. 13:18-19; Acts 1:16)

*12 [m]For it was [n]not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:

13 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company.

a The enemies of David were Saul, the Ziphites or the men of Keilah who informed Saul of the whereabouts of David (1 Sam. 23:12)
b 22 good things for man:

d 8 requests of David:
1 Give ear to my prayer (v 1)
2 Hide not Yourself from my supplication (v 1)
3 Attend unto me (v 2)
4 Hear me (v 2)
5 Destroy their tongues (v 9)
6 Divide their tongues (v 9)
7 Let death seize upon them (v 15)15)
8 Let them go down quick into hell (v e Lit., I mourn and sigh with strong guttural sounds in my complaint and am greatly agitated (v 2)
f 18 reasons for complaint: Because of 1 The voice of the enemy (v 3)
2 Oppressions (v 3)
3 Accusations (v 3)
4 Wrath and hatred (v 3)
5 Pains of my heart (v 4)
6 Terrors of death (v 4)
7 Fearfulness and trembling (v 5)
8 Horror (v 5)
9 Storms and tempest (v 8)
10 Wagging tongues (v 9)
11 Violence and strife (v 9)
12 Mischief and sorrow (v 10)
13 Wickedness (v 11)
14 Deceit and guile (v 11)
15 Treachery (v 12-14)
16 Words of peace and flattery in the mouth, but war in the heart (v 20-21)
17 Covenant breaking (v 20) 18 Destruction and blood (v 23)
g They charge me with crimes so as to have an excuse to rebel against my reign (v 3). Clamour against a ruler always accompanies rebellion h I am in hourly expectation of being assassinated (v 4)
i This is only natural for a man who is in distress, mourning, sighing, wounded of heart, and expecting death (v 2-5) j This seemed to be the only way of escape for David who was hemmed in on every side by his enemies. This is perhaps the time he was fleeing from Absalom, and his enemies were within a stone's throw as he crossed Jordan (2 Sam. 17:22-23)
k See note h, 3:2
l Referring to the mutinous people in general who were seeking to cut him off before he reached a safe place (2 Sam. 15:6, 12) m Divide the counsellors so they will give opposite advice (2 Sam. 16:15-17; 23) n This refers to the leaders of the plot to overthrow David and put Absalom on the throne. They went about getting others to join their cause and sow strife among the people o 43rd prophecy in Ps. (55:12-14, fulfilled in both David and Christ). Next, 57:3
p This has a double fulfillment:
1 In David being betrayed by his personal counsellor and friend, Ahithophel, whose advice was as the counsel of God (2 Sam. 16:15-17:23). It is supposed that he was a relative of Bathsheba and Uriah and used Absalom as a tool to take vengeance on David for committing adultery with Bathsheba and having Uriah killed (2 Sam. 11-12; 1 Chr. 27:33-34)
2 In Jesus Christ being betrayed by His personal disciple and chosen apostle, Judas (v 12-14; 41:9; 69:25-28; 109:8; Jn. 13:18; Acts 1:20-25)

a Heb. maveth, death. Trans. death 123 times; dead 7 times; died 6 times; die 4 times; and deadly 1 time

b Heb. chai, living. "Let them be cast down to sheol alive," proving that hell is not the place of the body which is not alive at physical death (Jas. 2:26). The soul and spirit are immortal (note m, 1 Pet. 3:4). The word is trans. quick 3 times (v 15; 124:3; Num. 16:30); alive 33 times (Gen. 43:7, 27-28; Num. 16:33; etc.); live with various endings 211 times (Gen. 9:3; 45:3; etc.). David, by the Holy Spirit, thus recognized that men went alive into sheol or hades. See Hell, p. 620-622

c Heb. sheol, the unseen world of departed spirits (see Hell, p. 620)

d This is David's reason for praying for hell to receive the wicked. The wicked shall be turned into hell (9:17)

e The wicked can and will go to hell, but

As for me:
1 I will call upon God (v 16)
2 The Lord shall save me (v 16)
3 I will pray evening, morning, and noon (v 17)
4 I will cry aloud (v 17)
5 God will hear my voice (v 17) (v 18)
6 He hath delivered my soul in peace
7 He shall hear and afflict them, even

He that abideth of old (v 19). Lit., God shall hear and humble (bring low) them, even them that were before enthroned

f See note h, 3:2

g Because they (enemies) do not change or improve in humbling themselves before God, there is no fear of judgment in them (v 19)

b See 7 things not to fear, p. 628

i Man is commanded to do one thing; then God will do two things (v 22). Never is there a promise without a condition. Christians are in the habit of magnifying the promises and ignoring the terms of their fulfillment. Then, when the promises are not fulfilled they murmur and complain. One can see from the commands, promises, and prophecies listed on p. 313-319 that there is another side to Christianity besides the benefits

j This was exemplified in the case of David who was sustained and unmoved in all his trials. Men need to learn to leave their burdens in God's hands, not fretting in the least as to the outcome (37:1-13; Heb. 10:19-23; 1 Pet. 5:7-8)

k This is promised in v 22; 15:5; 21:7; Pr. 12:3, but one must determine it will be the case in his life (10:6; 30:6; 62:6)

l This refers to going into death itself, not to the abyss of the N.T.

m Here is proof that men can shorten their lives by sin, and that God has no set time for each one to die. Christians are promised long lives if they meet God's terms (22:26; 34:12-16; 91:1-16; Ex. 20:12; 1 Ki. 3:14; Pr. 3:1-2, 16; 9:11; 10:27; 1 Cor. 11:30; 1 Pet. 3:10-11)

n The first of 2 words in the Bible with 18 letters - the longest words in the Bible (here; Isa. 8:1)

o 2 requests of David:
1 Be merciful unto me (v 1)
2 Put my tears into Your bottle (v 8) p 10 reasons for an answer:

1 Man would swallow me up (v 1)
2 He oppresses me daily (v 1)
3 My enemies would swallow me up daily (v 2)
4 They are many that fight me (v 2)
5 I will trust in God (v 3-4)
6 I will praise His Word (v 4)
7 I will not fear what flesh can do to me (v 4)
8 Every day they wrest my words (v 5)
9 All their thoughts against me are plans of evil (v 5)
10 They gather in troops and wait to destroy my soul (v 6). Note the 7 sins of the wicked, points 1-4, 8-10

q That is, thirst for my blood. Heb. shaaph, to pant; desire; covet; devour. A term used of wild beasts in describing their panting after prey or snorting against another as animals do when enraged. In Scripture it is generally used of God and man devouring others in wrath (v 1-2; 57:3; Job 5:5; Isa. 42:14; Ezek. 36:3; Amos 8:4)

r The true rendering is not as it sounds here. It means, In the day that I am afraid, I will trust in You

s See 7 things not to fear, p. 628

5 Two requests for judgment on the wicked

15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

6 Sevenfold confidence for deliverance from the wicked

16 As for me, I will call upon God; and the LORD shall save me.

17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.

19 God shall hear, and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Sĕ'lah. Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God.

7 Five sins of the wicked

20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

8 Threefold confidence of the righteous

22 Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

9 The destiny of the wicked

Cp. Mt. 13:39-50; 25:46

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

PSALM 56

Twelfth Prayer of Distress

To the chief Musician upon Jonath-elem-rechokim (cry of the dove in the distant terebinth trees), Michtam (graven or permanent writing) of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath (1 Sam. 21 and 27). 1 Two requests: 10 reasons for an answer. Cp. Ps. 55:1; 56:1; 57:1, 7; 59:11; 86:1, 12; 106:4; 108:5; 144:1

1 BE merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2 Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.

3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

2 Eightfold confidence in God

8 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word: in the LORD will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

3 Vows and reasons for praise

12 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

PSALM 57

Thirteenth Prayer of Distress

To the chief Musician, Altaschith (destroy not), Michtam (graven or permanent writing) of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave (1 Sam. 24:3). 1 Four requests: eightfold distress Cp. Ps. 7:1; 17:1; 19:12; 25:16; 26:1; 27:7; 28:3

1 BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Sĕ'lah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4 My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.

6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Sĕ'lah.

2 Sevenfold resolve to praise God: 2 reasons; 2 requests a All these verses (1-7) describe the constant pursuits and plots against David by Saul and his men (1 Sam. 21 and 27)

b Question 65, Next, v 8

c Heb. saphar, to write or record (v 8; 48:12; Gen. 15:5; 2 Chr. 2:2) d Here is an allusion to the ancient custom of collecting tears in a bottle to be put in the tomb of a departed loved one or, in some cases, on the grave as an offering. At the time of mourning for the dead the tears of the mourners were collected and put in the tomb. In Persia in assemblies of mourning the priest would collect the tears in cotton and squeeze them in the tear bottle, preserving them with great care. Some Persians believed that at the time of death, when all medicines had failed, a drop of tears put into the mouth of a dying man would revive him. It was for such use that some tears were collected e Question 66, Next, v 13. Here David expresses the belief that God has a record of the minutest details of life f 8fold confidence of David (v 8-11):

1 God numbers my wanderings
2 He puts my tears in His bottle
3 My tears are recorded in His book
4 My enemies turn back when I pray
5 God is for me
6 In God will I praise His Word
7 In God have I put my trust
8 I will not be afraid of man

g This is not God making vows, but David vowing to be God's servant, to give his whole life to Him, and to render praises for His benefits (v 12)

h Question 67, Next, 58:1

i In the light of life - resurrected life. In all 6 Michtam psalms (16, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, all of which are by David) there is a reference to death and resurrection; or to deliverance from imminent danger, death, and even hell:
1 Christ's soul being delivered from hell and His body from corruption in the tomb (16:10-11)
2 David being delivered from death to walk in the resurrected life (56:13)
3 David being delivered from death by his enemies (57:3)
4 The righteous being preserved from the awful end of the wicked (58:7-11)
5 David being protected from dangers and trouble (59:16)
6 Israel being protected from the Antichrist in Edom and Moab for 3 1/2 years (60:5-12; Rev. 12:6, 14, notes)

j 4 requests of David:
1 Be merciful unto me (v 1)
2 Be exalted, O God (v 5, 11) 5)
3 Let Your glory be above the earth (v
4 Let Your glory be above the earth (v 11)

k 10 reasons for an answer:
1 My soul trusts You (v 1)
2 You are my refuge (v 1)
3 I have confidence in You (v 2) 3)
4 You will save me from reproach (v
5 You will show mercy and truth (v 3)
6 I am in the midst of enemies (v 4)
7 They have set a trap for me (v 6)
8 I am greatly distressed (v 6)
9 Your mercy is great (v 10) 10) 10 Your truth reaches unto heaven (v

l 4fold source of distress:
1 Calamities beset me (v 1) 3)
2 Reproaches would swallow me up (v
3 Madmen gnash at me with their teeth and cut me with their tongues (v
4 They set snares for my soul (v 6) 4)

One way of catching beasts was to dig a pit and cover it with weak sticks and grass. The beasts, not suspecting danger would fall through into the pit and be taken. Saul at this time was after David. He set a trap for David, but fell in it himself, particularly at the cave in En-gedi. He entered the very cave wherein David and his men were hiding. His life was spared by the generosity of the man whom he sought to kill (1 Sam. 24). The rabbins say that God sent a spider to weave a web at the mouth of the cave in which David and his men hid. Saul saw the spider's web and went into the cave with perfect confidence that it was empty. This may be a fable, but it illustrates how God can use the most feeble means to protect his children m 44th prophecy in Ps. (57:3, fulfilled in the deliverances of David). Next, 58:9

n See note b, 3:2

a 7fold resolve to praise God:
1 My heart is fixed (v 7; 108:1) 1)
2 I will sing and give praise (v 7; 108:
3 Awake, my glory (tongue, v 8; 108:
1. Cp. Ps. 16:9 with Acts 2:26 where glory means tongue) 2)
4 Awake, psaltery and harp (v 8; 103:
5 I will also awake early (v 8; 108:2)
6 I will praise You among the people (v 9; 108:3)
7 I will sing unto You among the nations (v 9; 108:3). Ps. 57:7-11 is the same as Ps. 108:1-5 b These are David's reasons for praise to God (v 10; 108:4). God's infinite mercy and truth are the very foundation of praise from man. These He sends from heaven to save and deliver all men who are in need (v 3) c This is repeated for emphasis (v 5, 11; 108:5)

d This word means destroy not, and is used in the title of 4 psalms (57, 58, 59, 75)

e Questions 68-69. Next, 59:7

f 7 facts about the wicked:
1 Work wickedness in the heart (v 2)
2 Hands filled with violence (v 2)
3 Estranged from the womb (v 3)
4 Go astray from birth (v 3)
5 Speak lies from childhood (v 3)
6 They are as poisonous as serpents
7 They are like a deaf adder (v 4)

g When a slanderer speaks he conveys poison into the wound, as the serpent does. No reputation is safe before him, no character is respected by him, and against such there is little defense

h It seems that there are some adders which are deaf or nearly so, or else instinct informs them that if they listen to the sounds of the charmer they will become his prey. Therefore, they stop their ears so as not to listen though they charm ever so wisely (v 4-5). If this is not literally true of all adders, it refers to certain ones which are too wise to be charmed

i 5 requests of David:
1 Break their teeth in their mouth (v 6)
2 Break the great teeth of lions (v 6)
3 Let them melt away as water (v 7)
4 Let them be as cut in pieces (v 7)
5 Let every one of them pass away (v 8)

j Here David prays for destruction of the teeth of lions, the word being used figuratively of the power of Saul and his men who had been seeking to destroy him. He is saying, "Save me from poisonous serpents and adders - sly and slanderous men, and from lions - blood-thirsty men who seek my life"

k 5fold destruction of enemies:
1 Let them become powerless as a toothless lion (v 6)
2 As water that is absorbed by the desert sand and evaporated by the sun (v 7)
3 As broken arrows that cannot be shot (v 7)
4 As a snail that melteth away (v 8)
5 As an untimely birth (v 8)

l 45th prophecy in Ps. (58:9-11, unfulfilled). Next, 59:8

m There are many thorny shrubs in Palestine. These the people gather and burn as fuel (v 9; 118:12; 2 Sam. 23:6-7; Eccl. 7:6; Isa. 9:18; 10:17; Nah. 1:10). They make a quick, hot fire, which kindles easily and soon expires. The wicked are to be destroyed quicker and in less time than it takes the heat from a fire of thorns to reach the cooking vessels. This will take place when God acts to rid the earth of all rebels. The idea is quick destruction of the wicked. Cp. Isa. 33:12. Such destruction is also pictured in this verse as being quick as a whirlwind. The wicked will be destroyed suddenly while they are lively and active (v 9), that is, they will not be destroyed by lingering sicknesses. They will be swept away suddenly while in health

n This seems to settle it, that the destruction of the wicked will be at Armageddon

7 [c]My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.
8 Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself
will awake early.
9 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.
10 [b]For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.
11 [c]Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

PSALM 58

Fifth Prayer for Judgment
To the chief Musician, [d]Altaschith (destroy not), Michtam (graven or permanent writing) of David.

1 Five requests: 10 sins of the wicked

[a]DO ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation?
do ye judge uprightly, O
ye sons of men?
2 Yea, [f]in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.
3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.
4 Their poison is [g]like the poison of a serpent: they are like the [h]deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;
5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.
6 [i]Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: [j]break out the great teeth of the young lions,
O Lord.
7 Let them melt away [k]as waters which run continually:
when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.
8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

2 Future judgment of the wicked

*9 [l]Before your [m]pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.
10 The righteous shall rejoice
when he seeth the vengeance:
he shall [n]wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
11 [o]So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

PSALM 59

Sixth Prayer for Judgment
To the chief Musician, Altaschith (destroy not), Michtam (graven or permanent writing) of David; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him (1 Sam. 19:11). 1 Seven requests for judgment: tenfold description of the wicked. Cp. Ps. 7:11; 10:1; 17:7; 53:3; 55:1, 20; 58:1; 74:3

[a]DELIVER me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me.
2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.
3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin,
O Lord.
4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold.
5 Thou therefore, O Lord
God of hosts, the God of Is'ra-el, awake to visit all the heathen: [b]be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. [c]Se'lah.
6 [d]They return at evening:
they make a noise like a dog,
and [e]go round about the city.
7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for [f]who, say they, doth hear?

2 Sixfold confidence in God

*8 [g]But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.
9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for God is my defence.
*10 [h]The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.

3 Ten requests for judgment: six reasons

11 [i]Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O Lord our shield.
12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak.
13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God ruleth in Ja'cob unto the ends of the earth. Se'lah.
14 And [j]at evening let them return; and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.
15 Let them wander up and down for meat, and [k]grudge if they be not satisfied.

4 Sevenfold praise to God

16 But [l]I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning:
for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.
17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

PSALM 60

Eleventh Psalm of Instruction (on God's help in war)
To the chief Musician upon Shushan-eduth m, Michtam (graven or perma-

a 21 requests of David:
1 Deliver me from my enemies (v 1)
2 Defend me from them (v 1)
3 Deliver me from workers of iniquity (v 2)
4 Save me from bloody men (v 2)
5 Awake to help me (v 3)
6 Behold (v 4)
7 Awake to visit all the heathen (v 5)
8 Be not merciful to any wicked transgressors (v 5)
9 Slay them not (quickly), lest my people forget (v 11)
10 Scatter them by Your power (v 11)
11 Bring them down (v 11) 12)
12 Let them be taken in their pride (v
13 Let them be taken for their cursing and lying (v 11)
14 Consume them in wrath (v 13)
15 Consume them completely (v 13)
16 Let them know that God rules (v 13)
17 Let them return at evening (v 14)
18 Let them make noise like dogs (v 14)
19 Let them go round about the city (v 14)
20 Let them wander up and down for meat
21 Let them grudge if they are not satisfied (v 15)

b The true meaning is, Do not favour the cause of the wicked

c See note h, 3:2

d The wicked are compared to the half-wild dogs going about the streets at night hunting for garbage. The wicked go about the city at night seeking gain from helpless victims whom they rob e 10 sins of the wicked:

1 They are enemies of the righteous
2 They war against the righteous (v 1)
3 They work iniquity (v 2)
4 They murder for gain (v 2)
5 They lie in wait to destroy (v 3)
6 They destroy the innocent (v 3)
7 They systematically carry on robbery of the innocent (v 4)
8 They seek to gain by plunder (v 6)
9 They belch out crimes (v 7)
10 They sin with their lips (v 7)

f Question 70. Next, 60:9

g 46th prophecy in Ps. (59:8, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled at the judgment when vengeance is taken on the wicked; Rev. 20:11-15; Pr. 1:24-27). Next, v 10

h 47th prophecy in Ps. (59:10, fulfilled in David's defeat of his enemies). Next, 60:6

i The request here is for God to punish the wicked gradually, so that it will be a lesson to men (v 11)

j See note d, above

k Let them grumble if they are not satisfied (v 15)

l 7fold praise to God (v 16-17):
1 I will sing of Your power
2 I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning
3 You have been my defense
4 You have been my refuge in trouble
5 I will sing of You, my strength
6 You are my defense
7 You are the God of my mercy

m This word means testimony, indicating that this psalm is related to the 2nd passover provided for in Num. 9:5-14 and acted upon in 2 Chr. 30. The other psalm thus used is Ps. 79

geddon where blood will flow 184 miles as deep as the horse's bridles (Rev. 14:18-20; 16:13-16; 19:11-21; Ezek. 38:17-21; 39:17-21). The saints in this battle will actually have to walk in the blood of the battlefield (v 10)

o Men seeing the great destruction at Armageddon will acknowledge that there is reward for being righteous, for they will see the justice of God manifest upon earth rebels and the deliverance of the righteous to shine in the kingdom of their Father (Mt. 13:39-43; 25:31-46)

a This is Mesopotamia, or Syria of the 2 rivers, between the Euphrates and the Tigris (1 Chr. 18:5) b This is Coelesyria, or Syria of the watchmen (1 Chr. 18:3) c In 2 Sam. 8:13 and 1 Chr. 18:12 it is David's and Abishai's exploit, which was 18,000. Here it is Joab's exploit, and his share was 12,000, but it took him 6 months more to accomplish the task (1 Ki. 11:15-16). David's 22,000 in 1 Chr. 18:5 were in a Syrian campaign
d 10 acts of God: You have 1 Cast us off (v 1, 10)
2 Scattered us (v 1)
3 Been displeased with us (v 1)
4 Made the earth to tremble (v 2)
5 Broken the earth (v 2)
6 Showed people hard things (v 3)
7 Made us to drink wine of astonishment (v 3)
8 Given a banner to them that fear You (v 4)
9 Spoken in holiness (v 6)
10 Restrained Yourself and suffered us to be defeated (v 10) e This is David's way of saying that Israel had suffered a military defeat in the south by Edom while his armies were fighting in the north with the Syrians. David then sent Joab to deal with the Edomites who destroyed 12,000 and completely subjugated them (1 Ki. 11:15-16). This background gives the foundation for the prophecy of v 6-12, which will be fulfilled in the last days, as seen in the notes on these verses
f 5 requests of David:
1 Turn to us again (v 1)
2 Heal the broken earth (v 2)
3 Save with Your right hand (v 5)
4 Hear me (v 5)
5 Give us help from trouble (v 11)
g This refers to the surprise experienced in the south when Edom fought Israel, as in note e, above h This verse shows a change in David's attitude from that of despair in v 1-3 to that of victory, v 4-8. The banner for them that fear God, refers to the standard or ensign of Israel to be displayed because of truth. David now purposed to raise the standard of victory in place of defeat, so he sent Joab with an army to destroy the Edomites who had made a breach in Israel. The standard of ensign of Israel in the last days will be the Messiah, Himself (Isa. 11:10-16)
i See note h, 3:2
j This is the purpose of God in giving the banner of v 4 - that Israel may be delivered and saved from her enemies. This will be done through Christ, the ensign of Israel in the day of her final and complete victory over the Gentiles (Isa. 11:10-16; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21) k 48th prophecy in Ps. (60:6-12, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the tribulation days, as seen in notes below. These verses are the same as Ps. 108:7-13). Next, 67:6

10 things God has spoken (v 6-8):
1 I will rejoice
2 I will divide Shechem
3 I will mete out Succoth
4 Gilead is Mine
5 Manasseh is Mine
6 Ephraim is the strength of My head
7 Judah is My lawgiver
8 Moab is My washpot
9 Over Edom will I cast out My shoe
10 Philistia, triumph because of Me l God will rejoice in the future when His chosen people, Israel, will be brought back to eternal reconciliation with Him and the covenants made with their fathers to evangelize the nations will be fulfilled (Isa. 2:2-4; 52:7; 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-21; Rom. 11:25-29)

m In v 6-8 certain sections of the promised land are mentioned, which are to play a part in the fulfilment of prophecy in the last days during the tribulation. Shechem is in Samaria; Succoth in Gilead east of Jordan; Ephraim and Judah are on the west of Jordan (see note a, 108:8); Moab and Edom are south and east of the Dead Sea; Philistia is in southern Palestine and along the Mediterranean Sea (see note d, 108:9). All these places will figure prominent-

O GOD, [d]thou hast [e]cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O [f]turn thyself to us again.
2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.
3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: [g]thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.
4 [h]Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. [i]Se'lah.
5 [j]That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me.

2 God's tenfold vow and prophecy of Israel and her immediate neighbors in the tribulation (Ps. 108:7-9)

★6 [k]God hath spoken in his holiness; [j]I will rejoice, I will divide She'chem, [m]and mete out the valley of Suc'coth.
7 Gil'e-ad is mine, and Ma-nas'seh is mine; E'phra-im also is the strength of mine head; Ju'dah is my lawgiver;
8 Mo'ab is my [n]washpot; [o]over E'dom will I cast out my shoe: Phi-lis'ti-a, triumph thou because of me.

3 Future refuge of Israel in the tribulation (Ps. 108:10, refs.)

9 [p]Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into E'dom?
10 [q]Wilt not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?

4 Israel's latter day prayer and final triumph of the Gentiles (Ps. 108:11, refs.)

11 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.
12 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM 61

Third Psalm of Trust
To the chief Musician upon Neginah (stringed instruments), A Psalm of David.
1 Three requests of David

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.
2 [r]From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

2 Eightfold trust in God (3:3; 20:1; 61:3; 63:1)

3 [s]For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.
4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Se'lah.
5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.
6 Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.

3 Prayer and vows of David

7 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.
8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM 62

Fourth Psalm of Trust
To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun (Ethan, a choir leader), A Psalm of David.
1 Sixfold trust in God

TRULY my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.
2 He only is [b]my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.

2 Five sins of the wicked and their destruction predicted

3 [c]How long will ye [d]imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.
4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Se'lah.

3 Tenfold trust in God (3:3; 20:1; 61:3; 63:1)

5 My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.
6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.
7 In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

4 Threefold admonition to men

8 [e]Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. [f]Se'lah.

5 Man's natural State. Cp. Ps. 51:5; Eph. 2:1-3

9 [g]Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

6 Contrasting trusts

a 4 acts of God:
1 You have sheltered me (v 3)
2 You have been my defense (v 3)
3 You have heard my vows (v 5)
4 You have given me an heritage (v 5)
b 7 things God is to David:
1 Salvation (v 1-2, 6-7)
2 Rock (v 2, 6)
3 Defense (v 2, 6)
4 Expectation (v 5)
5 Glory (v 7)
6 Rock of my strength (v 7)
7 Refuge (v 7-8)
c Question 75. Next, 64:5
d 4 sins of the wicked: They 1 Imagine mischief against men (v 3)
2 Plot against the just (v 4)
3 Delight in lies (v 4)
4 Act like hypocrites (v 4)
e 5 commands:
1 Trust in God at all times (v 8)
2 Pour out your heart to Him (v 8)
3 Trust not in oppression (v 10)
4 Become not vain in robbery (do not think that stolen goods will make you prosperous, v 10)
5 Set not your heart upon getting rich by robbery (v 10)
f See note h, 3:2
g 4 lessons on trust (v 8-10):
1 Trust not in men of low degree, for they can give no help. They may be willing, yet they have no ability to help (v 9)
2 Trust not in men of high degree, the ungodly rich, for they promise much, but perform nothing. They cause you to hope, but mock at your expectation (v 9). Hence, both those who are common and the ungodly rich are lighter than vanity, for they disappoint men who put their trust in them (v 9)
3 Trust not in oppression and robbery, for oppression will not succeed and ill-gotten gain will not prosper. God will soon scatter the oppressors and curse property acquired by robbery. He will reward every man according to his deeds (v 11-12)
4 Trust in God at all times, for He is a true trust and a safe refuge (v 8)

ly in world affairs in the days of Antichrist. Edom and Moab in particular will be the places Israel will flee to for protection from Antichrist for the last 3 1/2 years of the age. See point 10, The sun-clothed woman, p. 307, N. T.
n Heb. rachats, footbath: i.e. an ignominious vessel (v 8; 108:9)
o This is an idiom which means taking possession. When one bought a piece of property in olden times, he received the shoe of the seller in the presence of the elders of Israel as a sign of change of possession. It symbolized that the right to tread the soil belonged to the new owner of it; hence, the transfer of the sandalas a token of transfer of ownership (v 8; 108:9; Ruth 4:7). This means that Edom will be reserved and owned of God as a place of refuge for His outcast people during the tribulation. See point 10, The sun-clothed woman, p. 307 of N. T.
p Questions 71-74. Next, 62:3
q See Sela or Petra, 576 col. 1 r These last 2 questions answer the first 2. Who will bring me into the strong city.... into Edom? God will, who has predicted the flight of Israel to Petra and Edom - God who will not protect Israel in their land from Antichrist, but who will protect them in Edom for 1,260 days (Mt. 24:15-22; Rev. 12:6, 14). God's purpose in this is to bring Israel back to Himself (Ezek. 20:33-44)
s 4 requests of David:
1 Hear my cry (v 1)
2 Attend unto my prayer (v 1)
3 Lead to the rock that is higher than I (v 2) 4 Prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve the king (v 6-7)
t 4 resolutions of David:
1 I will pray for the ends of the earth, when my heart is overwhelmed (v 2)
2 I will abide in Your tabernacle for ever (v 4)
3 I will trust in the covert of Your wings (v 4)
4 I will sing praise unto Your name for ever (v 8)

a Lit., 2 things have I heard (v 11-12):
1 Power belongs to God. He is the origin and source of power
2 Mercy belongs to God. He is the fountain of mercy (v 11). He is Almighty, most merciful and compassionate, assuring man that He will judge the world in righteousness and render to every man according to his work (v 11). The doctrine of rewards and punishment is just as clearly stated here as in the N. T. (notes, Mt. 10:40-42; 11:22-24; 16:27; 23:14, 33; Rom. 2:6-16; I Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10; 2 Tim. 4:14; Rev. 2:23; 20:11-15; 22:12. Cp. c See notes c, d, and e, 42:1-2; note c, 1 Jn. 7:38

d There is nothing more needful and noble than longing to see God's power and glory in the sanctuary. The power and glory God wants to manifest in the modern church is the same as that manifested in the early church - the fulness of God in the Spirit baptism and the gifts of the Spirit (Mk. 16:17-20; Jn. 14:12; Acts 1:8; 2:16-21, 33-34, 38-39; 3:6; 5:15-16; 9:17-18, 33-34, 40-41; 13:11; 15:4, 12; 19:11-20; Rom. 15:18-19, 29; 1 Cor. 12:1-11; Heb. 2:3-4)

e This is the testimony of every redeemed soul (v 3-4)

f My soul shall be completely satisfied in true worship and praise, as a man fully satisfied with the comforts of life (v 5-6)

g David either refers to the overshadowing of the mercy seat by the wings of cherubim, symbolizing the Divine Presence, or else to the protection of God symbolized by wings (v 7)

h My soul follows close to You (is glued to You). Your right hand holds me fast (v 8)

i The lower parts of the earth is sheol or hades. This proves again that hell is not the grave on the surface of the earth (Mt. 12:40; Eph. 4:8-10; Hell, p. 620

j 4 things that happen to the wicked:
1 They shall go into sheol, hell
2 They shall fall by the sword (v 10)
3 They shall be a portion for foxes, that is, they shall not be buried but be eaten by the jackals. The jackal is a very ravenous beast, and fond of human flesh. Besides devouring dead bodies, it has been known to steal infants out of their mother's lap, and to kill and eat even adults found drunk in the street
4 They shall be stopped from lying (v 11; Rev. 21:8; 22:15)

k 4 requests of David:
1 Hear my voice in my prayer (v 1)
2 Preserve my life from fear of the enemy (v 1)
3 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked (v 2)
4 Hide me from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity (v 2)

l 12 sins of the wicked:
1 Cause the righteous to fear (v 1)
2 Plot secretly against the righteous
3 Work iniquity (v 2) (v 2)
4 Sharpen their tongues like a sword
5 Speak bitter words (v 3) (v 3)
6 Seek to destroy the perfect (v 4)
7 Live brazen lives of sin (v 4)
8 Encourage sin (v 5)
9 Set snares for the innocent (v 5)
10 Hunt for crimes to commit (v 6)
11 Untiring in committing sin (v 6)
12 Practice secret sins (v 6)

Sela or Petra (60:9)

Sela or Petra, the rock hewn stronghold capital of Edom (2 Ki. 14:7; Isa. 16:1). It is mentioned several times as the rock (Judg. 1:36; Isa. 42:11; Jer. 49:21; 49:16; Oba. 3). It is also called Bozrah (Isa. 34:5-6; 63:1-5; Jer. 48:24; 49:13, 22; Amos 1:12). The ancients called it Bozrah of the rock

Today it is referred to as the silent city of the forgotten past, and the rosered city, half as old as time. It lies halfway between the Dead Sea and the Gulf of Aqaba. It exerts a magic spell upon the minds of men who know it. It has one weird approach through a deep rock cleft 6,000 ft. long. Its temples, numbering nearly 1,000, cut into the rock of the great cliffs surrounding the 10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11 God hath spoken once; [a]twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God.

Fifth Psalm of Trust

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah. 1 Tenfold confidence in and praise to God; five blessings (3:3; 20:1; 61:3; 62:1)

O GOD, thou art my God; [b]early will I seek thee: my soul [c]thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

2 [d]To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because [e]thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

4 Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

5 My soul shall be [f]satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the [g]shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

8 [h]My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

2 Fourfold end of the wicked

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into [i]the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall [j]fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

PSALM 64

Fifth Prayer-Praise Psalm

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. 1 Four requests: ten sins of the wicked

[k]HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 [l]Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

3 Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, [m]Who shall see them?

6 They [n]search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

2 Fourfold end of the wicked

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

3 Six facts about the righteous and the wicked

9 And [o]all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM 65

Second Psalm of Praise

To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David. 1 Praise: six blessings upon the moral creation

[p]PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Si'ŏn: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that [q]hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

2 Praise: sixteen blessings upon the material creation

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength [r]setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:

7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

a Question 76, Next, 68:16. This is the question every sinner asks when he plans sin in the darkness. He does not consider that God sees him

b They plan wickedness and search out new crimes to commit, but God shall destroy them with all their plottings and counsels and curses they have formed against me, shall come upon themselves (v 6-8)

c 6 facts about the wicked and righteous:
1 The reaping of the wicked will cause others to fear (v 8-9)
2 They shall acknowledge that the reaping is the work of God (v 9)
3 It will cause them to be more sober and consider their own wickedness (v 9)
4 The righteous shall be glad in the Lord (v 10)
5 The righteous shall trust Him (v 10)
6 All the upright shall give glory to God (v 10)

d In these 2 verses David calls God's attention to the prayer and praise awaiting Him in Sion by all people (v 1-2). Then he mentions his struggles with sin and the remedy for it (v 3)

e 22 acts of God: He
1 Hears prayer (v 2)
2 Purges sin (v 3)
3 Chooses men (v 4)
4 Receives men (v 4) 4)
5 Satisfies men with His goodness (v
6 Provides an eternal home (v 4)
7 Manifests justice to men (v 5)
8 Inspires confidence in men (v 5)
9 Creates by His power (v 6)
10 Controls the waves of the sea (v 7)
11 Stills the angry mobs of men (v 7) whole city: its high places, courts, libation basins, and altars where the ancients worshipped; and its amazing color of all shades of red are exceedingly interesting. It has places of defense where one man could hold against an army. It has over 1,000 monuments showing the influence of several races; an open theater seating 6,000; many runlets, aqueducts, basins, reservoirs, and cisterns where water has been stored in time of seige; and several springs supplying water for the city. The Mountain of Aaron has a mosque built on it in whose "Holy of Holies" Aaron is supposed to be buried

For centuries Petra was a rich caravan city where merchandise of many nations was brought in and taken out by caravans to all parts of the earth. Goods were brought for storage in Petra and re-routed to Arabia, Africa, India, and other lands. The city was so important that the Romans made 2 roads to tap its wealth. When Rome fell, its doom was sealed and Petra was abandoned save for a few desert tribesman. It passed unnoticed by the civilized world for more than 1,000 years. In 1812, John Lewis Burckhardt, disguised as a Bedouin sheik, reached it and returned to tell of its mysteries. It had then become sacred to the Arabs and danger menaced any infidel who approached. The country was opened to travel by the British after World War I. The Bedouins fought British plans to make a road to Petra, complaining that the road would deprive them of income from renting saddle animals to Petra visitors. Britain agreed that no road should be built beyond Elji and that animals would be hired for the last part of the trip to Petra. Thus, the Bedouins have kept modern transportation from the city, which remains as preserved as in ancient times

This is the central place to be reserved for the Israelites when they flee from Judea and when Antichrist breaks his covenant with them taking over Palestine during the last 3 1/2 years of this age. See point 10, The sun-clothed woman, p. 307 of N. T.

e He holds our soul in a healthy body, that is, we are preserved alive, have a healthy body, and feel the life of God in our hearts (v 9)

f This refers to the case of Israel being hemmed in by the Red Sea, the Egyptians, and the wilderness (Ex. 14:3)

g This refers to the hard labor of the Israelites in Egypt (Ex. 1)

h This means that God had permitted them to be ruled by their enemies, and refers to the bondage in Egypt. That this is the reference is clear from the next statement about their being brought into the wealthy place of the promised land (v 12)

5 I will offer burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with incense of rams (v 15)
6 I will offer bullocks with goats (v 15)

j 8fold testimony (v 16-20):
1 I cried unto God with my mouth
2 And extolled Him with my tongue
3 If I regard iniquity in my heart
4 The Lord will not hear me
5 God has heard me
6 He attended to the voice of my prayer
7 God has not turned away my prayer
8 He has not turned His mercy from me k Regarding iniquity in the heart is the reason for many unanswered prayers. The writer says, If I had seen iniquity in my heart and encouraged it; if I had pretended to be what I was not; and if I had loved iniquity while I professed to pray and be sorry for my sin, the Lord (Heb. Adonai, my Prop, Stay, and Supporter) would not have heard me. I would have been left without His help and support in my time of trouble. See 1 Jn. 3:20-22; 5:14-15

PSALM 66

Third Psalm of Praise
To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm. 1 Nine admonitions: twelve acts of God

1 MAKE a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands:
2 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.
3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.
4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Sĕ'lah.
5 [b]Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.
6 [c]He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.
7 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. [d]Sĕ'lah.
8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:
9 Which [e]holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.
10 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.
11 [f]Thou broughtest us into the net; [g]thou laidst affliction upon our loins.
12 [h]Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

2 Sixfold fulfillment of vows

13 [i]I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, 14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.
15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Sĕ'lah.

3 Admonition to hear his eightfold testimony

16 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will [j]declare what he hath done for my soul.
17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.
18 [k]If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:
19 [a]But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.
20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSALM 67

Sixth Prayer-Praise Psalm
To the chief Musician on Neginoth (stringed instruments), A Psalm or Song.
1 Three requests: two blessings for all men

1 GOD [b]be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; Sĕ'lah.
2 [c]That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

2 Sixfold praise: five blessings for all men

3 [d]Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.
4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. [e]Sĕ'lah.
5 [f]Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.
6 [g]Then [h]shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.
7 God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

PSALM 68

Thirteenth Messianic Psalm
To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David.
1 Five requests concerning God's enemies

1 LET God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.
2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

2 Sevenfold praise: reasons

3 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.
4 [i]Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name [j]JAH, and rejoice before him.
5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

3 Ten acts of God in the wilderness wanderings

6 [k]God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.
7 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the a God has heard me, proving that I have not held on to and loved iniquity in my heart. He has attended to my prayer and by this I know that the question of sin in my life is settled (v 18-20). Sin hinders faith, and lack of faith hinders an answer (Rom. 14:23; 1 Jn. 3:20-22; 5:14-15; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8) c 2 reasons for answered prayer:

1 That Your way may be known upon earth
2 That Your saving health may be known among all nations (v 2). Heb. yeshuah, deliverance; victory; prosperity; welfare; salvation. Such salvation must be made known to all nations before sin can be put down (Isa. 2:2-4; 11:9; 52:7; Zech. 8:23; 14:16-21; Rev. 21:3-7)

d 8fold exhortation to praise (v 3-5):
1 Let the people praise You
2 Let all the people praise You
3 Let the nations be glad
4 Let the nations sing for joy
5 You will judge the people righteously
6 You will govern the nations of earth
7 Let the people praise You
8 Let all the people praise You

1 He rides upon the heavens (v 4)
2 His name is JAH or Jehovah (v 4)
3 A father of the fatherless (v 5)
4 A judge of the widows (v 5)
5 He lives in a holy habitation (v 5)
6 He provides a home for the forsaken; takes the place of a family in the life of the lonely. The Heb. for solitary is yachid, meaning to unite; be alone or lonely; and could also mean that God unites the families, or sets the lonely one in a family which will love him as their very own (v 6)
7 He brings men out of bondage and slavery (v 6)
8 He punishes the rebellious (v 6)
9 He led His own people out of Egypt through the wilderness (v 7) 10 He shook the earth

a See note h, 3:2
b Bible commentators say that chapter 68 is the most difficult of all the psalms to understand and comment upon, but if one will notice the time element as well as the events described in each verse it will not be so difficult. The only perplexing statement so far is that of v 6 about God setting the solitary in families and this can be understood as in note 1, 6, v 6. All of v 8-14 refers to Israel at Sinai and the conquest of Canaan; v 15-17 describes the headquarters of God; v 18 Christ's victory over hell; v 19-20 God's blessings; v 21-31 Millennial worship and God's triumph over His enemies in the last days; and v 32-35 give admonitions to the people in the Millennium. Any statement which seems difficult will be made clear in the notes. The shaking of the earth of v 8 is a clear reference to the time when Israel received the law at Sinai (Ex. 19:16-25) c This act of God refers to abundant rainfall in the promised land, which produced abundant crops for Israel (v 9-10) d This refers to the giving of the law on Sinai and to the thousands of Israel who helped proclaim it (v 11). Every parent was supposed to teach the law to his children in every phase of life (Dt. 6:6-9)
e Here we have the conquest of Canaan under Joshua. The ones who tarried at home received part of the spoil as much as those who went to war (v 12,14)
f 50th prophecy in Ps. (68:13, unfulfilled). Next, v 15 g Heb. shaphath, a hook for flaying animals on. Various renderings of the word are: thorns, dung, boundaries, folds, hurdles, pots, and brickkilns. Regardless of this, the idea here is though Israel has been greatly humbled, living in filth and slavery, she shall come forth in glory as a beautiful dove covered with silver and with feathers tipped in gold. Israel in her future restoration as the head of all nations on earth will indeed be glorious to behold h When God dispersed the armies of Israel's enemies it was like snowflakes driven by a storm against the dark wooded slopes of Mt. Salmon, near Shechem (v 14. Cp. Judg. 9:48)
i 51st prophecy in Ps. (68:15-16, unfulfilled). Next, v 18. What hill of God is referred to as being His dwelling place forever (v 16) is not named, but it must be the heavenly Mt. Zion (Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 14:1; Ps. 24:3), the same as the mountain city, the New Jerusalem, whose greatest peak is 1,500 miles high (Rev. 21:16-17). There is no other place where God will dwell for ever. There is an earthly mountain where the earthly capital building or temple will be built, but God will not dwell there for ever even though it is the capital of His earthly kingdom (Isa. 2:2-4; Ezek. 43:7; Mic. 4:1-3; Zech. 8:3). God has always set up His headquarters on a mountain. See 18 facts about Bible mountains, p. 628

l 52nd prophecy in Ps. (68:18, fulfilled). Next, v 21. This was fulfilled when Christ descended into hell and captured all the righteous souls held captive by the devil against their will (Ps. 16:10; Mt. 12:40; Heb. 2:14-15). When He ascended on high He led these captives captive (v 18; Eph. 4:8-10). Now, when a Christian dies he no longer goes into the paradise compartment of sheol or hades (Lk. 16:19-31; 23:43), but immediately to heaven to await the resurrection of the body (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11) m The gifts received for men by Christ are the different ministeries for the saints (Eph. 4:8-11). He received these gifts for the rebellious also, that any who will, might be saved; and that God might dwell with them eternally after they are redeemed (v 18; Rev. 21:3-7) n God daily provides, supports, and upholds us with His own salvation (v 19-20) wilderness; [a]Sē'lah:

8 [b]The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sī'nāi itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Iş'ra-el.

9 Thou, O God, [c]didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

11 [d]The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.

12 [e]Kings of armies did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

*13 [f]Though ye have lien among the[g]pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

14 [h]When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Săl'mŏn.

4 God's heavenly headquarters (Heb. 12:22-24; Rev. 14:1-5)

*15 [i]The hill of God is as the hill of Bā'shăn; an high hill as the hill of Bā'shăn.

16 [j]Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.

17 The [k]chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sī'nāi, in the holy place.

5 The ascension of the Messiah (Eph. 4:8-10; Acts 1:11)

*18 [l]Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast [m]received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them.

6 Blessings of God's people

▸19 Blessed be the Lord, [n]who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Sē'lah.

20 He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto GOD the Lord belong [o]the issues from death.

7 God's triumph over enemies in the days of the Messiah

*21 [p]But God shall wound [q]the head of his enemies, and [r]the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

22 The Lord said, [s]I will bring again from Bā'shăn, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea:

23 [t]That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of [u]thy dogs in the same.

24 [v]They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.

25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels.

26 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord, [a]from the fountain of Iş'ra-el.

27 There is [b]little Bĕn'ja-mĭn with their ruler, the princes of Jū'dah and their council, the princes of Zĕb'u-lŭn, and the princes of Năph'ta-lī.

28 Thy God hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.

29 [c]Because of thy temple at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm shall kings bring presents unto thee.

30 Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war.

31 Princes shall come out of Ĕ'gўpt; Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ā shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

8 Three commands for all nations to praise God: reasons

●32 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord; Sē'lah:

33 To him that [d]rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

●34 Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Iş'ra-el, and his [e]strength is in the clouds.

35 O God, thou art [f]terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Iş'ra-el is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God.

PSALM 69

Fourteenth Messianic Psalm To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim (lilies), A Psalm of David. 1 Three requests: twelvefold distress of David and the Messiah [g]SAVE me, O God; for the [h]waters are come in unto my soul.

2 I sink in deep [i]mire, where there is [j]no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 [k]I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

*4 [l]They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: [m]then I restored that which I took not away.

5 O God, thou knowest [n]my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee.

6 [o]Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Iş'ra-el.

a This perhaps refers to the ancestor of Israel, Abraham. The passage should read, Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord, you that are of the fountain of Israel (v 26; Isa. 48:1; 51:2) b All the tribes are not mentioned in this song. Only representative ones are referred to (v 27). Benjamin and Judah are named because they were the ruling tribes, and Zebulun and Naphtali because they jeopardized their lives to save Israel (Judg. 5:18) c This looks forward to the kingdom age when the kings of the earth will bring their presents to the eternal temple where Christ will reign (v 29; Ezek. 43:7). It refers to the custom of acknowledging their submission by offering gifts and paying tribute (v 30-31). Even Ethiopia and Egypt will serve God and pray to Him in that day (v 31)
d God rides upon the heavens (v 4, 33), clouds (Isa. 19:1), cherubs (18:10; 2 Sam. 22:11), chariots (v 17; Ezek. 1), and goes from place to place by other means (Gen. 3:8; 11:5; 18:33)
e His power is manifest in the clouds by lightning and thunder (v 34; Ps. 29)
f God is to be feared in His temple g See 31 requests of David, p. 629
h Waters here are figurative of overwhelming troubles (v 1-3, 14-15. Cp. 18:4, 16; 32:6; 42:7) i Mire is figurative of sin and great troubles (v 2, 14; Job 30:19; 41:30) j How true of sin! There is no foundation to trouble or sin k A description of one who has gone through long praying, fasting, and mourning (v 3; 22:15; 31:9; 38:10; 119:82, 123)
l 54th prophecy in Ps. (69:4, fulfilled). Next, v 8. This is quoted of Christ in Jn. 15:25. Cp. 35:19
m 18 things restored by Messiah, p. 629
n These are the words of David concerning himself, not the Messiah. Only certain parts of any Messianic psalm apply to Christ or refer to Him. We are not free to make what we choose, apply to Him, for the quoting of certain statements of Him elsewhere in the Bible is the basis of proof and not man's opinion. We know that v 4 applies to Christ because the Holy Spirit uses it of Him in Jn. 15:25. Nothing is in the verse that could not be applied to Him. But v 5 could not possibly be true of Him, for He is not guilty of sins and foolishness. Another person is referred to. The Messiah knew no sin (1 Pet. 2:21-22)
o This kind of prayer is perfectly righteous under grace as well as under law

fulfilled). Next, 69:4
q This refers to the final defeat of Satan (v 21; Gen. 3:15; Rom. 16:20)
r God will destroy the sinner who persists in his sins (v 21; Pr. 29:1) s A prediction of the gathering together of Israel from dispersion and even from death by resurrection. All Jews who live on earth will be gathered from all lands at the 2nd advent (Isa. 11:10-12; Ezek. 37; Mt. 24:29-31), and those in death, even if they have been buried in the depths of the sea will come forth. Just as the sea will give up the wicked dead (Rev. 20:11-15), so the sea will give up the righteous dead (Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Th. 4:16)
t This further identifies the dead from the depths of the sea, to be the righteous dead, for they will help Christ defeat the armies of the earth, trample on dead bodies, and walk in blood of the battle of Armageddon which will flow the length of 184 miles, up to the horses' bridles (Ezek. 38:17-21; Joel 3; Zech. 14; Mal. 4; Rev. 14:14-21; 19:11-21). See note n, 58:10 u The dogs shall also lick the blood of men at Armageddon. This predicts the same as Ezek. 39:17-21; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:34-37; Rev. 19:17-21
v This evidently refers to the worship of God in the days of the Messiah (v 29-35; Isa. 2:2-24; Zech. 14:16-21) a This verse could be understood as referring to both David and Messiah (v 7). Both suffered reproach and blushing from enemies and friends b 55th prophecy in Ps. (69:8-9, fulfilled in Christ. Quoted In Jn. 2:17; Rom. 15:3). Next, v 19 c This prophecy proves that Christ had half-brothers and Mary had other children after Christ was born. See note d, Lk. 8:19 d This means that all other desires are absorbed by the one desire to promote God's glory and the glory of His temple. It is quoted in Jn. 2:17 of Christ

e Quoted in Rom. 15:3 of Christ
f All of v 10-12 could have a double fulfillment, in both David and Christ, but perhaps refers more particularly to David in his fasting due to overwhelming troubles which almost swallowed him (v 2, 14-15, 17-20, 22-36)
g An example of self-chastening. See Fasting and prayer, p. 629
h 10fold reproach:
1 Forsaken by friends (v 7)
2 Forsaken by brethren (v 8)
3 Scorned by enemies (v 9, 18)
4 Insulted by inferiors (v 9-11)
5 Chastened by fasting (v 10)
6 Scoffed at by libertines (v 11)
7 Reproached by the songs of drunkards (v 12)
8 Hated by own countrymen (v 14-15)
9 Swallowed up by trouble (v 14-15)
10 Heart broken by heaviness (v 20)
i These 2 verses express the same figure of sinking in mire and being overwhelmed by waters, as in v 1-2, notes
j The Heb. word trans. lovingkindness means grace and as tender mercies it signifies the same tender affection that mothers show their offspring k This is the 37th of 75 psalms dealing with trouble: 3-10, 15, 18, 25, 27, 30-32, 34-35, 37-41, 46, 50-51, 55-59, 61-64, 66, 68-71, 75, 77-79, 81, 84, 86, 88, 90-91, 94, 101-103, 105, 107, 109, 116, 118, 120-121, 123-126, 129-130, 138, 140-147
l This is the normal desire of all who pray. Speed is the word. But when it comes to believing the whole gospel, accepting the full promises, and especially, meeting the terms for receiving benefits promised, speed is forgotten, and replaced by argument as to whether such benefits are in the will of God m 56th prophecy in Ps. (69:19-21, fulfilled in the sufferings of Messiah). Next, v 22 n 10fold suffering of Messiah:
1 Reproach (v 19)
2 Shame (v 19)
3 Dishonor (v 19)
4 Adversaries (v 19)
5 Brokenheartedness (v 20)
6 Full of heaviness (v 20)
7 No one to pity (v 20)
8 No one to comfort (v 20)
9 Gall for meat (v 21)
10 Vinegar for drink (v 21)
The word also proves that v 19-20 refer to the Messiah as well as v 21. These last 2 facts are quoted in Mt. 27:34, 48; Mk. 15:23, 36; Lk. 23:36; Jn. 19:28-30. This is one of the most forceful appeals for mercy and compassion ever made o Heb. rosh, a poisonous herb; venom (v 21; Dt. 29:18; 32:32; Jer. 8:14; 9:15; 23:15; Lam. 3:5, 19; Amos 6:12) p My choice food, Lit., They gave me poison for my choice food q This was made from small sour grapes
r 57th prophecy in Ps. (69:22-28, fulfilled upon Judas and the crucifiers of the Messiah). Next, v 34
12fold curse on Judas and priests
The original language here (v 22-28) is in future tense, because it is predictive, and should read as follows:
1 Their table shall become a snare
2 Their benefits shall become a trap
3 Their eyes shall be darkened
4 They shall be made blind
5 Their loins shake continually
6 Wrath shall be poured upon them
7 Their habitation shall be desolate
8 Their tents will remain empty
9 Iniquity shall be added to iniquity
10 Shall not know righteousness
11 Their name shall be blotted out of the book of life 12 Their name shall not be written with the righteous s Quoted in Acts 1:20 of Judas Iscariot.

2 Twelvefold reproach of David and the Messiah

7 [a]Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.
★8 [b]I am become a stranger unto [c]my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.
9 For the [d]zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and [e]the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.
10 When I wept, and [f]chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.
11 I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them.
12 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the [h]song of the drunkards.

3 Sixteen requests: eightfold reproach of the Messiah

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.
14 [i]Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.
15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.
16 Hear me, O LORD; for thy [j]lovingkindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.
17 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am [k]in trouble: hear me [l]speedily.
18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.
★19 [m]Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.
20 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.
21 They gave me [n]also [o]gall for my [p]meat; and in my thirst they gave me [q]vinegar to drink.

4 Twelvefold curse upon Judas and the crucifiers of the Messiah (Acts 1:20) ★22 [r]Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.
24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.
25 [r]Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents.
26 [r]For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of [u]those whom thou hast wounded.
27 [r]Add iniquity unto their iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness.
28 Let them be [b]blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

5 Prayer and praise to God for salvation

29 But I am [k]poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.
30 I will [d]praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.
31 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.
32 The humble shall see this, and be glad: and [e]your heart shall live that seek God.
33 For the LORD heareth [f]the poor, and despiseth not [s]his prisoners.

6 Praise in view of Israel's restoration under the Messiah

★34 [h]Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein.
▸35 For [i]God will save Zi'ŏn, and will build the cities of Jū'dah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.
▸36 The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

PSALM 70

Fourteenth Prayer of Distress

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance. 1 Nine requests for deliverance

[1] MAKE haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD.
2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.
3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.
4 Let all that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.
5 But I am [k]poor and needy: make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSALM 71

Seventh Prayer-Praise Psalm

1 Fifteen requests: 7 things God is; 7 works of God; 8 things about enemies

[1] IN thee, O LORD, do [l]I put my trust: [m]let me never be put to confusion.
2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and b David did not believe the modern fallacy that names cannot be blotted out of the book of life (v 28). Neither did God (Ex. 32:33), Moses (Ex. 32:32), or Jesus Christ (Rev. 3:5; 22:19). That this refers to the book of life is clear from the fact that it is the book wherein the names of the righteous are written (v 28) c Heb. ani, oppressed; afflicted (v 29). Used with needy 14 times (Dt. 15:11; Ps. 37:14; 40:17; 70:5; 74:21; 109:16, 22; Pr. 31:9; Isa. 41:17; Jer. 22:16; Ezek. 16:49; 18:12; 22:29). Here it is poor and sorrowful. Troubles and oppression will make one sorrowful d 2 things better than animal sacrifices:

1 Praise to the name of God in song
2 Thanksgiving to God (v 30-31)
e Another promise of immortality (1 Pet. 3:4, note. Cp. Ps. 22:26).
f Heb. ebyon, helpless (note f, Pr. 6:11).

4 Nation restored (v 35; Isa. 11:10-12; Ezek. 37; 48; Mt. 24:31; Acts 15:13-18)
5 Israel to inherit the promised land (v 36; Ezek. 37 and 48)
6 Israel to be converted and love God (v 36; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25)
j 10 requests of David:

2 Make haste to help me (v 1)
3 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek to destroy me (v 2)
4 Let them be turned backward (v 2)
5 Let them be put to confusion that desire my hurt (v 2)
6 Let them be turned back as a reward for mocking me (v 3)
7 Let all those that seek You rejoice and be glad in You (v 4)

9 Cast me not off in my old age (v 9)
10 Forsake me not when I have no strength left (v 9)
11 Be not far from me (v 12)
12 Make haste to help me (v 12)
13 Let my adversaries that seek to kill me be confounded and consumed (v 13)
14 Let my adversaries suffer the reproach and dishonor they seek for me (v 13)
15 Forsake me not (v 18)

This is proof that the 12 statements of v 22-28 apply to Judas and the crucifiers of Jesus Christ. They especially apply to Judas who is the only one in particular identified in Scripture as fulfilling this prophecy. Here we have definite proof that his name was one time in the book of life and later blotted out because of his sin, as predicted here (v 28), and promised all who sin (Ex. 32:32-33; Rev. 3:5; 22:18-19). By comparing Jn. 17:2-3 with 17:12 it is clear that Judas, who was once given eternal life, lost it by transgression, as stated also in Acts 1:20, 25
t This verse gives the reason for the prophecy of v 22-28. They persecute the Messiah who was smitten of God, and afflicted (v 26; Isa. 53:4; Zech. 13:7)
u Your wounded ones, referring to the followers of the Messiah (v 26; Acts 4:3; 5:40; 7:58; 8:1-4; 9:1; 22:4) save me.

3 Be thou[a] my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: [b]thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.
4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the[c] wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
5 For thou art my hope, O Lord GOD: thou art my trust from my youth.
6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.
7 I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.
8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.
9[d] Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.
10 For mine enemies speak against me; and they that lay wait for my soul take counsel together, 11 Saying, [e]God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.
12 O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help.
13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

2 Sevenfold praise to God

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.
15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof.
16 I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

3 Prayer for God's faithfulness in old age (Ps. 37:25)

17 O God, [f]thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.
18 Now also when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; [h]until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.
19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee!

4 Faith in the resurrection and future life (Ps. 16:10; 73:24)

★20 [i]Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt [j]quicken me again, and shalt bring me up [k]again from the depths of the earth.
21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

5 Sevenfold praise to God

22[g] I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Is'ra-el.
23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.
24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for [h]they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

PSALM 72

Fifteenth Messianic Psalm
A Psalm[c] for Solomon
1 Prayer for justice and righteousness from God

[l]GIVE the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.
2 The reign of the Messiah (v 2-17). (1) Its character and blessing (Isa. 11:1-9)
★2 [m]He [l]shall [n]judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.
3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.
4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

(2) Length of His reign (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Lk. 1:33; Rev. 11:15; 22:5)

5 They shall fear thee [o]as long as [k]the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

(3) Blessings of His reign (Isa. 2:2-4; 35:1-8)

6 [l]He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.
7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

(4) Extent of His reign (Dan. 7:27; Zech. 14:9-21)

8 He shall have dominion also [l]from sea to sea, and [k]from the river unto the ends of the earth.

(5) Success of His reign (Isa. 2:2-4; Zech. 14:16-21)

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall [l]lick the dust.
10 [m]The kings of Tär'shish and of the [p]isles shall bring presents: the kings of [o]Shē'bā and Sē'bā shall offer gifts.
11 Yea, [n]all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

(6) Character and blessing a 7 things God is: My 1 Strong habitation (v 3)

2 Rock (v 3)
3 Fortress (v 3)
4 Hope (v 5)
5 Trust (v 5)
6 Strong refuge (v 7)
7 Instructor (v 17)

b 7 works of God: You have 1 Given commandment to save me (v
2 Sustained me from my birth (v 6) 3)
3 Taken me from my mother's womb (v 6)
4 Taught me from my youth (v 17)
5 Done great things for me (v 19)
6 Showed me great troubles (v 20)
7 Redeemed me (v 23)

c 8 things about enemies
1 Wicked (v 4)
2 Unrighteous (v 4)
3 Cruel (v 4)
4 Speak and plot against me (v 10-11)
5 Lay wait to destroy me (v 10)
6 Take counsel to destroy me (v 10)
7 Adversaries to me (v 13)
8 Seek my hurt (v 13, 24)

d This could be paraphrased: You will not cast me off in old age, or forsake me when my strength fails. God's faithfulness in youth gave him confidence in old age e This is what enemies say, but they are mistaken. God never forsakes His own; He delivers His people (Heb. 11; 2 Cor. 11)

f 7 vows of the psalmist: I will 1 Hope continually (v 14)
2 Praise You more and more (v 14)
3 Show forth Your righteousness with my mouth (v 15) 15)
4 Show forth Your salvation all day (v
5 Not count by number the praises of my mouth or the times that I will show forth Your righteousness and salvation (v 15)
6 Go in the strength of God (v 16)
7 Make mention of Your righteousness and Yours only (v 16)

g You have been my life-long instructor

h 2 desires of the psalmist before death:
1 To show God's strength to his generation
2 To show God's power to future generations (v 18). The only way he could do this was by recording the dealings and doctrines of God for them i 59th prophecy in Ps. (71:20, unfulfilled). Next, 72:2

j Another declaration of faith in the resurrection of the body, liberation of the soul from sheol, and immortality of the body, soul, and spirit (v 20; 1 Pet. 3:4, note; Dan. 12:2, note)

k This again confirms the fact that sheol or the place of the soul is in the lower parts of the earth (see Hell, p. 620)

ferred to several times, as revealing the eternity of David's kingdom under the Messiah (v 5, 7, 17; 89:29, 36-37; Jer. 31:35-36)

l Here Messiah's reign and its glorious blessings are compared to the abundant blessings of earth by rain (v 6-7)

j All lands between all seas, not only between the Mediterranean and the Persian gulf (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Mic. 4:1-3; Zech. 14:9-21; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-6; 22:4-5)

k Referring to the river that will be made to flow out from the capital building - the Millennial temple (Ezek. 47; Zech. 14:8), not the Euphrates, for God's capital will not be on this river

l This is always a picture of complete submission of enemies (v 9; Num. 22:4; Isa. 49:23; Mic. 7:16-17)

m See note on 1 Ki. 10:22

n All maritime countries; coastlands

o This is modern Arabia

p All kings... all nations will be under Messiah and become the natural earthly generations in all eternity to carry on God's earthly program of replenishing the earth, as Adam and his children would have done if man had not fallen. See scriptures in the text heading of v 17

a 6 vows of the psalmist: I will 1 Praise You with the psaltery (v 22)
2 Praise Your truth (v 22)
3 Sing to You with the harp (v 22)
4 Sing with great rejoicing with my lips (v 23)
5 Sing unto You with my soul which You have redeemed (v 23)
6 Talk of Your righteousness all day long (v 24)

b 10 reasons for praise to God:
1 You have commanded my salvation (v 3)
2 You are my rock and fortress (v 3)
3 You are my hope (v 5)
4 You are my trust (v 5) (v 6)
5 You have sustained me from birth
6 You preserved me in birth (v 6)
7 You are my strong refuge (v 7)
8 You have done great things for me (v 19)
9 They that seek my hurt are confounded (v 24)
10 They that seek my hurt are ashamed (v 24)

c This is a psalm for Solomon when David set him upon the throne of his kingdom. That David is the author is clear from v 1 and 20. He is the king praying for righteousness for his son (v 1). It is called a prayer of David in v 20. Although it is uttered for Solomon, there are many statements which could not refer to him - prophecies of the Messiah and His glorious reign

d 2 requests of David for Solomon:
1 Let him rule according to Your law (v 1)
2 Let him rule in righteousness (v 1; 1 Ki. 3:5-9; 1 Chr. 28:5-7; 29:19)

e 60th prophecy in Ps. (72:2-17, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the Millennium under the Messiah). Next, 73:24

f 21 facts - the Millennium: universal 1 Judgment (v 2; Isa. 11:4-5)
2 Justice (v 2; Isa. 11:3-5)
3 Peace (v 3; Isa. 2:2-4; 9:6-7)
4 Righteousness (v 3; Isa. 11:4-5)
5 Relief from oppression (v 4)
6 Relief of the needy (v 4)
7 Punishment of oppressors (v 4)
8 Eternal rule (v 5; Isa. 9:6-7)
9 Prosperity (v 6-7; Mic. 4:4)
10 Dominion (v 8-11, 17; Zech. 14:9)
11 Submission of enemies (v 9)
12 Homage (v 10-11; Dan. 7:13-14)
13 Deliverance (v 12; Joel 2:32)
14 Help (v 12-13; Isa. 63:1-5)
15 Salvation (v 13-14; Isa. 52:7)
16 Punishment for murder (v 14)
17 Worship (v 15; Isa. 2:2-4; Zech. 14)
18 Flourishing crops (v 16; Isa. 35)
19 Prosperity in cities (v 16)
20 Honor to God's name (v 17)
21 Blessings upon men (v 17)

g 24 things Messiah will do:
1 Judge people in righteousness (v 2)
2 Judge the poor in justice (v 2) (v 4)
3 Deliver the poor from oppression
4 Save the children of the needy (v 4)
5 Destroy the oppressors (v 4)
6 Instil fear in hearts of men regarding evil (v 5)
7 Bless men like rain blessing the earth (v 6) 7)
8 Cause the righteous to flourish (v
9 Bring universal peace (v 7; Isa. 2:2-4; 9:6-7) 11)
10 Rule with universal dominion (v 8, 11 Completely defeat His enemies (v 9)
12 Receive homage from kings of the earth (v 10-11)
13 Deliver needy through prayer (v 14 Succor the helpless (v 12) 12)
15 Spare the poor and needy from needless sufferings (v 13)
16 Redeem souls from deceit and violence (v 13-14)
17 Punish murderers (v 14)
18 Live eternally (v 15)
19 Receive the gold of Sheba (v 15)
20 Hear prayers of His people (v 15)
21 Receive praise from subjects (v 15)
22 Have His name continue eternally
23 Bless men eternally (v 17) (v 17)
24 Be called blessed by all nations eternally (v 17)

h The eternal Solaric covenant is reof His reign (v 2-4; Isa. 11:1-9; Zech. 14:16-21)

▸12 For he shall deliver [a]the needy when he crieth; [b]the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

▸13 He shall [c]spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

▸14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

(7) Worship in His reign (Zech. 14:16-21; Mal. 1:11; Isa. 2:2)

15 And [d]he shall live, and [e]to him shall be given of the gold of Shĕ'bā: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.

(8) Agricultural prosperity in His reign (Isa. 35; 65:20-25; Mic. 4:4)

16 There shall be [f]an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake[g] like Lĕb'a-non: and [h]they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

(9) Eternal generations of men in His reign (Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 11:15)

17 His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued [i]as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed [j]in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

3 Praise to God in view of the Messiah's eternal reign

18 [k]Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Is'ra-el, who only doeth wondrous things.

19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Ā-mĕn', and Ā-mĕn'.

20 [l]The prayers of Dā'vid the son of Jĕs'se are ended.

a Mt. Lebanon was noted for its large cedar trees. The idea here is that crops will grow up strong and vigorous compared to crops at other times, as the cedars of Lebanon are great in size compared to common trees or shrubs (v 16)

b They of the city shall prosper like green grass of the earth. This suggests industries and business of various kinds to make city life profitable and prosperous

c This not only confirms that Messiah's name is eternal, but also that the sun and planets are eternal. See Solaric covenant, p. 57

d All nations shall be blessed in the Messiah, confirming the covenant with Abraham - In thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed (Gen. 12:1-3; 18:18; 22:18; 26:4; 28:14; Gal. 3:8)

e This doxology closes the 2nd book of Psalms. David foresaw in the Spirit the glorious reign of Messiah. He also saw the grandeur, justice, and happiness of the reign of Solomon, which was a faint shadow of the blessing, prosperity, and righteousness of the reign of Messiah

f This suggests that this was the last psalm of David. The ones written by him and recorded in the last part of this book were composed before this one

THE THIRD BOOK OF PSALMS - The Leviticus Book: Concerning the Sanctuary (Psalms 73-89)

PSALM 73

Twelfth Psalm of Instruction (on: envy not the prosperity of the wicked)

A Psalm of Asaph. 1 Occupation with God: result-goodness of God

TRULY [a]God is good to Is'ra-el, even to such as are of a clean heart.

2 Envious occupation with others: result - backsliding. Eighteenfold prosperity of the wicked

2 [b]But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 [c]For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.

5 They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, [d]How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who [e]prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

3 Occupation with others: result - sevenfold distraction

13 Verily [f]I have cleansed my heart in vain, and [g]washed my hands in innocency.

14 [h]For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

15 [i]If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;

4 Remedy for backsliding and perplexity: the sanctuary

17 [j]Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.

5 True appraisal of the wicked: their sevenfold end

18 [k]Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

6 True appraisal of a backslider: his fivefold misery

21 [l]Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

7 Occupation with God: eightfold blessing and end of the righteous 23 [m]Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 [n]Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 [o]Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none a God is good to all men, seeking to lead them to repentance (Rom. 2:4), and salvation (1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9). If He is thus good to the whole world, how much better is He to those who are of clean hearts (v 1)?

b 4 ways to backslide (v 2-16):
1 Be envious at the prosperity of the wicked (v 2-12)
2 Be despondant and critical over lack of prosperity (v 4-12)
3 Belittle God's blessings (v 13)
4 Be rebellious against lot in life (v 14-16; Heb. 12:5-13) c 18fold prosperity of the wicked:

1 No bands (panga) in death (v 4)
2 Their strength is firm (v 4)
3 Not in trouble as other men (v 5)
4 Not plagued as other men
5 Pride compasses them about as a chain (or necklace, v 6) men (v 6) 6 Violence covers them as a gar-
7 Their eyes stand out with fatness
8 They have more than heart could 9 They are corrupt (v 8) wish (v 7)
10 They speak wickedly about oppression (v 8)
11 They speak loftily (v 8)
12 Set their mouth against heaven - blaspheme God (v 9)
13 Their tongue wags through the earth - they find fault with everything
14 They cause men who have been converted from a life of covetousness to return to it, as in v 2-3 (v 10)
15 Cause God's people to covet the waters of a full cup (prosperity) to be wrung out to them (v 10) 11)
16 They say, How does God know? (v
17 They say, Is there knowledge in the most High to see these things? (v 11)
18 They increase in riches (v 12)

d Questions 78-79, Next, v 25

e Prosperity is not the primary purpose of creation. God desires His own people to be prosperous, but not at the expense of losing their own soul (1 Jn. 2:15-17; 3 Jn. 2; Ps. 1:3)

7 You will always despise the image the wicked dream about and the pattern set by them (v 20)

f 6fold true appraisal of backsliders:
1 My heart was grieved (soured) when I saw the prosperity of the wicked and the suffering of the righteous (v 21)
2 I was pricked in my reins (kidneys,
3 I was so foolish (v 22) 22)
4 I was so ignorant (v 22)
5 I was as a beast for stupidity (v 22)

g Regardless of my complaints and envy of the prosperous wicked, I am still with You. You have held me through my temptations to wander from You (v 23)

h 6fold prophecy in Ps. (73:24, unfulfilled), Next, 75:2

i Question 80, Next, 74:1

j These verses (13-16) are the result of looking at men instead of God. They are the unwise utterances of one who was severely tried by seeing the unequalities between the godly and ungodly, from the standpoint of the natural man. Christians are sometimes tempted to complain of their sacrifices and constant efforts to live godly in the face of prosperity and pleasures of the wicked. They may be tempted to think that godliness is not profitable, but when the momentary temptations are gone and more sober reflection on facts is restored, the end of the wicked (v 17-20) and the utter foolishness of such temptations are seen (v 21-22). Then one realizes that God and His interests are the only valuable things of life (v 23-28. Cp. Isa. 58:2-3) k Washing of hands was a symbol of being innocent of a crime one was charged with. Cp. Mt. 27:24

l The complaint is that there is no advantage in serving God. Far from enjoying worldly prosperity, the writer is poor, plagued, and faced with new afflictions daily (v 14)

m If I reason thus and complain that it does not pay to serve God, the testimony of many generations is against me. All saints of all ages have testified that the judge of all the earth does right. They trusted God and were never confounded. They also met with sore trials and afflictions and God brought them out of them all. They proved that the world is not worthy of such noble souls (Heb. 11:32-40). Yes, if I should so reason, I would offend the saints of all ages and prove myself unworthy of being classed with them in all the future eternal glories and rewards (v 15). When I thought to know this - when I saw that God had always delivered His own and had always taken vengeance on the oppressors and the wicked, it was too painful for me to consider that He would now do what He had never done before - permit His people to be defeated. It was too painful for me (v 16)

n It was too much for me, until I went into the sanctuary of God and understood the end of the wicked (v 17)

o 7fold true appraisal of end of wicked:
1 You did set them in slippery places
2 You did cast them down to destruction (v 18) 19)
3 You did bring them to desolation (v
4 You destroyed them in a moment (v 19)
5 You utterly consumed them with terrors (v 19)
6 You caused their prosperity and lives to come suddenly to an end, as a dream passes when one awakes (v 20) upon earth that [a]I desire beside thee.

26 [b]My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

8 Final end of backsliders

27 For, lo, [c]they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

9 True occupation of the righteous

28 But it is [d]good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all thy works.

PSALM 74

Thirteenth Psalm of Instruction (on prayer for judgment)
Maschil (instruction) of Asaph. 1 Complaint to God for continued judgment on His people

O GOD, [e]why hast thou [f]cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Prayer for mercy: three reasons for mercy

2 [g]Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zi'ŏn, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Sixteenfold complaint to God for not judging His enemies: ten sins of the wicked

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy [h]hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their [i]ensigns for signs.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all [j]the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not [k]our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, [l]how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, [m]even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

4 Twelvefold greatness and works of God in creation

12 [n]For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 [o]Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the [p]dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads [q]of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 Thou didst [r]cleave the fountain and the flood: [s]thou driedst up mighty rivers.

16 [t]The day is thine, the night also is thine: [u]thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 [v]Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: [w]thou hast made summer and winter.

5 Ten requests for judgment on the wicked and mercy on the righteous

18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul of thy [x]turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 [y]Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee increaseth continually.

PSALM 75

Fourth Psalm of Praise
To the chief Musician, Al-taschith (destroy not), A Psalm or Song of Asaph. 1 Praise: reason - God's relation to man and the earth UNTO thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near [z]thy wondrous works declare.

★2 [a]When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly.

3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: [b]I bear up the pillars of it. [c]Sĕ'lah.

4 I said unto the [d]fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the [e]horn:

5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For [f]promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south.

7 But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

★8 [g]For in the hand of the LORD there is a [h]cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, [i]all the a This is the same as the first and great commandment of Mt. 22:36-39

b I may soon die because my heart and flesh will fail me, but God is the One who will cause me to live forever (v 26)

c 2 classes of people will be damned:
1 Those that are far from God. This takes in all who have never known God and Christ (v 27)
2 Those that backslide and go whoring from God. This takes in all who go back into sin and die in sin (v 27; Ex. 32:32-33; Ezek. 18:20-24; 33:12-16; Lk. 8:13; Rom. 1:18-32; 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:9-10; 9:27; Gal. 1:6-8; 3:1-8; 5:1-4, 19-21; 6:1, 7-8; 2 Tim. 2:12; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2:20-22; Rev. 2:5; 3:5; 22:11). If the Holy Spirit said that God would destroy all who go whoring from Him, then the question about stubborn and impenitent backsliders should be settled accordingly

d This is good for everyone, and is the only guarantee that any sinner, saint, or backslider has of being blessed of God (v 27)

e Questions 81-82. Next, v 10. One could ask several more questions that would answer these: Does God cast off His people without a cause? If He does cast them off will He not forgive and receive them again if they repent? If they do not repent is He still obligated to save them?

f 15 acts of God:
1 Judges and casts off for sin (v 1)
2 Manifests anger (v 1)
3 Redeems His people (v 2)
4 Dwells in Zion (v 2)
5 Brings deliverance (v 12)
6 Divides the sea (v 13)
7 Breaks the heads of dragons (v 13)
8 Breaks the heads of leviathan (v 14)
9 Gives leviathan for meat (v 14)
10 Cleaves the fountain and flood (v 15)
11 Dries up rivers (v 15)
12 Makes day and night (v 16)
13 Prepares the sun and light (v 16)
14 Sets the borders of nations (v 17; Dt. 32:8; Acts 17:26)
15 Makes summer and winter (v 17)

g 15 requests:
1 Remember Your congregation (v 2)
2 Remember the rod of Your inheritance, Mt. Zion (v 2)
3 Lift up Your feet unto perpetual desolations (v 3)
4 Remember the reproach of the enemy (v 18)
5 Remember the blasphemers (v 18)
6 Deliver me not to the wicked (v 19)
7 Forget not the poor (v 19)
8 Have respect to the covenant (v 20)
9 Let not the oppressed be ashamed
10 Let the poor and needy praise Your name (v 21)
11 Arise, O Lord (v 22)
12 Plead Your own cause (v 22)
13 Remember how the foolish reproach You (v 22)
14 Forget not the voice of enemies
15 Forget not the tumult of those that rise up against You (v 23)

h 12 sins of the wicked:
1 Commit sin in the sanctuary (v 3)
2 Roar in the midst of the congregation (v 4)
3 Set up their standards as signs (v 4)
4 Break up the house of God (v 6)
5 Set fire to the sanctuary (v 7)
6 Defile the sanctuary (v 7)
7 Plot against the righteous (v 8)
8 Burn the synagogues (v 8)
9 Reproach God and His people (v 10)
10 Blaspheme God's name (v 10, 18)
11 Oppress the righteous (v 21)
12 Cause tumults against God (v 23)

i Same word as standard in Num. 2

j Places of religious assemblies. Israel had them in every city by N. T. times (Acts 15:23). This is the only place the word synagogue is found in the O. T. It is found 68 times in the N. T.

k These were the miraculous manifestations of God among His people. Miracles always have been and always will be a sign of God among His children. Cp. Mk. 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12

l Questions 83-85. Next, 76:7

m Putting the right hand into the bosom was a sign of tolerance, but plucking it out was a sign of action to take vengeance and to defend one's self (v 11). Cp. Mt. 18:7-9

n For God is our King from of old, dispensing salvation from the center to every part of the earth (v 12)

b See 15 acts of God, note f, v 1 c Heb. tannin, sea-serpent: a symbol of Egypt (v 13; Isa. 51:9; Ezek. 29:3); also a symbol of Satan (Isa. 27:1; Rev. 12:3-17; 13:2, 4, 11; 16:13; 20:2). This is figurative of the destruction of the Egyptians in the Red Sea (Ex. 14:23-31; 15:1, 4-5, 19).

d Heb. livyathan, great sea serpent, a symbol of Satan (v 14; 104:26; Job 41:1; Isa. 27:1). The language here is figurative of the defeat of satanic powers. Just as a great dragon would be killed and be given to the people of the wilderness for meat, so God defeated Satan and his hosts and caused Israel to triumph over them in the wilderness (Ex. 14-15). In Rev. 12:1-17; 13:2-11; 16:13-16; 20:2 Satan is symbolized by a great dragon with 7 heads and 10 horns, picturing his power over the great world empires that have persecuted and will persecute Israel in the times of the Gentiles (see notes, p. 873, 311 of N. T.)

e This could refer to the flood of Noah when the waters of the deep were broken up to help make the 2nd universal flood on earth (Gen. 7:11). It could also refer to the waters from the rock (Ex. 17:6)

f God dried up the Red Sea and the Jordan (Ex. 14:21-22; Josh. 3:13-17; 4:23; 2 Kl. 2:8, 14), and will yet dry up the Euphrates (Rev. 16:12) and the river Nile (Isa. 11:15)

g This refers to the original creation and regulation of the solar system, as well as to the restored solar system, the work of day 4 (Gen. 1:14-18)

h God created the sun, moon, and stars; they are not a product of evolution through billions of years (v 16; 8:3-8; 19:1). See evolution refuted, p. 55

i God divided the nations, giving each its own inheritance, and it is His plan that each type of people shall dwell in its own portion of the earth, not mixing as many do today (v 17; Dt. 32:8; Acts 17:26)

j God made the seasons; and summer and winter are eternal (Gen. 1:14-18; 8:22)

k Here Israel is compared to a helpless turtledove before the wicked who would like to destroy her (v 19)

l It is not God who needs urging to respect and keep His contract. Men, themselves are the ones who need to be warned about breaking the covenant of God. They are the ones who fill the dark places of the earth with habitations of cruelty (v 20). Men love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil (Jn. 3:16-20). Satan is the ruler of the darkness of this world (2 Cor. 4:4; Eph. 6:10-18)

m The works of God do declare His glory and power (v 1; 19:1-6) n 62nd prophecy in Ps. (75:2-3, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled when God takes over the governments of this world to reign forever; v 2-3; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:9-14; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5). Next, v 8

o All creations are upheld by God through Christ (v 3; Heb. 1:3)

p See note h, 3:2

q Heb. halal, boasters; the arrogant

r See Use of word horn, p. 629

s A verse showing the direction of heaven from the earth. If promotion does not come from the east, south, or west, but from the Lord (or the north) then heaven, the home of God, is located in the north from the earth (v 6-7). This is confirmed in Isa. 14:12-14, where it is revealed that Lucifer ascended into heaven from the sides of the north

t 63rd prophecy in Ps. (75:8-10, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled when all the power of the wicked shall be broken, and the power of the righteous shall be exalted). Next, 76:10

u A symbol of God's judgments (v 8; Isa. 51:17-23; Hab. 2:15-16; Ezek. 23:31, 34; Jer. 25:15, 17, 28; 49:12). See 12 figurative cups in Scripture, note q, Mt. 20:22

v All wicked men will be turned into hell (9:17, note) to reap what they have sowed (Gal. 6:7-8). Even saints will give account of all things done in the body, good or bad (Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10) a The God of Jacob is used 22 times in Scripture; 12 times in Psalms. It refers to the God of Grace, who met Jacob when he had nothing and deserved nothing but wrath, and promised to bless him and his seed eternally (Gen. 28:12-15)

b The horns of the righteous and of the wicked refer to their power and authority in the earth. The one will increase and the other will be cut off (v 10. See Use of word "horn", p. 629)

c 4 names are given here:
1 Judah, because David, the king was from this tribe, because Jerusalem was in the Judah portion of the promised land, and because Judah, the ruling tribe (Gen. 49:10), had finally come into its own calling under David
2 Israel, because the taking of Salem by David was in connection with his taking the throne of all Israel (2 Sam. 5:1-10)
3 Salem, because it was captured by David and made the capital of the united kingdom. Salem was the ancient Jebusite name for Jerusalem. Cp. Gen. 14:18; Heb. 7:1-2 4 Zion, because this was the place of God's tabernacle after the taking of Salem from the Jebusites (v 2-3; 2 Sam. 5:6-10; 6:1-23; 7:1-2). Though Zion had been the stronghold of the Jebusites, it had no place in history until this event. God Himself chose Zion (Ps. 132:13)

d See note h, 3:2

e God is more glorious than any part of creation and must be recognized as such. When men worship and serve the creature rather than the Creator it is idolatry and this calls for the curse of God (Rom. 1:18-32). Creation was made by God for His own glory and pleasure, not for creation itself to worship (Rev. 4:11)

f The mountains of the Jebusite stronghold became a prey for Israel and were spoiled by them, never to be in Jebusite hands again (v 4-8)

g God is here given credit for the defeat of the Jebusites. They were a stout-hearted people and defended their city as well as any other people in history, but they could not defeat God. For their sins they had to be destroyed, as all other former inhabitants of Canaan (Dt. 7:4-5). The mighty men of Jebus could not find their hands, that is, could not fight on that day because of the rebuke of God (v 5-6. Cp. Zech. 14:12-15) h The sleep of death is the reference here and in v 5. See note on No soul-sleep taught in Scripture, p. 881

i Question 86, Next, 77:7. Who may stand in Your sight when once You are angry?
7 examples: God angry, no destruction:
1 Moses (Ex. 4:14; Dt. 1:37; 4:21)
2 Aaron and Miriam (Num. 12:9-16)
3 Balaam (Num. 22:22-35)
4 Israel (Dt. 9:9-21)
5 Solomon (1 Ki. 11:9)
6 The wicked (Ps. 7:11)
7 Ninevites (Jonah 3:9-10)

j Which one is referred to, of the many times when God rose up to save Israel, is not clear. If this refers to the time He defeated the Jebusites (v 3-6), then it reveals that Israel had a hard time taking the stronghold of Zion and might not have done so if God had not helped. God has delivered Israel many times in the past, in the days of Moses, Joshua, the Judges, and kings and He will deliver again, the last time, at the 2nd advent when half of Jerusalem will be taken in battle (Zech. 14)

k See note h, 3:2

l 64th prophecy in Ps. (76:10-12, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled when the wrath of man against the righteous will be brought down for the glory of God, and all haughtiness of princes and kings will be cut off). Next, 82:7-8 m The wrath of man praising God simply means that God will get glory when such wrath is put down and cut off. The whole earth will be saved and will glorify God for His work of ridding the earth of sin and rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10)

n One is not under obligation to make a vow, but if he does he is responsible unless he repents and is forgiven (v 11; 15:4; Num. 30:1-16; Mt. 12:36-37)

o This will be literally true in the Millennium and in the new earth forever (v 11; 68:29; 72:10; Isa. 18:7; Rev. 21:26) wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

2 Praise promised: reasons

9 But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the [a]God of Já'cob.
10 All the [b]horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSALM 76

Fourteenth Psalm of Instruction (on the conquest of Jerusalem)
To the chief Musician on Neginoth (stringed instruments), A Psalm or Song of Asaph. 1 The Jebusite defeat by God

IN [c]Jú'dah is God known: his name is great in Is'ra-el.
2 In Sá'lem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zi'ón.
3 There brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. [d]Sé'lah.

2 God more glorious than the object of the conquest

4 [e]Thou art more glorious and excellent than [f]the mountains of prey.

3 The Jebusite defeat by God

5 The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.
6 At [g]thy rebuke, O God of Já'cob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a [h]dead sleep.

4 God to be feared: reasons

7 Thou, even thou, art to be feared: [i]and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?
8 [j]Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still,
9 When God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. [k]Sé'lah.

5 God to be praised: reasons

*10 [l]Surely [m]the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.
•11 [n]Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: [o]let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.
12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

PSALM 77

Fifteenth Psalm of Instruction (on deliverance from troubles)
To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun (Ethan, a choir leader), A Psalm of Asaph.

1 Sixteenfold self occupation

I CRIED unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and [b]he gave ear unto me.
2 [c]In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my [d]sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.
3 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit [e]was overwhelmed. Sé'lah.
4 Thou holdest mine [f]eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
5 [g]I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.
6 [h]I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

2 Its sure result: a life full of questions and misery

7 [i]Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?
8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?
9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Sé'lah.

3 Sixfold occupation with God

10 And I said, This is my infirmity: [j]but [k]I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.
11 I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.
12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

4 Its sure result: a life of happiness - sixteenfold praise for God's greatness and works

13 [l]Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: [m]who is so great a God as our God?
14 Thou art the [n]God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.
15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Já'cob and Jó'seph. Sé'lah.
16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.
17 The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad.
18 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.
19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.
20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Mó'ses and Aár'on.

PSALM 78

a 23fold complaint in self-occupation:
1 I cried unto God (v 1)
2 I sought the Lord (v 2)
3 My sore ran in the night (v 2)
4 My sore ceased not (v 2)
5 My soul refused to be comforted (v 2)
6 I remembered God (v 3)
7 I was troubled (v 3)
8 I complained (v 3)
9 I was overwhelmed (v 3)
10 I could not sleep (v 4)
11 I was so troubled I could not speak (v 4)
12 I considered the old days (v 5)
13 I considered past years (v 5)
14 I called to remembrance how I used to sing in the night (v 6)
15 I talked to myself (v 6)
16 I made diligent search (v 6)
17 I questioned my relationship with God (v 7)
18 I wondered if God would ever be favorable again (v 7)
19 I wondered whether God would ever be merciful again (v 20)
20 I wondered if His promises would ever come to pass in my life (v 8)
21 I wondered if He would ever be gracious again (v 9)
22 I wondered whether He had shut up His tender mercies forever in His anger (v 9)
23 I complained that this was my infirmity and lot in life (v 10)

b This will always be the case with God and penitent, earnest seekers after Him. Never has God turned down the cry of a truly sincere and humble soul. If this is true of the old covenant days it is much more true of new covenant days, for we now have a better covenant based upon better promises (Heb. 8:6). See the 250 classifications of promises, p. 316-317 of N. T.

c One should not wait until he gets into trouble to pray even though God promises to hear those who do call upon Him in the day of trouble (50:15; 91:15). Many are the instances of being heard in time of trouble (2 Chr. 15:4; Neh. 9:27; Ps. 31:7; 54:7; 107:6, 13, 19, 28)

d Heb. yad, hand. It means that he lifted up his hands in prayer to God on into the night and did not cease to lift up his hands to God until he was heard (v 2)

e This will be the final result of any long period of self-occupation. The more one gives in to despondency the more he will be despondent. This is proved by the ever-deepening despair of the psalmist from v 2-9. His complaint ended with questioning and misery

f You keep my eyelids from closing. So great is my grief that I cannot sleep or speak (v 4)

g I have considered the many dispensations of mercy and deliverance from ancient times, set down in the history of the fathers, and deliverance to me is not after their pattern (v 5-6)

h I even call to remembrance the times when I was happy and sang songs in the night. Now I cannot speak, I am so overwhelmed (v 2-6)

i Questions 87-92, Next, v 13. See note a, 18-23, above

j Here the psalmist ceases his dejected self-occupation and becomes occupied with God. His despondency vanishes. This is the cure for misery and despair (v 10-20)

k 5fold occupation with God:
1 I will remember the years of God's past blessings (v 10, 11)
2 I will remember the works of God (v 11)
3 I will remember His wonders of old (v 11)
4 I will meditate also of all His wonderful works (v 12)
5 I will talk about and praise God for His doings (v 12)

l The way of God was in the sanctuary. That is where God met with Israel then; but now He has provided another way. Men are not required to meet God in one certain place; they can contact and worship Him in all places (Jn. 4:21-24; Heb. 4:14-16; 10:19-23)

m Question 93, Next, 78:19

n See 16fold greatness of God, p. 629

Sixteenth Psalm of Instruction (on choosing the temple site)

Maschil (instruction) of Asaph. 1 Commands to hear and obey the law of Moses 78 [a]GIVE ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 Prophecy of the Messiah's new revelations (Mt. 13:35)

2 [b]I will open my mouth in [c]a parable: I will utter [d]dark sayings of old:

3 Mosaic propagation of the law (Dt. 4:9-10; 6:7)

3 [e]Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, [f]shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For he established a testimony in Jā'cob, and [g]appointed a law in Iṣ'ra-el, which [h]he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

4 Sevenfold purpose of the Mosaic law (Rom. 3:9-20; Heb. 10)

6 [i]That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

5 Five sins of Ephraim (v 17)

9 The children of E'phrā-im, being armed, and carrying bows, [j]turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;

11 And forgat his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

6 Ten wonders of God in Egypt (v 23)

12 [k]Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of E'gypt, in the field of Zō'an.

13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

7 Five sins of Israel (v 9)

17 And they [b]sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

19 Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jā'cob, and anger also came up against Iṣ'ra-el;

22 [d]Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

8 Ten wonders of God in the wilderness (v 12)

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, 24 And had [e]rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat [f]angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for [g]he gave them their own desire;

9 Impenitence of Israel and wrath of God upon the people

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths, 31 The [h]wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Iṣ'ra-el.

10 Continued sin and unbelief and increased judgment of God

32 [i]For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

11 Hypocrisy and insincerity in spite of God's mercies

34 When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that

a 2 commands:
1 Give ear to My law (v 1). Found 32 times in the O. T., but not once in the N. T. It means to give heed and obey the law (Ex. 15:26) and to listen (Dt. 32:1)
2 Incline your ears to My words (v 1). Found 21 times in the O. T., but not once in the N. T. It means to stretch out or put forth every effort to obey the law (17:6; Pr. 2:2; 4:20)

b Quoted in Mt. 13:35. Cp. Ps. 49:4

c Heb. mashal, similitude; likeness; proverb (v 2; 49:4; Num. 23:7; 24:3; Job 27:1; 29:1; Pr. 26:7, 9; Ezek. 17:2; 20:49; 24:3; Mic. 2:4; Hab. 2:6). See note a, Pr. 1:1. The idea in Mt. 13:35 is that of an illustration, but as used here it means, "I will give you instruction by numerous examples." Here we have a great historical psalm, the 1st of 4 such psalms (78, 105, 106, 136). There are 80 acts of God and 30 sins committed during Israel's history, recorded here alone

d Heb. chidah, a knot; accute hidden saying; puzzle; proverb; riddle; conundrum (v 2; 49:4; Num. 12:8; Pr. 1:6; Dan. 8:23). The puzzle here is not in the expression of mystery, in words hard to understand, but great wonderment of how these many miraculous things happened to Israel

e These so-called parables or dark sayings are simple statements of fact in Israel's history, previously passed from generation to generation by word of mouth. Here they are written for all generations to know (v 3-5)

f Recounting the past so that coming generations may know the miraculous dealings of God and His mighty works (v 4-5)

g The nation of Israel had the law commanded only to them, not the Gentiles (Dt. 4:7-13; 5:3; Rom. 2:14; 1 Cor. 9:21)

h See Ex. 10:2; 12:26-27; 13:8-15; Dt. 4:9; 6:7, 20

i 7 reasons for teaching the law:
1 That the generations to come might know the truth and laws of God (v 6)
2 That the generations to come might pass the truth on to others (v 6)
3 That they might hope in God (v 7)
4 That they might not forget the great works of God (v 7)
5 That they might keep His commandments (v 7)
6 That they might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation (v 8; Dt. 9:24; 31:27; Acts 7:51-52)
7 That they might set their hearts right and be stedfast in God (v 8)

j 30 sins and rebellions of Israel, p. 629

k 80 acts of God:
1 He divided Red Sea (v 13; Ex. 14)
2 Caused Israel to pass through the sea as on dry ground (v 13; Ex. 14)
3 Made the waters to congeal (v 13)
4 Led Israel by a cloud by day (v 14)
5 Led them by a pillar of fire by night (v 14; Ex. 14:19-20; Num. 9:16)
6 He clave the rock (v 15)
7 Gave water to drink (v 15; Ex. 17)
8 Brought streams out of the rock (v 16; Ex. 17:6)
9 Caused waters to run like rivers (v 16, 20; Ex. 17:6)
10 He commanded the clouds (v 23)
11 Opened the doors of heaven (v 23)
12 Rained manna from heaven (v 24)
13 Gave them corn from heaven (v 24)
14 Sent them angel's food (v 25)
15 Sent meat for all the nations (v 25)
16 Caused the east wind to blow from heaven (v 26) 26)
17 He also brought the south wind (v
18 He rained flesh like dust (v 27)
19 Rained quails like sand of the sea (v 27; Ex. 17; Num. 11) 28)
20 Brought quails into their camp (v
21 Brought them all about their tents
22 Sent enough to fill all the people
23 He gave them their desire (v 29)
24 Cursed them because of their lust (v 31; Num. 11:33)
25 He cut short their days (v 33)
26 Gave them many troubles (v 33)

c Questions 94-96. Next, 79:5

d Unbelief is the basis of sin, and therefore, the cause of curses (v 22; Rom. 11:20-32; Heb. 3:12, 19; 4:6, 11; Jude 5; Rev. 21:8). How important it is then to have faith (Mk. 16:16; Jn. 3:16; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

e The food rained from heaven is called:
1 Manna (v 24)
2 Corn from heaven (v 24)
3 Angel's food (v 25)
4 Meat (v 25)
5 Bread (Jn. 6:31-32)

f God, angels, and all other spirit beings eat food (v 25; Gen. 18:8; Ex. 24:9-11; Lk. 22:16, 18, 30; Rev. 2:7, 17; 22:2)

g Sometimes this is not the best for men, for the desires are wrong (v 29; Num. 22; Rom. 1:18-32; Acts 21:11-14)

h See Num. 11:33-35

i In face of all these judgments Israel went deeper into sin, as God predicted in Lev. 26

15 They have brought us very low (v 8)

God was their rock, and [a]the high God their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did [b]flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

37 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

38 But he, being [c]full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For [d]he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

12 Five sins of Israel (v 9)

40 How [e]oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

41 Yea, [f]they turned back [g]and tempted God, and [h]limited [i]the Holy One of Is'ra-el.

42 They [j]remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy.

13 Twenty-two wonders of God (v 12, 23)

43 How he had wrought [k]his signs in E'gypt, and his wonders in the field of Zo'an:

44 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpiller, and their labour unto the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their [l]sycomore trees with frost.

48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot [m]thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending [n]evil angels among them.

50 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence;

51 And smote all the firstborn in E'gypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of [o]Ham:

52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: [p]but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And [q]he brought them to the border of [r]his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Is'ra-el to dwell in their tents.

14 Increased rebellion: seven sins of Israel

56 Yet they [e]tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:

57 [b]But turned back, and [c]dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like [d]a deceitful bow.

58 For they [e]provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their [f]graven images.

15 Fifteenfold wrath of God

59 When God heard this, [g]he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Is'ra-el:

60 [h]So that he forsook the tabernacle of [i]Shi'lōh, the tent which he placed among men;

61 And delivered [j]his strength into captivity, and his [k]glory into the enemy's hand.

62 He [l]gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage.

64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.

65 [m]Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

16 Sevenfold choice of God

67 Moreover he [n]refused the tabernacle of Jō'seph, and chose not the tribe of E'phrā-im:

68 But chose the tribe of Jū'dah, the mount of Zi'ōn which [o]he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, [p]like the earth which he hath established for ever.

70 [q]He chose Dā'vid also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

71 [r]From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed [s]Ja'cob his people, and Is'ra-el his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

PSALM 79

Seventh Prayer for Judgment

A Psalm of Asaph. 1 Sevenfold complaint against God's enemies

O GOD, [t]the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Je-ru'sā-lēm on heaps.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Je-ru'sā-lēm; and there was none to bury them.

d Disappointing the bowman. The Eastern bow at rest is curved backward, contrary to its bend when strung. It must be recurved in stringing. If a person is unskilful or weak in stringing the bow, it could spring back and break his arm. If a bow is not well made it might even fly back in discharging the arrow. It is said of the bow of Jonathan, it turned not back, that is, it did not twist itself backward (2 Sam. 1:22). It was a good bow on which he could depend. Israel is compared to a deceitful bow here and in Hos. 7:16. The idea is that Israel, when bent toward God would suddenly spring back to her former position of sinfulness. The same figure is used of the tongue in Jer. 9:3
e Over 220 times God's anger is spoken of in Scripture. The word provoke and anger are used together over 31 times. Provoking God to jealousy is also referred to a number of times (Dt. 32:16; 1 Ki. 14:22; Rom. 10:19; 11:11; 1 Cor. 10:22)
f This includes all kinds of images, whether carved, graven, or molten (v 58; Dt. 7:5) g Their idolatrous practices were of long standing causing God to be angry enough to abhor Israel, even though He is long suffering and slow to anger (Neh. 9:17; Ps. 30:5; 145:8; Joel 2:13)
b The Lord was so provoked over the sins of the people and the priests that He abandoned the tabernacle at Shiloh, never turning to it again. He permitted the enemy to capture the ark for a long time (v 60–61; 1 Sam. 6:1; 2 Sam. 6). Shiloh was in the tribe of Ephraim, which God rejected (v 67). He planned that the place of worship should be moved to Zion (v 68), what became of the original tabernacle is not known

Fifteenth Prayer of Distress
To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim-Eduth (lilies). A Psalm of Asaph. 1 Six requests for salvation to Israel

GIVE ear, O [m]Shepherd of Is'ra-el, [n]thou that leadest Jó'seph like a flock; thou that dwellest [o]between the cherubims, shine forth.

2 [p]Before É'phrä-im and Bĕn'-ja-min and Mä-näs'seh stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

3 [q]Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

2 Fivefold complaint to God for refusing to hear prayer

4 O LORD God of hosts, [r]how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

5 [s]Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves.

3 Two requests for salvation

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

4 Tenfold description of Israel as a vine (Isa. 5:1-7; Jer. 2:21; Ezek. 15:6; 17:6; 19:10)

8 Thou hast brought a [t]vine out of É'gypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river.

5 Fourfold complaint to God for destroying Israel (v 8)

12 [u]Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

13 [v]The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

6 Eight requests for salvation to Israel

14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the [w]son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

18 So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.

19 Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

Seventeenth Psalm of Instruction (on God's dealings with Israel)
To the chief Musician upon Gittith (Gittite harp). A Psalm of Asaph. 1 Sevenfold command to praise and worship God

SING aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Já'cob.

●2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the [x]timbrel, the [y]pleasant harp with the [z]psaltery.

●3 Blow up the [a]trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

2 Eightfold reason to praise

4 [b]For this was a statute for Is'ra-ël, and a law of the God of Já'cob.

5 This is ordained in Jó'seph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of É'gypt:

2 Shine forth (v 1)
3 Stir up Your strength (v 2)
4 Come and save us (v 2)
5 Turn us again - convert us (v 3)
6 Cause Your face to shine upon us (v 3)
7 Turn us again - convert us (v 7)
8 Cause Your face to shine upon us (v 7)
9 Return to us (v 14)
10 Look down from heaven (v 14)
11 Behold, and visit this vine (v 14-15)
12 Let Your hand be upon the man at Your right hand (v 17)
13 Let Your hand be upon the son of man whom You have made strong (v 17)
14 Quicken us (v 18)
15 Turn us again - convert us (v 19)
16 Cause Your face to shine upon us (v 19)

10 Brought judgment upon Israel because of sin (v 12-13)

p This refers to the mercy seat upon the ark of the covenant (Ex. 37:1-9)

q This means the same as leading Joseph, in v 1. Manasseh and Ephraim were the sons of Joseph and, with Benjamin followed the ark of the covenant in the journeys (Num. 2:18-22)

r Convert or restore us, indicating that Israel had turned away from God and He was displeased, as in v 4-6,12-13,16

s Question 101. Next, v 12

t V 5-6 picture some special defeat of Israel which caused the whole nation to suffer reproach a Israel is not only called a vine, but the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts (v 8-16; Dt. 32:32-33; Isa. 5:1-7; 27:2-6; Jer. 2:21; 12:10; Ezek. 17:5-6; Hos. 10:1; Joel 1:7; Mt. 21:33-46; Mk. 12:1-12). Christ uses the same figure in connection with the church (Jn. 15:1-8) 10 facts - planting the vine:

1 Transplanted from Egypt (v 8; Ex. 12)
2 Other nations cast out of Canaan, the new place for the vine (Israel, v 8; Josh. 4-12)
3 The vine planted in Canaan (v 8; Josh. 13-24; Judg. 1-3)
4 The land prepared for the vine to grow in (v 9; Dt. 6:10-12; Josh. 1-12)
5 The vine caused to take a deep root in Canaan (v 9; Dt. 11:13-32)
6 It filled the land (v 9; Dt. 7:22-24; Josh. 1-12; 2 Sam. 8; 1 Ki. 9-11)
7 The hills covered with its shadow (v 10; 2 Sam. 8; 1 Ki. 4:25)
8 The boughs large and strong like the cedars of Lebanon (v 10; 2 Sam. 8)
9 They extended to the Mediterranean and Euphrates (v 11; 2 Sam. 8)
10 The vine planted for God's use (v 14-15; Ex. 19:5-6)

b Question 102. Next, 82:2. Here we have a complaint about God turning against His vineyard, Israel, after planting it and causing it to spread throughout the whole land (v 12-13, 16). This is exactly what God said He would do if Israel forsook Him and turned to serve other gods (Dt. 4:25-31; 8:10-20; 11:13-32; 12:1-32; 28:1-30:20; Lev. 26)

c The heathen powers that constantly made inroads on Israel and finally destroyed the nation are symbolized by a boar and other wild beasts of the forest (v 13). The boar was pictured on the military ensign of the Romans. Until the Roman power arose the word river was used instead of wood here. After this the Septuagint, the Chaldee, and the Vulgate used the word forest. The Jews had a peculiar interpretation of this passage. They taught that when Israel was innocent she would be assailed only by a power weak as a river animal, but when she sinned she would be devoured by a power as strong as a land animal. In the symbolism of Gentile world powers oppressing Israel in the times of the Gentiles both types of animals are used:
1 Egypt is symbolized by a crocodile (Isa. 51:9; Ezek. 29:3; 31:1 of N. T.)
2 Assyria by a lion (Jer. 50:17-18)
3 Babylon by a lion with eagle's wings and a man's heart (Dan. 7:4)
4 Medo-Persia by a bear (Dan. 7:5) and a ram (Dan. 8:20)
5 Greece by a leopard with 4 heads and 4 wings of a fowl (Dan. 7:6) and the he-goat (Dan. 8:21) (Dan. 7:7)
6 Rome by a non-descript beast
7 Revised Rome by 10 horns on the non-descript beast (Dan. 7:7-8, 19-24) 8 Revived Greece by a leopard with 7 heads and 10 horns (Rev. 13 and 17).
9 Other Gentile powers by a wild boar and other wild animals (Ps. 80:13)

d The Chaldee reads, "King Messiah," the man upon God's right hand (v 17; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20; Heb. 1:1-3). See notes, Ezek. 2:1; Jn. 1:51

e 8 commands to Israel:
1 Sing aloud unto God (v 1)
2 Make a joyful noise unto God (v 1)
3 Take a psalm, song of praise (v 2; 105:2; 1 Chr. 16:9; Jas. 5:13)
4 Bring forth the musical instruments (v 2; Dan. 3:5-15)
5 Blow the trumpet at the feasts (v 3)
6 Hear, O my people (v 8)
7 Have no strange god among you (v 9)
8 Do not worship any strange God (v 9)

f Heb. toph, a drum or tom-tom g Heb. kinnor. See note j, 33:2

h Heb. nebel, a stringed instrument. See note k, 33:2; note a, 150:3

i Heb. shaphar, a wind instrument: horn (Num. 10:8-10; 2 Ki. 11:14)

j 8 reasons to praise and worship God:
1 It was a statute in Israel (v 4; Lev. 23:24; Num. 10:10)
2 It was the law of God (v 4)
3 It was ordained of God (v 5) 6)
4 He removed the burdens of Israel (v
5 Delivered her from slavery (v 6)
6 Answered her prayers for deliverance (v 7)
7 Delivered her in the secret place of thunder (v 7)
8 Provided for her at Meribah (v 7)

where I heard a language that I understood not.

6 [b]I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the [c]pots.

7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; [d]I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I [c]proved thee at the waters of Mĕr'i-bah. [f]Sē'lah.

3 Israel called to hear: reason

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Is'ra-el, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

9 There shall no [g]strange god be in thee; [h]neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 I am the [i]LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of E'gўpt: [j]open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

4 Israel's refusal to hear: consequences of rebellion

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Is'ra-el would none of me.

12 So I [k]gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

5 Six things God would have done if Israel had obeyed

13 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Is'ra-el had walked in my ways!

14 [l]I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM 82

Eighth Prayer for Judgment
A Psalm of Asaph. 1 God the Supreme Judge

GOD standeth in the congregation of the [m]mighty; he judgeth among the [n]gods.

2 Eightfold indictment of earthly judges: their end

2 [o]How long will ye [p]judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Sē'lah.

3 [q]Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are [r]out of course.

6 I have said, Ye are gods; and [s]all of you are children of the most High.

*7 [t]But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

3 God the Supreme Judge

8 Arise, O God, [u]judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

PSALM 83

Ninth Prayer for Judgment
A Song or Psalm of Asaph. 1 Three requests: sevenfold counsel of enemies against Israel

[b]KEEP not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, [c]thine enemies make a [d]tumult: and they that hate thee have [e]lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy [f]hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Is'ra-el may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one consent: they are [g]confederate against thee:

2 Ten nation confederacy against Israel

6 The tabernacles of [h]E'dom, and the [i]Ish'ma-el-ites; [j]of Mō'ab, and the [k]Hā'gar-ēnes;

7 [l]Gē'bal, and [m]Ăm'mŏn, and [n]Am'a-lēk; the [o]Phi-lis'tines with the inhabitants of [p]Tўre;

8 [q]Ās'sur also is joined with them: they have holpen [r]the children of Lŏt. [s]Sē'lah.

3 Eight requests for judgment: eleven comparisons

9 Do unto them as unto [t]the Mid'i-an-ites; as to [u]Sīs'e-rá, as to Jā'bin, at the brook of Ki'son:

10 Which perished at Ĕn'-dôr: they became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles [v]like Ō'reb, and like Zē'eb: yea, all their princes as [w]Zē'bah, and as Zăl-mŭn'nā:

12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the [x]houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like a [y]wheel; as the stubble before the wind.

14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire;

15 So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

4 Reason for requesting judgments upon Israel's enemies

18 That men may know that thou, whose name [z]alone is JĔ-HŌ'VAH, art the most high over all the earth.

a The personal pronoun here refers to Joseph and should have been be as in many of the versions. It is when he (Joseph, of this verse) went through the land of Egypt, that he heard a language which he did not understand. It perhaps refers to some dialect he was not familiar with b The personal pronoun here refers to God who removed Israel's shoulder from the burden and hands from the pots (v 6) c Heb. dud, pot or basket (v 6; Job 41:20). It refers to the baskets or pots used in brickmaking, or to the moulds and furnaces in which they formed and baked brick d This no doubt refers to the cloud by day and pillar of fire by night, out from which God wrought miracles for Israel (Ex. 13:21). The literal meaning is that out of the veil or thunder God answered them. This is associated with the great miracles God wrought bringing Israel through the Red Sea and in giving water at Meribah (Ex. 17:1-7)

e I tested you at the waters of Meribah (waters of murmuring and strife. Ex. 17:7)

f See note b, 3:2

g Foreign or foreigner's god.

h The same command as in Ex. 20:4

i Jehovah thy Elohim who brought you out of slavery and want in Egypt

j This has reference to satisfying the desires of Israel completely if they would only be faithful to God

k Because Israel would not hear or obey God or have anything to do with Him whatsoever (v 11)

10 ways God gave men up: To 1 The lusts of their hearts (v 12)
2 Walk in their own counsels (v 12)
3 Desolation (2 Chr. 30:7)
4 Their own desire (Ps. 78:29)
5 Pestilence (Pr. 78:50)
6 The sword (Ps. 78:62)
7 The heathen (Ps. 106:41)
8 Uncleanness to dishonor their own bodies between themselves (Rom. 1:24)
9 Vile affections (Rom. 1:26)
10 A reprobate mind (Rom. 1:28)

l 6 things God would have done for Israel:
1 Subdued their enemies (v 13-14)
2 Turned His hand against their adversaries (v 14)
3 Subjugated the haters of God (v 15)
4 Blessed them eternally (v 15)
5 Provided the best things in life for them (v 16) 16)
6 Satisfied them with good things (v Israel had to meet the conditions of the promises of God to receive their benefits. So it is with men today. Not a man under grace will receive benefits without meeting conditions

m This verse could be paraphrased thus: "God stands in the assembly of God; he judges among the judges"
"God stands in the court of the judge; in the midst of the judges and asks"
"God stands in the congregation of angels; he judges among the angels"
The whole idea is that God is the Judge of judges in courts of justice established when He instituted human governments n Heb. Elohim, Gods. It is used of earthly judges who represent Him (v 1, 6; Ex. 7:1; 21:6; 22:8, 9, 28; Jn. 10:34-35; Acts 23:5)

o Question 103. Next, 85:5

p 9fold indictment of unrighteous judges:
1 They judge unjustly (v 2) (v 2)
2 They accept persons of the wicked
3 Know not God's law (v 5)
4 Do not wish to understand (v 5)
5 Walk in darkness (v 5)
6 Their civil institutions are out of course; perverted (v 5)
7 They shall die like men (v 7)
8 They shall fall like princes (v 7)

q 4 commands to judges of the earth:
1 Defend the poor and fatherless (v 3)
2 Do justice to afflicted and needy (v
3 Deliver the poor and needy (v 4) 3)
4 Rid the poor, the fatherless, and the needy from the hand of the wicked (v 4)

r Shaken or moved out of place s All judges who rule for God should be children of God. Those guilty of sinful practices as described in v 2, 5, 7, are not qualified as judges or children of God (1 Jn. 2:29; 3:5-10; 5:18; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Gal. 5:24; Eph. 4:24; Heb. 12:14)

7 They have consulted together with one consent (v 5) (v 5)
8 They are confederate against You
9 Nations (10 named) have united against You to help the children of Lot (v 6-8) 10 They said, Let us possess the houses of God (v 12)

d Make a roar like the waves of the sea, as in 46:3

e A figure of speech meaning acting presumptuously. Cp. 3:3; 27:6; Judg. 8:28

h The Edomites came from Esau (Gen. 36:1)

i The Ishmaelites came from Ishmael (Gen. 25:12-18)

j Moabites came from Lot's son by his eldest daughter (Gen. 19:37)

k Hagarenes were descendents of Hagar, being a branch of Ishmael who begat 12 nations (Gen. 17:20; 1 Chr. 5:10; 27:31)

l Gebal was a very ancient city of Phoenicia, about 20 mi. north of Beirut, called also Byblus (Josh. 13:5; Ezek. 27:9)

m Ammonites came from Lot by his younger daughter (Gen. 19:38)

n Amalekites came from Esau (Gen. 36:12; Ex. 17:8, 13-16; Dt. 25:17)

o Philistines descended from Ham (Gen. 10:14; 1 Chr. 1:12) p Tyre was a city of Phoenicia just beyond the northern border of Israel (Josh. 19:29; Ezek. 27-28)

x Heb. naah, habitation; comely place (v 12; 23:2; 65:12)

y Heb. galgal, a rolling thing. It was either the wild artichoke or thistle-down rolling in the wind with the chaff (v 13; Isa. 17:13). This could also refer to a large broad wheel which was rolled over the grain on the threshing-floor to help thresh the wheat. Threshing was done in the open air. Grain being thrown up by a shovel against the wind caused the chaff to be separated from it (v 13). The psalmist's request is, so deal with Your enemies and make them ashamed that they may be converted (v 15-16) or perish (v 17)

z Jehovah is a name reserved alone for the true God. Here we have one of 3 places where this name is retained and spelled with capital letters (v 18; Ex. 6:3; Isa. 26:4). The name is generally rendered Lord. See note, Ex. 6:3

Third Psalm of the Righteous (of three blessed men) To the chief Musician upon Gittith (Gittite harp), A Psalm for the sons of Korah. 1 He that dwells in God's house. Cp. Ps. 23:6; 24:3-10; Jn. 14:1-2; Rev. 21

HOW [a]amiable are thy [b]tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!
2 [c]My soul [d]longeth, yea, [e]even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh [f]crieth out for the living God.
3 [g]Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.
4 [h]Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: [i]they will be still praising thee. [j]Sē'lah.

2 He that prays to God

5 Blessed is the [k]man whose strength is in thee; [l]in whose heart are the ways of them.
6 Who passing through [m]the valley of Bā'cā make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools.
7 [n]They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zi'ŏn appeareth before God.
8 O LORD God of hosts, [o]hear my prayer: give ear, O [p]God of Jā'cob. Sē'lah.
9 Behold, O God [q]our shield, and look upon [r]the face of thine anointed.
10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. [s]I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

3 He that trusts in God

11 For the LORD God is a [t]sun and shield: the LORD will [u]give grace and glory: [v]no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
12 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM 85

Second Prayer Psalm To the chief [w]Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah. 1 Six acts of God

LORD, [x]thou hast been favourable unto thy land: [x]thou hast brought back the captivity of Jā'cob.
2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Sē'lah.
3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

2 Seven requests for revival

4 [y]Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.
5 [z]Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?
6 Wilt thou not revive us [q]again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?
7 [b]Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

3 Eightfold confidence in God

8 [c]I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: [d]but let them not turn [e]again to folly.
*9 [f]Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.
10 [g]Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
11 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
►12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.
►13 Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

PSALM 86

Eighth Prayer-Praise Psalm A Prayer of David. 1 Eight requests: eight reasons

[h]BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me: [i]for I am poor and needy.
2 Preserve my soul; [j]for I am holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.
3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee daily.
4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.
6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.
7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

2 Praise: God incomparable

8 Among the [k]gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works.
*9 [l]All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name.
10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

3 Two requests: two reasons

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

4 Praise: two answers to prayer

*12 [m]I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.
13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the [n]lowest hell.

a Heb. yadid, beloved or worthy of love. It is trans. beloved 5 times (Dt. 33:12; Ps. 60:5; 108:6; 127:2; Jer. 11:15). Trans. amiable only once b Heb. mishkan, dwelling place. Here, in the plural it refers to all the divisions of the temple where God was worshipped. The holy of holies, the holy place, the laver, the golden and brazen altars, and all parts of the tabernacle and temple worship must be understood as His dwelling place. Where God is worshipped, there He is expected to dwell, or at least be found by the worshippers. This is why true worship can be carried on wherever men may be or dwell. God is there and should be worshipped in spirit and in truth at all times and in all places (Jn. 4:24). God is omnipresent (Ps. 139:7-12; Jer. 23:24) c 4fold desire of the psalmist (v 2):
1 My soul (the seat of the affections, emotions, passions, appetites, desires, and feelings) longs for God's house
2 My soul faints for the presence of God in His habitations
3 My heart cries out for the living God
4 My flesh cries out for the living God d Heb. kacaph, to become pale; to pine after; to long for; to be greedy for. The meaning here is, I want God more than anything else in life. Cp. Mt. 22:37 e Heb. kalah, to end; cease; consume; expire; faint; waste. The idea is that the soul is willing to expire or come to the end of all human activity in order to find God. The psalmist is saying, I am willing to die to find God real to my soul f Heb. ranan, to shout; to cry out with a loud cry. Every feeling, appetite, and wish, both animal and spiritual, longs for and is greedy for God, the living One who created me to be filled to the full with Himself and His plans for me g V 3 down to the word young is parenthetical and reads with v 2 thus: "my heart and my flesh cries out for the living God (even the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young), for thine altars, O Lord of hosts." That is, "I long for the living God, even thine altars, and my soul should find rest and peace. For even the birds find houses and a place to raise their young." It could not be that birds built their nests in the altars of God, for they were kept clean and fire was kept on them to burn sacrifices and incense b 3 blessed men:
1 Those who dwell in God's house (v 4)
2 Those who pray and draw strength for daily life from God (v 5-10) 11-12)
3 Those who put their trust in God (v i Men who dwell in God's house live in continual praise and worship (v 4)
j See note h, 3:2
k Any man, not only the priest or Levite
l In whose heart are the ways of their blessedness, that is, the ways of God by which they are blessed (v 5) m The valley of weeping making a well of tears. This perhaps refers to Bochim, the place of weeping (Judg. 2:1-5). Those who weep and seek God will be refreshed by rain and pools of spiritual water (v 6; Isa. 43:2; 44:3; Zech. 10:1) n Men who pray and weep before God go from strength to strength (v 7)
o 3 requests to God:
1 Hear my prayer (v 8)
2 Give ear, O God of Jacob (v 8)
3 Look upon the face of your anointed (v 9) p The God of Jacob is here addressed because He met Jacob when in distress and brought him out of all his troubles. It is not the God of Israel, but of Jacob, God met him when he had nothing and deserved nothing; and promised him everything, thus becoming the God of all grace. The request is for God to do the same for others, seeing that He is no respecter of persons. In view of this truth the psalmist gives forth more utterances of faith and benefit than requests to God. This is as it should be, for those who constantly beg of God and never manifest faith and confidence in Him and His Word seldom get much from God (Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

3 Do not be angry forever (v 5) (v 5)
4 Do not send forth Your anger always 5 Revive us again (v 6; note, Gal. 4:19)
6 Show us Your mercy (v 7)
7 Grant us Your salvation (v 7)
c Here the psalmist acts as a prophet to consult the Lord and return an answer from God to the people. He is confident that the answer will be one of peace for the saints (v 8) d This is further proof that the psalm was written after the putting down of the rebellion by Absalom. Let them not turn again to folly is warning against a second rebellion (v 8)
e The word again means once more in connection with going back into folly as it does in the case of being converted or revived when one backslides (note d, Gal. 4:19)
f 66th prophecy in Ps. (85:9-13, unfulfilled). Next, 86:9. See 10fold prophecy of the Millennium, p. 630
g Here we have 4 attributes of God that bring salvation to men who fear Him. They are: mercy, truth, righteousness, and peace (v 10-11). Truth is sent forth to make known the will of God. Righteousness demands obedience to the truth. Mercy forgives man of all sin, giving him the peace that kisses righteousness when the two are met together in the soul (v 10-11). All 4 attributes of God work in harmony to bring salvation to men that fear God (v 9). See Facts about truth, p. 630

n Heb. tachti, lower-most. The idea is the lowest part of anything, as the lowest floor of the ark (Gen. 6:16), the lowest sheol (Dt. 32:22; Ps. 86:13), nether parts of the earth (Ezek. 31:14-18; 32:18, 24), a place also called the lower parts of the earth (Eph. 4:8-10), and the heart or center of the earth (Mt. 12:40), proving that sheol is not the grave located on the surface of the earth. 5 Five requests: five reasons

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.
15 But thou, O Lord, art a God [a]full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.
16 [b]O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.
17 Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: [c]because thou, Lord, hast[d] holpen me, and comforted me.

PSALM 87

First Psalm of Zion
A Psalm or Song for the sons of Korah. 1 Zion the beloved of God

HIS foundation is in the holy mountains.
2 [e]The Lord loveth the gates of Zi'ŏn more than all the dwellings of Jā'cob.
3 [f]Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Sē'lah.

2 Zion's greatness compared to others: the source of blessings

4 I will make mention [h]of Rā'hăb and Băb'ў-lon to them that know me: behold Phĭl-lĭs'tĭă, and Tўre, with Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ă; this man was born there.
*5 [i]And of Zi'ŏn it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her.
6 The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Sē'lah.
7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: [j]all my springs are in thee.

PSALM 88

Eighteenth Psalm of Instruction (on distress)
A Song or Psalm for the sons of Korah, to the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth (shoutings - dancings), Maschil (instruction) of Heman the Ezrahite (a song leader). 1 Two requests: twenty-onefold personal distress. Cp. Ps. 5:7; 28:1; 30:10; 38:1; 39:4; 41:4, 10; 55:9, 15; 56:1

O LORD God of my salvation, [k]I have cried day and night before thee:
2 [l]Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;
3 For my soul is full [m]of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the [n]grave.
4 I am counted with them that go down into the [n]pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:
5 [o]Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the [p]grave, whom [q]thou remembrest no more: and [r]they are cut off from thy hand.
6 [s]Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.
7 [t]Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and [u]thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Sē'lah.
8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.
9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

2 Eight questions of distress

10 [v]Wilt thou shew wonders to the [w]dead? shall the [x]dead arise and praise thee? Sē'lah.
11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the [y]grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?
12 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the [z]land of forgetfulness?
13 But unto thee have I cried, O Lord; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.
14 Lord, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

3 Eightfold personal distress

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer [a]thy terrors I am distracted.
16 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.
17 They came round about me daily like water; they compassed me about together.
18 Lover and friend hast thou put afar from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

PSALM 89

Sixteenth Messianic Psalm Maschil (instruction) [b]of Ethan the Ezrahite (a choir leader). 1 Eternal praise for mercy and faithfulness

I [c]WILL sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.
2 [d]For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever; thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

2 Davidic covenant (2 Sam. 7)

3 I have made a [e]covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto Dā'vid my servant,
*4 [f]Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Sē'lah.

a See note j, 28:1
b The whole of v 4-5 alludes to the field of battle; hence free among the dead means cast off among the dead, like the slain in battle (v 5). One version reads, abandoned among the dead
c Heb. geber, grave, the place of the body - the seen world, as contrasted with sheol, the place of conscious souls and spirits - the unseen world. See contrasts between geber and sheol, p. 620
d The body only goes to a geber (grave). It goes to dust again and God does not keep in memory the particles making up the original body. He will remember the resurrected body in the future resurrection, and will punish it in hell if wicked, or reward it in bliss if righteous (Dan. 12:2; Mt. 25:46; Jn. 5:28-29; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). The original body never rises from death; it returns to eternal dust (Job 14:12). God gives each person a new body in the resurrection (1 Cor. 15:35-54; 2 Cor. 5:1-8; Phil. 3:21)
e They - the dead bodies slain and cut off from God's hand (v 5). This refers to those who are cut off from God's protection and preservation from death. They are the slain of this verse f The psalmist complains as if he were already dead and his body seeing corruption in the grave (v 6-9). He attributes his troubles to God, in accordance with the universal but erroneous belief of mankind. The truth is that if God's will had been carried out instead of Satan's, man never would have suffered sin, sickness, accidents, or calamities of any kind. We are taught to pray for God's will to be done on earth as it is in heaven (Mt. 6:10). That will be realized when the curse is removed and none of the existing evil conditions prevail (Rev. 21:3-7). God is not responsible for the curses. Man with his rebellion and continued sinning is responsible. The only sense in which God is responsible is in making the law of sowing and reaping, of reward and punishment. See Affliction, p. 626 g If he was cursed by God, then it is clear that he had been committing sin and refusing to listen to God. If there is ever any wrath of God sin is involved, and such a case would come under the law of sowing and reaping (Gal. 6:7-8). If the psalmist was a godly man and no sin was committed, then he made the same mistake Job and others did when they thought God was the one who afflicted them. In Job's case it was Satan, not God (Job 1:11-12; 2:1-6; 42:10)

i Questions 107-114. Next, 89:6
j Heb. Rephaim, a name of one of the branches of giants that came from fallen angels and the daughters of men (Gen. 6:1-4; Jude 6-7, notes). The question asked is, Will You show Your wonders to the giants that have no resurrection? (Isa. 26:14,19, notes) k Heb. muth, to die, referring to physical death. It is not Rephaim of note j, above. Shall the dead bodies praise You? No!
l Heb. geber, grave (note c and d, above)
m This is geber, the grave, not sheol, the place of memory (see Hell, p. 620 n See Job's great mistake (Job 1:21)
o He is mentioned with Heman (1 Kl. 4:31; 1 Chr. 6:44; 15:17). He seems to have another name - Jeduthun (1 Chr. 25:1-6; 16:41-42). This is the only psalm ascribed to Ethan, and Ps. 88 is the only one ascribed to Heman

c See 38 facts about God, p. 630
d A poetic name of Egypt, meaning boastful (v 10; 87:4; Isa. 51:9)
e Another verse among many, which declares that the heavens and earth and all in them are the creation of God, not a product of evolution (v 11–12)
f This is an expression meaning that God is Creator of all things (v 11–12; Eph. 3:9; Col. 1:15–18; Rev. 4:11)
g ?2nd prophecy in Ps. (89:14–37, unfulfilled). Next, 93:1. The passage predicts 7 main things:
1 Justice, judgment, mercy, and truth will characterize the reign of Messiah (v 14)
2 Men will be blessed walking in the light of His countenance (v 15)
3 Men shall rejoice in His name and be exalted in His righteousness (v 16)
4 Men will receive strength and grace through the Messiah (v 17)
5 God will be the Defence and King of men (v 18)
6 The Messiah will be exalted (v 19)
7 The terms of the Davidic Covenant will be fulfilled (v 20–37. See note c, v 34)
h The government of God is based upon justice, judgment, mercy, truth, and righteousness. He knows what is right; He sees what is right; and He does what is right without exception. He cannot permit any breaking of His law without proper punishment, nor can He permit one good act to be without just and proper reward. Sin is cursed and righteousness rewarded in the minutest details (v 14)
i Blessed are the people that live in the Millennium to hear the joyful sound of the trumpet on the morning of jubile, which proclaims deliverance to the captives and restoration of their forfeited estates (v 15) j Horns in Scripture symbols represent kings (Dan. 7:7–8, 19–24; Rev. 17:12–17). The horn here no doubt refers to the king of Israel, king David, who will be resurrected and will rule under Christ over Israel in the Millennium and forever (Jer. 30:9; Ezek. 34:23–26; 37:21–25; Hos. 3:4–5). God (v 18), Christ (Isa. 9:6–7; Dan. 7:13–14; Rev. 11:15), apostles (Mt. 19:28), and all other saints will have part in the eternal reign of men on earth (Rev. 5:10; 11:15; 20:4–6; 22:4–5; Dan. 2:44; 7:14, 18, 27) k The Messiah is no doubt the reference here, as also in v 24, 27. He is the one to fulfill many of the terms of the Davidic Covenant (v 20–37; 2 Sam. 7)
l This also refers to the Messiah who is the king of Israel from David (v 24)

g Questions 119–125. Next, 90:11. The questions of v 46 and 49 will all be answered when men quit sinning and return to God with a whole heart. The other questions will be answered in due time, and if they will meet God's terms, men will see that they were not created in vain
h 2 requests to God:
1 Remember how short my time is (v 47)
2 Remember our reproach (v 50–51)
Out of hundreds of requests in Psalms, very few concern God's glory and will. Most of them concern man only, how much trouble he is in, how much longer he must suffer, and how he can be freed from it. God's interests are generally last. This is why the first commandment was given. Conversion means an entire right-about-face experience and a wholehearted surrender to God to love Him supremely (Mt. 22:37) i This refers to physical death. Man is born dead spiritually and eternally. This is why the new birth is necessary – to make man alive spiritually and to cancel the eternal death penalty (Jn. 3:16; Eph. 2:1–10) j This means the power of sheol (hell), not the grave. It is the soul that goes into sheol and the body to geber. No soul is ever spoken of as going into geber, the grave. See Hell, p. 620 k They are where man left them to go into a life of sin. He will find them again when he quits the sin business and follows God as when he enjoyed grace

3 Praise: twentyfold greatness of God

5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.
6 [c]For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the [b]sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?
7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.
8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?
9 [c]Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.
10 Thou hast broken [d]Ra'hāb in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.
11 [e]The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.
12 [f]The north and the south thou hast created them: Tā'bôr and Hĕr'mon shall rejoice in thy name.
13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
★14 [g]Justice and judgment are the [h]habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

4 Eight blessings of the just 15 Blessed is the people that know the [i]joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.
17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our [j]horn shall be exalted.
18 For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Is'ra-el is our king.

5 Fortyfold covenant with David and the Messiah

19 Then thou spakest in vision to [k]thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
20 I have found Dā'vid my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:
21 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.
22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.
23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.
24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall [l]his horn be exalted.
25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.
26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.
27 [l]Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth.
28 [k]My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.
29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.
30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;
31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;
32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.
33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.
34 My [c]covenant will I not break, [c]nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
35 Once have I [c]sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto Dā'vid.
36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.
37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Sē'lah.

6 Sixteenfold complaint that God has broken the covenant

38 [l]But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.
39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.
41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.
42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.
43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.
44 Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.
45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Sē'lah.
46 [l]How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire?

7 Prayer: two requests for God to remember His covenant

47 [k]Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?
48 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see [i]death? shall he deliver his soul from [i]the hand of the grave? Sē'lah.
49 Lord, [k]where are thy former lovingkindnesses, which thou swarest unto Dā'vid in thy truth?
50 Remember, Lord, the rea David was to call God 3 things:

1 My father, proving sonship by adoption and other redemptive acts (v 26)
2 My God, indicating true relationship through redemption (v 26)
3 The rock of my salvation (v 26)
After these statements concerning David, the next prediction is that David's Son, the Messiah, shall also be a Son of the heavenly Father – the firstborn and only truly begotten Son of God, whom God is to exalt higher than all kings of the earth (v 27; 2:7; Dan. 7:13–14; Rev. 11:15)
b After referring to the Messiah in v 28, God resumes His predictions concerning David and the Davidic Covenant (v 29–37)
c 21 terms of the Davidic Covenant:
1 David anointed of God (v 20)
2 To be established by God (v 21)
3 God's arm will strengthen him (v 21)
4 His enemies shall not prevail against him (v 22)
5 He will not suffer any affliction by the wicked (v 22)
6 His enemies shall be crushed (v 23)
7 All that hate him shall be plagued by God (v 23)
8 He will have continued faithfulness and mercy from God (v 24)
9 His son, the Messiah will be exalted by God (v 24)
10 He will have dominion over rivers and seas (v 25)
11 He will call God his Father, his God, and the rock of his salvation (v 26)
12 His son will be God's first-born and will be exalted higher than the kings of earth (v 27)
13 God's mercy will keep him forever (v 28)
14 God's covenant will stand with him eternally (v 28–29, 35–37)
15 His seed (children) will continue before God forever (v 29, 36)
16 His throne will be eternal, as the days of heaven (v 29), as the sun (v 36), and as the moon forever (v 37)
17 If his children break God's law they will be chastened (v 30–32)
18 God's mercy will never utterly depart from him (v 33)
19 God's faithfulness will never fail him (v 33)
20 God's covenant with him will never be broken or changed by Him (v 34–35)
21 God has sworn that He will never lie to him (v 35)
d To tell a lie is one of 30 things revealed in Scripture which God cannot do. He is absolutely holy and truthful in what He says. Therefore, Christians must fear God and not become careless or indifferent about the sin question. God will mete out punishment to them, if they sin, as much as He will to men who never have been saved. The penalty for sin applies to one group as well as the other (Ezek. 18:4, 24–28; Rom. 6:16–23; 8:12–13; 1 Cor. 6:9–11; Gal. 5:19–21; 6:7–8)
e 17 things God has sworn about:
1 To multiply Abraham's seed as the sand and stars (Gen. 22:16–17)
2 Israel shall have final victory over her enemies (Gen. 22:17)
3 All nations will be blessed through Abraham's seed (Gen. 22:18) 17:16) 4 Continual war with Amalek (Ex.
5 Israel will be given the promised land for an eternal possession (Gen. 15:18–21; 17:8)
6 Israel not to enter the promised land (Num. 14:26–35; Ps. 95:11) 3:14) 7 Judgment upon Eli's house (1 Sam.
8 David's seed and throne eternal (Ps. 89:3–4, 35–37; 132:11; 2 Sam. 7)
9 Christ an eternal priest (Ps. 110:4)
10 Every knee will bow and every tongue confess (Isa. 45:23; Phil. 2:9–11)
11 No more universal floods (Isa. 54:9, Cp. Gen. 8:21; 9:11–12)
12 No Jew in Egypt in Jeremiah's day to escape death (Jer. 44:26–27)
13 Bozrah will be an everlasting curse (Isa. 34; Jer. 49:13)
14 Defeat of Babylon (Jer. 51:14)
15 Captivity of Israel (Amos 4:2; 6:8)
16 Resurrection of Christ (Acts 2:30)
17 No unbeliever shall enter eternal rest (Heb. 3:11; 4:1–9; Ps. 95:11) a 3fold reproach:

1 Reproach of God's servants (v 50)
2 Reproach of the mighty people (v 50)
3 Reproach of God's anointed (v 51)
Bible reproaches are: barrenness (Gen. 30:23; Isa. 4:1); defeat (Dan. 9:

THE FOURTH BOOK OF PSALMS - The Numbers Book: Concerning Israel and Gentiles (Psalms 90-106)

b 7 men called "the man of God", p. 630
c Heb. Adonai, the Lord in relation to the earth; the Sovereign Lord d 7 things God has done: You have 1 Been our dwelling place in all generations (v 1)
2 Formed the earth and the world (v 2)
3 Turned man to destruction (v 3)
4 Said, Return you children of men (v 3)
5 Carried men away with a flood (v 5)
6 Set our iniquities before You (v 8)
7 Set our secret sins in the light of Your countenance (v 8)
e Heb. maon, an abode; retreat; habitation (v 1; 2 Chr. 20:27; 36:15; Jer. 51:37). This is the same as, "In Him we live, and move, and have our being" (Acts 17:28)
f God is an eternal being. He had no beginning and will have no ending. From all eternity past to all eternity future He is God. (v 2. Cp. Mic. 5:2; Heb. 1:8) 3 things which had a beginning (v 2):
1 The mountains
2 The earth, the ground
3 The world, the inhabitants of earth
g Heb. enosh, mortal man as made out of dust; the body which goes to dust again (Gen. 2:7; 3:19; Eccl. 3:19-21)
h Destruction refers to the body that does see corruption. It could not refer to the inner man which is immortal (1 Pet. 3:4, note)
i Return to dust (Gen. 3:19)
j This expresses the same as 2 Pet. 3:8, that God inhabits eternity, and that time with Him is different from what it is with man (v 4; Isa. 65:17). A day with man will always be a day and 1,000 years will always be 1,000 years, but with God 1,000 years are like:
1 A day (v 4; 2 Pet. 3:8)
2 A watch in the night; an insignificant period of time compared to eternity k Them, the men of v 1, 3 l Life and death are compared to:
1 The quick passing away of a flood (v 5)
2 A sleep in the night (v 5) (v 5)
3 Grass that comes up in the morning and dies in the evening (v 5-6)
4 A period of wrath that is soon over (v 5)
5 A tale that is told (v 9) (v 9)
6 Something soon cut off (v 10)
7 Flying away (v 10)
m Here the lives consumed continued, or they would not be troubled (v 7). Consumed here does not mean annihilation in hell, as some false cults teach today. See p. 622 n Secret sins are easily discovered by God when His countenance shines upon them o This refers to length of life in the wilderness in the time of Moses, which was shortened so that the old generation died off within the 40 years. The days of these 40 years could actually be numbered, as stated in v 12. Ordinarily, days cannot be numbered because we are not living through a special curse as was Israel in the wilderness (Num. 14:29-36). No authority is given here for setting the length of man's life as 70 to 80 years. Some men lived much longer even when Moses wrote this. Many have lived longer in every generation, so this cannot be taken as God's allotted time for man p The body is soon cut off and goes back to dust, but we fly away to the spirit world - to hell if wicked (Ps. 9:17; Isa. 14:9; Lk. 16:19-31) and to heaven if righteous (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11)
q Question 126. Next, v 13. Multitudes of angels, demons, and men will know the power of God's anger which has kindled a fire in the lowest hell (Dt. 32:22). See Hell, p. 620
r God's wrath in hell will be equal to the reverence He has demanded and which the wicked have refused to give (v 11)

PSALM 90

Third Prayer Psalm
A Prayer of Moses [b]the man of God. 1 Fourfold eternity of God

LORD, [a]thou hast been our [c]dwelling place in all generations.
2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even [f]from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

2 Fifteenfold frailty of man: six acts of God

3 Thou turnest [g]man to [h]destruction; and sayest, [i]Return, ye children of men.
4 [j]For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.
5 Thou carriest [k]them [l]away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.
6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.
7 For we are [m]consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.
8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, [n]our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.
10 [o]The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for [p]it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
11 [q]Who knoweth the power of thine anger? [r]even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

3 Ten requests for mercy

12 [s]So teach us to number our days, [t]that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
13 [u]Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.
14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.
16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.
17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

PSALM 91

1 His dwelling place: five things in which to trust

[a]HE that [b]dwelleth in the [c]secret place of the most High shall abide under [d]the shadow of the Almighty.◂
▸2 I will say of the LORD, [e]He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

2 His God: fivefold confidence

▸3 [f]Surely he shall deliver thee from the [g]snare of the fowler, and from the [h]noisome pestilence.
▸4 He shall cover thee with his [i]feathers, and under his wings shalt thou [j]trust: his truth shall be thy [k]shield and buckler.

3 His eightfold security

▸5 [l]Thou shalt not be afraid for the [m]terror by night; nor for the [n]arrow that flieth by day;
▸6 Nor for the [o]pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
▸7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.
▸8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

4 His sixfold dwelling place: eight blessings

▸9 [p]Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;
▸10 [q]There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
▸11 [r]For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.
▸12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
▸13 [s]Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

5 His consecration: eight blessings

▸14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
▸15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.
▸16 With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

PSALM 92

Fifth Psalm of the Righteous
A Psalm or Song for the a He, the individual, every person, not only the Messiah or ministers (v 1). It is supposed that Pss. 90 and 91 were written by Moses at the beginning of the 40 years in the wilderness, the wanderings of which are the subject of the 4th book of psalms Ps. 91 was written to comfort the church in the wilderness while going through the 40-year curse, and to assure children of God in all ages of His providence in their earthly pilgrimage. If Moses wrote Ps. 91, then all the Scriptures quoted in our Lord's temptation (even those quoted by Satan) were from the writings of Moses b Heb. yashab, to sit down; to dwell; to remain; to settle in the sense of taking up a homestead or staking out a claim and resisting all claim-jumpers; to possess a place and live therein (v 1; 80:1; 123:1; Dt. 26:1) c Heb. sether, a covering; hiding place (note f, 31:20) d This explains the secret place of the most High. Under the shadow (defense, protection) of the Almighty one will be safe (v 1) e 4 things God is to those in the secret place and under His shadow (v 2):

1 A refuge or hiding place
2 A fortress or place of protection
3 God, a true and faithful God
4 A trust, a place of security
f 5 things God will do for those dwelling in the secret place of the most High:
1 Deliver from the snare of the fowler
2 Deliver from the noisome pestilence
3 Cover with His feathers (v 3-4)
4 Protect under His wings (v 4)
5 Make truth a shield and buckler (v 5) g The snare which wicked men, fallen angels and demons set for the righteous. See note b, 18:5
h Heb. havvah, rushing calamity; one that sweeps everything before it i Feathers and wings here are figurative of protection and care (v 4; 17:8; 36:7; 57:1; 61:4; 63:7; Ex. 19:4; Ruth 2:12; Isa. 40:31; Mal. 4:2; Mt. 23:37; Lk. 13:34; Rev. 12:14)
j Flee to for refuge (note a, 16:1) k The shield and buckler protected the body, the vital parts, from the weapon thrusts and arrows of the enemy (see 8 things God is to His people, p. 624)
l 6fold result of abiding in secret place:
1 Not afraid of night terrors (v 5)
2 Not afraid of day arrows (v 5)
3 Not afraid of pestilences (v 6)
4 Not afraid of noonday destructions
5 Though 1,000 fall at your left hand and 10,000 at your right the destroyer does not come near you (v 7)
6 You see the wicked rewarded (v 8) m Night is the time of many terrors, treasons, plunders, robbery, murders, evils, and diseases n Figurative of dangers that come by day
o Many pestilences seem to attack in the night and in darkness; other calamities come in the day. Regardless of what they are and when they come, the believer may, by dwelling in the secret place of the most High, see 1,000 fall on his left side and 10,000 on his right without any coming near him. The only thing he may see is the result of plagues on the wicked (v 5-8) p See 15 conditions of blessings of Ps. 91, p. 630
q See 23 promises of Ps. 91, p. 630
r Partially quoted by Satan in Mt. 4:6; Lk. 4:10. The phrase, in all thy ways is omitted, but the phrase, at any time is added by Satan, showing how he misquotes and misapplies Scripture. Also, v 13 is omitted by Satan, because it predicts his own crushing defeat (Gen. 3:15; Lk. 10:19). The verse has a double reference s This promises power over wild beasts and creeping things, as well as power over all satanic powers symbolized by them (v 13; Gen. 3:15; Mk. 16:17-18; Lk. 10:19; Rev. 12:9) a 7 good things: It is good to 1 Give thanks unto the Lord (v 1)

2 Sing praises unto His name (v 1)
3 Show His loving-kindness daily
4 Show His faithfulness daily (v 2)
5 Play an instrument of 10 strings (v 3)
6 Play upon the psaltery (v 3)
7 Play upon the harp (v 3)

b This should read "instrument of ten strings, upon the psaltery" to be in harmony in italics,
tery, an instrument of ten strings"

c Heb. higgaion, meditation (v 3; 9:16;

d 4 reasons to praise God: 19:14)
1 He has made me happy (v 4)
2 I will triumph (v 4)
3 His works are great (v 5)
4 His thoughts are very deep (v 5. Cp. 36:6; 40:5; 139:17; Rom. 11:33)

e 7 facts about the wicked:
1 They are brutish (v 6)
2 They are ignorant of truth (v 6)
3 They are fools (v 6)
4 They work iniquity (v 7-8)
5 They are enemies of God (v 9)
6 They shall be scattered (v 9)
7 They shall perish; be destroyed forever off the earth (v 7, 9)

f Heb. shamad, to be cut off or destroyed from the earth, not annihilated (v 7: 37:38; Dt. 28:20, 24, 45, 51, 61)

g Heb. abad, to be lost; perish from off the earth, not annihilated (v 9; 10:16; Isa. 57:1; Mic. 7:2). If perish meant extinction of being as false cults teach, then the righteous would also be annihilated, according to the last two references above

h The word horns in symbolic passages referring to kingdoms, represents kings (Dan. 7:7-8, 19-24; 8:20-23; Rev. 12:3; 13:1; 17:12-17), but in connection with individuals it represents power and authority (Job 16:15; Ps. 75:4-5; 92:10; 112:9; 132:17)

i The unicorn of Scripture was perhaps the wild buffalo or ox j 4 personal references:

1 My horn (power and authority, v 10)
2 My head = I shall be anointed with fresh oil (v 10)
3 My eyes (v 11)
4 My ears (v 11)

k See 5 blessings of the righteous, p. 631

l 3 things the righteous show to men:
1 That the Lord is upright (v 14)
2 That He is a true Rock and a sure foundation (v 15).
3 That there is no unrighteousness in Him (v 15). He does nothing evil, unjust, unwise, unmerciful, and unkind. He is ever faithful to His promises and true to His Word. To the end of making God thus known the saint must be eternally consecrated m 73rd prophecy in Ps. (93:1-5, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled when God sets up His kingdom on earth). Next, 96:7

n The Lord reigneth. Three psalms begin this way (93, 97, 99). Each ends with the thought of holiness:
1 Holiness becomes Your house (93:5)
2 Give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness (97:12)
3 His name is holy (99:3)
4 He is holy (99:5, 9; Ex. 15:11)
5 His dwelling place is holy (99:9; 48:1; Isa. 62:9; 63:15)
All will be holiness unto the Lord when He comes to reign on earth and be visible among men forever (Ps. 47:8; Obadiah 17; Zech. 14:20-21). In fact, without holiness no man shall see the Lord (Heb. 12:14)

o 10 things about God:
1 The Lord reigns (v 1)
2 He is clothed with majesty (v 1)
3 He is clothed with strength (v 1)
4 He has girded Himself with strength and majesty (v 1)
5 He established the world (social system) to be eternal (v 1; 104:5; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Eccl. 1:4; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)
6 His throne is established of old (v 2)
7 He is eternal - from everlasting to everlasting (v 2; 90:2)
8 He is mightier than the noise of the mighty waves of the seas (v 4)
9 His testimonies are very sure (v 5)
10 His house is the habitation of holiness (v 5; 99:9; Isa. 62:9; 63:15)

sabbath day. 1 His sevenfold duty to God

*IT is a*good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High:

2 To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,

3 Upon an[b]instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a[c]solemn sound.

2 His God: four reasons for praise

4 [d]For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 O LORD, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

3 His neighbors: their fivefold ignorance and end

6 [e]A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be [f]destroyed for ever:

8 But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall [g]perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

4 His ninefold blessing

10 But my [h]horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an [i]unicorn: [j]I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

▸12 [k]The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lĕb'anon.

▸13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

▸14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

5 His purpose in life

15 [l]To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM 93

Second Psalm of God

1 Five attributes of God

[m]THE [a]LORD reigneth, [o]he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

2 Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

2 The mighty floods

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; [a]the floods lift up their waves.

3 The mightier God: two attributes of God

4 The LORD on high is mightier than [b]the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Thy [c]testimonies are very sure: [d]holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever.

PSALM 94

Tenth Prayer for Judgment

1 Three requests for judgment. Reasons: ten sins of the wicked

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom [e]vengeance belongeth, [f]shew thyself.

2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: [g]render a reward to the proud.

3 LORD, [h]how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

5 [i]They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.

6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

7 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall [j]the God of Já'cob regard it.

2 Rebuke to the wicked

8 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, [k]when will ye be wise?

9 [l]He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?

11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

3 Ten blessings of the just 12 [m]Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;

13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

▸14 For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 [n]Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

17 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.

a A term generally used of the rivers, but here it refers to the waves of the seas (v 4; 104:1-9; Job 38:11)

b This phrase is used a number of times of the voice of God and that seems to be the reference here (v 4; Rev. 1:15; 14:2; 19:6)

c This term is used here of the Word of God in its various revelations of truth. See notes on Ps. 119

d See note n, v 1

e 6 facts about vengeance:
1 Vengeance belongs to God (v 1; Dt. 32:35; Rom. 12:19; Heb. 10:30)
2 God avenges others (Gen. 4:15; Dt. 32:43; Judg. 11:36)
3 God promises to avenge His enemies (Dt. 32:41-43; Ps. 149:7; Isa. 34:8)
4 Man is commanded not to avenge himself, but to leave the matter of vengeance in the hands of God (Lev. 19:18; Rom. 12:19; Heb. 10:30)
5 The day of vengeance of God is at the 2nd advent (Isa. 61:2; 63:4; Jer. 50:15, 28; 51:6, 11; 2 Th. 1:8)
6 Hell fire is eternal vengeance on all rebels (Mt. 25:41, 46; Jude 6-7)

f Heb. yapha, shine forth (v 1; 50:2; 80:1)

g The law of sowing and reaping will never fail (Gal. 6:7-8)

h Questions 128-130. Next, v 8

i 10 sins of the wicked:
1 Pride (v 2)
2 Uttering hard things (v 4)
3 Working iniquity (v 4)
4 Boasting themselves (v 4) 5)
5 Breaking God's people in pieces (v
6 Afflicting God's heritage (v 5)
7 Slaying the widow (v 6)
8 Slaying the stranger (v 6)
9 Murdering the fatherless (v 6)
10 Boasting that God does not see their wickedness (v 7). This is either the language of infidelity or insult j The God who met Jacob when he had nothing and deserved nothing; and gave him grace and the promise of every known blessing of life (Gen. 28)

k Questions 131-135. Next, v 16

l This is an unanswerable argument for the existence of God and His creation of all things. Whatever is found of excellence in a creature or created thing is derived from the Creator and exists in Him in an infinite sense. What good thing the creature can do the Creator can do likewise. Whatever ability or attribute a creature has, the Creator also has it in perfection. This passage proves that God is as real as His creation. If He created the ear, does He not have one? If He created the eyes, does He not have them? He that chastens the disobedient, shall He not live in obedience to His own laws? He that teaches knowledge and wisdom, does He not have these abilities?
Instead of these statements proving that God does not have ears, eyes, mind, other bodily parts and soul and spirit faculties, they prove that He does have them. Instead of God making such statements to prevent the so-called error of humanizing Him, and attributing members of corporeal parts to Him, He makes them to teach plainly that He, as a Spirit Being does have such parts. Is it not as easy to believe what the Bible says about Him, as to believe what it does not say? If God had said one time that He did not have bodily parts, soul passions, and spirit faculties as we know them in all intelligent free moral agents, then the subject could be settled that way. But when He repeatedly refers to human bodily parts and ordinary soul and spirit faculties to reveal Himself and show what He is like, then we should believe what He says about Himself. If we refuse to do so, we stand condemned as unbelievers. See note, Jn. 4:24 m 10 blessings of the just:

1 Chastening of God (v 12; note k, Heb. 12:5-11)
2 Teaching out of the law (v 12)
3 Rest from adversity (v 13)
4 Rest all the days of life (v 13)
5 Protection and care (v 14)
6 God's faithfulness (v 14)
7 Justice (v 15)
8 Defence against evildoers (v 16)
9 Defence against workers of iniquity
10 Help at all times (v 17) (v 16)

n Questions 136-137. Next, v 20

a This is the O.T. doctrine of God's faithfulness in not suffering men to be tempted above what they are able to bear. Cp. 1 Cor. 10:13
b This is what is promised in 91:12 c My griefs, sorrows, and perplexities. According to the multitude of trials and distresses so are consolations d Occurs here and in Isa. 66:11; Jer. 16:7 where it is trans. consolations e Question 138. Next, 101:2. This verse means, Shall wicked judges, kings, or magistrates have fellowship with You? for they have framed mischief against Your law: or, for they devise, plan, and execute mischief as if they acted by Your law
f The throne that administers injustice g Heb. amal, trouble, labour, toil. It is sin viewed in the light of the trouble and hardship it causes; the burden and grievousness of action h They, the wicked who sit on the throne of iniquity and devise mischief against God's law, gather themselves together in unity against the righteous who oppose their wrongdoing and their destruction of the innocent. In every thing that is evil, they are in unity (v 21). The Lord will reward them according to their iniquity and cut them off in their own wickedness (v 23)

3 sins that will cut them off:
1 They frame or plan iniquity (v 20)
2 Gather against the righteous (v 21)
3 Condemn the innocent (v 21)

i 3 things Jehovah is to the righteous:
1 My defence (v 22)
2 My God (v 22)
3 My refuge (v 22)

j God is not only a refuge, but a strong-rock refuge (note b, 31:2)

k 8 admonitions in Ps. 95:
1 Come, let us sing unto the Lord (v 1)
2 Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation (v 1)
3 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving (v 2)
4 Let us make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms (v 2)
5 Come, let us worship (v 6)
6 Let us bow down (v 6)
7 Let us kneel before the Lord our Maker (v 6) 8 Today if you will hear His voice, harden not your heart (v 7-8)

l The joyful noise we are to make is the singing of hymns (v 1-2; 96:1-3) m God is not only a rock of defence, but the rock of salvation, which means that He is a strong defence and His salvation is all powerful (note b, 31:2; Heb. 7:26) n Heb. panim, face; countenance. Coming before God's face with singing, thanksgiving, prayer, and worship is the duty of all men (v 1-7)

o 10 reasons for worship of God:
1 Jehovah is a great God and a Great King above all gods (v 3)
2 He holds all the deep places of the earth in His hands (v 4)
3 The strength of the hills is His (v 4)
4 The sea is His (v 5)
5 He made the sea (v 5)
6 His hands formed the dry land (v 5)
7 He is our Maker (v 6)

18 When I said, My foot slippeth; [a]thy mercy, O LORD, [b]held me up.
19 In the multitude of [c]my thoughts within me thy [d]comforts delight my soul.

4 Five sins and judgments of the wicked

20 [e]Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth [f]mischief by a law?
21 [g]They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.
22 [h]But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the [i]rock of my refuge.
23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSALM 95

Fifth Psalm of Praise
A Psalm of David (Heb. 4: 5-11). 1 Rest found in true worship: 8 admonitions; 10 reasons for worship

O [a]COME, let us sing unto the LORD: let us [l]make a joyful noise to the [m]rock of our salvation.
2 Let us come before his [n]presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.
3 [o]For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all [p]gods.
4 In his hand are the [q]deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.
5 [r]The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.
6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker.
7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. [s]To day if ye will hear his voice.

2 Rest lost through unbelief (Heb. 4:5-11)

8 Harden not your heart, as in the [t]provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.
10 [u]Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:
11 [v]Unto whom I sware in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM 96

Sixth Psalm of Praise
1 Sevenfold admonition to praise God

O [w]SING unto the LORD a [x]new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.
2 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation [y]from day to day.
3 [z]Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

2 Sevenfold reason for praise

4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all [a]gods.
5 For all the [b]gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.
6 [c]Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

3 Twelvefold admonition to praise God

7 [d]Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.
8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.
9 O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, [e]all the earth.
10 Say among the [f]heathen that the LORD reigneth: [g]the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: [h]he shall judge the people righteously.
11 [i]Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.
12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

4 Fourfold reason for praise

13 Before the LORD: for [j]he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

PSALM 97

Seventh Psalm of Praise (7 things of man; 15 things of God). 1 Two admonitions to praise: ten fold greatness of God

[k]THE LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.
2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.
3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.
4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.
5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

2 Curse on idolaters: admonition to worship - 3 reasons

7 Confounded be all they that a God's program is a daily one - 7 days a week (v 2). The purpose of the sabbath has been long past at an end. When Adam sinned it was necessary to work 7 days a week to restore man and his dominion 10 things men should do daily:

1 Perform vows (Ps. 61:8)
2 Pray (Ps. 86:3; 88:9; Mt. 6:11)
3 Seek God (Isa. 58:2; Lk. 18:1-8)
4 Praise God (Ps. 72:15)
5 Take up the cross (Lk. 9:23)
6 Live in holiness (Lk. 1:75)
7 Continue in one accord (Acts 2:46)
8 Read the Scriptures (Neh. 8:18)
9 Search the Scriptures (Acts 17:11)
10 Exhort one another (Heb. 3:13)
b This is part of the work of proclaiming salvation daily (v 2-3) c 14 reasons to obey admonitions:
1 For the Lord is great (v 4)
2 He is greatly to be praised (v 4)
3 He is to be feared above all (v 4)
4 Other gods are only idols (v 5)
5 The Lord made the heavens (v 5)
6 Honor and majesty are before Him (v 6)
7 Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary (v 6)
8 Glory is due His name (v 8)
9 He is absolute in holiness (v 9)
10 He reigns over nations (v 10)
11 He established the world (social system) to be eternal (v 10)
12 He is a righteous judge (v 10)
13 He comes to judge the earth (v 13)
14 He shall judge the world in righteousness (v 13)
d Heb. Elohim, gods (note n, 82:1) e Same word as in note d, above f Heb. elilim, nothings: vanities; emptinesses; things of naught. Instead of being the true Elohim, not only are they not God, but they are nothing. Cp. 1 Cor. 8:4
g This verse relates to the ark of the covenant in its journeys (v 7; 78:60-61)
h 74th prophecy in Ps. (96:7-13, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the Millennium when the Lord actually reigns on the earth). Next, 97:1. Here we have all nations called to give God the glory that is due Him and to come with proper offerings into the courts of the Lord, the place of universal worship (v 7-8). Originally, God intended all nations to worship Him in His temple at Jerusalem (Mk. 11:17), but Israel failed to evangelize the nations or even consider them as having a part with them in God's blessings. How was Abraham's seed to be a blessing to all nations of the earth if true worship was to be limited to the Jews only (Gen. 12:1-3; Gal. 3:8)? Paul quotes freely from the prophets proving that God's plan was to save the Gentiles also (Rom. 9:14-33)
i How could all the earth be commanded to fear and give glory to God if only the Jews were to be blessed (v 9)?
j The Gentiles, who will go up from year to year to worship God at Jerusalem when Messiah reigns (Isa. 2:2-4; Zech. 14:16-21) k Heb. tebel, the habitable world or social system He has established forever (v 10; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:20; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)
l He shall rule the people in righteousness, proving that these verses are prophecy and yet to be fulfilled when Messiah reigns (v 10; Isa. 11:3-9)
m In v 11-12 we have the great rejoicing of the heavens and the earth in view of the reign of God and the Messiah on earth (v 10, 13; 93:1; 96:1; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5) n A reference to the 2nd advent of Christ. The judgment here is not the great white throne judgment of the wicked dead, but that of the nations (v 13; Mt. 25:31-46). The judgment of the world with righteousness refers to the ruling of the nations by Christ and the resurrected saints (Isa. 1:25-31; 2:1-4; 11:3-9; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14; 1 Cor. 6:2-3; Rev. 1:5; 5:10; 20:4-6)

o 75th prophecy in Ps. (97:1-12, unfulfilled, but will be completely fulfilled in the reign of Christ and of God on the earth). Next, 98:9. The fact that the Lord does not now reign on earth is proof of a future fulfillment. Not one detail of these verses has yet been literally fulfilled. See 14 characteristics of the Millennium, p. 631

a Heb. elilim, nothings (note f, 96:5) b Heb. Elohim, gods (note h, 82:1). Here the word gods applies to rulers and judges who can worship, not to dead idols

c Zion is here personified as being able to hear and be happy at the judgments of God - judgments of the tribulation period that will be sent upon the enemies of Israel to punish them for their desire and effort to destroy the nation (Jer. 30:4-9; Zech. 14:1-5; Dan. 8:9-14, 25; 9:27; 12:1-7). They will be judgments of the trumpets, and vials (Rev. 8-11; 15-16). This again places this psalm as yet future in fulfillment e One of the most important commands of Scripture; one that, if obeyed, will guarantee eternal life and the blessings of God in this life. If one hates sin he will not commit sin. Cp. Rom. 12:9; 1 Th. 5:22; Heb. 1:9 5 reasons to hate evil:

1 Love for God (v 10; Mt. 6:24)
2 God's preservation (v 10; Rom. 8:28)
3 God's deliverance (v 10; Rom. 1:16)
4 Increased light (v 11; 1 Jn. 1:7)
5 Increased joy (v 11; Gal. 5:22-23)

PSALM 98

Eighth Psalm of Praise
A Psalm (meditation). 1 Admonition to sing: 7 reasons

O [g]SING unto the LORD a new song; [h]for [i]he hath done marvellous things: [i]his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

2 The LORD hath made known his [k]salvation: [i]his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Is'ra-el: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

2 Twelvefold admonition to be joyful: 3 reasons

●4 Make a [m]joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: [n]make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

●5 [o]Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

●6 With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.

●7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

●8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together

★9 [p]Before the LORD; for [q]he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

PSALM 99

Ninth Psalm of Praise
1 Three admonitions to fear and praise God: 7 reasons

THE [r]LORD reigneth; [s]let the people tremble: [t]he sitteth between the [u]cherubims; let the earth be moved.●

2 The LORD is [v]great in Zi'ŏn; and he is high above all the people.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for [w]it is holy.

4 The [x]king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Ja'cob.

2 Two admonitions to worship God: 5 reasons

●5 [y]Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at [z]his footstool; for he is holy.

6 [a]Mō'ses and Aär'on among his priests, and Săm'u-el among them that call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spake unto [b]them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou [c]answeredst them, O LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their [d]inventions.

3 Two admonitions to worship: 1 reason

●9 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

PSALM 100

Tenth Psalm of Praise
A Psalm of praise. 1 Three admonitions to be joyful: 4 reasons

MAKE a [i]joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

●2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

●3 [k]Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

2 Four admonitions to be joyful: 3 reasons

●4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the LORD is [l]good; [m]his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

PSALM 101

Sixth Psalm of the Righteous
A Psalm of David. 1 Eight vows of the righteous

I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will behave myself wisely in a [n]perfect way. [o]O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that [p]turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A [q]froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

a 3 times here God and His name are called holy (v 3, 5, 9)

f 4 contrasts – days of God and man:
1 My days are like combustible material placed upon a fire; part flying away like smoke and part lying on the hearth like charred coal and ashes (v 3), but You shall endure forever (v 12)
2 My days are forgotten like shadows and withered grass (v 11), but Your remembrance is forever (v 12)
3 My days are shortened (v 23), but Your days will have no end (v 27)
4 My days may not equal the length of one generation, but Yours will last throughout all generations (v 24) g 10 human parts affected by trouble:
1 The voice (v 1, 5)
2 Emotions and feelings (v 1-2, 5, 9)
3 The bones (v 3, 5)
4 The heart (v 4)
5 The appetite (v 4, 9)
6 The memory (v 4)
7 The skin (v 5)
8 The eyes (v 7, 8)
9 Tear ducts (v 9)
10 Strength (v 23)
h Note the 9 similes of man's life-span in v 3-11
i I am in such trouble that I cannot eat, so am but skin and bones j Heb. qaath, an unclean fowl (v 6; Lev. 11:18; Dt. 14:17). The name was applied to this bird because it swallowed large quantities of fish and then disgorged them to its nestlings. Those in Palestine were brownish gray, about 6 ft. long with a wing spread of around 12 ft. They lived near the Dead Sea, fished in the Jordan, and abounded in greatest numbers in the wilderness near the Mediterranean. They built nests 5 to 6 ft. across, from dead twigs and bushes depositing 2 or 3 eggs in each nest. The young were fed until full feathered and able to fly, which was a long time. Such quantities of fish were disgorged that the young could not eat all of them, so many fell to the ground. Under the hot sun, the fish made the location unbearable to men. These birds were the ugliest of fowls imaginable when perching. The psalmist no doubt had in mind all these facts when he observed such long fasts. The pelican is used in Isa. 34:11; Zeph. 2:14 as a picture of complete desolation (where the Heb. word qaath is trans. cormorant). In this passage it gives a picture of the utter dejection of the psalmist in v 3-11 k The owls of Palestine are many kinds from the 5 in. screech-owl to the horned-owl with a 2 ft. wing spread. All have large heads and eyes. All are night hunters. There were many in caves, ruined temples, and fertile valleys in ancient Palestine. They were unclean fowls (Lev. 11:17; Dt. 14:16). The kind here (v 6) was the little owl (Heb. kos), which inhabited waste places and the wilderness l The sparrow, a most friendly bird, would seldom be seen alone unless its mate was killed or its nest and young destroyed. Then, the usually most cheerful of birds, made a lasting impression of dejection to the psalmist (v 7) m This refers to the custom of those in deep sorrow sitting in ashes and dust, throwing them upon their heads and garments (1 Ki. 20:38-41; Esther 4:1-3; Job 2:8; 42:6; Jer. 6:26; 25:34; Ezek. 27:30; Dan. 9:3; Jonah 3:6; Mt. 11:21; Lk. 10:13)
n Men in distress generally accuse God of being the persecutor and destroyer of the afflicted, but this is not the case, as illustrated in Job where it was Satan, not God who took all of Job's riches and health (Job 1:6-21; 2:1-13; 42:10)
o I have passed the peak of my days and like a shadow losing itself in the darkness of night, so I am coming fast to the end of life (v 11) p 78th prophecy in Ps. (102:12-16, unfulfilled). Next, v 18. God and His remembrance are eternal (v 12). He will yet arise and restore Zion when Messiah comes the 2nd time. The nations will then fear God and His glory (v 13-16)

2 Eight qualifications of a righteous character

5 Whoso privily [a]slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an [b]high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

▸6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: [c]he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSALM 102

Seventeenth Messianic Psalm

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the Lord. A Psalm of Distress. 1 Four requests for a quick answer [d]HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

2 Reason: sixteenfold distress and humiliation

3 [e]For [f]my days are consumed like smoke, and [g]my bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered [h]like grass; [i]so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my skin.

6 I am like a [j]pelican of the wilderness: I am like an [k]owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a [l]sparrow alone upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

9 [m]For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping,

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for [n]thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 [o]My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass.

3 Sixteenfold restoration of Zion: Messiah's second advent (Mt. 16:27; 24:29-31; 25:31 - 46; 2 Th. 1:7 -10, notes; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21)

★12 [p]But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zi'ŏn: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

14 For [q]thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So [r]the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 [s]When the LORD shall build up Zi'ŏn, he shall appear in his glory.

17 [t]He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

★18 [u]This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to death;

21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zi'ŏn, and his praise in Jĕ-ru'sâ-lĕm;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

4 Humiliation and prayer

23 [v]He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

5 Messiah's creation and restoration work

★25 [w]Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the [x]heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax [y]old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou [z]change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM 103

Eleventh Psalm of Praise

A Psalm of David. 1 Five admonitions to praise God

[a]BLESS the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, [b]bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his [c]benefits:

2 Reason: 30 benefits

▸3 [d]Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth [e]all thy diseases,

▸4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who [f]crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

▸5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that [g]thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

▸6 The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 He made known his ways a The great love of Israel for their beloved Zion is expressed here (v 14)

b This will literally be true in the Millennium and forever (v 15; Isa. 2:2-4; 11:3-11; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Zech. 14; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5) c This verse predicts that the 2nd advent of Messiah will take place during the restoration of Zion. It is one of many signs of the 2nd advent and proof that we are now living in the last days. Zion is now being built up as a nation (since 1949) and we are to expect Israel to continue growing until the coming of Christ who will complete the rebuilding of Israel (Isa. 2:2-4; 9:6-7) d 2 facts about prayer (v 17):
1 God will hear prayer of the destitute
2 He will not despise their prayers
e 79th prophecy in Ps. (102:18-22, unfulfilled). Next, v 25. People will be born in the Millennium and New Earth (v 18; Gen. 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:20; 65:20-25; Rev. 21:3-27; 22:4-5). Praise of the Lord will yet be in Zion (v 21) and all kingdoms of earth will yet serve Him (v 22; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-6). The creation referred to here must be the re-creation of men in Christ (Eph. 2:10; 4:24), as well as coming eternal generations of natural people f See Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-6 g In these 2 verses we have a return to the theme of the troubles of v 3-11 h 80th prophecy in Ps. (102:25-28, unfulfilled). Next, 103:17. This prophecy will be fulfilled when the heavens and earth are renovated by fire at the end of the Millennium (2 Pet. 3:10-13, notes). It is quoted in Heb. 1:10-12 except v 28
i Many times this term refers to the dateless past in eternity, the time before the original creations of the heavens and the earth of Gen. 1:1; Ps. 93:2; Mic. 5:2
j This was long before the days of Adam. Angels and morning stars rejoiced when God laid the foundations of the earth (Job 38:4-7)
k Not only was the earth created and formed by God's hands, but also the heavens, including all the billions of suns and their solar systems (v 25; 8:3-6; 19:1; 90:2; 95:5; Pr. 26:10; Isa. 40:12, 26; 45:12; 48:13)
l The heavens and the earth are eternal (Eccl. 1:4; Ps. 89:1-2, 36-37; 104:5). They will be changed only (v 26-27; Heb. 1:10-12, notes; 2 Pet. 3:10-13, notes). To perish means to be marred because of sin (see col. 2, p. 622)
m See Meaning of the word "old", p. 631 n As a man changes his old garment for a new one, so God will change the heavens and earth from their bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the sons of God (Acts 3:21; Rom. 8:21-24; Heb. 1:12; 2:5-8; Rev. 21-22).
o The material creations that have been cursed and brought under the bondage of corruption to wax old will of necessity be renewed and changed to the state of eternal newness; but God will never wax old and need to be renewed. He is eternally the same (v 27) p Another statement of eternal generations of natural people – our children and our children's children shall be established before You (v 28; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:20; 66:22-24; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-6; 21:3-7, 21-27; 22:4-5)
q Heb. barak, to kneel; to bless as an act of adoration to God or man. Of the 115 times it is here used the 82nd time (v 1). It is used 43 times in Psalms and only 72 times in the 38 other books of the O. T. The word bless is used only 9 times in the N. T.

v What the psalmist had in mind here is not clear unless it be the long life of eagles and their annual moulting or casting off their old feathers and receiving new ones. Many fantastic stories have been circulated about eagles that cannot be proved. They have lived in captivity over 100 years and how long they live normally is not known

a See 30 benefits from God, p. 632
b Compassionate and pitiful (v 8, 13) c Rebuke; admonish; scold; correct d He has not punished us as yet according to our deserts, or we should all be cut off without God and without mercy; but by His grace, if we repent, He gives us what we do not merit (v 10-14; Tit. 3:5-7)
e This is equivalent to blotting out our sins in Acts 3:19; Isa. 43:25; 44:22
f 3 reasons the Lord pities His children:
1 He knows our formation (v 14; Gen. 2:7)
2 He remembers the dust of which we are made (v 14; Gen. 2:7; 3:19; Eccl. 3:19; 12:7) 90:5) 3 He knows how frail we are (v 15-16;
g God remembers what man forgets (our infirmities); man remembers what God forgets (our sins) h 81st prophecy in Ps. (v 17-22. V 19 unfulfilled; the rest of the verses are being and will be fulfilled in all eternity more than at present). Next, 105:7
i A term expressing eternal generations of natural people (v 17; Isa. 59:20-21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Rev. 11:15; 21:3-7, 21-27; 22:4-5)
j 2 evidences of sonship:
1 Keeping God's covenant (v 18)
2 Obeying His commandments (v 18)
Those who do these things receive the eternal mercy and righteousness of v 17 k God's kingdom does not rule over all now, so this is future prophecy. He will send Jesus from heaven to rid the earth of all rebels and then God will be all and all (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10)
l 5 admonitions in Ps. 104:
1 Bless the Lord, O my soul (v 1)
2 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth (v 35)
3 Let the wicked be no more (v 35)
4 Bless the Lord, O my soul (v 35)
5 Praise you the Lord (v 35)
m See 30 reasons to bless God, p. 633 n The great and mighty works of God and His providence over all creation make Him a person of great honor and majesty among all His subjects (v 1)
o This refers to the great light in which God dwells, which no man can approach unto and which no man has seen nor can see in his sinful state (v 2; 1 Tim. 6:16) p Of 53 occurrences, this word appears only here in Psalms. It is used 47 times of the tabernacle, 43 times in Ex. 26 and 36. Here it no doubt refers to the atmospheric heavens or the clouds, called the firmament of the 2nd day's work of Gen. 1:6-8 q Heb. qarah, to cause to meet, referring to the various kinds of clouds of the heavens meeting one another. The word chambers refers to the clouds (v 3, 13). The idea is that God makes the clouds to meet in the heavens. They form His chariot, or one of His means of travel (v 3; Nah. 1:3). This is not the only means of travel for God, for He has thousands of chariots that go like lightning (2 Kl. 2:12; 6:17; Ps. 68:17; Ezek. 1:1-28; 10:1-14; Joel 2:5; Zech. 6). He also rides the wind (v 3) and upon cherubs (2 Sam. 22:11; Ps. 18:10). God has appeared in clouds (Mt. 17:5). Christ and others have been and will be received by clouds in translation (Acts 1:9; 1 Th. 4:17; Rev. 11:12). Christ will return with clouds (Dan. 7:13; Mt. 24:30; 26:64; Rev. 1:7; 14:14-16)
r See The spirit-world, p. 632
s Heb. sharath, servants. Human ministers of God is the reference, not angels. The word is trans. servant 4 times; minister 78 times; and ministered 18 times. Almost without exception it is used of the priests and Levites of the tabernacle and temple worship, and of the servants of Israel's kings (v 4; 103:21; Ezra 7:24; 8:17; Isa. 61:6; Jer. 33:21; Ezek. 44:11; 45:4-5; 46:24; Joel 1:9-13; 2:17; etc.). The gospel ministers are successors of the O.T. ministers (Lk. 1:2; 1 Cor. 3:5; 4:1; 2 Cor. 3:6; 6:4; Heb. 1:7)
t Ministers are to have power. See Ministers a flame of fire, p. 633 u They were laid at the time of singing and shouting of stars and angels (Job 38:4-7; Pr. 8:29) unto Mō'ses, his acts unto the children of Is'ra-el.

▸8 The LORD is [a]merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
▸9 He will not always [c]chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.
10 [d]He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
11 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.
12 [e]As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
▸13 Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD [f]pitieth them that fear him.
14 For he knoweth our frame; he [g]remembereth that we are dust.
15 As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.
*17 [h]But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness [i]unto children's children; ◂
18 [j]To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.
19 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom [k]ruleth over all.

3 Fivefold admonition to five classes to praise God

●20 Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.
●21 Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.
●22 Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul.

PSALM 104

Twelfth Psalm of Praise (Fiftyfold greatness of God)

1 God's greatness declared

[l]BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, [m]thou art very great; thou art [n]clothed with honour and majesty.

2 Original creation: 8 acts (Gen. 1:1)

2 Who [o]coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a [p]curtain:
3 Who layeth the [q]beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind:
4 Who maketh his [r]angels spirits; his [s]ministers a [t]flaming fire:
5 Who laid the [u]foundations of the earth, [v]that it should not be removed for ever.

3 Chaotic earth: 1 act (Gen. 1:2)

6 [w]Thou coveredst it with [x]the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

4 Re-creation of the 6 days: 35 acts (Gen. 1:3-2:25)

7 [y]At thy rebuke they [z]fled; at the voice of thy [a]thunder they hasted away.
8 They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.
9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; [b]that they turn not again to cover the earth.
10 [c]He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.
11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.
12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.
13 He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.
14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth;
15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.
16 [d]The trees of the LORD are full of sap; [e]the cedars of Lēb'a-non, which he hath planted;
17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.
18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies.
19 He [f]appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.
20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.
21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.
22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.
23 Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening.

5 Fifteenfold providence of God over all creation

24 O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in [g]wisdom hast thou made them all: [h]the earth is full of thy riches.
25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.
26 There go the ships: there is that [i]leviathan, whom thou hast made to play therein.

a God created the earth to be eternal and to be inhabited eternally by natural men (v 5; Eccl. 1:4; Isa. 45:18)
b This refers to the first universal flood on earth - the flood of Lucifer's time (Gen. 1:2; Jer. 4:23-26; 2 Pet. 3:5-8). It is clear here and elsewhere that the earth was created as dry land (Gen. 1:1, 9-10), was inhabited (Isa. 45:18), and later covered with water, with the deep, or with the flood of Gen. 1:2; 2 Pet. 3:5-8 c Heb. tehom, an abyss of a surging mass of water (v 6; Gen. 1:2; 7:11; 8:2; Pr. 8:28; Isa. 51:10). This is what God covered the whole earth with as one would cover with a garment. During this flood the waters stood above the mountains, which proves the whole earth was covered (v 6; Gen. 1:2; 2 Pet. 3:5-8). This was not an act of creation, but one of judgment upon the earth because of sin, the same as in the days of Noah. Whose sin? That of Lucifer and the pre-Adamites who rebelled against God long before Adam. See notes on Gen. 1:1-2; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ezek. 28:11-17; 2 Pet. 3:5-8.
d The fact that the flood covering the earth was rebuked proves that it was caused as a judgment of sin. The word rebuke means to chide or reprove, proving further that this work of v 6-9 was not one of creation but restoration from something that had caused God's anger to be exercised. See the force of the Heb. word gearah, rebuke, in v 7; 18:15; 76:6; 80:16; 2 Sam. 22:16; Isa. 50:2; 51:20; 66:15. No such rebuke was ever given at the flood of Noah, at which time the waters naturally receded from the earth over a period of 150 days (Gen. 8:1-5). God was here reproving the waters or commanding them to return to their original places in the low parts of the earth, in the clouds, and in the bowels of the earth where they were before He caused them to flood the earth and destroy all the pre-Adamites.
e The only time God ever rebuked the waters and they fled and hasted away was during the work of days 2 and 3 of Gen. 1:6-13. Day 2 was the time when God commanded part of the flood of Gen. 1:2 to return to the clouds so as to give rain upon the earth as in Lucifer's kingdom (Gen. 1:6-8; Isa. 14:12-14). Day 3 was the time when God commanded the rest of the flood to return to the low places of the earth and the bowels of the earth as before this flood (Gen. 1:9-13)
f It is possible that God used electric power (lightning) to separate the waters g This is a fixed law for the oceans, but at any time God chooses to set it aside temporarily so as to punish sin by a flood, He is free to do so in any part of the earth. We have had Noah's flood and many local floods since this law was made. What God promised in Noah's time was that there would be no other universal floods (Gen. 9:11-12)
h In v 10-15 we have the natural laws of underground water courses, rain fall from the clouds, growth of plant life, and the sustenance of all flesh on earth. These laws never fail, proving the providence of God over all creation i Not only are trees spoken of as belonging to God by virtue of His creation, but all things were created by Him and for Him (Jn. 1:3; Eph. 3:9; Col. 1:15-18; Rev. 4:11)
j In v 16-23 we have mention of the various homes for animals and man provided:
1 Trees for birds (v 16-17)
2 High hills for goats (v 18)
3 Rocks for conies (v 18)
4 Holes, caves, and forests for various wild beasts (v 19-22) 45:18) 5 The whole earth for man (v 23; Isa.
k This is another reference to the Solaric Covenant (v 19; Gen. 1:14-19; 8:22; Jer. 33:20; Dan. 2:21)
l When one stops to consider the infinite details of creation and the plan of eternal sustenance of all things from the smallest atom to the huge creations of material and living things, he is forced to exclaim the truth of Rom. 11:33
m The longer one lives to see the vast riches of earth the more he realizes the truth of this statement (v 24)
n See note d, 74:14

a All creation is dependent upon God for daily life. The creature was created to be provided for. It is now just as much God's responsibility to maintain creation as it once was to create it. The Creator's work is to maintain and the creature's obligation is to wait, pray, depend, receive, and be thankful for what God provides (v 27). See Providence, p. 633

b 14 blessings from waiting on God:
1 Salvation (Gen. 49:18; Ps. 62:1)
2 Daily necessities (Ps. 104:27-28; 145:14-15)
3 Instruction (Ps. 25:4-5; 106:13)
4 Answers to prayer (Ps. 25:21; 40:1-3)
5 Courage (Ps. 27:14; 31:24)
6 Protection and help (Ps. 33:18-22)
7 Inheritance (Ps. 37:7-9, 34)
8 Hope (Ps. 130:5-6)
9 Justice (Isa. 26:8-9; 30:18)
10 Renewed strength (Isa. 40:31)
11 Blessings (Isa. 30:18; 64:4)
12 Boldness (Isa. 49:23)
13 Goodness of God (Lam. 3:25)
14 Holy Spirit power (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8)

c It is a divine law that all living things work for daily supply. Man is no exception. Not only is he to work, but man is to pray for daily bread (Mt. 6:11). The law of the gospel is, "If any will not work, neither shall he eat" (2 Th. 3:10). If any man provides not for his own he is worse than an infidel (1 Tim. 5:8). God has made all things for all creatures to live by, but they must not be too lazy to gather that which sustains life, or they will have no right to live d When it is said of God that He gives the animals their daily food and takes away their breath (v 27-29), it refers to the laws of nature producing food for creatures and the law of death working because of the curse. It could not mean that God personally kills everything that dies or personally feeds every living thing. Creatures are responsible to gather that which grows by nature and they die, not because of personal acts of God, but because the law of death is now working as a part of the state of the curse on creation. God made the laws of sowing and reaping, of perpetual reproduction, and of death, but He cannot be held responsible for acts of nature and those of proper agents assigned to execute these laws. Satan, for example, has the power of death (Heb. 2:14-15). It is even in the power of animals and man to kill each other without an act of God. He, Himself recognizes this fact and has penalties for breaking His laws against murder, etc. This principle of sowing and reaping must also be understood when a passage speaks of God sending sickness or of being the one who causes certain curses to be carried out on men

e This refers to the normal annual renewal of the earth to sustain life therein

g 4 vows of the psalmist:
1 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live (v 33)
2 I will sing praise to my God while I have my being (v 33) (v 34)
3 I will have sweet meditation of God
4 I will be glad in the Lord (v 34)

h Heb. Hallelujah. Praise ye Jah. This is the first Hallelujah in the O. T. The Talmud and the Midrash call attention to the fact that it is connected with the overthrow of the wicked. The first Hallelujah in the N. T. is also connected with judgment on the wicked (Rev. 19:1-2). 35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. [h]Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 105

Thirteenth Psalm of Praise (42 acts of God)
1 Fourteen admonitions to praise God (1 Chr. 16:7-13)

[i]O [j]GIVE thanks unto the LORD; [j]call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people.
2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.
3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.
4 Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore.
5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; [k]his wonders, and the [l]judgments of his mouth;
6 O ye seed of A'brā-hām his servant, ye children of Jā'cob his chosen.

2 Abrahamic Covenant (Gen. 12; 1 Chr. 16:14-19)

7 [m]He is the LORD our God: his [n]judgments are in all the earth.
8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to [o]a thousand generations, 9 Which covenant he made with A'brā-hām, and his oath unto I'saac;
10 And confirmed the same unto Jā'cob for a law, and to Is'ra-el for an [p]everlasting covenant:
11 Saying, [q]Unto thee will I give the land of Cā'năan, the lot of your inheritance:

3 Sojourn in Canaan; 3 acts of God (1 Chr. 16:20-22)

12 When they were but a few men in number; yea, [a]very few, and [b]strangers in it.
13 When they went from [c]one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;
14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he [d]reproved kings for their sakes;
15 Saying, Touch not [e]mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.
16 Moreover he called for [f]a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.

4 Ministry of Joseph in Egypt: 2 acts of God

17 He sent a man before them, even [g]Jō'seph, who was sold for a servant:
18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron:
19 [h]Until the time that his word came: [i]the word of the LORD tried him.
20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.
21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance:
22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his [j]senators wisdom.

5 Sojourn in Egypt: 3 acts of God (1 Chr. 16:20-22)

23 Is'ra-el also came into E'gypt; and Jā'cob [k]sojourned in the land of Hăm.
24 [l]And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.
25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

6 Ministry of Moses and Aaron: 9 acts of God

26 [m]He sent Mō'sēs his servant; and Aăr'on whom he had chosen.
27 They shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the [n]land of Hăm.
28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and [o]they rebelled not against his word.
29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.
30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.
31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.
32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.
33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.
34 He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillers, and that without number, 35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.
36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength.

7 The Exodus: 10 acts of God

37 He [p]brought them forth a Very few compared with the many of the nations, even giants, that were in the promised land. Abraham had 318 trained servants or warriors when Lot was captured (Gen. 14:14). If few men refers to the actual children of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and their immediate offspring, then they were indeed few in number. For 25 years Abraham was the only party to the covenant. Then for 60 years there were only Abraham and Isaac. For the next 70 to 80 years there were only Isaac and Jacob. Then came the 12 sons of Jacob and their families, 70 people in all when Jacob went into Egypt. This was exactly 215 years of the 450 years of the total sojourn (Gen. 46:8-27; note o, Acts 7:14)

b All men were classed as strangers who were not of the seed of Abraham (v 12; Lev. 17:8-13; Eph. 2:12, 19). Israelites were called strangers among the Gentiles scores of times (Gen. 15:13; 17:8-12; 36:7; etc.)

c Besides the 10 nations of Gen. 15:18-21 they sojourned among the Philistines (Gen. 20) and the Egyptians (Gen. 13, 45-Ex. 12)

d See Gen. 13, 20, 26, and 35

e Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were all the anointed of God and prophets by virtue of such gift of prophecy:
1 Abraham (Gen. 20:7; 22:8; 24:7, 40)
2 Isaac (Gen. 27:28-29, 39-40; 28:3-4)
3 Jacob (Gen. 48:15-22; 49:3-27)

h Until Joseph interpreted the dreams for Pharaoh (Gen. 41)

i Joseph's faith in the Word of the Lord in his dreams of Gen. 37:5-11 was tested severely while he was in irons and in prison. He seems to have never wavered in the Divine revelation and purpose

j Heb. zaqen, elders. Here it is the elders who were advisers of Pharaoh k Jacob and his seed sojourned in Egypt only 215 years of the 430 years of Ex. 12:41; Gal. 3:17. The first 215 yrs. were:

1 Abraham's call to the birth of Isaac (Gen. 12:4; 21:5)..... 25 years
2 Birth of Isaac to birth of Jacob (Gen. 25:26)..... 60 years
3 Birth of Jacob to his going to Egypt (Gen. 47:9)..... 130 years Total.... 215 years

o This term is the same in meaning as eternal or perpetual generations (v 8; Gen. 9:12) and for ever and everlasting of v 8, 10. It is used here and in Ex. 7:9 and if taken literally it means 50,000 to 1,000,000 years, depending on the length of a generation. Men will live 1,000 years or more in the Millennium, depending on how old they are when they enter the Millennium. In the case of the lowest average life-span of today it would mean many thousands of years beyond the Millennium. If one can believe in this he can believe in eternal generations of natural people p If the covenant is eternal the natural human parties to the covenant must be as eternal as God, for the covenant would be null and void should one of the contracting parties become extinct

PSALM 106

Ninth Prayer-Praise Psalm (30 acts of God - 30 sins of Israel). 1 Two admonitions to praise God: 2 reasons

PRAISE ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for [a]he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 [o]Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?

3 [p]Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

2 Two requests: 3 reasons

4 [q]Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 [r]That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

3 Sixfold sin and confession

6 [s]We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in E'gypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

4 Nevertheless: six acts of mercy

8 [t]Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 [u]He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12 [a]Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

5 Twenty-five sins of Israel: 26 acts of God in the Exodus and Canaan

13 [b]They soon forgat his works; they waited not for his counsel:

14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul.

16 They envied Mō'sēs also in the camp, and Aär'on [c]the saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dā'than, and covered the company of Ā-bi'ram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Hō'reb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed [d]their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgat God their saviour, which had done great things in E'gypt;

22 Wondrous works in the land of Hăm, and terrible things by the Red sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Mō'sēs his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised [e]the pleasant land, they believed not his word:

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto Bā'al-pē'or, and ate the [f]sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their [g]inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phin'e-has, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto [h]all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of [i]strife, so that it went ill with Mō'sēs for their sakes:

33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto [j]devils,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Că'năan: and the land was

Gentiles (v 41-42; Judg. 1-16)
25 Delivered them many times (v 43; Judg. 1-16)
26 Brought them low because of sin (v 43; Judg. 1-16; 1 Sam. 1-2 Sam. 5)
27 Regarded their affliction when they cried to Him (v 44; Judg. 2:16-19)
28 Remembered His covenant with them (v 45; Judg. 2:16-19; Ps. 105:8)
29 Repented because of His many mercies (v 45; Judg. 2:16-19)
30 Made them also to be pitied and to receive the favor of their captors in preference to others (v 46; Dan. 1:19-21; 2:19, 49; 3:12; 6:2; etc.)

a This refers to their own new ways of sinning against God, of evading truth, easing their own conscience, and convincing selves that what they did was not really sinful. This is called inventions (v 29, 39; 99:8)

b Both Dt. 28 and Lev. 26 were fulfilled. These verses (40-42) are a sum of the judgments of God upon Israel because of sin c This refers to the many deliverances of Israel in Egypt, in the wilderness, in the conquest of Canaan, and during the judges and kings. See p. 629, 635

d Not only were they brought low by the many defeats, servitudes, and captivities listed on p. 431, but many times afterward the Medo-Persians, Grecians, Syrians, Egyptians, and Romans defeated and scattered the nation to the ends of the earth where they are today in great numbers. In 70 and 135 A.D. Israel was dispersed among all nations and not permitted to enter the promised land again until today. Now they are regathering in great numbers, on the average of 10,000 monthly polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with [a]their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 [b]Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 [c]Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and [d]were brought low for their iniquity.

6 Nevertheless: four acts of mercy

44 [e]Nevertheless he regarded their [h]affliction, [c]when he heard their cry:

45 And he [d]remembered for them his covenant, and [e]repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 [f]He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

7 Two requests: 2 reasons
Cp. 41:10; 54:9; 80:7

47 [g]Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

●48 Blessed be the LORD God of Is'ra-el from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Ä-mĕn'. [h]Praise ye the LORD.

a Nevertheless - even though they provoked God so much that He gave them over to their enemies, when they cried to Him He regarded their affliction, heard their cry, remembered His covenant with them, and repented according to His many mercies (v 44-46)

b Another example of the word affliction being used of war and oppression, not of physical disease, as it is almost universally understood. See Affliction, p. 626

c See note c, v 43

d He constantly kept in mind His covenant with the very people who provoked Him to abhor them. He was always ready to repent (change His mind) toward Israel and to forgive and deliver them if they would meet His righteous terms of the covenant (v 45; Lev. 26: 3-13; Dt. 28:1-14)

e See God repenting, p. 636

f He gave Israel favor in the eyes of her captors (2 Ki. 25; Dan. 1:18-6:2)

g Save us for 2 reasons:
1 To give thanks unto God (v 47)
2 To triumph in praise (v 47)

g 6 classes in Ps. 107:
1 The redeemed (v 1-7)
2 The rebels (v 8-14)
3 Fools (v 15-20)
4 Sailors (v 21-30)
5 The rich (v 31-43)
6 The poor (v 31-43)

h It is noticeable that Israel is commanded to praise the Lord and in the case of the other classes it is merely desired that men would praise the Lord for His goodness. This desire is expressed at the beginning of each section of this psalm (v 8, 15, 21, 31)

i God's providence to the redeemed (v 1-7). The psalmist by the Holy Spirit no doubt had in mind Israel, her redemption and journey from Egypt to Canaan in this first section (v 1-7)

12 statements to the redeemed:

1 Give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good (v 1)
2 Give thanks to Him, for His mercy endures forever (v 1)
3 Let the redeemed say so (v 2)
4 Let them say how they have been redeemed from the enemy (v 2)
5 How He gathered them from all lands (v 3)
6 How they were wanderers in the wilderness (v 4; Num. 14) In (v 4)
7 How they found no city to dwell
8 How they were hungry and thirsty
9 How their soul fainted in them (v 5)
10 How then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and He delivered them (v 6) way (v 7)
11 How He led them forth by the right
12 How they found an habitation (v 7)

j God's providence to rebels (v 8-14). Here we have the state of rebels and how they were delivered 12 statements about God and rebels:

1 Oh that men would praise God for His goodness (v 8)
2 Oh that men would praise God for His wonderful works (v 8)
3 He satisfies the longing soul (v 9)
4 He fills the hungry with goodness
5 He is good to all who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron (v 10)
6 Men are thus bound because of rebellion against God's Word (v 11)
7 They are bound because they condemn the counsel of God (v 11)
8 They are brought down with hardships (v 12)
9 They are fallen and helpless (v 12)
10 Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and He delivered them (v 13)
11 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death (v 14)
12 He broke their bands (v 14)

PSALM 107

Fourteenth Psalm of Praise
(44 acts of God)

1 Praise: 7 reasons. God's works of deliverance of the redeemed from want ●O [i]GIVE thanks unto the LORD, [f]for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

●2 Let [g]the [h]redeemed of the LORD say so, whom [f]he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

2 Praise: 7 reasons. God's works of deliverance of prisoners from chains and darkness

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

11 Because they [j]rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He [k]brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

3 Praise: 7 reasons. God's works of deliverance of fools from sickness

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 [l]Fools [j]because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are [k]afflicted.

18 [j]Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

4 Praise: 7 reasons. God's works of deliverance of sailors from storm

21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

●22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

23 [m]They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

i God's providence to fools (v 15-20). This is the 3rd class dealt with in Ps. 107. The word fools means those that are perverse, those depending upon their own wisdom, which is foolishness to God (1 Cor. 1:20-25. Cp. Pr. 1:7; 12:15; 14:3, 9; 15:5; 27:22)

12 statements about God and fools:

1 Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness (v 15)
2 Oh that they would praise Him for His wonderful works (v 15) (v 16)
3 God has broken the gates of brass
4 He has cut the bars of iron asunder (v 16)
5 Fools are afflicted because of their transgressions (v 17) (v 17)
6 They are afflicted because of sin
7 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat (v 18)
8 They draw near to death (v 18)
9 Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble (v 19)
10 God then saves them out of their distresses (v 19)
11 He sent His Word and healed them (v 20; 91:1-12; 103:3; 105:37; Ex. 15:26)
12 He delivered them from their destructions (v 20)

j This is proof that men bring sickness upon themselves many times because of sin (v 17). In such cases it can only be said that they reap what they sow. God is the author of the law of sowing and reaping, and this is the only sense in which He is responsible for curses k Here is one instance of the very few times that affliction is used of sickness. It is clear here that the affliction was sickness, for God sent His Word and healed them (v 20). See p. 626

l Here we have further proof that the affliction was physical sickness, for they abhorred food and drew near to the gates of death (v 18)

m God's providence to sailors (v 21-30). Here we have the 4th class dealt with in Ps. 107 - sailors (v 23-30)

18 statements about God and sailors:

1 Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness (v 21)
2 Oh that they would praise Him for His wonderful works (v 21)
3 Let them sacrifice sacrifices of thanksgiving (v 22) Joy (v 22)

20 statements about God: rich; poor:

2 Oh that they would praise Him for His wonderful works (v 31)

5 Praise: 18 reasons. God's works of providence to rich and poor

31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!
•32 Let [d]them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.
33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;
34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.
36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;
37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.
38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
39 Again, they are [b]minished and brought low through [c]oppression, affliction, and sorrow.
40 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the [d]wilderness, where there is no way.
41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.
42 [e]The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.
43 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Nineteenth Psalm of Instruction
A Song or Psalm of David

1 Four vows to praise God: 2 reasons

O [f]GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.
2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.
3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
4 [g]For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

2 Four requests: reason

5 [h]Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

13 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM 109

Sixteenth Psalm of Distress To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. (35 requests - 16 sins and characteristics of the wicked).

1 One request: 8 reasons

a Ephraim is the term used many times of the northern kingdom of Israel and Judah a term used of the southern kingdom of Israel during the division of Israel from Rehoboam and Jeroboam to the Babylonian captivity (Isa. 7:2-17; 11:13; 17:3). The two terms stand for all the tribes of Israel (Ezek. 37:16-22).

This part of Palestine has been the place occupied by Arab refugees driven out of Israel in our day. It is even now one of the hot-beds of hatred against Israel. The prediction here is that God will finally triumph over Philistia, implying that before He does, this part of the promised land will give God and Israel much more trouble (v 9)

i 84th prophecy in Ps. (109:1-31, fulfilled). Next, 110:1. This psalm has a double fulfillment in David and Messiah, v 3 with Jn. 15:25; v 25 with Mt. 27:39 prove that Messiah is referred to in v 1-5 and 21-31, as well as David. V 6-20 were fulfilled in Judas Iscariot, the betrayer of the Messiah. Ahithophel, the betrayer of David, could also be referred to in these verses. He gave evil counsel against David, then went and hanged himself (2 Sam. 17:23). Peter quotes v 8 as being fulfilled in Judas (Acts 1:20). Thus the whole chapter can be considered as a prophecy fulfilled in David and Messiah, Ahithophel and Judas without straining one point

Rom. 11:25-29)

l In v 7-9 we have certain parts of the promised land mentioned which are to play a part in the fulfillment of prophecy in the last days during the tribulation. Shechem is in Samaria; Succoth in Gilead east of the Jordan; Ephraim and Judah are on the west of Jordan; Moab and Edom south and east of the Dead Sea; and Philistia is in southern Palestine along the Mediterranean Sea. All these places will figure prominently in world affairs in the days of Antichrist. Edom and Moab in particular will be the places Israel will flee to, for protection from the Antichrist in the last 3 1/2 years of this age. See point 10, The sun-clothed woman, p. 307 of N.T.

2 Because Your mercy is good (v 21)
3 For I am poor and needy (v 22)
4 My heart is wounded in me (v 22)
5 I am gone like the shadow (v 23)
6 I am tossed up and down like a locust in the wind (v 23)
7 My knees are weak by fasting (v 24)
8 My flesh fails of fatness (v 24)
9 I am become a reproach (v 25)
10 They shook their heads (v 25)
11 That they may know that this is Your hand (v 27)
12 That they may know that You have delivered and exalted me (v 27)

f This explains what broken in heart of v 16; 69:20-21 means g The natural result of fasting. See Fasting, p. 829

h See Mt. 27:39. If this refers to Messiah, then all of v 21-31 refers to Him. David may also be a partial fulfillment of these verses

i 2 vows of David and Messiah:
1 I will greatly praise the Lord with my mouth (v 30)
2 I will praise Him among the multitude (v 30; Heb. 2:12)

j 2 reasons for praise:
1 He shall stand at the right hand of the poor to help him (v 31) and 2 To save him from those that condemn his soul (v 31)

f 22 reasons to praise God:
1 The works of the Lord are great (v 2)
2 His work is honorable (v 3)
3 His work is glorious (v 3)
4 His righteousness endures forever (v 3)
5 He has made His wonderful works to be remembered (v 4)
6 The Lord is gracious (v 4)
7 The Lord is full of compassion (v 4)
8 He has given meat to them that fear Him (v 5)
9 He will ever be mindful of His covenant (v 5)
10 He has showed His people the power of His works (v 6)
11 He plans to give them the heritage of the nations (v 6)
12 His works are verity and judgment (v 7)
13 All His commandments are sure (v 7)
14 They stand fast forever (v 8)
15 They are done in truth (v 8)
16 They are done in uprightness (v 8)
17 He sent redemption to His people (v 9)
18 He commanded His covenant to be eternal (v 9)
19 Holy and reverend is His name
20 The fear of the Lord starts the wisdom of praise to God (v 10)
21 He gives knowledge to all who obey His commandments (v 10)
22 His praise endures forever (v 10)

g The great works of God are studied with great pleasure by them that fear Him

h 4 general acts of providence: (v 2)
1 God provides food (v 5)
2 He constantly seeks to carry out His covenant responsibility (v 5)
3 He manifests His great power and works to His people (v 6) 4 He plans that His people shall inherit the earth and its fulness (v 6; 37:9, 29; Mt. 5:5)

i Truth and judgment

j God's works are eternal, so no invention of man, no atom or hydrogen bomb will ever destroy them. They will be renewed, not annihilated (2 Pet. 3:10-13, notes) ing let [a]their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted [b]the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the [c]broken in heart.

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

3 Eightfold distress: 8 requests

21 [d]But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, [e]for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and [f]my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 [g]My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they [h]shaked their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy:

27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.

29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

4 Twofold praise: reason

30 [i]I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

31 [j]For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

PSALM 110

Eighteenth Messianic Psalm
A Psalm of David. (Nine things of God). 1 Messiah both God and King (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 6:13-14; Ps. 2; Lk. 1:32-33; Jn. 18:37; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21, 20:1-10)

THE [a]LORD said unto [b]my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zi'ŏn: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

2 Messiah a Priest (Heb. 5:6; 6:20)

4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mĕl-chĭz'e-dĕk.

3 Messiah a judge and conquerer (Rev. 19:11-21; Mt. 25:31-46)

5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up the head.

PSALM 111

Third Psalm of God
(22 things about God - 22 reasons to praise Him)

1 Praise to Jehovah

PRAISE ye the LORD. [a]I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 His sevenfold works and character

2 [b]The works of the LORD are great, [c]sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

3 Fourfold providence of God

5 [d]He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

4 Fourfold character of His works and word

7 The works of his hands are [e]verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure.

8 [f]They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

5 His fourfold redemption

a 85th prophecy in Ps. (110:1-7, unfulfilled, except part of v 1 about the Messiah sitting on the right hand of God). Next, 112:2

b The Lord (Heb. Jehovah) said unto my (David's) Lord (Heb. Adonai). Sit at My right hand, until I make Thine enemies Thy footstool (v 1). One MS reads, "Jehovah said unto my Jehovah," and this should be the case, as in the original Heb. of v 5 it reads, "Jehovah at thy (Jehovah's) right hand." But out of the extreme reverence for the name Jehovah, the ancient custodians of the sacred text substituted the name Adonai for Jehovah in 134 passages. This is what was done in v 5. The name, Jehovah should have been retained in all the 134 places. If it had been in v 5, then it would have been clear that there are 2 divine persons called Jehovah. There are 3 such divine persons (Trinity, p. 2809). All of them are God, Adonai, Jehovah, and everything else that God is. In Gen. 19:24 we read of Jehovah on earth (who was visible to Abraham) as raining fire from Jehovah in heaven, upon Sodom. The N.T. quotations of v 1 in Mt. 22:41-45; Acts 2:34-35 use the same Gr. work Kurios of both the Father and the Son, proving them to be 2 Lords or Jehovahs

c 14 facts about the Messiah:
1 He is as truly God and Lord as Jehovah, the Father (v 1; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2, 14; Heb. 1:1-3, 8; Rev. 1:8)
2 He is the exalted One at the right hand of the Father (v 1, 5; Mt. 26:64; Mk. 16:19; Acts 2:33-34; 7:55-56; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20; Col. 3:1; Heb. 1:1-3, 13; 8:1; 10:12; 12:2; 1 Pet. 3:22)
3 He will sit at the right hand of the Father until the time of the 2nd advent when He will come to reign 1,000 years to put all enemies under His feet (v 1). This does not mean that He will sit down until the Father puts all enemies down, but until the time for all enemies to be brought under and subdued. That is really the purpose of the 2nd advent and the 1,000 year reign (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Heb. 10:13)
4 He shall rule from Zion on earth (v 2; 2:6; 9:11; 20:2; 102:16; Isa. 2:2-4; 59:20; Joel 3:17-21; Mic. 4:1-7; Zech. 8:3; 14:9, 16-21)
5 He shall rule in the midst of His enemies to put them down (v 2; Isa. 11:3-12; Zech. 14; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 20:4-10)
6 Rebellious Israel will become willing to accept Him and obey Him in the day of His power (v 3; Isa. 66:6-7; Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-21; Mt. 23:39; Rom. 11:25-29). The verse could be paraphrased thus: "Your people shall be a free people and willing to follow You in the day of Your power; arrayed in garments of holiness and as youthful and fresh as the dew drops from the breast of the dawn"
7 He is a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek (v 4; Gen. 14:18; Heb. 5:6, 10; 6:20; 7:1-11, 15, 17, 21)
8 He shall be a priest-king (v 4; Gen. 14:18; Zech. 6:13; Heb. 7:1-11)
9 He shall conquer kings in the day of His wrath (v 5; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Zech. 14; Rev. 17:14; 19:11-21)
10 He shall judge (rule) the heathen (v 6; Isa. 2:2-4; 11:3-12; Joel 3; Zech. 14; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-6)
11 He shall make heaps of slain when He comes the second time (v 6; Isa. 66:16; Ezek. 39:2-6, 12, 17-21; Joel 3:9-17; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21)
12 He shall wound (smite, dash) the heads of many countries (v 6; Dan. 7:23-27; Zech. 14; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 17:14; 19:11-21)
13 He shall drink of the brook in the way, meaning He shall be refreshed and satisfied in His conquests of the nations (v 7; Isa. 53:1-5; Joel 3; Zech. 14; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Rev. 19:11-21)
14 He shall then lift up His head, or be exalted over the nations (v 7; Isa. 2:2-4; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Zech. 14; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-6)

9 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and[d] reverend is his name.

6 The source of wisdom

10 The fear of the LORD is the [b]beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: [c]his praise endureth for ever.

PSALM 112

Seventh Psalm of the Righteous

(24 blessings of the righteous). 1 His fourfold happiness

[1] PRAISE ye the LORD. [c]Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

[2] [1]His seed [g]shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

2 His eightfold riches and character

[3] [h]Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and [i]his righteousness endureth for ever.

[4] Unto [i]the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is[k]gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

5 A good man sheweth favour, and [l]lendeth: [m]he will guide his affairs with discretion.

3 His sevenfold confidence

[6] Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, [n]until he see his desire upon his enemies.

4 His fourfold character and reward

[9] [o]He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

5 Fivefold envy of the wicked

10 [q]The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM 113

Fourth Psalm of God

1 Fivefold admonition to praise Jehovah

[1] PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.

[2] [1]Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and for evermore.

3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same [a]the LORD'S name is to be praised.

2 Sevenfold greatness of God: Ten reasons to praise Him

[4] [b]The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the LORD our God, who dwelleth on high,

6 Who [c]humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

7 [d]He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;

8 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

[9] He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. [e]Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 114

Fifth Psalm of God

1 The Exodus (Ex. 12-19)

[1] WHEN [f]Is'ra-el [g]went out of E'gypt, the house of Ja'cob from a people of [h]strange language;

[2] [i]Ju'dah was his sanctuary and Is'ra-el his dominion.

2 Six great works of God

[3] [j]The sea saw it, and fled: Jor'dan was driven back.

4 The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.

[5] [k]What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jor'dan, that thou wast driven back?

6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

[7] [l]Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Ja'cob;

8 Which turned the rock into a standing water, [m]the flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM 115

Sixth Psalm of God

1 Our God: His dwelling place

[1] NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, [o]for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

2 Wherefore should the heathen say, [p]Where is now their God?

3 But our God is in the heavens: [q]he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

2 Heathen gods: their tenfold helplessness

4 [r]Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:

7 They have hands, but they

a Heb. yare, to be feared. It is trans. fear, afraid, terrible, dread, and reverence 348 times of both God and man. Here we have a simple statement that God's name is reverend (v 9). It does not command or imply that ministers are forbidden to use Reverend as a title. The same word is used of the fear of parents (Lev. 19:3) and of God (Lev. 19:14). It is even used of reverence of the sanctuary, a material place (Lev. 19:30; 26:2). If God commanded men to reverence a material place as well as parents, how could it be wrong to reverence men of God who are supposed to be holy and reverend as His representatives on earth? See Ministers in the Index

c 8 eternal things in Ps. 111-112:
1 Righteousness of God (111:3)
2 Mindfulness of His covenant (111:5)
3 The works of God (111:7-8)
4 Terms of the covenant (111:9)
5 God's praise (111:10)
6 Righteousness of the saved (112:3,9)
7 Stability of a good man (112:6)
8 Memory of the righteous (112:6) d An admonition: Praise the Lord - Hallelujah (note h, 104:35)

e 2fold qualification of a blessed man:
1 Fear of God (v 1; 111:10)
2 Great delight keeping commandments (v 1)

f 21 facts about righteous, p. 636

g 86th prophecy in Ps. (112:2-3, unfulfilled). Next, v 6

h Here we have God's sanction of wealth and riches for the righteous man. How foolish to condemn riches and class rich men as wicked just because of their prosperity. Wealth is a blessing if used as God intended. It was God's original plan that all men be prosperous and use all things in creation for their own good and God's glory. It is still God's purpose and when the Messiah reigns every man will sit under his own vine and fig tree, which indicates there will be universal peace and prosperity (Isa. 2:2-4; 65:20-25; Mich. 4:1-8). See Providence, p. 633

i This is proof that a man may be rich and have righteousness at the same time. Poverty is no mark of holiness and Christianity (3 Jn. 2)

j The upright man will walk in the light of truth and his path will always be light - more and more unto the perfect day (v 4; Pr. 4:18; 1 Jn. 1:7)

k See many characteristics of the upright in note f, above. Also, 25 blessings of the upright, p. 624

l A good man will always be helpful to his neighbors, not jealous of their prosperity (v 5) m This seems to teach that a good man will be a good business man. He should be, for he has the right principles and should have enough faith in himself and in God to prosper (Rom. 12:9-21)

n 87th prophecy in Ps. (112:6, unfulfilled). Next, v 9

o Here we have a characteristic of the righteous that is more or less condemned by many. That Christians should be passive, non-resistant to own rights, and never desire vengeance on enemies is a constant teaching of some. But under certain circumstances, when God's cause is at stake, for instance it is perfectly righteous to desire their end and punishment. To pray for it, and wait for it from God is perfectly biblical (v 8; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8-12; Heb. 10:30-36; Rev. 6:9-11; 19:1-10) p 88th prophecy in Ps. (112:9, unfulfilled). Next, 113:2

q 5fold envy of the wicked:
1 The wicked shall see the righteous exalted (v 10) 10)
2 He shall be jealous and grieved (v
3 He shall gnash with his teeth (v 10)
4 He shall melt away (v 10)
5 His desire shall perish (v 10)

r 5 admonitions

a God created all things for His glory and pleasure (Rev. 4:11; Col. 1:17-18)

b 10 reasons to praise (v 4):
1 The Lord is high above all nations
2 His glory is above the heavens (v 4)
3 He is greater than all others (v 5)
4 He condescends to see things in the heavens (v 6)
5 He even condescends to see the corrupt conditions of the earth (v 6)
6 He raises up the poor (v 7)
7 He lifts up the needy (v 7) 8)
8 He exalts them among princes (v
9 He makes the barren woman to keep house (v 9)
10 He makes the barren to become the mother of children (v 9)
This 3fold position of God and His 7fold works of v 4-9 are enough to cause all appreciative creatures to love and honor Him

c Heb. shaphel, to lower one's self; to be humbled (v 6; Isa. 2:9, 11; 5:15; 10:33; Jer. 13:18). The idea here is that God is so great, glorious, and exalted that it is a wonder He lowers Himself to be interested in such things as material heavens and earth, especially in lost, sinful, and depraved rebels. But He loves the worst of rebels and enemies, and does good to them all, not willing that any among men should perish, but that all should be saved (1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)

d These verses (7-9) explain some things He beholds on earth and to what extent He is interested in earthly affairs. He delights to help the helpless; enrich the poor; heal the sick; relieve the suffering; and make men happy with one another

e Praise you the Lord (Hallelujah, note h, 104:35)

f This is the 4th of 8 Hallelujah psalms (111-118). They are called the Hallel Psalms. 113-114 were sung before the passover meal (but after the 2nd of the 4 cups of wine used at the meal), and 115-118 were sung after the passover. This last section was probably sung by Christ and the apostles after the supper in Mt. 26:30

g See Ex. 12:40-13:3

h The language of Egypt was far different from the Hebrew. The two nations could not understand each other (Gen. 42:23; Ps. 81:5) i The distinction between Judah and Israel was made after the time of David and Solomon, when the kingdom was divided; hence, this psalm must have been written at that time. The Bible recognizes this distinction during the division of the kingdom, but it does not class Judah alone as Jews, nor does it recognize that the Jews have been cut off from the covenant blessings of Israel, as the Anglo-Saxon theory of 10 lost tribes teaches. See note a, Acts 13:16

j 6 marvelous works of God:
1 The Red Sea was divided (v 3; Ex. 14)
2 The Jordan was divided (v 3; Josh. 3:13; 2 Ki. 2:8, 14)
3 Mountains skipped like rams (v 4)
4 Hills jumped like lambs (v 4-7)
5 The rock poured out rivers of water (v 8; Ex. 17:6; Num. 20:8-13)
6 Fountains of water came out of solid flint rock (v 8; Num. 20:8-13)

k Questions 146-148. Next, 115:2

l Many earthquakes have caused the earth to tremble in the past (Ex. 19:18; 1 Sam. 14:15; 1 Ki. 19:11-12; Amos 1:1; Zech. 14:5; Mt. 27:54; 28:2). Many are predicted preceding the 2nd advent of Christ (Mt. 24:7; Rev. 6:12; 8:5; 11:13, 19; 16:18)

m Flint rock abounds among the limestone rocks of Palestine, Syria, and Egypt (Isa. 5:28). It is a symbol of hardness (Isa. 50:7; Ezek. 3:9). Both oil and water have come out of flint rock (v 8; Dt. 8:15; 32:13). Flint was used in making knives and other implements of war and service (Ex. 4:25; Josh. 5:2)

p Question 149, Next, 116:12 q This will always be the case, but He can be depended upon to do right in everything He does

r 10fold description of idols, p. 636

a This puts idol makers and idol worshippers on the lowest plane possible. They are as helpless and powerless to save and bless men as the idols they make and worship (v 8) b The term Israel here applies to all the 13 tribes. Cp. 114:2, note c This is repeated 3 times:
1 To the house of Israel (all the 13 tribes, v 9, 12)
2 To the house of Aaron (all priests and Levites, v 10, 12)
3 To all that fear the Lord (Jews and Gentiles, v 11, 12)
d God is 2 things to all classes:
1 He is a help (v 9-11)
2 He is a shield(v 9-11; col.1,p.426)
e Here we have a repetition of the classes of v 9-11 whom God promises to bless (v 12-14)

7fold blessing of God:

1 He will bless us (v 12) 9,12)
2 He will bless the house of Israel (v
3 He will bless the house of Aaron (v 10, 12) (v11, 13)
4 He will bless them that fear Him
5 He will bless small and great (v 13)
6 He will bless you with children (v 14)
7 He will bless your children (v 14)

f The blesser of men is:
1 The maker of heaven and earth (v
2 The owner of all heavens(v 16) 15)
3 The one who entrusted the earth to the children of men (v 16)

g The dead - those who are dead physically. The body only dies at physical death (Jas. 2:26). The body, therefore, because it is dust and goes back to dust, cannot praise the Lord when it is dead (Gen. 2:7; 3:19; Eccl. 3:19-21). This refers to body-sleep, not soul-sleep (see p. 881)
This could also refer to the spiritually dead - those who worship idols of v 8. Idolaters do not worship Jehovah, and so when they go down in silence they do not praise Jehovah. The earth and this life-time are the proper place and time to receive of God's mercies and prepare for His glory to come. One must meet God's terms of salvation in this life if he expects to be saved, for there will be no opportunity in the intermediate state or in the next life after resurrection to be saved and worship God. After this, the judgment Heb. 9:27 says

h Going down in silence refers to physical death, not spiritual (v 17; 94:17). In sheol-hades there is no silence (see notes on Hell, p. 620)

i This confirms the truth that the terms, the dead and going down in silence refer to the body, never to the soul; for, if men are to praise God forever and the dead do not praise God, then we are to believe one refers to the inner man praising or cursing forever and the other to the dead bodies of both the wicked and the righteous since they can never praise or curse God while in dust and corruption. Souls in hell curse and cry for comfort (Lk. 16:19-31) and souls in heaven worship and cry for vengeance (Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11), but neither the bodies of the wicked nor the righteous are conscious in dust and corruption in the grave. See notes on Hell, p. 620-622

l See 17 reasons for making such vows, p. 636

m The cords of bonds of death were thrown about me and my time had come, but I prayed and He delivered me from death (v 3-4, 6, 8)

n The pains of sheol prove there is consciousness in hell. Since there can be no pains in the grave where the body goes, it becomes clear that hell and the grave are not the same. See p. 422. This could have been written when David was backslidden; and he may have been given a real taste of the cords of death and the pains of sheol so as to record the reality of both for coming generations.

o THEN - when
1 The cords of death compassed me
2 The pains of hell got hold of me
3 I was in trouble and sorrow (v 3)
4 I was brought low (v 6)
5 Death was near (v 8, 15)

3 God our help and shield

9 O Is'ra-el, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.
10 O house of Aar'on, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.
11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

4 Sevenfold promise of God

12 The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Is'ra-el; he will bless the house of Aar'on.
13 He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great.
14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

5 God's creative works

15 Ye are blessed of the LORD which made heaven and earth.
16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.
17 The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence.
18 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

PSALM 116

Third Prayer-Testimony Psalm

(David's Psalm. Cp. 18:4-6 with 116:3). 1 Vow to pray and love God: 3 reasons

I LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.
2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

2 Sevenfold prayer of distress

3 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.
4 Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

3 Threefold character of God

5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

4 Twelvefold vow and testimony

6 The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.
7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.
8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

5 David's six vows: 4 reasons

9 I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.
10 I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted:
11 I said in my haste, All men are liars.
12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me?
13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD.
14 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people.
15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.
16 O LORD, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.
17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.
18 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people, 19 In the courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of thee, O Je-ru'sa-lem. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 117

Fifteenth Psalm of Praise
Two admonitions to praise God: two reasons

O PRAISE the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.
2 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 118

Nineteenth Messianic Psalm
1 Four admonitions to praise

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Let Is'ra-el now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
3 Let the house of Aar'on now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Twentyfold testimony

5 I called upon the LORD in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.
6 The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?
7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

a Heb. gamel, to be good to a person (v 7; 13:6; 119:17; 142:7) b Deliverance of the soul from death means that David was saved from sin when he cried unto the Lord for forgiveness (v 1-2, 4-7). Spiritual death is the state of man in sin. Salvation of the soul is resurrection from spiritual death in trespasses and sins (Eph. 2:1-9, note) c 3 deliverances of David (v 8):

2 Deliverance from tears
3 Deliverance from falling into sin

e The earth in which we are now alive
f Quoted in 2 Cor. 4:13
g To what trouble David refers is not stated, it could be the disease referred to in Ps. 38, notes, or it could be the civil war with Absalom of 2 Sam. 15-18. In either case, his suffering was great, but he was delivered by God (v 1-8)
h When passion got the better of my reason, when I looked at my troubles instead of to God, and when I saw the utter impossibility of help from man, I became overwhelmed and uttered that which, in normal control of myself, I would not have said - All men are liars (false and deceitful, v 11)
i Question 150, Next, 118:6. This question is answered by his own vows (note k, v 1)
j See note q, Mt. 20:22
k This indicates that David was at that time paying his vows to God in public (v 14, 18), the tabernacle of worship was then in Jerusalem, for the ark had been brought from Obed-edom to its new resting place (v 19; 2 Sam. 5) l The thought of this verse seems to be that God does not lightly esteem the death of His martyrs. He will hold the murderers guilty and punish them in eternal hell (Gal. 5:19-21; Rev. 21:8; 22:15). It could not be that God gets pleasure out of the death of His saints. He does not take pleasure even in the death of the wicked (Ezek. 18:23, 32; 33:11). It is not God's will that death take anyone. He had to pass the sentence of death upon all who sinned, but death is an enemy and will be destroyed at the end of the Millennium (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 20:11-15; 21:3-7; 22:3)

PSALM 119

Psalm of the Word of God (The Psalm of Twenty-two) Each distinct part of this psalm has 8 verses headed by the letters of the Hebrew alphabet. Of the 38 psalms which have less than 8 verses and under, Ps. 119 has only 64 verses less. Of the 25 psalms which have less than 8 verses, Ps. 119 has 40 more. It contains 21 traits of blessed men; 15 things God has done; 30 vows; 30 reasons for vows; 70 requests; 18 secrets of victory; 61 fold testimony; 62 facts of the Word; 22 reasons God is happy; 198 references to God's Word; 610 personal pronouns; and other facts

The first: Aleph

k No such prayer ever needs to be prayed, for God seeks to make His revelation so clear that the most simple can understand it (Isa. 28:9-13; Mt. 13:15-16; 1 Cor. 1:18-31; 2:10-16; 2 Cor. 4:4; 2 Tim. 3:15-16; Tit. 2:11-14)

l This is an expression used of deep passion, grievous disappointment, accumulated sorrow, or intense longing, and shows to what extent the psalmist hungered for righteousness (v 20; Mt. 5:6) m Heb. shagah, erring wilfully through passion or wine; hence, to go astray or wander (v 10) and err (v 21, 118). Cp. Lev. 4:13 and Num. 15:22 with Num. 15:30; Ps. 119:21 sin [a]against thee.

12 [b]Blessed art thou, O LORD: [c]teach me thy statutes.

13 With my lips have [d]I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, [e]as much as in all riches.

3 Fourfold vow to God

15 I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

16 I will delight myself in thy statutes: [f]I will not forget thy word.

The third: Gimel
Enlightenment by the Word (Ps. 19:8). 1 Prayer and hunger for enlightenment: four requests 17 [g]Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

18 [h]Open thou mine eyes, that I may [i]behold wondrous things out of thy law.

19 I am a [j]stranger in the earth: [k]hide not thy commandments from me.

20 [l]My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments.

22 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies.

2 Three secrets of enlightenment

23 [m]Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.

24 Thy testimonies also are my delight and my [n]counsellors.

The fourth: Daleth
Sustaining Power of the Word (Ps. 1:2-3). 1 Four requests concerning the Word 25 [o]My soul cleaveth unto the dust: [p]quicken thou me according to thy word.

26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes.

27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

28 [q]My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.

2 Three requests; testimony and vow

29 Remove from me the [r]way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously.

30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.

31 I have [s]stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame.

32 [t]I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt [u]enlarge my heart.

The fifth: He
Prayer for it's Blessings (Jn. 17:17). 1 Four requests for help and two vows to obey the Word 33 [v]Teach me, O LORD, [w]the way of thy statutes; [x]and I shall keep it unto [y]the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it [z]with my whole heart.

35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and [a]not to covetousness.

2 Five requests for power to overcome

37 [b]Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

38 Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.

39 Turn away [c]my reproach which [d]I fear: for thy judgments are good.

40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: [e]quicken me in thy righteousness.

The sixth: Vau
Salvation by the Word (Rom. 1:16). 1 Two requests: reason

41 [f]Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD, even thy salvation, according to thy word.

42 So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

43 And [g]take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

2 Seven vows: the outward working of salvation

44 So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever.

45 [h]And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

46 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.

47 And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.

48 My [i]hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes.

The seventh: Zain Comfort in the Word (Rom. 15:4). 1 One request: basis of comfort

49 Remember the word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope.

50 This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me.

2 Tenfold testimony

51 The [j]proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy law.

52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O LORD; and d Here a good thing is asked, for a good end. He wants knowledge, not to parade it, but to enable him to carry out his duty to God and man intelligently (v 33-34)

e This is the only service acceptable to God (v 34; Mt. 22:37)

f Let me be free from covetousness and be content with common supply for all creation (v 36; note, Lk. 12:15)

20 He saw the wicked far from salvation (v 155)
21 He had many persecutors and enemies (v 157)
22 He was grieved by sinners (v 158)

o Heb. ish, men. The idea is that God's testimonies were recognized by the psalmist as "the men of my counsel." He considered every part of the Word of God as something that would enable him to act and be wise p This is an idiom meaning deep humility (1 Sam. 2:8; Ps. 44:25; 72:9; 113:7; Mic. 7:17). Also a figure of death (Ps. 18:42; 30:9)

q Make me alive. Keep me from going down into dust. The 1st of 9 prayers for quickening (v 25, 37, 40, 88, 107, 149, 154, 156, 159). Twice it is a statement of fact (v 50, 93)

r Weepeth. Cp. Job 16:20

s Habitual falsity, prevarication, everything contrary to truth (v 29). This is the opposite of the way of truth of v 30 t Cleaved, adhered to; been glued to u When You shall have removed from me the way of lying and put me in the way of truth, I will run the way of Your commandments without any stumbling-block in my way (v 32)

v Heb. rachab, to broaden; make room. The idea is to make room for God's truth and commandments (v 32)

a There is some consolation in knowing that one can comfort himself when all others fail to sympathize (v 52)

9 sources of comfort:
1 God (2 Cor. 1:3; Isa. 51:3)
2 The Holy Spirit (Acts 9:31) 18)
3 The Scriptures (Rom. 15:4; 1 Th. 4:
4 Preaching or prophesying (1 Cor.
5 Love (Phil. 2:1) 14:3, 31)
6 God's rod and staff (Ps. 23:4)
7 Food and drink (Gen. 18:5)
8 Others (1 Chr. 7:22; 19:2; 1 Th. 5:11)
9 Self (v 52; Job 9:27)

b Not very many are concerned to this extent over the breaking of God's laws by themselves or others (v 53). Sin is always a canker that corrupts and destroys the moral, mental, and physical being c Statutes of God have been the theme of my songs all the time of my sojourn or wanderings (v 54)

d The authorship of this psalm is not stated, but certain facts about the psalmist seem to indicate that David wrote it. See 8 reasons, p. 638

e Encompassed or surrounded, referring to wicked men seeking his life and his kingdom (v 61). If it refers to David, 1 Sam. 21-28; 2 Sam. 15-18 should be read in this connection

f The author of this psalm refers to himself as "thy servant," which is a familiar term of David, as seen in point 2, 8 reasons David wrote Ps. 119, p. 638. There are many servants of God mentioned in Scripture. God recognized even heathen kings to be His servants, because they carried out His plan

23 servants of God in Scripture:
1 Abraham (Gen. 26:24; Ps. 105:6)
2 Jacob (Isa. 41:8; 48:20)
3 Moses (Num. 12:7; Josh. 1:1)
4 Samuel (1 Sam. 3:9)
5 David (2 Sam. 7:5-29; 2 Ki. 19:34)
6 Ahijah (1 Ki. 14:18; 15:29)
7 Elijah (2 Ki. 9:36; 10:10)
8 Jonah (2 Ki. 14:25)
9 Hezekiah (2 Chr. 32:16)
10 Job (Job 1:8; 2:3; 42:7-8)
11 Isaiah (Isa. 20:3)
12 Eliakim (Isa. 22:20) 53:11)
13 Messiah (Isa. 42:1; 43:10; 52:13;
14 Nebuchadnezzar (Jer. 25:9; 27:6)
15 Daniel (Dan. 6:20)
16 Zerubbabel (Hag. 2:23)
17 Simeon (Lk. 2:29)
18 Paul (Rom. 1:1; Tit. 1:1)
19 Epaphras (Col. 4:12)
20 James (Jas. 1:1)
21 Peter (2 Pet. 1:1)
22 Jude (Jude 1)
23 John (Rev. 1:1)

g This verse teaches the law of sowing and reaping (v 67; Gal. 6:7-8)

h 6 things God is:
1 Man's portion (v 57)
2 Good (v 68)
3 A hiding place (v 114; 91:1)
4 A shield (v 114; col. 1, p. 426)
5 Righteous (v 137)
6 Near to man (v 151)

i Another fact that seems to identify David as the author of this psalm (v 69; 2 Sam. 15-18)

j The word afflicted as used in v 50, 67, 71, 75, 92, 107, and 153 does not always mean physical sickness or disease. It is used of many kinds of troubles. See p. 626

cording to His eternal plan for each planet and the particular needs of life thereon. Without the sun, moon, and stars regulating day and night, and times and seasons, life on the planet earth would soon become extinct (Gen. 1:14-19; 8:22)

r Not only intelligent life on earth and life in the heavens are God's servants, but the material creations themselves are His servants to sustain life on the various planets (Col. 1:15-18; Rev. 12:12; 13:6; Dan. 4:35) s Faith comes by hearing the Word of God (Rom. 10:17). It was by meditating in the Word that faith to appropriate God's blessings was generated to save the psalmist from his troubles (v 92) have [c]comforted myself.

53 Horror hath taken hold upon me [a]because of the wicked that forsake thy law.
54 Thy statutes have been my [c]songs in the house of [d]my pilgrimage.
55 I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy law.
56 This I had, because I kept thy precepts.

The eighth: Cheth
Satisfaction by the Word (Ps. 19:10). 1 Satisfaction stated

57 Thou art my portion, O LORD: I have said that I would keep thy words.

2 Seven secrets of satisfaction: two requests

58 I intreated thy favour with my whole heart: be merciful unto me according to thy word.
59 I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.
60 I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments.
61 The bands of the wicked have [e]robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.
62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments.
63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.
64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes.

The ninth: Teth
Chastening Power of the Word (Heb. 4:12). 1 Testimony: 2 requests 65 Thou hast dealt well with thy [f]servant, O LORD, according unto thy word.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.
67 [g]Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.
68 [h]Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes.

2 Purpose of chastening: one vow

69 [i]The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.
70 Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy law.
71 It is good for me that I have been [j]afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.
72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

The tenth: Jod
Righteousness of the Word (Ps. 19:9). 1 Testimony: one request

73 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.
74 [k]They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word.
75 [l]I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, and [m]that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

2 Five requests for justice

76 [n]Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant.
77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.
78 Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts.
79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies.
80 Let my heart be [o]sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed.

The eleventh: Caph
The Source of Hope (Rom. 10:17). 1 Eightfold distress: hope in the Word 81 My soul [p]fainteth for thy salvation: but I [q]hope in thy word.

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, [r]When wilt thou comfort me?
83 [s]For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.
84 [t]How many are the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?

2 Two requests: Word the source of stability

85 [u]The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law.
86 All thy commandments are faithful: they persecute me [v]wrongfully; help thou me.
87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts.
88 Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.

The twelfth: Lamed
Eternity of the Word (1 Pet. 1:25). 1 God's Word eternal 89 For ever, O LORD, [w]thy word is [x]settled in heaven.

90 Thy [y]faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast [z]established the earth, and it abideth.
91 They continue this day according to thine [aa]ordinances: for [ab]all are thy servants.

2 Word source of help for all generations: 2 vows; 2 requests

92 [ac]Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction.
93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me.

a This is the same truth as stated in Mt. 10:40: "He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me." Cp. Jn. 13:20

b To know God and His Word is more profitable to an individual than all the thousands of silver and gold (v 72, 75) c God is faithful and will not suffer one to endure more temptations than he can bear (1 Cor. 10:13-14), nor will He suffer one to be lost without doing all in His power to save him (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17). If a man falls into sin or is lost it is his own responsibility. He has not taken God's way, as the psalmist did (v 30, 173). As a last resort God may allow trouble and even permit Satan to afflict with disease to bring a man back to righteousness (v 75; Job 33:14-29) d 5 great personal blessings:

1 Comfort through lovingkindness or grace (v 76)
2 Tender mercies or compassions of God through obedience (v 77)
3 Victory over enemies through meditation upon God's Word (v 78)
4 Godly fellowship of kindred hearts through mutual consecration (v 79)
5 Soundness in the Word through daily enlightenment and a clear conscience (v 80)

e Soundness in the faith is most needful in the modern church – not soundness in church rituals, laws, and standards of membership, but soundness in the Word of God itself (v 80; Pr. 2:7; 3:21; 1 Tim. 1:10; 2 Tim. 1:13; 4:3; Tit. 1:9, 13; 2:1-2)

f No man who longs for and faints for salvation from God will go unheard (v 81-82; 131, 174; Mt. 5:6)

g One can hope only in the prophetic and promised blessings of the Word of God. Things that are already seen cannot be hoped for (Rom. 8:24-25)

h Question 153. Next, v 84

i In the Eastern countries bottles were made from skins. Hung in smoke they soon became parched, hard, and shrivelled. This represents the exhausted state of body and mind experienced by the psalmist through constant troubles he had undergone. Cp. Job 30:30

j Questions 154-155. Next, 120:3

k The proud have sought to destroy me contrary to Your law (v 85)

l Much persecution and suffering of the godly are without cause (78, 86, 161)

m God's Word is eternal. Its plan for man is eternal. It is already settled in heaven and will be carried out on earth to the letter. This is why we may know in infinite detail the program of God from eternity past into all eternity future (Acts 15:18; Eph. 2:7; 3:11). See notes on Rev. 20-22

n Stands fast without change, as the plan of God for man is declared to be (Mt. 24:35; Mk. 13:31; Lk. 21:33; 1 Pet. 1:23-25). See 30 limitations of God, p. 638

o The faithfulness of God is also eternal – unto all generations. This is another scripture stating eternal generations of natural people (v 90; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 21:3-7; 22:4-5) p The earth abides forever (v 90; 104:5; Eccl. 1:4; 2 Pet. 3:13; Rev. 21)

4 eternal things here:
1 God's Word (v 89)
2 Heaven (v 89)
3 Natural generations (v 90)
4 The earth (v 90)

q God's ordinances include the regulation of the heavens and the earth and all things therein according to fixed laws that are eternal. Billions of suns, moons, and stars go in their own orbits and regulate life on the many planets in space, according to fixed and eternal laws. Each star is a sun to another planet like our sun is to our planet earth. Wherever there is life it is sustained by the ordinances of God established aca One can only claim to belong to God when he has sought God's precepts to obey them and has met the terms of His reconciliation (v 94; Rom. 1:16; Eph. 2:8-9; Col. 1:20-23; 2:12-13; 1 Jn. 1:9)

b The wicked are more patient than others when it becomes necessary for them to wait to do evil and shed innocent blood (v 95)

c The idea here is that there is an end to all human perfection, a limit to all works of man, but God's word is unlimited (v 96; Rom. 11:33)

d 92nd prophecy in Ps. (119:97-104, fulfilled in Christ). Next, 132:11

e 7 reasons fulfilled in Messiah:
Part of this passage (v 97-104) could have a double reference - to the psalmist and Messiah, but certain statements in it could refer only to the sinless One - the Messiah:
1 Wisdom above all enemies through the commandments was singularly true of Messiah (v 97-98)
2 More understanding than teachers through meditation in God's word was true of Messiah more than any other man (v 99; Isa. 11:1-2; 42:1-5; 50:4-6; 61:1-2; Lk. 2:40, 52)
3 Understanding more than the ancients through keeping the divine precepts was literally true of Messiah (v 100; Lk. 2:40, 48-52)
4 Refraining feet from every evil way to obey the Word of God was only true of the Messiah (v 101; 1 Pet. 2:21-22)
5 Absolute union with God's judgments without the least departure from them was only true of Messiah (v 102; 1 Pet. 2:21-22)
6 Complete satisfaction with God's Word was true of Messiah alone (v 103; Heb. 10:9)
7 Hatred of every false way through intelligent conformity to the Word of God was also true of Messiah only (v 104; Heb. 1:9; 1 Pet. 2:21-22)
It is true that any godly man could be a double fulfillment with the Messiah in some details of v 97-104, but when it comes to being literally holy and true to God's Word and hating every sin, no man, other than Christ can say that this has been true of his entire life. It is true of many after conversion, or becoming a new creature in Christ, but the Messiah outshines all others as far as sinlessness in the entire life is concerned (Heb. 1:9; 1 Pet. 2:21-22)

f 6 secrets of Messiah's sinlessness:
1 Refraining from every evil way (v 101)
2 Obedience to God's Word (v 101)
3 Absolute adherence to God's justice and judgments (v 102)
4 Instruction from God (v 102)
5 Love and delight in truth (v 103)
6 Hating every false way (v 104)

g 48fold description of the word of God:
1 The law of the Lord (v 1, 18)
2 A record of His testimonies (v 2, 14, 31, 36)
3 A revelation of His ways (v 3, 15)
4 A code of His precepts (v 4, 15)

96 I have seen an [c]end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

The thirteenth: Mem
Source of Wisdom and Knowledge (2 Tim. 3:16-17). 1 Messiah wiser than enemies: reason ★97 [d]O how love [e]I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

2 Messiah wiser than teachers: reason

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

3 Messiah wiser than the ancients: reason

100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

4 Six secrets of Messiah's wisdom

101 [f]I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.
102 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.
103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
104 Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

The fourteenth: Nun
Source of Light and Joy (Ps. 19:8). 1 Source of light: one vow

105 Thy [g]word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.
106 I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.

2 Three requests for help

107 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.
108 Accept, I beseech thee, the [h]freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments.

3 Five secrets of joy

109 My soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.
110 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I [i]erred not from thy precepts.
111 Thy testimonies have [j]I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.
112 I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes alway, even unto the end.

The fifteenth: Samech
Source of Security (Prov. 3:2). 1 Place of security

113 [a]I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do [b]I love.
114 Thou art my hiding place and [d]my shield: I hope in thy word.

2 Four requests for security

115 [c]Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.
116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope.
117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be [e]safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

3 Testimony of security

118 Thou hast trodden down all them that [f]err from thy statutes: for their deceit is falsehood.
119 Thou puttest away [g]all the wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.
120 My flesh [h]trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.

The sixteenth: Ain
Source of Confidence (Prov. 3:4). 1 Testimony of faithfulness: six requests 121 I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.

122 [i]Be [j]surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.
123 [k]Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.
124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.
125 I am thy servant; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies.

2 Confidence in God's Word

126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work: for they have made void thy law.
127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold.
128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way.

Guidance by the Word (Ps. 19:11). 1 Faith in it's guidance

Some hold that this verse is one in which none of the 10 words describing the Word of God in this psalm are found, but "used to do" should be "as You give judgment to those that love thy name." The Heb. word is trans. judgment 18 times in this psalm. See point 7, col. 4, p. 636

c Make my steps firm. Let me not walk with faltering and unsteady steps (v 133)

d Heb. padah, to free; redeem. Used here and in 55:18; 69:18; 78:42; Job 33:28. It is not the same word for deliver in v 153, 154, 170

l I have trouble and anguish, but they do not cause me to turn from You or Your Word (v 143)

m Here the psalmist recalls praying with the whole heart to be faithful to God and His Word, arising from sleep long before dawn to pray and meditate on God's Word in the night watches (v 145-149)

n See note h, v 2

o Preceded the dawn

p Precede the night watches. Before the watchman proclaims the hour, I am awake seeking God and meditating on His Word (v 147-148). The Jews divided the night into 3 watches of 4 hours each, beginning at 6 p. m. The Romans taught them to divide the night into 4 watches of 3 hours each. Watchmen or guards were appointed to proclaim the end of one watch and the beginning of another. It seems that the psalmist awoke to meditate and pray with each watch (v 147-148). Or, it may be that he preceded only the first and last night watches, praying early before night and early before dawn q Those who follow me with malicious intent are near at hand; they are far from keeping the law (v 150). You are also near to help me and deliver me from them (v 150-151. Cp. v 23, 51, 85, 157)

Character of the Word (Ps. 12:6). 1 Five characteristics of God and His Word 137 [g]Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgments.

138 Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful.

139 My zeal hath [h]consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

140 Thy [i]word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

2 Human frailties need the Word

141 [j]I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.

142 Thy righteousness is [k]an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth.

143 [l]Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet thy commandments are my delights.

144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: give me understanding, and I shall live.

The nineteenth: Koph
Source of Strength (Col. 3:16). 1 Four requests: 2 vows

145 [m]I cried with my [n]whole heart; hear me, O LORD: I will keep thy statutes.

146 I cried unto thee; save me, and I shall keep thy testimonies.

147 I [o]prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word.

148 Mine eyes [p]prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.

149 Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness: O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgment.

2 Confidence before enemies

150 [q]They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.

151 Thou art near, O LORD; and all thy commandments are truth.

152 [r]Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever.

The twentieth: Resh
Source of Deliverance (Rom. 1:16). 1 Six requests for help according to the Word 153 [s]Consider mine affliction, and [t]deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.

154 [s]Plead my cause, and [d]deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.

155 [s]Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.

156 Great are thy [f]tender mercies, O LORD: quicken me according to thy judgments.

2 Sinners disobey the Word: two requests for help

157 [g]Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.

158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; because they kept not thy word.

159 [h]Consider how I love thy precepts: quicken me, O LORD, according to thy lovingkindness.

160 Thy word is true from [i]the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

The twenty-first: Schin
Source of Peace (Prov. 3:2). 1 Testimony of peace in trouble

161 [j]Princes have persecuted me [k]without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

162 I rejoice at thy word, [l]as one that findeth great spoil.

163 I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love.

164 [m]Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.

2 Testimony of obedience to the Word

165 [n]Great peace have they which love thy law: and [o]nothing shall offend them.

166 LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments.

167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies; and I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: for [p]all my ways are before thee.

The twenty-second: Tau Prayer for it's Blessings (Jn. 17:17). 1 Four requests for wisdom and help from the Word: two vows 169 [q]Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD: give me understanding according to thy word.

170 Let my supplication come before thee: [r]deliver me according to thy word.

171 [s]My lips shall [t]utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

172 My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

a Consider; deliver; plead my cause; quicken. These are requests for deliverance from trouble. The psalmist mentions his affliction several times and repeatedly prays for help from God. His trouble seems to be more from enemies than bodily sickness. Cp. v 50 with 51, 53; v 87 with v 69-71; v 75 with 78; v 92 with 95; v 107 with 110; and v 153 with 154-158.

b 25 different Heb. words are trans. deliver. The word here is halaz, rescue with a gentle hand. It is not the same as in v 134, 154, 170

c Represent my cause and defend me from my enemies who are causing my affliction or trouble (v 134)

d Heb. ga'al, redeem. Not the same word trans. deliver in v 134, 153, 170

e Salvation is far from the wicked, because they do not seek God and His Word (v 155). It would be as close to them as the righteous if they would seek God and follow His ways. The Word is near all men (Rom. 10:8), but it does not profit unbelievers (Heb. 4:2)

f Compassions

g Here we have 2 more reasons for believing David was the author of this psalm. He had many persecutors and enemies (v 157), and they were all traitors. The Heb. for transgressors is bagad, traitors; treacherous men; those who deal deceitfully (v 158; 59:5; Pr. 2:22; 11:3, 6; 13:2, 15; 21:18; 22:12; 23:28). What psalmist besides David had as many enemies and traitors against him as stated in these verses?

h 2 things God requested to consider:
1 My affliction (v 153)
2 How I love Your precepts (v 159)

i Heb. rosh, head; beginning

It is used of:
1 The beginning of months (Ex. 12:2; Num. 10:10; 28:11; Ezek. 46:1) 42)
2 The beginning of revenges (Dt. 32:
3 The beginning of the middle watch (Judg. 7:19) 119:160)
4 The beginning of God's Word (Ps.
5 The beginning of the earth (Pr. 8:23; Isa. 40:21) 41; Isa. 41:26; 48:16)
6 The beginning of creation (Eccl. 3:
7 The beginning of man (Isa. 41:4) 19)
8 The beginning of watches (Lam. 2:
It can be seen from the use of rosh that the beginning referred to here is the very first of God's Word, the book of Genesis, the book of beginnings, followed by all the rest of God's revelation in the law, the prophets, and the psalms. All of it is true and eternal in its entirety. Cp. 2 Tim. 3:16

j Heb. sar, rulers; captains; princes (v 23, 161). Many leaders of Israel rebelled against David with Absalom (2 Sam. 15-18)

k Absalom had no cause for rebelling against his father. Those who followed him had less cause; hence, God brought them all to justice (2 Sam. 15-18)

l This refers to the spoil of battle. The riches of the enemy - weapons, costly garments, money, jewelry, animals, and equipment made the victor rich and happy (Gen. 14:11-12; Num. 31:9-10, 25-54; Dt. 2:35; 1 Sam. 15; 30:24; 2 Chr. 15:11) m Whether literal or figurative such a term expresses great gratitude to God for His Word (v 164). If literal, the times of day he praised God are not recorded and all speculation is valueless n Great peace is always a result of love for God and His Word (v 165; Phil. 4:7)

o True obedience to God's Word will keep any man from being offended. God not only demands that one live free from being offended, but that he offend no man (Mt. 5:29-30; 13:41; 18:6-9; Jas. 3:2) p All that I have claimed about keeping Your Word, hoping in Your salvation, and loving Your law can be verified by You, for all my ways are open to Your eyes (v 165-168)

q Here we have the last of the psalmist's prayers which are scattered throughout this lengthy psalm of 176 verses in 22 separate divisions. He prays here to be heard, to have understanding of God's Word, to have deliverance according a The word hand is used figuratively of God's power (v 173. Cp. 20:6; 21:8; Isa. 50:2; 59:1) b All men are free moral agents and must personally choose God and His precepts, and obey them or be lost (v 173). See Free moral agency, p. 264 of N. T. See Free in Index

c Men are compared to lost sheep before salvation (v 176; Isa. 53:6), and to found sheep when receiving salvation (Lk. 15: 1-7; 1 Pet. 2:25). Salvation does not make one a sheep. He is already compared to this when lost as when found; so the modern fallacy that we become sheep when saved and that we are goats before salvation is unscriptural. A sheep lost from the flock strays in such a manner as to make its own return utterly hopeless. Lost sheep will go on bleating even when answered by the flock and continue away from the sound in the direction they are going astray in, until they are out of hearing

d A prayer for God to seek man is a rare thing in Scripture. Many times God commands, exhorts, and calls upon man to seek Him as the condition of blessing (Dt. 4:29; 1 Chr. 4:39; 16:11; 28:9; 2 Chr. 7:14; 15:2; Isa. 55:6; Mt. 6:33; Col. 3:1; Heb. 11:6). This prayer was answered when God came through Christ, seeking the lost sheep (Lk. 15: 1-7; 19:10)

The psalmist began his psalm by stating the blessing of the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord (v 1). He ends it by confessing his own going astray and making a prayer for God to seek him and bring him back into the blessed way

e This last statement connects with the first verse and makes a perfect circle regarding man and his relationship with his God. If one will not forget the law of the Lord he will be a blessed and an undefiled man in the way of the Lord (v 1, 176)

f What is meant by the term Song of degrees at the heading of the next 15 psalms (120-134) is not known. Many are the guesses which are valueless in establishing the true meaning. See 10 different interpretations, p. 639

g The 15 psalms may be divided into 3 groups of 5 psalms each. The 1st psalm of each group speaks of distress and trouble (120, 123, 126, 129, 132); the 2nd psalm of each group speaks of trust and deliverance from God (121, 124, 127, 130, 133); and the 3rd psalm of each group speaks of blessing and peace upon Zion (122, 125, 128, 131, 134)

h 7 facts about prayer and the psalmist:
1 Cause of prayer - distress (v 1)
2 Experience of prayer - I cried (v 1)
3 Result of prayer - He heard me (v 1)
4 Subject of prayer-deliverance (v 2)
5 Object of prayer - soul deliverance from lying and deceit (v 2)
6 Questioning in prayer (v 3-4)
7 Complaining in prayer before answer (v 3-4)

i Questions 156-57. Next, 130:3

j Whose false and deceitful tongue this is, if any particular one, is not known. It could refer to the tongue in general. To make this the tongue of Rab-shakeh (2 Ki. 18:19-35; 19:8-13; 2 Chr. 32: 10-19; Isa. 36:4-20; 37:8-13), and the distress that of Sennacherib's seige of Jerusalem under Hezekiah (2 Ki. 19; Isa. 37) in order to make Hezekiah the author of this psalm proves nothing. David went through distress and had lying and deceitful tongues used against him also (1 Sam. 24:9; 2 Sam. 15-18; Ps. 52), and yet we cannot prove Davidic authorship on this basis

k The wood of the juniper gives an intense heat and the coals endure a long time. Hence, the sharp arrows of the mighty with coals of juniper make a good figure of severe and enduring punishment for the lying and deceitful tongue (v 4; Rev. 21:8; 22:15)

2 Four requests for salvation by the Word

173 Let thine[a]hand help me; for I have [b]chosen thy precepts.
174 I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD; and thy law is my delight.
175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me.
176 I have gone astray[c]like a lost sheep; [d]seek thy servant; for [e]I do not forget thy commandments.

PSALM 120

Seventeenth Prayer of Distress

[f]A Song of degrees. 1 Prayer of distress

IN [g]my [h]distress I cried unto the LORD, and he heard me.
2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.

2 The false tongue

3 [i]What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, [j]thou false tongue?
4 Sharp arrows of the mighty, with[k]coals of juniper.

3 Complaint to God

5 Woe is me, that I sojourn in[l]Mē'sech, that I dwell in the tents of Kē'där!
6 My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.
7 I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.

PSALM 121

Seventh Psalm of God

A Song of degrees. 1 God's help proclaimed

I [m]WILL lift up mine eyes unto [n]the hills, from whence cometh my help.
2 My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

2 Tenfold promise of help

▶3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
▶4 Behold, he that keepeth Iş'ra-el shall neither slumber nor sleep.
▶5 The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.
▶6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.
▶7 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.
▶8 The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

PSALM 122

Second Psalm of Zion

A Song of degrees of David. 1 The place of worship

I WAS glad when they said unto me, Let us go into [o]the house of the LORD.
2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

2 Jerusalem described

3 Jē-ru'sā-lēm is builded as a city that is compact together:
4 Whither the tribes [p]go up, the tribes of [q]the LORD, unto [r]the testimony of Iş'ra-el, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.
5 For there are set [s]thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of Dā'vid.

3 Admonition and benediction concerning Jerusalem

6 [t]Pray for the peace of Jē-ru'sā-lēm: they shall prosper that love thee.
7 [u]Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.
8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.
9 Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.

PSALM 123

Eighteenth Prayer of Distress

A Song of degrees. 1 The source of help

UNTO thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.
2 Behold, [v]as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

2 Two requests for help

3 [w]Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM 124

Third Psalm of Deliverance

A Song of degrees of David. 1 If God had not helped Israel

IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Iş'ra-el say;
2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us:

2 THEN: Threefold result

3 [x]Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:
4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:
5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

3 Praise for deliverance

6 [y]Blessed be the LORD, who a All males of the tribes were to assemble 3 times a year to worship and receive teaching of truth (Ex. 23:17; Dt. 16:16). Such gatherings filled the highways with pilgrims going up to give thanks (v 4) b Heb. JAH, not Jehovah as in v 1, 4, 9

c This refers to the ark of the testimony (Ex. 26:34; 30:6; 31:7; 39:35; 40:3-21)

d The public courts where justice was meted out to all according to the law e This command should still be obeyed, even by modern Christians. Prosperity is promised all who do obey it (v 6)

f Peace and prosperity go hand in hand, as war and famine do (v 7-9 with Mk. 24:6-7; Rev. 6:1-8)

g As servants and maids look for direction and sustenance from their masters, so we are dependent upon God for mercy (v 1-2)

h Here we not only have requests for mercy but another complaint of trouble and scorning by the proud (v 3-4). Who is referred to as scorning is not stated

i In this psalm we have Israel's entire trust and dependence upon God referred to. If He had not been on their side they would have been swallowed up by the wrath of the wicked (v 1-5). Because God was with them such wrath did not have the effect it was designed for. The waters of trouble passed without drowning them (v 3-5)

j 3 calamities without God:
1 We would have been swallowed up quick (alive, v 3)
2 The waters (referring to many enemies) would have overwhelmed us (v 4)
3 The proud waters would have gone over our soul (v 5) k Happy is the Lord, 14 times in Psalms God is referred to as being happy (28:6; 31:21; 41:13; 66:20; 68:19, 35; 72: 18; 89:52; 106:48; 113:2; 119:12, note; 124:6; 135:21; 144:1)

l Mesech refers to a people living in the north of Palestine and Syria between the Caspian and Black Sea (v 5; Ezek. 27:13; 32:26; 38:2-3; 39:1). Kedar refers to a people of Ishmael beyond Moab and Ammon toward the Euphrates (v 5; Gen. 25:13; Isa. 21:16-17; 42:11; 60:7; Jer. 2:10; 49:28; Ezek. 27: 21). Both terms are either used figuratively of the psalmist dwelling among barbarians in general, or they are mentioned to record his personal experience as a sojourner among these two peoples who lived a far distance from each other. The psalmist's whole idea is that of dwelling among people who hate peace and are warlike in all that they do (v 5-7). There is no record of either David or Hezekiah actually sojourning among these peoples

m As the previous psalm dealt with trouble and distress, this one deals with trust in God for help in time of trouble (v 1-8)

n God's tabernacle at this time was on the mountains of Jerusalem. So will it be forever (Isa. 2:1-4; Ezek. 43:7)

10 blessings from God in Ps. 121:
1 Help in time of trouble (v 1-2)
2 Creation of heaven and earth (v 2)
3 Stability in trouble (v 3) 3)
4 His keeping both day and night (v 5 His constant watchfulness against enemies (v 4)
6 Protection from sunstroke (v 5-6)
7 Protection from moonstroke (v 6; note c, Mt. 17:15)
8 Preservation from all evil (v 7)
9 Preservation of the soul (v 9)
10 Preservation in travel for ever (v 8)

o David was the author of 4 of the 15 Songs of degrees (122, 124, 131, 133). One, the middle one, was by Solomon (127). Of the 7 psalms before and 7 after 127, 2 are by David and 5 anonymous. In each set of 7, the name Jehovah (Lord), occurs 24 times. The name JAH occurs in the 3rd psalm of each 7 (122:4; 130:3, notes)

p Heb. the house of Jehovah (v 1). The tabernacle and temple were David's chief concern in life (2 Sam. 6-7; 1 Kl. 5:5; 1 Chr. 15:1-17:27; 21:18-29:19)

a Their teeth - the teeth of the men of v 2 b This refers to Israel as a whole, not to the psalmist as an individual (v 1–2). The plural pronoun in all the verses confirms this (v 1–8) c What particular snare Israel escaped from as a bird is not known. This could apply to any of the many times God delivered them miraculously from their enemies, any time from the deliverance out of Egypt to the time of the writing of this psalm. There are 3 outstanding facts which are clear in any such escape:
1 The weakness of Israel
2 The power of their enemies
3 The miraculous power of God
d This is just like God, who always makes a way of escape from temptation or trouble in plenty of time for men to be able to bear it and still know that it has been a miraculous deliverance (Ps. 91; 1 Cor. 10:13–14)
e If all men would realize this as much as Israel was forced to see and believe this truth, there would be many deliverances from sin, sickness, and suffering (Ps. 91; Mt. 8:17; Jn. 10:10; Jas. 5:14–16; 1 Pet. 2:24)
f 7 examples of trust in God, p. 639
g 4 eternal things
1 Mount Zion (v 1; 104:5; Eccl. 1:4)
2 Men who trust in God (v 1)
3 Mountains around Jerusalem (v 2)
4 God with His people (v 2)
h The rod of the wicked is figurative of their rule. It shall not be permanent over the righteous, lest they also become wicked (v 3) i This kind of praying is needless, for it is God's nature and law to render to everyone his just reward and to execute the law of sowing and reaping (Mt. 10:42; 16:27; Gal. 6:7–8). Man alone needs this admonition, for he is by nature selfish and sinful
j God shall punish those who backslide: who are not faithful; who give way to sin; and who leave the narrow road for the broad one (v 5; p. 284) k Here we have Israel in distress again and then delivered. This has been Israel's experience so many times it would be impossible to decide which captivity is referred to. All the servitudes of Israel under the judges and kings are considered captivities. See Judg. 5:12; 1 Sam. 30:2–5; 1 Ki. 8:46–50; 2 Ki. 5:2; 15:29. These and other passages prove that the Babylonian captivity was not the only time Israelites went into captivity. Several times Jerusalem was defeated and occupied by the enemy (1 Ki. 14:25–28; 2 Chr. 21:16–17). Therefore, to teach that this captivity is that of Judah to Babylon is stating something which cannot be proved. If this or any other psalm refers to the Babylonian captivity, then that psalm was not written by David or Hezekiah, for both lived long before that time l The idea is that deliverance from captivity was almost too good to be true (v 1–4). The news of being freed from captivity was so unexpected and sudden that we doubted the truth of it for a time. We thought ourselves in a dream
m THEN - when the Lord turned again our captivity, we were filled with joy and singing (v 2) n That the captivity was a literal one, the people being taken from Palestine to a heathen country, is clear from v 2, so this could not refer to the turning again of the fortunes of Israel, as some teach from Job 42:10; Ezek. 16:53, 55
o The heathen were forced to recognize that God had done great things for Israel (v 2) p Israel awoke to the fact of God's goodness and many mercies of the past while in trouble. It seems many can learn this lesson no other way. Would it not be better to learn it before we get into trouble?
q Note this expression is first said by the heathen in v 2, and repeated by Israel in v 3 r This is a prayer for a speedy and complete return from captivity. It refers more to the manner of the return than the fact of returning to their own land. The manner prayed for is like the streams in the south. The Heb. for south is Negeb, the hill country of Judea which flows abundantly with water in hath not given us as a prey[n] to their teeth.

7 [b]Our soul is escaped [c]as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: [d]the snare is broken, and we are escaped.
8 [e]Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

PSALM 125

Sixth Psalm of Trust
A Song of degrees. 1 Security of trusters

THEY that [f]trust in the LORD shall be [g]as mount Zi'ŏn, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.
▸2 As the mountains are round about Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.
3 For the [h]rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

2 Prayer for justice

4 [i]Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.
5 As for such as [j]turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Iş'-ra-el.

PSALM 126

Fourth Psalm of Deliverance
A Song of degrees. 1 Deliverance for Zion: result

WHEN the LORD turned again the [k]captivity of Zi'ŏn, we were [l]like them that dream.
2 [m]Then was [n]our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said [o]they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.
3 [p]The [q]LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.
4 [r]Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.

2 Sowing and reaping

▸5 [s]They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.
▸6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

PSALM 127

Seventh Psalm of Trust
A Song of degrees [t]for Solomon. 1 Human trusts are vain

[u]EXCEPT the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.
▸2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

2 Trust in God is fruitful

3 Lo, [a]children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.
4 [b]As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.
5 [c]Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

PSALM 128

Eighth Psalm of the Righteous
A Song of degrees. 1 Four personal blessings

[d]BLESSED is every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.
▸2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

2 Two family blessings

▸3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.
4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.

3 Four national blessings

▸5 The LORD shall bless thee out of Zi'ŏn: and thou shalt see the good of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm all the days of thy life.
▸6 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Iş'ra-el.

PSALM 129

Fourth Prayer-Testimony Psalm
A Song of degrees. 1 Testimony: past afflictions and deliverances

MANY a time have they [e]afflicted me from [f]my youth, may Iş'ra-el now say:
2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.
3 [g]The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.
4 The LORD is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

2 Three requests for judgment

5 [h]Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zi'ŏn.
6 [i]Let them be as the grass upon the housetops, which withereth afore it groweth up:
7 [j]Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.
8 Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of the LORD be upon you: we bless you in the name of the LORD.

a See Eternal generations, p. 639
b Each child will, in the process of time, be a defense, support, and propagation of the eternal reproduction of man and the fulfillment of the plan of God for man, as arrows in the hand of a mighty man. The more arrows one has, the more enemies he may slay, and the more powerful he will be in the earth. The more children born and saved to help God administer the affairs of the eternal plan for man, the more reward God will have (v 4) c The thought is that a man is happy if he has many children because they build up his own house and defend him and his interests against enemies (v 5) d 10 blessings of godly men (v 1, 4):
1 They shall enjoy the fruit of their own labor (v 2)
2 They shall be happy (v 2)
3 It will be well with them (v 2)
4 Their wives shall be fruitful (v 3)
5 Their children will be healthy like growing olive plants (v 3)
6 They shall be blessed of God (v 5)
7 They shall see good (v 5) (v 5)
8 They shall be blessed all their days
9 They shall live long lives (v 6)
10 They shall see peace (v 6)
e Israel is here personified as a grown man who, though having been in many troubles from his youth, is yet preserved from all enemies (v 1–2)
f The word youth refers to the early days of Israel when becoming a nation in Egypt (v 1–2; Jer. 2:2; Ezek. 16:4; Hos. 2:15) g This could refer to scourging the backs of Israel in Egyptian slavery or to literal plow-pulling yokes Israelites were forced to wear as beasts of burden (v 3-4). This latter perhaps is the true meaning, for in v 4 it states that God cut them loose from such cords of slavery
h Here is another prayer for the defeat of enemies, which is in perfect harmony with gospel praying today. When we say, "Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven", we are praying for the defeat of God's enemies, the earth destroyers. They will truly be defeated and millions killed to bring this about (Isa. 63:1–8; Ezek. 38:17–21; 39:2, 17–21; Joel 3; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11–21)
i Here we have the destruction of the wicked requested. In the East the roofs of the houses were flat. Seeds of various kinds falling on them would naturally grow but wither soon because of no deepness of earth or proper nourishment. The request is, let the wicked perish like grass withering on the housetop j If grass fell upon the housetop the mower could not make hay of it. If wheat germinated there the reaper could not bind the sheaves in his bosom, because they would wither too soon (v 7). Neither would the owner of the house be able to bless the reapers as customary in Israel (v 8; Ruth 2:4)

the time of rains
s These verses (5–6) express the great truth of sowing and reaping (Gen. 8:22; Gal. 6:7–8). The figure is of a discouraged man who has had crop failures to the point of despair, but who sows again in tears and prayer for no more failure. He sows the only seed that he has and God hears him and gives an abundant increase (v 5–6). This is generally applied to sowing the gospel and reaping souls for Christ. That is not the literal meaning, but it can be used in this sense as an application; for, it is also true, when the Word of God is sown it will produce results as He intended. God promises that His Word shall not return to Him void, but that it shall accomplish that for which it is sent (Isa. 55:11; Mt. 13:3–8, 19–23; Rom. 10:17; 2 Cor. 4:3–4; 2 Tim. 3:16; 1 Pet. 1:23)
t Of or by Solomon. This is the central one of the 15 psalms of degrees (120–134) u All works of men built independent of God are vain. This psalm teaches man to put dependence upon God for success in building lasting things - whether houses, families, business, national security, or anything else a A backslider's psalm:

1 His state or condition (v 1)
2 His prayer (v 1–4)
3 His questioning (v 3)
4 His promise (v 4, 7–8)
5 His sincerity and longing (v 5–6)
6 His hope (v 5, 7)
7 His faith and assurance (v 4, 7–8)

b Heb. maamaqqim, deep places. Used here and in Isa. 51:10; Ezek. 27:34. Also trans. deep in Ps. 69:2, 14. It can be seen from these passages that it is used in a figurative sense of the depths of sin and trouble. The fact the psalmist mentions sins, forgiveness, mercy, and redemption from all iniquities is proof that depths here refers to sin (v 3,4,7,8)

c 3 requests:
1 Hear my voice (v 2)
2 Let Your ears hear my prayer (v 2)
3 Let Israel hope in the Lord (v 7)

d Why should any hold that such statements about God are figurative, not literal? Does God have only figurative ears? Does He hear only in a figurative sense? Or, can He hear without ears? Where then is such an earless one to give us an example of what God is like, as taught in Gen. 1:26–28; Rom. 1:20? See note, Jn. 4:24

e Question 158, Next, 137:4. If God would examine the sins of men before salvation no man could stand, but all who are saved from sin are counted guiltless and could stand unless they went back into sins again (32:1–2; Isa. 1:18–20; Mt. 1:21; Rom. 6:16–23; 8:1–13; 1 Cor. 6:9–11; 2 Cor. 7:1; Gal. 5:16–26; Col. 3:5–10; Heb. 10:1–18; 12:14; 1 Jn. 1:7, 9; 2:1–2, 29; 3:8–10; 5:1–4, 18)

f Forgiveness of sins is plainly a doctrine of both testaments. See note on O. T. spiritual experiences, p. 158 of N. T.

g This gives the reason for forgiveness of sins and other mercies of God. In some cases such blessings seem to have the opposite effect (Rom. 6:1–2)

h Heb. qavah, to bind together by twisting; the extension of a cord from one point to another. The idea is that God is at one end of the cord and the human heart at the other end pulling at God and longing for Him more than those on the last watch at night long to be relieved of their duty by the coming of the day (v 5–6)

i 5 reasons Israel should hope in God:
1 God does not mark iniquities for punishment without extending mercy (v 3)
2 There is forgiveness with Him (v 4)
3 There is mercy with Him (v 7)
4 There is plenteous redemption (v 7)
5 He shall redeem from all sin (v 8)

j With God is the essence of mercy

k With Him there is abundant redemption, the very fountain for sin and uncleanness (v 7; Zech. 12:10–13:2)

l He shall make a ransom for Israel. He shall provide the great redemption price for Israel and cancel the mortgage claim of Satan over all men (v 8)

m 7fold testimony of David:
1 My heart is not haughty (v 1)
2 My eyes are not lofty (v 1)
3 I do not exercise myself in great matters (my mind is normal, v 1)
4 I do not exercise myself in things too high for me (my life is normal, v 1)
5 I have behaved like a child (v 2)
6 I have quieted myself like a child (v 2)
7 My soul is like a weaned child (v 2)

n There is no pride in my heart and no lofty look in my eyes. I do not desire what belongs to others or look down with contempt on those below me. I have not sought to meddle in high matters above me, or associate with those of higher rank. I have sought only to be humble, simple, and child-like as is befitting my station in life. I have not complained when chastened by others over me, or when driven away from home and comforts (v 1–2)

o I recognize my place under others as a subject of training and discipline should I get out of line (v 2). As a weaned child no longer cries, frets, and longs to be nursed, but is content because it is with its mother, so my soul is weaned from discontentment and is waiting and hoping in God (v 2–3) p Let Israel follow my example of satisfaction and hope, as a weaned child, forever (v 3. Cp. 130:5–8)

PSALM 130

Nineteenth Prayer of Distress

A Song of degrees. 1 Five-fold prayer of distress (3:1; 4:1; 6:1; 12:1; 13:1; 17:1; 25:1; 27:1)

OUT of the [a]depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.
2 Lord, [c]hear my voice: let thine [d]ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.
3 If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, [e]who shall stand?
▸4 But there is [f]forgiveness with thee, [g]that thou mayest be feared.

2 Waiting on God: reason

5 I wait for the LORD, my soul doth [k]wait, and in his word do I hope.
6 My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.

3 Admonition and promise to Israel

●7 Let Is'ra-el hope in the LORD: [l]for with the LORD there is [l]mercy, and with him [h]is plenteous redemption.
▸8 And he shall [l]redeem Is'ra-el from all his iniquities.

PSALM 131

Ninth Psalm of the Righteous

A Song of degrees of David.
1 His humility and trust

LORD, [m]my heart is not [n]haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.

2 His behaviour before men

2 Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, [o]as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.

3 His eternal hope in God

●3 [p]Let Is'ra-el hope in the LORD from henceforth and for ever.

PSALM 132

Third Psalm of Zion

A Song of degrees. 1 David's distress and oath

LORD, [r]remember [s]Dā'vid, and [t]all his afflictions:
2 How he sware unto the LORD, and vowed unto [u]the mighty God of Jā'cob;
3 [v]Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;
4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids,
5 [w]Until I find out a place for the LORD, an habitation for the mighty God of Jā'cob.

2 Where David found the ark

6 [x]Lo, we heard of it at Ĕph'ra-tah: [a]we found it in the fields of the [b]wood.
7 We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool.

3 Four requests for God's favor

8 [c]Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.
9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.
10 For thy servant Dā'vid's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.

4 God's oath to David

✱11 [d]The LORD hath [e]sworn in truth unto Dā'vid; he will not turn from it; [f]Of the [g]fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.
12 [h]If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore.

5 God's choice of Zion

13 For the LORD hath chosen Zi'ŏn; he hath desired it for his habitation.
14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

6 God's blessings on Zion

15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.
16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
17 There will I make the [i]horn of Dā'vid to bud: I have ordained a [j]lamp for [k]mine anointed.
18 His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

PSALM 133

Twentieth Psalm of Instruction

A Song of degrees of David. (On unity of the saints)
1 How good unity is BEHOLD, [l]how good and how pleasant it is [m]for brethren [n]to dwell together in unity!

2 Unity illustrated

2 It is like the precious [o]ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the [p]beard, even Aär'on's beard: that [q]went down to the skirts of his garments;
3 [r]As the dew of Hĕr'mon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zi'ŏn: for [s]there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

PSALM 134

Sixteenth Psalm of Praise

A Song of degrees

a We found the ark in the fields of the wood, Kirjath-jearim (v 6; 1 Chr. 13:5). We will take it to Zion into the place prepared for it. We will worship at His footstool (v 7)

b Heb. yaar, a forest; wood (v 6; 80:13; 83:14; 96:12; Dt. 19:5; Josh. 17:15, 18; 1 Sam. 14:25–26; 2 Sam. 18:6–8, 17; 1 Ki. 2:24; 1 Chr. 16:33; Eccl. 2:6; Song 2:3; Isa. 7:2; Mic. 7:14)

c Here we have David's request for the favor of God in the removal of the ark from Kirjath-jearim to a new tabernacle in Zion at Jerusalem (v 8–10; 2 Sam. 6; 1 Chr. 13). Some argue that these are the words of Solomon when he dedicated the temple (2 Chr. 6:41–42), and therefore he must be the author. But is it not possible that Solomon was using the words of David before him?

d 93rd prophecy in Ps. (132:11–18, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the Millennium when David's Son, the Messiah, reigns over the house of Jacob and David forever, Isa. 9:6–7; Lk. 1:32–33). Next, 135:13–14

e Note the vows of God in v 11–18 and contrast them with the vows of David in v 2–7.

f 15 blessings of Davidic covenant, p. 639

g Quoted in Acts 2:30

h How far different are the statements of the Bible to those of many who speak so doggedly of unconditional promises, covenants, and blessings. Here, as in every other place it is clear that conditions must be met to receive the benefits of covenants and promises; and that no blessing of law or grace can be received or maintained in life without meeting the conditions always stated in connection with the promises.

1 Very good
2 Very pleasant

p Beards were worn long by:
1 Aaron (Ps. 133:2)
2 Samson (Judg. 16:17)
3 David (1 Sam. 21:13)
4 David's men (2 Sam. 10:4)
5 Ezekiel (5:1)
Beards were shaved off by Egyptians (Gen. 41:14). They were left untrimmed in mourning (2 Sam. 19:24); plucked when a man was in despair (Ezra 9:3); and forbidden to be marred for false gods (Lev. 19:27; 21:5). Lepers were required to shave (Lev. 13:29–33; 14:9)

q Ex. 29:7; Lev. 8:12; 21:10

r The ointment was poured upon the one anointed. The dew of Hermon and Zion was plentiful even in dry weather. In the morning everything was as wet as if it had rained

s In Zion God commanded unity and life eternal (v 3). It is from here that men will be blessed forever (125:1–2; 132:13–14; 134:3; Isa. 2:2–4; 59:20–21; Rom. 11:25–29)

s 8 proofs of Davidic authorship, p. 639

t David had many afflictions (troubles, not diseases) which he prayed about many times, as is clear in his many psalms u The term refers to the mighty One Jacob vowed to in Gen. 28. This title occurs outside the Pentateuch only in v 2; Isa. 1:24 (Israel); 49:26; 60:16

v 8fold vow of David (v 2–7):
1 I will not come into my house
2 I will not go to bed
3 I will not give sleep to my eyes
4 I will not give slumber to my eyes
5 Until I find a place for God
6 Until I find Him a dwelling place
7 I will go into His tabernacle
8 I will worship at His footstool

w At this time the ark was not in its proper place, so David vowed to bring it to Zion and make a tent for it to dwell in (v 5; 2 Sam. 6; 1 Chr. 13). The ark, having been captured had never been restored to its original place (1 Sam. 4–7)

x We heard about the ark in Bethlehem Ephratah (v 6; Mic. 5:2) a 2 admonitions:

1 Bless the Lord all you servants (v 1)
2 Lift up your hands, and bless the Lord in the sanctuary (v 2) b These servants were the priests and Levites who kept guard in the house of the Lord by night (v 1; 135:1-2). There was no worship there at night

This is the last of the 15 psalms of degrees. The author is unknown, but the Syriac attributes it to David. The author of this psalm and the 135th was the same, as seems clear from comparing it with 135:1-3 c 12 meanings to lifting up of hands:

1 A sign of divine power (Ex. 9:29)
2 An act of faith (Ex. 17:12)
3 A habit in prayer (1 Ki. 8:22, 38, 54; Ps. 28:2; 88:9; Isa. 1:15) 143:6)
4 An act of seeking God (Ps. 63:3,4)
5 An act of obedience (Ps. 119:48)
6 An act of worship (Ps. 134:2; 143:
7 An act of judgment (Isa. 25:11) 6)
8 An act of creation (Isa. 45:12)
9 An invitation (Isa. 65:2) 1:17)
10 An act of despair (Jer. 4:31; Lam.
11 An act of blessing (Lk. 24:50)
12 An act approving execution (Acts 12:1)

d 3 things men are admonished to do:
1 Praise the Lord (5 times; v 1, 3, 21)
2 Sing praises (v 3)
3 Bless the Lord (5 times; v 19-21)

e Both the Lord and His name are to be praised and blessed (v 1, 3, 19-21)

PSALM 135

Seventeenth Psalm of Praise
1 Sixfold admonition to praise God

[d]PRAISE ye the LORD. [d]Praise ye [e]the name of the LORD; praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.
●2 [f]Ye that stand in the house of the LORD, in the [g]courts of the house of our God, ●3 Praise the LORD; [h]for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his [i]name; for it is pleasant.

2 Sixteenfold greatness of God

4 For the LORD hath chosen Já'cob unto himself, and Ĭs'ra-el for his [j]peculiar treasure.
5 For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all [k]gods.
6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.
7 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasuries.
8 Who smote the firstborn of Ĕ'gўpt, both of man and beast.
9 Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Ĕ'gўpt, upon Phā'raōh, and upon all his servants.
10 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings;
11 Sī'hŏn king of the Ăm'ŏr-ītes, and Óg king of Bā'shăn, and all the kingdoms of Că'năan:
12 And gave their land for an heritage, an heritage unto Ĭs'ra-el his people.
★13 [l]Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever; and [m]thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.
14 [n]For the LORD will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants.

3 Eightfold vanity of idols and idolaters

15 [o]The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.
16 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;
17 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.
18 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

4 Sixfold admonition to praise God

●19 [p]Bless the LORD, O house of Ĭs'ra-el: bless the LORD, O house of Aâr'on:
●20 Bless the LORD, O house of Lĕ'vi: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD.
●21 Blessed be the LORD [q]out of Zi'ŏn, which dwelleth at Jĕ-rų'să-lĕm. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 136

Eighteenth Psalm of Praise
1 Sevenfold admonition to praise God

●[r]O [s]GIVE thanks unto the LORD; [t]for [u]he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.
●2 O give thanks unto [v]the God of gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.
●3 O give thanks to the [w]Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Twenty-twofold greatness of God

4 To him who alone doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.
5 To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.
6 To him that [x]stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.
7 To him that [y]made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever:
8 The sun to rule by day: for his mercy endureth for ever:
9 The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever.
10 To him that smote Ĕ'gўpt in their firstborn: for his mercy endureth for ever:
11 And brought out Ĭs'ra-el from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever:
12 With a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever.
13 To him which divided the Red sea into parts: for his mercy endureth for ever:
14 And made Ĭs'ra-el to pass through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever:
15 But overthrew Phā'raōh and his host in the Red sea: for his mercy endureth for ever.
16 To him which led his people through the wilderness: for his mercy endureth for ever.
17 To him which smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever:
18 And slew famous kings: for his mercy endureth for ever:
19 Sī'hŏn king of the Ăm'ŏr-ites: for his mercy endureth for ever:
20 And Óg the king of Bā'shăn: for his mercy endureth for ever:
21 And gave [z]their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever:
22 Even an heritage unto Ĭs'ra-el his servant: for his mercy endureth for ever.
23 Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth for ever:
24 And hath [a]redeemed us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.

a This indicates the psalm is an enlargement of Ps. 134 and by the same author b In this psalm we have 26 admonitions to give thanks to God; one for each verse c 2 reasons to give thanks to God:
1 For He is good (v 1)
2 For His mercy endureth for ever, a term used 26 times; once in each verse d 28 facts about God, p. 639
e Heb. Elohim of the elohim, Gods of the gods (note k, 135:5; 286 of N. T.)
f Heb. Adonim of the adonim, Sovereign of sovereigns; Master of masters; and Ruler of rulers (v 3) g This states that originally the earth was created above the waters, but in Gen. 1:2 the earth is below the waters. What made the difference? The sin and rebellion of Lucifer and the pre-Adamites caused God to flood the earth, submerging it with water to destroy all life on it. See notes on Gen. 1-2; Ps. 104:5-9; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; 2 Pet. 3:5-8. In Gen. 1:1; Ps. 104:5; 2 Pet. 3:5 we have the earth at original creation above and out of the water, but in Gen. 1:2; Ps. 104:6; 2 Pet. 3:6 we have the earth below and under the water. In Gen. 1:3-2:25; Ps. 104:7-9; 2 Pet. 3:7 we have the earth restored from the first flood to a second habitable state, being made dry again for the habitation of Adam's race. One is called the world that THEN WAS (before the world that now is); the other is called the heavens and the earth, which are NOW. Between the two worlds we have the flood that destroyed the first social system, making it necessary to have a new one in Adam's day (Gen. 1:2; Ps. 104:6; 2 Pet. 3:6). There were 3 times when God stretched out the earth above the waters:
1 When He originally created the earth, making it dry land to be inhabited (Gen. 1:1; Ps. 104:5-6; 136:6; Isa. 45:18; 2 Pet. 3:5)
2 When He restored the earth to a second habitable state and made Adam's creation (Gen. 1:3-2:25; Ps. 104:7-9; 2 Pet. 3:7)
3 When He made the earth dry again after Noah's flood (Gen. 6-8). The next time the earth is to be made new it will be by fire, not by water (2 Pet. 3:7, 10-13; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28; Rev. 20:7-10)
h God originally made the sun, moon, and stars to rule the day and night, back before Lucifer's kingdom (v 7-9; Job 38:4-7). They carried out their creative purposes all the time of the pre-Adamites, until Lucifer rebelled and God made the earth dark and flooded by withholding the lights from the earth and by bringing the first universal flood before Adam's time (Gen. 1:2; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ps. 104:5-9; 2 Pet. 3:5-8). The work of days 1-4 of Gen. 1:3-19 was a restoration of the earth, the light, darkness, waters in the clouds, vegetation, and lights from the sun, moon, and stars, as throughout all of Lucifer's kingdom, so that the new creation of Adamites might live on earth as the pre-Adamites did i The land of Sihon, Og, and the other kings (great kings; famous kings) of v 17-20. It is not necessary to believe a verse is missing here, for the kings' names show whose lands were given to Israel j Heb. parak, to break; rescue, showing what kind of redemption is referred to. Israel was delivered from her enemies (v 15-24)

2 The house of Aaron (v 19)
3 The house of Levi (v 20)
4 All that fear the Lord (v 20)
5 The inhabitants of Jerusalem (v 21)

a Psalms 135 and 136 are a pair, and have corresponding structure when viewed together. Note the similarity in the outlines of the 2 psalms:
1 Exhortation to praise (135:1-5 with 136:1-3) 136:4-9)
2 Creative wonders (135:6-7 with 3 Deliverance from Egypt (135:8-9 with 136:10-15)
4 Deliverance on the journey from Egypt (135:10-11 with 136:16-20)
5 The gift of the land (135:12-13 with 136:21-22)
6 God's goodness to His people (135:14 with 136:23-24)
7 False gods (135:15-18) contrasted with the true God (136:25)
8 Praise (135:19-21 with 136:26)

b These rivers would be Tigris and Euphrates with their various branches and canals. It was customary for Jews to hold their religious meetings on the banks of rivers (Acts 16:13) c 8 acts of Babylonian captives, p. 639

d This no doubt refers to the Babylonians, as they are the only captors referred to in this psalm (v 1, 8). What is not clear is whether it refers to the Babylonians under the Assyrians who took some captives when the cities of Judah fell in Hezekiah's day (Isa. 36:1-37:38), or to the Babylonians under Nebuchadnezzar when the 2 tribes were taken captive 133 years later (2 Ki. 24-25; 2 Chr. 36). Whatever the time, this was a past experience of some who were still in captivity, or who had returned from captivity and were recounting their actions in Babylon

e Question 159. Next, 139:7. How shall we sing a psalm of the Lord's? How can we do it when we remember Zion? Perhaps the occasion was after the hard work of the day when captives gathered to spend time in worship. When about to sing a song of Zion they were moved with such deep emotion and distress about the state of their beloved land that they could not sing, so hung their harps upon the willow trees

f Whoever the author was it was one of the musicians of Israel who had been in captivity. If I forget Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her ability to play the harp. If I forget Zion, let my tongue be dumb (v 5-6)

g This expresses the great love of the author for his native land and city

h The author prays for vengeance on the children of Edom who rejoiced in the fall of Jerusalem and demanded it to be completely destroyed, even to the foundation (v 7). Cp. Jer. 12:6; 25:14; Lam. 4:21-22; Ezek. 25:12; Oba. 11-14

i 95th prophecy in Ps. (137:8-9, fulfilled). Next, 138:4-5. The psalmist turns his attention to the fall of Babylon, and then pronounces a blessing upon the ones who will bring this to pass (v 8-9)

j 5fold vow of the psalmist:
1 I will praise You with my whole heart (v 1) gods (v 1)
2 I will sing praise to You before the
3 I will worship toward Your holy temple (v 2) lovingkindness (v 2) 4 I will praise Your name for Your 5 I will praise Your name for Your truth (v 2) k Heb. elohim, gods. See note k, 135:5

l The reason for praise given here is because God has magnified His Word above His name (v 2) m Another example of answered prayer. David had many answers from God through his many years of fellowship with the Almighty

7 examples of answered prayer:
1 Jacob (Gen. 35:3)
2 Moses (Ex. 19:19; Ps. 99:6)
3 Aaron (Ps. 99:6)
4 Samuel (1 Sam. 10:22; Ps. 99:6)
5 David (1 Sam. 23:4; 30:8; 2 Sam. 21:1; 1 Chr. 21:28; Ps. 138:3)
6 Job (Job 40:1)
7 Jesus (Jn. 11:41-42)

n Spiritual strength is always the result of answered prayer (v 3)

o 96th prophecy in Ps. (138:4-5, unfulfilled). Next, 139:19. This will be fulfilled when all kings of the earth shall serve God, praise Him, and hear His words in the eternal reign of God and Christ on earth (2:8; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Zech. 14; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-6)

PSALM 137

Fifth Prayer-Testimony Psalm

1 Testimony of captivity to Babylon

[b]BY the rivers of Bǎb'ỹ-lon, there [c]we sat down, yea, we went, when we remembered Zi'ŏn.

2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

3 For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and [d]they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zi'ŏn.

4 [e]How shall we sing the LORD's song in a strange land?

5 If I forget thee, O Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, [f]let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; [g]if I prefer not Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm above my chief joy.

2 Prayer against Edom

7 [h]Remember, O LORD, the children of E'dom in the day of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof.

3 Prophecy against Babylon

●8 [i]O daughter of Bǎb'ỹ-lon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

9 Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

PSALM 138

Tenth Prayer-Praise Psalm
A Psalm of David. 1 Sixfold vow to praise God (26:1; 50:14; 116:14-18; Lev. 27:1-33)

[j]I WILL praise thee with my whole heart: before [k]the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: [l]for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

2 Testimony of answered prayer

3 In the day when I cried thou [m]answeredst me, [n]and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

3 Chief reason for evangelization of heathen

●4 [o]All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy [p]mouth.

5 Yea, [q]they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

4 God's true nature

6 Though [r]the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: [s]but the proud he knoweth afar off.

5 God's dealings with men

▶7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, [t]thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

▶8 The LORD [u]will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: [v]forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM 139

Eighth Psalm of God
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. 1 Tenfold omniscience of God

O LORD, [a]thou hast [b]searched me, and known me.

2 Thou knowest my [c]down-sitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought [d]afar off.

3 Thou [e]compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

2 Admiration of God

6 [f]Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

3 Tenfold omnipresence of God

7 [g]Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy [h]presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in [i]hell, behold, [j]thou art there.

9 If I take [k]the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast [l]possessed my [m]reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

4 Admiration of God

14 I will praise thee; for I am [n]fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

a If, as some teach, God is a mouthless, bodiless being where would His words come from? If from something that does not exist, it is a miracle indeed. Common sense, as well as Scripture demands us to believe in a real God with body, soul, and spirit as other beings have, though not necessarily a flesh and blood body. Spirit bodies are just as real and tangible with bodily parts as ours. See note, Jn. 4:24

b All the kings of the earth shall sing in the ways of the Lord when Messiah comes to reign (v 4-5) c The Lord never is so exalted but what He fellowships with and cares for the most lowly of men (v 6) d This expresses the same truth as Jas. 4:6, "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble." To have a nature like God's with a blending of authority, power, importance, and humility is to be coveted

e Literally, You will keep me alive in the midst of trouble, and preserve me from my enemies (v 7)

f Whatever is necessary beyond keeping me alive in trouble and preserving me from enemies the Lord will do it for me (v 8)

g The only request in this psalm (v 8). Contrast this with the scores of requests in previous psalms of David. Either he was learning to pray and worship God without so much begging, or the problems were less

j You know all my movements

k How can He know them before the existence of a person and before he has thoughts to know? Nothing is ever said of God knowing all persons and all their thoughts in all the dateless past, billions of years before such persons come into existence

l Heb. zarah, winnow; sift; fan; scrutinize. You scrutinize my path and my den, and you inspect all my ways. You know all about me - my works, ways, and words, even my thoughts while they are forming (v 3-5)

m Such knowledge of God about me, my reasons, essences, tendencies, issues of life, and secret traits is beyond me (v 6)

n Questions 160-161. Next, v 21

o Heb. panim, faces. The word is used 67 times in the plural of both God and man, as "in the presence (faces) of all his brethren" (Gen. 16:12; 25:18). This could plainly refer to the plurality of persons in the Godhead. See 89 proofs of a Trinity, p. 280 of the N. T.

p 3 realms God operates in:
1 Heaven (v 8)
2 Hell (v 8)
3 Earth (v 9-12)

q Heb. sheol, the unseen world. See notes on Hell, p. 620

r In what sense is God in hell? In the same sense that His presence is everywhere. His personal body is not in hell and never has been there except to create it (Mt. 25:41), as far as we know. Christ went to sheol during the 3 days and 3 nights His body was in the tomb (Ps. 16:10; Mt. 12:40; Acts 2:25-32; Eph. 4:8-10; 1 Pet. 3:19). Though God's personal body is only at one place at a time, His presence is felt in all parts of the universe. No man can escape His presence even though he cannot see God's body due to the distance from earth to heaven where He dwells. See p. 623, col. 4 s The wings of the sun meaning, If I go quickly with the light toward the east, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea (v 9), God shall lead me and hold me in the day or the light of the sun (v 10). If I go westward into the darkness of the night, even darkness and night will be as light to You as in the sunlight of the day (v 11-12)

t Heb. qanah, to acquire; set up; erect (v 13; Pr. 8:22). According to the context it does not mean here to possess or hold in power, but to fashion or grow together in the womb (v 13-14)

u The Hebrews believed that the reins were the first part of the human fetus to be formed, so here it may refer to laying the foundation of being. This seems clear from the fact that it speaks of the formation in the womb (v 13) and of being fearfully and wonderfully made (v 14)

v See The doctrine of man, p. 618

a My frame of bones – the skeleton, and the external covering of muscular flesh, tendons, veins, arteries, nerves, and skin were curiously wrought

b Heb. ragam, to variegate; diversify with colors, i. e., to embroider; fabricate; make curious work. It is trans. curiously wrought here; embroiderer (Ex. 35:35; 38:23); and needlework (Ex. 26:36; 27:16; 28:29; 36:37; 38:18; 39:29). Here it refers to the intricate weaving and growth of the human body from conception to the full development of the child

c The womb of the mother – the center of the human body where the child is formed (v 15)

d Heb. golem, a wrapped-up and unformed mass, as the embryo being imperfect or not fully developed (v 16). Not the same word for substance (Heb. otsem) as defined in note a, above. Here the reference is to the embryo stage of growth, from the fertilized egg until organs have developed so that it can live independently. In this stage it is stated that all the human members are contained or written in the book of God (v 16). Even all the hairs of the head are numbered or recorded (Mt. 10:30)

e Heb. sepher, book; writing; document; register; scroll. See God's book, p. 640

f The days which God has ordained for the different members of the body, soul, and spirit to be fashioned through embryo and fetus stages to full development as a perfect human being (v 16)

g How important, rational, and weighty are those facts of the formation of the human being and his life record. If they were weighed they would be heavier than the sands of the sea. One cannot reach the end of them. I busy myself with them on my bed until I fall asleep. When I awake I find myself occupied with them (v 17-18)

h 97th prophecy in Ps. (139:19, being fulfilled continually in God meting out the death penalty to all who sin, Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 1:29-32; 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8). Next, 140:9

2 Take God's name in vain

k Questions 162-163. Next, 147:17. In these 2 verses we have the normal abhorrence of sins of the wicked by the righteous (v 21-22). All who hate God and all who rebel against Him are to be counted as enemies of the righteous

PSALM 140

Eleventh Prayer for Judgment

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. 1 Four requests: ten sins of the wicked

[m]DELIVER me, O LORD, from the [n]evil man: preserve me from the violent man;

2 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war.

3 They have sharpened [o]their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Sē'lah.

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have hid a [p]snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Sē'lah.

2 Seven requests for judgment on the wicked

6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

7 O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, [q]thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; [a]lest they exalt themselves. Sē'lah.

★9 [b]As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

10 [c]Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

11 Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

3 Confidence of the righteous

12 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

PSALM 141

Fourth Prayer Psalm

A Psalm of David. 1 Four requests for an audience

LORD, I cry unto thee: [d]make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee [e]as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

2 Four requests to be kept from sin

3 [f]Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

3 Two requests to be reproved by the righteous

5 [g]Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: [h]for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

4 Four requests to be kept from the snares of the wicked

★6 [i]When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

7 [j]Our bones are scattered at the [k]grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8 [l]But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape.

PSALM 142

a 15 reasons why God should answer:
1 For deliverance of His people (v 1)
2 For preservation of His own (v 1, 4)
3 For safe keeping of His own (v 4)
4 To thwart the purpose of the wicked
5 That the righteous may escape the snares set by the wicked (v 4-5)
6 To encourage men to pray (v 6)
7 That the desires of the wicked may not be granted (v 8) (v 8)
8 Lest the wicked become exalted
9 That they may be punished (v 10)
10 That they might not be established in the earth in sin (v 11) (v 11)
11 That they may reap what they sow
12 To maintain the cause of the troubled soul (v 12)
13 That justice might be meted out to the poor (v 12) thanks (v 13)
14 That the righteous may give 15 That the upright may dwell in God's presence (v 13)

b 98th prophecy in Ps. (140:9-13, V 9 has been fulfilled in the punishment upon Absalom and others as in 2 Sam. 18:9 to 10 will be fulfilled in the final judgment and the lake of fire as in Rev. 20:11-15; v 11-13 have been partially fulfilled, and will be completely fulfilled under the Messiah when He reigns. See 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21:3-7). Next, 141:6

c 4fold description of going to hell (v 10):
1 Burning coals falling upon the wicked on Hell, p. 620
2 Being cast into the fire. See notes
3 Being cast into deep pits
4 Never to rise again. This could refer only to the judgment of the wicked dead and their eternal punishment after the 2nd and final resurrection (Rev. 20:11-15)

d See 15 requests of David, p. 640

e Incense was kept burning perpetually before the Lord (Ex. 30:1-9) and offerings were made morning and evening (Ex. 29:39; Num. 28:4). Both were fit symbols of prayer (v 2)

f Here David recognizes that he must keep his mouth and tongue from uttering anything his enemies could use against him. To this end he even refuses to eat of their pleasant things (v 3-4)

g Here we have a verse that is much misunderstood; but it becomes simple to understand when we see that David is praying for chastening by the hands of the righteous and not by those of the wicked. The righteous will chasten in kindness and his reproof will not be to destroy, like that of the wicked (v 5)

h The prayer is for calamities or punishment of the wicked for their wickedness, not for judgment upon the righteous. The Peshitta version reads, "Let the righteous teach me and reprove me; let the oil of the wicked not anoint my head since my prayer has been against their evils." The oil of the wicked perhaps refers to his smooth flattering speeches. The psalmist desires to be reproved by the righteous rather than the oily talk of the flatterer

i 99th prophecy in Ps. (141:6, fulfilled). Next, 145:4. In these verses David is praying to be kept from the snares of the wicked, and looks forward to the time when they will be punished (v 6-10). When the judges or leaders of the people are overthrown, they (the people) shall hear my words, which are sweet (v 6)

j Some versions read, "Their bones" those of the judges of v 6. When they are scattered at the mouth of sheol and they themselves go down into sheol, then deliver me from all the wicked (v 7-10) k Heb. sheol, not the grave (see Hell, p. 620). The mouth of sheol would refer to the surface of the earth from which dead bodies, the souls, and spirits of the wicked descend into hell. The description is one of dead bodies strewn over the earth like chips that fall when wood is cut (v 7)

l From seeing the destruction of the wicked his eyes are turned to God of whom he makes 4 requests to escape the snares of the wicked and their destiny (v 8-10) a 6 acts of David in the cave:

1 I cried unto the Lord (v 1)
2 I made supplication to Him (v 1)
3 I poured out my complaint to Him
4 I showed Him my trouble (v 2) (v 2)
5 I looked for help and found none (v 4)
6 I settled it that God was my only help and refuge and told Him so (v 5)

This was either the cave of Adullam (1 Sam. 22:1) or En-gedi (1 Sam. 24:3). Perhaps the latter was the right cave because:
1 David was not deep enough in trouble when in Adullam to be so overwhelmed as in this case (v 2-3)
2 Saul and his army had laid a snare for him when he was in the cave of En-gedi, but not while he was in Adullam (v 3; 1 Sam. 24)
3 In Adullam David was not in extreme danger as Saul was not then after him with an army; but in En-gedi Saul's army completely surrounded him, not knowing it (v 4; 1 Sam. 24)
4 There was no way of escape and no help except from God when in En-gedi. David was in extreme helplessness unless God undertook (v 4-5; 1 Sam. 24)
5 Refuge failed him in En-gedi, i.e., he was at the end of all places to go for refuge (v 4; 1 Sam. 24), but in Adullam that was not so (1 Sam. 22)
6 God was his only refuge in En-gedi (v 5; 1 Sam. 24), but in Adullam many were coming to him, so he was not completely dependent upon God (1 Sam. 22)
7 David was brought down very low in En-gedi (v 6; 1 Sam. 24). This was not true of him in Adullam in 1 Sam. 22
8 David's prayer for deliverance from his persecutors (v 6-7) indicates that his enemies had him surrounded and were in possession of his only means of escape other than God (1 Sam. 24). This was not true of Adullam (1 Sam. 22)
9 The Heb. word for persecutors in v 6 is radaph, meaning pursuers. While in Adullam he was not being pursued by Saul as in En-gedi (1 Sam. 24)
10 His prayer to be delivered from prison (v 7) indicates that he was imprisoned in the cave, Saul and his men being in possession of the entrance (1 Sam. 24). This was not true of Adullam (1 Sam. 22)

b No man other than David's few followers cared to know him or cared for his soul. In such dire straits he turned to God as his only refuge (v 4-5) c 3 requests of David in the cave:

1 Attend unto my cry (v 6)
2 Deliver me from my pursuers (v 7)
3 Bring my soul out of this cave (v 7)

d 3 reasons for his 3 requests:
1 I am brought very low (v 6)
2 My enemies are stronger than I (v 6)
3 That I may praise Your name (v 7)

e 2 statements of faith for an answer:
1 The righteous shall compass me about instead of the wicked who now surround me (v 7) (v 7)
2 You will deal bountifully with me
True prayer must always be accompanied by faith for the answer - believe that you receive and you shall receive (Mt. 21:22; Mk. 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

f See 16 requests of David in Ps. 143, p. 640

g See 20 reasons for David's requests, p. 640

h There is one and only one condition of man when this statement could apply. Man in sin and outside of God cannot possibly be justified. But everyone who is saved by grace through faith is automatically justified (Lk. 18:14; Acts 13:39; Rom. 2:12; 3:24, 26; 4:2; 5:1, 9; 8:30; 1 Cor. 6:11; Gal. 2:16-17; 3:24; Tit. 3:7; Jas. 2:21-25). See Justification p. 190 of N. T.

i This verse refers to Saul who had driven David away from his inheritance, his family, his place of worship, and everything else that was dear to him. Saul made him dwell in darkness (in dark places of hiding), as though he were dead (v 3)

Sixth Prayer-Testimony Psalm

Maschil (instruction) of David; A Prayer when he was in the cave. 1 Tenfold testimony

I [a]CRIED unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.
2 I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble.
3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.
4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; [b]no man cared for my soul.
5 I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

2 Three requests for deliverance from persecution

6 [c]Attend unto my cry; [d]for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.
7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; [e]for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

PSALM 143

Twentieth Prayer of Distress. A Psalm of David.

1 Four requests for mercy

[f]HEAR my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.
2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: [g]for [h]in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

2 Eightfold prayer of distress

3 For [i]the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.
4 Therefore is [j]my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.
5 [k]I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.
6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: [l]my soul thirsteth after thee, [m]as a thirsty land. Se'lah.

3 Eleven requests for deliverance from trouble

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.
8 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.
9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: I flee unto thee to hide me.
10 [n]Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: [o]thy spirit is good; lead me into the [p]land of uprightness.
11 [q]Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.
12 And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

PSALM 144

Eleventh Prayer-Praise Psalm

A Psalm of David. 1 Ten reasons to praise God

BLESSED be the LORD [a]my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:
2 My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who [f]subdueth my people under me.

2 Fourfold vanity of man

3 LORD, [g]what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!
4 Man is [h]like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

3 Eight requests to deliver from enemies

5 [i]Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.
7 Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great [j]waters, from the hand of strange children;
8 [k]Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

4 Two vows: two reasons

9 I will [l]sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.
10 [m]It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth Da'vid his servant from the hurtful sword.

5 Two requests: ten reasons

11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:
12 [n]That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace:
13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of a See note c, 119:12

b Here we have one of many scriptures stating that God has a personal Spirit, like angels, men, and other living beings. The spirit of any person is that which knows (1 Cor. 2:11). God also has a soul (Isa. 42:1; Heb. 10:38), and a body (Ezek. 1:26; Dan. 7:9-10; 10:5-6; Rev. 4:3; etc.). See note, Jn. 4:24 c This perhaps refers to the place that is safe from his enemies of v 9, 12. If it refers to the time of Absalom, he needed to pray for guidance as to where to flee to be safe (2 Sam. 15-18)

d Keep me alive by bringing my soul out of trouble and cutting off my enemies (v 11-12)

e 10 things Jehovah is:
1 My strength (v 1)
2 My teacher of warfare (v 1)
3 My goodness (v 2)
4 My fortress (v 2)
5 My high tower (v 2)
6 My deliverer (v 2)
7 My shield (v 7)
8 My trust (v 2)
9 My conqueror (v 2)
10 My deliverer (v 10)

f Subduing David's people under him suggests that this was written immediately after the putting down of the rebellion of Absalom (2 Sam. 18). This was the only time in David's life that his people rebelled against him

g Compare Ps. 8:4

h 2 things man is like (v 4):
1 Vanity
2 A shadow that passes away

i 10 requests of David in Ps. 144:
1 Bow Your heavens (v 5)
2 Come down from heaven (v 5)
3 Touch the mountains (v 5)
4 Cast forth lightning (v 6) 11)
5 Scatter them (enemies of v 2, 7-8,
6 Shoot out Your arrows (v 6) 8, 11)
7 Destroy them (enemies of v 2, 7-8 Send Your hand from above (v 7)
9 Rid me of enemies (v 2, 7-8, 11)
10 Deliver me out of their hand (v 7-8)

j Waters in figurative language means people (Rev. 17:15). Great waters would mean great multitudes (v 7) k 2 great sins of men in general:

1 Speaking vanity (v 8, 11)
2 Falsehood (v 8, 11)

l 2 vows of David:
1 I will sing a new song to God (v 9)
2 I will sing praises accompanied by musical instruments (v 9)

m 2 works of God (v 10):
1 Gives salvation to kings
2 Delivers David from the sword

n 7 reasons for deliverance from enemies:
1 That our sons may live (v 11-12)
2 That our daughters may be strong and beautiful (v 12)
3 That our garners may be full (v 13)
4 That our sheep may be plentiful (v 13) (v 14)
5 That our oxen may work in peace
6 That there may be no plunder and captivity (v 14)
7 That there may be no complaining in our streets (v 14) made desolate by being driven away from all that was dear to him (v 4. Cp. 77:3; 107:5; 142:3) k David set a true example for all men in distress. He did not give up God or lose faith, but trusted fully in Him to bring him out of his troubles, and He did (Ps. 18:19; 28:6; 34:4, 6)

l 7 things to do in distress:
1 Remember the days of old when God delivered from all troubles (v 5; 34:4-8)
2 Meditate on God's works (v 5)
3 Muse on the works of His hands (v 5)
4 Stretch out the hands in prayer (v 6)
5 Thirst after God as thirsty land (v 6)
6 Lift up the soul to God (v 8)
7 Flee to God and hide in Him (v 9)

m A thirsty land will drink in all that it can hold of rain. So must the soul take in all of God that it can hold if it wants His blessing (v 6) a 8 things that constitute happiness: the 7 things of note n, v 12 and the 8th - to have Jehovah as God (v 15). Cp. with the 14 things that constitute happiness in 146:5-10

b 8fold vow of David to praise God:
1 I will extol You, my God and King (v 1)
2 I will bless Your name for ever and ever (v 1)
3 I will bless You every day (v 2)
4 I will praise Your name for ever and ever (v 2)
5 I will speak of Your glorious honour and majesty (v 5) works (v 5)
6 I will speak of Your wonderful
7 I will declare Your greatness (v 6)
8 I will speak the praise of the Lord (v 21)

c 10 proofs of greatness of God:
1 He is great (v 3)
2 He is greatly to be praised (v 3)
3 His greatness is unsearchable (v 3)
4 Every generation shall praise Your works (v 4)
5 Every generation shall declare Your mighty acts (v 4, 6)
6 I (David) will speak of the glorious honour of Your majesty (v 5)
7 I (David) will speak of Your wonderful works (v 5, 6)
8 All men shall speak of the might of Your terrible acts (v 6)
9 They shall abundantly utter the memory of Your great goodness (v 7)
10 They shall sing of Your righteousness (v 7)

g 12 things Jehovah is in Ps. 145:
1 God (v 1)
2 King (v 1)
3 Great (v 3)
4 Gracious (v 8)
5 Full of compassion (v 8)
6 Slow to anger (v 8)
7 Great in mercy (v 8)
8 Good to all (v 9) tion (v 9)
9 Tender and merciful to all crea-
10 Righteous in all His ways (v 17)
11 Holy in all His works (v 17)
12 Near to all who pray in truth (v 18)

1 Gracious (v 8) 5 Good (v 9)
2 Compassionate (v 8) 6 Tender (v 9)
3 Self-controlled (v 8) 7 Righteous
4 Merciful (v 9) 8 Holy (v 17)

i 103rd prophecy in Ps. (145:10-13, unfulfilled, but will be fulfilled in the Millennium and the New Earth). Next, v 20

8 eternal-kingdom facts:
1 All Your works shall praise You (v
2 Your saints shall bless You (v 10) 10)
3 They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom (v 11)
4 They shall talk of Your power (v 11)
5 They shall make Your wonderful acts known to all men (v 12; Isa. 11:9)
6 They shall make the glorious majesty of Your kingdom known to all men (v 12)
7 Your kingdom is eternal (v 13)
8 There will be eternal generations of natural people (v 13; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 21:4-5)

j 14fold providence of God:
1 He upholds all that fall (v 14)
2 Raises up all that are bowed down (v 14)
3 All eyes look to Him for life (v 15)
4 He gives all their meat in due season
5 Satisfies every living thing (v 16)
6 Is righteous in all ways (v 17)
7 Is holy in all His works (v 17)
8 Is nigh to all who pray (v 18)
9 Is nigh to all who pray in truth
10 Fulfills the desire of them that fear Him (v 19)
11 Listens to their cry (v 19)
12 Saves them that fear Him (v 19)
13 Preserves all that love Him (v 20) 14 Will destroy the wicked (v 20)

k He helps all that cannot keep their feet - the weak and infirm. He shores them up. He is their prop. If they will rely on God the strongest power cannot overcome them (1 Cor. 10:13)

PSALM 145

Nineteenth Psalm of Praise. David's Psalm of praise. 1 Fourfold personal praise to God

I WILL extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

2 Twelvefold greatness of God

3 [c]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 [d]One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

6 [e]And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness.

7 [f]They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

3 Sixfold character of God

8 [g]The LORD is [h]gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

9 The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

4 Conditions of the eternal kingdom

10 [i]All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

5 Fifteenfold providence of God

14 The LORD [j]upholdeth all that [k]fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15 The [l]eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in [m]due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, and [n]satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17 [o]The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

18 The LORD is [p]nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him [q]in truth.

19 He will [r]fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 The LORD preserveth all them [s]that love him: but [t]all the wicked will he destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and [u]let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

PSALM 146

Twentieth Psalm of Praise 1 Fourfold praise to God

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 [v]While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

2 Frailty of man: wrong trust

3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, [w]in whom there is no help.

4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; [x]in that very day his thoughts perish.

3 Fifteenfold greatness of God: right trust

5 [y]Happy is he that hath [z]the God of Jā'cob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:

6 Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:

7 Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. The LORD looseth the prisoners:

8 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

9 The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 [aa]The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zi'ŏn, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 147

Twenty-first Psalm of Praise 1 Praise: ten acts of God

PRAISE ye the LORD: [bb]for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

2 [cc]The LORD doth build up Jē-ru'sā-lēm: he gathereth together the outcasts of Is'ra-el.

3 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

2 Those who fear God (85:9)
3 Those broken in heart (34:18) 8)
4 Those who draw nigh to God (Jas. 4:
3 important things nigh to man:
1 God (Dt. 4:7; Ps. 145:18)
2 The Word of God (Dt. 30:14; rom.
3 Salvation (Ps. 85:9) 10:8)

b Emphasis is placed upon praying in truth with an upright heart and desiring God and His mercies (v 18)

c 12 things God will do for praying men:
1 Be gracious to them (v 8) (v 8)
2 Manifest His compassion to them
3 Be slow of anger with them (v 8)
4 Shew them great mercy (v 8)
5 Be good to them (v 9)
6 Uphold them if they fall, are bowed down and defeated (v 14)
7 Provide for them (v 15-16)
8 Satisfy their desires (v 16, 19)
9 Be always near them (v 18; Jas. 4:8)
10 Hear their prayers (v 19)
11 Save them (v 19)
12 Preserve them (v 20)

d 7 conditions of gospel benefits:
1 Repent - confess sins (2 Chr. 7:14; Lk. 13:1-5; 1 Jn. 1:9)
2 Obey - keep the commandments (Ex. 15:26; Pr. 3:1-4; 1 Jn. 3:21-22)
3 Fear God (34:9-10; Eccl. 12:13)
4 Love God (v 20; Mt. 22:37; Jn. 14:15)
5 Walk uprightly (84:11)
6 Abide in Christ and have His word abiding in us (Jn. 15:7, 16; Rom. 10:17)
7 Have faith (Mt. 21:22; Mk. 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

e 104th prophecy in Ps. (145:20, unfulfilled). Next, 146:10

f David recognized the oft repeated Bible doctrine of eternal generations of natural people, or he would not have admonished all flesh to praise God eternally (v 21)

g 4 admonitions of Ps. 146:
1 Praise you the Lord (v 1, 10)
2 Praise the Lord, O my soul (v 1)
3 Put not your trust in princes (v 3)
4 Put not your trust in any man (v 3-4)

h 2 vows of Ps. 146:
1 I will praise God while I live (v 2)
2 I will sing praises to God as long as I have my being (v 2)

i 4 reasons not to trust in man:
1 There is no sure help in any man (v 3)
2 Man's breath soon leaves the body and he is helpless to help (v 4)
3 Man's body soon goes to dust again and he cannot help (v 4)
4 Man's very thoughts leave the body, and it cannot help one any more than any other dust (v 4)

j As far as the body is concerned, the thoughts do perish. When it dies and goes back to dust its very thoughts perish, i.e., it cannot think any more (Gen. 3:19; Eccl. 3:19). The soul and spirit leave the body at death (Jas. 2:26), so it is impossible for the inner man to continue thinking through the dead body of which it is no longer a part. This however, has nothing to do with the continued thinking of the inner man and it cannot be used to prove that the soul and spirit are mortal. That they are immortal, is proved on p. 270 of N.T.

o The Lord is right and just in all His dealings with all creation (v 17). No one can say that God has shown Himself a respecter of persons or unjust in the minutest detail

a See note a, v 1
b No less than 8 such commands are found in Psalms (33:2; 57:8; 98:5; 147:7; 149:3; 150:3), besides commands to sing with timbrels (81:2; 149:3; 150:4), trumpets (81:3; 150:3), psalteries (33:2; 57:8; 81:2; 108:2; 150:3), stringed instruments (150:4), organs (150:4), and loud cymbals (150:5). See note a, 150:3
c In v 8–9 we have the providential management of the earth dealt with. God made laws to regulate all creations and these ordinances are eternal. They will always operate as intended unless tampered with by free moral agents. Just as man tampers with making rain, so Satan and spirit forces sometimes cause the elements to act contrary to their normal laws (Job 1:6–22; Eph. 2:2) d The Vulgate, Septuagint, Arabic, and Anglo-Saxon versions add, "and herb for the service of man" e The horse, of all animals delights man by its beauty, strength, and fleetness (v 10; Job 39:19; Pr. 21:31; Amos 2:15). Of all creatures the horse is used of God for His scouts (Zech. 1:8–11; 6:1–8), and for His army (2 Ki. 2:11–12; 6:17; Rev. 19:11–21). Horses are symbols of war, famine, death, and hell (Rev. 6:1–8)
f The legs of man were much depended on in ancient days. King's heralds or messengers who were swift to do their master's bidding were a pleasure to them (1 Sam. 11:3–9; 16:19; 19:11–21; 2 Sam. 2:5; 5:11; Dan. 3:4, Cp. Isa. 52:7)
g The Lord made both the horse and the legs of man, but He takes no pleasure in them, as men do. He takes pleasure in men who fear Him and hope in His mercy (v 11)
In most of the versions the 146th psalm ends with v 11, and the 148th psalm begins with v 12 h Jerusalem and Zion were both standing when this psalm was written, hence it dates back to a time before the captivities to Babylon. The whole picture is that of peace and prosperity in Israel and applies to the reigns of David and Solomon more than to other times (v 13–20)
i Peace on every border of Israel j A picture of abundant prosperity k In times of peace and prosperity God's Word is propagated and has free course in the lives of men. In fact, such conditions are really the fulfillment of His Word (v 15–20; Lev. 26; Dt. 28)
l There is nothing in nature which resembles wool better than large snow flakes (v 16) m In v 16–17 we have the snow, frost, hail, and cold of the winter season; and in v 18 we have the springtime pictured. The cold is driven away, the snow and ice melt, and the frost leaves the ground n Question 164. The last question in Ps. This simply shows that the weather is very severe in Judea at times (Cp. Mt. 24:20). While the earth remains eternally we shall have the various seasons of cold and heat, and summer and winter, as well as day and night (Gen. 8:22)
o No other nation on earth ever received the revelation of God as Israel did (Dt. 4:6; Rom. 3:2; 9:4–5). Through Israel came all the Word of God – the written revelation to man (v 19–20; Rom. 9:4–5). The Gentiles did not have the law (Rom. 2:12–16) or the gospel until Israel was broken off because of unbelief. Then they were grafted in and made partakers with Israel of the covenants and promises (Mt. 21:33–45; Rom. 11)

2 Sing: eight acts of God

●7 [a]Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; [b]sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

8 [c]Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who [d]maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

9 He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

10 He delighteth not in the strength of the [e]horse: he taketh not pleasure in the [f]legs of a man.

11 [g]The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

3 Praise: sixteen acts of God

●12 Praise the LORD, O Jĕ-rų'-sā-lĕm; praise thy God, [h]O Zī'ŏn.

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh [i]peace in thy borders, and [j]filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

15 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: [k]his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giveth [l]snow like wool: he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his [m]ice like morsels: [n]who can stand before his cold?

18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 [o]He sheweth his word unto Ja'cob, his statutes and his judgments unto Is'ra-el.

●20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 148

Twenty-second Psalm of Praise

1 Praise from heaven by nine things: reasons

[p]PRAISE ye the LORD. [q]Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

●2 Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

●3 Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

●4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

●5 Let them praise the name of the LORD: [r]for he commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath also established them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

2 Praise from earth by twenty-three things: reasons

●7 [s]Praise the LORD from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps:

●8 Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind fulfilling his word:

●9 Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

●10 Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl:

●11 Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth:

●12 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:

●13 Let them praise the name of the LORD: [t]for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

●14 He also exalteth the [u]horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Is'ra-el, [v]a people near unto him. [w]Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 149

Twenty-third Psalm of Praise

1 Sevenfold admonition for saints on earth to praise God: reasons

[x]PRAISE ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

★2 [y]Let Is'ra-el rejoice in him that made him: [z]let the children of Zī'ŏn be joyful in their King.●

●3 Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

▶4 [a]For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

2 Tenfold admonition for saints in glory to praise God: reasons

●5 [b]Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

●6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand;

7 [c]To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

●9 To execute upon them the judgment written: [d]this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

a 5 reasons for earthly things to praise:
1 For God's name alone is excellent (v 13)
2 His glory is above the earth (v 13)
3 His glory is above the heaven (v 13)
4 He exalts the horn (king) of His people (v 14)
5 He is the praise of all His saints, even the praise of Israel (v 14)
b The king or ruler of His people (v 14, Cp. Dan. 7:8, 11, 23–24; Rev. 17:12–17)

2 Sing to Him a new song (v 1)
3 Sing His praise among saints (v 1) f 106th and last prophecy in Ps. (v 2–9, unfulfilled). The whole passage is a prophetical prayer for God's people and applies to their restoration and reign with the Messiah. First we have 4 requests concerning earthly saints (Israel) and their duties under the Messiah (v 2–4). Then we have 4 requests concerning heavenly saints (Jews and Gentiles) and their duties under the Messiah (v 5–9)
g 4 requests for Israel:

2 Let them be glad in the King (Messiah, v 2; Isa. 9:6–7; Lk. 1:32–33)
3 Let them praise His name in the dance (v 3) 4 Let them sing praises unto Him with musical instruments (v 3)
h 2 reasons Israel will worship Messiah:
1 Jehovah will take pleasure in them
2 He will redeem them (v 4)
i 4 requests for resurrected saints:
1 Let them be joyful in glory (v 5)
2 Let them sing aloud upon their beds (couches, as they recline, v 5)
3 Let them sing praises to God (v 6) 6) 4 Let them have a two-edged sword (v j 7 duties of resurrected saints, p. 640 k This honor (duties of note j, above) have all the saints (v 9). This disproves the theory that only a special few of the saints will reign with Christ. All who have part in the first resurrection will be priests of God and rule with Christ (Rev. 20:4–6). Enemies will be put down completely (1 Cor. 15:24–28; Eph. 1:10)
l 2 places to praise God:
1 In His sanctuary on earth (v 1; Ezek. 43:7; Zech. 6:12–13)
2 In the firmament (heaven, Gen. 1:8) of His power (v 1; Rev. 19:1–10)

19 Princes of the earth (v 11)
20 All judges of the earth (v 11, 12)
21 All the young men of the earth (v
22 All young women of the earth (v 12)
23 All the old men of the earth (v 12)
24 All children (v 12)
25 Let them all praise His name (v 13)

a 10 things useful in praising God:
1 Trumpet. Heb. shophar, a comet; a curved horn (v 3, 47:5; 81:3)
2 Psaltery. Heb. nebel, an instrument with 10 strings (v 3; 33:2; 144:9; note k, 33:2)
3 Harp. Heb. kinnor, stringed instrument (v 3; 33:2; 57:8; 98:5; 147:7; 149:3). See note j, 33:2
4 Timbrel. Heb. toph, tambourine; drum; tabret; tomtom (v 4; 81:2; 149:3) 5 Dance. Heb. machowl, a round dance; to whirl (v 4; 149:3. Cp. Ex. 15) sound of the a trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

● 4 Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.
● 5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.
● 6 Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. a Praise ye the LORD.

a Heb. Hallelu-jah, praise you JAH (note, 104:35). An appropriate ending for the book of Psalms, the hymn-book of Israel

6 Stringed instruments. Heb. minnim, strings, like a zither (v 4)
7 Organ. Heb. uggab, a wind instrument like a flute (v 4; Gen. 4:21; Job 21:12; 30:31)
8 Loud cymbals. Heb. tseltselim, 2 hollow plates of brass (v 5)
9 High sounding cymbals (v 5)
10 Every living thing (v 6)

Scripture, 28 Heb. and Gr. words are trans. man, meaning Adam, male, husband, mortal, mighty man, a human being

1 Man's creation:
(1) Inner man created (Gen. 1:26-27; 5:1-2)
(2) Body formed of dust (Gen. 2:7; 3:19)
(3) Made in God's own image bodily. Heb. tselem, shape, figure, bodily form (Gen. 1:27; 5:3; 9:6; Ex. 20:4; Lev. 26:1; Ps. 73:20; 106:19; Isa. 40:19-20; 44:9-17; 45:20; 48:5; Jer. 10:14; 51:17)
(4) Made in God's own likeness bodily. Heb. demooth, model, shape, similitude, resemblance (Gen. 1:26; 5:1, 3; Isa. 40:18; Ezek. 1:5, 10, 13, 16, 22, 26, 28; 10:1, 10, 21-22)
The Gr. eikon confirms the idea of bodily image and likeness (Mt. 22:20; Acts 19:35; Rom. 1:23; 11:4; 1 Cor. 11:7; 15:49; Col. 1:15; Heb. 10:1; Jas. 3:9; Rev. 13:14-15)
Dt. 4:15 or no other scripture does away with the bodily form of God, just because Israel did not see any form when God spoke is no proof that He is bodiless and without form any more than someone else who might be heard and whose body is not seen. Many in Israel did see God's body (Gen. 18; 32:24-30; Ex. 24:9-11; Josh. 5:13-15; Judg. 6:11-23; 13:3-23; 1 Chr. 21:16-17; Job 42:5; Isa. 6; Ezek. 1:26; Dan. 7:9-14; 10:5-6; Acts 7:56-59; Rev. 4:2-5; 5:1-7; etc. See note r, Jn. 4:24)
There is no question but what man was made in the likeness of God in soul and spirit (Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 3:10), but this does not do away with the body image and likeness of God, as in all the above passages. All angels and spirit beings have bodies as well as souls and spirits (The spirit world, p. 632). Even resurrected human bodies are called spiritual (1 Cor. 15:42-44), yet they will also be material (Lk. 24:39; Phil. 3:21). Misunderstanding of this subject comes from not knowing what spirits are like. See Angels and Demons on p. 632-633
(5) The body is wonderfully made (Ps. 139:14). It consists of various chemicals - iron, sugar, salt, carbon, iodine, phosphorus, lime, calcium, and others - about 98¢ worth. The body has 263 bones; 600 muscles; 970 miles of blood vessels; 400 cups on the tongue for taste; 20,000 hairs in the ears to tune in to all sounds; 40 lb. jaw pressure; 10,000,000 nerves and branches; 3,500 sweat tubes to each sq. inch of skin or 40 miles long; 20,000,000 mouths that suck food as it goes through the intestines; 600,000,000 air cells to the lungs that inhale 2,400 gallons of air daily; and a telephone system that relates to the brain instantly any known sound, taste, sight, touch, or smell. The heart beats 4,200 times an hour and pumps 12 tons of blood daily
(6) Man's soul is the seat of the emotions, passions, desires, appetites, and all feelings. See Soul in Index
(7) Man's spirit is the seat of the intellect, will, and conscience. It is capable of all divine powers only in a lesser degree. See Spirit, p. 628
(8) The inner man, consisting of soul and spirit, is eternal. See note, 1 Pet. 3:4
(9) Man was made a little lower than angels (Ps. 8:3; Heb. 2:7)
(10) He was created sinless, but capable of sin (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 5:12-21; 1 Jn. 3:4)
(11) He was made a 3fold being - body, soul, and spirit (1 Th. 5:23; Heb. 4:12)
(12) His flesh differs from all other creatures (1 Cor. 15:39)

8fold grief of David (6:1-7)

1 I am weak (exhausted, v 1)
2 I am sick - heal me (v 2)
3 My bones are vexed (tremble, v 2)
4 My soul is sore vexed (trembles, 2, 3)
5 I am weary with pain (v 6)
6 I weep all the night long (v 6)
7 My eyes are consumed (sunk, v 7)
8 My eyes wax old (withered, v 7)

8 requests to Jehovah-Elohim (7:1-9)

1 Save me from my persecutors (v 1)
2 Deliver me from them (v 1)
3 Arise, O Lord, in thine anger (v 6)
4 Lift up Thyself because of enemies (v 6)
5 Awake for me to judgment (v 6)
6 Judge me, O Lord, in righteousness (v 8)
7 Let the wickedness of man end (v 9)
8 Establish the just (v 9)

15 reasons God chooses babes (8:2)

1 That God might use them to defeat the enemy and the avenger by preaching and by testimony (v 2; Rom. 1:16; 1 Cor. 1:18-24; 2:1-4)
2 That He through perfected praise might honor Himself and quiet the avenger (Mt. 21:15-16)
3 That truth in all its purity and simplicity might be revealed to men (Mt. 11:25-27)
4 That growth might be experienced through the sincere milk of the Word (1 Pet. 2:1-2; Heb. 5:11-14)
5 That souls might be saved through the foolishness or simplicity of preaching (1 Cor. 1:18-24)
6 That God may put to naught the wisdom of the wise and the understanding of the prudent (1 Cor. 1:19)
7 That the wisdom of the world might be exposed as foolishness (1 Cor. 1:20)
8 That God's least wisdom might be shown to excel man's greatest (1 Cor. 1:25)
9 That His least power might be manifest to be greater than man's strength (1 Cor. 1:25)
10 That the wise may be confounded (1 Cor. 1:27)
11 That the mighty man may be humbled (1 Cor. 1:27)
12 That the things which are might become as nothing (1 Cor. 1:28)
13 That God's plan of choosing the base and despised of the world in preference to the high and honored might be known to all (1 Cor. 1:28)
14 That no flesh should glory in God's presence (1 Cor. 1:29-31)
15 That the wisdom and power of God might be demonstrated in simple believers before both men and angels (1 Cor. 1:30-31; 4:9-14; Eph. 3:8-11)

The solar system (8:3)

Our solar system is about 6,000,000,000 miles across. Our galaxy, called the Milky Way, contains roughly 400 billion stars, which are suns, each with its family of planets. The nearest star is 26,000,000,000,000 miles away. It is estimated that there are 100 billion galaxies like the Milky Way. This would make 40,000 million, million, million (40 sextillion) stars or suns in space. If each sun is the center of a solar system there are 40 sextillion solar systems or 1,480,000 million, million, million planets and satellites in space. Of the 360,000 million, million, million major planets 10% are believed habitable. The earth is believed to be 5 1/2 billion years old and middle-aged by celestial standards. Further, it is believed that if man ever reaches other planets he may find himself just a primitive and comparatively new in existence considering other beings on other planets. Planets are invisible to terrestrial telescopes because they are cold masses emitting no light of their own. One thing is certain, the Bible teaches that the heavens are now inhabited (2 Chr. 18:18; Neh. 9:6; Job 25:3; Dan. 4:35; Mt. 22:30; Lk. 2:13-14; Eph. 1:14-15; Col. 1:16-17; Rev. 12:12; 13:6; 19:14)
The earth which is about 25,000 miles in circumference has a solid content of 264,544,857,944 cubic miles. It is small compared to other planets. The sun is 1,300,000 times as big as the earth; Jupiter 1,400 times; Saturn 1,100 times; and Uranus 800 times, as big. The sun is 2,777,000 miles in circumference. Its surface is 366,252,303,118,866,128 cubic miles. Many of the other heavenly bodies are supposed to be much larger. Comets and many other bodies are bigger than the earth. The comet of 1811 A.D. had a head 112,000 miles in diameter and a tail 112,000,000 miles long. It is supposed to appear again in 3,000 years. Mercury is said to be 36,000,000 miles from the sun; Venus 67,250,000; Earth 93,000,000; Jupiter 484,000,000; Saturn 887,000,000; Uranus 1,787,000,000; Neptune 2,797,000,000; and Pluto 3,675,000,000 miles. A modern 200 inch telescope can see things in space over 600,000,000 light years from the earth, or 3,600,000,000,000,000,000,000 (3 sextillion, 600 quintillion miles from earth). This is how far light can travel in this many years at the rate of 186,324 miles a second. A light year is about 5,800,000,000,000 miles. The new Supernova recently discovered is supposed to have 10,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 (10 septillion) times more energy than the hydrogen bomb

The works of God's hands (8:3)

The heavens belong to God and are the work of His fingers. The word finger is used 2 times of God's power (Ex. 8:19; Lk. 11:20). The word in the plural is always used in a literal sense. Here it is used in the same sense as the word hands which God used to form all things out of material which He created or brought into existence by His Word (v 6)

The works of God's hands: He formed
1 The earth (Ps. 8:3, 6; 90:2; 95:5)
2 The heavens (Ps. 8:3; 19:1; 102:25)
3 The planets (Ps. 8:3; Isa. 40:26; 45:12; 48:13; 2 Ki. 23:5; Heb. 1:10)
4 All creatures (Gen. 2:7-25; Job 26:13; Rom. 9:20; 1 Tim. 2:13)
5 All things (Pr. 26:10)

Summary of Psalms

Date and place: Written in Palestine and Babylon from about 1,500-450 B.C.
Authors: 100 psalms have names prefixed to them. They are: Moses (1), David (73), Solomon (2), Asaph (12), Heman (1), Ethan (1), and sons of Korah (10). David and Solomon wrote several of the remaining 50 without authors' names, as is proved in the notes. Authorship of others cannot be determined. Ezra is perhaps the collector and compiler of Psalms in its present form
Theme: Christ; God; the Word of God; creations; sufferings and redemption of God's people Statistics: 19th book of the Bible; 150 chapters; 2,461 verses; 43,743 words; 2,027 verses of history; 160 verses of fulfilled and 274 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; 164 questions; 413 commands; 338 acts of God; 124 vows; 174 statements of praise; 118 complaints; 72 facts about Judas; 865 facts about God; 235 things about God's Word; 182 statements of testimony; 97 promises; 128 facts about Messiah; 281 blessings; 190 facts about the psalmists; 78 acts of the righteous; 101 acts of the wicked, plus 233 sins; 592 requests; and 187 reasons for the requests
In studying these requests it can be seen how few concern God and His will. Most of them concern man and his begging to get out of trouble

General facts about the book of Psalms

1 Title: The Heb. title is Sepher Tehillim. The book of Praises. The English Psalms is from the Gr. title Psalmoi, songs. Trans. psalms 7 times in the N.T. (Lk. 20:42; 24:44; Acts 1:20; 13:33; 1 Cor. 14:26; Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). The word Psalter is from Gr. Psalterion, a harp, or other stringed instrument

2 The dispensational aspect of Psalms must be kept in mind, for repeatedly the 1st and 2nd advents of Christ, the future tribulation, the Millennium, and other periods of God's plan for man are mentioned

3 Psalms is divided into 5 books in the Heb. Bible for some unknown reason, if not to correspond with the 5 books of Moses or the Pentateuch. Psalms as we have it today is just like it was when Christ used the book

Book I, called the Genesis book of 41 psalms (1-41). Its general theme concerns man - God's counsels from the beginning to the end in relation to man. It begins, like Genesis, with God's blessing upon man (Gen. 1-2 with Ps. 1), showing him that his blessedness consists in obedience to and occupation with God's Word. It continues with man's fall and rebellion (Gen. 3-11 with Ps. 2-15). It ends with hope of redemption through Christ (Gen. 12-50 with Ps. 16-41), concluding with a benediction and a double Amen (41:13)

Book II, called the Exodus book of 31 psalms (42-72). Its general theme concerns Israel as a nation - Israel's ruin, Redeemer, and redemption. It begins, like Exodus, with a cry from the depth of ruin and despair (Ex. 1-3 with Ps. 41-42). It continues with God's mighty works of deliverance (Ex. 4-15 with Ps. 44-50) and with backslidings, defeats by enemies, and hardships (Ex. 16-27 with Ps. 51-55). It ends with God's redemptive work for Israel and His reign over them (Ex. 15-40 with Ps. 56-72). It concludes with a benediction and a double Amen (72:19)

Book III, called the Leviticus book of 17 psalms (73-89). Its general theme concerns the sanctuary and its purpose concerning God and man. The book begins with the sanctuary as related to man, revealing the basis of fellowship with God (Lev. 1-7 with Ps. 73-83). It continues with the sanctuary as related to God, showing the walk and relationship of the redeemed before God (Lev. 8-27 with Ps. 84-89). In nearly every psalm of this book the sanctuary, and man's relation to it are mentioned. It concludes with a benediction and a double Amen (89:52)

Book IV, called the Numbers book of 17 psalms (90-106). Its general theme concerns Israel and the Gentiles on earth - the counsels of God revealing no hope

(13) Both male and female are represented in man (Gen. 1:26-28; 5:2; Mt. 19:4)

(14) Material and spiritual natures of man are clearly distinguished in Scripture, as follows:

A Soul and spirit not dust (Gen. 2:7)

B Spirit leaves body at death (Jas. 2:26; Lk. 8:49-56; 16:22; 23:43; Acts 5:10; 2 Cor. 5:8; 12:3-4; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; 2 Pet. 1:13-15; Rev. 6:9-11; 1 Ki. 17:20-22; Job 14:10; 2 Sam. 12:19-23; Eccl. 12:7)

C Soul and spirit are in man's body, but are not the material of the body (Pr. 20:27; Job 14:22; 32:8; Zech. 12:1; 1 Cor. 2:11; 7:34)

D The body can be killed but not the soul (Mt. 12:28; Lk. 12:5)

E The spirit can be willing; the flesh powerless to execute (Mt. 26:38-41)

F Both flesh and spirit are to glorify God (1 Cor. 6:20)

G Both flesh and spirit can be filthy or holy (2 Cor. 7:1)

H The inner man is eternal; the body mortal (2 Cor. 4:16-18)

I The inner man is fully conscious after leaving the body (Mt. 10:28; 17:3; Lk. 16:19-31; 20:38; Jn. 11:25-26; Acts 2:27; Eph. 3:15; 4:8-10; 2 Cor. 5:8; 12:1-4; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 2:14-15; 12:23; 1 Pet. 3:4, note; Rev. 6:9-11)

J The spirit and soul are not the breath (Job 34:14-15). To prove this try substituting breath for spirit and soul in scriptures and see how ridiculous it is. Try this with Ps. 19:7; 106:15; Lk. 12:19; Acts 23:8-9; Rom. 2:29; 1 Cor. 2:11; 5:5; 6:20; 2 Cor. 7:1; Gal. 5:25; 1 Th. 5:23; Heb. 4:12; 10:38-39; Rev. 6:9-11

K Souls can be dead while the bodies are alive (Mt. 8:22; Eph. 2:1-9; 1 Tim. 5:6; Rev. 3:1)

L Souls of the righteous have eternal life even after the body dies (Jn. 3:16; 5:24; 6:47, 53, 63; 11:25-26; 14:19)

M Souls of the wicked are also conscious after the body dies (See Hell, p. 620-622)

N Resurrection of the dead refers to the bodies coming to life again, not the souls (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15:35-54; Rev. 20:11-15)

O Souls of the righteous go to heaven at death (2 Cor. 5:8; Eph. 3:14-15; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11). Their bodies go to graves (Jn. 5:28-29; Dan. 12:2)

P Souls of the wicked go to hell while the bodies go to the grave (Lk. 16:19-21; Isa. 14:9; Rev. 20:11-15)

Q The body is the house of the inner man (1 Cor. 2:11; 2 Cor. 5:1-8; Phil. 1:21-24; 2 Pet. 1:13-15; Job 4:19; 14:22; 32:8; Zech. 12:1). The soul and spirit design; the body executes. Man through his body has material or world-consciousness, through the soul, self-consciousness, and through the spirit, God-consciousness

R Man has a body but he is not a body; a soul but he is not a soul; and a spirit but he is not a spirit being (1 Th. 5:23)

S Man has a will, making him in every sense a free moral agent and a responsible being (Jn. 3:16; 7:17; Rom. 7:18; 1 Cor. 7:36-37; 9:17; 2 Pet. 1:21; Rev. 22:17)

T The body can be put off and put on again (2 Cor. 5:1-8; 2 Pet. 1:14). This requires a separate inner man from the body itself

U Souls are now immortal (note m, 1 Pet. 3:4); bodies are not

2 Man on probation:

(1) Given dominion over the earth and other planets (Gen. 1:26-28; Ps. 8:3-8; 72:8)

(2) Commanded to multiply and replenish the earth formerly plenished by the pre-Adamites (Gen. 1:26-28. Cp. Gen. 9:1)

(3) Given responsibility to dress the garden and to keep out all enemies (Gen. 2:15, note)

(4) Given full liberty but with one restriction (Gen. 2:16-17; 3:1-3)

(5) Given eternal life and glory on condition that he not sin (Gen. 2:16-17; Rom. 3:23)

3 The fall of man (Gen. 3):

(1) Man was created sinless, but capable of sin or transgression of law (Gen. 2:16-17; 1 Jn. 3:4)

(2) Tempted by Satan through the serpent (Gen. 3:1-8; 2 Cor. 11:1-3)

(3) Eve was deceived to commit sin, not Adam (Gen. 3:6; 1 Tim. 2:14)

(4) Sin was a voluntary act of the will, but instigated from without (Rom. 5:12-21). There was no sin in human nature. Inbred sin is the spirit and nature of the devil working in men (note f, 2 Cor. 5:17)

(5) Sin came through a denial of the divine will and the elevation of the will of man over the will of God (Gen. 2:16-17)

(6) Sin came through unbelief of God's Word (Gen. 2:16-17; 3:4-6)

(7) Sin came through rebellion against God's Word (Gen. 2:16-17; 3:1-8)

4 Effects of the fall. Man became:

(1) Separated from God (Isa. 59:2)

(2) Depraved in nature (Eph. 2:1-3)

(3) Ignorant and blind (Eph. 4:18)

(4) Evil in conscience (Heb. 10:22)

(5) Corrupt and deceitful in heart (Jer. 17:9; Mk. 7:19-21)

(6) Obstinate and rebellious (Acts 7:51; Rom. 8:7; Isa. 28:14)

(7) Evil in thoughts (Gen. 6:5)

(8) Lustful and ungodly (Jn. 8:44; Rom. 7:5-23; 1 Cor. 6:9; Gal. 5:19)

(9) Dominated by Satan (Jn. 8:34, 44; Eph. 2:2; 1 Jn. 3:8)

(10) Servants of sin (Jn. 8:34; Rom. 1:18-32; 6:16-23)

(11) Dead in sin (Eph. 2:1-9)

(12) Doomed to eternal hell without God or hope (Eph. 2:12; Rom. 6:23; Ps. 9:17; Mt. 25:46; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:11-15)

(13) Short of God's glory (Rom. 3:23)

(14) Subject to suffering and death (Gen. 3:17-19; Rom. 8:21-23)

(15) Cursed of God to hard labor (Gen. 3:11-24)

(16) Mortal, imperfect, and weak (Job 4:17-21; Ps. 39:4-5; 103:14-15; Mt. 6:27; Gal. 6:3)

(17) Universally sinful (Rom. 3:9-23)

(18) Sinners by birth and practice (Rom. 5:12-21; Eph. 2:1-3; Ps. 51:5)

(19) Children of the devil (Jn. 8:44; 1 Jn. 3:8-10; 5:19; Mt. 13:38)

(20) Subject to sickness, disease, pain, and all present evils of earth (Ex. 15:26; Dt. 28:15-68; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38; Rev. 21:3-7; 22:3)

(21) Short-lived. Life is compared to:

A A pilgrimage (Gen. 47:9)

B Water spilled on the ground (2 Sam. 14:14)

C Wind (Job 7:7)

D A passing cloud (Job 7:9)

E A weaver's shuttle (Job 7:6)

F A shadow (Job 14:2; Ps. 144:4)

G Flowers that fade away (Job 14:2; Ps. 103:15; Isa. 40:6-8; Jas. 1:10; 1 Pet. 1:24. Cp. note 1, Ps. 90:5)

H Grass that dies (Ps. 37:2; 90:5-6; 1 Pet. 1:24)

I Green herbs that wither (Ps. 37:2)

J Nothing (Ps. 39:5)

K A dream (Ps. 73:20)

L Sleep that is soon over (Ps. 90:5)

M Vanity (Ps. 144:4)

N A vapor (Jas. 4:14)

All this will end in the New Earth (Rev. 21:3-7; 22:3, 4-5). Brevity of life can be lengthened by obedience and faith. There is no set day for man to die (Ex. 20:12; Pr. 3:16; 9:11; Ps. 91:1 Cor. 11:30; Eph. 6:2; 1 Pet. 3:10-11)

5 God's appraisal of man:

(1) God has given the revelation of Himself, His creation, and His plan for man, so that man might know his origin, present responsibility, and destiny. The Bible is the record of this revelation (2 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 1:1; 4:12)

(2) God appraises man as the highest of creation. Man is worth:

A Making him lord of creation (Gen. 1:26-31; Ps. 8:3-8)

B All of millenniums of effort to redeem him (Heb. 1:1-3; 2 Pet. 3:9)

C More than the whole world (Mk. 8:36)

D Giving of God's only begotten Son to redeem him (Jn. 3:16; Rev. 22:17)

E Restoring to his original dominion as eternal ruler of creation (Dan. 7:18, 27; Rev. 5:10; 22:4-5)

F Trusting with eternal authority and life to help God administer the affairs of the universe (Rom. 8:17-18; Rev. 2:27-28; 5:10; 22:4-5)

G Placing him on an equal basis with Jesus Christ in redemption, as to righteousness (1 Jn. 3:7), provision by promise (1 Cor. 3:22; 2 Cor. 1:20; Heb. 8:6), nature (2 Pet. 1:4), works (Jn. 14:12), inheritance (Rom. 8:17), sufferings and future glory (Mt. 10:24-25; Rom. 8:18; 2 Tim. 2:12; 1 Pet. 2:21; 4:1; Rev. 2:26-27; 5:10; 22:4-5)

H Making provision for body, soul, and spirit, here and hereafter. See N. T. Promises, p. 316

6 Man's part in redemption:

(1) Man is commanded to repent and obey the gospel (Mk. 1:15; 16:15; Lk. 13:3, 5). See N. T. Commands, p. 313 of the N. T.

(2) Man has a part in the new birth, salvation, the continuation of Christian life, works, and conformity to the gospel (Col. 2:6-7; 2 Pet. 1:4-10; 3:18)

7 Man's destiny:

(1) Man charts his own destiny by his conformity or non-conformity to the gospel (Lk. 16:15-16; Lk. 13:3, 5)

(2) Eternal life with God in heaven and on earth is the destiny of those who conform to truth (Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Th. 4:13-18; Rev. 5:10; 22:4-5)

(3) Eternal hell and punishment are the destiny of those who refuse to obey truth (see Hell, p. 620 Lk. 12:5, note; Mt. 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:43-49; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:11-15; Isa. 66:22-24)

God mindful of man (8:4)

Heb. zakar, to mark or remember continually, as perpetual incense rising; to set the heart upon; to keep continually in merciful view. Trans. mindful (v 4; 111:5; 115:12; 1 Chr. 16:15; Neh. 9:17; Isa. 17:10); remember 171 times; and remembrance 13 times (Num. 5:15; etc.). That God should remember in mercy such miserable beings, is great condescension; that He should actually visit them by assuming their own nature, by dwelling among them, and by giving His life a ransom for them is mercy and love indescribable and divine

7 ways God visits man (8:4)

1 By coming Himself (Dan. 7:9-14)

2 By sending Christ (Isa. 48:16; Jn. 3:16)

3 By sending the Holy Spirit (Jn. 16:7)

4 By sending angels (Heb. 1:14)

5 By prophets (Acts 3:21; Heb. 1:1)

6 By dreams and visions (Dan. 2:28; 4:1-7; 7:1; 8:1; etc.)

7 By His Word (2 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 4:12)

Man's dominion (8:6)

This passage places man at the head of all God's works - the heavens, including the sun, moon, and stars (v 3), and the earth, including all living things (v 7-8). It makes him next to God in position and power over all creations. Thus Adam was originally made higher than the angels, but by sin he was brought very low and made subject to death. Now, man in his lessened estate (short of God's glory, Rom. 3:23), is below angels. Christ, Himself, was made lower for a time to take man's low place and to raise him again higher than angels, as he originally was. Christ has been exalted to a place higher than angels or any other being except the Father (Eph. 1:21-23; Phil. 2:9-11; 1 Pet. 3:22). Redeemed man is to be raised up to that exalted position with Him (Rom. 8:17-18; Eph. 2:6-7; 3:8-11; 2 Tim. 2:12; Heb. 2:5-11; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 22:4-6)

10 acts of God (9:3)

1 Turned back enemies (v 3)

2 Destroyed enemies (v 3)

3 Vindicated the cause of right (v 4)

4 Judged righteously (v 4)

5 Rebuked the heathen (v 5)

6 Destroyed the wicked (v 5)

7 Caused their memory to perish (v 5)

8 Destroyed destroyers (v 6)

9 Destroyed cities (v 9)

10 Destroyed monuments of the wicked (v 6)

Where are the dead? (9:17)

That hell is the grave is one of the most popular themes of all false cults. They, without exception, change the Bible to suit themselves and gain converts who are always glad to accept any method of escape from the reality of hell. Their tactics remind one of the free translation of the new electronic brain designed to translate English into Russian. It was fed the words, "The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak." The machine answered with a sentence in Russian, "The whiskey is agreeable but the meat has gone bad." Where is the harmony between the two statements? To make hell the grave and the grave hell is just as ridiculous, for different Heb. and Gr. words are used for hell and grave. These are two distinct subjects and as foreign to each other as heaven is to hell. There is no possible harmony of scriptures when we force the same meaning for hell and the grave

The following study is the truth of the Bible on all phases of the subject of the dead and their destiny:

Death defined

The word death as applied to man in Scripture means separation or a cutting off from realizing God's purpose for which he was created. One can logically substitute the word separation for death in every scripture where it is used. It will clarify many passages to do so, as we shall see below

Physical death

Physical death is the separation of the inner man from the outer man; the soul and spirit from the body (note i, Jas. 2:26; 3 kinds of death, p. 213 of N. T.

Spiritual death

Spiritual death is separation of man from God because of sin (see 3 kinds of death, 213). One spiritually dead can be alive physically (Mt. 8:22; Col. 2:14; 1 Tim. 5:6), or he can be dead physically and alive in hell, conscious in the soul and spirit or the inner man (point 14, The doctrine of man, p. 618 and the facts about hell, p. 620-622)

Second death: eternal death

The second death means the second and eternal separation from God in the lake of fire (Rev. 2:11; 20:6, 14; 21:8)

Penalty for sin

The penalty for sin was eternal death or eternal separation from God in hell. Had it been physical death every man would be automatically justified in the sight of God when he died physically. With the penalty thus paid God could not punish the sinner any further than physical death. Such death would be the means of justification and the door to heaven; but this could not be. Some who die physically will be saved and others will be lost; so the penalty could not be physical death

Neither could it be spiritual death, which is the state of man in sin. If so, then all who commit sin would automatically be justified in the sight of God. This would make committing sin the penalty for committing sin, which is ridiculous. It would mean that all who commit sin would be saved and go to heaven. This would guarantee eternal life for all men, for all have sinned (Rom. 3:23). It would make the salvation of souls foolish and unnecessary. Furthermore, it would make the death of Christ unnecessary, for all men were sinners before He came

The real penalty for sin, therefore, could not be physical or spiritual death, but eternal death or separation from God. Physical death is the result of spiritual and eternal death. Eternal death is the penalty for spiritual death or committing sin (Eph. 2:1-9)

Resurrection from spiritual death

The resurrection of man from spiritual death or separation from God takes place when one is saved from death in trespasses and sins (Eph. 2:1-10), when he is born again (Jn. 3:1-8), is made a new creature in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17-18), and is fully reconciled to God through Christ (Eph. 2:12-16; Col. 1:20-22; 2:6-13; 2 Cor. 5:14-21)

Immortality of the soul

The soul and spirit, called the inner man are immortal. They continue in full consciousness between death and resurrection of the body and in the new resurrected body into all eternity (note on Immortality, p. 270 of N. T.

Mortality of the body

The body is now mortal. It will die and go back to dust (Gen. 3:19; Eccl. 3:19-21; Heb. 9:27; Jas. 2:26). This procedure will continue until sin is put down and death is destroyed (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 21:3-7; 22:3)

Resurrection of the dead

This refers only to the bodies of all men who die, not to the souls and spirits, which are immortal. All scriptures on the future resurrection of the dead, without exception, refer only to the bodies which die and will be resurrected from dust again (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15; 1 Th. 4:13-17; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). There will be no spiritual resurrection - a resurrection of the soul and spirit. All spiritual resurrection is accomplished in this life before the body dies (Eph. 2:1-10; Col. 2:11-13). If one is not resurrected spiritually from death in trespasses and sins in this life he will remain forever spiritually dead or separated from God (Heb. 9:27; Rev. 22:11)

No soul-sleep taught in Scripture

All scriptures used by false cults to prove soul-sleep really refer to death of the body which knows nothing in the grave. See proof of this, p. 881

Immortality of the body

The body, which is now mortal will become immortal in the resurrection. All scriptures mentioning future immortality refer to the body, not to the soul, which is now immortal. For proof of this see 14 proofs of future immortality of the body, p. 881, and 25 proofs of immortality of the soul, p. 270 of the N. T.

The intermediate state

By this is meant the state of the dead between death and resurrection of the body. After the body goes back to dust at physical death (Gen. 3:19; Eccl. 3:19-21; Jas. 2:26), it remains dead (separated from the inner man) until the future resurrection day when the body will be made immortal (1 Cor. 15:35-54). The soul and spirit continue alive, being immortal either in heaven or hell, until the resurrection day when the body will be made immortal. See 21 proofs of distinction between the material and spiritual natures of man, A-U, col. 1, p. 619

At physical death the soul and spirit leave the body (Jas. 2:26). If one is a converted person his soul and spirit go to heaven immediately at death to await the resurrection of the body (Lk. 20:38; Jn. 11:25-26; 2 Cor. 5:8; Eph. 3:15; 4:8-10; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11). If he is a sinner his soul and spirit go to hell at death to await the resurrection of the body (Lk. 16:19-31; 2 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 20:11-15; Isa. 14:9). See proofs below that the soul and spirit of the wicked go to hell, not the grave

5 departments in underworld of departed spirits

There are 5 distinct prisons in the underworld of departed spirits. Not one is the same as the grave, as proved by the following points:

1 Tartarus (1 Pet. 3:19; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7). This prison is a special one for fallen angels who sinned before the flood. No human beings or demons ever go to this prison. See note c, 2 Pet. 2:4

2 Paradise (Lk. 16:19-31; 23:43). This was the abode of the righteous after physical death where they were held captive by the devil against their will until Christ conquered death, hell, and the grave. It is now empty of the righteous who go to heaven at death since Christ captured the captives in hell and took them to heaven with Him when He ascended on high. See note c, Lk. 16:22; note r, Eph. 4:8; note e, Heb. 2:15

3 Hell (Mt. 16:18; Lk. 16:19-31). This is the torment compartment of sheol-hades where wicked souls have always gone and will always go until the end of the Millennium. Then the wicked will be brought out of here to be reunited with their resurrected and immortal bodies and to be cast into the lake of fire for eternity (Rev. 20:11-15). See studies below

4 The abyss or bottomless pit (Lk. 8:26-31; Rom. 10:7; Rev. 9:1-3, 11; 11:7; 17:8; 20:1-10). This is the abode of demons and some angelic beings. No human soul and spirit ever go to the abyss. The O. T. equivalent is Abaddon and is translated destruction (Job 26:5-6; 28:22; 31:12; Ps. 88:11; Pr. 15:11; 27:20)

5 The lake of fire. This is the eternal hell and perdition of all fallen angels, demons, and wicked men (Rev. 20:6, 11-15; 21:8; 22:15). It is the same as gehenna of note m, Lk. 12:5. It is the final hell prepared for the devil and his angels (Mt. 25:41) and is eternal in duration (Mt. 25:46; Rev. 14:9-14; 19:20; 20:10-15; Isa. 66:22-24)

Hell

The English word hell is defined in our dictionaries as "the abode of evil spirits; infernal regions; place of eternal punishment or extreme torment; in ancient times, the place of departed spirits." The word infernal means "belonging to hell." The word inferno is another word for "the infernal regions; hell." Gehenna is defined as "the place of future torment; hell; hell-fire." Tartarus is defined as "the place of punishment in the lower world."

There are 7 Heb. and Gr. words trans. hell and grave as follows:

1 Heb. sheol, the unseen world. It always refers to the unseen world of departed spirits, and is always in contrast with the Heb. geber, which means the grave, or the seen world where bodies are buried. Qeber is always translated grave, burying place, sepulchre. It is never trans. hell and this is correct

Sheol is trans. hell 31 times (Dt. 32:22; 2 Sam. 22:6; Job 11:8; 26:6; Ps. 9:17; 16:10; 18:5; 55:15; 86:13; 116:3; 139:8; Pr. 5:5; 7:27; 9:18; 15:11, 24; 23:14; 27:20; Isa. 5:14; 14:9, 15; 28:15, 18; 57:9; Ezek. 31:16-17; 32:21, 27; Amos 9:2; Jonah 2:2; Hab. 2:5)

Sheol is trans. grave 31 times (Gen. 37:35; 42:38; 44:29, 31; 1 Sam. 2:6; 1 Ki. 2:6, 9; Job 7:9; 14:13; 17:13; 21:13; 24:19; Ps. 6:5; 30:3; 31:17; 49:14-15; 88:3; 89:48; 141:7; Pr. 1:12; 30:16; Eccl. 9:10; Cant. 8:6; Isa. 14:11; 38:10, 18; Ezek. 31:15; Hos. 13:14)

Sheol is trans. pit 3 times (Num. 16:30, 33; Job 17:16)

2 Heb. qeber, the proper word for grave, the seen world, is trans. 6 different ways and always of the place where the body goes at death:

(1) Grave (Gen. 35:20; 50:5; Num. 19:16, 18; 2 Sam. 3:32; 19:37; 1 Ki. 13:30; 14:13; 2 Ki. 22:20; 2 Chr. 34:28; Job 3:22; 5:26; 10:19; 21:32; Ps. 88:5, 11; Isa. 14:19; 53:9; Ezek. 32:23-24; Nah. 1:14)

(2) Graves (Ex. 14:11; 2 Ki. 23:6; 2 Chr. 34:4; Job 17:1; Isa. 65:4; Jer. 8:1; 26:23; Ezek. 32:22-25; 37:12-13; 39:11)

(3) Burial (2 Chr. 26:23; Eccl. 6:3; Isa. 14:20; Jer. 22:19)

(4) Burying place (Gen. 23:4, 9, 20; 47:30; 49:30; 50:13; Judg. 16:31)

(5) Sepulchre (Gen. 23:6; Dt. 34:6; Judg. 8:32; 1 Sam. 10:2; 2 Sam. 2:32; 4:12; 17:23; 21:14; 1 Ki. 13:22, 31; 2 Ki. 9:28; 13:21; 21:26; 23:17, 30; Ps. 5:9; Isa. 22:16; Jer. 5:16)

(6) Sepulchres (Gen. 23:6; 2 Ki. 23:16; 2 Chr. 16:14; 21:20; 24:25; 28:27; 32:33; 35:24; Neh. 2:3, 5; 3:16)

3 Gr. hades, the unseen world. It is equivalent to sheol of the O. T. and is always in contrast with mnaymion, the seen world, or place of bodies at death. Mnaymion meaning the grave is never trans. hell

Hades is trans. hell 10 times (Mt. 11:23; 16:18; Lk. 10:15; 16:23; Acts 2:27, 31; Rev. 1:18; 6:8; 20:13-14)

Hades is trans. grave 1 time (1 Cor. 15:55)

4 Gr. mnaymion, the proper word for grave is trans. 6 different ways, as follows:

(1) Grave (Jn. 11:17, 31, 38; 12:17)

(2) Graves (Mt. 27:52-53; Lk. 11:44; Jn. 5:28; Rev. 11:9)

(3) Tomb (Mt. 27:60; Mk. 6:29)

(4) Tombs (Mt. 8:28; Mk. 5:2-5; Lk. 8:27)

(5) Sepulchre (Mt. 27:60; 28:8; Mk. 15:46; 16:2-8; Lk. 23:53, 55; 24:1-2, 9, 12, 22, 24; Jn. 19:41-42; 20:1-11; Acts 2:29; 7:16; 13:29)

(6) Sepulchres (Mt. 23:29; Lk. 11:47-48)

5 Gr. gehenna, from Heb. gay, gorge or valley, and Hinnom, a Jebusite name. It means valley of Hinnom, where perpetual fires were kept to burn the refuse of Jerusalem. It came to be used by the Jews as an appropriate picture of eternal hell and eternal punishment

Gehenna is trans. hell 12 times (Mt. 5:22, 29, 30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15, 33; Mk. 9:43-47; Lk. 12:5; Jas. 3:6). It is never trans. grave and this is correct. See note m, Lk. 12:5

6 Gr. tartaroo; Latin, tartarus, the deepest abyss of sheol-hades, the unseen world. See note c, 2 Pet. 2:4

7 Gr. limnen tou puros, lake of fire, the same as the gehenna of fire, the eternal hell, and perdition of all spirit, giant, pre-Adamite, and Adamite rebels against God. It is used 5 times (Rev. 19:20; 20:10-15; 21:8)

It can be seen from a study of all the above scriptures on sheol-hades, gehenna, tartarus, and qebermnaymion that hell is not the grave, but a place of consciousness and torment. This will be abundantly proved in the following facts about hell and the grave:

88 facts proving hell not the grave:

1 In Scripture, sheol-hades (hell) is never the place of the body; qebermnaymion (grave) never the place of the soul (Ps. 16:10; Acts 2:25-29)

2 Sheol never in the plural; qeber in plural 38 times, singular 74 times

3 Sheol never located on earth; qeber located on earth 73 times

4 Body never goes to sheol; body mentioned as going to qeber 75 times

5 Individual's sheol never mentioned; individual qebers mentioned 79 times

6 Man never puts anyone into sheol; man puts bodies into qebers 40 times

7 Man never digs or makes a sheol; man digs and makes qebers 51 times

8 Man on earth never touches a sheol; he touches qebers 51 times

9 Man has never seen a sheol on earth; he has seen qebers 51 times

10 God alone puts men into sheol (Num. 16:30-33; 1 Sam. 2:6; Ezek. 31:16; Lk. 16:19-31)

11 God alone will bring men out of sheol (1 Sam. 2:6; Rev. 20:11-15)

12 Hell-bound men descend (Isa. 5:14) and go down (into the lower parts of the earth) into sheol at death (Gen. 37:35; 42:38; 44:29, 31; Num. 16:30-33; 1 Sam. 2:6; 1 Ki. 2:6, 9; Job 7:9-10; 17:16; 21:13; Ps. 31:16-17; Isa. 14:9-16; Ezek. 31:15-17; 32:27; Mt. 11:23; Lk. 10:15)

13 Men go into sheol in a moment and quickly (Num. 16:30-33; Job 21:13; Ps. 55:15; Lk. 16:19-31)

14 Men are forced into sheol (Isa. 5:15)

15 Men are cast into sheol (Ezek. 31:15-17)

16 Sheol is located in the nether parts of the earth (Ezek. 31:14-18; 32:24), lower parts of the earth (Ps. 63:9; 68:18; Eph. 4:8-10), heart of the earth (Mt. 12:40), below the depth of the seas and below the foundations of the mountains (Jonah 2:2-6), beneath like a pit (Pr. 15:24; Isa. 14:9-16; Ezek. 31:14-18; 32:18-31), and is too deep to dig into (Job 11:8; Amos 9:2)

17 Sheol-hades, unlike the grave, is a place of activity, a place of wrath (Dt. 32:22; Lk. 16:19-31)

18 A place of sorrow (Gen. 42:38; 44:29, 31; 2 Sam. 22:6; Ps. 18:5; 55:15; 116:3; Pr. 7:27; Isa. 14:9-15)

19 A place of fire (Dt. 32:22; Cant. 8:6; Lk. 16:19-31)

20 A place hidden from man, but naked before God (Job 26:6; Pr. 15:11; Ps. 139:8; Amos 9:2)

21 A place of power (Ps. 49:15; Hos. 13:14; Mt. 16:18; 1 Cor. 15:51-56; Rev. 1:18; 6:8)

22 A place of full consciousness (Isa. 14:9-15; Ezek. 32:27-31; Lk. 16:19-31)

23 A place for the soul and spirit, not the body (Ps. 16:10; 30:3; 49:15; 86:13; 89:48; Pr. 23:14; Acts 2:25-29)

24 A place of conversations (Isa. 14:9-16; Ezek. 32:21; Lk. 16:19-31)

25 A place where many kings and chief ones of the earth live after death (Isa. 14:9-11)

26 A place where its inhabitants are stirred up at the coming of others (Isa. 14:9-11; Ezek. 32:27-32)

27 A place where great men acknowledge their defeat (Isa. 14:9-11)

28 A place where men recognize and converse with one another (Isa. 14:16; Lk. 16:9-31)

29 A place where knowledge and memory exist (Isa. 14:10, 16; Lk. 16:19-31)

30 A place for the proud - Mt. 11:23; Lk. 10:15. If the grave is hell then the curse of Jesus here is meaningless, for all go to graves bodily, the proud and the humble, without such a curse (Heb. 9:27)

31 A place of torment (Lk. 16:23)

32 A place of prayer (Jonah 2:2; Lk. 16:19-31)

33 A place of regret over mistreatment of others (Lk. 16:24-31)

34 A place where men still have will power, though it is too late to accept God's terms and escape hell (Lk. 16:24-31)

35 A place where men are conscious of life on earth, but cannot visit earth to warn men of its real torments (Lk. 16:26-31)

36 A place where the lost become conscious of the need of soul-winning (Lk. 16:27-31)

37 A place so terrible that those who are in it plead for some means of warning others not to come there (Lk. 16:26-31)

38 A place where souls are not burned up by the fire (Lk. 16:22-31; 1 Pet. 3:4)

39 A place of cruelty (Cant. 8:6)

40 A place that has enlarged itself, not been enlarged by men (Isa. 5:14)

41 A place that is never full or satisfied (Pr. 27:20; 30:16; Hab. 2:5)

42 A place that receives men in numbers like flocks of sheep (note q, Ps. 49:14)

43 A place which only salvation can deliver from (Ps. 86:13)

44 A place of gates and bars (Job 17:16; Isa. 38:10; Mt. 16:18; Rev. 1:18)

45 A place of debasement (Isa. 57:9)

46 A place of pains (Ps. 18:5; 116:3; Lk. 16:19-31)

47 A temporary place of torment (Lk. 16:19-31; Rev. 20:11-15)

48 A place of two compartments, one for the righteous before the resurrection of Christ, and one for the wicked departed souls from Abel's time to the end of the Millennium, with a great gulf between the compartments forbidding inter-travel but not intercommunication (Lk. 16:19-31)

Paradise compartment of sheol

49 A place other than the grave for the righteous who, until Christ came, were captives of the devil against their will (Heb. 2:14-15). It was called Abraham's bosom (Lk. 16:22) and paradise (Lk. 23:43)

50 It was a hiding place from God's wrath after death (Job 14:13; Lk. 16:19-31), a place without fire, but with water and other comforts (Ezek. 31:16; Lk. 16:19-31)

51 Lazarus went into this place of comfort, but his body went to the grave (Lk. 16:19-31)

52 Christ and the penitent thief went into paradise at death (Ps. 16:10; Mt. 12:40; Lk. 23:43; Eph. 4:8-10)

53 Jonah also went into this compartment while his body was dead in the belly of the whale (Jonah 2:2, 6-7; Mt. 12:40)

54 Angels carried the righteous souls into this compartment, but men carried their bodies to graves (Lk. 16:22-26; 23:43)

55 Christ, while there, preached to the angels in tartarus, proving that the hell He was in is not the grave (Ps. 16:10; 1 Pet. 3:19, note)

56 Christ, while in sheol-hades, liberated the righteous captives of Satan taking them to heaven with Him when He ascended on high (Eph. 4:8-10; Heb. 2:14-15)

57 Paradise is now empty of all the righteous souls (Eph. 4:8-10; Heb. 12:23); the graves continue to hold bodies of both the righteous and unrighteous

58 The righteous were alive in paradise, else Christ could not have preached and liberated the righteous captives: and Lazarus and others in this place could not have been comforted (Lk. 16:19-31)

The torment compartment of sheol:

59 It is the lowest part of sheol, even lower than paradise and therefore, could not be the grave (Dt. 32:22; Ps. 86:13; Pr. 9:18; Isa. 57:9)

60 The greater number of men (not all) go into it at death (Dt. 32:22; Ps. 9:17; Isa. 5:14; Lk. 16:19-31), whereas all men go into a grave, watery or otherwise, at death

61 The fire in it is as literal as the mountains (Dt. 32:22; Lk. 16:19-31)

62 The fire is kindled in God's wrath (Dt. 32:22)

63 Entrance into it is down, deeper than a grave, through the earth to its center (Num. 16:30-33; Mt. 12:40; Eph. 4:8-10)

64 Bodies of men are buried at the mouth of it on the earth's surface only (Ps. 141:7)

65 Men go alive into it (Num. 16:30-33; Ps. 88:3; Pr. 1:12; Ezek. 32:27-31; Lk. 16:19-31)

66 The wicked only are tormented in it (Lk. 16:19-31; Dt. 32:22; Ps. 9:17; Pr. 5:5; 7:27; 9:18; Isa. 14:9-16)

67 Its depth is contrasted with the height of heaven, which could never be so of the grave (Job 11:7; Isa. 57:9; Amos 9:2)

68 The Rephaim or giants are there for sex sins, proving that they are still alive in sheol (notes on Pr. 9:18; 21:16; Isa. 14:9-19; 26:14; Gen. 6:1-4)

69 Christ now has the keys of sheol-hades (Rev. 1:18)

70 Chastening can help men to be godly and escape it (Pr. 23:14), but chastening will not keep men from graves. All go to graves, but all do not go to hell. In fact, no saved man goes there since Christ conquered hell (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11)

71 The gates of hell shall not prevail against the church in this age (Mt. 16:18), but they did prevail against O.T. saints, for they all went down into the paradise compartment of sheol and were held captive by Satan against their will (Heb. 2:14-15). Since the resurrection of Christ, saints do not go to sheol-hades as before He conquered hell and liberated the righteous souls from Satan, leading them captive to heaven (Eph. 4:8-10; Heb. 2:14-15). Saints of this age now go to heaven at death instead of to sheol (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11), which proves that hell is not the grave. No such change regarding graves has ever been made. The bodies of both the righteous and the wicked continue to be put into graves

72 Every man in sheol-hades will be brought out and judged 1,000 years after the righteous have been resurrected (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). If men at death are extinct or unconscious in graves, why bring them back into existence or consciousness just to judge them and send them into extinction of being again, as false cults teach? This would make the Bible a lie for conscious punishment of sins would then be impossible. Unconsciousness in graves now and unconsciousness and extinction of being in eternity would not meet the demands of the law of eternal punishment for eternal rebellion, as we shall see below

73 Sheol-hades held the captives that were captured by Christ and taken to heaven when He ascended on high (Eph. 4:8-10; Heb. 2:14-15). How could extinct or unconscious men be held captive? Why would Christ even attempt to capture extinct beings? What would He want with them? Those He captured must have been real and living, for God is not the God of the dead bodies of men but of their living souls (Lk. 20:38). If the captives were brought back into being again when their captivity by Christ took place, then the resurrection of the righteous has already taken place and many scriptures stating the future resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked are without meaning (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Th. 4:16; Rev. 20:4-6)

74 Qeber-mnaymlon, the proper words for grave are never translated hell. Sheol-hades should never have been translated grave. To prove this, let us substitute hell where burial, grave, graves, tomb, tombs, sepulchre, and sepulchres are found and see how ridiculous it would be, as follows:

Examples using "hell" for "grave," etc.

Choice of our hells (Gen. 23:6)
Jacob set a pillar upon her hell (Gen. 35:20)
In my hell which I have digged (Gen. 50:5)
Because. . no hells in Egypt (Ex. 14:11)
Whosoever touches a hell shall be unclean seven days (Num. 19:16, 18)
Buried by the hell of my father (2 Sam. 19:37)
Carcase in his own hell (1 Ki. 13:30)
The hell of Elisha (2 Ki. 13:21)
Hell of the man of God (2 Ki. 23:17)
Remain among the hells (Isa. 65:4)
Bones out of hells (Jer. 8:1)
Hells of the prophets (Mt. 23:29)
Hells of the righteous (Mt. 23:29)
Dwelling among the hells (Mk. 5:3)

Examples using "grave" for "hell"

Fire burning in the lowest grave kindled by God's wrath (Dt. 32:22)
Sorrows of the grave (2 Sam. 22:6)
Wicked and all nations that forget God turned into the grave (Ps. 9:17)
Soul in the grave (Ps. 16:10)
Pains of the grave (Ps. 116:3)
The grave is never full (Pr. 27:20)
The inhabitants of the grave move to welcome you at your coming (Isa. 14:9)
Speak out of the grave (Ezek. 32:21)
Shall be in danger of grave fire (Mt. 5:22; 18:9; Mk. 9:43-49)
Fire of the grave never quenched (Mk. 9:43-49)
God only has power to cast in the grave (Lk. 12:5)
In the grave he lift up his eyes, being in torments in fire. . . flame (Lk. 16:19-31)
Angels cast down to the grave (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)

Other ridiculous conclusions:

They shall look into the grave on sinners where their worm does not die and their fire shall not be quenched (Isa. 66:22-24)
Cast into the grave where there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth (Mt. 8:11-12; 22:13; 24:51; 25:30)
Who has warned you to flee from wrath in the grave (Mt. 3:7)
Killed and cast into the fire of the grave (Mt. 3:10)
Burn in unquenchable fire in the grave (Mt. 3:12; 7:19; Lk. 3:17)
Tares are burned in the grave fire (Mt. 13:40, 50)
Cast them into the grave of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth (Mt. 13:42)
A twofold child more of the grave than yourselves (Mt. 23:15)
Be cast into everlasting fire in the grave (Mt. 18:8-10)
Depart from Me, you cursed, into the grave of everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels (Mt. 25:41)
These shall go away in the grave of everlasting punishment (Mt. 25:46)
The angels that sinned have been reserved in everlasting chains and set forth for an example of suffering the eternal fire of the grave (Jude 6-7)
He opened the grave and out of it came forth smoke of a great furnace that darkened the sun (Rev. 9)
The smoke of the grave rose up for ever and ever (Rev. 19:3)
Satan shall be cast into the grave of fire and brimstone and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever (Rev. 20:7-10)
Death and the grave were cast into the lake of fire (Rev. 20:14)
All sinners shall have their part in the grave that burns with fire and brimstone (Rev. 21:8; 22:15)
Are you come to torment us (demons) in the grave before it is time to be tormented (Mt. 8:29)?
Warn my 5 brethren lest they also come to this grave of torment in fire (Lk. 16:19-31)
He (Lazarus) has comfort in his grave but you have torment in yours (Lk. 19:25)
He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the grave and they shall have no rest day or night for ever and ever (Rev. 14:9-11)

Many other statements just as ridiculous could be made if we, like false cults, forced a meaning into Scripture that is not there - that hell is the grave; that there is no consciousness after death; that eternal fire and eternal punishment in hell are false

75 Hades is spoken of as being completely defeated (1 Cor. 15:55). This is sufficient proof that no grave is referred to

76 The fact that the soul is immortal proves that it remains in consciousness some place between death and resurrection (note m, 1 Pet. 3:4). Since it does not go to the grave, but to hell (Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9-16; Rev. 20:11-15) or heaven (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11), then hell is not the grave

77 Since the soul is immortal and the body mortal (Gen. 3:19; Eccl. 3:19-21), then it is clear that the body only goes into the grave to see corruption until its resurrection to immortality when (if wicked) it will be punished in hell with the soul or (if righteous), will be permitted to enjoy eternal bliss

78 Since the body only is to be changed in the future resurrection of the dead, then the body only will come out of unconsciousness in the grave so it can be made as immortal as the soul and spirit, and be rewarded in heaven according to its deeds, or be punished in hell according to its deeds (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29; Rev. 20:11-15). See notes on the resurrection, Dan. 12:2

79 Since soul-sleep is not taught in Scripture, and body-sleep is, then it is the body only that is unconscious in the grave. See proof of this, p. 881. The soul goes to hell or heaven at death, as seen in the many scriptures above

80 Since the bodies of the wicked as well as the righteous will become immortal in the resurrection, then it is impossible to burn them up, consume, annihilate, or cause them to become extinct through fire or any other means. See proof of this, p. 881, where are immortal wicked beings going to spend eternity as everlasting monuments of God's wrath and examples of eternal punishment for rebellion (as in Isa. 66:22-24; Rev. 14:9-11; etc.) if not in hell?

81 Because there is full consciousness in the intermediate state between death and resurrection, souls of the wicked as well as the righteous, must go to some place of waiting to remain until the resurrection of the body. See 21 proofs of the distinction between the material and spiritual natures of man, p. 619. Where would the wicked go, to await their bodies and receive judgment and their degrees of punishment if not to hell?

82 Since the word hell is never in the plural, and since it is always clear, not only from the original words, but from the subject matter of the texts that bodies are put into graves and souls go to heaven or hell, then we must acknowledge that hell is not the grave

83 Of the 65 places where sheol is used, 11 where hades is used, 12 where gehenna, 5 the lake of fire, and the 1 time where tartarus is used in Scripture, only 2 places seem to teach that hell is the grave and that there is no consciousness in sheol (Ps. 6:5; Eccl. 9:10)

It must be remembered that the first passage is simply the statement of a man in great distress. He could not see how the inhabitants in sheol could remember God's goodness and give thanks to Him while in torment such as the rich man suffered in Lk. 16. It is easily conceivable how such tormented rebels against God would not give thanks to Him, so this would not prove anything regarding hell being the grave. David did not believe that hell was the grave and that there is no life in sheol, for in many places he taught that sheol was the place of the immortal soul (Ps. 16:10; Acts 2:25-29); a place of sorrows and pains (Ps. 18:5); and a place of full consciousness where the wicked go at death (Ps. 9:17; 31:17; 68:18; 88:3)

In the second passage, Eccl. 9:10, Solomon merely expresses the idea that all human activity under the sun ceases at death, as proved by the next verse where he speaks of profit under the sun. The phrase under the sun is found 29 times in this short book. Solomon does not mean that hell is the grave in Eccl. 9:10 for elsewhere he teaches that the righteous do not go to the same compartment of sheol as the wicked do (Pr. 5:5; 7:27; 9:18; 15:11, 24; 23:14; 27:20)

84 The confinement of angels and demons to prisons under the earth because of sin proves that others, the immortal souls and spirits of the human race and of giants, can also be confined to material prisons in the underworld (1 Pet. 3:19; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Rev. 9:1-21; 20:1-10; Isa. 24:21-22)

85 Examples of continued consciousness after death prove that hell and heaven are real places of life and not the grave where there is no life (Mt. 17:5; Lk. 16:19-31; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11)

86 The Bible refers to life after death in many places, See points (14) - (35), The doctrine of man, p. 618

87 Degrees of punishment in eternal hell prove that neither sheol-hades nor the lake of fire is the grave (Mt. 10:15; 11:22-24; 16:27; 23:12-15; Rev. 20:11-15). How could there be any kind of eternal punishment, much less degrees of punishment if the wicked are extinct?

88 The eternal length of punishment of the wicked proves hell is not the grave. All bodies in graves will be resurrected and graves will be no more, but hell and eternal punishment will never end

See 16 other proofs that hell is not the grave, note m, Lk. 12:5

14 fallacies about hell

1 Hell is the grave. This is abundantly disproved above

2 Fire in hell is figurative. The word fire is found in Scripture 542 times and is used figuratively only a few times. It is always clear when it is used figuratively, as of anger (Ps. 89:46); jealousy (Ps. 79:5); zeal (Ps. 104:4; Jn. 2:17); shame (Rom. 12:20); trials (1 Pet. 1:7); judgment (Zech. 13:9); Word of God (Jer. 23:29); tongue (Jas. 3:5-6); and God (Heb. 12:29). Fire is used in plain literal descriptive language in the following statements of hell:

(1) Set on fire the foundations of mountains in the lowest sheol (Dt. 32:22)
(2) Neither shall their fire be quenched (Isa. 66:22-24; Mk. 9:43-49)
(3) Unquenchable fire (Mt. 3:10, 12)
(4) Hell fire (Mt. 5:22; 18:9; Mk. 9:43-49)
(5) Cast into the fire (Mt. 7:19)
(6) Furnace of fire (Mt. 13:40-50)
(7) Cast into everlasting fire (Mt. 18:8; 25:41, 46)
(8) Fire that never shall be quenched (Mk. 9:43-49; Lk. 3:17)
(9) The vengeance of eternal fire (Jude 6-7)
(10) Tormented with fire and brimstone (Rev. 14:9-11)
(11) Lake of fire burning with brimstone (Rev. 19:20; 21:8)
(12) Lake of fire and brimstone (Rev. 19:20; 20:14-15)

3 Punishment of hell not eternal. If language means anything the torments of hell are proved to be eternal in the following:

(1) Danger of eternal damnation (Mk. 3:29)
(2) Eternal judgment (Heb. 6:2)
(3) Vengeance of eternal fire (Jude 7)
(4) Shame and everlasting contempt (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29)
(5) Everlasting fire (Mt. 18:8; 25:41)
(6) Everlasting punishment (Mt. 25:46)
(7) Everlasting destruction (2 Th. 1:9)
(8) Everlasting chains (Jude 6-7)
(9) The smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever (Rev. 14:9-11)
(10) Tormented day and night for ever and ever (Rev. 20:10)

The same words translated eternal, everlasting, and for ever and ever used to state the eternity of God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, life, etc. are also used of hell and punishment. Therefore, if these persons and things are eternal, then hell and punishment are eternal. Some teach that for ever and ever means age-long. This may be true when used in a limited and qualified sense of temporary things, as in Ex. 21:6, but when used literally of God's plan it always means eternal. The Heb. word olam and the Gr. word aionios mean time out of mind, past or future; eternity: always: for ever: everlasting; perpetual; without end. Besides the above eternal things the following is a partial list:

65 other eternal things:

(1) God (Dt. 33:27; Rom. 1:20; Rev. 4:9)
(2) God's name (Ex. 3:15; Ps. 72:17)
(3) God's throne (Ps. 93:2)
(4) God's kingdom on earth (Ex. 15:18; Ps. 145:13; 146:10; Dan. 2:44–45; Jer. 10:10; Dan. 4:3, 34; 2 Pet. 1:11)
(5) God's Word (Dt. 29:29; Ps. 12:6–7; 119:89, 152, 160; Isa. 40:8; 1 Pet. 1:23–25)
(6) God's glory (Ps. 104:31; 2 Cor. 4:17; 2 Tim. 2:10; 1 Pet. 5:10; Rev. 1:6)
(7) God's purpose on earth (Eph. 3:11)
(8) God's mercy (1 Chr. 16:34; Ps.
(9) God's kindness (Isa. 54:8) 118)
(10) God as light among men (Isa. 60:19–20)
(11) Fear of God (Ps. 19:9)
(12) God's counsel (Ps. 33:11)
(13) God's righteousness (Ps. 111:3; 112:3; Isa. 51:8; Dan. 9:24)
(14) God's works (Ps. 111:7–8; 148:6)
(15) God's protection (Ps. 125:2)
(16) Christ (Mic. 5:2) 1:8)
(17) Christ's throne (Ps. 45:6; Heb.
(18) Christ's reign on earth (Isa. 9:6–7; Dan. 7:13–14; Lk. 1:32–33; Rev. 11:15)
(19) Christ dwelling in the midst of Israel visibly (Ezek. 43:7–9)
(20) Christ the same (Heb. 13:8)
(21) Holy Spirit (Heb. 9:14) 16)
(22) Holy Spirit among men (Jn. 14:
(23) Heavens (Ps. 72:17; 2 Cor. 5:1)
(24) Earth (Ps. 104:5; Eccl. 1:4)
(25) Man – eternal generations of natural people (N. T., p. 312, col. 4)
(26) Israel as an eternal earthly nation (2 Sam. 7; 1 Chr. 17:22–27; 23:25; Isa. 9:6–7; Jer. 31:36; Ezek. 37:18–28; Joel 3:20; Lk. 1:32–33; Rev. 11:15)
(27) Israel's name (Isa. 56:5)
(28) Promised land to Israel (Gen. 17:8; 48:4; Jer. 25:5)
(29) Israel's marriage to God (Hos. 2:14–19)
(30) Jerusalem – Zion (Ps. 48:8; 78:69; 125:1; Isa. 33:20; 60:15; Jer. 17:25)
(31) Abraham's natural seed (Gen. 13:15)
(32) Noah's natural seed (Gen. 9:12)
(33) David himself (Ps. 61:4–8)
(34) David's natural seed (2 Sam. 7; Ps. 89:4, 29, 36)
(35) David's throne (Ps. 89:29, 36; Lk. 1:32)
(36) David's kingdom (2 Sam. 7; Isa. 9:6–7; Lk. 1:32–33)
(37) David as an eternal resurrected king of natural Israel (Ezek. 37:18–28)
(38) Noahic Covenant (Gen. 9)
(39) Abrahamic Covenant (Gen. 17:7; 1 Chr. 16:16–17)
(40) Davidic Covenant (2 Sam. 7:23:5)
(41) New Covenant (Isa. 55:3; 59:21; 61:8; Jer. 32:40; Ezek. 37:26; Heb. 13:20)
(42) Natural life of man and animals on earth (Gen. 9:12; Dan. 2:44–45; 7:13–14; Isa. 9:6–7; Mt. 25:31–46; Rev. 11:15; 22:2–5)
(43) Eternal life for both natural and resurrected men (Mt. 25:46; Mk. 10:30; Jn. 3:16, 36; 5:24; 10:28; etc.)
(44) Things not seen (1 Cor. 2:9; 2 Cor. 4:18)
(45) Resurrected body (2 Cor. 5:1)
(46) Salvation (Isa. 45:17; 51:6; Heb.
(47) Redemption (Heb. 9:12) 5:9)
(48) Inheritance (Heb. 9:15; Ps. 37:18, 29)
(49) Saints (Ps. 37:28; Dan. 7:18, 27)
(50) Kingdom on earth for saints (Dan. 7:18, 22, 27; Rev. 1:5; 5:10)
(51) Melchizedek priesthood (Ps. 110:4; Heb. 5:6; 6:20; 7:17, 21, 24)
(52) Holiness in God's house (Ps. 93:5)
(53) Good man's righteousness (Ps. 112:6–9)
(54) Truth (Ps. 117:2; Pr. 12:19)
(55) Perfection of saints (Heb. 10:14)
(56) Purging of sins (Heb. 10:12)
(57) Joy (Isa. 35:10; 51:11; 61:7)
(58) Consolation (2 Th. 2:16)
(59) Gospel (Rev. 14:6)
(60) Pleasures (Ps. 16:11)
(61) Sacrifices (Ezek. 46:14)
(62) Mountains and hills (Gen. 49:26; Hab. 3:6)
(63) Chains (Jude 6)
(64) Desolation of Babylon (Jer. 50:39; 51:26, 62)
(65) Opening to hell (Isa. 34:1–17; 66:22–24)

One has as much right to make any one of the above 65 things age-long only, as to do so with the 12 eternal facts about hell above. No hint is ever found in Scripture that hell is the grave and a temporary place or that punishment of the wicked is temporary

4 The wicked are to be burned up. False cults interpret Mal. 4:1 to say this. However, it does not refer to hell at all, but to the battle of Armageddon when fire will fall from heaven devouring the bodies of the wicked and killing them (Ezek. 38:17–21; Zech. 14:1–15; 2 Th. 1:7–10; Rev. 19:11–21). Just a casual reading of Mal. 3–4 will show that it refers to the second advent of Christ and not to hell (Mal. 3:2–5, 16–18; 4:1–6). Not one word is said about hell in Malachi

5 The wicked shall be annihilated. Scripture gives no doctrine teaching the annihilation of any part of creation. All passages teach the soul is now immortal and the body will be immortal in the resurrection, so no body can be annihilated in hell or any other place. (See p. 881). If the word annihilation is substituted for destroy, destruction, consume, etc., one can see how utterly senseless some scriptures would be in meaning. Try this in Gen. 6:7; 9:11; 41:30; Job 7:9; 19:10, 27; 21:17; 33:21; Ps. 6:7; 31:9–10; 39:10; 78:45; 91:5; Jer. 17:18; 1 Cor. 5:5

6 Men in hell will suffer absolute destruction. The Gr. word for destruction in 2 Th. 1:9 means ruin, but not extinction. Punishment in Index

7 The wicked shall die and be extinct. Death means separation, not annihilation. Death in Index

8 Men in hell will be destroyed, will perish and be no more. The Gr. word for destroy and perish in Mt. 10:28 and Jn. 3:16 is appolumi meaning to torment, mar, and be lost, not annihilate. See note 1, Mt. 10:28. In most places it means simply to die physically and this is not extinction of being, but the passing from one state to another or one place to another (Mt. 2:13; 8:25; 12:14; 18:14; 21:41; 26:52; 27:20; Mk. 1:24; 3:6; 9:22; 11:18; 12:9; Lk. 6:9; 9:56; 13:33; 17:27–29; Jn. 10:10; etc.). In other places it means to be cut off from God or be lost (Mt. 10:6, 42; 15:24; 16:25–26; 2 Cor. 4:3), when a sheep is lost from the shepherd, a man is lost from God in sin, or some other material object is lost, does it mean that these are extinct? When leather bottles are marred by bursting are they extinct (Mk. 2:22)? When homosexuals utterly perish in their corruption does it mean they are to be extinct or die and suffer fleshly corruption by going back to dust bodily? The latter is all it could mean, for the passage states such are yet to receive punishment for their sins (2 Pet. 2:12–13). To see corruption here means going back to dust. Even so, to be destroyed or perish in hell does not mean extinction of being, but separation from God in conscious punishment, as in scriptures above on hell

9 The wicked shall consume away like smoke (Ps. 37:20). The Heb. for consume is kalah, to end; to finish; to cease; to complete; and to take away. It never means extinction of being of the thing consumed. When famine consumed the land did it annihilate the land (Gen. 41:30)? When the Syrians were consumed by the Jewish army were they made extinct or merely defeated (1 Ki. 22:11; 2 Ki. 13:17, 19)? When the sword consumed men did it annihilate them or merely kill the body (Jer. 14:12; 49:27)? When a man is hit by the hand is he annihilated (Ps. 39:10)? When a man consumed was still alive and speaking of the event was he annihilated (Ps. 90:7)? Thus, being consumed like smoke simply refers to passing out of this life to the next where punishment is meted out or the many scriptures on punishment according to works are false. It means that all human activity ceases and life is finished on earth. It does not reveal the fate awaiting the next life

10 The wicked will be burned up like chaff and the fire will go out when it has done its work (Mt. 3:11–12). The comparison of the righteous to wheat and the wicked to chaff, does not prove that the wicked are to be extinct by fire. It merely expresses two destinies at death for two classes. The wicked are not burned up by fire like chaff any more than the righteous are cast into a garner for literal wheat. The picture is merely that of God taking the righteous to heaven and sending the wicked to hell fire to be punished, as in the many scriptures above. That the fire will never die down is stated by Isaiah (66:22–24), John the Baptist (Mt. 3:12), Jesus (Mt. 18:8–9; Mk. 9:43–49), Jude (6–7), John (Rev. 14:9–11; 20:10–15; 21:8)

11 The wicked shall be no more (Pr. 10:25). This is no reference to hell. It merely expresses the end of human activity on earth

12 The place of the wicked shall not be (Ps. 37:10). This is another passage which says nothing of hell, but refers to the passing of the wicked from the earth so that they and their place in human activity shall soon be forgotten. Because the wicked cease to live among men does that do away with the actual places where they did live on earth? If so, then all the earth would pass out of existence, for wicked men have lived on every part of it. The very fact that men will consider places the wicked used to be proves the places themselves are still here

13 The wicked will be devoured by fire (Rev. 20:7–10). This passage refers to the destruction of living natural people who will seek to overthrow the kingdom of Christ at the end of the Millennium. It does not refer to hell or to resurrected people, for the wicked are not to be resurrected until after this (Rev. 20:11–15). The ones killed will be the nations living on the earth during the Millennium and not the wicked dead who are in their graves and in sheol to remain until after this rebellion (Rev. 20:4–15)

14 The wicked dead will be given a second chance and then if they do not accept Christ will be annihilated with the devil and all his angels and demons. The only scripture used by false cults to prove this is Rev. 20:7–10. But, as we have seen above, this refers to the nations living on earth in natural bodies during the Millennium and not to the wicked dead who are not alive during the Millennium (Rev. 20:5). After the Millennium they are to be resurrected, judged, and cast into eternal hell without being given a second probation (Rev. 20:10–15). There is no second chance for any man (Heb. 9:27), no hope of any final restoration for the wicked. Non-existence would not be punishment, for non-existent people would know nothing about it. One cannot punish another who is out of existence. Everlasting punishment means perpetual suffering, and this presupposes perpetual existence in a conscious state. Persons to be punished forever must exist in consciousness forever. To annihilate them would be to do away with everlasting punishment. There would be no one to punish forever. Hence, hell is not extinction of being. The punishment of hell is as long as the life of the righteous: "These shall go away into everlasting (aionios) punishment, but the righteous into life eternal (aionios)" (Mt. 25:41, 46; 18:8; Mk. 3:29; 9:43–49; 2 Th. 1:7–10; Jude 6–7, 13; Rev. 2:11; 14:9–11; 19:20; 20:10–15; 21:8; 22:15; Ps. 52:5; 92:7; Isa. 66:22–24)

Heaven (11:4)

The words heaven and heavens are used 718 times in Scripture. They mean the air, clouds, sky, expanse, stars, and the planet on which God dwells. The word heaven is also used of that which is high (Gen. 11:4; Dt. 1:28)

16 facts about the heavens:

1 There are 3 heavens:
(1) Clouds (Gen. 1:8–9; Job 26:8; 38:9, 25–34; Ps. 77:17–18; Mt. 24:30)
(2) Starry space (Gen. 1:14–19; 15:5) 1–7)
(3) The planet heaven (2 Cor. 12:

2 Created by God (Gen. 1:1; 2:1; Ps. 8:3, note; Isa. 42:5; 45:12–18)

3 Created before earth (Gen. 1:1; 2:1; Job 38:4–7)

4 How made? Materials were brought into existence by God's Word and then formed by God's hands. See The works of God's hands, p. 618

5 When made? In the beginning – in the dateless past (Gen. 1:1; Ps. 8:22–31)

6 How long being created? Unknown. God took 6 days to restore earth to a second habitable state (Gen. 1:3–2:25; Ex. 20:8–11; 31:17), but we suppose He took much longer to create and form it and the vast heavens originally. See The works of God's hands, p. 618

7 Why made? For habitation and maintaining life to glorify God and receive of His infinite blessings (Isa. 45:18; Ps. 8:3–8; Col. 1:15–18; Rev. 4:11)

8 Now inhabited (1 Ki. 22:19; 2 Ki. 21:3, 5; 23:4–5; 2 Chr. 18:18; Neh. 9:6; Mt. 22:30; Eph. 3:15; Col. 1:15–18; Rev. 5:13; 10:6; 12:12; 13:6; 19:1). See The works of God's hands, p. 618

9 Kingdoms in (Col. 1:15–18; Eph. 3:9–10; 2 Pet. 3:22)

10 Laws (Job 38:33; Jer. 31:35–36; 33:25; Ezek. 28:15)

11 Rulers (Gen. 14:19, 22; 24:3, 7; Dan. 4:35; Mt. 6:10; 11:25)

12 How ruled? Not automatically, but by free moral and intelligent agents as earth was (Ezek. 28:11–17; Col. 1:16–17; Dan. 10:10–21; Zech. 1:8–11; 6:1–8). Lucifer was first ruler of earth (Isa. 14:12–14; Ezek. 28:11–17) and man the present ruler (Gen. 1:26–28; Ps. 8:3–8). Such habitable planets as heaven are ruled by others (Col. 1:15–18; Eph. 3:9–10; 1 Pet. 3:22; Ps. 8:3, note)

13 Rebellion and wars (Isa. 14:12–14; Ezek. 28:11–17; Lk. 10:18; Eph. 2:1–3; 6:10–18; 2 Pet. 3:5–8; Rev. 12:7–12)

14 Punishment of rebels (Isa. 14:12–14; 24:21; Ezek. 28:11–17; Mt. 8:29; 25:41; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6–7; Rev. 9; 12:7–12; 20:10)

15 Immeasureable (see p. 618)

16 8 fallacies about the heavens:

(1) Heaven only a state of being. See Solar system, p. 618
(2) Sin cannot enter heaven. See 1 Ki. 22:19–27; Job 1:6; 2:1; Isa. 14:12–14; Lk. 10:18; Rev. 12:7–12
(3) Saved men send material up to heaven to build their mansions. See Jn. 14:1–3; Heb. 11:16; Rev. 21
(4) Nothing to do in heaven but rest (See 50 facts about heaven, below)
(5) Seven heavens. See 2 Cor. 12:1–4
(6) Heaven moved to earth. (One city from heaven will be moved to earth, not heaven itself. See Rev. 21)
(7) Saved to spend eternity in heaven. See Zech. 14:5; Dan. 7:18, 22, 27; Jude 14; Rev. 5:10; 20:1–10
(8) Present heavens will cease to exist. (They will be renovated only. See 2 Pet. 3:10–13, notes)

50 facts about the planet heaven:

1 Heaven is a created planet like earth (Gen. 1:1; 2:1; Ps. 8:3, note)
2 A better country (Heb. 11:10–16)
3 Highest planet (Eph. 1:21; 4:10; Heb. 7:26)
4 A paradise (2 Cor. 12:1–4; Rev. 2:7)
5 God's dwelling place (Dt. 26:15; 1 Ki. 8:30, 39, 43, 49) 16)
6 An heavenly country (Heb. 11:14–
7 Location: In the north part of the universe, in relationship to the earth (Isa. 14:12–14; Ps. 75:6–7); above (1 Ki. 8:23); and in the highest part of creation (Job 22:12; Lk. 2:14; Eph. 1:21; 4:10)
8 Shape: round (Job 22:14; Ps. 19:6) like the earth (Isa. 40:22; Eccl. 1:6) 9 Size: unknown, but perhaps larger than earth, judging from the size of its cities (Rev. 21:9–27), from the size of other planets compared to the earth(see p. 420), and from the number of its inhabitants (Jer. 33:22; Heb. 12:22-23) 10 Has real cities (Heb. 11:10-15; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-27)

11 Mansions (Jn. 14:1-3)
12 Temples (11:4; Rev. 3:12; 7:15; 11:19; 14:17; 15:5; 16:1, 17; Isa. 6:1)
13 Foundations (Job 38:4-7; 2 Sam. 22:8)
14 Tabernacle (Ps. 15:1; Rev. 21:3)
15 Sanctuary (Heb. 8:2, 5; 9:11, 23-24)
16 Ark of the testament (Rev. 11:19)
17 Golden altar, censer, etc. (Rev. 8:3-5)
18 Fire, tongs, etc. (Isa. 6:1-7)
19 Thrones (Isa. 6:1; Dan. 7:9-10; Rev. 3:21; 4:2, 4; 22:3)
20 Books (Lk. 10:20; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 5:1; 13:8; 20:11-15; 22:19)
21 Swords, sickles (1 Chr. 21:16, 27, 30; Rev. 14:14, 17, 18; 19:21)
22 Keys, chains (Rev. 9:1; 20:1)
23 Trumpets (Rev. 8:2)
24 Bowls (Rev. 15:7)
25 Tables (Lk. 22:30)
26 Food (Rev. 2:7, 17; 22:1-3)
27 Chariots (2 Ki. 2:11; 6:17; Zech. 6:1-8; Ezek. 1:15-28; Ps. 68:17)
28 Furniture (Heb. 8:5; 9:23; Ex. 25:40)
29 Floors, rainbows, lightnings, thunders, lamps (Rev. 4:3, 5-6; 15:2)
30 Fountains of waters (Rev. 7:17)
31 Rivers of water (Rev. 22:1)
32 Musical instruments (Rev. 4:8-11; 5:8-14; 7:7-17; 14:1-5; 15:2-4; 19:1-10)
33 Clothing (Dan. 7:9; 10:5; Mt. 28:3; Acts 1:10; Rev. 4:4; 6:9-11; 7:9-17; 16:6; 19:8)
34 Feasts (Lk. 22:16, 30)
35 Drinks (Lk. 22:18; Rev. 7:17)
36 Bread (Ps. 78:24-25; Ex. 16; Jn. 6:31)
37 Roast lamb (Lk. 22:16)
38 Fruits (Rev. 2:7; 22:2)
39 Hidden manna (Rev. 2:17)
40 Animals (2 Ki. 2:11; 6:17; Zech. 1:8, 10; 6:1-5; Rev. 19:11, 14, 21)
41 Stones (Josh. 10:11)
42 Pillars (Job 26:11)
43 Innumeral inhabitants (Jer. 33:22; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 12:12; 13:6)
44 Armies (Dan. 4:35)
45 Trees (Rev. 2:7; 22:1-3)
46 Streets (Rev. 22:1-3)
47 Mountains (Rev. 14:1; Heb. 12:22-23; Zech. 6:1)
48 All material things like we have on earth (Rom. 1:20; Phil. 2:10)
49 Things not lawful to utter - things which man would not believe if he heard of them (1 Cor. 2:10; 2 Cor. 12:1-4; 1 Pet. 1:4)
50 Men have been taken to heaven and have lived there in natural bodies for thousands of years (Gen. 5:24; 2 Ki. 2:1, 11; Zech. 14:11-14; Heb. 11:5; Rev. 11:3-11)

10 "isms" in error about God (14:1)

1 Atheism, a denial of the existence of God. This is the belief of fools (14:1; 53:1)

2 Agnosticism, not knowing - I do not know. It denies ability to know God, or that God can be known. This is contrary to Scripture which pictures God as being clearly understood, even to His eternal power and Godhead (Rom. 1:20, note)

3 Polytheism, the belief in many gods - gods for every thing in nature and for every phase of life. This is the result of apostasy (Rom. 1:21-32).

4 Pantheism, all is God - God is in all things, animals, trees, etc. This teaching, like others is a result of apostasy (Rom. 1:21-25)

5 Dualism, two eternal and opposing principles, or beings, one good and the other evil

6 Deism, God created the world, as a watch-maker fashions a watch, and set it in motion to run by itself without divine interference. This is based upon natural reasoning, with disbelief in revealed religion and the supernatural dogmas of Christianity; natural religion based on reason

7 Monism, All things are made of one substance; man and God are one in essence and substance, though not necessarily the same individuals. The whole universe and each thing therein is varied manifestation of God

8 Materialism denies any distinction between mind and matter. All manifestations of life and all forces are properties of matter. It gives priority to matter rather than mind. Man's brain secretes thought as the liver secretes bile. Man is a mere machine and not responsible for his actions

9 Metaphysicalism is the speculative theory of mind over matter. Everything is mind; there is no matter. God is universal mind. Matter, material creations, sin, death, a personal God, a personal Christ, a personal Holy Spirit, atonement, sickness, pain, suffering, a personal devil, demons, and angels are said to be errors of mortal mind

10 Unitarianism is a doctrine which denies Divine Trinity. See The Trinity, p. 280 of the N. T.

10 arguments for God's existence (14:1)

1 Creation. That the material worlds had a beginning is not only declared by Scripture, but is confirmed by geology, astronomy, and other sciences. Everything begun owes its existence to some producing cause greater than its production. Since creations are great, the cause of them must be infinitely greater. The cause must be intelligent and personal, for force is not personal. It must be aside and apart from the things caused. This cause must be God who is the cause of all causes: and these facts must be concluded because of the nature of the various creations. To think of the vast creations of suns, solar systems, worlds, their inhabitants of intelligent beings, and of varied life without concluding that some intelligent being planned, designed, and brought them into existence is blind and wilful unbelief. It is like thinking there is no intelligent person back of every watch, car, radio, television, or anything else made among men. If someone made all these things, certainly someone made the vast creations in space. The heavens do declare the glory of God. The firmament does show His handywork (Ps. 19:1-6; 8:3-4, note). We can understand God by His creation (Rom. 1:19-20; Job 12:7-25; 38:1-41:34)

2 Design. The design and purpose of all creation prove an intelligent Designer to order and direct all things to useful ends. Nature without God in it is like man's body without life in it, like a watch, radio, television, or any complicated machine without a designer, maker, and maintenance man. Who but God orders, arranges, and maintains the vast solar systems and all life on the planets to the minutest detail? Who causes the systems to run eternally in their own orbits and spheres without the slightest deviation from fixed laws? Just as the Bible is not written and produced by the laws of spelling and grammar, but by intelligent minds according to those laws, so the book of the universe is not written by the laws of nature, but by an intelligent Being who made all things and upholds them by His own power (Heb. 1:3). Out of 5,300 pictures of snow-crystals catalogued no two are exactly alike. Each has 6 points crossing at a 60 degree angle. If one is like a fern it has 6 out-pointing leaves; if like a windmill, it has 6 sails; if like a starfish, 6 ribs; or if like a fir tree, 6 stems with plumes set in perfect symmetry. This makes 3 distinct triangles to each flake. The Heb. word for snow equals 333 (Heb. letters stand for numbers). Could it not be that God has set His symbol of the Triune God in each flake? The average snow storm produces about 1000 billion crystals. Only an intelligent Being could design so many forms. This same infinite design is carried out with every detail of creation, proving an infinite mind. If design is seen in such details as snow how much more are they seen in larger and more visible creations in the earth and heavens?

3 Intuition. This means direct, inborn, self-conscious, sense-perception knowledge; comprehension without effort or reasoning; instinctive knowledge. All men have an intuitive belief in God. Some have so ignored and killed out such natural faith by unnatural and destructive efforts that it is not recognized by them; but in times of sudden danger and in face of realities they automatically call out upon God for help. This proves the intuition is still there but suppressed. Such faith is as much a part of man's faculties as breathing, eating, drinking, etc. It is as natural as the instinct of a chicken out of the shell who starts to pick in the sand around it for something to eat, or a calf who knows where to get its first dinner. The calf does not pick in the sand and a chicken would never think of going to a cow for its food. Nothing in nature has to be school-trained to learn how to act according to its own peculiar nature. So man does not have to learn that there is a God. He knows intuitively that there is one and that in Him he lives, moves, and has his own being (Acts 17:22-28)

4 Nature. Man's moral and spiritual natures know there is a God who approves or condemns all acts of right or wrong. Conscience is the voice of God in man. Moral law makes him a responsible creature and requires him to consecrate himself to the highest good of being and of the universe. It must be that there is a God or moral nature is a lie. It lives in constant respect and fear of the pleasure or displeasure of Him. Man's native moral obligation to moral law implies a moral Lawgiver and Moral Governor of the universe. Willing or unwilling man lives in the sense of such Presence in his life and conduct. Conscience does not lay down the law but it recognizes it. Thus man's moral and intellectual being proves the existence of God to whom he is responsible

5 Universal belief. The vast majority of men in all ages and places have acknowledged the existence of God. The lowest tribes and the most destitute of religion as well as the highest civilized and religious have equally believed in a supreme being. Such is manifest in the manners, customs, literature, religion, and conduct of all men (Rom. 1:21-32)

6 Universal hunger. When a person is physically hungry we know that the hunger argues and demands something to satisfy it. When a man hungers for God that hunger argues and demands Someone or Something to satisfy it. All men hunger for soul satisfaction and long for a Saviour and a Deliverer from all the ills and curses of life. There must be a supreme Being capable of meeting this universal craving when men turn to Him and meet His terms of reconciliation and fellowship (Jn. 3:16-20; 2 Cor. 5:17-21; 6:14-18; 1 Jn. 1:1-9)

7 Dependence and necessity. All men of all ages and places not only recognize the existence of a supreme Being, but they, at times, recognize their dependence upon Him and an absolute necessity for His blessings to sustain life. They realize their own helplessness and long for and call upon God for help in times of need (Ps. 107:1-43; Jonah 1:5-16)

8 Harmony. To believe in the existence of God is the only natural, normal, practical, beneficial, satisfying, factual, necessary, and Scriptural way to believe. When one has the key that will unlock a door he knows he has the right key. Even so, when one has the answer to every question, the explanation of every mystery, the satisfaction to every hunger and desire, the answer to the perplexing problems of the past, present, and future, he knows that he is right in believing there is a God. Atheism is not the answer to one problem. It makes lies of nature, creation, the Bible, and God and leaves helpless and floundering man a victim of misery and despair

9 History. The record of events in all history gives overwhelming evidence of the existence and providence of God - in the rise and fall of nations; the preservation of races; the government of peoples; and innumerable events which had no natural or possible explanation other than the acts of a supernatural Being called God. Multitudes of men have been blessed by Him and redeemed from lives of sin and shame. Some have seen God with the natural eyes; others have had visions and revelations from Him; and still others have known God in an intimate and personal way. These millions of actual contacts and experiences cannot be denied. Healings, miracles, deliverances, and real contacts with God have revolutionized individual lives and whole nations times without number. To deny the existence of God is as foolish as to deny the existence of creation, electricity, heat, light, cold, and innumerable other things, seen and unseen. Multitudes today can testify of changed lives by faith in God, answers to prayer, and personal experiences of many kinds. While this is true among Christians, not one infidel, agnostic, or atheist can boast of any benefit whatsoever from his unbelief. The acid test of Christianity and atheism is the actual benefits of their converts

10 Scriptures. The Bible begins by assuming the existence of God and His creation of all things (Gen. 1:1; Job 38-40). In over 20,000 statements about God in Scripture we get to know all that we need to know about the subject. See note r, Jn. 4:24

22 attributes of God (14:1)

1 A Spirit Being with a personal spirit body, soul, and spirit through which He manifests Himself (note r, Jn. 4:24)
2 Invisible (see p. 222*)
3 Immortal (note g, 1 Tim. 1:17)
4 Eternal (note g, 1 Tim. 1:17)
5 Infinite: in presence (1 Ki. 8:27); power (Mt. 28:18); acts (Mt. 19:26); in time (Dt. 33:27; Ps. 90:2; Isa. 57:15); knowledge (Rom. 11:33); and in greatness (Ps. 145:3)
6 One - in unity with others of the Godhead (see The Trinity, p. 280*)
7 Omnipotent (all power, Rev. 19:6). God can do all things consistent with His nature and plan, but He cannot lie or act contrary to Himself and the best good of all (30 limitations, p. 638)
8 Omnipresent (not omnibody, 1 Ki. 8:27; Ps. 139:7-12). Presence is not governed by bodily contact, but by knowledge and relationship (Mt. 18:20; 28:20. Cp. 1 Cor. 5:3-4). God's body is not omnipresent, for it is only at one place at one time like others (Gen. 3:8; 11:5; 18:1-8, 33; 19:24; 32:24-32; note p. Col. 1:15), but His presence can be realized any place where men know Him and seek Him (Mt. 18:20)
9 Omniscient (all-knowing) as far as His nature, plan, and work are concerned (Rom. 11:33). As to free moral agents, God learns certain things about them (Gen. 6:5-7; 11:5-7; 18:21; 22:12; 2 Chr. 16:9; Job 12:22; 24:23; Ps. 7:9; 44:21; 139:1-6; Pr. 24:12; Jer. 17:10; Ezek. 11:5; Zech. 4:10; 1 Cor. 2:10-11; Rom. 8:27; 1 Th. 2:4). God sends messengers on innumerable duties to help Him carry on His rulership of all things (Dan. 10:13-21; 11:1; 12:1; Zech. 1:7-11; 6:1-8; Mt. 18:10-11; Heb. 1:14). He permits free moral agents freedom of action as to their conduct and destiny (note z, Rom. 8:29)
10 Life (Jer. 10:10; Jn. 5:26; 1 Th. 1:9; Heb. 7:16; Rev. 11:11)
11 Self-existent (Ex. 3:14; 6:3; Jn. 1:4; 5:26)
12 Immutable (Ps. 102:27; Mal. 3:6; 2 Tim. 2:13; Heb. 6:18; Jas. 1:17). He is immutable as to His plan for the highest good of being and of the universe. His plan includes change of methods or ways to save as many men as possible. For example, when He abolished the law of Moses it was no change in God's plan, but rather the execution of that plan (2 Cor. 3:6-15; Gal. 3:19-25; 4:21-34; Heb. 7:11-10:18). When man fell and He had to send Christ, it was simply the fulfillment of the plan (Gen. 3:15; Gal. 3:13-14; 4:4-6). The plan was made to be executed when obedience was rendered and terms met. See 210 warnings on p. 284 of the N. T. When the terms are not met, it is not failure or change with God, but with man 13 Perfect (Dt. 32:4; Ps. 18:30; Mt. 5:48). If any imperfection is noted in creation or redemption it is sin and rebellion in free moral agents that have caused it. God does not change His original plan of creation and redemption. He plans to redeem and restore all creation, except rebel to original perfection (Acts 3:21; Eph. 1:10; 1 Cor. 15:24–28; Rev. 21–22)

14 Truth – the perfect harmony of God's Word (Dt. 32:4; Jn. 17:3; 1 Jn. 5:20)

15 Wisdom (Rom. 11:33; 1 Tim. 1:17)

16 Love by which God communicates to others His infinite goodness (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 15:30; 1 Jn. 4:8)

17 Holy – absolute purity of nature (Ex. 15:11; Isa. 6:3; 1 Pet. 1:16)

18 Righteous – holiness in action. All His acts are right (Rom. 3:21–31; Heb. 12:5–12; 1 Jn. 1:9)

19 Faithful – absolutely trustworthy (1 Cor. 10:13; 2 Cor. 1:20; Heb. 6:18)

20 Merciful, which is divine goodness manifest to relieve His creation of misery and suffering (Rom. 12:1–2; 2 Cor. 1:2; Tit. 3:5)

21 Good – divine goodness by which life is preserved and mercy extended (Mt. 5:45; Rom. 2:4; Acts 14:17)

22 Provident. God cares for and provides for all creation (Job 38:41, note)

All these attributes ascribe a conception of God as having a soul of feelings, emotions, passions, and desires; as having a spirit of intelligence, will, choice powers, self-consciousness, and self-determination; and as having a spirit body through whom these faculties are manifest (see note r, Jn. 4:24)

12 qualifications for entering heaven (15:2)

1 Walk uprightly – without blame (v 2)
2 Work righteousness (v 2) 2)
3 Speak truth inwardly (v 2)
4 Be free from backbiting (v 3)
5 Do no evil to neighbors (v 3)
6 Receive no reproach about neighbors (v 3)
7 Hold vile people condemned (v 4)
8 Honor them that fear the Lord (v 4)
9 Keep word even to own hurt (v 4)
10 Take no advantage of one in need to increase riches (v 5)
11 Refuse bribes (v 5)
12 Protect the innocent (v 5)

8 things God is to His people (18:2)

1 Rock – foundation, Heb. sela, fortress, a cliff, Trans. rock 54 times; Sela, (Isa. 16:1); and Selah (2 Ki. 14:7)

4 important rocks in Scripture:

(1) God, a Rock or Foundation (18:2; 31:3; 40:2; 42:9; 71:3; 2 Sam. 22:2)

(2) Christ, the smitten Rock (78:16; Num. 20:8–11; Neh. 9:15; 1 Cor. 10:4). See note h, Ps. 31:2

(3) Christ, the Foundation of the church (Mt. 16:18; Rom. 9:33; 1 Cor. 3:11–15; 1 Pet. 2:8)

(4) The capital of Edom (2 Ki. 14:7; Isa. 16:1). This will be the place where Israel will flee for protection from Antichrist (notes, Rev. 12:6, 14)

2 Fortress, mountain stronghold – a place of strength and safety (v 2; 31:3; 71:3; 91:2; 144:2; Jer. 16:19. See 1 Sam. 23:14, 19)

3 Deliverer, who causes one to escape (v 2; 40:17; 70:5; 144:2)

4 God. Heb. El, the Almighty, the Strong One. El is God the Omnipotent: the God who knows all, sees all, and performeth all things for His people (57:2)

5 Strength. Heb. tsur, firmness, fountain, source, origin (v 2; 19:14; 73:26; 144:1; Isa. 26:4)

6 Buckler, shield, defender (v 2, 30; Pr. 2:7. Cp. Gen. 15:1). God covers the head and heart so that neither is wounded by the dart of the enemy

7 The horn of salvation (v 2; 2 Sam. 22:3). Horns are frequently used in Scripture as a symbol of power, hence this means a powerful salvation. See 1 Sam. 2:1, 10; Ps. 132:17; Jer. 48:25; Dan. 7:8–24; 8:3–21; Rev. 5:6; 12:3; 13:1, 11; 17:3, 7, 12

8 High tower. The Heb. word misgab signifies a place so high as to be out of danger (v 2; 144:2; 1 Sam. 22:3)

6 classes of men (18:25)

1 The merciful (v 25; Mt. 5:7; Lk. 6:36)
2 The upright (v 23, 25. See note b)
3 The pure (v 26. See note c)
4 The froward (v 26. See note d)
5 The afflicted (v 27. See note f)
6 The proud (v 27; Isa. 2:11; 10:12)

25 blessings of the upright (18:25)

1 Salvation (7:10; Pr. 28:18)
2 Favor or grace (11:7)
3 Rewards (18:23–24)
4 Manifestation of God (18:25)
5 Preservation (25:21)
6 Joy (32:11; 64:10; 97:11)
7 Lovingkindness (36:10)
8 Eternal inheritance (37:18)
9 Peace (37:37)
10 Victory over enemies (49:14)
11 All good things (84:11)
12 Justice (94:15)
13 Prosperity (112:2; Pr. 14:11; 28:10)
14 Light (112:4)
15 Goodness (125:4; Mic. 2:7)
16 Eternal home with God (15:1–2)
17 Contentment (Pr. 28:6) 14&13)
18 An earthly home (Pr. 2:21)
19 Protection (Pr. 2:7)
20 Strength (Pr. 10:29)
21 Guidance (Pr. 11:3; 21:29)
22 Deliverance (Pr. 11:8)
23 A blessing to others (Pr. 11:11)
24 God's delight (Pr. 11:20)
25 Answers to prayer (Pr. 15:8)

25 pure things (18:26)

1 Gold (Used 42 times, Ex. 25:11)
2 Olive oil (Ex. 27:20; Lev. 24:2)
3 Myrrh (Ex. 30:23)
4 Frankincense (Ex. 30:34; Lev. 24:7)
5 Candlesticks (Ex. 31:8; Lev. 24:4)
6 Incense (Ex. 37:29; 39:37)
7 Table (Lev. 24:6)
8 Grape juice (Dt. 32:14)
9 Word of God (12:6; 119:140; Pr. 30:5)
10 God (18:26)
11 Commandments (19:8)
12 Heart (24:4; Mt. 5:8; 1 Tim. 1:5; 2 Tim. 2:22; 1 Pet. 1:22)
13 Men (Pr. 15:26; 21:8; Acts 20:26; 1 Tim. 5:22)
14 Wool (Dan. 7:9)
15 Language (Zeph. 3:9)
16 Offering (Mal. 1:11)
17 All things (meats, etc., Rom. 14:20; Tit. 1:15)
18 Conscience (1 Tim. 3:9; 2 Tim. 1:3)
19 Water (Heb. 10:22)
20 Religion (Jas. 1:27)
21 Wisdom (Jas. 3:17)
22 Minds (2 Pet. 3:1)
23 Christ (1 Jn. 3:3)
24 Linen – righteousness of saints (Rev. 15:6; 19:8)
25 River of water of life (Rev. 22:1)

12 classes that can be saved (18:27)

1 The afflicted (Ps. 18:27)
2 The needy (Ps. 72:4, 13)
3 The meek (Ps. 76:9)
4 The wicked (Ezek. 18:27)
5 His people (Mt. 1:21)
6 The lost (Mt. 18:11; Lk. 19:10)
7 The world (Jn. 3:16–20; 12:47)
8 They that believe (1 Cor. 1:21)
9 All sinners (1 Tim. 1:15; 2:4)
10 Those that heed the gospel and continue to the end (Mt. 10:22; 1 Tim. 4:11–16; 1 Pet. 1:9)
11 Those that come unto God through Jesus Christ (Heb. 7:25)
12 All that call upon the name of the Lord (Acts 2:21; Rom. 10:9–10)

7 examples of absolute perfection (18:30)

1 God the Father (Mt. 5:48)
2 God's Work (Dt. 32:4)
3 God's way (2 Sam. 22:31; Ps. 18:30)
4 God's will (Rom. 12:1–2)
5 God's gifts (Jas. 1:17)
6 God's Word (Ps. 19:7; Jas. 1:25)
7 Jesus Christ (Lk. 6:40; Heb. 2:10; 5:9)

5 examples of perfect men and angels

1 Lucifer (formerly-Ezek. 28:12–15)
2 David (1 Ki. 11:4; 15:3)
3 Asa (1 Ki. 15:14; 2 Chr. 15:17)
4 Job (1:1, 8; 2:3)
5 Spirits of just men made perfect in heaven (Heb. 12:23)

4 commands to be perfect:

1 To Abraham (Gen. 17:1)
2 To Israel (Dt. 18:13)
3 To Solomon (1 Ki. 8:61)
4 To Christians (2 Cor. 13:11)

10 things we can be perfect in:

1 Our walk (Gen. 17:1; Gal. 5:16, 25)
2 Holiness (2 Cor. 7:1; Heb. 12:14)
3 Our ways (2 Sam. 22:33; Ps. 18:32)
4 Peace (Isa. 26:3) 13)
5 Unity (Jn. 17:23; 1 Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:
6 Good works (Heb. 13:21; 2 Tim. 3:
7 God's will (Rom. 12:1–2) 17)
8 Patience (Jas. 1:4)
9 Faith (Jas. 2:22)
10 Love (1 Jn. 2:5; 4:17–18)

30 blessings of God (18:32)

1 Girds me with strength (v 32)
2 Makes my way perfect (v 32)
3 Makes my feet fast and sure like a hind (female deer), so I can catch my enemies or escape if need be (v 33)
4 Sets me on high places (v 33)
5 Teaches me to war (v 34)
6 Gives me salvation (v 35)
7 Holds me up (v 35)
8 Makes me great (v 35)
9 Makes room for my feet (v 36)
10 Helps defeat my enemies (v 37)
11 Helps me overtake them (v 37)
12 Helps destroy them (v 37) 38)
13 Helps bring them to submission (v
14 Makes me strong for battle (v 39)
15 Helps me put down rebellion (v 39)
16 Makes my enemies helpless (v 40)
17 Will not hear my enemies (v 41)
18 Helps me completely destroy them (v 42)
19 Delivered me from enemies among my own people (v 43) 43)
20 Makes me rule over the heathen (v
21 Gives me power over strangers (v 44)
22 Enables me to be their master (v 44)
23 Causes armies to fade away (v 45)
24 Avenges me (v 46–47)
25 Brings all enemies under me (v 47)
26 Delivers me from my enemies (v
27 Lifts me up above them (v 48) 48)
28 Delivers me from violent men (v 48)
29 Gives me great deliverance (v 49– 30 Shows me His mercy (v 50) 50)

4fold confirmation of God's existence (19:1)

1 The heavens declare God's glory. Heb. saphar, to recount, to mark as a tally, number out, inscribe as a writer (v 1; 75:1; Job 12:8)

2 The firmament shows His handwork in creation. Heb. nagad, to front, stand boldly out, manifest, certify (v 1; 111:6; Mic. 6:8)

3 Days utter speech. Heb. naba, to gush forth, belch out, pour out, utter abundantly (v 2, 78:2; 145:7)

4 Nights show knowledge. Heb. chavah, to declare, show, indicate (v 2; Job 15:17; 32:6, 10, 17; 36:2)

If the heavens number out the glory of God and inscribe the infinite works of the Creator; if the firmament manifests His hand-work and certifies His existence; if days constantly pour forth teaching; and if nights declare the knowledge of God, then God's existence is every where confirmed

5 measuring lines (19:4)

Heb. kav, a measuring line or rule (v 4; 1 Ki. 7:23; 2 Ki. 21:13; 2 Chr. 4:2; Job 38:5; Isa. 28:10, 17; 34:11, 17; Jer. 31:39; Ezek. 47:3; Zech. 1:16)

1 Used of measuring (1 Ki. 7:23; 2 Chr. 4:2; Jer. 31:39; Ezek. 47:3)

2 Used of judgment (2 Ki. 21:13; Isa. 28:17; Lam. 2:8; Zech. 1:16)

3 Used of setting bounds to creation (Job 38:5)

4 Used of gradual giving of the Word of God (Isa. 28:10, 13)

5 Here (19:4) it seems to be used of the messages of truth that have gone through all the world. This is the sense in which Paul used it (Rom. 10:18). Some versions translate it good news, their voice, and hope

Presumptuous sins (19:13)

These sins are wilful and deliberate rebellions against light and conscience. Those who commit such will soon be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin (Heb. 3:13). Presumptuous sins were judged by death (Num. 15:30; Dt. 29:19–20; Rom. 6:20–21; 11:32). Woes are pronounced against such sinning (Isa. 5:18–25; 29:15–20)

10 examples of presumptuous sinning:

1 Lucifer (Isa. 14:12–14; Ezek. 28:16)
2 Pharaoh (Ex. 5:2)
3 Moses (Num. 11:11–15, 22)
4 Israel (Ex. 14:11–12; 17:7; Num. 16:41; 1 Cor. 10:9–12)
5 Syrians (1 Ki. 20:28)
6 Rulers of Judah (Isa. 28:14–22)
7 Saul (1 Sam. 13:8–14; 15:3–23)
8 The rich fool (Lk. 12:18–20)
9 The Pharisee (Lk. 18:11–14)
10 Homosexuals (2 Pet. 2:10–11)

30 facts and sufferings of Messiah (22:6)

1 I am forsaken by God (v 1)
2 I am far from being helped (v 1)
3 I am far from being heard (v 1)
4 I am a worm (see note l, 22:6)
5 I am no man (see note m, 22:6)
6 I am a reproach of men (v 6)
7 I am despised of the people (v 6)
8 I am scorned by men (v 7)
9 I am mocked my men (v 7–8)
10 God is My protector from birth (v 11 God is My hope from birth (v 9) 9)
12 God is My dependence from birth (v 10) 10) 13 Jehovah is My God from birth (v
14 God has always been near Me (v 11)
15 I have had to face troubles (v 11)
16 God has been My only help (v 11)
17 Brutal men have compassed Me (v 12)
18 Men were determined to destroy Me (v 13)
19 My life blood is poured out like water (v 14; Jn. 19:34)
20 All My bones are out of joint (v 14)
21 My heart is melted like wax in the midst of My bowels (v 14)
22 My strength is gone (v 15)
23 My tongue is so dry it cleaves to My jaws (v 15)
24 I am laid as a sacrifice (v 15)
25 Gentiles have compassed Me (v
26 The wicked enclosed Me (v 16) 16)
27 My hands and feet are pierced (v 16)
28 My bones out of joint cause men to stare at Me (v 17)
29 My garments are coveted (v 18)
30 Men gamble for My vesture (v 18)

20 blessings of the Millennium (22:22)

1 The Messiah will declare God's name to His brethren in the church (v 22; Heb. 2:12)
2 Gentiles will praise God (v 23; 18:49; 117:1; Dt. 32:43; Isa. 11:1, 10)
3 Israel also will praise God (v 23)
4 The poor will not be despised (v
5 God will hear the poor (v 24) 24)
6 Messiah will praise God in the great congregation of both Jews and Gentiles (v 25; Zech. 14:16–21; Rev. 11:15)
7 Messiah will pay His own vows before all who worship God (v 25)
8 The meek will be satisfied (v 26; 37:11; Isa. 11:4; Mt. 5:5)
9 Prayer and praise to God will be universal (v 26; Mal. 1:11)
10 Men will begin to live forever (v 26; Mt. 25:46; Rev. 21:3–7; Isa. 65:20–25)
11 Revival will be manifest in all the earth (v 27; Joel 2:28–31; Isa. 2:2–4; 52:7; Zech. 8:23; 14:16–21)
12 All nations will worship God (v 27; Isa. 2:2–4; Zech. 14:16–21)
13 All kingdoms on earth will be ruled by Christ (v 28; Dan. 2:44–45; 7:13–14, 18, 27; Zech. 14:9–21; Lk. 1:32–33; Rev. 11:15; 20:4–10)
14 Christ will be governor among the nations (Isa. 9:6–7; Dan. 7:13–14; Zech. 14:9–21; Lk. 1:32–33; Rev. 11:15; 20:4–10)
15 The rich and the great ones of earth will worship God (v 29)
16 All enemies shall bow before Him (v 29; 72:9; Isa. 2:12–21; 11:4–5)
17 All will have God as the source of eternal life (v 29)
18 A seed shall serve the Messiah, the eternal generations of which shall proclaim the Lord as sovereign (v 30; Isa. 59:20–21)
19 The seed shall be an eternal generation, i.e., will live forever in service to God (v 26, 30; Isa. 59:20–21; Dan. 2:44–45; 7:13–14)
20 They (the eternal generation) shall come and declare God's righteousness to people that will be born in all eternity (v 31; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6–7; Dan. 2:44–45; 7:13–14, 18, 27; Lk. 1:32–33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4–5). See Eternal generations of natural people, p. 312, col. 4, N.T.

21 reasons to wait on God (27:14)

1 Freedom from shame (25:3)
2 Integrity and uprightness (25:21)
3 Preservation (25:21)
4 Renewed strength and courage (27:14; 31:24; Isa. 40:31)

21 Second advent (Lk. 12:36; 1 Cor. 1:7; 1 Th. 1:9-10; 2 Th. 3:5; 1 Tim. 6:14)

7 ways of waiting on God:

1 Prayerfully (25:4-6)
2 Patiently (37:7; 145:15)
3 Single-mindedly (62:5)
4 Expectantly (62:5-6; 123:2; Mic. 7:7)
5 Longingly (130:5-6)
6 Quietly (Lam. 3:26)
7 Continually (Hos. 12:6)

7 examples of waiting on God:

1 Jacob (Gen. 49:18)
2 David (Ps. 25:4-5, 21; 33:18-22)
3 Isaiah (8:17)
4 Jeremiah (14:22)
5 Micah (7:7)
6 Simeon (Lk. 2:25) 15-16)
7 All creation (Ps. 104:25-28; 145:

God also waits - upon man (Isa. 30:18)

Imputation (32:2)

Imputation - justification from all sin (v 2). Heb. chashab, to be reckoned or put to the account of one; charge with. Gr. logizomai, numbered (Mk. 15:28); accounted (Rom. 8:36; Gal. 3:6); accounting (Heb. 11:19); account of (1 Cor. 4:1); counted (Rom. 2:26; 4:3, 5; 9:8); count (Phil. 3:13); laid to their charge (2 Tim. 4:16); reckoned (Lk. 22:37; Rom. 4:4, 9, 10); reckon (Rom. 6:11; 8:18); and impute (Rom. 4:6, 8, 11, 22, 23, 24; 2 Cor. 5:19; Jas. 2:23)

Imputation is that act of God in salvation whereby He accounts the believer righteous in Christ because Christ bore his sins and because he has properly repented of his sins and met God's terms of reconciliation (Rom. 3:24-31; 4:1-25; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; Gal. 3:6-9, 13-14)

Redemption fallacies refuted:

The fallacy will first be stated and then the refutation with Scripture

1 God cannot and does not impute sins of believers to their account

The fact is that God cannot do otherwise if believers go back into sin again. Sin has to be imputed where there is a law broken (Rom. 5:13; 6:23; 8:12-13)

2 Christ bore the sins of the saved and they cannot be charged to Him more than once. Even in civil courts a crime cannot be charged to a man twice

This is only half-truth, as it deals with sins that have been forgiven. If the same man commits the same sins again any civil court will charge them to the same man again, yes, again and again if he commits them that many times. So it is with the divine court. A man forgiven of past sins must quit sin. If he commits the same sins again after conversion he will be charged with them again. They must be properly confessed and forgiven again or he will pay the death penalty for the new crimes (Ezek. 18:4, 20-26; Rom. 6:23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; 2 Tim. 2:12)

3 All sins, past, present, and future, are forgiven once and forever. Christ bore the sins of all men, but one cannot receive forgiveness until sin is committed and confessed. Even sin that is committed and not confessed cannot be forgiven (Lk. 13:3, 5; 1 Jn. 1:9). The fact that all sinners are not saved proves this. If men could not be damned for committing unconfessed sins which Christ has borne, then no man would be lost, for He bore the sins of all (Rom. 5:8; Gal. 1:4; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18; Heb. 2:9). Redemption cannot become effective with anyone who refuses to repent and conform to the whole truth (Mk. 16:15-16; Lk. 13:3, 5; Acts 2:38; 3:19; 1 Jn. 1:7, 9)

4 God cannot and does not see the sins of believers. In fact, their sins are not real sins. All He sees is the blood of Christ that automatically covers sin. One born again cannot commit sin

These claims are denials of every principle of divine and human governments. No government could possibly be just and righteous that permitted such a program with criminals. In human government no case is known where a criminal was forgiven and told that he could not possibly be held responsible for committing the same crime again; that if he did commit such it was not really a crime in his case; that it would be automatically forgiven; that the law would never again see any crime he committed; that all it would see would be the pardon he had received; and that stipulated in the pardon was absolute freedom from any future punishment even for the worst of crimes. Every sane, just, and righteous being would rise up to overthrow such a government if one existed. And yet, this is the kind of government many in the church teach and believe in as divine government. God has repeatedly stated that He will punish every sin, even to every idle word (Mt. 12:37-39; Rom. 2:12-16; 2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 20:11-15). See Warnings, p. 284 of N.T.

5 It dishonors the blood of Christ to teach that it covers only past sins or the sins of the faithful only. A believer does not have to continue to be faithful to be saved, Sin can never reign over a saved man again regardless of what he does, He is saved even though he serves sin and Satan, Not one child of God can return to his former state of sin and be condemned, He cannot choose to be saved or lost, God chooses men to be saved and all such are secure in His choice, If a man could choose to be saved or lost then he would be more powerful than God, There is no human element in salvation, All men sin every day, The only difference between the saved and unsaved is that one has accepted Christ and the other has not. Sin is inseparable from one in this life, In the believer sin is unchanged and unchangeable, Even the unsaved are not condemned for their sins, how much less is this true of the saved, God is able to keep one saved who may be sinning every day, If man's choice governs his destiny, then the sovereign grace of God is subject to the will of man and God Himself ceases to be sovereign.

There is not one Scripture to support these false claims. God does not lose sovereignty through His plan of redemption requiring men to meet His terms or be lost. Obedience to God according to the gospel is the basis of all justification and imputation of righteousness to man. God requires confession of sins (Lk. 13:3, 5; 1Jn. 1:9), faith (Jn. 3:16; Eph. 2:8-9), and choice on man's part in conformity to the plan of redemption before He justifies a man (Mk. 16:16; Rom. 1:5, 16; 3:24-31; 5:1-11; Rev. 22:17). From God's standpoint, redemption is provided for all men and it is His will that all accept Christ and be saved (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17), but no man will be forgiven who personally refuses to believe and conform to the gospel. When one does obey the gospel, then, and then alone, sins are forgiven and not imputed to him; and this is all imputation means in Ps. 32:2; Rom. 4:3-13, 22-25; 2 Cor. 5:19. No believer has to sin, but if he does it will be charged to him and he will pay the death penalty if he dies in sin (Ex. 32:32; Ezek. 18:4, 20-26; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; 2 Tim. 2:12; Jas. 5:19-20). See Warnings, p. 284 of N. T.

Freedom from sin (32:2)

Freedom from sin is truly possible in the body (Rom. 6:6-7, 16-23; 8:1-4, 12-13; 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:19-20; 7:34; 9:27; 2 Cor. 4:10; 7:1; Eph. 1:4; 4:24; 5:25-27; Col. 1:20-23; 2:11-13; 3:5-12; 1 Th. 4:3-7; Tit. 2:11-13; Heb. 12:10-14; 1 Jn. 1:7-9; 2:1-2, 29; 3:5-10; 5:1-4, 18) as well as in the soul and spirit (2 Cor. 7:1)

Affliction (34:19)

Heb. ra, bad; evil; adversity; affliction; calamity; grief; sorrow; wretchedness (v 19; 107:39; Jer. 48:16) Obad. 13; Zech. 1:15). It is never trans. sin. The idea is that God made sorrow, misery, wretchedness, etc., as the sure fruit of sin. He made the law of sowing and reaping (Gal. 6:7-8). Out of 177 times where the word affict, with its various endings, is found it refers to physical disease only 5 or 6 times

12 general facts about affliction:

1 God regulates it according to the law of sowing and reaping (Ps. 80:5; Lev. 26; Isa. 9:1)
2 He determines the length (Gen. 15:13-14; Num. 14:33; Isa. 10:25; Jer. 29:10)
3 Not sent willingly (Lam. 3:33)
4 Men born in affliction (Job 5:6-7)
5 Saints appointed to it (Jn. 16:33; Acts 14:22; 1 Th. 3:3; 1 Pet. 5:9)
6 Often severe (Dt. 28; Rev. 7:14)
7 Light, compared to future glory (Acts 20:23-24; Rom. 8:18; 2 Cor. 4:17)
8 Only temporary (Ps. 30:5; 103:9)
9 Hardens some (Ex. 4-12; Neh. 9:28-29)
10 Blesses self (Ps. 119:71; Jas. 1:12)
11 Often misinterpreted (see Job's great mistake, end of book of Job)
12 Prayers in (Gen. 32:11; 2 Chr. 33:12-13; Ps. 6:1-4; 31:1-17; 38:1-10; 51:1-17; Isa. 38:2-19; Acts 4:29-30)

12 causes of affliction:

1 Sin (Gen. 3:16; Ps. 25:18; 89:32)
2 Backsliding (Ps. 119:67)
3 Misuse of tongue (Pr. 26:28)
4 Resentment (Gen. 16:4-11)
5 Pride (Job 33:14-29)
6 Impenitence (Pr. 1:30-31; Rev. 2:21)
7 Born in it (Job 5:6)
8 Mistreatment of others (Gen. 27:1-46 with 32:11; Gen. 37 with 42:21)
9 Hardness of heart (Ex. 4-12)
10 Idolatry (Judg. 10:6-10; 2 Ki. 17)
11 Forgetting God (1 Sam. 12:9-10)
12 Hypocrisy (Mt. 23)

12 purposes of affliction:

1 To work good in one (Ps. 119:71)
2 Hide pride from man (Job 33:14-29)
3 Demonstrate God's faithfulness (Ps. 119:75)
4 To test sincerity (Mk. 4:17; Job 1-2; Jas. 5:10-11)
5 To refine, purify, and increase fruitfulness (Isa. 48:10; Jn. 15:2; Heb. 12:10-11)
6 To increase power and graces (Rom. 5:1-8; Jas. 1:2-4; 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:9)
7 To bring back to God (Hos. 5:15; Job 33:14-29)
8 To humble and correct (2 Sam. 12:14; Ps. 89:30-32; Heb. 12:5, note) 11) 9 To make examples (1 Cor. 10:5,
10 To manifest love (Pr. 3:11-12; Heb. 12:5-10; Rev. 3:19)
11 To give reward (Rom. 8:17; 2 Cor. 4:17; Jas. 1:12; 1 Pet. 1:7; 4:14)
12 To learn obedience and truth (Ps. 119:71; Heb. 5:8; 12:5-10)

12 promises in affliction: God will

1 Hear the afflicted (Job 34:28)
2 Save them (Ps. 18:27)
3 Have mercy on them (Isa. 49:13)
4 Deliver them from fear (Ps. 23:4)
5 Deliver them out of all their troubles (Ps. 34:19; 50:15)
6 Uphold them (Ps. 37:23-33; 55:22)
7 Reward them (Mt. 5:10-12)
8 Be a refuge for them (Ps. 9:9-10)
9 Remember their weakness (Ps. 103:10 Hide them (Ps. 27:5) 13)
11 Consider them (Ps. 31:7) 12:9) 12 Give them sufficient grace (2 Cor.

12 ways men can be afflicted:

1 Slavery and oppression (Gen. 15:13; 31:50; Ex. 1:11-12; Heb. 11:25)
2 Hardships of various kinds (Ex. 22-23; Jas. 1:27; note k, Heb. 12:5)
3 Family troubles (Gen. 16:1-11)
4 Barrenness (1 Sam. 1:11)
5 Cursing (2 Sam. 16:12)
6 Imprisonment (Ps. 107:10)
7 Tribulation and persecution (2 Cor. 2:4; 4:17; 8:2; Mk. 13:19)
8 Crucifixion (Isa. 53:4-7)
9 Fasting to afflict the soul (Lev. 16:29-31; Num. 29:7; 30:13; Isa. 58:3)
10 Conquests - being defeated in war (Num. 24:24; 2 Ki. 17:20; Neh. 1:3)
11 Physical sufferings for sport (Judg. 16:5, 6, 19, 21-31)
12 Poverty and hunger (Ruth 1:21; 1 Ki. 22:27; Ps. 107:38-41; Isa. 58:7-10)

12 kinds of affliction:

1 Men afflicting men (Gen. 15:13; 31:42) 22-23)
2 Men oppressing widows (Ex. 22
3 Husbands mistreating wives (Gen. 29:32; 31:50)
4 Masters oppressing slaves (Ex. 1:11-12; 3:7, 17; 4:31; Dt. 26:6-7)
5 Conquerors afflicting the conquered (Num. 24:24; Judg. 16:5-31; Isa. 9:1)
6 Self-affliction of the soul by fasting (Lev. 16:29-31; Isa. 58:5; Jas. 4:9)
7 Wicked men afflicting neighbors in various ways (Ps. 89:22)
8 Wicked persecuting the godly (Ps. 94:5; 143:12; Amos 5:12)
9 Gentiles oppressing Jews (Isa. 51:23; Amos 6:14; Mt. 24:9)
10 Heavy responsibility (Num. 11:11)
11 Sufferings of Christ (Isa. 53:4)
12 Various agents of God causing many kinds of suffering according to God's law of sowing and reaping (Job 37:23; 1 Ki. 11:39; 2 Ki. 17:20; 2 Chr. 6:26; Jer. 31:28; Nah. 1:12)

12 examples of suffering affliction:

1 God (Isa. 63:9)
2 Christ (Isa. 53:7; Col. 1:24). The fact that both God and Christ have suffered affliction proves that it should not be understood as sickness or disease as is taught by many. They have never been sick, but they have been afflicted. Substitute disease with the many passages above and see how senseless the idea is in nearly every passage
3 Israel (Gen. 15:13)
4 Hagar (Gen. 16:11)
5 Jacob (Gen. 31:42; 41:52)
6 Joseph (Acts 7:10)
7 Job (10:15; 30:16, 27; Jas. 5:10)
8 David (Ps. 132:1)
9 Manasseh (2 Chr. 33:12)
10 The prodigal son (Lk. 15:1-32)
11 Paul (2 Cor. 1:6; 2 Tim. 3:11)
12 Saints (Heb. 11:37; Col. 1:24; 1 Pet. 5:9)

Perish (37:20)

Heb. abad, to be lost. It never means annihilation, but a cutting off from realizing the good for which the person, beast, or thing was created

20 things that perish:
1 Men die in dispersion (Lev. 26:38); judgment (Num. 16:33) and war (Num. 21:30) (Job 3:3)
2 Day perishes by being forgotten
3 Animals die of old age (Job 4:11)
4 Hope perishes (Job 8:13) 18:17)
5 Remembrance is blotted out (Job
6 Way of ungodly perishes (1:6)
7 Expectation (9:18)
8 The wicked (Ps. 49:10; 68:2; 73:27)
9 Name (41:5)
10 Creation wakes old (102:26)

17 Law (Jer. 18:18)
18 Crops perish (Joel 1:11)
19 Good men (Mic. 7:2)
20 Memory perishes (Isa. 26:14)

Saints (37:28)

Heb. chasid, kind; pious; holy; favored or gracious ones (v 28; 30:4; 31:23; 50:5; 52:9; 79:2; 85:8; 97:10; 116:15; 132:9, 16; 145:10; 148:14; 149:1, 5, 9; 1 Sam. 2:9; 2 Chr. 6:41; Pr. 2:8). Saints are made by God and are such in this life. None are canonized after death. The word is used 39 times in the O.T. and 62 times in the N.T. See note h, Acts 9:13. The word is never used of angels, only of redeemed men

24 things that constitute a saint:
1 Control of own spirit (v 1, 7, 8)
2 Freedom from jealousy and envy (v 1)
3 Absolute trust in God (v 3, 5, 40)
4 Consecration to do good (v 3)
5 Constant delight in God (v 4) 5)
6 Keeping life committed to God (v
7 Simple and unwavering faith in God (v 5)
8 Absolute dependence upon God (v 7, 9, 39)
9 Freedom from anger and wrath (v
10 Meekness and humility (v 11) 8)
11 Abundance of peace (v 11)
12 Complete satisfaction with lot in life (v 16-19)

17 Household under control (v 26)
18 Righteousness (v 21, 29, 30)
19 Wisdom and justice (v 30)
20 True to God's law (v 31, 34) 30)
21 Propagating truth among men (v
22 Living perfect and upright (v 37)
23 Possessing full salvation (v 39-40)
24 Standing firm in time of trouble (v 39)

Where saints spend eternity (37:29)

The modern church theory that saints are to spend eternity in heaven is no where taught in Scripture. All saints will be translated and will stay in heaven until they come back with Christ at His 2nd advent (Zech. 14:5; Jude 14). Then they will reign on earth with Christ (Rev. 20:4-10) but continue to live in the New Jerusalem in heaven until it is moved from heaven to the new earth (Rev. 21:2, 9-10). Saints will go back and forth from heaven and and earth during the 1,000 years, then live eternally on earth with God in the new earth (Rev. 21-22). The natural people who will go from the tribulation into the Millennium will continue to live in the new earth as subjects of Christ and resurrected saints forever, if they do not rebel with Satan at the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:7-10). They will live forever by virtue of the tree of life (Rev. 22:2) and not by change of body from mortality to immortality as the resurrected saints (1 Cor. 15:35-54; Phil. 3:21). Both classes of human beings - the resurrected ones and the natural ones will inhabit the earth forever (v 9, 11, 18, 29, 34; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; 17:8; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Zech. 14; Mt. 5:5; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)

8 good results of chastening (38:5)

1 Makes one pray (v 1, 16, 21, 22)
2 Awakens to the foolishness of sin (v 3, 5)
3 Makes one desire God (v 9)
4 Enables him to know his true friends
5 Makes one compassionate and merciful to others (v 12-14)
6 Makes him penitent (v 6, 8, 17, 18)
7 Produces hope and faith (v 15)
8 Encourages a life of following that which is good (v 20)

7 blessings of waiting on God (40:1)

1 He turned toward me (v 1)
2 He did hear me (v 1)
3 He brought me up out of the pit (v 2)
4 Out of the miry clay (v 2)
5 He set my feet upon a rock (v 2)
6 He established my ways (v 2)
7 He put a new song in my mouth (v 3)

10 personal references in Ps. 42: (42:3)

1 My soul (v 2) 7 My rock (v 9)
2 My tears (v 3) 8 My bones (v 10)
3 My meat (v 3) 9 My enemies (v 10)
4 My God (v 6) 10 My countenance
5 My prayer (v 8) (v 11). Cp. 43:5
6 My life (v 8) 44:3; 89:15; 90:8

There are 43 personal pronouns in Ps. 42 and 9 questions

8 works of God under Joshua: He (44:1)

1 Drove out the heathen (v 2)
2 Planted Israel (v 2)
3 Punished the heathen (v 2)
4 Cast out the heathen (v 2)
5 Gave Israel their possessions (v 3)
6 Saved Israel by His power (v 3)
7 Saved Israel by His own right hand
8 Saved Israel by His countenance (v 3)

8fold confidence in God (44:4)

1 You are my King (v 4) 4)
2 You will command deliverances (v
3 You will push down our enemies (v 5)
4 You will help us against all who rise up against us (v 5) (v 6)
5 I will trust You, not my bow or sword
6 You have already saved us from our enemies (v 7)
7 You have already put to shame all that hated us (v 7)
8 In You we will boast all day and praise You forever (v 8)

16fold judgment (44:9)

Here we have a 16fold judgment on Israel and the psalmist given after two and before two others of the four 8fold subjects, as seen in the outline of Ps. 44:

1 8fold deliverance by God (v 1-3)
2 8fold confidence in God (v 4-8)
3 16fold judgment on Israel (v 9-16)
4 8fold accusation of God (v 17-22)
5 8fold prayer for deliverance (v 23-26)

16fold judgment on Israel and psalmist:

1 Thou hast cast us off (v 9)
2 Put us to shame (v 9) (v 9)
3 Failed to go forth with our armies
4 Made us to turn from enemies (v 10) 10)
5 We are spoiled by our enemies (v
6 Thou hast given us over, to die (v 11) 11)
7 Scattered us among the heathen (v
8 Sold us for nothing (v 12) 12)
9 Made us a present to enemies (v
10 Made us a reproach to others (v 13)
11 Made us an object of scorn (v 13)
12 Made us a byword to heathen (v 14)
13 Made us rejected by others (v 14)
14 Made me confused (v 15)
15 Made me ashamed (v 15)
16 Made me an object of ridicule and blasphemy (v 16)

In reality God was not to blame, for Israel's own sins had caused them to reap (Gal. 6:7-8). God had told them of such curses if they sinned (Dt. 28; Lev. 26), and He was obligated to keep His word

Examples of despondency (42:6)

1 Cain (Gen. 4:13-14)
2 Hagar (Gen. 21:15-16)
3 Israel (Num. 17:12-13; Dt. 28:65-4 Job (3:1-24; 17:13-15) 67)
5 David (v 5-6, 11; 43:2)
6 Asaph (Ps. 77:7-9)
7 Elijah (1 Ki. 19:4)
8 Jonah (4:3-8)

10 things of man God knows (44:21)

1 His imaginations (Dt. 31:21; 1 Chr. 28:9; Pr. 6:18; Rom. 1:21; 2 Cor. 10:5)
2 The hearts of all (1 Sam. 16:7; 1 Ki. 8:39; Lk. 16:15; Acts 1:24; 15:8)
3 All the ways of man (Job 31:4; Ps. 1:6; Pr. 5:21; Heb. 4:12; Mk. 7:19-21)
4 The secrets of the heart (Ps. 44:21)
5 The thoughts of men (Ps. 94:11)
6 The thoughts afar off (Ps. 139:2)
7 Every word in the tongue (Ps. 139:4)
8 Works and thoughts (Isa. 66:18)
9 The thoughts and intents of the heart (Heb. 4:12) 17:9)
10 The deceitfulness of the heart (Jer. See notes g and p, Pr. 23:26, 33)

21 reasons the queen of Ps. 45 is not the bride of Christ or the church (45:9)

1 The details of the psalm clearly picture an earthly wedding of the king of Israel (v 1-5, 8-16)
2 There is no proof that this wedding is in any way symbolic, typical, or figurative of the marriage supper of the Lamb in Rev. 19:1-10. Where there is no plain teaching of any application of Scripture we are not free to force such meanings into the Bible
3 The marriage in this psalm is the uniting of a single man with a woman, while the marriage of Rev. 19:1-10 is to be that of millions of redeemed men and women with Christ (v 1, 9-14)
4 If the woman in the psalm typified the bride of Christ, who is a city, there would be a reference to it elsewhere as with other true types
5 The woman here could not be symbolic of the N.T. church because the church is compared to a man, being the body of Christ who is a man (Eph. 2:14-15; 4:13)
6 No feminine pronoun is ever used of the church (see notes on 2 Th. 2:7; col. 2 and 3, p. 230 of N.T.)
7 The church is never called a queen, as this Gentile bride of Solomon (v 9)
8 The church is never called a daughter much less a king's daughter, as here (v 10, 15)
9 Neither the church nor other redeemed ones will be clothed in garments of wrought gold and needlework as this queen (v 9, 13-14). They are to wear clean and white linen symbolizing their righteousness (Rev. 19:8)
10 There will not be redeemed ones of the church, some who are not a part of the bride of Christ acting as companions of the bride to correspond with the companions of this queen (v 9, 12-14). All the redeemed without exception will be a part of the bride of Christ, the Holy City or New Jerusalem (Heb. 11:1-16; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-10, notes)
11 The church will not stand on the right hand of Christ, as this queen does on the right of Solomon (v 9). Some of the redeemed will be on the right hand and others on the left hand of Christ (Mt. 20:20-22)
12 No part of the church or the bride of Christ will be given gifts by companions as in the case of this queen (v 12). All redeemed will be equal as a part of the Holy City, the bride (Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-10)
13 There will be no rich people among the redeemed who will not be a part of the church or the bride of Christ, as in this case (v 12). Every poor man and every rich one will be equally part of the bride of Christ - the Holy City (Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-10)
14 There will be no man, rich or poor, who will intreat the favor of the people making up the bride of Christ, as here (v 12). Regarding equality of the redeemed, see Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 2:9; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-10
15 No part of the redeemed will be more glorious than others, regarding a place to live, as here (v 13-15). All will have the same kind of mansions (Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-10)
16 There will be no difference in the clothing of the redeemed (Rev. 19:8), as is here (v 9, 13-14)
17 There will be no respect of persons manifest by Christ among the redeemed, as here (v 9, 11-15). This king loved and respected his queen more than all others present, but Christ will love and respect all alike who are present at His wedding (Rev. 19:1-10)
18 The church or the redeemed will not be brought to Christ by someone else at the time of the marriage of the Lamb, as here (v 14-15). Christ will come personally for the church and all redeemed to present them to Himself (Jn. 14:1-3; Eph. 5:27; 1 Th. 4:16)
19 There will be no virgins following the bride of Christ, as here (v 14). Any who accept the invitation of the saints to be saved become as much a part of the bride as those who have already been redeemed (Rev. 22:17). When the redeemed enter the palace of God all will be a part of the bride (Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-10)
20 There will be no presenting of companions when the redeemed enter heaven, as here (v 14-15). Christ will come for all and all will be His bride, not some followers of the bride (Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-54; Eph. 5:27; Phil. 3:21; Col. 3:4; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 19:1-10; 21:2, 9-10)
21 There will be no anticipation of off-spring to be made princes in all the earth, as here (v 16). The marriage of the Lamb will not be a physical one, but a spiritual union forever (Rev. 19:1-10). There will be no children brought forth to become rulers in the earth. All redeemed saints will be kings and priests over all nations forever (Lk. 22:30; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 1:6; 3:21; 5:10; 20:4-6; 22:4-5)

Holiness (48:1)

This word is found 30 times in the O.T. and 13 in the N.T.

14 ways "holiness" used of God:
1 He is glorious in holiness (Ex. 15:11). This refers to His nature
2 Sits on throne of His holiness (Ps. 47:8)
3 Lives in the mountain of His Holiness (Ps. 48:1; Jer. 31:23)
4 Speaks in holiness (Ps. 60:6; 108:7)
5 Swears by His holiness (Ps. 89:35)
6 Holiness becomes His house (Ps. 93:5)
7 Holiness is associated with His power as producing obedience (Ps. 110:3)
8 The highway going up to His capital building on earth will be called the highway of holiness (Isa. 35:8)
9 His house is called courts of holiness (Isa. 62:9) (Isa. 63:15)
10 His habitation is one of holiness
11 His chosen are called the people of His holiness (Isa. 63:18)
12 His words are of holiness (Jer. 23:9)
13 His Spirit is called the Spirit of holiness (Rom. 1:4)
14 He is to be worshipped in the beauty of holiness (1 Chr. 16:29)

5 Highway to God's house (Isa. 35:8)
6 Courts of God (Isa. 62:9)
7 God's habitation (Isa. 63:15)
8 Mt. Zion (Obadiah 17)
9 Horses (Zech. 14:20)
10 Pots (Zech. 14:21)

10 facts: Christians and holiness

1 Christians are created in righteousness and true holiness (Eph. 4:24)
2 They are commanded to live in holiness before God all their days (Lk. 1:75; Rom. 6:19; Heb. 12:14)
3 They must bring forth fruit unto holiness (Rom. 6:22)
4 They must perfect holiness in the fear of God (2 Cor. 7:1)
5 Must have hearts unblameable in holiness before God (1 Th. 3:13) 7) 6 They are called to holiness (1 Th. 4:
7 They must continue in holiness to be blessed (1 Tim. 2:15)
8 They must govern lives according to holiness (Tit. 2:3)
9 They must be partakers of holiness (Heb. 12:10)
10 They must follow holiness, without which no man shall see God (Heb. 12:14)

10 reasons Ps. 50 refers to judgment of the nations (50:1)

1 The call is to the earth (v 1; Mt. 25:31-32), meaning the inhabitants of the earth, not the inhabitants of sheol or hades, as at the great white throne judgment in Rev. 20:11-15
2 The statement from the rising of the sun to its going down proves the scene is on earth and for those who are all ve on earth at this time (v 1; 113:3; Mt. 25:31-46), while the judgment of Rev. 20:11-15 is not on earth
3 The phrase Out of Zion, is used always of earthly Zion except in Rom. 11:26; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 14:1
4 The fact that God shall come proves an earthly scene, and that He comes from heaven, His dwelling place, to the earth where the nations are (Dan. 7:9-14, 22; Mt. 25:31-46). The only time God the Father will come to earth to judge will be at the 2nd advent of Christ (Dan. 7:9-14, 22; Zech. 14:5; Tit. 2:13)
5 The fact that when He comes to fulfil this prophecy He will not keep silence, indicates vengeance on inhabitants of earth (Isa. 61:2; 63:1-4; Zech. 14:1-5; Dan. 7:9-14, 22), not men in hell, as in Rev. 20:11-15
6 A fire devouring before Him (v 3), is definitely an event connected with the 2nd advent of Christ and the 1st advent of God the Father to the earth (Ezek. 38:17-21; 2 Th. 1:7-10), and not an event at the great white throne judgment of Rev. 20:11-15
7 The fact that the heavens are above this scene proves it to be an event on earth (v 4; Dan. 7:9-14, 22; Mt. 25:31-46) and not in heaven as will be the event of Rev. 20:11-15
8 The phrase to the earth to judge the people proves it to be the judgment of the nations (v 4; Dan. 7:9-14, 22; Mt. 25:31-46), not the judgment in heaven, of Rev. 20:11-15
9 The command to gather together His saints, even those who made a covenant by a sacrifice (the Jewish people) proves the scene to be on earth and at the 2nd advent of Christ when Israel will be gathered to Palestine (v 5; Isa. 11:10-12; Ezek. 37; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Rom. 11:25-29). At the great white throne judgment Israel will not be gathered. Only the dead will be judged then (Rev. 20:11-15)
10 The fact that God the Father is judge indicates the same as the judgment of the nations in Dan. 7:9-14, 22, Christ will also be judge (Mt. 25:31-46)

Thus v 1-6 refer to the judgment of the nations, as in Mt. 25:31-46, and not the great white throne judgment of Rev. 20

Spirit (51:10)

Heb. ruach, occurs 389 times and is rendered spirit 237 times. In the remaining 152 times it is rendered 22 different ways. The Greek word for spirit in the N. T. is pneuma. It occurs 385 times and corresponds to ruach above. The primary meaning of both words is invisible force. The spirit of man is the intellect, will, mind, conscience, and other invisible faculties that make him a free moral agent and a rational being. Both the soul and spirit of man are immortal (see p. 270). They are so closely related that it is hard to distinguish the finer details of difference between them, but there is a difference. This is clear from 1 Th. 5:23; Heb. 4:12. In general we can say that the spirit is that which knows (1 Cor. 2:11), and the soul is that which feels. See Job 14:22, note. Both make the inner man which leaves the body at death (Jas. 2:26)

The word "spirit" is used of:

1 God's personal spirit (Ps. 139:7; 143:10; Isa. 30:1; 40:13)
2 The Holy Spirit (Gen. 1:2; Isa. 48:16; 61:1; Zech. 12:10)
3 Angels (Ps. 104:4)
4 Cherubim (Ezek. 1:12-21; 10:17)
5 Demons (Lev. 19:31; 20:6)
6 Other spirit beings (Zech. 6:5)
7 New nature of the child of God (1 Cor. 6:17)
8 Man's personal spirit (Num. 16:22; 27:16; Eccl. 3:21; 18:14; 20:27; 25:23)
9 Judgment of God: translated
(1) Blast (Ex. 15:8; 2 Ki. 19:7; Isa. 37:7)
(2) Breath (Gen. 6:17; 7:15, 22; 2 Sam. 22:16; Ps. 18:15)
(3) Spirit (Isa. 4:4; 28:6; 34:16)

30 reasons for his 21 requests in Ps. 51: (51:1)

1 Because of Your lovingkindness
2 Because of Your tender mercies (v 1)
3 For I acknowledge my transgressions
4 My sin is ever before me (v 3)
5 Against You have I sinned
6 I have done evil in Your sight
7 That You may be justified in condemnation of sin
8 That You may be clear when You judge sin (v 4)
9 I was shapen in iniquity 5)
10 My mother conceived me in sin (v
11 You desire truth in inward parts
12 Your wisdom in the inner man convicts me of sin (v 6)
13 So that I shall be clean and whiter than snow (v 7)
14 That I may rejoice (v 8)
15 So that I shall be free from sin and iniquity (v 9)
16 That I may have a clean heart
17 That I may have a right spirit within me (v 10)
18 That I may remain in God's presence
19 And retain the Holy Spirit (v 11)
20 That the joy of my salvation may be restored to me
21 That I may be upheld by Your free Spirit (v 12)
22 That transgressors may be taught 23 That sinners may be converted (v
24 That I may have salvation 13)
25 That I may sing of righteousness (v 14)
26 That I may show forth praise (v 15)
27 That I may offer the right kind of sacrifice 17)
28 That I may have a broken spirit (v
29 That Your good pleasure may be realized in Zion and Jerusalem (v 18)
30 So that true worship will be given You in spirit, in truth, and in ritual (v 19)

10 facts about atheism (53:1)

Atheism is proved to be absurd:
1 By the existence of the universe
2 By the constitution of the body, soul, and spirit of man
3 By the innumerable living creatures in existence, each one so perfect and intricate as to make all chance of its coming into existence automatically, an impossibility
4 By the character of God's works
5 By the preservation and government of all creations. To think that all things came into existence and are being governed by themselves is folly
6 By its ungodly mockery
7 By its powerlessness to help a man to better himself and others
8 By its degrading and immoral influence
9 By the vastness of its unproved claims
10 By the renouncing of it by its followers in times of affliction and death. Sir Francis Newport, Voltaire, Tom Paine, David Hume, Altamont, Ethan Allen, Thomas Hobbes, and many others pleaded for mercy from God and regretted their atheism in their dying hour

5 sins of the wicked that will damn the soul (55:20)

1 He refuses to live at peace with his neighbors (v 20)
2 He does not keep his word (v 20. Cp. 15:4; 2 Tim. 3:3)
3 He is a liar (v 21. Cp. Rev. 21:8)
4 He plots the destruction of those who would live at peace (v 21)
5 He is a deceiver and a destroyer with his tongue (v 21. Cp. Jas. 3)

7 things not to fear (56:4)

1 Flesh (v 4)
2 People (Num. 14:9)
3 Idols (Judg. 6:10; 2 Ki. 17:35-39)
4 Evil (Ps. 23:3)
5 War (Ps. 27:3)
6 Man (Mt. 10:28; Lk. 12:5)
7 Sufferings (Rev. 2:10)

5 things to fear:

1 God (Dt. 6:13, 24; Mt. 10:28). Over 40 times in Scripture men are commanded to fear God. Many are the benefits promised to those who do fear Him
2 Parents (Lev. 19:3)
3 Kings (Pr. 24:21)
4 Civil rulers (Rom. 13:1-8)
5 Masters (1 Pet. 2:18)

8 requests of David (68:1)

1 Let God arise (v 1). This was the Divine formula at the setting forth of the Ark (Num. 10:35-36). The whole psalm seems to be one that was sung when the Ark was in procession. This is clear from v 1 which was always said when they started with the Ark from one place to another, and from v 25, which shows that singers and musicians marched before it
2 Let His enemies be scattered (v 1)
3 Let them that hate Him flee before Him (v 1)
4 Drive them away as smoke (v 2)
5 Let the wicked perish as wax is melted before the fire (v 2)
6 Let the righteous be glad (v 3)
7 Let them rejoice before God (v 3)
8 Let them rejoice exceedingly (v 3)

18 facts about Bible mountains (68:15)

1 Lucifer's capital on earth, when he ruled before Adam, was located on a mountain (Ezek. 28:13-16)
2 God chose a mountain as the place where He gave His law (Ex. 3:1; 4:27; 19:5; 19:16-25; 24:9-18; Num. 10:33; 1 Ki. 19:8)
3 God chose a mountain as the site for the earthly temple (Gen. 22:14; 2 Chr. 3:1)
4 God chose mountains as monuments of cursing and blessing (Dt. 11:29; 27:4-13)
5 Moses and Aaron were commanded to die on mountains (Dt. 32:49-51)
6 Mountains have always been the favorite places of refuge (Gen. 14:10; 19:17, 30; Mt. 24:16; Heb. 11:38)
7 A mountain was the capital of Israel (1 Ki. 8:1; 2 Chr. 5:2)
8 The greatest temptations were overcome on a mountain (Mt. 4:8)
9 The greatest of sermons was preached on a mountain (Mt. 5-7)
10 The greatest prayers were prayed on mountains (Mt. 14:23; Mk. 6:46; 9:2)
11 The greatest prophecies were given on a mountain (Mt. 24-25)
12 The greatest revelations were given on mountains (Heb. 8:5; Rev. 21:10; Ex. 19)
13 Christ was transfigured on a mountain (Mt. 17; 2 Pet. 1:18)
14 The crucifixion of Christ took place on a mountain (Lk. 23:33; Jn. 19:17)
15 Christ ascended from a mountain (Mt. 28:16; Acts 1:11-12)
16 Christ will make His future landing on earth on a mountain (Zech. 14:1-5)
17 A mountain will be the site of the eternal earthly capital of Christ (Isa. 2:2-4; 11:9; 25:6-7; Ezek. 43:7; Mic. 4:1-7; Joel 3:17; Zech. 8:3)
18 Many other events have taken place on mountains as is clear from the 573 times they are referred to in Scripture

31 requests of David (69:1)

1 Save me (v 1)
2 Let not them that wait on You be ashamed (v 6)
3 Let not those that seek You be confounded (v 6)
4 Hear me (v 13)
5 Deliver me out of the mire (v 14)
6 Let me not sink (v 14)
7 Let me be delivered from them that hate me (v 14)
8 Let me be delivered out of the deep waters (v 14) (v 15)
9 Let not the waterflood overflow me
10 Let not the deep swallow me (v 15)
11 Let not the pit shut her mouth upon me (v 15)
12 Hear me (v 16)
13 Turn unto me (v 16)
14 Hide not Your face from me (v 17)
15 Hear me speedily (v 17)
16 Draw nigh unto my soul (v 18)
17 Redeem my soul (v 18)
18 Deliver me from my enemies (v 18)
19 Let their table become a snare before them (v 22)
20 Let it become a trap (v 22)
21 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not (v 23) (v 23)
22 Make their loins shake continually
23 Pour out Your indignation upon them (v 24)
24 Let Your wrathful anger take hold upon them (v 24) 25)
25 Let their habitation be desolate (v
26 Let none dwell in their tents (v 25)
27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity (v 27)
28 Let them not come into Your righteousness (v 27)
29 Let them be blotted out of the book of life (v 28)
30 Let them not be written with the righteous (v 28)
31 Let Your salvation set me up on high (v 29)

The many requests of David reveal the true nature of his problems that he had in the various stages of his life - from the time he met Saul to the time of his death. His problems were varied. He always took them to God, setting an example for the godly of all ages

16 things restored by Messiah (69:4)

1 Fulness of grace (Jn. 1:16-17)
2 Union with God (Eph. 1:10)
3 Eternal life (Jn. 3:16; 1 Jn. 5:11)
4 Healing and health (Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Rev. 22:1-2)
5 Freedom - from captivity (Isa. 61:1; Eph. 4:8-10)
6 Freedom - from bondage (Isa. 61:1; Rom. 8:19-24)
7 Freedom - from broken-heartedness (Isa. 61:1)
8 Comfort instead of mourning (Isa. 61:2-3; Mt. 5:4)
9 Beauty for ashes (Isa. 61:3)
10 Joy for heaviness (Isa. 61:3)
11 Praises instead of discouragement (Isa. 61:3)
12 Rest for weariness (Mt. 11:28-30; Isa. 28:11)
13 Peace instead of trouble and war (Isa. 2:2-4; 9:6-7; Phil. 4:7)
14 Righteousness instead of sin (Rom. 3:24-31; 2 Cor. 5:14-21)
15 Power over satanic forces (Mk. 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12; Acts 1:8)
16 Freedom-from fear, death, and all suffering (Rev. 21:3-7)
17 Man's dominion (Acts 3:21; Heb. 2:9; Ps. 8:3-7)
18 God all and all (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 21-22)

The Messiah restored all these, which man forfeited because of sin. When God's terms of getting rid of sin are met these blessings can be experienced

Fasting and prayer (69:10)

The cure for unbelief

The disciples asked the Lord why they could not heal a lunatic boy. Jesus said, "Because of your unbelief... Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting" (Mt. 17:14-21). Faith needs prayer for its development and full growth, and prayer needs fasting for the same reason. Fasting has done wonders when used in combination with prayer and faith. This is a biblical doctrine. To fast means to abstain from food - that which caused the fall of man. Fasting humbles the soul before God (Ps. 35:13); chastens the soul (Ps. 69:10); and crucifies the appetites and denies them so as to give entire time to prayer (2 Sam. 12:16-23; Mt. 4:1-11). It manifests earnestness before God to the exclusion of all else (1 Cor. 7:5); shows obedience; gives the digestive system a rest (Mt. 6:16-18; 9:15; Lk. 5:33); demonstrates the mastery of man over appetites; aids in temptation; helps to attain power over demons; develops faith; crucifies unbelief; and aids in prayer (Mt. 4:1-11; 17:14-21)

All believers are supposed to fast but no regulations or set rules are given as to how long or how often. That is determined by individual desire and needs (Mt. 9:14-15; 1 Cor. 7:5; Acts 13:1-5). Men should fast when under chastening (2 Sam. 12:16-23); under judgment (1 Kings 21:27); in need (Ezra 8:21); in danger (Esther 4); when worried (Dan. 6:18); in trouble (Acts 27:9, 33); in spiritual conflict (Mt. 4:1-11); and when desperate in prayer (Acts 9).

Since fasting and prayer are so prominent in the Bible, modern Christians should do more of this until they receive power with God over all the powers of the devil. Many things about fasting and its benefits are not known to modern men, but those through the ages who have been men of great prayer have also fasted much

14 things to be added (69:27)

1 A 5th part to holy things when used in ignorance and repaid (Lev. 5:15-16)

118 War, defeat (Lk. 21:20-24)	1,447,490
119 War, 135 A.D.	580, 000
120 Wars, persecutions, and many other forms of death since 70 and 135 A.D. when Israel ceased to be a nation.	?

Besides the above, wars of the future will take the lives of many (Jer. 30; Dan. 8:8-14, 24-25; 9:27; 11:40-45; Zech. 13:9; 14:14; Mt. 24:15-22; Rev. 12:6, 13-17). All these and other calamities have come upon Israel because they broke the laws of God and persisted in sin and rebellion (Lev. 26; Dt. 28). Over 4, 186, 053 Jews have died throughout the centuries whose deaths have been recorded; and many millions more have died whose deaths have not been recorded. If the exact numbers were known in all the above wars, they would run into a great many millions

It is possible that millions of Jews will be killed in the very last days in fulfillment of prophecy. The Bible is clear that over 2/3 of the nation of Israel will be killed in the future tribulation, besides many in other parts of the world who will not be a part of the nation in particular (Zech. 13:8-9). See also Isa. 2:25-31; 3:25-26; Ezek. 38-39; Dan. 8:24; Joel 3; Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 11:1-2; 12:14). Thus the psalmist is to be taken literally when he says that God gave His people to the sword (78:62)

The word "high" used of God (78:35)

1 The most high God (Gen. 14:18-22; Ps. 78:56; Dan. 4:26; 5:18,21; Mk. 5:7; Acts 7:48; Heb. 7:1)

21 I will glorify You forever (v 12)
22 Great is Your mercy to me (v 13)
23 You have delivered me from the lowest hell (v 13; Hell, p. 620) (v 14)
24 The proud are risen up against me
25 Assemblies of wicked men have sought to destroy my soul (v 14)
26 The wicked have not considered You (v 14)
27 You are full of compassion (v 15)
28 You are gracious (v 15)
29 You are longsuffering (v 15)
30 You are full of mercy (v 15)
31 You are full of truth (v 15)
32 So that they which hate me may see the answer to prayer and be ashamed (v 17)
33 You have helped me (v 17)
34 You have comforted me (v 17)

10 so-called acts of God (88:7)

1 You remember not the dead bodies of men that go back to dust (v 5)
2 You have cut men off in death (v 5)
3 You have laid me in the pit (v 6)
4 You have laid wrath hard upon me (v 7, 16)
5 You have afflicted me (v 7)
6 You have made me estranged from my friends (v 8, 16) 8)
7 You have made me to be hated (v
8 You have cast me off (v 14) 14)
9 You have hid Your face from me (v
10 You have cut me off (v 16)

How many of these acts were really God's is a question, since He is not the one responsible for continued suffering and death among men. See Affliction, p. 626

38 facts about God (89:9)

18 His name is honored (v 12)
19 He has a mighty arm (v 13)
20 He has a strong hand (v 13)
21 He has a high hand (power, v 13)
22 Judgment and justice are the habitation of His throne (v 14) 11)
23 Mercy and truth go before Him (v
24 He blesses His people (v 15)
25 He enlightens men (v 15)
26 His name is a source of joy to saints (v 16) ness (v 16)
27 He exalts His people in righteous-28 He is their strength (v 17)
29 His favor exalts their king (v 17)
30 He is their defence (v 18)
31 He is their King (v 18)
32 He speaks in vision to His holy one - the Messiah (v 19)
33 He helps the mighty Messiah (v 19)
34 He exalts the Messiah (v 19) 20)
35 He discovered David His servant (v
36 He anointed David with holy oil (v 20) (v 27)
37 He has a first-born - the Messiah
38 He will exalt His first-born above all kings of the earth (v 27; Dan. 7:13-14)

16fold complaint against God (89:38)

1 Cast off and abhorred His people (v 38)
2 Been wroth with His anointed (v 38)
3 Made void the covenant (v 39)
4 Profaned his crown (v 39)
5 Broken down all his hedges (v 40)
6 Brought his strongholds to ruin (v 40) 41)
7 Permitted all men to spoil him (v
8 Made him a reproach to others (v 41)
9 Made his enemies victorious (v 42)
10 Made his enemies rejoice (v 42)
11 Made his weapons powerless (v 43)
12 Made him become a coward (v 43)
13 Made his glory depart (v 44)
14 Cast down his throne (v 44)
15 Shortened his youth (v 45)
16 Brought him to shame (v 45)

This again reflects the universal habit of man to blame God for every curse that comes to him through sin. If men had not broken God's covenant, it would have been fulfilled with them. All of God's covenants and promises are based upon conditions of obedience. See p. 248 of N.T. Should God thus be blamed by man who is solely responsible for causing Him to curse man according to the very contracts He has made with man? Shall God fulfill only the benefits of the contracts and not the punishment-terms of the contracts? Since He said that He would punish men who broke the contracts, as in v 30-32, would He be truthful if He did not do so?

7 men called "the man of God" (Ps. 90, title)

1 Moses (Dt. 33:1)
2 Samuel (1 Sam. 9:6-10)
3 David (Neh. 12:24)
4 Elijah (1 Ki. 17:18)
5 Elisha (2 Ki. 4:7)
6 Shemaiah (2 Chr. 11:2)
7 Igdaliah (Jer. 35:4)
4 unnamed men of God (1 Sam. 2:27; 1 Ki. 13:1; 20:28; 2 Chr. 25:7)

10 requests of Moses (90:12):

1 Teach us to number our days (v 12)
2 Return, O Lord, how long? (v 13)
3 Repent of the curses concerning Your servants (v 13) (v 14)
4 Satisfy us early with Your mercy
5 Make us glad according to the days You have afflicted us (v 15)
6 Make us glad according to the years we have seen evil (v 15)
7 Let Your work appear unto us (v 16)
8 Let Your glory appear unto our children (v 16)
9 Let Your beauty be upon us (v 17)
10 Establish work of our hands (v 17)

4 reasons for an answer:

1 That we may apply our hearts unto wisdom (v 12)
2 We have suffered enough (v 13, 15)
3 That we may rejoice and be glad all our days (v 14)
4 So that our work may be established and not wasted (v 17)

Three-score years and ten (Ps. 90:10)

Ps. 90 deals with the old generation of Israel, numbered, and sentenced to death. All under that sentence were 20 years old and upward (Num. 14:29). It is of these that Ps. 90:9-10 speaks:

1 A man who was 20 at the beginning of the 40-year curse was to die when he was threescore or 60 years old
2 One who was 30 years old would die when he was threescore and ten, or 70 years old
3 One who was 40 years old at the beginning of the curse would die when he was fourscore or 80 years old

Each one was cut off regardless of the strength of the individual (90:9-10). The average age of those who died in the wilderness was around 30 when the 40 years began, hence the 70 years of v 10

15 conditions of blessings of Ps. 91 (91:9)

1 Dwell in the secret place of the most High - under His shadow (v 1)

6 Have confidence in God as deliverer from every snare and pestilence (v 3)
7 Have confidence in His protection
8 Make His truth your shield and buckler (v 4)
9 Be not afraid of any terrors, dangers, pestilences, or destructions (v 5-6)
10 Have confidence that the plagues slaying thousands all around you will not come near you (v 7-8)
11 Make God your refuge (v 9)
12 Make God your habitation (v 9)
13 Set your love upon God (v 14)
14 Know the name (authority) of God
15 Call upon God in prayer (v 15)

23 promises of Ps. 91 (91:10)

1 You shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty (v 1)
2 Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler (v 3)
3 Surely He shall deliver you from the noisome pestilence (v 3)
4 He shall cover you with His feathers (v 4) buckler (v 4)
5 His truth shall be your shield and 6 You shall not be afraid of the terror by night (v 5)
7 You shall not be afraid of the arrow that flieth by day (v 5)
8 You shall not be afraid of the pestilence that walks in darkness (v 6)
9 You shall not be afraid of that which destroys at noonday (v 6)
10 Though 1,000 fall at your left and 10,000 at your right, it shall not come near you (v 7)
11 Only with your eyes will you see the reward of the wicked (v 8) 10) 12 There shall no evil befall you (v
13 There shall no plague come near your dwelling (v 10)
14 God shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways (v 11)
15 They shall bear you up in their hands, lest you dash your foot against a stone (v 12)
16 You shall tread upon the lion, adder, the young lion, and the dragon (v 13)
17 God will deliver him (v 14, 15)
18 Will set him on high (v 14)
19 Will answer him (v 15)
20 Will be with him in trouble (v 15)
21 Will honor him (v 15) 16)
22 Will satisfy him with long life (v
23 Will show him His salvation (v 16)

Many are the promises of God. They cover every known need of life, here and hereafter, and reveal to what extent God has made provision to help man in his struggle to overcome sin, sickness, and Satan and regain the full dominion that he lost in Adam when he fell. The ultimate purpose of God in all His present dealings with man is to bring him back to the place where he was before the fall and purge him of all possibility of falling in the future

5 blessings of righteous in Ps. 92 (92:12)

1 They shall flourish like a palm tree (v 12). In barren soil it is watered deep at the roots. The fruit of the palm provides a great part of the diet of the East. The stones are ground down for the camels; the leaves are made into baskets; the hard boughs or the strong leaves, 6 to 8 ft. in length, are used to make fences; the juice makes arrack, a very strong Oriental liquor; the threads of the leaves make ropes; and the wood makes building material or fire-wood
2 They shall grow like the cedars of Lebanon, which are extremely long-lived. Some are supposed to be as old as 1, 000 years. They grow 80 to 100 ft. tall and 40 ft. around the trunk. They express the ideas of majesty, durableness, incorruptibility, and stability
3 They shall flourish in the courts of God (v 13)
4 They will still bring forth fruit in old age (v 14) 14)
5 They shall be fat and flourishing (v

13 He forgave the people (v 8)
14 He took knowledge of their inventions (v 8)

Musical instruments - not sinful (98:5)

To sing with music is a command of the Word of God. The following facts from both testaments prove it to be scriptural to use musical instruments in worship to God

18 facts about musical instruments

1 They were used by prophets when prophesying by the Holy Spirit (1 Sam. 10:5; 1 Chr. 25:1-7)
2 David used them to cause a demon to leave Saul (1 Sam. 16:16-23) 30; 31)
3 Job, the prophet, used them (Job
4 The righteous are commanded to use them in worship to God (Ps. 33:1-5; 81:1-5; 98:4-9; 147:7; 149:1-4; 150:1-6)
5 Vows to use them were made by godly men (Ps. 43:4; 47:7-11; 71:22; 108:1-6)
6 It was a law of God to use them (Ps. 81:1-4; 2 Chr. 29:25)
7 The use of musical instruments was declared to be a good thing (Ps. 92:1-5)
8 All Israel used musical instruments and were blessed by God (2 Sam. 6:1-16; 1 Chr. 13:1-14; 15:14-29; 16:1-6; 2 Chr. 20:26-29; 30:21; Neh. 12:27)
9 When dedicated to God they were called holy (Num. 31:6)
10 They are called instruments of God (1 Chr. 16:42) and of the Lord (2 Chr. 7:6)
11 God's glory came down when they were used with singing (2 Chr. 5:11-14)
12 They are predicted as being used in the reign of the Messiah (Ps. 87:7)
13 55 psalms were dedicated to the chief musician to be used in worship
14 It was only when Israel misused them to commit sin that any rebuke of their use was made (Ps. 132:2; Amos 6:5)
15 24 elders and 4 angelic beings play harps in heaven (Rev. 5:8)
16 The 144, 000 Jews will play harps in heaven (Rev. 14:1-5)
17 All tribulation saints will play harps in heaven (Rev. 15:2) 18 The N. T. commands their use in the church. In Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16 saints are commanded to use psalms, hymns, spiritual songs, and make melody in their hearts. The Gr. word for psalms in these passages is psalmos, a set piece of music; a sacred song to be accompanied with harp, or other instruments. The Gr. word for psalms in Jas. 5:13 is psallo, to twitch or twang; play on a stringed instrument; celebrate the divine worship with music and singing. This is also the meaning of the Heb. for psalms in 1 Chr. 16:9; Ps. 95:2; 105:2. We have Scripture for musical instruments in worship and none for the other equipment used - church buildings with windows, doors, pews, plumbing, pulpit, carpets, floors, stairs, furniture, song books, baptistry, heating and cooling systems, drinking fountains, and kitchens. If we approve these as acceptable in worship, without Scriptural backing is it not reasonable then to approve musical instruments with Scriptural backing?

30 good things (100:5)

Heb. tobe, to be basically good; in the widest sense goodness and righteousness. 20 times God is called good (1 Chr. 16:34; 2 Chr. 5:13; 7:3; 30:18; Ezra 3:11; Ps. 25:8; 34:8; 73:1; 86:5; 100:5; 106:1; 107:1; 118:1, 29; 119:68; 135:3; 136:1; 145:9; Nah. 1:7; Mt. 19:17)

Meaning of the word "old" (102:26)

Heb. balah, to fail; decay; become old; waste away (v 26; 32:3; Dt. 8:4; 29:5; Josh. 9:13; Isa. 50:9; 51:6). The meaning of balah is never annihilation, but gradual change because of wear and tear. The heavens and earth are made of materials that wax old and decay. The idea here is that they are becoming affected by sin and the bondage of corruption. They will be renewed and liberated from this corrupt state to a new and eternal state, and be kept eternally new when all sin is put down (1 Cor. 15:24-28) and everything is restored as before the curse. There will be no more curse or bondage of corruption after this (Rom. 8:21-24; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28; Rev. 21:1; 22:3)

10 admonitions in Ps. 103 (103:1)

These and many other unidentified sicknesses and infirmities have been healed by God, as recorded in both testaments. Full provision has been made by Christ to heal all physical ailments (Mt. 8:17; Jn. 10:10; Jas. 5:14-16, notes; 1 Pet. 2:24)

The spirit world (104:4)

The words spirit and spirits are found 540 times in Scripture. From these references, the 294 scriptures where angel and angels are found, and from over 20, 000 others about God, who is a spirit being, we learn all there is to know about the spirit-world. By the spirit-world we mean all the various kinds of spirit beings that inhabit the unseen material worlds in space and under the earth (Phil. 2:10; Rev. 5:3, 13)

10 kinds of spirit beings besides God:

1 Seraphim (Isa. 6:1-7)
2 Cherubim (Gen. 3:24; Ezek. 1:5-28; 8:1-4; 10:1-22)
3 Zoa, or Living Creatures (Rev. 4; 6-5:14; 6:1-8; 7:11; 14:3, 9-11; 15:7; 19:4)
4 Spirit animals shaped like the fleshly ones we have on earth (Rom. 1:20; 2 Cor. 12:1-4; 2 Ki. 2:11-12; 6:13-17; Zech. 1:8-11; 6:1-8; Rev. 19:11-21)
5 Arch-angels, or chief angels who rule kingdoms and planets (Col. 1:15-18; 1 Th. 4:16; Jude 9)

(1) Michael, one of the chief princes, the prince of Israel (Dan. 10:13, 21; 11:1; 12:1; 1 Th. 4:16; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7-9)

(2) Gabriel, who stands before God (Dan. 8:16-19; 9:20-23; 10:8-11:1; Lk. 1:19, 26)

(3) Lucifer, the original ruler of the planet earth and present pseudo-ruler of man's dominion on earth (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Mt. 4:1-11; Lk. 10:18; Eph. 2:2; Rev. 12:7-9). See Satan, p. 435

(4) Unnamed princes of Persia and Grecia (Dan. 10:13-11:1; Rev. 11:7; 17:8)

6 Common angels (see notes below)
7 Demons (see note j, 106:37)
8 Demon locusts (Rev. 9:1-11)
9 Demon horsemen (Rev. 9:12-21)

Definition and usage of "angel"

The word literally means messenger and is used of Christ, angels, and men

1 Christ, the second person of the Trinity appeared to men as the messenger of God (1 Cor. 10:4, 9; 11:3)

(1) He is called the angel of God (Gen. 21:17; 31:11; Ex. 3:2; Judg. 6:20; 13:9; Acts 27:23)

(2) The angel of the Lord (Gen. 16:7-11; 22:11, 15; Ex. 14:19; Num. 22:22-35; Judg. 2:1, 4; 6:11-12, 21-22; 13:3-6, 13-21; 2 Ki. 1:3, 15; 19:35; 1 Chr. 21:12-30; Ps. 34:7; 35:5-6; Isa. 37:36; Zech. 1:9-19; 3:1-6; 12:8; Acts 7:30-38). In all other places where the angel of the Lord is found, the term refers to ordinary angels, as in Mt. 1:20, 24; 2:13, 19; 28:2-5; Lk. 1:11-38; 2:9-21; Acts 5:19; 8:26; 10:3; 12:7-23

(3) His angel (Gen. 24:7, 40; Ex. 23:20; 33:2; Num. 20:16; 2 Chr. 32:21; Dan. 3:28; 6:22)

(4) The angel (Gen. 48:16; Eccl. 5:6; Hos. 12:4)

(5) Mine angel (Ex. 23:23; 32:34)
(6) Angel of His presence (Isa. 63:9)
(7) Angel (Rev. 8:3-5; 10:1-11:3)

2 The word angel is used of common angels in Ps. 104:4

3 It is used of men in Rev. 1:1, 20; 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 14; 19:9, 10; 22:6-8, 16. In other places it is nearly always clear that common angels who are spirit beings and heavenly creatures are referred to

Common angels

1 The nature of angels. They are heavenly spirit beings with:

(1) Personal spirit bodies with bodily parts, as hands, feet, eyes, heads, voices, mouths, hair, faces, and other parts which men have (Gen. 18:2, 4, 8; 19:1-22; Judg. 13:6). See Appearances of angels (note n, Heb. 13:2)

(2) Personal souls with emotions (Lk. 15:1-10), passions (Gen. 6:1-4, notes; Jude 6-7), appetites (Gen. 18:8; 19:3); anger (Rev. 12:12); enmity (Gen. 3:15); lusts (Jn. 8:44); vengeance (1 Pet. 5:8); desires (1 Pet. 1:12); pride (Ezek. 28:17; 1 Tim. 3:6); and other soul passions, feelings, and desires

(3) Personal spirits with intelligence and wisdom (2 Sam. 14:20; 19:27; Mt. 24:36; Eph. 3:10); patience (Num. 22:22-35); meekness (2 Pet. 2:11; Jude 9); modesty (1 Cor. 11:10); holiness (Mk. 8:38); obedience (Ps. 103:20; Mt. 6:10); knowledge (Mk. 13:32; 1 Pet. 1:12); will power (Isa. 14:12-14); ability to speak languages (1 Cor. 13:1); and other spirit faculties

2 General facts about angels. They are glorious (Lk. 9:26); immortal (Lk. 20:36); powerful and mighty in body (2 Th. 1:7-10; Rev. 18:1; Isa. 37:36); heavenly spirit beings (Ps. 104:4; Mt. 18:10; 22:30; 24:36; Heb. 1:14); not demons (Acts 23:8-9); limited in knowledge (Mk. 13:32); and higher than man (Ps. 8:5)

They need no rest (Rev. 4:8); can eat food (Gen. 18:8; 19:3; Ps. 78:25); appear visible and invisible (Num. 22:22-35; Jn. 20:12; Heb. 13:2); operate in the material realms (Gen. 18-19; 22:11; 2 Sam. 24; 2 Ki. 19:35; Acts 1 and 12); travel at inconceivable speed (Ezek. 1; Rev. 8:13; 9:1); ascend and descend (Gen. 28:12; Jn. 1:51); speak languages (1 Cor. 13:1); and can do anything man can do, including sin

They were created by Christ before the earth (Job 38:4-7; Ps. 148:2-5; Col. 1:16); are not to be worshipped (Col. 2:18); are organized into principalities and powers with thrones (Col. 1:16; 2:18; Rom. 8:38; Eph. 6:10-18; 1 Pet. 3:22); are innumerable (Lk. 2:13; Heb. 12:22); to be judged or ruled by saints (1 Cor. 6:3); are subject to God (Mt. 22:30); interested in earthly affairs (Lk. 9:26; 15:7-10; 1 Tim. 5:21; 1 Pet. 1:12); and are being taught wisdom by the church (Eph. 3:10; 1 Cor. 4:9). They desire to look into the things of salvation (1 Pet. 1:10-12); observe us (1 Cor. 4:9); can cook (1 Ki. 19:5-7); wear garments (Jn. 20:12); appear unawares (Heb. 13:2); have been tested (1 Tim. 5:21; Job 4:18); dwell in heaven (Rev. 12:12; 13:6); stand before God (2 Chr. 18:18). Christ is better than angels (Heb. 1:5-2:16)

3 The work of angels. They carry on work daily and meet responsibilities that only beings with personal bodies, souls, and spirits are capable of

(1) They drive spirit horses (2 Ki. 2:12; 6:13-17; Zech. 1:7-11; 6:1-6)
(2) Guard gates (Rev. 21:12)
(3) Wage war in actual bodily combat (Rev. 12:7-9; 2 Th. 1:7-10)
(4) Execute judgments (Gen. 19; 2 Sam. 24; 2 Ki. 19:35; 2 Chr. 32:21; Ps. 78:49; Mt. 13:41-42; Acts 12:23; Rev. 8:1-9:21; 15:1-16:2)
(5) Minister to saints (1 Ki. 19:5-7; Dan. 6:22; Mt. 4:11; Acts 10; Heb. 1:14)
(6) Rule nations (Dan. 10:13-21; 12:1) 10)
(7) Help each individual (Mt. 18:
(8) Sing, praise, and worship God (Lk. 2:13; Ps. 103:20; 148:2; Rev. 5:11)
(9) Strengthen in trial (Mt. 4:11; Lk. 22:43) (Acts 10:3)
(10) Lead sinners to gospel workers
(11) Direct preachers (Acts 8:26; 27:23) 2:13-19)
(12) Appear in dreams (Mt. 1:20-24; 2:13)
(13) Minister before God (Rev. 8:2; 14:15-19)
(14) Bind Satan (Rev. 20) 3)
(15) Guard the abyss (Rev. 9:1; 20:1-3)
(16) Regather Israel (Mt. 24:31)
(17) Protect saints (Ps. 34:7; 91:11; Acts 12:7-10) 13:39-41)
(18) Separate the good and bad (Mt.
(19) Accompany Christ to earth (Mt. 16:27; 25:31; 2 Th. 1:7-10)
(20) Witness confessions (Lk. 15:8-9)
(21) Receive departed spirits (Lk. 16:22)
(22) Give laws (Acts 7:53; Heb. 2:2)
(23) Guard the tree of life (Gen. 3:24)
(24) Give revelations (2 Ki. 1:15; Dan. 8:19; 9:21-23; 10:10-20)
(25) Impart God's will (Acts 5:19-20; 10:1-6)
(26) Bring answers to prayers (Dan. 9:21-23; 10:12-13; Acts 10)

4 Angels are called:

(1) Watchers (Dan. 4:13-23)
(2) Sons of the mighty (Ps. 89:6)
(3) Sons of God (Gen. 6:1-4; Job 1:6; 2:1; 38:7) 82:1)
(4) Congregation of the mighty (Ps.
(5) Saints (Ps. 89:7)
(6) Hosts (Ps. 33:6; 103:21; Lk. 2:13)
(7) Spirits (Heb. 1:14)
(8) The elect (1 Tim. 5:21)

5 Satan's angels. They are made subject to Christ (1 Pet. 3:22); are sinful and rebellious (Job 4:18; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Rev. 12:7-9); evil (Ps. 78:49); to be punished (Mt. 24:41; Isa. 24:21-23; 26:7; Jude 6-7); to be cast out of heaven (Rev. 12:7-9); will fight against Christ at Armageddon (Rev. 12:7-9; 19:11-21; 20:1-3; Isa. 24:21-23; 26:7); are organized into principalities and powers (Eph. 1:21; 3:10; 6:10-17; Col. 2:10, 15; Rev. 12:7-12). They deceive men (2 Cor. 11:14); oppose saints (Rom. 8:38; Eph. 6:10-18); fell originally with Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Mt. 24:41; Rev. 12:7-12); hell is prepared for them (Mt. 24:41)

6 There are two classes of fallen angels: those bound (Rev. 9:11, 14; 11:7; 17:8; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7) and those who are still loose with Satan and who will be cast down to the earth in the middle of Daniel's 70th week in the future tribulation (Rev. 12:7-12; Eph. 6:10-17). See the reason some of Satan's angels are now bound (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; Gen. 6:1-4)

7 Appearances of angels to men (see 104 appearances of angels, note n, Heb. 13:2

Demons or unclean spirits (106:37)

1 Definition and usage of the terms devil and demons. The word demon is not found in Scripture; but it means evil spirit or devil. The word devil is used of Satan, the prince of demons (Mt. 9:34; 12:24). He is the chief devil and the original source of evil in the universe. The Gr. word for devil used in connection with Satan is diabolos, meaning adversary, false accuser, slanderer, devil. It is used of men and translated false accuser and slanderer in 1 Tim. 3:11; 2 Tim. 3:3; Tit. 2:3. It is translated devil once as applying to Judas when he became an adversary of Christ (Jn. 6:70). In 34 other places it is translated devil and used of Satan as the chief adversary of God

In the other 76 places where the words devil and devils are found, they refer to evil spirits or demons and are derived from two different Gr. words - diamonion and diamon, meaning evil spirits or devils. There is only one prince of devils but many demons. He has an angelic body and cannot enter bodily into anyone; but demons are disembodied spirits and do not seem to be able to operate in the material world except through possession of the bodies of men or beasts

2 The nature of demons. They are evil (Judg. 9:23; 1 Sam. 18:9-10); intelligent and wise (1 Ki. 22:22-24; Acts 16:16); powerful (Mk. 5:1-16); disembodied spirits (Rev. 16:13-16); not angels (Acts 23:8-9); not human, for they possess men and can be cast out (Mt. 10:1; Mk. 16:17); and are individuals (Mk. 16:9). They have knowledge (Mt. 8:29; Lk. 4:41; Acts 19:15); faith (Jas. 2:19); feelings (Mt. 8:29; Mk. 5:7); fellowship (1 Cor. 10:20-21); doctrines (1 Tim. 4:1); wills (Mt. 12:43-45); miraculous powers (Rev. 16:13-16); emotions (Acts 8:7); desires (Mt. 8:28-31); and other soul and spirit faculties

3 The work of demons. They possess people and cause: dumbness and deafness (Mt. 9:32-33; Mk. 9:25); blindness (Mt. 12:22); grievous vexation (Mt. 15:22); lunacy and mania (Mt. 4:23-24; 17:14-21; Mk. 5:1-18); uncleanness (called unclean spirits 21 times, Lk. 4:36); supernatural strength (Mk. 5:1-18); suicide (Mt. 17:15; Jn. 10:10); convulsions (Mk. 9:20); lusts (Jn. 8:44; Eph. 2:1-3; 1 Jn. 2:15-17); counterfeit worship (Lev. 17:7; Dt. 32:17; 2 Chr. 11:15; Ps. 106:37; 1 Cor. 10:20; Rev. 9:20); error (1 Jn. 4:1-6; 1 Tim. 4:1); sicknesses and diseases (Mt. 4:23-24; Acts 10:38); torments (Mt. 4:23-24; 15:22); deceptions (1 Tim. 4:1-2; 1 Jn. 4:1-6); lying (1 Ki. 22:21-24); enchantments and witchcraft (2 Chr. 33:6); heresies (1 Tim. 4:1); false doctrines (1 Tim. 4:1); wickedness (Lk. 11:26); fear (2 Tim. 1:7); love of world (1 Jn. 2:15-17; 1 Cor. 2:12); bondage (Rom. 8:15); discord (Mt. 13:39; 1 Ki. 22:21-24); violence (Mt. 17:15); betrayals (Jn. 13:2; 1 Ki. 22:22-23); oppression (Acts 10:38); sin (Jn. 8:44; 1 Jn. 3:8); persecution (1 Pet. 5:8; Rev. 2:10); jealousy (1 Sam. 16:14; 18:8-10); false prophecy (1 Sam. 18:8-10; 1 Ki. 22:21-24); and every other evil they possibly can, to work against man and God

4 They can teach (1 Tim. 4:1); steal

(Mt. 13:19; Lk. 8:12); fight (Eph. 4:27; 6:10-18; 1 Pet. 5:8); become fierce and wrathful (Mt. 8:28; Rev. 12:12); tell fortunes (Lev. 20:27; Acts 16:16); be friendly (called familiar spirits 16 times, Lev. 20:6, 27); go out and come back into men as they will, unless cast out and rejected (Mt. 12:43-45); travel (1 Ki. 22:21-24; Mk. 5:7, 12); speak (Mk. 1:34; 5:12; Acts 8:7); imitate departed dead (2 Sam. 28:3-9; 1 Chr. 10:13; Isa. 8:19; Dt. 18:11); and do many other things when in possession of bodies they are permitted to operate through

5 They are called devils (Mk. 16:17); familiar spirits (Lev. 20:6); unclean spirits (Mk. 1:27); evil spirits (Lk. 7:21); and seducing spirits (1 Tim. 4:1)

6 General facts about demons. They are made subject to Christ and believers by the atonement, the name of Jesus, and the Holy Spirit (Mt. 8:16-17; 12:28; Mk. 16:17; Lk. 10:17; Acts 19:15). Thousands of them can enter into and take possession of one man at the same time (Mk. 5:9). They must be discerned, tested, resisted, and rejected by believers (1 Jn. 4:1-6; 1 Cor. 12:10; Eph. 4:27; 6:10-18; 1 Pet. 5:8-9). They have more than ordinary intelligence (Mt. 8:29). Their rightful place is in the abyss (Lk. 8:31; Rev. 9:1-21). They have personality (Lk. 8:26-33); are disembodied (Mt. 12:43-45); are Satan's emissaries (Mt. 12:26-29); and are numerous (Mk. 5:9). They can enter into and control both men and beasts (Mk. 5:1-18) and seek embodiment (Mt. 12:43-45; Lk. 8:32). Demon possession and demon influence are different (Mt. 4:23-24 with 16:21-23). Demons know their fate (Mt. 8:31-32) and recognize those who have power over them (Acts 19:13-17). They fear God (Jas. 2:19); inflict physical maladies (Mt. 12:22; 17:15-18); wage war on saints (Eph. 6:10-18) and influence men (1 Tim. 4:1-5; 2 Pet. 2:10-12). All unbelievers are more or less in league with them (Eph. 2:1-3). The only resources against them are prayer, bodily control, and the whole armour of God (Mt. 17:21; Eph. 6:10-18)

There are demon spirits for every sickness, unholy trait, and doctrinal error known among men. They must be cast out or resisted in order to experience relief from them. Disease germs, which are closely allied with unclean spirits, are really living forms of corruption which come into the bodies of men bringing them to death. Just as refuse breeds maggots, so man in his fallen state of corruption breeds germs through unclean living and contact with corruption in the fallen world. They are agents of Satan, corrupting the bodies of his victims

7 Traffic with demon spirits is forbidden in both testaments (Lev. 19:31; 20:6; Dt. 18:10; Isa. 8:19-21; 1 Chr. 10:13-14; Lk. 4:41; Acts 16:16; 1 Tim. 4:1-5; 2 Pet. 2:1-3; 1 Jn. 4:1-6)

30 reasons to bless and fear God: (104:1)

1 He is very great (v 1)
2 He is clothed with honor and majesty (v 1)
3 He covers Himself with light as with a garment (v 2; 1 Tim. 6:16)
4 He stretched out the heavens like a curtain (v 2; Isa. 40:22)
5 He laid the beams of His chambers (Heb. aliyyah, upper room; loft) in the waters (v 3). This refers to the clouds that were created to retain water and send rain upon the earth (v 3, 13) 3)
6 He makes the clouds His chariot (v
7 He walks on wings of the wind (v 3)
8 He makes His angels spirits (v 4)
9 He makes ministers flames of fire (v 4)
10 He laid the foundations of the earth to be eternal (v 5; Eccl. 1:4)
11 He covered the earth with a flood as with a garment and the waters stood above the mountains (v 6; Gen. 1:2, note; 2 Pet. 3:5-8)
12 He rebuked the flood and commanded the waters to return to the places He originally made for them (low places on the earth, bowels of the earth, and clouds, v 7-8; Gen. 1:6-13; 7:11)
13 He set bounds for the waters that they should be contained and not cover the whole earth (v 9; Gen. 1:6-13)
14 He sends springs into the valleys to run among the hills (v 10)
15 He gives water for all His creatures to drink (v 10-12)
16 He waters the hills from His chambers so the earth is satisfied (v 13)
17 He causes grass to grow and sustain the life of beasts (v 14)
18 He causes herbs, vegetables, and fruit to grow and sustain the life of man (v 14-15; Gen. 1:29; 2:16)
19 He planted the cedars and other trees for the home of birds (v 16-17)
20 He made the hills and rocks for the home of various animals (v 18)
21 He appointed sun and moon to regulate seasons (v 19)
22 He made the darkness wherein the wild beasts creep forth to seek their food (v 20-21)
23 He made the sun as a signal for the wild beasts to hide away in their dens and for man to go about his daily work (v 22-23)
24 He made all living creatures (v 24)
25 He made the earth to be full of riches to sustain life forever (v 24)
26 He made the oceans wherein there are innumerable living creatures, small and great, and where great ships go from land to land (v 25-26)
27 He made every living creature dependent upon Himself for life and sustenance (v 27-29)
28 He renews and sustains the earth and all living creatures for His glory and pleasure (v 30-31; Rev. 4:11)
29 He causes earthquakes (v 32)
30 He causes lightnings to strike the earth and set it on fire (v 32)

Ministers a flame of fire (104:4)

Heb. lahat, to lick; to blaze; set on fire; a flash of fire. The word is used here and of the flaming sword of the cherubim who guarded the way of the tree of life (Gen. 3:24); of Israel destroying her foes (Num. 22:4); of the enemies of the Messiah being completely defeated and licking the dust (Ps. 72:9; Isa. 49:23; Mic. 7:17); of fire from heaven licking up all the water poured upon the sacrifice offered by Elijah (2 Ki. 18:38); of the wicked being burned up at Armageddon (Mal. 4:1); of fire burning the wicked rebels in Israel (Ps. 106:18; Num. 16:35); of a flame burning up trees (Joel 1:19; Ps. 83:14); of hell fire punishing the wicked (Dt. 32:22); of bitter anger speaking forth (Ps. 57:4); of bitter anger in battle (Isa. 42:25); and of the fury of Satan (Job 41:21, 34). It can be seen from these uses that God's ministers being a flame of fire means that they are to be so full of zeal and the anointing of the Spirit that nothing can stand before them. Gospel ministers are to have absolute authority and power over all the works of the devil (Mt. 18:18; Mk. 16:17-18; Lk. 10:19; 24:49; Jn. 14:12-15; Acts 1:4-8; 1 Cor. 4:20; 12:4-8) and represent God among men, as exemplified by Christ, the apostles and early believers. The word for fire in the N. T. is used of Christ's zeal eating Him up (Jn. 2:17)

The doctrine of providence (107:14)

The word providence means foresight and forethought; the care of God over His creatures; divine superintendence or direction for and over His creation. Foresight and forethought on the part of anybody imply a future end, a goal, and a definite plan in attaining that end

All creatures exercise providence

All rational beings act with forethought and foresight. These are attributes they have by nature. Even animals exercise care and make provision for their own off-spring. How much more is it true of the infinite God to make provision for and exercise infinite care over all His creation?

The providence of God

Although all rational beings exercise providence according to their powers, the word reaches its full significance only when it is applied to the infinite God. The providence of God is the care, preservation and government He exercises over all things He has created, in order that they may accomplish the ends for which they were created. It is the infinite care God takes of His universe from the numbering of each hair of each head and the falling of each sparrow to the unfailing upholding of all the vast universes by His own power. It is that eternal power which is at work precluding all fortune, luck, and chance

Providence 3fold:

Providence may be considered:
1 Universal in reference to all things
2 Special in reference to moral beings
3 Particular in reference to converted beings

5fold sphere of Divine providence:

1 The material universe (Job 37-38; Ps. 19:1-6; 68:9-13; 103:19; 104:10-30; 107:1-43; 135:6-7; 136:4-9; Acts 14:17)

2 The plant world (Gen. 1:29; 2:16-17; Lev. 26:4-10; Ps. 65:9-13; 104:10-30)

3 The animal world (Job 38:41; Ps. 104:10-30; 136:25; 145:15-17; Mt. 6:26-30)

4 The rational world of spirit-beings. See Spirit-world, p. 632

5 The rational world of flesh-beings (Dan. 2:21-30; 4:17, 25-35). See The doctrine of man, p. 618

Promises for the needs of man (see N. T. Promises, p. 316)

All the promises of God reveal that He has provided for manhere and now despite the curse. Everyone can enjoy to the full all the benefits of these promises if he will surrender his life to God, experience the genuine new birth and live a godly life in this present world according to the gospel of Christ. Many of these benefits are even for the unsaved so as to prove to them that God provides for all creation in spite of their rebellion. The purpose of such goodness to the unsaved is to lead to repentance (Rom. 2:4)

The following scriptures teach that it is God's will for man to be blessed:

1 Prosperity (Josh. 1:5-9; 1 Sam. 2:7-8; 1 Ki. 2:3-4; 1 Chr. 29:12; Ezra 8:22; Job 36:11; Ps. 1:1-3; Mt. 6:31-33; 7:7-11; Mk. 11:22-24; Jn. 15:7, 16; 2 Cor. 9:6-8; Phil. 4:19; 3 Jn. 2)

2 Healing and health (Ex. 15:26; Ps. 91; 103:3-5; Isa. 53:4-5; 58:8; Mt. 8:16-17; Jas. 5:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3 Jn. 2)

Christ came "to destroy the works of the devil" (1 Jn. 3:8); and to deliver "all that were oppressed by the devil" (Acts 10:38). He came to do this not only for 3 years during His ministry, but forever. He commissioned the disciples to carry on the work that He began both to do and to teach (Mt. 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-15; Acts 1:1-2, 8). Early believers did carry on this work until they lost the faith (Acts 3:5:16; Jas. 5:14-16; etc.). Present Christians are to contend for the faith once delivered to the saints (Jude 3; 2 Cor. 10:4-6; Eph. 6:10-18)

3 Wants and needs (Ps. 23:1-6; 34:9-10; 37:3-6; 84:11; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:14-15)

Proof of Divine providence

1 The Scriptures prove that Divine providence has been working in all ages in all the affairs of men. It was providence that originally brought all things into existence (Isa. 45:18; Col. 1:15-19), that provided redemption for the fall (Gen. 3:15; Eph. 1:1-11); that preserved the race at the flood (Gen. 6:8-8:22); and that dealt with men in each dispensation giving them a chance to make good in every age

2 The continued preservation of all things from the creation of man proves that God's providence is working out all things after the counsel of His own will

3 God's love in creating and redeeming all things proves His desire to preserve creation and finally reconcile it to Himself

4 The prevalence of order in all things proves the divine providence. One can see fixed and eternal laws governing everything in creation, evidencing an all-wise ruler and preserver of all things

5 History records and abounds with unlimited proof of the providence of God in all things. What has happened is not the result of living in a chance world. There always has been and always will be a supernatural power guiding the affairs of all creation according to a fixed plan

6 Religion proves a divine providence, for men in all ages have found God through the exercise of religious faculties according to the revealed will of God in the Bible

7 Common intelligence in all rational beings proves there is a divine providence. It cannot be denied by sane men, for they experience it in many ways

Ultimate purpose of providence

God's purpose has been to create a race of beings who would find their highest degree of happiness in the highest degree of holiness and who would, in proportion to their highest holiness and happiness, glorify their Creator (Gen. 1:26-28; Isa. 43:7; 45:18; Eph. 1:12; Col. 1:15-22; Rev. 4:9-11; 5:11-14; 7:10-12)

Interpreting Divine providence

Experience and observation warn us against haste and over-confidence in our interpretations of happenings in life. If certain ills come to bad men people are quick to assert it is the judgment of God. If the same things happen to good men they are quick to lay all blame on the devil. Human interpretations fail so often it is wise not to interpret events in the lives of others

The doctrine of Satan (109:6)

What he is not:

Satan is not an evil principle, an error of the mortal mind, a disease germ, an abstract power, or a being with hoofs, horns, tail, and Persian shoes, holding a pitchfork and presiding over a lake of fire and the realm of the dead

What he is:

1 Satan is a real person (1 Chr. 21:1; Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7; Ps. 109:6; Zech. 3:1-2; 1 Pet. 5:8-9; Rev. 12:7-12)
2 Jesus Christ dealt with him as with a person (Mt. 4:1-11; Lk. 4:1-13)
3 Jesus Christ waged war on Satan as on a person (Lk. 13:16; 1 Jn. 3:8; Acts 10:38)
4 Christ taught that Satan was a real person (Lk. 10:18; Rev. 12:7-12; 13:1-4; 20:1-10)
5 The apostles fought with Satan as with a real person (Eph. 6:10-18; 1 Th. 2:18; 1 Pet. 5:8-9)
6 The apostles warned men against a personal devil (Eph. 4:27; 6:11; Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8-9)
7 Personal singular pronouns are used of Satan (Mt. 4:7-11; 12:26; Lk. 11:18)
8 Personal statements are made to him (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Zech. 3:1-2; Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7; Mt. 4:1-10; Jude 9)
9 Personal conversation is carried on with him (Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7; Isa. 14:12-14; Mt. 4:1-10; Jude 9)
10 Personal descriptions are given of him (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17)
11 Personal names and titles are given to him

(1) Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14)
(2) Devil and Satan (Rev. 12:9)
(3) Beelzebub (Mt. 10:25; 12:24)
(4) Belial (2 Cor. 6:15)
(5) Adversary (1 Pet. 5:8-9)
(6) Dragon (Rev. 12:3-12; 13:1-4; 20:1-3)
(7) Serpent (2 Cor. 11:3; Rev. 12:9)

(8) God of this world (2 Cor. 4:4)
(9) The prince of this world (Jn. 12:31) (Eph. 2:1-3)
(10) Prince of the power of the air
(11) Accuser of our brethren (Rev. 12:10)
(12) Enemy (Mt. 13:39)
(13) Tempter (Mt. 4:3)
(14) The wicked one (Mt. 13:19, 38)
(15) That wicked one (1 Jn. 5:18)

12 Personal acts and attributes are ascribed to him (see Work of Satan, below)

13 He is an angel with a body, soul, and spirit like all other angels (Ezek. 28:11-17; Rev. 12:7-12)

14 He is described as a most beautiful creature who fell through personal pride over his own beauty (Ezek. 28:11-17; 1 Tim. 3:6)

15 He has been seen with a body (1 Chr. 21:1; Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7; Ps. 109:6; Zech. 3:1-2; Mt. 4:1-11; Rev. 20:1-3)

16 He will be bound bodily with a chain and cast into a prison (Rev. 20:1-3)

17 He has a heart (Isa. 14:12-14): pride (Ezek. 28:17; 1 Tim. 3:6); speech (Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7; Mt. 4:1-11); knowledge (Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7; Mt. 4:1-11; Rev. 12:12); power (Job 1:6-22; 2:1-7; Acts 10:38; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Acts 26:18; Rev. 13:1-4); desires (Lk. 22:31); lusts (Jn. 8:44; Eph. 2:1-3); and many other bodily parts, soul passions, and spirit faculties

18 He goes from place to place in a body like anyone else (Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7; Mt. 4:10-11; Mk. 4:15)

19 He has a kingdom (Mk. 3:22-26)

20 He has access to heaven (Job 1:6-12; 2:1-6; Rev. 12:9-12)

21 He is a great celestial and terrestrial ruler (Eph. 2:2; 6:10-18; 2 Cor. 4:4; Jn. 12:31)

22 He rules the business, social, political, and religious activities of the majority of mankind

23 His realm is divided into organized principalities and powers in the heavenlies (Dan. 10:12-11:1; Mt. 12:24-30; Eph. 6:10-12)

24 His subjects are fallen angels, fallen men, and demons of various kinds (Mt. 25:41; Rev. 12:7-12; Jn. 8:44; 1 Jn. 3:8-10; Jas. 2:19)

25 He is head of some religions and is a leader in religious affairs (2 Cor. 11:14; Rev. 2:9; 3:9)

The origin of Satan

Satan was created by Christ along with other beings, principalities and powers in heaven and earth (Job 38:4-7; Ezek. 28:11-17; Col. 1:15-18)

Satan first ruler of earth

According to Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ezek. 28:11-17; Lk. 10:18, 2 Pet. 3:4-8 and other passages, Satan, known as Lucifer, had a kingdom on earth long before the 6 days of Gen. 1:3-2:25 and the creation of Adam. These passages reveal that he fell, led an invasion into heaven and was defeated. At that time the earth was cursed, and all life destroyed by the first flood, as in Gen. 1:2. Satan regained rulership over the earth in Adam's day, usurping man's dominion by causing his fall. His relationship to man through the ages has been that of a usurper; and as long as man tolerates his dictatorship, that long will he remain subject to Satan. Each man can now, by the power of the gospel, defeat Satan and rid himself of all demon relationship. This is what God demands; and He has provided the means whereby it can be attained (Mk. 16:17-18; Lk. 10:19; 24:49; Acts 1:8; Eph. 6:10-18; Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8-9). Satan's present position as ruler of this world's system and as the prince of this world will be ended forever when Christ comes (Rev. 19-20); and man will again inherit the earth and live in it forever

The fall of Satan

We have several plain scriptures describing this. He fell through pride over his own beauty (Ezek. 28:11-17; 1 Tim. 3:6), and trying to exalt himself above God (Isa. 14:12-14)

The work of Satan

In general, his work is to oppose God whenever possible. For this reason his work varies in some respects with the purposes of God in different ages and dispensations. In O.T. times Satan's great work was to cause the fall of man, usurp his dominion and try to prevent the coming of the Messiah into the world, in order to avert his own defeat and pending doom. See notes, Gen. 6:1-4. Note the following regarding Satan and his activities

26 branches of Satan's work

1 He is the deceiver of all men (2 Cor. 11:14; Rev. 12:9; 20:1-10)

2 He exercised the power of death until Christ conquered death, hell, and the grave (Heb. 2:14; Rev. 1:18)

3 He is the leader of all sinners and backsliders of the human race (1 Jn. 3:8-10; 1 Tim. 5:15) and all spirit rebels (Mt. 9:34; Eph. 6:10-18)

4 He causes all sickness, disease, physical, and mental maladies in the human race (Lk. 13:16; Acts 10:38)

5 Takes advantage of all adversities of men to further their rebellion, and hold them captive (2 Cor. 2:11; 1 Tim. 1:20; 5:11-15)

6 Tempts men (Mk. 1:13; 1 Cor. 7:5)
7 Provokes to sin (1 Chr. 21:1)
8 Causes offense (Mt. 16:23)
9 Transforms himself into an angel of light (2 Cor. 11:14)
10 Resists others (Zech. 3:1-2)
11 Enters into union with others against God (Lk. 22:3; Jn. 13:2)
12 Sends messengers to defeat saints (2 Cor. 12:7) Th. 2:18) 13 Hinders the gospel (Acts 13:10; 1
14 Steals the Word of God from men lest they should believe it (Mt. 13:19; Lk. 8:12)
15 Works miracles (2 Th. 2:9)
16 Contends with messengers of God, endeavoring to hold them captive (Dan. 10:12-21; Jude 9) 10:12-21) 17 Hinders answers to prayer (Dan.
18 Sets snares for men to fall into sin (1 Tim. 3:7; 2 Tim. 2:26)
19 Causes diversion and blinds men to the gospel (2 Cor. 4:4) 5-9) 20 Causes double-mindedness (Jas. 1:
21 Causes doubt and unbelief (Gen. 3:4-5; Rom. 14:23)
22 Causes darkness and oppression (2 Cor. 4:4; 2 Pet. 1:4-9)
23 Causes deadness and weakness (Heb. 6:1; 9:14)
24 Causes delay and compromise (Acts 24:25; 26:28)
25 Causes divisions and strife (1 Cor. 3:1-3; 1 Pet. 5:8) 10-18) 26 Makes war on the saints (Eph. 6:

War on the saints

The greatest and most important work of Satan among men now is to counterfeit the doctrines and experiences of God as revealed in Scripture, in order to deceive saints (2 Cor. 11:14-15; Eph. 6:10-18; 1 Tim. 4:1-7; Rev. 12:9-12). Men are commanded to prove and test all doctrines and experiences in the supernatural realm to see if they are of God or of Satan (1 Cor. 2:12-16; Phil. 1:9-10; 1 Th. 5:21-22; 1 Jn. 4:1-6). It is certain that every religion, doctrine, and experience among men cannot be of God. We must therefore, judge them by the plain written Word of God. The knowledge of truth is the first essential in warfare against demons and error. Great is the danger when believers accept anything and everything in the realm of the supernatural as being from the Lord. The fact that the believer is a child of God does not stop the devil from trying in every conceivable way to imitate God to him. Believers are the ones Satan concentrates on and wars against

There are definite ways outlined in Scripture whereby one can detect what kind of spirit is seeking to control him. But if one neglects to study the Word he may fall prey to one of Satan's demons through ignorance. It must be realized that ignorance is no guarantee against workings of evil spirits. In fact, this is one of the chief means by which Satan and his forces try to control men - through ignorance. It accounts for their widespread success in getting men to accept their suggestions, doctrines, ideas, leadings, and guidance.

Among the guiding principles useful in detecting good and evil spirits, their operations and doctrines, the outstanding ones are these:

1 Any doctrine that denies or causes doubt and unbelief concerning anything taught in Scripture is from Satan and his demons (1 Tim. 4:1-8). Any religion denying the inspiration of the Bible; the reality of God as a person; the virgin birth and divinity of Christ; His miraculous power and supernatural ministry; the death, burial, bodily resurrection, and bodily manifestation of Christ after His resurrection; the bodily ascension to heaven and coming again of Jesus Christ to set up a kingdom in the world forever; the necessity of the new birth, cleansing from sin and living free from sin; and the numerous other experiences of the Bible - any religion denying these fundamental truths is yielding to "the spirit of error" and not "the spirit of truth" (1 Jn. 4:1-6)

2 Any power, influence, or doctrine that causes one to become passive, inactive, submissive, and unresisting to the workings of supernatural spirits seeking to control his life contrary to the teachings of Scripture, is not of God. The Bible says, "Resist the devil (Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8-9). An inclination to approve sin, ignore the necessity of repentance and holy living; and a tendency to remove the penalty for sin or doubt that hell is literal and eternal, are promoted by Satan, not God. Just as God requires truth in the mind for the true working of the Holy Spirit in a life, so the devil requires the believing of lies in the minds of men to hold them in bondage. See 1 Cor. 6:9-11; 10:12-13; 2 Cor. 11:3-15; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Eph. 6:10-18; 1 Tim. 4:1-9; Jas. 1:22; 2:10

3 The Holy Spirit can be recognized by the fruit of the Spirit mentioned in Gal. 5:22-23 - love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance

Earmarks of Holy Spirit manifestation

(1) A Christ-like spirit of love, patience, and faith in God

(2) Soberness and keenness of spirit vision

(3) Deep humility of heart and meekness of spirit, with a lion-like courage against sin, sickness, poverty, disease, discouragement, failure, and everything else causing defeat in Christian life

(4) Absolute clearness of the mental faculties and intelligent action in carrying out Bible instructions concerning known duty and personal life as a Christian

(5) Freedom from fault-finding, surmising, whispering, and slander; and freedom from all the works of the flesh listed in Mk. 7:19-21; Rom. 1:24-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 3:5-10

(6) Freedom from any ignorance concerning the divine will. When one is moved upon to act quickly and urgently without knowing whether the act will glorify God or not, it is better to wait and pray until it is clear beyond all doubt that God approves such action. Always remember that 1 Jn. 4:1 commands: "try the spirits whether they are of God"

The character of Satan

The names and various descriptions of Satan reveal his true character as follows:

1 He is the enemy of all good and the accuser of God and man (Mt. 13:28; Rev. 12:9-12; Ezek. 28:11-17)
2 The father of lies (Jn. 8:44)
3 A murderer (Jn. 8:44)
4 A sower of discord (Mt. 13:39)
5 An adversary (1 Pet. 5:8-9)
6 The first sinner, the first rebel, and the first to consecrate himself to self-gratification and to wage war against all society (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Rev. 12:9; 20:7-10)
7 He is cunning (2 Cor. 2:11; 11:14; Eph. 6:11-12)
8 Wicked (Mt. 13:18, 38; Jn. 8:44; 1 Jn. 3:8; 5:18)
9 Malignant (Lk. 8:12; 2 Cor. 4:4; 1 Pet. 5:8-9)
10 Cowardly (Jas. 4:7)
11 Tempter (Mt. 4:1-11)
12 Thief (Jn. 10:10)
13 Without principle in taking advantage of men in their weak moments (Mt. 4:1-11; Lk. 22:40; 2 Cor. 2:11; 11:3); in tempting men after great success (Jn. 6:15); in suggesting the use of right things in a wrong way and at a wrong time (Mt. 4:1-11); in slandering God to man and man to God (Gen. 3:1-10; Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7); in appearing as an angel of light to deceive (2 Cor. 11:14); and in deluding his followers as to their eternal end (2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 12:9; 20:7-10)
14 Presumptuous (Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7)
15 Proud (Ezek. 28:17; 1 Tim. 3:6)
16 Deceitful (2 Cor. 11:14; Rev. 12:9; 20:10) 1 Pet. 5:8-9) 17 Fierce and cruel (Lk. 8:29; 9:39;
18 Aggressive (Eph. 4:27; 6:10-18; 1 Pet. 5:8-9)

Satan has never been known to be merciful, good, loving, kind, gentle, pitiful, patient, or to have any of the graces of God since he became the enemy of God and man. In Scripture he is compared to a fowler (Ps. 91:3); fowls (Mt. 13:4, 19); a wolf (Jn. 10:12); a destroyer (Jn. 10:10); a roaring lion (1 Pet. 5:8-9); a serpent (Rev. 12:9; 20:3); and a dragon (Rev. 12:3-12)

Methods of Satan:

1 He uses every conceivable means to hold men in subjection to himself and keep them from coming to God. If he fails in this, he tries to kill the believer's testimony and ruin his influence for God

2 If one fails he tries to make him stay fallen or commit suicide. He endeavors to cause men to end their lives by insisting it is the best way out; but he hides the true fact that this will be only the beginning of real torment in eternal hell

3 Satan tries to get others in a lukewarm condition and if he succeeds, urges them to stay in that condition so that God will cut them off in the end

4 He dares men to do many things which they would not do under ordinary circumstances; and men are foolish enough to think they are not brave if they do not accept his dares

5 Makes people think they are missing everything in life if they do not go into all kinds of sins, which in the end, will damn their souls

6 Emphasizes sin and sinful pleasures as innocent enjoyment

7 Stirs unholy passions in men and women causing them to throw away all restraint and live a life of revelry

8 Tries to make people think there is no joy in serving the Lord. This is one of his greatest errors. Serving Christ and winning souls who will be thankful forever, pay the greatest dividends and afford the greatest pleasures known

9 Preaches to the diligent in business that he needs to take all his time for getting rich before serving the Lord, while the fact is that if one will truly serve the Lord, he can be abundantly prosperous with God's help

10 Urges churches and their leaders to make religion a paying proposition by appealing to the rich and influential through lowering the standards of holy living, making salvation easy for all, compromising essentials of the faith, feeding the sheep messages on current events and book reviews instead of the infallible Word of God

God's purpose in allowing Satan to continue:

1 To develop character and faith in the believer (Jas. 1:12; 1 Pet. 1:7-13; 5:8-9; 2 Pet. 1:4-9; Jude 20-24)

2 To keep the believer humble (2 Cor. 12:7)

3 To provide a conflict for saints that they may be rewarded through overcoming (1 Jn. 2:13; 4:1-6; Rev. 2:7, 11, 17, 26-28; 3:5, 12, 21)

4 To demonstrate the power of God over the power of Satan (Mk. 16:17-20; 1 Cor. 4:9; Eph. 2:7; 3:10)

5 To use him in afflicting people to bring them to repentance (1 Cor. 5:1-6; 2 Cor. 2:5-11; Job 33:14-30)

6 To purge man of all possibility of falling in the eternal future (Rev. 21)

The doom of Satan

1 Predicted in Gen. 3:15

2 Accomplished:
(1) At the 1st advent (Jn. 19:30; Col. 2:14-17)
(2) At the 2nd advent (Rev. 20:1-3)
(3) At the battle of Gog and Magog (Rev. 20:7-10)
The purpose of the thousand-year reign of Christ after the 2nd advent will be to suppress all rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28); and the final defeat of Satan and his hosts at the end of that period (the Millennium) must be accomplished before the earth is entirely rid of rebels. They must be confined to the lake of fire forever before rebellion is finally and eternally overcome. The earth will be purified by fire and made perfect the 3rd time; and the kingdom of God will be universal over all free moral agents, as it was before rebellion was started by Satan and Adam in their respective kingdoms

Duty of saints regarding Satan

When one is born again he enters the realm of the supernatural and spiritual; and he should begin a study of the Bible to see what it teaches regarding how he should walk and conduct himself in spiritual warfare with Satan and demon[illegible] saints are to:

34 Gave Israel the promised land (v 44; Josh. 13-21)
35 Gave them the labor of the nations - cities already built, vineyards and orchards already planted, and wells already dug (v 44; Dt. 6:10-11)

Victories, civil wars, and defeats of Israel (106:43)

Many times God gave Israel victory over their enemies when they would cry for help and turn back to Him in repentance. Israel never would have been defeated if they had obeyed God. This was a definite promise from Him (Lev. 26:3-13; Dt. 28:1-14). On the other hand, God promised military defeat, captivity, dispersion, sicknesses, and many curses if they would disobey His laws and break His covenant (Lev. 26:16-45; Dt. 28:15-68). Israel suffered 34 recorded defeats and 13 civil wars when they sinned; and enjoyed 78 victories and deliverances from enemies when they obeyed

78 victories delivered from

Perfect healthy nation (105:37)

The reason there was not one feeble person in all their tribes was because God healed them at Marah (Ex. 15:26; Ps. 107:20). Such is the will of God for men under the new covenant, which is based upon better promises (Heb. 8:6) and is more glorious in power and provision than the old Mosaic covenant (2 Cor. 3:6-15). It is to the shame of the church to fall so far behind Israel in receiving promised benefits (Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 18:18; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:17-18; Lk. 11:1-13; 18:1-8; 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Acts 1:4-8; 2:38-39; 5:32; 26:18; Rom. 12:3-8; 15:29; 1 Cor. 1:7; 4:20; 12:4-8; Jas. 5:14-16; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:13-14). Is it not logical that new covenant ministers and saints should meet the physical and spiritual qualifications of the old covenant (Lev. 21:16-24; Dt. 28)?Is the old covenant the better of the two? Are its provisions and promises better? If so, then we should go back under the old covenant. What then is wrong with the church that it does not get the superior blessings of the new covenant? Could it not be:
1 Because of unbelief (Mt. 17:20; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)?
2 Because of the widespread rebellion against such teaching (1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:5; 4:1-4)?
Surely, it is not because God has lost His power or does not care to live up to His obligations made in the new covenant

36 Makes fruit to increase (v 37)
37 Blesses men with children (v 38)
38 He increased their cattle (v 38)
39 He again curses men and they are brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrows because of sin (v 39)
40 He pours contempt upon princes (v 40) demes (v 40)
41 Causes them to wander in the wil-
42 Sets the poor on high from affliction (v 41)
43 Increases them like a flock (v 41)
44 He does all these things for the sake of teaching men not to sin (v 42)
By His power He upholds all things and provides for all creation (Heb. 1:1-3). He created all things for His glory and has consecrated Himself to their best good (Rev. 4:11). The many providential acts of God in Ps. 107 alone are enough to prove the doctrine of divine providence over all creation

God repenting (106:45)

Heb. nacham, to be sorry in a favorable sense; to pity; console; repent. The word is used of God in:

1 Repenting that He had made man (Gen. 6:6-7)
2 Repenting of His determination to destroy Israel (Ex. 32:12-14)
3 Repenting of evil decreed upon Israel when they cried for mercy (Judg. 2:18; 2 Sam. 24:16; 1 Chr. 21:15; Ps. 106:45; 135:14; Jer. 18:8; 26:3, 13; Amos 7:3, 6; Joel 2:14)
4 Repenting of making Saul king (1 Sam. 15:11, 35)
5 Repenting of His decision to destroy Nineveh when she repented (Jonah 3:9-10)

30 requests against Judas (109:1)

1 Hold not Your peace, O God (v 1)
2 Set a wicked man over him (v 6)
3 Let Satan stand at his right hand (v 6)
4 Let him be condemned (v 7) 6)
5 Let his prayer become sin (v 7)
6 Let his days be few (v 8)
7 Let another take his office (v 8)
8 Let his children be fatherless (v 9)
9 Let his wife be a widow (v 9)
10 Let his children be vagabonds continually (v 10)
11 Let his children beg (v 10)
12 Let them seek their bread in desolate places (v 10)
13 Let the extortioner catch all that he has (v 11)
14 Let strangers spoil his labor (v 11)
15 Let none extend him mercy (v 12)
16 Let none favor his children (v 12)
17 Let his posterity be cut off (v 13)
18 Let their name be blotted out (v 13)
19 Let iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the Lord (v 14) and 20 Let not the sin of his mother be blotted out (v 14) tinually (v 15)
21 Let them be before the Lord con-
22 Let the memory of them be cut off from the earth (v 15)
23 Let cursing come to him (v 17)
24 Let blessing be far from him (v 17)
25 Let cursing come unto him like water (v 18) his bones (v 18)
26 Let it come to him like oil into 27 Let it be unto him as his garment (v 19)
28 Let it be like his girdle (v 19)
29 Let this be the reward of my adversaries from the Lord (v 20)
30 Let this be the reward of them that speak evil of my soul (v 20)

30 facts about Judas (109:8)

If this one statement refers to Judas, then all the others of v 6-20 refer to him, for one man is the subject of the whole passage. This is clear from the singular personal pronouns him, his, and he used 25 times in this passage of the same man

1 A wicked man (the high priest) influenced him (v 6) 6)
2 Satan was his right hand helper (v
3 He will be condemned in judgment (v 6)
4 His prayer became a sin (v 7)
5 His days were few (v 8)
6 He was a genuine apostle (v 8; Mt. 10:1-8, 16-20; Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 9:1-2, 10)
7 Another took his apostleship (v 8; Mt. 10:1-3; Acts 1:20, 25)
8 He had a wife and children (v 9)
9 His children became vagabonds and begged all their days (v 10)
10 They sought bread in desolate places (v 10)
11 An extortioner got all that he owned, so his covetous gains were of no value to him or his family (v 11)
12 What his labors had accomplished strangers destroyed (v 11)
13 No mercy was shown him (v 12)
14 No mercy was shown his fatherless children (v 12)
15 His posterity was cut off (v 13)
16 His family name was cut off in the loss of all his children (v 13)
17 The iniquity of his fathers (ancestors) was remembered by the Lord (v 14) out (v 14)
18 His mother's sin was not blotted
19 The sins of his parents were before God continually until their memory was cut off from the earth (v 16) 16)
20 He showed no mercy on Christ (v
21 He persecuted the poor and needy man (Christ, as agree most commentators, v 16)
22 He was the cause of the slaying of the broken in heart (Christ, v 16) (v 17)
23 He loved cursing, so he reaped it
24 He despised his blessing of being saved and chosen to be an apostle, so it departed far from him (v 17; Mt. 10:1-8, 16-20; Mk. 6:7-13; Acts 1:20, 25)
25 He clothed himself with cursing like a garment (v 18)
26 He reaped the curse in his own bowels that poured out like water when he committed suicide (v 18; Acts 1:18)
27 The curse caused his bones to be broken in pieces as if oil had melted them (v 18; Acts 1:18) ment (v 19)
28 The curse covered him like a gar-
29 The curse held him like a girdle in its grip (v 19)
30 All this was his reward (v 20)

The adversaries refer to Satan and his hosts and to the Jews who co-operated with Judas in this dastardly deed of destroying the Holy One of God. The meaning of v 20 is, Let these curses not only be upon Judas, but upon all who partake with him of this crime

10 The Lord preserveth the simple (v
11 He helped me (v 6) (v 7)
12 He has dealt bountifully with me
13 Has delivered my soul from death
14 Has delivered my eyes from tears
15 Has delivered my feet from falling 16 Has given me many benefits (v 12)
17 Has loosed my bonds (v 16)

David's example of humility (116:16)

David is an example of deep humility. He does not claim to be a great singer, musician, military commander, warrior, king, hymn writer, prophet, or a great man otherwise, although he was all these. He simply refers to Himself as a servant of the lowest class of men and son of a woman who was only a handmaid of God (v 16). What a contrast to the claims of many so-called servants of God today who boast of many titles, degrees, gifts, and anointings to attract attention to themselves. If one is not forced to boast of his gifts as Paul was forced to do (2 Cor. 11:16-28) then it is best for him to take a lowly place before men and glorify Jesus as does the Holy Spirit Himself (Jn. 16:13-15)

7 better things in Psalms (118:8)

1 A little with righteousness better than the riches of many wicked (37:16)
2 God's lovingkindness better than life itself (63:3)
3 Praise better than sacrifices (69:31)
4 One day in God's house better than 1,000 other days (84:10)
5 Trust in God better than confidence in man (118:8)
6 Trust in God better than confidence in princes (118:9) (119:72)
7 Truth better than gold and silver

6 better things Jehovah was to David in Ps. 118 (118:14)

1 Answerer of prayer (v 5, 21)
2 Helper (v 6-7, 13)
3 A trust (v 8-9)
4 Strength (v 14)
5 Salvation (v 14, 21)
6 God (v 28)

10 words expressing God's revelation (119:1)

1 The way, Heb. derek, to proceed, walk with the feet (v 1, 3, 5, 14, 26, 27, 29, 30, 32, 33, 37, 59, 168 - 13 times. Cp. Jn. 14:6; Rom. 3:12). It is the way of God; the way in which God instructs man to go to be saved, holy, and happy. It is the revelation of the way that God would act or do among men

It is called:

(1) Thy way (v 37; 86:11)
(2) His way (18:30; 25:9; 37:23, 34)
(3) The way of Thy testimonies (v 14)

(14) The way of righteousness (Pr. 8:
(15) The way of understanding (Pr. 9:6)
(16) The way of the Lord (Pr. 10:29; Jer. 5:4-5; Ezek. 18:25, 29; 33:17, 20; Acts 18:25)
(17) The way of the just (Isa. 26:7)
(18) The way of Thy judgments (Isa. 28:7) Rom. 3:17)
(19) The way of peace (Isa. 59:8; (20) The good way (Jer. 6:16)
(21) The way of God (Mt. 22:16; Acts (22) This way (Acts 22:4) 18:26)
(23) That way (Acts 22:4; 24:22) 17)
(24) The way of salvation (Acts 16:
(25) The way which they call heresy (Acts 24:14)
(26) The right way (2 Pet. 2:15)

2 The law or torah, from Heb. yarah, to direct; guide; teach; make straight or even; point forward; that which guides, directs, and instructs in the way of righteousness; that which gives the knowledge of sin (Rom. 3:20; 1 Jn. 3:4). Found 25 times in this psalm (v 1, 18, 29, 34, 44, 51, 53, 55, 61, 70, 72, 77, 85, 92, 97, 109, 113, 126, 136, 142, 150, 153, 163, 165, 174)

It is called:

(1) The law of the Lord (v 1; 1:2; 19:7; 1 Chr. 16:40; 22:12; 2 Chr. 17:9; 31:3-4; 35:26; Isa. 5:24; 30:9; Jer. 8:8; Amos 2:4; Lk. 2:23, 24, 39)
(2) Thy law (v 18, 29, 34, 51, 53, 55, 61, 70, 77, 85, 92, 97, 109, 113, 126, 136, 142, 150, 153, 163, 165, 174)
(3) The law of Thy mouth (v 72)
(4) The law of God (Josh. 24:26; Neh. 8:8, 18; 10:28; Rom. 7:22, 25)
(5) God's law (Neh. 10:29) 10:31)
(6) The law of the Lord God (2 Kl.
(7) The law of the God of heaven (Ezra 7:12, 21)
(8) My (God's) law (78:1; Jer. 9:13; 16:11; 44:10; Hos. 8:12)
(9) The law of truth (Mal. 2:6)
(10) The law of the Jews (Acts 25:8)
(11) Moses' law (Heb. 10:28)
(12) His law (12:; Jer. 44:23)
(13) The law of Moses (Josh. 8:31-32; 23:6; 1 Kl. 2:3; 2 Kl. 23:25; 2 Chr. 23:18; 30:16; Ezra 3:2; 7:6; Neh. 8:1; Lk. 2:22; 24:44; Jn. 7:23; Acts 13:39; 28:23). It is called the law of Moses because it was given to him (Jn. 1:17). Hence, to teach that the law of God and the law of Moses are 2 different laws; that God gave the moral law and Moses gave the ceremonial law, is fallacy

3 Testimony or testimonies, Heb. edah and eduth, to turn back again; to go over again; to testify. Found 23 times (v 2, 14, 22, 24, 31, 36, 46, 59, 79, 88, 95, 99, 111, 119, 125, 129, 138, 144, 146, 152, 157, 167, 168)

How to make God happy (119:12):

This psalm is divided into 22 sections of 8 verses each. In them we not only have the blessed man; we also have the blessed God. Man is blessed by God when he does the 6 things of note b,v 1. God is blessed when man meets His terms of reconciliation and walks as one so blessed. God is happy when fallen man comes to his senses and consecrates to the same end in life as God, Himself, which is to the highest good of being and of the universe

22 reasons God is happy:

A study of the 22 divisions of this psalm shows 22 reasons why God can be termed as blessed (happy). They are revealed in the first statements of each division and the general themes of each section, as follows

God is happy when:

1 Man has attained to the heights of character and godliness after His own pattern as outlined in this section (Division 1, v 1-8)
2 Man is enquiring as to how to rid himself of sin, and is working diligently to live for God (Division 2, v 9-16)
3 Man is earnestly seeking enlightenment from God and His Word so as to follow the whole will of God (Division 3, v 17-24)
4 Man humbles himself to walk in the light of His Word, propagates truth, removes lying and deceit, chooses the way of truth, and sticks to God's way of life (Division 4, v 25-32)
5 Man whole-heartedly prays for the fulfillment of the blessings of His Word through obedience to known light (Division 5, v 33-40)
6 Man seeks for salvation by the Word and consecrates himself to a life of faith in God, obedience to His Word, and faithful service in evangelizing the world (Division 6, v 41-48)
7 Man finds his comfort and hope only in God and His Word in times of trouble or blessing, and abhors sin and backsliding all his days (Division 7, v 49-56)
8 Man is fully satisfied with God and His Word as his portion in life, and ever goes deeper in grace and the spiritual life (Division 8, v 57-64)
9 Man learns well the lesson of the chastening power of the Word, and conforms to God's corrections (Division 9, v 65-72)
10 Man learns the true righteousness of God and His Word, and delights in its precepts (Division 10, v 73-80)
11 Man longs for His salvation, hopes in His Word, and becomes stable in the faith (Division 11, v 81-88)
12 Man recognizes that His Word is eternal, that His faithfulness to all generations, His plan for the heavens, the earth and the societies therein have no end, and that the entire curse will be removed and creation made perfect forever (Division 12, v 89-96)
13 Man, following the example of the Messiah, learns that the true source of wisdom and knowledge is God and His Word (Division 13, v 97-104)
14 Man acknowledges His Word to be his guide and light in life, and refuses to err from its truths eternally (Division 14, v 105-112)
15 Man rests in the security of God's Word, and lives in fear of transgression of truth (Division 15, v 113-120)
16 Man does judgment and justice according to His Word, and has confidence in the results of blessing and cursing as being in God's hands (Division 16, v 121-128)
17 Man has faith in His Word as the source of light, and prays for guidance to walk therein (Division 17, v 129-136)
18 Man realizes the true character of God's Word as being altogether pure and righteous, and conforms his life accordingly (Division 18, v 137-144)
19 Man depends upon His Word as the source of strength in life and conduct (Division 19, v 145-152)
20 Man looks to God and His word as the source of salvation and deliverance from sin, sickness, and trouble (Division 20, v 153-160)
21 Man marvels at His Word, and has peace in the midst of turmoil (Division 21, v 161-168)
22 Man prays whole-heartedly in harmony with His Word and rests content in its salvation and blessings (Division 22, v 169-176)

These are the things which make God happy. There is even rejoicing over one sinner that repents; how much more rejoicing must there be when men make God blessed by the above acts (Lk. 15: 7, 10)

48 Had faith in it as the source of understanding for the simple (v 130)
49 Was burdened for those who did not obey it (v 136, 158)
50 Believed it was upright (v 137)
51 Believed it to be eternally righteous (v 138, 144, 172)
52 Believed it to be true from the beginning (v 160)
53 Was zealous because others had forgotten it (v 139)
54 Believed in its purity (v 140)
55 Believed it to be truth (v 142, 151)
56 Believed sinners to be far from it (v 150, 155)
57 Knew it to be of old (v 152)
58 Was awed by it (v 161) 171)
59 Praised God because of it (v 164,
60 Had peace because of it (v 165)
61 Longed for its salvation (v 174)
62 Sought its help (v 175)

10fold description of the wicked in Ps. 119 (119:51)

1 They are proud (v 21, 89, 78, 85)
2 Their heart is as fat as grease (v 70)
3 They are deceitful (v 118)
4 They are oppressive (v 121-122)
5 They are lawless (v 126)
6 They have short memories when it comes to God's Word (v 139)
7 They follow mischief (v 150)
8 They are far from God's law (v 150)
9 They are far from salvation (v 155)
10 They are enemies of the righteous (v 157, 158, 161)

8 reasons David wrote Ps. 119: (119:54)

1 The description of the blessed man (v 1-3) is similar to David's picture of a righteous man in Ps. 15
2 The term thy servant is used 13 times in this psalm (v 17, 23, 38, 49, 65, 76, 84, 122, 124, 125, 135, 140, 176). The term is used of David 34 times in Scripture and not once of Hezekiah, Ethan, Nathan, Ezra, and others to whom some ascribe [illegible] ship. It is used only 15 [illegible] Psalms other than [illegible], [illegible] every such case it [illegible] Hence, its use in [illegible] tains to him. [illegible] My servant by God [illegible] 4 times; and the [illegible] (Ps. 18 and 36, title).
3 The term wh[illegible] 6 times in Ps. 119 is [illegible] David in other psalms (2[illegible]
4 The 30 vows [illegible], p. 439 are purely David[illegible] be seen by comparing them wi[illegible] of other psalms of David
5 The 69 requests of the psalmist, p. 439 are purely David[illegible], as can be seen by comparing them with other requests of David
6 Many points of the 59fold testimony of the psalmist, could not be applied to any other than we know of like they could to David
7 Many of the 22 experiences of the psalmist with others, p. 605 are true of David only, as is clear by comparing them with the record of David
8 The 25 statements of distress, p. 407 are purely David[illegible], as is clearby comparison with similar statements of David elsewhere. The psalmist speaking of God's Word to kings (v 46), making it the subject of his songs (v 54), being afflicted while going astray (v 67 with Ps. 38), being persecuted by princes (v 161), his pilgrimage (sojourn) (v 54 with 1 Sam. 19-30), bands of robbers surrounding him (v 61 with 1 Sam. 22-24, 26-30), the proud dealing perversely with him (v 78 with 2 Sam. 15-18), the soul fainting and panting for God (v 81; 131 with Ps. 38:10; 42: 1), his going astray like a lost sheep (v 176) and many other details of Ps. 119 remind us of David and fit his life more than any other person in Scripture

30 limitations of God: He cannot (119:89)

1 Break His own laws (v 89)
2 Lie (Heb. 6:17-19)
3 Deny Himself (2 Tim. 2:13)
4 Have respect of persons (Rom. 2: 11; Jas. 2:9-10)
5 Save one soul apart from faith and grace in Christ (Rom. 3:26; Jn. 3:16)
6 Be unrighteous (Rom. 9:14)
7 Bless men apart from faith (Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)
8 Curse men when they meet His terms (1 Jn. 1:9)
9 Do away with or change His own eternal plan (Acts 15:18; Eph. 2:7; 3:11)
10 Save rebels who persist in rebellion refusing to meet His terms (Mt. 18: 3; Jn. 3:3, 5; Pr. 1:22-33; 29:1)
11 Be tempted with evil (Jas. 1:13-15)
12 Tolerate hypocrisy (Isa. 1:13)
13 Spare Himself or Christ in the redemption of the human race from eternal hell (Mt. 27:42)
14 Turn down one soul that comes to Him according to His terms (Jn. 6:37)

15 Judge the righteous with the wicked (Gen. 19:22; Rev. 20:5-6, 11-15)
16 Fail to answer prayer when unwavering faith is exercised (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-6)
17 Forgive one unconfessed sin (Lk. 13:1-5; 1 Jn. 1:9)
18 Keep one saved who lives in sin (Rom. 8:12-13; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8)
19 Automatically cancel the death penalty when men sin and incur that penalty (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Ezek. 18:4)
20 Do away with free moral agency and moral responsibility (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:19-21; 1 Jn. 1:7)
21 Make one a slave to Himself so that he can never go back into sin if he chooses (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; 1 Jn. 1:7)
22 Guarantee that every saved man will continue in Christ (Jn. 15:1-8; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:19-20; 9:27; Gal. 1:6-8; 5:4; Ex. 32:32-33; Ezek. 33:12-20)
23 Make any man a son of God in the same sense Jesus is (Jn. 1:18; 3:16; Rom. 8:14-16)
24 Look upon the sins of the saved as being unreal, or deal with them on a different basis from those of the unsaved (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8)
25 Cancel any reaping for what is sown (Rom. 8:12-13; Gal. 6:7-8)
26 Force a man to serve Him against his own will (Jn. 3:16; 7:17; 8:34; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; 1 Jn. 1:7; Rev. 22:17)
27 Recognize any man as His child or His servant who serves sin and the devil (Mt. 6:24; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; Gal. 5:19-21; 1 Jn. 3:8-10)
28 Keep the saved from sin if he chooses to go back into sin (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:9-10, 19-20; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; 1 Jn. 2:1-2; Jas. 5:19-20; Ezek. 33:12-20)
29 Keep one from incurring the death penalty should he go back into sin (Ex. 32:32-33; Ezek. 18:4; 33:12-20; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-10; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; Jas. 5:19-20)
30 Be lenient with any who sin or encourage anarchy in moral government (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 1:18-31; 6:12-21; 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Jas. 5:19-20; Ezek. 18:4; 33:12-20)

16 things to love (119:113)

1 God (Dt. 6:5; 10:12; 11:1; Mt. 22:37)
2 Neighbors (Lev. 19:18; Mt. 22:39)
3 Strangers (Dt. 10:19)
4 Salvation (Ps. 40:16; 70:4)
5 God's name (Ps. 69:36; 119:132)
6 God's Word (Ps. 119:113, 119, 127)
7 Wisdom (Pr. 4:6)
8 Good (Amos 5:15)
9 Mercy (Amos 6:8)
10 Truth (Zech. 8:19; 2 Th. 2:10)
11 Peace (Zech. 8:19)
12 Enemies (Mt. 5:44; Lk. 6:27, 35)
13 One another - saints; brethren (Jn. 13:34-35; Eph. 1:15; 1 Pet. 3:8)
14 Husbands (Tit. 2:4)
15 Wives (Eph. 5:25; Col. 3:19)
16 Children (Tit. 2:4)

How and how much to love:

1 With all the heart, soul, mind, and strength (Mt. 22:37; Lk. 10:27)
2 As one loves himself (Mt. 22:39)
3 Exceedingly (Ps. 119:167)
4 As Christ loves us (Jn. 15:12)
5 Enough to lay down life for others (Jn. 15:13)
6 Without hypocrisy (Rom. 12:9)
7 By the Holy Ghost (2 Cor. 6:6)
8 In sincerity (2 Cor. 8:8) 13)
9 By service to one another (Gal. 5
10 Forbearing one another (Eph. 4:2)
11 With a pure heart fervently (1 Pet. 1:22)
12 As brethren (Rom. 12:9; 1 Pet. 3:8)
13 Not in word but in deed (1 Jn. 3:18)
14 Without fear (1 Jn. 4:18)

10 different interpretations of the 15 songs of degrees (Ps. 120, title)

1 The 15 songs were sung, one on each of the 15 steps of the temple
2 Songs of the higher choir
3 Songs sung on the stairs of some high place
4 Songs progressing into higher keys
5 Songs of the going up of the ark to Zion
6 Songs sung when all the tribes of Israel went up to the feasts ylon
7 Songs of the going up from Bab-
8 Songs of the future regathering of Israel from among the nations
9 Songs of the experiences of the church in all ages
10 Songs corresponding to the 15 years added to the life of Hezekiah, 10 of them composed by Hezekiah to correspond with the 10 degrees the sun went backward on the dial of Ahaz. There is no proof for any of these interpretations. As to theories 5, 7, 8 and 9, they are contradicted by Scripture. Some of these 15 songs were not even composed by the time David brought the ark to Zion, for Solomon was not yet born. Neither were some composed in connection with the Babylonian captivity, for all were written and sung from 100 to 500 years before such captivity. As to being songs about the regathering of Israel or spiritual experiences of the church, this is out of the question, for they tell of experiences now in the past. They were composed and sung hundreds, even thousands of years before the present church and the future regathering of Israel

To believe that Hezekiah wrote the 10 untitled songs because of his atonement in Isa. 38:20 would be accepting shallow proof of authorship indeed. There is no proof that he even arranged these songs in their present form. It is clear from 132:1, 6, 10, 11, 17 that David wrote Ps. 132 of these 10

Regardless of the true meaning, the 15 psalms form a special section of the book. For what purpose Israel used this section is not known and there is nothing in any scripture where the word degree is found to throw light on the subject, as can be seen in the passages where it is found (2 Ki. 20:9-11; 1 Chr. 15:18; 17:17; Ps. 62:9; Isa. 38:8; Lk. 1:52; 1 Tim. 3:13; Jas. 1:9)

7 examples of trust in God (125:1)

1 Noah (Gen. 6:14-22; Heb. 11:7)
2 Abraham (Gen. 12:1-4; Heb. 11:8-
3 David (Ps. 11:1; 31:1-15) 19)
4 Hezekiah (2 Ki. 18:5) 28)
5 3 Hebrew children (Dan. 3:16-17,
6 Daniel (Dan. 6)
7 Christ (Heb. 2:13)

Eternal generations (127:3)

Eternal coming generations of natural people on earth will be the reward God is looking for, to repay Him for all the work and trouble He has been through and will yet go through to carry out His original plan for man. God created the earth and other planets to be inhabited and He will yet see that this purpose is fulfilled (Isa. 45:18). He will also see to it that those who live eternally in control of His creations are righteous and free from all possibility of rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21:3-7, 22:3). This verse refers to the original and eternal law of reproduction of man (v 3; Gen. 1:28-28; 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5). According to these and many other scriptures children will be the heritage of God eternally and the fruit of the womb will be His eternal reward. God's original plan is not to be defeated by the fall of man. It is merely being postponed until all sin and rebellion are put down and all things are restored as before the fall. In the new earth people will carry on the original program of God as if man had never fallen. Man will have been purged of all possibility of sin and will multiply, replenish the earth and rule over the sun, moon, and stars as God ordained before the fall (Ps. 8; Isa. 66:22-24; Rev. 21-22)

10 requests of the psalmist in Ps. 132: (132:1)

1 Remember David (v 1) (v 1)
2 Remember all David's afflictions
3 Remember how he sware to God (v 2) (v 2)
4 Remember how he vowed to God
5 Remember what he vowed (v 3-7)
6 Arise, O Lord, into Your rest (v 8)
7 Arise, You, and the ark of Your strength (v 8)
8 Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness (v 9)
9 Let Your saints shout for joy (v 9)
10 Turn not away the face of Your anointed (v 10)

8 proofs of Davidic authorship of Ps. 132 (132:1)

1 The claims of authorship of Solomon, Hezekiah, or someone after the captivities has never been proved
2 David's name is mentioned 4 times in this psalm (v 1, 10, 11, 17)
3 The wording, as if the psalmist were another person praying about David does not disprove a Davidic authorship any more than Paul speaking of himself as another person proves that he was not talking of himself (2 Cor. 12:1-10)
4 The fact that the psalmist does not once refer to himself as being someone other than David, but rather says everything about David, is proof that David himself wrote the psalm
5 Who but David would know all the details of his own vows and his own afflictions as referred to in v 1-5?
6 The fact the author was brought up in Bethlehem Ephratah, the home of David, identifies the author as David (v 6; Mic. 5:2)
7 The fact the author addresses God as thy servant David and thine anointed proves David is the author (v 10)
8 Since the whole psalm concerns David - his afflictions (v 1); his vows to bring back the ark (v 1-5); his birthplace (v 6); his worship (v 7); his bringing back the ark (v 8-10); and his covenant (v 11-18), it is only proper to ascribe the authorship to him

15 blessings of the Davidic covenant in Ps. 132 (132:11)

1 The Messiah to be of David's flesh and blood (v 11) throne (v 11)
2 The Messiah to sit on David's
3 David's descendents to sit upon his throne forever on condition of eternal obedience (v 12). If David's sons had obeyed God his throne and kingdom would have continued to this day. They will be re-established and continue eternally when Messiah comes who will render eternal obedience to God (Isa. 9:6-7; Amos 9:11; Lk. 1:32-33; Acts 15:13-18; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10; 22:4-5)
4 God has chosen Zion (v 13) 13-14)
5 He has desired it for His capital (v
6 It will be His eternal capital (v 14; Ezek. 43:7; 48:35; Zech. 14)
7 Here He will dwell forever (v 14; Ezek. 43:7; 48:35; Zech. 14) 15)
8 God will bless Zion materially (v
9 Her poor will be blessed materially forever (v 15; Mic. 4)
10 Her priests will be clothed with salvation (v 16)
11 Her saints will shout for joy (v 16)
12 The horn (Messiah, King) of the house of David will bud (v 17)
13 The Messiah shall be a light to the house of David forever (v 17)
14 The enemies of David will be clothed with shame (v 18)
15 David's crown will flourish forever, that is, David will also reign as king eternally under the Messiah (v 18; Jer. 30:9; Ezek. 37:24; Hos. 3:5)

15 uses of the word "lamp" in Scripture (132:17)

1 Literal lamps for light (Judg. 7:16, 20; Mt. 25:1-13)
2 Literal lamps as typical of truth (Ex. 27:20; Lev. 24:2 with Heb. 10:1)
3 A supernatural manifestation (Gen. 15:17; Ezek. 1:13; Dan. 10:6)
4 A symbol of God (2 Sam. 22:29)
5 A symbol of remembrance (1 Ki. 15:4) 5)
6 A symbol of indifference (Job 12:
7 A symbol of the Word of God (Ps. 119:105; Pr. 6:23)
8 A symbol of life (Pr. 13:9; 20:20)
9 A symbol of salvation (Isa. 62:1)
10 Used to describe a symbol of Satan (Job 41:19, 34) 1:13) 11 Used to describe cherubim (Ezek.
12 Used to describe God's eyes (Dan. 10:6) 4:5) 13 A symbol of the Holy Spirit (Rev.
14 A symbol of the Messiah who was to be the light of David (Ps. 132:17)
15 Symbol of judgment (Rev. 8:10)

Unity (133:1)

5 examples of people in unity:

1 Abraham and Lot (Gen. 12:5; 13:1-2 Ruth and Naomi (Ruth 1:16-17) 8)
3 Jonathan and David (1 Sam. 18:1-4; 19:1-7; 20:4, 35-42)
4 Rechabites (Jer. 35:2-5, 18)
5 The early church (Acts 2:44-45)

5 examples of disunity:

1 Joseph and brothers (Gen. 37; 42; 21-22)
2 Schechemites (Judg. 9:1-6, 22-52)
3 Esau and Jacob (Gen. 25 and 28)
4 Jehu and others (2 Ki. 9)
5 Corinthians (1 Cor. 6:1-8)

Anointing (133:2)

3 kinds of anointing:

1 Oil (Gen. 28:18; 35:14; Mk. 6:7-13; Jas. 5:14-16)
2 Compound of spices (Ex. 30:22-25)
3 Holy Spirit (Ps. 45:7; Isa. 61:1; Lk. 4:18-21; Acts 10:38; Heb. 1:9)

12 persons and things anointed:

1 A stone (Gen. 28:18; 35:14)
2 Tabernacle and furniture (Ex. 30; 26-27; 40:9; Lev. 8:10-11; Num. 7:1)
3 The body (Dt. 28:40; Ruth 3:3; Esther 2:12; Ps. 92:10; 105:15; Mt. 6:17)
4 Prophets (1 Ki. 19:16; Ps. 105:15)
5 Priests (Ex. 29:7, 29; 40:13; Ps. 133:2)
6 Kings (1 Sam. 16:3, 13; 2 Sam. 2:4; 1 Ki. 19:15; 1 Chr. 29:22)
7 Guests (Lk. 7:46)
8 Captives (2 Chr. 28:15)
9 The sick (Mk. 6:13; Jas. 5:14-15)
10 The dead (Mt. 26:12; Mk. 14:8; 16:1)
11 The Messiah (Ps. 45:7; Isa. 61:1; Dan. 9:24; Lk. 4:18-21; Acts 10:38)
12 Saints (2 Cor. 1:21; 1 Jn. 2:20, 27)

28 facts about God (136:1)

15 Divided the Red Sea (v 13)
16 Made Israel to pass through the sea as on dry ground (v 14)
17 Overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea (v 15) (v 16)
18 Led Israel through the wilderness
19 Smote great kings (v 17)
20 Slew famous kings (v 18) (v 19)
21 Slew Sihon, king of the Amorites
22 Slew Og, king of Bashan (v 20) 21)
23 Gave their lands for an heritage (v
24 Gave their lands to Israel (v 22)
25 Remembered Israel's low estate (v 23) 24)
26 Redeemed Israel from enemies (v
27 Gives food to all flesh (v 25)
28 Is the God of heaven (v 26)

8 acts of Babylonian captives (137:1)

1 We sat down (v 1)
2 We wept (v 1)
3 We remembered Zion (v 1)
4 We hung our harps upon willows (v 2)
5 We refused to sing a song of the Lord while in captivity (v 3-4) (v 5-6)
6 We vowed not to forget Jerusalem
7 We prayed for vengeance upon those who rejoiced at our fall (v 7)
8 We predicted the fall of Babylon (v 8-9)

16 things God has done in Ps. 139 (139:1)

1 Searched me (v 1)
2 Known me (v 1)
3 Known my downsitting (v 2)
4 Known my uprising (v 2) 2)
5 Understood my thought afar off (v
6 Compassed my path (v 3)

7 Compassed my lying down (v 3)
8 Become acquainted with all my ways (v 3) (v 4)
9 Known every word in my tongue
10 Beset me behind (v 5)
11 Beset me before (v 5)
12 Laid His hand upon me (v 5)
13 Possessed my reins (v 13) (v 13)
14 Covered me in my mother's womb
15 Seen my substance when I was forming in my mother's womb (v 15-16)
16 Written all my members in a book (v 16)

These facts declare God's perfect knowledge of man's formation and of all his thoughts and acts in the various stages of life, as well as the purpose of such knowledge and His providence over man. Nothing is said of God's omniscience regarding all men before coming into existence. The extreme concepts of God knowing the minutest details of future persons from all eternity past, of His knowing the entire future of coming generations in detail, and of His knowing the free acts of free moral agents from eternity to eternity are not even hinted in Scripture

The searching God (139:1)

What is the object of searching man to know him if this is already an automatic knowledge of God from eternity past, even billions of years before man came into existence?

6 facts about God searching

1 God went before Israel to search out a resting place for them, in the same manner the spies searched out Canaan (Num. 10:33; Dt. 1:33 with Num. 13: 2, 32; 14:7, 36-38) 44:20-21)
2 God searches the ways of man (Ps.
3 He is asked to search the heart and try it to see if there is any wicked thing in it (Ps. 139:23-24)
4 God, Himself, claims that He searches the heart and tries it to give every man justice according to what He finds (Jer. 17:10)
5 God searches all hearts (1 Chr. 28: 9; Rom. 8:27; Rev. 2:23) (1 Cor. 2:10)
6 The Holy Spirit searches all things

These passages would be meaningless and such acts needless if God already knew from eternity past what He gets to know by searching when persons actually come into existence

God's book (139:16)

7 things God's book is called:

1 Thy book (Ex. 32:32; Ps. 56:8; 139:
2 My book (Ex. 32:33) 16)
3 The book (Dan. 12:1)
4 The book of the living (Ps. 69:28)
5 The book of remembrance (Mal. 3:16)
6 The book of life (Phil. 4:3; Rev. 3: 5; 13:8; 17:8; 20:11-15; 22:19)
7 The Lamb's book of life (Rev. 21:27)

7 important facts about God's book

1 All members of the body, soul, and spirit of every man are written in it (Ps. 139:16)
2 These members are written in it before birth (Ps. 139:16)
3 Names of the saved are written in it (Ex. 32:32-33; Ps. 69:28; Dan. 12:1; Lk. 10:20; Phil. 4:3; Rev. 3:5; 13:8; 17:8; 20:11-15; 21:27; 22:19) 16)
4 A book of remembrances (Mal. 3:
5 Tears of the saints are recorded in it (56:8)
6 It was prepared to be a record of the redeemed even before the disruption of the pre-Adamite world (Rev. 13:8; 17:8), not that the names were put in it that far back, but that the plan to have such a book was made then
7 Names of men can and will be blotted out of it when sin is committed, or else God is not truthful. He said that this would happen and He must be relied upon as telling the truth (Ex. 32:32-33; Ps. 69:28; Rev. 3:5; 22:19)

It appears from the above facts that the book of God is a registration of all who are born in the human race, a record of their tears, experiences, and deeds done in the body so that He will be able to judge all men justly (Mt. 16:27; Rom. 14:10-12; 2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 20:11-15)

It may be that God has different books - one for the names of every man born, one for the deeds of every man, another for the names of the redeemed, etc., for it is clear that at the judgment books will be opened as well as the book of life (Rev. 20:11-15). Or, these books may refer to the various books of the Bible, as well as books of records for all men

4 ways the wicked seek to ensnare (140:5)

1 By snares, Heb. pach, a spring net (Josh. 23:13; Job 22:10; Ps. 11:6; 69:22; 91:3; 119:110; 124:7; 140:5; 141:9; 142:3; Pr. 7:23; 22:5; Eccl. 9:12; Isa. 24:17-18; Jer. 18:22; 48:43-44; Hos. 5:1; 9:8; Amos 3:5)
2 By cords, Heb. chebel, rope; noose (v 5; Josh. 2:15; Esther 1:6; Job 36:8; 41:1; Pr. 5:22; Eccl. 12:6; Isa. 5:18; Jer. 38:6-13; Ezek. 27:24; Hos. 11:4; Mic. 2:5)
3 By nets, Heb. resheth, a net for catching animals (v 5; 9:15; 10:9; 25: 15; 31:4; 35:7-8; 57:6; Job 18:8; Pr. 1: 17; 29:5; Lam. 1:13; Ezek. 12:13; 17: 20; 19:8; 32:3; Hos. 5:1; 7:12)
4 By gins, Heb. moqesh, snares; a noose for catching animals; trap (v 5; 141:9; Amos 3:5; note b, Ps. 18:5)

The 4 things - snares, cords, nets, and gins refer to any means whereby the wicked seek to take advantage of the righteous and destroy them

32 Shows His statutes to Israel (v 19)
33 Deals with Israel in particular (v 20)
34 Sends forth His judgments (v 20)

The many acts of God in psalms alone prove Him to be a person with personal interest in all things He has created. He is more than an abstract quality or power. He is a person (Heb. 1:1-3)

Name and number of stars (147:4)

Astronomers claim there are over 40,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 (40 sextillion) stars which are suns to other planets. God knows the exact number of them for He made them (v 4; Isa. 45:18) There are over 500,000 words in the unabridged Webster dictionary. If God has every star named, then there are enough such names to fill around 80,000,000,000,000,000,000 (80 quadrillion) books that size. It would be hard to estimate how many more it would take to record all the other words God uses concerning the whole of His vast universe. No wonder the psalmist says in the next verse, "Great is our Lord, and of great power: His understanding is infinite"

Some stars are named in Scripture: Orion (Job 9:9; 38:31; Amos 5:8), Arcturus (Job 9:9; 38:32), Pleiades (Job 9:9; 38:31), and Mazzaroth (Job 38:32)

7 official duties of resurrected saints (149:7)

1 To sing and be joyful before God (v 5; Rev. 5:8-10; 14:1-5; 15:2-4)
2 Praise and worship God (v 6; Rev. 5:8-14; 19:1-10)
3 Execute vengeance upon nations (v 7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:18, 27; Zech. 14; Jude 14-15; Rev. 1:5; 2:27; 5:10; 20:4-6)
4 Execute punishments upon men (v 7; Isa. 1:26; 1 Cor. 6:1-2; Rev. 5:10; 11:15; 20:4-6; 22:4-5)
5 Bind the kings of the earth with chains (v 8; Isa. 24:21; 1 Cor. 6:2; Rev. 2:27; 12:5; 20:4-6)
6 Bind their nobles with fetters of iron (v 8; Rev. 2:27; 12:5; 20:4-6)
7 Execute judgment upon men (v 9; 1 Cor. 6:2; Rev. 2:27; 12:5; 20:4-6)

CHAPTER 1

I The introduction (1:1-7).
1 Subject of the book

THE [a]proverbs of [b]Sŏl'o-mon the son of Dā'vid, king of Is'ra-el;

2 Tenfold purpose of wisdom

2 [c]To know [d]wisdom and [e]instruction; to perceive the words of [f]understanding;
3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, [g]justice, and [h]judgment, and [i]equity;
4 To give [j]subtilty to the [k]simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.
5 [m]A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:
6 To understand a proverb, and the [n]interpretation; the words of the wise, and [o]their dark sayings.

3 The beginning, not the end of all wisdom (1:29; 2:5; 8:13; 9:10; 10:27; 14:26-27; 15:16, 33; 16:6; 19:23; 22:4; 23:17)

7 ¶ The [p]fear of the LORD is the [q]beginning of knowledge: but [r]fools [s]despise wisdom and instruction.

II Instruction and admonition to sons (1:8-7:27).
1 MY SON: obey your parents - reason (Eph. 6:1-3; Col. 3:20)

●8 My son, [t]hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:
▸9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and [u]chains about thy neck.

2 MY SON: consent not to the enticement of sinners

●10 ‹ My son, if [v]sinners entice thee, [w]consent thou not.
11 [x]If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:
12 Let us swallow them up alive as the [y]grave; and whole, as those that go down into the [z]pit:
13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:
14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

3 MY SON: (1) Walk not with sinners. Seven reasons

●15 My son, [a]walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:
16 For [b]their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.
17 [c]Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.
18 And they lay wait for their [d]own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.
19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

(2) Call of wisdom: twenty-sevenfold indictment of rebels, one command, two conditional promises, ten refusals and ten judgments (Cp. 8:1-9:18)

20 ¶ [e]Wisdom [f]crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets;
21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,
★22 [g]How long, [h]ye [i]simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?
23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.●◂ 24 ¶ [j]Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:
26 [k]I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;
27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.
28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:
29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:
30 They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.
31 Therefore shall [l]they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.
32 [l]For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
33 [k]But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall [l]dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.◂

CHAPTER 2

4 MY SON: (1) Eight commands SEARCH FOR WISDOM

MY son, [m]if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;
2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;
3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;
4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

(2) THEN: eight blessings

▸5 [n]Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.
▸6 For the LORD [o]giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.
▸7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.
▸8 He keepeth the paths of a Heb. mishlai, from mashal, to rule (Gen. 1:18; 3:16; Ex. 21:8). Generally, not a collection of human wisdom, but of divine rules from heaven to govern man's whole conduct, civil, religious, and business life. Mashal is used of:

1 An allegory (Ezek. 17:2)
2 A discourse (Num. 23:7-8)
3 A taunt or triumph song (Isa. 14:4)
4 An argument (Job 29:1)
5 A byword (Jer. 24:9)
6 A lament (Mic. 2:4)
7 A proverb (v 1; 1 Ki. 4:32; 2 Chr. 7:20; Ps. 44:14; 69:11; Jer. 24:9)
8 A parable (Ezek. 20:49)
9 A type (Heb. 9:9)
10 A figure (Heb. 11:19)
The book is quoted 8 times in the N. T.: 1:16 in Rom. 3:15; 3:11-12 in Heb. 12:5-6; Rev. 3:19; 3:34 in Jas. 4:6; 1 Pet. 5:5; 11:31 in 1 Pet. 4:18; 26:21-22 in Rom. 12:20; 26:11 in 2 Pet. 2:22

2 Scorners (note c, 3, Ps. 1:1)
3 Fools (col. 4, p. 444)
Simple ones love simplicity (Heb. pethiy, silly, deceptive, flattering, and enticing talk and conduct); scorners delight in scorning wisdom; and fools despise knowledge (v 22)
f 6fold message of wisdom:
1 How long will you simple ones love deception and flattery (v 22)?
2 How long will you scorners continue to scorn wisdom (v 22)?
3 How long will you fools hate knowledge (v 22)?
4 Turn you (Heb. shuwb, be converted, note r, Ps. 6:9)
5 I will pour out my spirit unto you
6 I will make known my word to you (v 23)
g 12 reasons for being damned:
1 Refusal of wisdom's call (v 24)
2 Disregard of her invitation (v 24)
3 Setting at naught her counsel (v 4 Rejection of her reproof (v 25) 25)
5 Hatred of her knowledge (v 29)
6 Refusal of fear of the Lord (v 29)
7 Rejection of wisdom's counsel (v 8 Despising her reproof (v 30) 30)
9 Reaping fruit of own way (v 31)
10 Being filled with own schemes (v 31)
11 Turning away or backsliding (v 32)
12 Being satisfied with prosperity (v 32)
Wisdom is here personified indicating that every man is endowed with natural faculties to know right from wrong and to make godly decisions (Jn. 1:9; Rom. 2:12-16). It is man's own God-given wisdom which will laugh and mock at the calamity he brings upon himself through folly and rejection of her pleading. Cp. Ps. 1 h 10fold end of the wicked:
1 His calamity laughed at (v 26)
2 His terror mocked (v 26)
3 Fear and desolation a reality (v 27)
4 Destruction like a whirlwind
5 Distress coming upon him (v 27)
6 Anguish seizing him (v 27)
7 Not being heard when praying to God in punishment (v 28)
8 Seeking God when it will be too late to find Him (v 28)
9 Reaping what has been sowed (v 31)
10 Being required to be satisfied with own plans (v 31)
i 5 examples of sowing and reaping:
1 Cain (Gen. 4:3-15)
2 Israel (Num. 11:4-6; Ps. 106:13-14)
3 Saul (1 Sam. 15; 1 Chr. 10:13)
4 Haman (Esther 5:1-7:10)
5 Judas (Mt. 26:24; Acts 1:20-25)
j 5 examples of destruction:
1 Israel (Dt. 32:15-25; Hos. 13:6-8)
2 Babylon (Isa. 47:7-9)
3 Moab (Jer. 48:11-15)
4 Sodom (Ezek. 16:49; Gen. 19)
5 Tyre (Ezek. 28:2-7)
k 2fold end of the righteous (v 33):
1 He shall dwell safely
2 He shall be quiet from fear of evil
l 5 examples of dwelling safely:
1 Noah and family (Gen. 6-8)
2 3 Hebrew children (Dan. 3)
3 Daniel (Dan. 6)
4 Christ's sheep (Jn. 10:28-29)
5 David (Ps. 23)
m 8 great if's of blessing (v 1-4)
n 8 blessings for those who obey (v 4-8)
o 5 examples of getting wisdom:
1 Joseph (Gen. 41:38-39)
2 Moses (Ex. 4:12)
3 Solomon (1 Ki. 3:12; 4:29)
4 Daniel (1:17; 2:23)
5 Stephen (Acts 6:5, 10)

d The word down used twice in this verse is not in the original and it is really misleading, for it is not the robbers lurking to kill themselves, but to kill the innocent (v 11, 18-19) judgment, and [d]preserveth the way of his saints.

(3) THEN: eight blessings

▸9 [b]Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and [d]judgment, and [e]equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When [f]wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

▸11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

(4) TO DELIVER THEE from the wicked man; his seven sins

▸12 To [g]deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh [h]froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

(5) TO DELIVER THEE from the harlot: her seven sins (Cp. 5:3-6; 6:24-29; 7:5-27; 9:13-18; 23:27)

▸16 To [i]deliver thee from the strange woman, even from [k]the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the [l]dead.

19 [m]None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

(6) THAT: six blessings

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 [n]For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it. ◂

22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it. ◂

CHAPTER 3

5 MY SON: (1) Two commands; three blessings

MY son, forget not my law; but let thine heart [o]keep my commandments:

▸2 [p]For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall [q]they add to thee.

(2) Three commands: two blessings

●3 Let not [r]mercy and truth forsake thee: [s]bind them about thy neck; [s]write them upon the table of thine heart:

▸4 [t]So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

(3) Three commands: one blessing

●5 ¶ [u]Trust in the LORD [v]with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own [w]understanding.

●6 [x]In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall [y]direct thy paths. ◂

(4) Three commands: two blessings

●7 ¶ Be not wise in thine own eyes: [z]fear the LORD, and [a]depart from evil.

▸8 It shall be [b]health to thy navel, and [c]marrow to thy bones.

(5) Two commands: two blessings

●9 [d]Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

▸10 [e]So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

6 MY SON: (1) Two commands: one blessing (Job 5:7; Heb. 12:5-15)

●11 ¶ My son, [f]despise not the [g]chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

▸12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

(2) Seek true happiness (1:7, refs.): its tenfold value

13 ¶ Happy is the man that findeth [h]wisdom, and the man that getteth [i]understanding.

14 For the [j]merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than [k]rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

16 [l]Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

18 She is a[m]tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

(3) Works of wisdom-knowledge

19 [n]The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

20 By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

7 MY SON: (1) Two commands: six blessings of security

●21 ¶ My son, let not [o]them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

▸22 So shall they be [p]life unto thy soul, and [q]grace to thy neck.

▸23 [r]Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

▸24 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

(2) Two commands: two blessings

●25 [s]Be not afraid of sudden

a Begin, continue, and end every work, purpose, and plan with God. Self-sufficiency and self-confidence have been the ruin of mankind ever since the fall. Man's sin has been to live independently and without God in the world. True religion consists of full acknowledgement of God in all human affairs (v 5) b Heb. yashar, rightly divide. It is the same idea as rightly dividing the word of truth (2 Tim. 2:15) c 4 illustrations of being self-wise:

1 Ahab (1 Ki. 22:30-35)
2 Jeroboam (1 Ki. 12:26-33; 13:33)
3 Asa (1 Ki. 15:19)
4 Ben-hadad (1 Ki. 20:10-11)
Quoted in Rom. 11:25; 12:16

d Heb. yare, to revere (24:21; Eccl. 3:14; 5:7; 12:13)

e Shun, avoid, abstain from (1 Th. 5:22)

f Just like the navel is the means by which the child receives life and nourishment from the mother while it is in the womb, so fearing God and departing from evil give life to a child of God (v 7-8)

g By marrow the bones being kept moistened, nourished and not so brittle, are less likely to break h See tithing, p. 270 of N.T.

i This expresses material prosperity

2 Fine gold (v 14) 4 Other things (v 15) p Pearls, or precious stones in general

q 6 blessings of wisdom-knowledge:
1 Length of days (v 16)
2 Riches and honor (v 16)
3 Pleasantness (v 17)
4 Peace (v 17)
5 Tree of life (v 18)
6 Happiness (v 18)

r Cp. Gen. 2:9; 3:22-24; Rev. 2:7; 22:2, 14. By obeying wisdom and knowledge one can live long and even enter into eternal life

s Here wisdom is taken for the infinite knowledge and skill of God whereby every thing in creation has been made and maintained. The composition and structure of the earth and the heavens and all material creations and their order and perpetual positions have not been changed. They continue essentially the same in all ages (v 19-20)

t Perhaps refers to mercy and truth (v 3), or to wisdom and understanding (v 13) u 8 things that will bring life:

1 Law and commandments (v 1-2)
2 Mercy and truth (v 3-4)
3 Trust in God (v 5)
4 Acknowledgement of God (v 6)
5 Reverance for God (v 7-8)
6 Departure from evil (v 7-8)
7 Wisdom - understanding (v 13-18)
8 Wisdom and discretion (v 21-24)

v Another reference to ornaments around the neck (v 22; 1:9, note u) w Here is another conclusion (2:5, 9; 3:25). THEN - when all the conditions of v 1-22 shall have been met one will not stumble. One can then live in confidence, security, and safety; and sleep will be sweet (v 23-24)

d 2 examples envying not oppressors:
1 Moses (Heb. 11:25-26)
2 Elijah (1 Kl. 21:17-24)

e 20 things an abomination to God:
1 The froward man (Heb. luwz, perverse; one who turns aside, 3:32; 11:20)
2 A proud look (6:16-17)
3 A lying tongue (6:17; 12:22)
4 Hands that shed innocent blood (6:17)
5 A wicked scheming heart (6:18)
6 Feet quick to sin (6:18)
7 A false witness that speaks lies (6:19)
8 A sower of discord (6:19)
9 Wickedness (8:7)
10 A false balance (11:1)
11 Sacrifice of the wicked (15:8; 21:27)
12 The way of the wicked (15:9)
13 The thoughts of the wicked (15:26)
14 The proud of heart (16:5)
15 Justifying the wicked (17:15)
16 Condemning the just (17:15)
17 Divers weights (20:10, 23)
18 Divers measures (20:10)
19 Refusing to hear the law (28:9)
20 Prayer of the rebel (28:9)

15fold purpose of proverbs (1:2):
1 To know wisdom (v 2)
2 To know instruction (v 2)
3 To perceive understanding (v 2; point 2, below) (v 3)
4 To receive instruction in wisdom
5 To receive instruction in justice (v 3)
6 To receive instruction in judgment (v 3; note i, 1:3) (v 3; note j, 1:3)
7 To receive instruction in equity
8 To give subtlety to simple (v 4)
9 To give young men knowledge (v 4)
10 To give young men discretion (v 4)
11 To attract the wise man (v 5)
12 To increase learning (v 5) (v 5)
13 To help attain to wise counsels
14 To make known the words of the wise in proverbial form (v 6)
15 To express dark sayings (v 6)

6 Heb, words trans. "wisdom" (1:2)

1 Chokmah: 39 times in singular (v 2-3, 7: etc.) and 3 times in the plural (1:20; 9:1; 24:7)
2 binah, discernment and discrimination. Once trans. wisdom (23:4); once knowledge (2:3); and 12 times understanding (1:5; 3:5; 4:1-7; 7:4; 8:14; 9:6, 10; 16:16; 23:23; 30:2)
3 Leb, heart. Trans. wisdom 4 times (10:21; 11:12; 15:21; 19:8)
4 Armah, shrewdness. Trans. wisdom (8:5); subtilty (1:4); and prudence (8:12)
5 Sakal, prudence, good sense. Trans. wisdom (1:3)
6 Sekel, insight. Trans. wisdom (12:8; 23:9); understanding (3:4; 13:15; 16:22); and discretion (14:11)

Religious reverence (1:7)

Heb. yirah, religious reverence: 14 times in Proverbs (v 7, 29; 2:5; 8:13; 9:10; 10:27; 14:26-27; 15:16, 33; 16:6; 19:23; 22:4; 23:17). In v 2-6 Solomon shows the advantage of acting according to the dictates of wisdom: in v 7-33 he shows the danger of acting contrary to them fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

▸26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

(3) Six commands: four blessings

●27 [m]Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.
●28 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.
●29 [n]Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.
●30 [m]Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.
●31 [m]Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.
▸32 For the froward is [o]abomination to the LORD: but [p]his secret is with the righteous.
▸33 ¶ The [q]curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he [r]blesseth the habitation of the just.
▸34 Surely he [s]scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.
★35 [t]The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of [u]fools. ◂

CHAPTER 4

8 YE CHILDREN: fourteen commands: fourteen blessings

HEAR, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.
●2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law. ◂
3 For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.
●4 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live. ◂
●5 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.
●6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. ◂
●7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.
●8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. ◂
▸9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

9 MY SON: (1) Two commands: five blessings

●10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many. ◂ 11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.
▸12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

(2) Nine commands: nine blessings

●13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.
●14 ¶ [v]Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.
●15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.
16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.
17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.
★18 [w]But [x]the [y]path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. ◂
19 [z]The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

10 MY SON: (1) Four commands: four blessings

●20 ¶ My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.
●21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.
▸22 [a]For they are life unto those that find them, and [b]health to all their flesh.

(2) Ten commands: ten blessings

●23 ¶ [c]Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.
●24 Put away from thee [d]a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.
●25 Let thine [e]eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.
●26 [f]Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.
●27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

CHAPTER 5

11 MY SON: (1) Two commands: two blessings

MY son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:
2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

(2) Eight characteristics of an harlot (Cp. 2:16, refs.)

3 ¶ For the lips of a [g]strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:
4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to [h]death; her steps take hold on [i]hell.
6 Lest thou shouldest [j]ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

12 YE CHILDREN: (1) Four commands: ten evil effects of a life given to harlots

●7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not a Eternal life. Cp. 1 Cor. 1:30

b 3 examples of avoiding wicked paths:
1 Rechabites (Jer. 35)
2 Joseph (Gen. 39:7-23)
3 Jesus (Heb. 4:14-16)
3 examples of entering wicked paths:
1 Lot (Gen. 13:10-13)
2 Solomon (1 Kl. 11:1-8)
3 Jehoshaphat (2 Chr. 18:1; 21:6)

c 4th prophecy in Pr. (4:18, being fulfilled). Next, 5:22. The paths of the just and unjust are here contrasted d In v 14-17, 19 we have the gloomy, dark, and violent path of the unjust. In v 18 we have the bright and luminous path of the just. V 18 is proof that at death the righteous one does not go into a dormant, unconscious state until the resurrection, but his path gets brighter and brighter until he emerges into the full blaze of endless glory (Col. 3:4). Even the wicked continue in consciousness after death (Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9; Hell, p. 620-622)

e 5 examples of increasing light to men:
1 Jacob (Gen. 32:24-32; 49:10, 18)
2 Nathaniel (Jn. 1:46-51)
3 Eunuch (Acts 8:27-39)
4 Cornelius (Acts 10)
5 All Christians (Acts 26:18)

f 5 examples: darkness in way of wicked:
1 Korah (Num. 16:16-19)
2 Ahab (1 Kl. 16:31)
3 Babylon (Isa. 47:11)
4 Jews (Jer. 5:19, 25; 44:15-23)
5 Gentile world (Rom. 1:21-32)

g 4 secrets of health and eternal life:
1 Attend to my words (v 20) 20)
2 Incline your ears to my sayings (v 3 Constantly look into God's Word (Ps. 1:2-3; Jas. 1:21-27; 2 Tim. 3:16)
4 Keep the Word in the heart (v 21; Rom. 1:16; 10:17)
These secrets are life and health to ALL who find and obey them (v 22; Rom. 1:16; Ps. 91; 107:20; Jn. 15:7)

h See Heb. marpe, health, p. 666

i Above all keeping, guard the heart from going astray, for out of it are the issues of life. The reference is not only to the arteries which carry the blood to all parts of the body, but also to the evil and good deeds that come from the heart or center of man (Mk. 7:19-21). When one keeps the heart from evil it is an easy matter to obey the other commands of this passage (v 23-27)
A froward or perverse mouth is referred to in a 3fold way:
1 Froward speaking (2:12)
2 Froward mouth (4:24; 6:12)
3 Perverse lips (4:24)
This covers the whole of the speaking faculties and their sinful exercise. Every idle word will be judged (Mt. 12:36-37)

k Here we have commands for the eyes and eyelids. They must be kept from sin (1 Jn. 2:15-17)

l 7 examples of pondering right path:
1 Abraham (Gen. 24:1-9)
2 Eleazar (Gen. 24:5)
3 Joshua (Josh. 24:15)
4 Ruth (1:16-18)
5 David (Ps. 39:1)
6 The good wife (Pr. 31:27)
7 Daniel (1:8; 6:3-4)

m The feet are another part of the body that must be kept from sin (v 26-27) 6 bodily parts to be controlled:
1 Keep heart with all diligence (v 23)
2 Put away the froward mouth (v 24)
3 Put away perverse lips (v 24)
4 Look straight with the eyes (v 25)
5 Look straight with the eyelids (v 25)
6 Guide feet in righteousness (v 26-27)

n Heb. mezimmah, used in a good sense of judgment and discretion (Pr. 1:4; 2:11; 3:21; 5:2). Trans. intents of the heart (Jer. 30:24) and wicked devices (Job 21:27; Ps. 10:2; 37:7; Pr. 12:2; 14:17; Jer. 51:11)

o Two words are used of strange and strangers: one zur, an apostate Israelite woman gone over to the idolatrous impurities of heathen religion; the other nakar, a purely foreign woman of a similar character (notes i-k, 2:16)

p Heb. maveth, death to the body, or the separation of the soul from the body (Jas. 2:26)

q Heb. sheol, the place of the soul, not of the body (see Hell, p. 620)

r To prevent you from reflecting on your present conduct and its end, for she constantly changes her allurements to trap you. You cannot conceive of all her tricks and wiles (v 6) from the words of my mouth.

●8 [d]Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:
9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others,[b] and thy years unto the cruel:
10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of [c]a stranger;
11 [d]And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy [f]body are consumed, 12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;
13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!
14 [g]I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

(2) Ten commands and blessings of a moral life

●15 [h]Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.
●16 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.
●17 Let them be only thine own and not strangers' with thee.
●18 [i]Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.
●19 Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love.

13 MY SON: be not ravished with a harlot: six reasons (Cp. v 3-14; 2:16-22)

20 [j]And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?
21 For the [k]ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.
★22 [l]His own [m]iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be [n]holden with the cords of his sins.
23 He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAPTER 6

14 MY SON: if you are snared

MY son, if thou be [o]surety for thy friend, if thou [p]hast stricken thy hand with a stranger, 2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

15 MY SON: (1) Do this to deliver yourself: four commands

●3 [q]Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.
●4 Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.
●5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler. Also 24:30

(2) The ant and the sluggard: three commands

●6 ¶ Go to the [a]ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:
7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,
8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.
9 [b]How long wilt thou sleep, O [c]sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?
10 [d]Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:
11 [e]So shall thy [f]poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want [g]as an armed man.

(3) Seven sins of the wicked: his end (Cp. v 16-19; 2: 12-15)

12 ¶ A [h]naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.
13 He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;
14 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord.
15 [i]Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

(4) Seven things God hates (Cp. v 12-15; 2:12-15)

16 ¶ These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are [j]an abomination unto him:
17 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, 18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, 19 A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

16 MY SON: (1) Four commands: six blessings (Cp. 1:8, refs.)

●20 ¶ My son, [k]keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:
●21 [l]Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.
▸22 When thou goest, [m]it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.
23 [n]For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are [o]the way of life:

(2) TO DELIVER THEE from the harlot: two commands; six characteristics of a harlot (Cp. 2:16, refs.)

▸24 [p]To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a [q]strange woman.
●25 Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her [r]eyelids.
26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a a 15 reasons to be removed from a whore:

1 She is an apostate (v 3)
2 She is deceptive (v 3)
3 She is a flatterer (v 3)
4 Her end is like wormwood (v 4)
5 Her end is destructive (v 4)
6 Her feet go down to death (v 5)
7 Her steps lay hold of hell (v 5)
8 Her ways are unpredictable (v 6)
9 She will ruin your reputation (v 9)
10 She will cause years of trouble (v 9)
11 She will bring material ruin (v 10)
12 She will ruin your health (v 11)
13 She will bring remorse (v 12-13)
14 She will reduce to wickedness (v 14)
15 She will cause eternal ruin (v 23)
See other reasons 2:16, notes

b Thy years end in sufferings
c Heb. nakar, a non-Israelite prostitute for idol gods (notes j-k, 2:16). Such will be filled with your wealth and with what you have labored for (v 10) d You will be brought down in remorse and bodily suffering by her (v 11). In this remorse you will become awakened to the sense of your foolishness (v 12-13)
e Heb. naham, the most excessive kind of mourning because of sufferings of body f Heb. shear, the remains of anything. Here it applies to what is left of the diseased body of a man brought down to death by a life of debauchery
g Literally, I soon became an evil man h The truth expressed here is that one must be satisfied with his own companion and his children must be the offspring of a legitimate union - not bastards (v 15-18)
i Let your own wife be blessed; and be satisfied with her at all times (v 19)
j Question 3, Next, 6:9
k The ways of man are before God and He records every word and deed. By what means a record of deeds is made is not known, but every idle word and every cup of cold water given or refused will be brought up before man in the day of judgment (Mt. 10:42; 12:37-38) 10 examples of man's ways before God:
1 Cain (Gen. 4:5-6)
2 Babel's builders (Gen. 11:1-11)
3 Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 18:21)
4 Uzzah (2 Sam. 6:6-7; 1 Chr. 13:10)
5 David (2 Sam. 12)
6 Baasha (1 Ki. 15:29)
7 Ahab (1 Ki. 21:19)
8 Belshazzar (Dan. 5:22-28)
9 Nathanael (Jn. 1:48)

n 4 examples of men held by sin:
1 Saul (1 Sam. 18:8-9; 28:5-20)
2 Ahithophel (2 Sam. 17:23)
3 Judas (Jn. 12:6; Mt. 26:47-49)
4 Paul (Rom. 7:7-25)
o Being surety or pledging to stand good for anyone tends to relieve him of the responsibility he should feel and seldom leaves a co-signer as much respected by the one he helps as before 5 facts of suretyship:
1 Command against suretyship (Pr. 22:26)
2 Command to get out of suretyship as quickly as possible (Pr. 6:1-5)
3 Suretyship is a sign of lack of understanding (Pr. 17:18)
4 Suffering and disappointment are what is promised in suretyship (Pr. 11:15)
5 To refrain from suretyship is the only safe way (Pr. 11:15) p Shaking hands when the mouth made a promise was considered the ratification of the contract or promise and thus a man became ensnared with the words of his mouth (v 1-2). Cp. Job 17:3
q Do this - continue to press the one you are surety for, to pay his debt or you will be left to pay it. If you are ensnared and obligated make every effort, as the antelope taken in a net or a bird in a snare, to free yourself from captivity (v 3-5) the eyelids. There was a method of treating the eyes with a preparation of antimony, so that they appeared with indescribable lustre, charming men like the black snake does a bird which it draws to itself to devour

a The ant is a remarkable creature - an emblem of industry among Orientals 16 ways of ants (6:6-8; 30:25):
1 Most laborious insects in existence
2 Most highly industrialized
3 Collect food in proper seasons
4 Fondly attached to the young
5 Have keen foresight for others
6 Work quietly without show
7 Work unweariedly until work is done
8 Work together in astonishing systems of organization to the best good of the whole community
9 Are ingenious carpenters and masons, building their own system of homes and underground tunnels
10 Keep their homes scrupulously clean
11 No one among them exists without a definite job in life to help meet the needs of the community
12 Fight to death to protect their own homes and young from enemies
13 Their social life compares with that of human beings in many respects
14 They are intelligent and wise (v 6)
15 They carry out life's work without being forced to do so by a guide, overseer, or ruler (v 7)

e This is the result of slothfulness
f 6 Heb. words translated "poor; poverty":
1 Rush, in want of necessities of life (6:11; 10:4, 15; 13:7, 8, 18, 23; 14:20; 17:5; 18:23; 19:1, 7, 22; 22:2, 7; 24:34; 28:3, 6, 19, 27; 29:13; 30:8; 31:7)
2 Dal, impoverished; reduced to poverty (10:15; 14:31; 19:4, 17; 22:9, 16, 22; 28:3, 8, 11, 15; 29:7, 14)
3 Heser, to be in want (11:24; 21:17; 28:22)
4 Anty, wretched (14:21)
5 Ebyon, destitute; helpless (14:31)
6 Yarash, dispossessed (20:13; 23:21)
g Slow as the steps of a traveler, or as sure as a traveler will soon spend his money and be in need h Poverty will come with irresistible fury and you will not be prepared to cope with it. The Vulgate, Septuagint, and Arabic add the following verse, "But if thou wilt be diligent, thy harvest shall be as a fountain: and poverty shall flee far away from thee" i Heb. adam beliyaal, one good for nothing, or man worthless; a man of Belial
His 7 sins (v 12-15):
1 Froward (perverse) speech (Cp. 17)
2 Winketh with his eyes (Cp. v 17)
3 Speaketh with his feet (Cp. v 18)
4 Teacheth with his fingers (Cp. v 17)
These last three refer to sign language used to convey evil intentions and sinful practices of parmers in sin
5 Frowardness (deceitfulness) of heart (Cp. v 18)
6 Continual plots, schemes, and plans of sin (Cp. v 18)
7 Soweth discord in families, churches, communities, or nations (Cp. v 19)

1 Upon the heart (v 21)
2 Around the neck (3:3; 6:21)
3 Upon the fingers (7:3)
n Here truth is personified and represented as a guide, guardian, teacher, and companion (v 22-23)
o 3 things truth is:
1 A lamp (v 23; Ps. 119:105)
2 A light (v 23; Ps. 119:105, 130)
3 Reproofs of instruction (v 23; 2 Tim. 3:16-17; Heb. 4:12) p The way of eternal life (Jn. 6:63, 68)
q 7 things to be kept from:

piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

(3) Evil effects of adultery (Cp. v 32)

27 [b]Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?
28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?
29 [c]So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

(4) Command concerning a thief

●30 Men do not[d] despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;
31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

(5) Evil effects of adultery (v 27)

32 [e]But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: [f]he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.
33 A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.
34 For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
35 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

CHAPTER 7

17 MY SON: (1) Eight commands

MY son,[g] keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.
●2 Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.
●3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.
●4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

(2) REASON: to deliver thee from the harlot: fortyfold description of her traffic (Cp. 2:16, refs.)

▸5 [h]That they may keep thee from the [i]strange woman, from the stranger which [i]flattereth with her words.
6 ¶ For at the window of my house I looked through [k]my casement,
7 [l]And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,
8 Passing through the street near [m]her corner; and he went the way to her house,
9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:
10 And, behold, there met him a woman with [n]the attire of an harlot, and [o]subtil of heart.
11 (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:
12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)
13 So [p]she caught him, [q]and kissed him, and with an[c]impudent face said unto him, 14 [d]I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows.
15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.
16 I have decked my[r] bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of [s]Egypt.
17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18 Come, let us [t]take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.
19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:
20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.
21 [e]With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.
22 He goeth after her straightway, [u]as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;
23 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

18 YE CHILDREN: four commands: evil effects of adultery

●24 ¶ [f]Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.
●25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.
26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, [t]many strong men have been slain by her.
27 Her house is the way to [v]hell, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAPTER 8

III Discourse on wisdom (8: 1-9:18) 1 Her universal call. Cp. v 32; 1:20-32

DOTH not[w] wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?
2 She standeth in the[x] top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.
3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

2 Two commands: four classes called

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the[e] sons of man.
5 O ye [p]simple, understand wisdom: and ye fools, be ye of an understanding[q] heart.

3 Her eightfold character

●6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening

---

a Here it seems that a man is brought to poverty by a whorish woman, but in the Septuagint, Vulgate, Syriac, and Arabic versions it reads, "For the price of a whore is about one loaf." There were so many whores in the land, that they hired themselves out for a bare living

b Questions 6-7. Next, 8:1

c Just as a man cannot take fire into his bosom or walk on hot coals without being burned, so he that seduces his neighbor's wife shall not go unpunished (v 27-29) d Heb. buwz, to disrespect; utterly despise; count it a light matter. The idea is, "Men will not think it a trifle for a thief that he should steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry." If he be found he shall restore sevenfold, even to being sold into slavery (v 30-31; Ex. 22:1-4; Lev. 25:39). The law does not clear a thief regardless of how desperately in need he is e Solomon again comes back to his oft repeated warning against adultery and giving one's self to a whore or a strange woman (2:16-19; 5:3-6,8-11,15-23; 6:24-29,32-35; 7:5-23,26-27; 9:13-18)

f 6 evil effects of adultery:
1 Spiritual death (v 32; Rom. 8:12-13)
2 Physical death (v 32; Lev. 20:10; Dt. 22:22)
3 Eternal death (v 32; 1 Cor. 6:9-10; Gal. 5:19-21; Rev. 21:8; 22:15)
4 A wound and dishonor. Among the Romans one caught in the act was delivered to the injured husband to be punished with infamy, disgrace, and even death if he willed (v 33-35)
5 Lasting reproach (v 33)
6 Blinding rage of the husband (v 34-35)

g See 6 commands to sons, p. 666

h The purpose of obeying the 8 commands of v 1-4 is to keep one from the strange woman and from the stranger who entices to sin (v 5)

i Heb. zur (notes j-k, 2:16)

j Makes smooth speech. Note her smooth speech in v 13-21 k The lattice work to the window arranged for circulation of air (Judg. 5:28). They had no glass windows in the East l 8 facts: a foolish young man. I saw:

1 Among the simple, the young man (v 7; note l, 1:4)
2 He was void of understanding. He did not have wisdom to discern the evil intended by the whore, nor did he have the character and courage to resist her flatteries (v 7)
3 He walked along the street near her corner where she waited for victims (v 8)
4 He went the way to her house (which was not necessarily on the corner - v 8, 12)
5 In the night he passed by where she waited on the corner (v 9)
6 He was met by the harlot (v 10)
7 He was persuaded by her to spend the night with her (v 11-21)
8 He went to his doom as an ox to the slaughter, as a fool to his punishment, and as a bird to the snare (v 22-23)

m This does not say that her house was on the corner where she met the young man. It only implies that she was in the habit of waiting on every corner for her victims (v 12). It could not mean that she had a house on every corner where she waited for men n Harlots have had their mark of identification in every age and in every land. A description is given of Judah's time in Gen. 38:14-19. In Solomon's time as in Judah's, they seemed to be known by their attire

o Heb. nazar, hidden. Same word as in Gen. 3:1; Isa 48:6

wisdom is personified, as noted in the headings

m Heb. chokmah (point l, col. 1, p. 643)

n Note the 5 places wisdom cries: high places, cross-roads, gates, broad-roads, and at the doors. Wherever men are, there she cries and warns of wrong ways (v 2-5)

o The call is to all the sons of Adam - to the simple, to the fools (8:4-5) p See note l, 1:4

q See note g, 23:26

a 10 points about harlots:
1 Their attire or marks that advertise them for hire (v 10; Gen. 38)
2 Their subtilty of heart (v 10)
3 Their boisterous and loud disposition (v 11)
4 Their gad about disposition (v 11-12)
5 Their stubbornness and persistence in pursuing innocent victims (v 11). They have no respect for the good of men, married or unmarried, innocent or guilty of immoral crimes. They gloat over causing young men to fall into sin and husbands to go astray
6 They are bold, unashamed, impudent and unlawfully familiar (v 13)
7 They are flatterers (v 5, 14-21)
8 They are deceitful of heart (v 13-21)
9 They are liars (v 14-21)
10 They are tempters and seducers (v 13-21)

b She laid hold of him, and kissed him, to make known to him her intentions (v 12-13) c She made her face look as friendly, confident, and sincere as she could (v 13)

d 7 appeals of the harlot:
1 I have peace-offerings with me (v 14). When the blood of the offerings was shed, and the fat burned, the breast and shoulder were the priest's portion; but the rest of the carcass belonged to the sacrificer, who might carry it home and make a feast for friends (Lev. 3:1-17; 7:31-34). This shows how much worship was carried on in connection with idolatry and harlotry. The gods of many pagan nations were worshipped in the brothels and fragments of the offerings were divided among the prostitutes consecrated to these false gods. Every heathen temple, high place of sacrifice, and place of worship had its consecrated prostitutes to attract men to such worship
2 This day I have payed my vows (v 14). She seemed to insinuate that she had made a vow for the health and safety of the young man; that she had made her peace with God; that she had come forth especially to meet him; that by partaking with her in her worship no sin would be committed; and that she was forced to avail herself of the night time and the absence of her husband to complete her vows and worship
3 I have come forth to meet you and to seek you above all others (v 15). But, if this young man had not come along another would have been the same to her
4 The goodman of the house is gone (v 19). Thus she made one think she was married and only fulfilling religious vows and worship
5 My husband is gone on a long journey, so there is no danger of his return (v 19)
6 He has taken a bag of money with him (v 20)
7 He will return at the day appointed, so we can be together safely (v 20)

e Heb. arš, couch or sofa, the place to recline at meals, and not mishcabi, a bed to sleep on, as in v 17. Thus she used every means to incite the passions and appetites of the young man, including worship, food, and the prospect of sex urge fully satisfied (v 14-21)

f Come in! let us riot with loves (v 18). See Rom. 13:13; 1 Pet. 4:3-4; 2 Pet. 2:13-14

g With her much fair speech and lascivious talk, she constrained him to yield and overcome his scruples (v 21)

h 3 comparisons of his folly (v 22-23):
1 As an ox going to slaughter
2 As a fool to the stocks
3 As a bird to the snare
All picture his stupidity and folly

i Again Solomon appeals to the simple and inexperienced to follow his advice; again he warns against the harlot and the end of those who sin with her (v 24-27)

j 4 great men who fell by women:
1 Samson (Judg. 16:4-21)
2 David (2 Sam. 11-12)
3 Solomon (1 Ki. 11; Neh. 13:26)
4 Herod (Mt. 14)

10 Counsels (8:14) 20 Invites (9:5)
This is the third great personification of wisdom (8:1-9:18, Cp. 1:20-32; 3:13-18). She lifts up her voice in the most public places and warns the young to avoid the ways of seduction and sin (8:1-14). She promises riches, honor, wisdom, knowledge, and success in every field of endeavor to those who love her (8:15-21). She speaks of her eternity with God and advises men to obey her because of her ancient experiences (8:22-9:18)

b Heb. rasha, lawlessness (Isa. 57:20-21)

c All my sayings are righteous, declaring what man owes to God, his neighbor, and to himself, so that each can receive his due

d Crooked or crafty, perverse, unrighteous, or difficult e My words are straight and plain to him that understands, and righteous to the one who has knowledge. This is in contrast to the crooked, crafty, and unrighteous ones of v 8, note d, above. The man of understanding and wisdom is one who does not despise truth

f Here we have wisdom advising to choose instruction in preference to silver, and knowledge in preference to gold (v 10). Wisdom is even better than rubies and all other things one can desire (v 11, Cp. 3:15)

g 17 "better" things in Proverbs, p. 666

h Prudence is here defined as practical wisdom, or wisdom in action, choosing the best means to an end. Hence, witty (shrewd, practical) inventions (v 12)

i 4 things the fear of God: Hatred of 1 Evil (v 13) 3 Arrogancy
2 The evil way (v 13) 4 Pride (v 13)

j A man may depart from evil as a matter of policy yet love it in his heart, but to hate it he must have divine wisdom. By nature men love evil (Jer. 17:9; Mt. 7:17; 15:19; Jn. 3:19; Rom. 3:10-18; 8:7-8; 1 Cor. 2:14; Eph. 2:2-12; 4:17-22)

k See note j, 4:24

l Heb. tushiyah, stability; essence: substance; reality (Job 5:12; 6:13; 11:6; 12:16; 26:3; 28:18; Pr. 2:7; 3:21; 8:14; 18:1; Isa. 28:29; Mic. 6:9). From it come all inventions and knowledge of all sciences known to man

m 5 examples of loving wisdom:
1 Joseph (Gen. 37:2-17; 39:3-9; 41:38)
2 Samuel (1 Sam. 2:26; 7:3-17)
3 David (1 Sam. 17:37-46)
4 Solomon (1 Ki. 3)
5 Daniel (1:1-21; 5:1-31; etc.)

n In youth is the time to seek wisdom and knowledge and take advantage of every improvement in life

o Wisdom is not acquired by God, but by men, angels, and other created beings Wisdom existed before:
1 God's creations of old (v 22)
2 The creation of the earth (v 23)
3 The depths and fountains of waters
4 The mountains and hills (v 25)
5 The earth, fields, and dust of the world (v 26)
6 The heavens and the clouds (v 28)
7 The laws governing creation (v 29)

p From the beginning of the ages

q I was produced or manifested in the plan of God as well as in the creation of all things. By me (wisdom) God made all things (Ps. 104:24; 136:5)

r Before He made the first particle of matter - the primitive atom s This was before the creation of the earth (Job 38:4-7; Gen. 1:1)

t A circle or vault

2 The prophet (2 Chr. 25:16)
3 John the Baptist (Mt. 14:1-10)

r 3 examples - rebuking and being loved:
1 Nathan (2 Sam. 12)
2 Two disciples (Lk. 24:25-29)
3 Peter (Jn. 21:17; Gal. 2:11-14)

s Give a hint to the wise; teach a just man and both will profit

t See Religious reverence, col. 1, p. 643

u Vice shortens life; righteousness has the promise of long life (Ps. 91)

v Job 22:2-3; 35:6-9; Rom. 11:35

w Num. 9:13; Job 34:31; Jer. 7:19

of my lips shall be right things.
7 For[a] my mouth shall speak truth; and [b]wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are in[c] righteousness; there is nothing[d] froward or perverse in them.
9 [e]They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

4 Two commands: sixfold self-commendation

●10 [f]Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.
11 For wisdom is[g] better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.
12 I wisdom dwell with [h]prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

5 Her ten characteristics

13 The [i]fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the [j]froward mouth, do I hate.
14 Counsel is mine and [k]sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

6 Her companions and lovers

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.
16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

7 When she may be found

▶17 [m]I love them that love me; and [n]those that seek me early shall find me.

8 Her ten blessings

18 Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.
19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.
20 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:
▶21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

9 Twenty-fivefold personification of wisdom (3:15-20; 4:7-9; 9:1-5, 11-12)

22 [o]The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.
23 I was set up [p]from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.
24 When there were no depths, [q]I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.
25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:
26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the [r]highest part of the dust of the world.
27 [s]When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a [t]compass upon the face of the depth:
28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the [u]fountains of the deep:
29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: [v]when he appointed the foundations of the earth:
30 [w]Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;
31 [x]Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.

10 Call of wisdom: four commands of wisdom and contrasted results of hearing her (Cp. v 1; 1:20-33)

●32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: [y]for blessed are they that keep my ways.
●33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.
34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.
▶35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.
36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: [z]all they that hate me love death.

CHAPTER 9

11 Her sevenfold industry

[a]WISDOM hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:
2 She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.
3 She hath [b]sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

12 Her sixfold invitation

4 [c]Whoso is [d]simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth [e]understanding, she saith to him, ●5 [f]Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the [g]wine which I have mingled.
●6 [h]Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

13 Her twelvefold instruction

7 He that reproveth a [i]scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a [j]wicked man getteth himself a blot.
●8 [k]Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: [l]rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.
9 [m]Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.
10 [n]The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.
11 [o]For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.
12 [p]If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: [q]but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

14 The harlot: a foolish

a Gen. 7:11; 8:2; Rev. 16:4

b All this refers to the original creation of the heavens and earth long before the 6 days of Gen. 1:3-2:25. Between this creation and Adam's day the earth was inhabited by pre-Adamite beings who were ruled by Lucifer for an indefinite period in sinlessness, followed by a long period of rebellion before his defeat and that of the pre-Adamite beings, and the angels and demons who took part in his invasion of heaven in the attempt to dethrone God (notes, Gen. 1; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ezek. 28:11-17; Lk. 10:18; 2 Pet. 3:5-8; Mt. 13:35) c THEN I, wisdom, was by Him (God), as one brought up with Him, or as one constantly with Him and under His constant care. Now wisdom is pictured as a child ever near its parent and watching him in his work. There is no proof here of the deity and eternity of Jesus Christ. It is not needed to teach these doctrines, for they are plainly expressed in many other scriptures directly on the subject (Isa. 9:6-7; Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2; Col. 1:15-18; Heb. 1:1-8; Rev. 1:8; etc.). Wisdom is simply personified in all this passage (8:1-9:18) and it has no clear reference to Christ

d In the habitable part of the earth wisdom is especially displayed in the works of God in the affairs of men. God's providence is over all and all are subjects of His eternal care (v 31)

e Happy are they who keep my ways: and whoever finds wisdom obtains favor or grace from the Lord (v 32-35). The one who rejects wisdom and sins against her does so to the damnation of his own soul (v 36). It is, therefore, not so much sin and Satan, but the man himself that is responsible for his rejection or reception of wisdom which leads to eternal life. If he receives the teaching of God, sin will not have dominion over him and if he resists Satan, the devil will flee from him (Jas. 4:7; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:12-13)

f They that hate wisdom love sin which leads to death, so they can be justly accused of loving death, the penalty for sin (Jn. 3:19)

g The same wisdom that spoke in chapter 8 speaks in this chapter. There she was represented as manifest in all the works of God in the material worlds. Here she is represented as the ruler of what she has built (9:1-12). In v 1-3 she is seen building a house, making a banquet, and sending out her maids to invite guests to partake of her bounties. She is pictured here as a builder, sculptress, butcher, and gracious hostess

h An Eastern custom. In the N.T. men are referred to as being sent forth with the invitations to banquets (Mt. 22:3; Lk. 14:17). The full picture of the custom is that invitations were sent out to guests by a company of females, preceded by eunuchs. They went from door to door of the invited, delivering their message i Here we have the invitation and message of wisdom sent by the maidens. They go to the simple and those who lack understanding. Their message is to forsake the foolish things of life and live by going in the way of understanding (v 4-6)

j See note l, 1:4

k See point 2, col. 1, p. 445

l The invitation of wisdom to eat her bread and drink her wine is a symbol of life through proper wisdom and understanding. In the N.T. bread and wine symbolize the broken body and shed blood of Jesus Christ, which give life to all who appropriate their benefits by faith (Mt. 26:26-30; 1 Cor. 10:16-17; 11:23-30) m Among Jews, Greeks, and Romans, wine was rarely used without mixing with water. Some mixed 3 parts and others 5 parts of water with one of wine. The common mixture was 3 parts water and 2 parts wine n 4 examples of forsaking things to live:

1 Moses (Heb. 11:24-27)
2 Rahab (Josh. 2:9-13; 6:25; Heb. 11:31)
3 Ruth (Ruth 1:16; 2:11-12)
4 Disciples (Mt. 4:18-22; 9:9; etc.)

o See note c, Ps. 1:1

p Heb. rasha, lawlessness (Isa. 57:20-21)

q 3 examples - rebuking and being hated:
1 Joseph (Gen. 37:2, 18-28)

a See 5 facts about a foolish woman, p. 666

b One who goes in to an harlot lacks understanding (v 13, 16) c The foolish woman (v 13) preaches that unlawful pleasures are sweeter than lawful ones. Upon this is built all the adulterous behavior in the land (v 17)

d Heb. Rephaim, a proper name of one of the races of the giants, identifying the wickedness of the giants as sex sins (v 18). See notes on Gen. 6:1-4 e Heb. sheol, the place of the conscious immortal soul and spirit (see Hell, p. 620; notes, Lk. 12:5; 16:19-31)

f The first 9 chapters are so-called (1:1). Here we have 288 individually contrasted persons and things (10:1-19:19). These sayings were all composed by Solomon who spoke 3,000 proverbs and wrote 1,005 songs (1 Ki. 4:32). All the proverbs in this section are composed of 2 statements, except 19:7. They are miscellaneous and generally not connected in thought. For some that are thought-connected see v 2-7, 8-10, 11-14, 15-21, 22-25, 27-30; etc.

g Example: Joseph (Gen. 47:12, Cp. 48:2)

h Example: Esau (Gen. 26:34-35; 27:46-46)

i Heb. rasha, lawlessness (Isa. 57:20-21)

j 3 examples of no profit to such gain:
1 Rehoboam (2 Chr. 12:1-4, 9)
2 Gehazi (2 Ki. 5:20-27; Pr. 21:6)
3 The rich fool (Lk. 12:20; Pr. 11:28)

k 3 examples of righteousness delivering:
1 Noah (Gen. 7:1; Heb. 11:7)
2 Daniel (Dan. 6)
3 Three Hebrew children (Dan. 3)

l Examples: Elijah (1 Ki. 17); David (2 Sam. 17)

m 4 examples destroying goods of wicked:
1 Israel (Judg. 6:1-4)
2 Samaria (1 Ki. 18:2; 2 Ki. 6:25)
3 Jerusalem (Lam. 5:10; Zeph. 1:18)
4 Chaldeans (Hab. 2:8)

n Heb. rush (note f, 6:11)

o Deceitful hand, as in 12:24; Pr. 52:2; 120:2; Hos. 7:16; Mic. 6:12 p 2 examples of gathering in summer:

1 Isaac (Gen. 26:12)
2 Joseph (Gen. 41)

q God has ordered in the course of providence that he who will not work shall not eat and He always blesses the man who is not lazy. See 6:6-11; 24:30-34; 30:25

r What is remembered about a righteous man is a blessing 6 examples of good remembrance:
1 Elisha (2 Ki. 13:21)
2 Jehoiada (2 Chr. 24:15-16)
3 Woman who anointed Jesus (Mk. 14:9)
4 Mary, mother of Jesus (Lk. 1:28, 48)
5 Dorcas (Acts 9:36-39, Cp. Pr. 22:1)
6 Antipas (Rev. 2:13)

s The name of the wicked is putrid
4 examples of bitter remembrance:
1 Balaam (2 Pet. 2:15; Jude 11; Rev. 2:14)
2 Ahaz (2 Chr. 28:22)
3 Athaliah (2 Chr. 24:7)
4 Herod (Acts 12:22-23, Cp. Ps. 9:16)

t 4 examples receiving commandments
1 Abraham (Gen. 22; Heb. 11:8, 17)
2 David (2 Sam. 7)
3 The widow (1 Ki. 17:10-16)
4 Rechabites (Jer. 35:6-10)

u This is repeated in v 10

v He is never afraid of detection, because he never acts in deceit w 2 examples of being discovered:

1 Korah and company (Num. 16)
2 Diotrephes (3 Jn. 9-10)

x This is the second time used in this chapter (v 6, 11)

y Hatred seeks an occasion to provoke enmity and delights in broils, but love is conciliatory and removes all occasion for trouble z 3 examples of stirring up strife:

1 Ishmael (Gen. 21:9-14)
2 Esau (Gen. 27:41-42)
3 The Jews (Acts 13:50; 14:2-4; 17:5-13)

a 4 examples of love covering sins:
1 Joseph (Gen. 40:15; 45:5-8)
2 David (2 Sam. 1)
3 Jesus Christ (Mt. 26:41; Jn. 20-21)
4 Paul (Ph'm 9-21)

b The rod is an instrument of knowledge if properly applied (v 13) c A wise man will keep secret things he hears on others, but a fool will repeat them everywhere and cause strife woman (cp. 2:16, refs.)

13 ¶ A[a]foolish woman is clamorous: [b]she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 [b]Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

17 [c]Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that the [d]dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths [e]of hell.

CHAPTER 10

IV 288 proverbs (10:1-19:19)
1 Contrasted persons-things (10:1-32). (1) Two kinds of sons

THE [f]proverbs of Sŏl'o-mon.
A [g]wise son maketh a glad father: but a [h]foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

(2) Divine providence

▸2 Treasures of [i]wickedness profit nothing: [j]but righteousness delivereth from death.

(3) Diligent and lazy

▸3 The LORD [k]will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he [l]casteth away the substance of the wicked.

▸4 He becometh [m]poor that dealeth with a [n]slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that [o]gathereth in summer is a wise son: [p]but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

(4) The just and unjust

▸6 [q]Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The [r]memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

(5) Two attitudes

8 The wise in heart [s]will receive commandments: [t]but a prating fool shall fall.

(6) Two walks

▸9 He that [u]walketh uprightly walketh surely: [v]but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

(7) Contrasted use of the tongue

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: [w]but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 [x]Hatred [y]stirreth up strifes: but [z]love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: [a]but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

14 [b]Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

(8) The rich and the poor

15 The rich man's [c]wealth is his strong city: [d]the destruction of the [e]poor is their [f]poverty.

(9) Causes of life and death

16 [g]The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 [h]He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof erreth.

(10) Contrasted use of the tongue

18 [i]He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 [j]In the multitude of words there [k]wanteth not sin: but he that [l]refraineth his lips is wise.

20 [m]The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous [n]feed many: but [o]fools die for want of wisdom.

(11) God's blessing

▸22 The [p]blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

(12) Two kinds of sport

23 [q]It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

(13) Results of fear and faith

24 [r]The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: [s]but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

(14) Two unfailing comparisons

25 [t]As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 [u]As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

(15) Four contrasted destinies

27 [v]The fear of the LORD prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 [w]The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked [x]shall perish.

29 [y]The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: [z]but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

*30 [a]The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth. ◂

(16) Contrasted use of the tongue

31 [b]The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the [c]froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 [d]The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

CHAPTER 11

2 Proverbs concerning a Lit., wealth is the city of his strength

b A poor man lives in destruction (v 15)

c Heb. dal, weak (note f, 2, 6:11)

d Heb. rush, note f, 1, 6:11

e The righteous labor to support life and then have to divide with the poor, but the wicked live to produce sin. They live to eat and drink, and to satisfy their appetites (v 16)

f The righteous man accumulates knowledge so that he can better serve God, but the wicked refuses correction and instruction (v 17)

g A fool hides resentment, plots, and even murder in his heart by lies and pretensions of holding no ill feelings over injuries received. He that utters slander is also a fool (v 18)

h It is unusual for one to be a constant talker without committing sin and defaming the character of someone. The control of the tongue is a show of wisdom (v 19)

i 3 examples of sinning by much talk:
1 Job (32:2; 34:5, 12; 35:16; 42:3)
2 Job's comforters (32:3; 42:7-8)
3 Idle widows (1 Tim. 5:13)

j 3 examples of wisdom in speaking:
1 Eleazar (Gen. 24:21, Cp. Pr. 15:28)
2 Aaron (Lev. 10:3)
3 Saul (1 Sam. 10:27, Cp. Pr. 11:12)

k What a just man speaks is like silver, but what comes out of the heart of a wicked man is like dross, and worthless (v 20)

l They shepherd or instruct many 6 examples of godly instruction:
1 Job (4:3-4; 29:21-22)
2 David (Ps. 78:70-72)
3 Peter (Acts 4:1-4)
4 Philip (Acts 8:5-8)
5 Paul and Barnabas (Acts 15:32-35)
6 Judas and Silas (Acts 15:32-33)

m 3 examples of fools dying:
1 Korah and company (Num. 16)
2 Judas Iscariot (Acts 1:20-25)
3 The rich fool (Lk. 12:16-26)

n 5 examples of the Lord making rich:
1 Abraham (Gen. 24:1)
2 Isaac (Gen. 25:11; 26:12)
3 Jacob (Gen. 28:4; 30:27)
4 Solomon (1 Ki. 3:13)
5 Job (Job 42:10)

o Iniquity is as sport to a fool, but a man of understanding hates sin (v 23)

p The wicked will reap what he has feared (Pr. 11:27; Isa. 66:4; Gal. 6:7-8)

q 4 examples of righteous desire granted:
1 Hannah (1 Sam. 1:20)
2 Esther (4:16; 8:15-17)
3 Daniel (2:18-23; 9:1-23; 10:1-21)
4 Simeon (Lk. 2:25-30)

r As a tornado sweeps away everything in its path, so the wrath of God will destroy the wicked before it. The righteous will never be moved by the wrath of God (v 25; Ps. 125:1)

s As vinegar sets the teeth on edge, and as smoke irritates the eyes, so the sluggard smarts and grieves those who send him (v 26)

t The fear of God promotes righteousness and long life, but wickedness shortens life (v 27, Cp. 11:19)

u The hope of the righteous will be realized, but that of the wicked will not (v 28)

v 4 examples of joy in hope:
1 Abraham (Rom. 4:18-20)
2 Joseph (Ps. 105:17-21)
3 Hezekiah (Ps. 126)
4 Daniel (6:10)

w 4 examples of perishing expectation:
1 Goliath (1 Sam. 17:44-51)
2 Athaliah (2 Ki. 11:1-16)
3 Sennacherib (2 Ki. 19:23, 37)
4 Herod (Mt. 2:16)

x The righteous are constantly renewed in strength (2 Cor. 4:16), but sudden destruction will come to the wicked (v 29; 29:1)

y 4 examples of sudden destruction:
1 Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19)
2 Pharaoh and army (Ex. 14:19-31)
3 Saul (1 Chr. 10:13-14)
4 Jeroboam (1 Ki. 14:7-11)

z 6th prophecy in Pr. (10:30, unfulfilled). Next, 12:19. Redeemed men will inhabit the earth eternally (v 30; Gen. 9:12) a The mouth of the just speaks wisdom, but the tongue of the perverse will be cut out (v 31). It was an ancient custom in some nations to cut out the tongue for blasphemy, lying, treasonable speeches, and other vocal crimes

b See note h, 2:12

c The righteous know what is acceptable and profitable to speak, but the wicked know what is perverse (v 32)

a One faulty in construction
b See point e, 3:32
c Heb. eben shelemah, perfect stone, because first weights were made of stone (Dt. 25:13-35). This proverb is repeated 3 times (16:11; 20:10, 23). Cp. Lev. 19:36; Dt. 25:13-15; Mic. 6:11. There was a royal standard of weights (2 Sam. 14:26)
d 6 examples of shame through pride:
1 Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:2
1 Miriam (Num. 12:10) 11-17)
3 Uzziah (2 Chr. 26:16-21)
4 Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4:30)
5 Moab (Zeph. 2:8-10)
6 Nineveh (Zeph. 2:15)
e 4 examples of wisdom to the lowly:
1 Joseph (Gen. 41:16, 38-39)
2 Solomon (1 Ki. 3:5-13)
3 Daniel (2:20-21)
4 Jesus Christ (Lk. 2:40, 52; Isa. 11:1)
f 3 examples of guiding integrity:
1 Joseph (Gen. 39:4, 22-23; 50:25)
2 Jesus Christ (Lk. 2:40, 52; 1 Pet. 2:21)
3 Paul (Gal. 2:20)
g 7 examples of perverseness:
1 Israel (Dt. 1:43-44)
2 Balaam (Num. 22:32; 31:8)
3 Hophni and Phinehas (1 Sam. 2:25; 4 Saul (1 Sam. 15:23) 4:11)
5 Absalom (2 Sam. 15:3-6)
6 Ahithophel (2 Sam. 17:1-23)
7 Ahab (1 Ki. 21:25-26; 22:34-37)
h Heb. bagad, traiters: faithless to covenant. Trans. transgressor (2:22; 11:3, 6; 13:2, 15; 23:28; 26:10; Ps. 59:5; 119:158); treacherous (Isa. 21:2; 24:16; Jer. 3:8, 11; 9:2); treacherously (Judg. 9:23; Isa. 21:2; 24:16; 33:1; 48:8; Jer. 3:20; 5:11; 12:1, 6; Lam. 1:2; Hos. 5:7; 6:7; Hab. 1:13; Mal. 2:10-16); and unfaithful (Pr. 25:19; Ps. 78:57)
i Among men they can do wonders, but with God they purchase nothing. No sin profits in the day of wrath, but righteousness rescues from hell (v 4)
j The righteousness of the blameless man will enable his path to be always light so that he may see his way, but the lawlessness of the wicked will be full of stumblingblocks (v 5) k The righteousness of the upright man shall deliver him from condemnation and eternal judgment, but sins of the wicked will bring them to judgment (v 6)
l See note i, 6:12
m 3 examples of perishing hope:
1 Balaam's (Num. 23:10; 31:8)
2 Absalom's (2 Sam. 18)
3 The rich fool's (Lk. 12:16-21)
n The wicked hope to be saved and have many things the righteous enjoy, but their hope will perish because they refuse to turn to God o 3 examples of the righteous delivered and the wicked perishing in their place:
1 Mordecai and Haman (Esther 7:9-10)
2 Daniel and accusers (Dan. 6)
3 Israel and Egyptians (Ex. 14)
p Heb. chaneph, infidel, not hypocrite q The righteous are respected and honored for their examples, prayers, and great blessings to a city that rejoices in their prosperity, but when the wicked perish who have been a curse to a community there is no regret (v 10)
r 3 examples of joy in the righteous
1 Hezekiah (2 Chr. 29:3-36; 30:26)
2 Nehemiah (Neh. 2; 6:15; 8:17)
3 Mordecai (Esther 8:15-16)
s 3 examples of the wicked perishing:
1 Pharaoh (Ex. 15)
2 Sisera (Judg. 5)
3 Athaliah (2 Ki. 11:20)
t A city rejoices in the blessing of the righteous because it is exalted and honored by their good deeds, but the wicked help destroy it (v 11)
u He reproaches his neighbor, but a man of understanding holds his peace and keeps his mouth (v 12)
v Heb. holech rachil, a walking busybody; a peddler in scandal. Cp. Lev. 19:16; Jas. 1:26. He reveals whatever is confided to him. He will even reveal his own secrets rather than have nothing to say (v 13). Doeg is a good example of talebearing (1 Sam. 21:7; 22:9-10; Ps. 52:2) w Heb. tachbulah, helmsman; guide; counsel. Trans. counsel (v 14; 24:6); counsels (1:5; 12:5; 22:20; Job 37:12); and advise (Pr. 20:18) x Safety, providing they are really counsellers. Cp. 15:22; 24:6

neighbors (11:1-31). (1) False weights

A [a]FALSE balance is [b]abomination to the LORD: but a just [c]weight is his delight.

(2) Results of pride and humility

2 When [d]pride cometh, then cometh shame: but [e]with the lowly is wisdom.

(3) Two ways of life

3 The [f]integrity of the upright shall guide them: [g]but the perverseness [h]of transgressors shall destroy them.

(4) True profit not in riches

▸4 [i]Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death.

(5) True source of guidance

▸5 The [j]righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

(6) True source of deliverance

▸6 [k]The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own [l]naughtiness.

(7) The end of the wicked

7 When a wicked man dieth, his [m]expectation shall perish: and the [n]hope of unjust men perisheth.

(8) Two deliverances of the righteous

8 The righteous is [o]delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

▸9 An [p]hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

(9) Two blessings of a city

10 [q]When it goeth [r]well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and [r]when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 [s]By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

(10) Two kinds of neighbors

12 He that is void of wisdom [t]despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 A [u]talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

(11) True source of safety

14 Where no [v]counsel is, the people fall: [w]but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

(12) How to be safe

15 He that is [x]surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship is sure.

(13) Six common classes

16 A [a]gracious woman retaineth honour: and [b]strong men retain riches.

17 [c]The merciful man [d]doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel [e]troubleth his own flesh.

18 [f]The wicked worketh a [g]deceitful work: but to him [h]that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

(14) The two destinies

19 [i]As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

(15) Four classes God hates and loves

20 They that are of a [j]froward heart are [k]abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

▸21 [m]Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be [n]unpunished: but [o]the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

(16) A modern picture

22 [p]As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

(17) Contrasted desires

23 [q]The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

(18) Six unfailing laws

▸24 [r]There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

▸25 [s]The liberal soul [t]shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 [u]He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

(19) The law of sowing and (obtains) reaping

27 [v]He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 [w]He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: [x]but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 [y]He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and [z]the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 [a]The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

▸31 [b]Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAPTER 12

3 Proverbs of domestic and public relations (12:1-28).

(1) Eight common classes

WHOSO loveth instruction loveth knowledge: [c]but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

2 [d]A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he con-a Heb. chen, grace: favor (v 16; Eccl. 10:12). Trans. grace 37 times (Gen. 6:8; 19:19; 32:5; Ps. 84:11; etc.).

b The diligent, as in Sept. and Syriac
c The man who shows mercy edifies his own soul, but the unmerciful, peevish, fretful, and vengeful destroys his own flesh and is sickly in body (v 17) d 6 examples of blessing by kindness:
1 The Kenites (1 Sam. 15:6)
2 David (1 Sam. 30:11-20)
3 Jonathan (2 Sam. 9:7; 21:7)

2 Abraham (Heb. 6:15)
3 Joseph (Gen. 37-41)
4 Simeon (Lk. 2:25-32)
5 Paul (1 Cor. 9:1; 2 Tim. 4:7-8)
i Righteousness promotes health and long life (v 19; Ps. 91; 1 Pet. 3:10-11), but wickedness shortens life (v 19)
j See note h, 2:12
k See note e, 3:32
l 6 examples of being God's delight:
1 Enoch (Heb. 11:5)
2 Noah (Gen. 6:8)
3 Israel (Dt. 10:15)
4 The upright (Pr. 11:20)
5 Saints and the excellent (Ps. 16:3)
6 Jesus Christ (Isa. 42:1) m An expression referring to striking hands in becoming a surety or in closing contracts. Such procedure was a pledge or guarantee of doing what was promised. Here, though the wicked pledge support to each other in sin they will not go unpunished. Only the righteous will be delivered (v 21) n 5 examples judging wicked rebels:
1 The Babel builders (Gen. 11:1-9)
2 Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19)
3 Korah and company (Num. 16)
4 Canaanite kings (Josh. 9-10)
5 The ten kings (Rev. 17-19)
o 4 examples seed of righteous delivered:
1 Noah and family (Gen. 6-8)
2 Lot and family (Gen. 19:17-29)
3 The Jews (Esther 7-9)
4 The Hebrew children (Dan. 3) p In Asiatic countries a nose jewel is very common (Gen. 24:47; Isa. 3:21). A jewel in the swine's snout is as becoming as a beautiful woman that is destitute of good breeding and modest carriage and who has lost all moral sense and purity (v 22)
q They are consecrated to goodness, but the wicked are consecrated to things that will produce the wrath of God (v 23)
r What you give you gain: what you keep you lose (v 24; Lk. 6:38; Gal. 6:7-8; 2 Cor. 8:15; 9:6) s God blesses the bountiful soul and repays what is cheerfully given (v 25) t 3 examples of liberality blessed:
1 Widow (1 Ki. 17:10)
2 The Shunammite (2 Ki. 4:8, 37)
3 Publius (Acts 28:7-8)
u The man who takes advantage of scarcity to make himself rich will be cursed, but blessing will be upon the one who helps men in adversity (v 26)
v He that seeks the good of others gains their favor, but he that seeks their harm shall reap it himself (v 27)
w A failing trust (v 28; Mk. 10:24)
x See Ps. 1; 92:12-13
y He that dissipates his property by riotous living shall inherit emptiness in the end (v 29)
z See point 1, Fools, col. 4, p. 642 a The righteous produce eternal life for men by winning them to God (v 30)
b Both the righteous and the wicked will reap what they sow (v 31; Gal. 6:7-8) c He is as stupid as a beast. Cp. 30:2; Ps. 49:10; 73:22; 92:6
d God gives grace to the righteous, but condemns the wicked (v 2; Jas. 4:6-11) a Lawlessness will not establish a man, but righteousness will (v 3) b Heb. chayil, strength of mind or body (Ruth 3:11; Pr. 12:4; 31:10, 29). A morally strong woman is a crown to her husband, but the weakling contracts and communicates such diseases as bring rottenness to the bones (v 4) c Heb. atarah, crown. Used here as an emblem of honor. Cp. Esther 8:15; 19:9; Ps. 4:9; 14:24; 16:31; 17:6; Isa. 28:1-5; 62:3. See 10 crowns in Scripture, p. 666

d Heb. machashebeth, devices, plans (v 5; 15:26; 16:3; 21:5; Gen. 6:5; Ps. 33:11; 40:5; 56:5; 94:11; Isa. 55:7-8)
e 6 examples of wicked counsellors:
1 Korah and company (Num. 16)
2 Jeroboam (1 Ki. 12:28)
3 Sanballat (Neh. 6:2)
4 Haman (Esther 3:5-8)
5 Herod (Mt. 2:8, 16)
6 Judas (Jn. 12:4-6)

f Heb. ramah, cheating, deception (v 5, 17, 20; 14:8, 25; 26:19, 24)
g Heb. dabar, speech. The speech or talk of the wicked concerns murder, but the words of the innocent deliver them from the plans of the wicked (v 6) h 3 examples - wicked being overthrown:
1 Pre-Adamites (Gen. 1:2; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; 2 Pet. 3:5-8)
2 Ante-diluvians (Gen. 6-8)
3 Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19)
i 3 examples - righteous houses standing:
1 Abraham (Gen. 17:19; Lk. 1:70-73)
2 David (2 Sam. 7; Ps. 89:3-4)
3 Jacob (Lk. 1:32-33)

2 David (2 Sam. 14:17-20)
3 Daniel (Dan. 6:16)
4 Paul (2 Pet. 3:15-16)
k 3 examples of being despised:
1 Hophni and Phinehas (1 Sam. 1:3-2:2; 2 Nabal (1 Sam. 25:2, 17) 30)
3 The prodigal son (Lk. 15:15-16)
l The poor man who provides for himself is better than the proud who lacks bread (v 9) m The righteous are merciful, but the wicked are not (v 10) n 2 examples of tilling:
1 Isaac (Gen. 26:12)
2 Jacob (Gen. 30:14. Cp. Pr. 28:19)
o 2 examples of following vain persons:
1 Abimelech (Judg. 9. Cp. Pr. 24:21)
2 Theudas (Acts 5:36-37)
p The wicked desire the prey taken in the net of other evil men, but the root of the righteous is made sure (v 12)

q 5 examples of being snared by own lips:
1 Korah (Num. 16:1-3, 31-35; Ps. 64:5)
2 The Amalekite (2 Sam. 1:2-16)
3 Adonijah (1 Ki. 2:23)
4 Daniel's accusers (Dan. 6:24)
5 Jews (Mt. 27:25)
r 3 examples of deliverance:
1 Joshua and Caleb (Num. 14:10, 24, 30)
2 Esther and her people (Est. 7:3-9:25)
3 Peter (Acts 11:2-18; 12:3-16)
s A good man shall be satisfied with the fruit of his lips, and he will reap the good that he sows (v 14; Gal. 6:7-8)
t A fool will not listen to wise counsels as will the wise (v 15)
u A fool will make his wrath known at once when he is offended, but a wise man will hold his peace (v 16)

v 4 examples of fool's wrath:
1 Jehoram (2 Ki. 8:31)
2 Jezebel (1 Ki. 19:1-2)
3 Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 3:19)
4 Jews at Nazareth (Lk. 4:28)
w 4 examples of prudence:
1 Gideon (Judg. 8:2-3)
2 Saul (1 Sam. 10:27)
3 David (1 Sam. 17:29-30)
4 Hezekiah (Isa. 36:21)
x 4 uses of the tongue:
1 Speaking truth (v 17; Jn. 14:6)
2 Speaking lies (v 17; 1 Tim. 4:1-2)
3 Speaking cutting things (v 18; Jas. 3)
4 Speaking blessing (v 19; Mt. 8:8)
y 7th prophecy in Pr. (12:19, unfulfilled). Next, 13:9. 2 kinds of tongues and destinies (v 19; Jas. 3; 1 Pet. 3:10-11) z 4 examples of lying tongues judged:
1 Ahab (1 Ki. 22:30, 37)
2 Hananiah (Jer. 28:2, 11)
3 Gehazi (2 Ki. 5:22-27)
4 Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-10) a Deceit is in the heart of them who devise evil, but joy is in the heart of them who give counsel of peace (v 20) demn.

3 [a]A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
4 [b]A virtuous woman is a[c]crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.
5 The [d]thoughts of the righteous are right: but the [e]counsels of the wicked are [f]deceit.

(2) Ways and words of neighbors

6 The [g]words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

(3) Six common classes

7 [h]The wicked are overthrown, and are not: [i]but the house of the righteous shall stand.
8 [j]A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: [k]but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.
9 [l]He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

(4) Contrasted dispositions

10 [m]A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

(5) Contrasted prosperity

11 [n]He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but [o]he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.

(6) Righteous and wicked neighbors

12 [p]The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.
13 [q]The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.
14 [r]A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

(7) Fools and wise men

15 [s]The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.
16 [t]A fool's wrath is [u]presently known: but [v]a prudent man covereth shame.

(8) Contrasted use of the tongue

17 He that [w]speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.
18 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.
*19 [x]The lip of truth shall be established for ever: [z]but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

(9) Contrasted hearts

20 [a]Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

(10) Twelve common classes

▶21 There shall no [b]evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.
22 Lying lips are [c]abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his [d]delight.
23 [e]A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.
24 [f]The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.
25 [g]Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it [h]stoop: but [i]a good word maketh it glad.
26 [j]The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.
27 [k]The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.
▶28 [l]In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

CHAPTER 13

4 Proverbs of temporal and eternal good (13:1-25).

(1) Two kinds of sons

[1]A WISE son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

(2) The secret of life

2 [m]A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.
▶3 He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

(3) Six common classes

▶4 [n]The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.
5 [o]A righteous man hateth lying: [p]but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.
6 [q]Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

(4) The law of true prosperity

7 [r]There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

(5) What riches can do

8 [s]The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

(6) Destiny of the wicked

*9 [t]The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out. ◂

(7) Source of contention

10 [u]Only by pride cometh [v]contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

(8) Two unfailing laws

11 [w]Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

(9) Two effects of hope a Heb. aven, iniquity, especially connected with idols. Hence, means vanity or a vain thing because idols are nothing (Job 15:35; Ps. 10:7; Pr. 22:8). Here it means that no vain thing will happen to the just, for all things work together for their good (Rom. 8:28). God turns to the advantage of the righteous or just any intended evil that happens

b See note e, 3:32

c 7 things God delights in:
1 Men that deal truthfully (v 22)
2 Just weights (Pr. 11:1)
3 Men upright in their ways (Pr. 11:20)
4 Prayers of the upright (Pr. 15:8)
5 Loving kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth (Jer. 9:24)
6 The Messiah (Isa. 42:1)
7 Israel (Isa. 62:4)
d A wise man never brags on his education, knowledge, and experience, but a fool is intent on informing everybody how wise he is (v 23) e 3 examples of diligent bearing rule:
1 Eleazar (Gen. 24:2, 10)
2 Joseph (Gen. 39:4, 22)
3 Jeroboam (1 Ki. 11:28)
f Anxiety, sorrow, and rebuke prostrate a man, but one statement of good news makes the heart light (v 25) g 4 examples of sorrow prostrating men:
1 Ezra (Ezra 9:3-10:3)
2 Nehemiah (Neh. 1:4)
3 David (Ps. 40:12; 2 Sam. 18:33)
4 Jeremiah (Jer. 8:18; 9:1)
h 3 examples of good news making glad:
1 Jacob (Gen. 45:27)
2 Darius (Dan. 6:18-23)
3 Disciples (Mt. 28:5-8; Lk. 24:32)
i The just man guides his friend in righteousness, but a wicked neighbor leads him astray (v 26)
j The slothful man is too lazy to roast what he has, but the precious treasure of the diligent man is utilized for the good of all (v 27)

k 2 things in the path of the righteous:
1 Eternal life (v 28; Mt. 7:14)
2 Immortality (v 28; 1 Pet. 3:4, note)
l A wise son will be corrected by his father's rebuke, but a scorner will not profit by it (v 1) m The mouth of a righteous man produces blessing and life, but that of sinners cursing and destruction (v 2-3; 1 Pet. 3:10-11; Jas. 3). The government of the tongue is commanded by God (Jas. 1:26; 3:1-18). We have two eyes and two ears to see and hear more than we are to speak with the one tongue fenced with teeth n The sluggard's desires are not satisfied, but those of the righteous are (v 4) o 5 examples of hating lying:
1 Joseph (Gen. 46:31-34)
2 Samuel (1 Sam. 3:18)
3 Micaiah (1 Ki. 22:13-14; Pr. 14:5)
4 Jeremiah (Jer. 26:1-15)
5 John the Baptist (Mt. 14:4)
p 5 examples - wicked coming to shame:
1 Jehoram (2 Chr. 21:18-19)
2 Gehazi (2 Ki. 5:27)
3 Jezebel (2 Ki. 9:35)
4 Manasseh (2 Ki. 21:7-13)
5 Herod (Acts 12:21-23)
q Righteousness protects the upright, but sin destroys the sinner (v 6)

r This proverb could have two meanings:
1 The rich poor man that hoards all riches for himself, not giving to others so he can receive true riches; and the poor rich man that gives his all for others and is rich toward God (Lk. 6:38; 12:21; 2 Cor. 9:6)
2 A man who pretends himself to be rich and is not, and another who pretends to be poor and is rich
s A rich man may be able to ransom his life by giving riches, but all threatening of a poor man will not force him to pay anything (v 8)
t 8th prophecy in Pr. (13:9, unfulfilled). Next, v 13. All wicked will be turned into hell u By pride comes contention and strife between men and nations, but those who hear counsel will act wisely and suppress it (v 10) v 4 examples - pride causing contention:
1 Korah (Num. 16)
2 Men of Ephraim (Judg. 12:1-6)
3 Rehoboam (1 Ki. 12)
4 The apostles (Lk. 22:24)
w Ill-gotten wealth shall not be permanent, but that received by honest labour will continue to be blessed (v 11)

a Hope when delayed in its realization prostrates or sickens the heart, but when it is realized it comforts and invigorates body and soul (v 12) b 3 examples of heart-sickness:
1 Abraham (Gen. 15:2-3)
2 David (Ps. 42:1-3)
3 The disciples (Lk. 24:17, 21)
c 9th prophecy in Pt. (13:13, being fulfilled). Next, 14:11. 4 examples destruction:
1 World (Gen. 6; 1 Pet. 3:20)
2 Israel (Dt. 28:15-68)
3 Jehoiakim (Jer. 26:20-24)
4 Amaziah (2 Chr. 25:16-27)
d 4 examples of being rewarded:
1 Pharaoh's servants (Ex. 9:20-25)
2 Amaziah (2 Chr. 25:6-11)
3 Ebed-melech (Jer. 39:15-18)
4 Josiah (2 Chr. 34:27-30)
e The law is a fountain of life to the wise, for by obedience he escapes the penalty of breaking it (v 14) f 7 examples of obtaining favor:
1 Abraham (Gen. 23:10-11)
2 Joseph (Gen. 39:2)
3 Joshua (Josh. 6:27)
4 David (1 Sam. 18:14)
5 Abigail (1 Sam. 25:3, 18-34)
6 Daniel (Dan. 1:8-9; 6:3)
7 Samuel (1 Sam. 2:26)
g Heb. ethan, strong, rough. Sinners have more pain, suffering, and hardships in damning their souls than the righteous have, with all their cross-bearings, to save their souls. The way of the transgressor is hard, desolate, and fruitless
h The wise man does all things with understanding, but a fool lays himself open to folly (v 16)
i 3 examples laying self open to folly:
1 Balaam (Num. 22:29-30)
2 Ahasuerus (Est. 3:10-15)
3 Herod (Mt. 14:7; Mk. 6:23)
j A wicked messenger fails to carry out his duty, but a righteous one brings honor and safety to his king (v 17)
k Poverty and shame come to him that rejects correction, but honor to him that profits by his mistakes (v 18)
l A completed desire for good is sweet to the soul, but evil desires never satisfy (v 19)
m One who walks with a wise man will imitate him in wisdom, but one who follows a fool will become base and vile (v 20) n Sinners will reap the evil of their doings, and the righteous their good (v 21)
o A good man leaves an inheritance of prayers, a godly life, a good name, a wonderful example, and many cherished memories and, in some cases, houses, lands, and wealth for his children, but the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just (v 22). The inheritance left by a righteous man does not always consist of material wealth, hence it could not be said to be that alone p Much food is in the tillage of the poor, but lack of management brings poverty and keeps them wanting (v 23). They have very little foresight. When they get something they quickly spend it or have a big feast and then go without for a long time q He that holds chastening from his son hateth him, but he who corrects and trains his child has his future at heart (v 24) r 4 examples of failure to correct sons:
1 Jacob (Gen. 37)
2 Eli (1 Sam. 3:13; 4:11)
3 David (2 Sam. 13:39; 14:25)
4 Samuel (1 Sam. 8:1-9)
s The righteous are content with moderate desires and pleased with their lot in life, but the wicked are never satisfied (v 25)
t 6 contrasted classes:
1 The wise woman (v 1)
2 The foolish woman (v 1)
3 The righteous (v 2)
4 The wicked and perverse (v 2)
5 The foolish man (v 3)
6 The wise man (v 3)
u The wise woman through proper management increases the property, furniture, food, and raiment of the household, but the thriftless woman causes these blessings to depart (v 1)
v The upright fear the Lord, but the perverse man despises Him (v 2)
w The words of the foolish man are a source of pride causing his fall, but those of the wise man keep him from falling (v 3) x Heb. shor, bull. Found 59 times. The ox was the most profitable farm animal.

12 Hope[a] deferred maketh[b] the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.
*13 [c]Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed: [d]but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded. ◂

(10) The fountain of life

14 [e]The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

(11) Seven contrasted effects

15 [f]Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is [g]hard.
16 [h]Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: [i]but a fool layeth open his folly.
17 [j]A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.
18 [k]Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.
19 [l]The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.
20 [m]He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.
21 [n]Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

(12) Concerning inheritances

22 [o]A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

(13) Blessing of the poor

23 [p]Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment.

(14) Chastening children

24 [q]He that [r]spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

(15) The righteous and wicked

25 [s]The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAPTER 14

5 Proverbs of various classes (14:1-35). (1) Six contrasted classes

EVERY [t]wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.
2 [u]He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.
3 [v]In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

(2) Blessings of an ox

4 Where no [w]oxen are, the crib is clean: but much [x]increase is by the strength of the ox.

(3) Four contrasted classes

5 A [y]faithful witness will not lie: but a [z]false witness will utter lies.
6 A [a]scorner seeketh wisdom, and [b]findeth it not: [c]but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

(4) Sound advise

7 [d]Go from the presence of [e]a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

(5) Four contrasted classes

8 [f]The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.
9 [g]Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

(6) Two things to let alone

10 [h]The heart knoweth his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

(7) Contrasted houses

*11 [i]The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish. ◂

(8) End of the wrong road

12 [j]There is a way which [k]seemeth right unto a man, but [l]the end thereof are the ways of death.

(9) End of laughter and mirth

13 [m]Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

(10) Sixteen contrasted classes

14 [n]The [o]backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.
15 [p]The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.
16 [q]A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.
17 [r]He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.
18 [s]The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
19 [t]The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
20 [u]The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.
21 [v]He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

(11) Two kinds of planning

22 [w]Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

(12) Law of poverty

23 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth a Increase in material prosperity comes by utilizing the oxen for labor. See note x, column 1 b 5 examples of faithful witnesses:

1 Joseph (Gen. 37:2)
2 John the Baptist (Mt. 3; Jn. 1:7-28)
3 Jesus Christ (Rev. 1:5)
4 The apostles (Acts 5:32)
5 Paul (Acts 20:21-27; 22:15)
c 4 examples of false witnesses:
1 10 spies (Num. 13:32)
2 False prophets (1 Kl. 22:6-27)
3 Jewish men (Mt. 26:60-61)
4 Tertullus (Acts 24:1-9)
d The infidel and rebel against God seek wisdom and do not find it because they reject God the source of wisdom (Pr. 1:7; 9:10) e 3 examples of finding not truth:
1 Jews in Christ's ministry (Mt. 13:15)
2 Jews in Paul's ministry (Acts 13:41)
3 Athenians (1 Cor. 1:23; 2:8)
f Knowledge is hard for him that rebels and will not believe truth when he hears it; but it is easy for him to understand who is open to truth and will believe what he hears (v 6; Mt. 13:10-17, notes)
g Never associate with vain, empty, ignorant men who can neither convey nor receive truth (v 7; Mt. 7:6)
h Heb. kesil (point 2, col. 4, p. 642) i The wisdom of the prudent is to direct his way rightly, but the folly of fools is to live deceitful lives (v 8)
j Fools make sport of sin and live in disfavor with all who are good, but the righteous find favor (v 9) k The heart knoweth its own bitterness, and let no man hinder its joy (v 10) l 10th prophecy in Pt. (14:11, being fulfilled). Next, 16:5. The godly will live on earth forever (v 11; Gen. 3:12) m A man may persuade himself that his deadly besetting sin, his evil dealings, his false religion, and his selfish way are right, but whatever is not God's way will end in death and hell (v 12) n 4 examples of following false ways:
1 Jeroboam (1 Kl. 12:27-33; 14:7-11)
2 Josiah (2 Chr. 35:20-24)
3 Paul (Phil. 3:4-7; 1 Tim. 1:13)
4 Jews (Jn. 16:2; Acts 13:50)
o 5 examples of end of wrong way:
1 Nabal (1 Sam. 25:36-37)
2 Solomon (1 Kl. 11:1-8; Eccl. 2:2)
3 Belshazzar (Dan. 5)
4 Israelites (Amos 6:3-7)
5 Judas (Acts 1:25)
p The heart may be sorrowful in forced smiles and laughter, but at last the true state of heaviness is revealed (v 13)
q The backslider in heart will be satisfied with his ways, but a good man will be satisfied when he is free from his own ways (v 14; 2 Cor. 5:17-18)
r Heb. sug, to flinch; to go back; to apostatize. Backslider is used only once, but backsliding is found 16 times. See 99 ways of backsliders, p. 666
s The simple believes in every way of man, but the wise discerns between the ways of good and evil (v 15)
t A wise man fears God and never trusts in himself in departing from evil, but the fool boasts in self-confidence (v 16)
u A quick angered man acts foolishly and a man of wicked schemes is hated (v 17)
v The simple are born with a disposition to folly, but the wise embrace knowledge (v 18)
w The wicked will be brought down to respect the righteous (v 19) x Riches make many fair-weather friends (v 20)
y Happy is the man who has no respect of persons (v 21; Jas. 2:9-10) z Question 10. Next, 15:11

It excells the horse in every respect except speed. It is superior to the horse in 12 ways
1 It lives longer
2 Not as likely to be diseased
3 A more steady worker
4 Fattens and maintains its strength on what a horse will not eat
5 It costs less to feed
6 Its manure is more profitable
7 When worn out its flesh is still good for food
8 Its horns are useful
9 Its hide more valuable
10 It is less expensive to shoe
11 Its harness is less expensive and more simple 12 It is more patient, easy to handle, and less dangerous a All labor profits, but all talk and no work brings poverty (v 23). A man of words is not always a man of deeds.

b The crown of the wise is their riches, but the fool produces folly by his acts of foolishness (v 24)

c A true witness delivereth the innocent, but a liar slanders him (v 25)

d 4 blessings of the fear of God:
1 Strong confidence (v 26)
2 A place of refuge - security (v 26)
3 Eternal life (v 27)
4 Holiness of life and conduct (v 27)

e 7 examples of strong confidence:
1 Abraham (Gen. 22:3-10; Heb. 11:19)

5 Habakkuk (Hab. 3:17-19)
6 Peter (Acts 12:6)
7 Paul (2 Tim. 4:6-8)

f To depart from evil through the fear of God is to obtain eternal life (v 27)

g The popularity of a king is his security, but the rebellion of the people is his downfall (v 28)

h A wise man is slow to wrath, but a fool is hasty of spirit and magnifies folly (v 29)

i 4 examples of a hasty spirit:
1 Rehoboam (1 Ki. 12)
2 Jehoram (2 Ki. 5:7)
3 Jonah (Jonah 4:8-9)
4 Martha (Lk. 10:40)

j A strong heart insures good blood circulation producing health and longevity, but envy, jealousy, and passionate hatred produce corruption (v 30)

k He that oppresses the poor insults God who made them, but he who blesses the poor honors God (v 31)

l An ancient title of God found here; 17:5; Job 35:10; Isa. 17:7; 51:13; 54:5. It refers to God as Creator of the weak as well as the strong m The wicked have no hope in the harvest of their life of wickedness, but the righteous have hope in death of reaping life eternal (v 32; Gal. 6:7-8) n 7 examples of destruction through sin:

1 Dathan (Num. 16:33)
2 Israel (Ex. 32:28; 1 Cor. 10:1-11)
3 Balaam (Num. 31:8-10; Rev. 2:14)
4 Canaanites (Josh. 2:9; 5:1; Dt. 9:5)
5 Hophni and Phinehas (1 Sam. 4:11)
6 Baal's prophets (1 Ki. 18:40)
7 Belshazzar (Dan. 5:2-6, 30)

o 6 examples righteous hoping in death:
1 Jacob (Gen. 49:18)
2 Joseph (Gen. 50:24-25; Heb. 11:22)
3 David (2 Sam. 23:5; Ps. 17:15)
4 Stephen (Acts 7:55-60)
5 Paul (2 Tim. 4:6-8)
6 Peter (2 Pet. 1:14-16; 3:13)

p A wise man does not display his wisdom, but a fool parades all he knows (v 33)

q This has been true of Israel at different times (Dt. 4:6; Josh. 1:8; 10:42; 23:14)

r 7 examples of sin being a reproach:
1 Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19)
2 Canaanites (Lev. 18:24-30)
3 Egypt (Ex. 12:12; Ezek. 29:1-16)
4 Amalekites (Ex. 17:16; 1 Sam. 15)
5 Babylon (Isa. 14:4-23; 47:6-15)
6 Tyre (Ezek. 28:2-8; Isa. 23:1-9)
7 Nineveh (Zeph. 2:13-15)

s A wise servant will gain the favor of the king, but a foolish servant will incur his wrath (v 35)

t Gentleness will disarm the most furious, but angry words spoken will beget wrath (v 1) u 5 examples of turning away wrath:

1 Aaron (Lev. 10:16-20)
2 Reubenites (Josh. 22:15-34)
3 Gideon (Judg. 8:1-3; Pr. 15:18)
4 Hannah (1 Sam. 1:15-17)
5 Abigail (1 Sam. 25:23)

v 5 examples of grievous words:
1 The Ephraimites (Judg. 12:1-4)
2 Men of Israel and Judah (2 Sam. 19:41)
3 Saul and Jonathan (1 Sam. 20:30-34)
4 Rehoboam (2 Chr. 10:13-16)
5 Eliphaz (Job 22:5)

w A wise man uses knowledge rightly, but a fool has no true sense of its proper use (v 2) x 3 examples of God seeing evil:

1 Adam and Eve (Gen. 3)
2 Achan and his sin (Josh. 7)
3 Belshazzar (Dan. 5)

3 examples of God seeing good:
1 Abraham (Gen. 22)
2 Joseph (Gen. 39)
3 Jesus Christ (Acts 10:38)

y A gentle tongue speaks truth and life, but a piercing tongue kills the soul (v 4) only to [o]penury.

(13) Four contrasted classes

24 [h]The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.
25 [c]A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

(14) Four blessings of fear

26 [d]In the fear of the LORD is strong [e]confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge.
27 [f]The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

(15) Cause of anarchy

28 [g]In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

(16) Patience and hot-headedness

29 [h]He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: [i]but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

(17) Secret of health

30 [j]A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones.

(18) Three well known facts

31 [k]He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his [l]Maker:
but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.
32 [m]The wicked is [n]driven away in his wickedness: but [o]the righteous hath hope in his death.
33 [p]Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

(19) Effects of sin and holiness

34 [q]Righteousness exalteth a nation: [r]but sin is a reproach to any people.

(20) Advice to servants

35 [s]The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAPTER 15

6 Proverbs on sociology and religion (15:1-33). (1) How to pacify wrath

[t]A SOFT answer turneth away wrath: [u]but grievous words stir up anger.
2 [v]The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

(2) Omnipresence of God

3 [w]The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

(3) Another tree of life

4 [x]A wholesome tongue is a tree of [y]life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

(4) Two kinds of sons

5 [z]A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

(5) Four contrasted classes

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in [a]the revenues of the wicked is trouble.
7 [b]The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.
8 [c]The sacrifice of the wicked is an [d]abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

(6) Four contrasted things of God and man

9 [e]The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD:
but he loveth him that followeth
after righteousness.
10 [f]Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way:
and he that hateth reproof shall die.

(7) Four well known facts of God and man

11 [g]Hell and destruction are before the LORD: [h]how much more then the hearts of the children of men?
12 [i]A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

(8) Good and evil hearts

13 [j]A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.
14 [k]The heart of him that hath understanding [l]seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.
15 [m]All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

(9) Some better things

16 [n]Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith.
17 [o]Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

(10) Eight contrasted classes

18 [p]A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.
19 [q]The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns:
but the way of the righteous is made plain.
20 [r]A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man
despiseth his mother.
21 [s]Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

(11) How to be successful

22 [t]Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

b Heb. evil (Eccl. 4:5; 10:12)
46 ways of a fool: He:
1 Is jealous and envious (1 Sam. 26:21)
2 Insensible to danger (2 Sam. 3:33)
3 Denies God (Ps. 14:1; 53:1)
4 Is ignorant of the future (Ps. 49:10)
5 Is ignorant of God (Ps. 92:6)
6 Is a whoremonger (Pr. 7:22)
7 Rejects God's commandments (10:8
8 Chatters empty talk (10:8, 10) 8)
9 Utters slander (10:18)
10 Is a mischief maker (10:23)
11 Is self-conceited (12:15)
12 Proclaims foolishness (12:23)
13 Parades his own folly (13:16)
14 Quick tempered (14:17)
15 Rages and lives in sin (14:16)
16 Pours out foolishness (15:2)
17 Despises parents (15:5)
18 Is incapable of decent speech (17:7)
19 Does not profit by reproof (17:10)
20 Is insensible (17:12)
21 Is not interested in wisdom (17:16)
22 Is a shame to parents (17:21)
23 Is always dissatisfied (17:24)
24 Is contentious (18:6)
25 Has no delight in knowledge (18:2)
26 Is perverse in speech (19:1)
27 Cannot appreciate luxury and honor (19:10; 26:1, 8)
28 Is a meddler (20:3)
29 Despises wisdom (23:9)
30 Is incapable of wisdom (24:7)
31 Gives foolish answers (26:4-5)
32 Is not dependable (26:6)
33 Is hopeless (26:12)
34 Is inseparable from folly (26:11;
35 Trusts in himself (28:26) 27:22)
36 Utters all he knows (29:11)
37 Is unbearable (30:21-22)
38 Walks in darkness (Eccl. 2:14)
39 Destroys self (Eccl. 4:5; 10:12)
40 Is light and frivolous (Eccl. 7:6)
41 Acknowledges he is a fool (Eccl. 10:3)
42 Is full of empty words (Eccl. 10:14)
43 Has no foresight (Mt. 7:26; 25:2-8)
44 Is covetous (Lk. 12:20-21)
45 Constantly debates non-essentials (2 Tim. 2:23)
46 Is ignorant (1 Pet. 2:15)

c Heb. tebuah, increase (v 6; 8:19; 16:8; Isa. 23:3; Jer. 12:13). The gain of the wicked is through crime and trouble d It is in the heart of the wise to spread knowledge, but not so with fools (v 7)

e 3 examples of wicked sacrificing:
1 Cain (Gen. 4:5)
2 Saul (1 Sam. 15)
3 Jews (Isa. 1:11-15; 66:3)

f See note e, 3:32

g God hates the way of the wicked, but He loves that of the godly (v 9)

h Correction is grievous to the backslider; and he that hateth reproof shall die (v 10)

i Heb. sheol, the unseen world, the place of departed spirits, not the seen world, the grave, the place of bodies. See Hell, p. 620; notes, Lk. 12:5; 16:19-31

j Question 11, Next, 17:16

k 3 examples of hating reproof:
1 Ahab (2 Chr. 18:7; Pr. 17:4)
2 The Jews (Amos 5:10)
3 The Pharisees (Lk. 7:30)

l A happy disposition shows in the countenance, but a gloomy one keeps the spirit broken (v 13)

m A wise man seeks knowledge, but a fool feeds on foolishness (v 14)

n 4 examples of seeking knowledge:
1 Solomon (1 Ki. 3:5-10; Pr. 19:8)
2 Queen of Sheba (1 Ki. 10; Mt. 12:42)
3 The Ethiopian eunuch (Acts 8:28)
4 The Bereans (Acts 17:11)

o The afflicted are always sad, but the merry are always happy (v 15) p Better is poverty with the fear of the Lord, than riches with troubles (v 16)

q Better is a poor man's dinner where love is than a rich man's feast where hatred and strife are (v 17)

r A fiery-tempered man causes trouble, but a slow-angered man promotes peace (v 18)

s A lazy man imagines many obstructions in the way, but the righteous see none (v 19)

t A wise son honors his parents, but a foolish one despises them (v 20)

u Folly is joy to fools, but wise men walk sensibly (v 21)

v Plans fail when there is no counsel, but succeed where many wise men counsel (v 22)

a A wise man has joy in his answers of wisdom: and a word spoken in season is healthful and refreshing (v 23) b 4 contrasted ways (v 24):
1 The way of the wise - way of fools
2 The way of life - the way of death
3 The way above - the way beneath 4 The way to heaven - the way to hell c Heb. sheol, the unseen world, the place of departed spirits, not the grave or place of bodies. See Hell, p. 620; notes, Lk. 12:5; 16:19-31
d The LORD will judge the proud, but preserve the humble (v 25) e Heb. machashebeth, devices. Those of the wicked God hates, but He loves the plans and words of the pure (v 26)
f See note e, 3:32
g The greedy man is a torment to his own family and a curse to those with whom he deals, but the contented and righteous man, one who hates bribery, shall live (v 27)
h The righteous man ponders the thoughts and words of his answer, but the wicked spues out the thoughtless abominations of his heart (v 28)
i The LORD has no fellowship with the wicked, but He draws near and hears the prayers of the righteous (v 29; Jas. 4:8)
j Righteousness rejoices the heart, and good news is healthful (v 30) k See note m, Lk. 11:34
l He who heeds advice shall be a companion of the wise (v 31)
m He who rejects advice hates his own soul, but the one who profits by it gets wisdom and understanding (v 32) n 6 examples of hating own soul:
1 Dathan (Num. 16:12-14, 31-33)
2 Zedekiah (2 Chr. 36:12; Jer. 39:1-7)
3 Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4:27-33)
4 Belshazzar (Dan. 5:22-30)
5 The Jews (Mt. 23:34-38)
6 The Gadarenes (Lk. 8:37)
o 4 examples of getting knowledge:
1 Job's friends (Job 42:7-9)
2 The Samaritan woman (Jn. 4:17)
3 Two disciples (Lk. 23:26-32)
4 Paul (Acts 9:6-22)
p 12 blessings of fear of the LORD: It
1 Is the beginning of wisdom (1:7; 9:
2 Determines destiny (1:29) 10)
3 Helps depart from evil (3:7; 16:6)
4 Is to hate evil (8:13)
5 Prolongs days (10:27)
6 Gives strong confidence (14:26)
7 Is a fountain of life (14:27)
8 Produces satisfaction (15:16)
9 Is the instruction of wisdom (15:33)
10 Tends to life (19:23)
11 Gives riches, honor, and life (22:4)
12 Brings blessing (Eccl. 8:12)
q 5 examples of humility before honor:
1 Joseph (Gen. 39:1-41:57)
2 Gideon (Judg. 6:15)
3 Daniel (Dan. 2:30-48)
4 Hananiah (Neh. 7:2)
5 Jesus Christ (Phil. 2:5-11)
r God prepares the plans in the heart of a righteous man and inspires the answer of his tongue (v 1) s The ways of a self-righteous man are clean to himself, but the Lord ponders and judges the true motives of the spirit (v 2) t 3 examples of being clean in own eyes:
1 Jehu (2 Kings 10:16, 31)
2 The Pharisee (Lk. 18:11-14)
3 Paul (Acts 26:9, Cp. 9:4)
u Take God into partnership and your plans will succeed (v 3) v 5 examples of plans being established:
1 Jacob (Gen. 32:24-30; 46:1-5)
2 David (1 Sam. 17:45; 30:8-19)
3 Ezra (Ezra 8:21-32)
4 Esther (Est. 4:14-17; 8:15-17)
5 Daniel (6:10)
w Col. 1:15-18; Rev. 4:11
x He has reserved the wicked for the day when he shall receive his well deserved punishment (v 4; Rom. 1:18; 2:5; 2 Pet. 1:9)

a See note m, 11:21
b By the mercy and truth of God atonement for sin is made and iniquity is purged; and through fear of Him men depart from sin (v 6; Jn. 16:8; Tit. 3:5) c God raises up friends for those who serve Him and do His will (v 7) d It is better to be poor and righteous than to be rich and wicked (v 8). See 17 "better" things in Proverbs, p. 666

(12) When words are sweet

23 [a]A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

(13) The way of life

▸24 [b]The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from [c]hell beneath.

(14) Two common works of God

▸25 [d]The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

(15) Six contrasted classes

26 The [e]thoughts of the wicked are an [f]abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 [g]He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 [h]The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

(16) Nine warnings and assurances ▸29 [i]The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 [i]The [k]light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 [i]The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 [m]He that refuseth instruction [n]despiseth his own soul: but he that [o]heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 [p]The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; [q]and before honour is humility.

CHAPTER 16

7 Proverbs of confidence (16:1-33). (1) Tenfold confidence in God's dealings

THE preparations of the [r]heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 [s]All the ways of a man are clean in his [s]own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

●3 [u]Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be [v]established. ◂

4 [w]The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, [x]even the wicked for the day of evil.

★5 [y]Every one that is proud in heart is an [z]abomination to the LORD: though [a]hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 [b]By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

▸7 [c]When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

(2) Another better thing

8 [d]Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

(3) Fivefold confidence in God

9 [e]A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD [d]directeth his steps.

10 [e]A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 [d]A just weight and balance are the LORD's: [e]all the weights of the bag are his work.

(4) Sevenfold confidence in kings

12 It is an [f]abomination [g]to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

(5) Another better thing

16 [h]How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

(6) How to keep the soul

▸17 [i]The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

(7) Effect of pride and haughtiness

18 [j]Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

(8) Another better thing

19 [k]Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

(9) Tenfold confidence in right principles

▸20 [l]He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a well-spring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The [m]heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

▸24 [n]Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

(10) End of a wrong road

25 [o]There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

(11) Six common classes

26 He that [p]laboureth laboureth [q]for himself; [r]for his mouth craveth it of him.

27 [s]An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

a A righteous man's heart has many plans, but the Lord directs his steps (v 9)
b 8 examples of being directed by God:
1 Joseph's brethren (Gen. 37:18-28; 45:5)
2 Pharaoh's daughter (Ex. 2:5)
3 Saul (1 Sam. 9:3-18; 23:26-28)
4 Jesse (1 Sam. 16:8-11; 17:23, 53)
5 Syrians (2 Ki. 5:2)
6 Zacchaeus (Lk. 19:1-10)
7 The Samaritan woman (Jn. 4:7)
8 Saul (Acts 9:1-18)
c The law of God or the divine oracle is for the king to use in judgment, He must not be unfaithful in executing it (v 10)
d Just scales and balances are an ordinance of God (v 11; 11:1; Lev. 19:36)
e This refers to the weights in the bag in the sanctuary to which all weights in the land were to be referred in order to ascertain whether they were just. It perhaps also refers to the weights carried about by merchants in their girdles by which they weighed the money taken in exchange for their merchandise (v 11)
f See note e, 3:32
g In all proverbs the monarchical form of government rightly administered is referred to; and the proverbs on this subject are very plain, as here (v 12-15)
15 facts about kings
1 They are to rule in justice (16:10; 29:14; 31:5, 8-9)
2 To be righteous (16:12)
3 Stand for righteousness (16:12; 25:
4 Delight in truth (16:13) 5)
5 Love the righteous (16:13; 20:26)
6 Have power of death (16:14)
7 Can be pacified (16:14)
8 Their favor is a blessing (16:15)
9 Must not be provoked (20:2)
10 Are to be feared by the wicked (20:8)
11 Are preserved by mercy and truth
12 To be respected (24:21) (20:28)
13 Are a stabilizing influence to a people (29:4)
14 Are to be virtuous and sober (31:1-15 Are to obey the law (31:5) 4) h Few men believe this, according to their search for wisdom and gold (v 16)
i The righteous man is ever departing from evil to preserve his soul (v 17) j 7 examples of pride before destruction:
1 Asahel (2 Sam. 2:18-23)
2 Ben-hadad (1 Ki. 20:3, 11, 32)
3 Babylon (Isa. 47:10-11)
4 Azariah (Jer. 43:2-11)
5 Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4:30-31)
6 Edom (Obadiah 3-4)
7 Herod Agrippa (Acts 12:21-23)
Most Hebrew Bibles say that this verse is the middle of the book and the first clause is the middle of the words in Proverbs k It is better to be humble and associate with the lowly than to make friends with the proud (v 19) l 8 fundamental principles of life:
1 Handle matters wisely (v 20)
2 Trust in the Lord (v 20)
3 Be wise and prudent (v 21)
4 Increase knowledge (v 21) (v 22)
5 Be sympathetic and understanding
6 Reject folly and be open to instruction and education (v 22)
7 Speak always in wisdom (v 23)
8 Be pleasant and kind (v 24)
m 5 examples of wise hearts:
1 Eleazar (Gen. 24:34-49)
2 Jacob (Gen. 47:9)
3 Jesus Christ (Mt. 22:46; Lk. 2:40-52)
4 Peter (Acts 3:12)
5 Paul (Acts 13:16-21; 14:17; 17:28; 24:25; 26:2-27; 1 Tim. 1:12-16)
n A honey that is fresh and sweet makes the bones healthy, which is necessary for health to the whole body, so pleasant words refresh the soul (v 24) o This is the same as in 14:12. See note m, there p 6 common classes:
1 The laboring man (v 26)
2 The ungodly man (v 27)
3 The perverse man (v 28)
4 The whisperer (v 28)
5 The violent man (v 29)
6 The older men (v 31)
q Very little labor is for anyone but self. There are cases of devoted parents or children who labor for their loved ones, but in general every man lives for himself
r This gives the main reason for labor - to satisfy some appetite or meet some need in life (v 26)
s The ungodly man works as hard to dig up evil and set men against each other as a laboring man does to make a living (v 27)

a A perverse man spreads abroad strife: a backbiter separates friends (v 28)

b 4 examples of sowing strife:
1 Princes of Ammon (2 Sam. 10:3)
2 Ziba (2 Sam. 16:3)
3 The Chaldeans (Dan. 3:8-13)
4 Herodias (Mk. 6:19-20)

c A violent man leads his neighbor away from ways of righteousness (v 29) d He (violent man of v 29) meditates deeply on how to commit sin (v 30) e Hoary heads are not crowns of glory unless they be found righteous (v 31). Many sinners have hoary heads but they are not crowns of glory f 5 examples of righteous hoary heads:

1 Jacob (Gen. 47:9; 48:1)
2 Samuel (1 Sam. 12:2-4; 25:1)
3 Barzillai (2 Sam. 19:32-37)
4 Elisha (2 Ki. 13:14)
5 Jehoida (2 Chr. 24:15-16)

g Conquest and self-control within are better than conquest of enemies without (v 32). Many conquerors have subdued nations and yet have been slaves to their own passions. Alexander conquered the world, but was a slave to intemperate anger. In a fit of anger he slew Clytus, his best and most loved friend and regretted it ever afterwards h 5 examples of slow to anger:

1 Isaac (Gen. 26:13-35)
2 Joseph (Gen. 37:23-36; 39:7-23)
3 Samson (Judg. 16)
4 David (1 Sam. 17:22-51; 19:1-24; 5 Paul (2 Cor. 6:4; Tit. 1:7) 22)

i 7 examples of being soon angry:
1 Cain (Gen. 4)
2 Esau (Gen. 27:41-46)
3 Simeon and Levi (Gen. 49:5-7)
4 Moses (Ex. 32:19)
5 Balaam (Num. 22:22, 27)
6 Saul (1 Sam. 20:30, 34)
7 Jonah (Jonah 4)

j The lot is cast into the bosom (17:23; 21:14). The reference is to the bag of the ephod, in which were put two precious stones, called the Urim and Thummim. These were used in casting lots. The stone drawn out after prayer and meditation would be God's decision, or yes or no. See note, Ex. 28:30

k See 17 "better" things in Proverbs, p. 666

l Poverty with peace and contentment is better than plenty with strife (v 1) m Wisdom in servants is better than folly in sons (v 2) n Just as silver and gold are purified by fire, so the Lord purifies the hearts of men by fiery trials (v 3; Jas. 1:2, 12; 1 Pet. 1:7; 4:12; Rev. 3:18)

o 6 examples of being tested:
1 Abraham (Gen. 22)
2 Israel (Dt. 8:2)
3 Hezekiah (2 Chr. 32:31)
4 Mary and Martha (Jn. 11:5-6)
5 Rich young ruler (Mt. 19:16-22)
6 The Syrophenician woman (Mt. 15:23-28)

p 4 great sins
1 Lying (v 4) 3 Mockery (v 5)
2 Deceit (v 4) 4 Gloating (v 5)

q 2 examples of mocking the poor:
1 Princes of Judah (Isa. 3:14-15; 10:2)
2 The rich (Jas. 5:4)

r See note 1, 14:31

s 2 examples of being punished:
1 The Tyrians (Ezek. 26:2-6)
2 The Edomites (Obadiah 10-15)

t Shall not be guiltless

u Grand-children are the rejoicing of old men, and parents are the glory of children (v 6)

v Refinement and eloquent speech are as unbecoming to a vulgar churl as lying is to princes (v 7). See col. 4, p. 444

w A gift is like a precious stone that sparkles wherever it turns (v 8). The receiver of a gift loves to look at it and keep it for show

x It sparkles or is shown to others

y He that covers up and seeks to hide from others the faults and sins of a friend seeks his peace and love, but he that seeks to expose brings bitterness, hatred, and enmity between the best of friends (v 9)

z A rebuke does more good to a wise man than a hundred stripes to a dense or stupid man (v 10). See col. 4, p. 444

28 [a]A froward man [b]soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 [c]A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 [d]He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

31 [e]The hoary head [f]is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

(12) Another better thing

32 [g]He that is [h]slow to [i]anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

(13) Confidence in God

33 [j]The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

CHAPTER 17

8 Proverbs of personal contentment and peace (17:1-28). (1) Another better thing

[k]BETTER is [l]a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife.

(2) Advice to servants

2 [m]A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

(3) Two refining processes

3 [n]The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: [o]but the LORD trieth the hearts.

(4) Four great sins

4 [p]A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 [q]Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his [r]Maker: [s]and he that is glad at calamities shall not be [t]unpunished.

(5) Two kinds of crowns

6 [u]Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

(6) Two unbecoming things

7 [v]Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

(7) The power of gifts

8 [w]A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, [x]it prospereth.

(8) How to win friends and make enemies

9 [y]He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

(9) How to classify certain men

10 [z]A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 [a]An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

(10) Good advice for all

12 [b]Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 [c]Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 [d]The [e]beginning of strife is as when [f]one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

(11) Two abominations to God

15 [g]He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are [h]abomination to the LORD.

(12) Why some remain fools

16 [i]Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a [j]fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

(13) How to know true friends

17 [k]A friend loveth at all times, and [l]a brother is born for adversity.

(14) Seven things that cause sorrow

18 [m]A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 [n]He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 [o]He that hath a froward heart findeth no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 [p]He that begetteth a [q]fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy.

(15) A good medicine

22 [r]A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

(16) How to pervert justice

23 [s]A wicked man taketh a gift out of the [t]bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

(17) The wise and fools

24 [u]Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 [v]A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

(18) Two things that are not good

26 [w]Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

(19) Two good practices

27 [x]He that hath knowledge [y]spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28 [z]Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise:

a A wicked man stirs up rebellion, so he must be executed to keep peace (v 11)

b A bear robbed of her cubs is exceedingly fierce, but she is less dangerous than a fool in his folly (v 12) c The man who pays evil for good, unkindness for kindness; and lives in ingratitude shall reap what he sows all the days of his life (v 13)

d As water presses toward the smallest break in a dam until it becomes too great to hold, so it is hard to hold back contention and strife when they begin (v 14)

e 4 examples of beginning strife:
1 The Ephraimites (Judg. 12:1-6)
2 Abner (2 Sam. 2:14-17)
3 Rehoboam (2 Chr. 10:1-16)
4 Jeroboam (2 Chr. 13:17)

f When one makes a break in a dam

g 4 examples of condemning the just:
1 The counsellors (Ezra 4:1-16)
2 Ahab and Jezebel (1 Ki. 21:5-24)
3 The Jews (Mt. 27:11-50)
4 Tertullus (Acts 24:1-9)

h See note e, 3:32

i Question 12. Next, 18:14. Why give a fool money to get wisdom when he has no sense? (v 16)

j 7 examples of lack of wisdom:
1 Israel (2 Chr. 30:10)
2 The Jews (Lk. 4:28)
3 Herod Antipas (Lk. 23:11)
4 The Jews (John 5:40; 8:45)
5 Athenians (Acts 17:32-33)
6 Felix (Acts 24:25-27)
7 Herod Agrippa (Acts 26:28)

k 10 examples of lasting friendship:
1 Abraham (Gen. 14:14)
2 Joseph (Gen. 45:5; 50:2)
3 Moses (Ex. 32:11-13; Dt. 9:18-29)
4 Jonathan (1 Sam. 20:33)
5 Barzillai (2 Sam. 19:32)
6 Ahikam (Jer. 26:24)
7 Ebed-melech (Jer. 38:7)
8 Paul (Ph'm 12, 20)
9 Barnabas (Acts 9:27)
10 Epaphroditus (Phil. 2:26)

l A friend loves in adversity or prosperity, and a brother is born to support and comfort a brother in distress (v 17)

m A man who quickly concludes a contract and becomes surety in the presence of a friend proves he is void of understanding (v 18) n He that loves sin loves strife, and he that builds high his gate to show his wealth invites destruction (v 19). Such gates were markers for robbers and invaders. Cp. 2 Ki. 25:9. In some parts of Palestine the gates were made about 3 ft. high. These gave no pretense to wealth and yet kept the Arabs, who scarcely ever left horseback to plunder, from riding into the courts and houses, spoiling goods

o He that has a stubborn heart finds no good, and he that has a deceitful and unmanageable tongue falls into evil (v 20) p The father of a vulgar churl has many sorrows and no joy because he is ashamed of his son (v 21)

q See point 3, col. 4, p. 642 r A merry heart is healthful, but one completely broken in spirit and dejected will develop many bodily illnesses (v 22). Nothing ruins health more than grief, continual worry, anxiety, fretfulness, bad tempers, hatred, and malice. The end of these things is death. We should rid ourselves of such health destroying agencies s A wicked man will accept a bribe and pervert judgment (v 23)

t Easterners carry their purses in their bosoms above the girdles

u Wisdom is within reach of every man who looks for it, but the fool never sees it because of his aiming at impossible things that are out of his reach (v 24)

v A fool who has no sense of responsibility is a shame to parents (v 25)

w Injustice and anarchy are never good; they never promote public prosperity and the common good (v 26)

x A man of true knowledge is not a vain, empty talker; and a man of quiet temper demonstrates that he is a man of wisdom (v 27)

y 4 examples of sparing words:
1 Aaron (Lev. 10:3)
2 Moses (Num. 16:4; 20:6)
3 Samuel (1 Sam. 8:6-8)
4 Christ (1 Pet. 2:23)

z Even a fool is considered a wise one if he knows when and where to speak; and a so-called wise man is considered a fool if he does not know when to hold his tongue (v 28)

a A man seeking wisdom and knowledge will separate himself from all other pursuits, so he can devote himself to his scientific investigations (v 1). He becomes a voluntary recluse for the sake of his desires b A dense, stupid, and impious man has no delight in knowledge though he should discover it (v 2; point 2, col. 4, p.642). His sole desire is to show his own stupidity and emptiness. The wise man will consider himself well paid if he finds the knowledge he seeks for, even though he pays a great price, but the fool does not appreciate it though it comes to him without toil or expense

c Even the wicked have contempt for their own kind; much more do the righteous despise them, and with disgrace come shame and reproach (v 3) d The sayings of a wise man are like deep waters and his well-spring of wisdom is like a gushing torrent that never runs dry (v 4)

e It is not good to permit the riches, influence, friends, or offices of a wicked man to pervert justice of the poor and the righteous man in judgment (v 5)

f A fool will quickly enter into a brawl that will call for punishment (v 6)

g A fool's tongue will bring him destruction and snare his soul (v 7)

h The words of a slanderer are like poison in dainty morsels that are quickly swallowed but cause destruction to the eater (v 8; 26:22)

i A lazy man neglects his work and the materials go to ruin. He is brother to the waster who destroys the materials. Both are great wasters j The name of the Lord is a place of complete safety to all who trust in Him (v 10). See note on Ps. 20:1

k 5 examples of trust in God's name:
1 Job (Job 19:25-26)
2 Habakkuk (Hab. 3:17-19)
3 Asa (2 Chr. 14:11)
4 Hezekiah (2 Ki. 19:14-35; Isa. 38)
5 The early church (Acts 4:24-33)

l The possessions of the rich are their trust and as an high wall of protection to them in their own imagination (v 11)

m A man's haughty spirit brings him destruction and a humble spirit brings honor (v 12)

n 5 examples - destruction through pride:
1 Lucifer (Ezek. 28:11-17; 1 Tim. 3:6)
2 Jezebel (2 Ki. 9:30-33)
3 Goliath (1 Sam. 17:8-47)
4 Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4)
5 Belshazzar (Dan. 5)

o 5 examples of humility before honor:
1 Joseph (Gen. 37-44)
2 Gideon (Judg. 6)
3 David (1 Sam. 17-18)
4 Solomon (1 Ki. 3)
5 Jesus Christ (Phil. 2:5-11)

p 4 examples answering before hearing:
1 David (2 Sam. 16:4; 19:24-30)
2 Ahasuerus (Est. 3:10)
3 Darius (Dan. 6:9)
4 Magistrates (Acts 16:37-39)

q Man's spirit will sustain him in his infirmities if it is not cast down and defeated by constant trials (v 14)

r 2 examples being sustained in trials:
1 Job (Job 1:20-21; 2:8-10)
2 Paul (2 Cor. 11:23-33)

s Question 13, Next, 19:7

t 7 examples of remorse hard to bear:
1 Cain (Gen. 4:13-14)
2 Eli's daughter-in-law (1 Sam. 4:19-3 Saul (1 Sam. 28:20; 2 Sam. 1:9) 22)
4 Ahithophel (2 Sam. 17:23)
5 Zimri (1 Ki. 16:18)
6 Pashur (Jer. 20:4)
7 Judas (Mt. 27:5)

u The prudent hunger for knowledge, and the wise are open to it at all times (v 15)

v In the East it has ever been the practice to bring gifts and presents to great men into whose presence one comes (v 16). Without this there is no audience, no favor, and no justice. This sprang from the practice of bringing offerings to God when approaching Him. Rulers and great men, wishing to be considered as petty gods, demanded similar homage. A valuable gift would bring one into favor with potentates and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAPTER 18

9 Proverbs of personal virtues in social life (18:1-24). (1) Concerning fools and the wicked

18 THROUGH [a]desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

2 [b]A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 [c]When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 [d]The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 [e]It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 [f]A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 [g]A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

(2) Talebearers and the lazy

8 [h]The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

9 [i]He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

(3) True and false refuge

▸10 [j]The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the [k]righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

(4) Two indisputable facts

11 [l]The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 [m]Before [n]destruction the heart of man is haughty, [o]and before honour is humility.

(5) A common error

13 [p]He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

(6) Value of a strong spirit

14 [q]The spirit of a man [r]will sustain his infirmity; [r]but a wounded spirit [r]who can bear?

(7) How to get knowledge

15 [u]The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

(8) How to climb socially

16 [v]A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

(9) How to fall socially

17 [w]He that is first in his own cause [s]seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

(10) Casting lots

18 [x]The lot causeth contentions to cease, and [t]parteth between the mighty.

(11) A hard job

19 [b]A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

(12) A must for all men

20 [c]A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

(13) Source of death and life

21 [d]Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

(14) A twofold blessing

22 [e]Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and [f]obtaineth favour of the LORD.

(15) The power of money

23 [g]The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

(16) How to win friends

24 [h]A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAPTER 19

10 Proverbs of personal character (19:1-19). (1) Three more better things (16:8)

19 BETTER is the [i]poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a [k]fool.

(2) Two dangerous practices

2 Also, [l]that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and [m]he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 [n]The foolishness of man perverteth his way: [o]and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

(3) The power of wealth

4 [p]Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

(4) Punishment of liars (v 9)

5 [q]A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

(5) True human nature

6 [r]Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7 [s]All the brethren of the poor do hate him: [t]how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

(6) Knowledge and wisdom

8 [u]He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

(7) Punishment of liars

9 [v]A false witness shall not be a Heb. parad, to separate; to part. The idea is that matters are settled between the two parties involved and this keeps them from having further war or enmity. It separates them from joining battle

b A brother offended by wrong dealing is harder to be reconciled than taking a strong city, but brothers who stand united are stronger than a castle (v 19)

c A man is inwardly satisfied by his wise answers and his fortune is largely determined by them (v 20)

d Death and life are much determined by the power of the tongue, and he that uses this power rightly shall live because of it (v 21; 1 Pet. 3:10-11) 5 examples of death by the tongue:
1 The ten spies (Num. 14:36-37)
2 Doeg (1 Sam. 22:9-10)
3 Sennacherib (2 Ki. 18:28-35; 19:22-4 The Ammonites (Ezek. 25:3-7) 35)
5 Annanias and Sapphira (Acts 5:5-10)
3 examples of life by the tongue:
1 Esther (Est. 7-8)
2 Paul (Acts 16:28-34)
3 Believers (Rom. 9:9-10; 1 Pet. 3:10)

e Many versions read, "He that findeth a good wife findeth a good thing". Celibacy is not required and marriage is honorable in all (Heb. 13:4). God originally stated that it is not good for man to be alone and this will always be true (Gen. 2:18)

f God's favor is upon all who carry out His original creative purpose to multiply and replenish the earth (v 22; Gen. 1:26-28; Isa. 45:18)

g The poor or needy ones cry to the rich for the necessities of life, but they are answered roughly (v 23)

h A man who has friends must maintain their friendship through feasts and entertainment but there is a friend that will stand by in adversity (v 24)

i Better is a godly poor man, than an ungodly rich fool (v 1)

j See note f, 1, 6:11

k See point 2, col. 4, p. 642

l 8 examples acting without knowledge:
1 Syrians (1 Ki. 20:28)
2 Jews (Isa. 5:12-13)
3 People and priests (Hos. 4:6; 6:6)
4 Job (Job 42:3-6)
5 Hezekiah (2 Chr. 32:31)
6 Pharisees (Mt. 12:7)
7 Peter (Mt. 16:22; Lk. 22:33-34)
8 Paul (1 Tim. 1:13; Acts 26:11)

m 5 examples of hasty action:
1 Joshua (Josh. 9:15)
2 Saul (1 Sam. 13:9-14; 14:24-45)
3 David (2 Sam. 16:4)
4 The prophet (1 Ki. 13:18-19)
5 Peter (Jn. 18:10)

n The fool perverts his own ways and is angry against God for it (v 3)

o 5 examples of fretting against God:
1 Adam (Gen. 3:12)
2 Cain (Gen. 4:13-14)
3 Jehoram (2 Ki. 3:10-13; 6:33)
4 Jonah (Jonah 4:1-9)
5 Israel (Num. 14:2-3; 20:2-5; 21:4-6) p The rich have many friends, but the poor one loses his (v 4)

q A liar will reap what he sows and be punished in due time (v 5; Rev. 21:8; 22:15)

r Men in general show friendship when it is to their advantage, and court favors from princes and the generous rich (v 6) s The poor one is disregarded by brethren and friends. All his efforts to be friendly and his entreaties to them are rejected (v 7)

t Question 14, Next, 20:6

u He that gets wisdom loves his own soul; and the greatest good will come through guarding and obeying wisdom and understanding (v 8)

v See note q above, as v 5 and 9 are the same in truth

w He that is first in his answer in a disputed matter may appear to be altogether right, but his opponent comes to cross examine him and brings the real truth to light (v 17)

x 3 examples of answering first:
1 Saul (1 Sam. 15:13, 26)
2 Elba (2 Sam. 16:1-3)
3 Tertullus (Acts 24:6, 16)

y This shows that casting of lots always settled matters between two parties a All liars shall have their part in the eternal lake of fire (Rev. 21:8; 22:15) b 2 uncommon practices (v 10):

1 For a fool to enjoy luxury, rank, and honor though he is of royal birth (Cp. 17:7; 26:1) 2 For a servant to rule princes. Generally when this happens he is cruel and tyrannical c 2 good qualities (v 11):
1 A sensible man will prolong his patience and not his anger
2 He will pass over transgressions and not expose men to others (1 Cor. 13) d 4 examples of deferring anger:
1 Joseph (Gen. 40:15)
2 Moses (Num. 12)
3 David (1 Sam. 24; 26:5)
4 A prophet (1 Ki. 13:6)
e 4 examples of passing over sin:
1 Isaac (Gen. 26:13-30)
2 David (1 Sam. 18:9-24:22)
3 Jesus Christ (Lk. 23:34)
4 Stephen (Acts 7:60)
f 2 contrasted effects (v 12):
1 A king's wrath
2 A king's favor
g A lion's roar is the most terrible and dreadful sound in the forrest. At it other animals tremble, flee away, or hide. Cp. 16:14; 26:2; 28:15. Dew is one of the most refreshing experiences to grass. Cp. 16:15; Ps. 72:6
h 2 unbearable things (v 13):
1 A foolish son who brings troubles, calamities, and ruin to parents
2 The contentious wife. One cannot sit, stand, work, or sleep without her continual and perpetual nagging. Cp. 27:15 i 2 great blessings of man (v 14):
1 Inheritance of riches
2 A prudent wife from the Lord. She is the utter contrast to the one in v 13. She may have many causes for complaint, but she avoids them all j 2 effects of laziness (v 15):
1 Deep sleep, Heb. tardemah, unconsciousness, the kind that fell upon Adam (Gen. 2:21) and Abraham and others (Gen. 15:12; 1 Sam. 26:12; Job 4:13; 33:15; Pr. 19:15; Isa. 29:10). Here the idea is that the slothful man becomes unconscious to all interests and responsibilities in life
2 Hunger and want k In the keeping of the commandments there is life; in the rejecting of them there is death (v 16)
l To have the opportunity of lending to the Lord is a great privilege in life and yet few take advantage of it. The poor we have always and in all places so the opportunity is everywhere and at all times present. Think of it! God Himself becomes debtor for everything given to the poor! How much will you advance God on this basis? God will pay it again, for in no case has He ever failed to do so (Gal. 6:7-8; Lk. 6:38; Mt. 10:42; 16:27)
m Discipline your son before his habits are formed and sealed for life (v 18). This is not advice for cruel punishment, but against cruel kindness that destroys the child in ruin and death. It is better for him to cry now from strict punishment than for you to cry later n A man who has an irritable, fiery disposition never learns the lesson of staying out of trouble. If you pay his fine once you will be called upon to do so many times (v 19) o 2 ways of getting wisdom (v 20):
1 Hear counsel and profit by it
2 Receive instruction (discipline) and live by it Proverbs from 19:20-24:34 are addressed to MY SON (19:20, 27; 23:15, 19, 26; 24:13, 21), using the Second Person: thou (19:20; 22:24-27; 23:1, 5-8, 13-14, 19, 31, 34; 24:1, 10-12); thee (22:19-21, 27; 23:7); thy (22:18; 23:16, 22, 25; 24:10, 27, 34); thine (23:12, 15, 17-19, 33); and thyself (24:27) p The heart of the natural man has many schemes, but only those plans that are worked in harmony with the will of God will stand (v 21). Cp. notes 16:1-2 q 8 examples of plans that did not work:
1 Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:17)
2 Adam and Eve (Gen. 3:3-6)
3 Joseph's brethren (Gen. 37:19)
4 Pharaoh (Ex. 1:10)
5 Rulers of Israel (Mt. 27:63-66)
6 Saul (Acts 9:1-9)
7 Herod (Acts 12:1-3)
8 The 40 Jews (Acts 23:12-15)

unpunished; and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

(8) Two uncommon practices

10 [b]Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

(9) Two good qualities

11 [c]The discretion of a man [d]deferreth his anger; [c]and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

(10) Two contrasting effects

12 [f]The king's wrath is [g]as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

(11) Two unbearable things

13 [h]A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

(12) Two blessings of man

14 [i]House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.

(13) Two effects of laziness

15 [j]Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

(14) The ways of life and death

16 [k]He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

(15) How to lend to God

▸17 [l]He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

(16) An ancient practice

●18 [m]Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

(17) A fool's program

19 [n]A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

V Instructions and admonitions to sons (19:20-24:34). 1 MY SON: Hear counsel. Six proverbs (19:20-26). (1) The chief end of instruction ●20 [o]Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

(2) The human heart (Jer. 17)

21 [p]There are many devices in a man's heart; [q]nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

(3) Better than a liar

22 [r]The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man [s]is better than a [s]liar.

(4) Three blessings of fear

▸23 [u]The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

(5) Three common classes

24 A [v]slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Smite a [v]scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

(6) A worthless son

26 [t]He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

2 MY SON: 79 proverbs (19:27-22:16). (1) Cease to hear wrong instruction

●27 [t]Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

(2) How to detect the wicked

28 [v]An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

(3) Two prepared things

29 [v]Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAPTER 20

(4) Three great facts

WINE is a mocker, [a]strong drink is raging: [b]and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

(5) Two things of fear

2 [c]The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.

(6) True honor and dishonor

3 [d]It is an honour for a man to cease [e]from strife: but [e]every fool will be [e]meddling.

(7) Why some men beg

4 [f]The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

(8) Contrasted wells

5 [g]Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

(9) Something scarce

6 [g]Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man [g]who can find?

(10) A profitable walk

7 [h]The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.

(11) A minister for good

8 [i]A king that sitteth in the a 18 facts about the slothful; sluggards:

1 They are unteachable, careless, and indifferent (6:6-9)
2 Love excessive sleep (6:9; 19:15; 3 Irritating to others (10:26; 24:33)
4 Servants to others (12:24)
5 Too lazy to cook food (12:27)
6 Wishful thinkers (13:4; 24:34)
7 Life full of troubles (15:19)
8 Great wasters (18:9)
9 Are lazy (19:24; 24:30-34; 26:14-10 Refuse to work (20:4; 21:25) 15)
11 Make the most senseless excuses for their laziness (22:13; 26:13)
12 Are void of understanding (24:30)
13 Permit property to ruin (24:31-34; Eccl. 10:18)
14 Too lazy to move themselves (26:
15 Are conceited (26:16) 14)
16 Unfaithful to trust (Mt. 25:26)
17 Are unbelievers (Heb. 6:12)
18 Lack business ability (Rom. 12:11)
b 10 facts about scorners, p. 667
c 4 examples of reproof making wise:
1 Israel (Ex. 14:31)
2 The stubborn (Dt. 21:21)
3 The Gibeonites (Josh. 9:3)
4 Sergius Paulus (Acts 13:6-12)
d A son who wastes his father's goods by riotous living and expels his aged mother from her home is a most shameful man and incurs reproach (v 26)
e Hear nothing that is not truth
f All proverbs spoken to my son are from the Lord to Solomon g An ungodly witness mocks at judgment and his mouth swallows iniquity as it would a choice morsel (v 28)
h Mockers and fools incur penalties due them for drinking up iniquity (v 28-29)
i Wine mocks its victims and strong drink makes them wild and boisterous. Whosoever submits to its sense-destroying powers is senseless (v 1) j Strong drink was then made of grapes, dates, barley, and honey k 8 examples of intoxication:
1 Noah (Gen. 9:20-21)
2 Lot (Gen. 19:30-38)
3 Nabal (1 Sam. 25:36)

a Question 16, Next, v 24
b No man can ever say that he has made his own heart clean or that he has purified himself of his sins. No man can say that he is pure unless he is cleansed by the blood of Christ. After that he can say that his heart is clean and that he is purified from sin (Mt. 5:8; Jn. 15:3; Rom. 6:1-23; 8:1-13; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Gal. 5:16-26; Eph. 4:24; Tit. 2:11-14; Heb. 1:3; 9:9-26; 10:1-18; 12:14; 1 Pet. 1:18-23; 2 Pet. 1:1-10; 1 Jn. 1:7, 9; 2:29; 3:5-10; 5:1-4, 18; Rev. 1:5)
Even O. T. saints were cleansed, purified from sin, and fully redeemed from sin by faith in the coming Redeemer (Ps. 32:1-5; 51:1-12; Isa. 1:18; 6:7; Rom. 4) c The Heb. reads, a stone and a stone, an ephah and an ephah. One was the standard weight and measure, and the other below it; one to buy with and the other to sell by. These are an abomination to God. He wants standard weights and measures for all transactions (v 10, 23; 11:1; 16:11; Dt. 25:13)

(12) A big question

9 [c]Who can say, [b]I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

(13) Two abominable things

10 [c]Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike [d]abomination [e]to the LORD.

(14) Common knowledge

11 [f]Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

(15) Two created things

(31) The true ruler of man

THE king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as [a]the rivers of water: [b]he turneth it whithersoever he will.

(32) Something to consider

2 [c]Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD [d]pondereth the hearts.

(33) Better than sacrifices

3 [e]To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

(34) Three common sins

4 [f]An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is [g]sin.

(35) Seven ways of man

5 [h]The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

6 [i]The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 [j]The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

9 It is [l]better to dwell in [m]a corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

(37) Six common classes

10 [n]The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 [o]When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and [p]when the wise is instruct-a It becomes a snare for a man to take that which belongs to God and use it for self, or to make rash vows without knowing whether they are right or wrong (v 25)

b A wise king lifts the wicked by threshing them as one would grain on the threshing-floor to bring out that which is good in them (v 26). In Palestine grain was threshed by the oxen walking among the sheaves and bringing a rough-shod wheel over them. The chaff was scattered by the winds and the wheat brought into the garner. This passage refers to the king scattering the wicked and separating them from the good so that his kingdom can continue in righteousness c God uses the spirit of man as a light to search out the inward parts and determine what is good or bad (v 27). The spirit is that which knows, the mind, the seat of the will, and conscience. It is by searching man that God brings to light what is in him (Ps. 139:23; Jer. 17:10; Rom. 8:27; 1 Cor. 2:10; Rev. 2:23) d When a king is merciful and truthful his subjects have confidence in him and they uphold him as their leader (v 28) e The glory of young men is their strength, hence they delight in showing their physical exploits in public games and exercises (v 29). Very few seek to excel in knowledge and wisdom. The beauty of old men is the grey head (v 29). They no longer make public show of strength, but excell in wisdom and counsel
f As the lips of a wound when brought together produce healing, and the dead flesh and germs are purged, so stripes cleanse the inward moral evil and vice from the heart of a child (v 30). When children are thus chastened and corrected their conscience and life are purged of further disobedience

1 Saul (1 Sam. 13:10-13; 15:22)
2 Israel (Jer. 7:22-23; Amos 5:21-24)
3 Judah (Isa. 1:11-17)
4 Pharisees (Mt. 9:13)

n 3 common sinful things (v 4):
1 An high look. Cp. 6:17; Ps. 101:5
2 A proud heart. Cp. Ps. 101:5
3 Tilling (works) of the wicked

o Heb. chata, sin offering. One rendering is, "A lofty look and a proud heart, which is the tillage of the lawless, is more acceptable to them than a sin-offering" p The counsels, reckonings, and calculatings of the diligent increase his abundance; but he who is hasty, impatient, and restless in his pursuit of gain will not succeed (v 5)

q He who gets rich by a lying tongue reaps vanity and is ensnared by death (v 6)

e 12th and last prophecy in Pr. (21:16). The man once enlightened and in the way of righteousness who goes astray will incur the death penalty (the second death); and then remain with the congregation of the Rephaim (v 16). The Heb. for dead in this verse is Rephaim, one of the names of the giant races who are never to be resurrected (Isa. 26:14, note). These giants will never be restored to divine favor. The backslider who dies in his sins will also remain in disfavor with God and be among the Rephaim. One must meet certain conditions and remain in the way of righteousness to be saved (Ex. 32:32–33; Lev. 26; Dt. 28; 1 Ki. 2:3–4; Ezek. 3:18–21; 18:4–34; 33:11–20; Mt. 6:24; Jn. 8:32–36; 15:1–8; Rom. 1:18–32; 8:16–23; 8:1–13; 11:14–32; 1 Cor. 3:16–17; 6:9–11; 9:27; 2 Cor. 11:3–4; Gal. 1:6–9; 5:4, 16–26; 6:7–8; Col. 1:23; 2:6–7; 1 Th. 3:8; 1 Tim. 1:19; 4:1–8; 5:11–16; 6:19–21; 2 Tim. 2:12–18; 4:10; Heb. 3:6, 11–14; 4:1–11; 6:4–12; 10:26–38; 12:14–15; Jas. 5:19–20; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13; 2 Pet. 1:3–10; 3:17–18; 1 Jn. 2:24; 2 Jn. 9–10; Rev. 3:5; 22:18–19). This is the meaning of this verse. It also teaches that the Rephaim are in a state of conscious existence. Some old versions read, "The man that errs from the way of doctrine, in fellowship of giants shall remain"

f The man who loves pleasure and drunkenness, following them when he should be providing for himself shall be a poor man (v 17)

g This refers to perfumes. Pleasure, wine, and perfumes are listed here as symbols of social festivity (v 17). Cp. 27:9; Ps. 104:15; Amos 6:6

h The wicked shall be cut off by God's judgments in order to preserve the righteous (v 18). Cp. Gen. 6–8; Ex. 7–12; Isa. 43:3

i It is better to be alone in the world than to dwell with a contentious and an angry woman (v 19). Cp. v 9; 19:13; 25:24

1 The infidel or scoffer (v 24). He is arrogant, proud, haughty, and conceited
2 The slothful (v 26). See note a, 19:24. He desires to eat, drink, and be clothed, but he refuses to work. He covets greedily all day long. Hence, he lives and dies with his desires unsatisfied, envying those who possess plenty through hard labor
3 The righteous (v 26). He gives and does not hold back from doing good
4 The wicked (v 27, 29). His sacrifice is an abomination to God; how much more is it abominable for him to offer to God with evil intent. Cp. Ps. 26:10; 119:150
5 The liar (v 26)

b Question 18. Next, 22:20–21. If the bringing of sacrifices which God requires is an abomination when offered by the wicked, how much more abominable are the sacrifices he offers with evil intent or those he gets through sin. Any sacrifice stolen or obtained through sin or breaking the commandments is not acceptable with God. Sacrifices offered to God must be the proper kind, obtained through lawful means, and offered with the right motives by the right persons and for the right person

g A horse is a vain thing for safety compared to the Lord (v 31; Ps. 33:17). Horses were not used among the Jews until Solomon (1 Ki. 10:29). There was a command against them, lest Israel trust in them for safety (Dt. 17:16). Asiatics first used the horse for war (Ex. 14:9–28; 1 Sam. 13:5; Jer. 8:6); oxen for ploughing and for the cart (Num. 7:3–88; 1 Sam. 11:7; 14:14); the ass and camel for loads (Gen. 24:10–63; 44:13; 1 Chr. 12:40); and mules and horses for riding (Ex. 15:1; Est. 8:10, 14; Ezek. 27:14). Later, camels, asses, mules, and horses were used interchangeably for riding and for loads

t Get rid of the mocker and contention, strife, and reproach will cease (v 10)

u Reward for heart purity (v 11)

v God guards the one who has knowledge; and He judges the traitor (v 12)

w 4 examples of overthrowing traitors
1 Ahithophel (2 Sam. 17:14)
2 Noadiah (Neh. 6:14–16)
3 Ezra's opponents (Ezra 3:3, 13)
4 The Sanhedrin (Acts 5:34)

a Heb. bagad, traitor: one who deals treacherously; a deceiver (v 12; 2:22; 11:3, 6; 13:2, 15; 21:18; 23:28; Ps. 59:5; 119:158)
b See 18 facts about the slothful, note a, 19:24 c The lazy person makes the most senseless excuses for laziness. Here he says that a lion has taken over the city and he must stay inside or be killed (v 13; 26:13)
d The seductive language of a whore or an apostate woman is as a deep pit which men fall into (v 14). In 23:27 it is like a deep ditch and a narrow pit. Cp. 2:16; 5:3; 6:24; 7:5; 23:27. See note j, 2:16 e Heb. ivveleth, evil, silliness; perverseness; careless of body and soul. See col. 1, p. 444. Silliness and perverseness are born in every child, but the rod of correction is the remedy (v 15). It is necessary to drive such from a child, hence he that spareth the rod hateth his son (13:24; 19:18; 23:13–14)
f 2 great evils that affect life:
1 Oppression of the poor to increase personal riches (v 16; Jas. 2:6; 5:1–6)
2 Giving to the rich great gifts to obtain personal favors (v 16; note v, 18:16). Both classes guilty of these evils will come to want because the poor are robbed in either case. While in the first, the poor are oppressed, in the second, the gifts given to the rich to secure favor should be given to the poor that they might be supplied g In v 17–21 there are no proverbs, but directions on how to profit by that which wisdom has already delivered, the nature of the instructions given, and purpose for which they were written:
1 3fold command how to profit:
(1) Bow down your ears (v 17)
(2) Hear the words of the wise
(3) Apply your heart to knowledge
2 4fold purpose of these commands
(1) That one may receive personal pleasure and profit to the soul (v 18)
(2) That one may get experimental knowledge and be equipped to speak of wisdom to others (v 18, 21)
(3) That one may learn to trust in the Lord (v 19)
(4) That one may know the absolute certainty of truth (v 21)
3 5fold nature of the message:
(1) The words of the wise (v 17)
(2) Knowledge (v 17, 20)
(3) Pleasant things (v 18)
(4) Excellent things in counsels and knowledge (v 20)
(5) The words of truth (v 21)
h Solomon was wiser than Ethan, Heman, Chalcol, Darda, and others (1 Ki. 4:31)
i This is the secret and condition of blessing (v 18; Jn. 15:7)
j One will be qualified to speak of the words of wisdom to others (v 18, 21)
k Question 19, Next, v 27
l Heb. shalishim, threefold or three, and could refer to the three writings of Solomon—Canticles (Song of Solomon), Ecclesiastes, Proverbs. Whatever the 3fold writing was it consisted of counsels and knowledge and the words of truth (v 20–21). The certainty of the words of truth is one of the most proved things (2 Tim. 3:16; Jn. 5:39) m Do not oppress the poor because they are poor, but let them have a just hearing in judgment held in the gates (v 22). Eastern courts were often held in the gates of the cities (Job 5:4; 31:21; Ps. 127:5; Jer. 38:7) n The Lord will deal with all who oppress the poor (v 23)
o Do not fellowship a man of anger and fury, lest you learn his ways and be snared in your own soul (v 24–25). From those we are intimately associated with we acquire habits, and imbibe their spirit, we unconsciously imitate them in various ways, so we cannot be too careful of the company we keep if we want to go in the way of right p Do not be quick to strike hands (quick to make contracts and give promises), or to be surety for the debts of others. If you have nothing to pay why lose the necessities of life by pledging them as security? (v 26–27; 11:15; 17:18; 20:16)
q Question 20, Next, v 29
r Hold the proper landmarks as sacred and do not seek to enlarge your own property by moving them further into your neighbors field (v 28). The law forbad moving boundaries (Dt. 19:14; 27:17. Cp. Job 24:2; Hos. 5:10; Pr. 23:10–11) throweth the words of [e]the transgressor.

(63) The lazy man

13 The [b]slothful man [c]saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

(64) The pit for fools

14 [d]The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

(65) A remedy for foolishness

15 [e]Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

(66) Two causes of want

16 [f]He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

3 MY SON (19:27): 25 commands (22:17–23:14). (1) Three commands: two reasons

●17 [g]Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the [h]wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

18 For it is a pleasant thing [i]if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be [j]fitted in thy lips.

19 That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.

(2) I have written: two reasons

20 [k]Have not I written to thee [l]excellent things in counsels and knowledge, 21 That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

(3) Two commands: two reasons

●22 [m]Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

23 [n]For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

(4) Two commands: two reasons

●24 [o]Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go:

25 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

(5) Two commands: reason

●26 [p]Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nothing to pay, [q]why should he take away thy bed from under thee?

(6) One command

●28 [r]Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.

(7) Two blessings of diligence

29 [s]Seest thou a man diligent in his business? [t]he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before [u]mean men.

CHAPTER 23

(8) Five commands: four reasons

●WHEN [a]thou sittest to eat with a ruler, [b]consider diligently what is before thee:

●2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man [c]given to appetite.

●3 Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.

●4 [d]Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom.

5 [e]Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

(9) Two commands: four reasons

●6 [f]Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

7 [g]For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

8 [h]The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

(10) Six commands: six reasons

●9 Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

●10 Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11 For their [m]redeemer [n]is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

●12 [o]Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

●13 Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from [p]hell.

4 MY SON: (1) How to make parents happy

15 My son, [q]if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

16 Yea, my [r]reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

(2) Two commands: two reasons

●17 [s]Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18 [t]For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

5 MY SON: (1) Four commands: four reasons

●19 [u]Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in

a Question 21, Next, 23:5
b A man diligent in business shall be honored by kings and respected by his subjects (v 29). Speedy execution of a king's command is a virtue that he appreciates. Kings search for the most diligent and capable business men of their realm to place over certain affairs of the kingdom c Heb. chashok, men of no repute. Obscure persons of the kingdom will respect the men who stand before the king d When you are invited to eat with the upper class, eat moderately not appearing to have been starved at home (v 1–3)
e All of v 1–24 is written in the second person
f 5 commands to sons:
1 Consider who I before you and act accordingly, when it is the ruler your blessing is that of honor instead of feasting (v 1)
2 Put a knife to your throat - do not be a glutton - subdue your own appetite and thus make a favorable impression (v 2)
3 Do not lust after the king's delicacies or appear as if you are not accustomed to such food (v 3)
4 Labor not to be rich, for riches take wings and fly away (v 4–5). Concentrate on eternal things
5 Cease from your own wisdom, that is, the kind which makes riches the chief end in life (v 4–5) g 5 examples of men given to appetites:
1 Esau (Gen. 25:30)
2 Isaac (Gen. 25:28; 27:4)
3 Nabal (1 Sam. 25:36)
4 Belshazzar (Dan. 5)
5 False teachers (Phil. 3:18–19)
h 3 examples of laboring for riches:
1 Lot (Gen. 13:10)
2 The rich fool (Lk. 12:16–20)
3 Rich men (1 Tim. 6:9–10; Jas. 5:1–6)
2 things not to labor for:
1 To be rich only (v 4) 27)
2 To have temperal food only (Jn. 6:
8 things to labor for:
1 Eternal food (Jn. 6:27)
2 To help the poor (Eph. 4:28)
3 To win lost souls (Phil. 2:16)
4 To support the weak (Acts 20:35)
5 To perfect the saints (Col. 4:12; Eph. 4:11–14; Gal. 4:11; 1 Th. 5:12)
6 Not to burden others (1 Th. 2:9)
7 To enter eternal rest (Heb. 4:1)
8 To be accepted of God (2 Cor. 5:9)
i Question 22, Next, v 29. Do not make anything temporary an object in life j Do not accept invitations to eat with a stingy man, for if he entertains you at his own expense he will begrudge every morsel you eat (v 6–8) k The stingy man says to eat and drink, but he does not mean it from the heart (v 7). On reflection you will see that you were not welcome and you will regret your acceptance of his invitation (v 8) l 6 commands to sons:
1 Do not carry on a conversation with a fool who will despise your words (v 9)
2 Remove not the old landmarks (v 10; note r, 22:28)
3 Enter not into the fields of orphans to rob them (v 10–11)
4 Apply your heart to wisdom (v 12)
5 Give ear to knowledge (v 12)
6 Do not hesitate to correct a child, even if you have to use a rod. You will not kill him, but you will save his soul from hell (v 13–14)
m This refers to kinsman redemption, not to God as the Redeemer of the soul (Lev. 25:25–54; Num. 27:1–11; 36:1–13; Jer. 32:1–25; Ruth 3:9–4:13) n The kinsman redeemer had power to avenge the fatherless and marry the widow to preserve the family (Dt. 25:5–10)
o See note on 23:26
p Heb. sheol, the unseen world of departed spirits, not the grave. See Hell, p. 620; notes, Lk. 12:5; 16:19–31 q A wise son is a pleasure to parents (v 15–16; 3:12; 10:1; 15:20; 23:24–25; 29:3). Cp. 17:21, 25; 19:13, 26; 20:20; 28:7, 24; 30:11, 17 referring to fools making parents unhappy r The same as the heart or innermost soul of v 12, 15, 17, 19, 26, 33
s Do not envy sinners in your heart, but fear the Lord all day long (v 17–18)
t There is another life, and your expectation of immortality shall not be cut off (1 Pet. 3:4, note) u See 4 commands to sons, p. 667

a 4 commands to sons:
1 Hearken - see note u, v 19
2 Despise not your parents (v 22)
3 Buy the truth, wisdom, instruction, and understanding (v 23)
4 Sell not the truth, wisdom, instruction, and understanding (v 23)

b This is the 5th commandment in another form. Cp. Ex. 20:12; Dt. 5:16; Eph. 6:1-2.
12 things not to despise:
1 Old mother (23:22)
2 Chastening of the Lord (3:11; Job 5:17; Heb. 12:5)
3 A hungry thief (6:30; Dt. 23:24-25)
4 The Word (13:13)
5 Neighbors (14:21)
6 Parental instruction (15:32; 30:17)
7 Children and believers (Mt. 18:10)
8 Weak Christians (Rom. 14:3)
9 Prophecies (1 Th. 5:20)
10 Youth (1 Tim. 4:12)
11 Masters (1 Tim. 6:2)
12 Ministers (Tit. 2:15)

c This means to acquire the truth by all rightful means, and then cleave to it, guard it, and defend it even to the risk of your life (v 23). Cp. 4:5, 7; 16:16

d See note q, 23:16

e 23 characteristics of a wise son:
1 Hears and obeys parents (1:5; 23:24)
2 Increases knowledge (1:5; 12:15)
3 Profits by examples (6:6)
4 Profits by rebukes (9:8; 15:31)
5 Increases wisdom (9:9)
6 Is diligent in business (10:5)
7 Welcomes commandments (10:8)
8 Lays up knowledge (10:14)
9 Controls lips, tongue (10:10; 17:28)
10 Rules well (11:29)
11 Is a success in soul-winning (11:30)
12 Loves company of wise men (13:20)
13 Builds for the future (14:1)
14 Departs from evil (14:16)
15 Utters knowledge rightly (15:2, 7)
16 Makes parents happy (note q, 23:15)
17 Seeks knowledge (18:15)
18 Lives in soberness (20:1)
19 Solves problems of men (21:22)
20 Increases strength (24:5)
21 Keeps the law (28:7)
22 Turns away from contention (29:8)
23 Controls self in strife (29:11)

f This is wisdom personified again, as in note g, 1:24. She wants the whole heart and the eyes wholly on her ways (v 26)

g 18 commands concerning the heart:
1 Apply the heart to understanding (2:2; 22:17; 23:12)
2 Open the heart to wisdom (2:10)
3 Keep the commandments (3:1; 4:4, 21)
4 Write commandments on it (3:3; 7:3)
5 Trust in the Lord with it (3:5)
6 Keep it with all diligence (4:23)
7 Bind commandments upon it (6:21)
8 Do not lust in it (6:25)
9 Do not be inclined to sin (7:25)
10 Have an understanding heart (8:5)
11 Be wise in it (11:29; 16:21; 12:23)
12 Retain wisdom in it (14:33)
13 Be merry in heart (15:13, 15)
14 Study answers with it (15:28)
15 Increase its knowledge (18:15)
16 Apply it to instruction (23:12)
17 Do not use it to envy sinners (23:17)
18 Give heart to wisdom (23:26)

h In these verses (27-28) we have the reasons why sons should be devoted to wisdom and not to whores

i Heb. nakar, foreign woman, not of Abraham's seed (Gen. 17:12). She is like a deep ditch and a narrow pit that destroys the souls of men (v 27-28). Cp. note d, 22:14. Women and strong drink (v 29-30) cause millions to be destroyed

j Questions 23-28. Next, v 35
6 curses of drunkards (v 29):
1 Woes — 4 Babblings
2 Sorrows — 5 Wounds
3 Contentions — 6 Redness of eyes

k Heb. yayin, what is pressed out; the juice of grapes, mulberries, dates, figs, etc. Used 142 times of every kind of wine, both fermented and unfermented; usually of fermented wines (Gen. 9:21; 1 Sam. 25:36-47; Isa. 28:1; Jer. 23:9). Used of mixed wine (v 30). Cp. 9:2, 5; 20:1; 23:30-31; 31:4, 6

l Heb. mimsak, mixed or spiced wine (v 30; Isa. 65:11) m Implying that yayin (note k, above) was not always intoxicating. It is forbidden here when it turns red, bubbles, the way.

●20 Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:
21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

(2) Four commands

●22 [a]Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and [b]despise not thy mother when she is old.
●23 [c]Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

(3) How to make parents happy

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and [d]he that begetteth a [e]wise child shall have joy of him.
25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

6 MY SON: (1) Two commands: reason

●26 My son, [f]give me [g]thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.
27 [h]For a whore is a deep ditch; and a [i]strange woman is a narrow pit.
28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

(2) Seven great questions: answers

29 [j]Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?
30 They that tarry long at the [k]wine; they that go to seek [l]mixed wine.

(3) Command against wine: tenfold reason

●31 [m]Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.
32 [n]At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.
33 Thine eyes shall behold [o]strange women, [p]and thine heart shall utter perverse things.
34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.
35 [q]They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

CHAPTER 24

(4) Two commands: two reasons

[r]BE not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.
2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

(5) Eightfold blessing of wisdom and knowledge

3 [s]Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:
4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.
5 [a]A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.
6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

(6) Fivefold description of a fool

7 [b]Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.
8 [c]He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.
9 [d]The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

(7) Three things sons must not do

10 [e]If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.
11 [f]If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;
12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; [g]doth not [h]he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

7 MY SON: (1) Two commands: two reasons

●13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste:
14 [i]So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and [j]thy expectation shall not be cut off.

(2) Two commands: two reasons

15 [k]Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:
16 For [l]a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

(3) Two commands: two reasons

●17 [m]Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:
18 [n]Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

(4) Two commands: two reasons

●19 [o]Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;
20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; [p]the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

8 MY SON: (1) Two coma Wisdom is stronger than physical strength (v 5-6), for with it a man can invent labor saving devices that will do the work of thousands

b A fool will never attain to wisdom, so he will never be chosen as a judge to sit in the gate where court is held (v 7)

c He that plans evil will be called a genius of plots (v 8)

d The plan or device of the fool or evil man is sin; and the scoffer is an abomination to men (v 9). The Heb. word for foolishness is evveleth, to be perverse: silliness: folly (v 9; 12:23; 14:24; 15:2, 14; 19:3; 22:15; 24:9; 27:22; Ps. 38:5; 69:5). This kind of foolishness makes one corrupt (Ps. 38:5) and perverse (Pr. 19:3), so it is not the playfulness and humor associated with clean fun and pleasure that is referred to. Many live self-condemned over legitimate playfulness that has nothing to do with the sin in question

e If we fail in time of discouragement and trial, it is proof of our weakness (v 10) 4 examples of failure in adversity:
1 Jacob (Gen. 42:36)
2 David (1 Sam. 27)
3 Elijah (1 Ki. 19:3-4)
4 Jonah (Jonah 4)

f If you fail to deliver the innocent from punishment and death you are guilty of blood (v 11). If you pretend not to know about the innocent being destroyed you will be judged (v 12)

g Questions 30-32. Next, v 22

h 3 works of God (v 12):
1 Searches the heart - considers all of its thoughts and intents (Ps. 7:9; Jer. 11:20; 17:10; Rev. 2:23)
2 Keeps the soul (Ps. 23:1-6; 91:1-12; 121:3-5; 1 Pet. 1:5; 4:19)
3 Judges works of man (Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10; Mt. 16:27)

i Knowledge and wisdom to the soul are like honey and the honeycomb to the mouth (v 13-14)

j The reward and hope of eternal life will not be cut off (v 14; note t, 23:18)

k Do not seek to overthrow the righteous for God will enable him to stand. You will fall into your own trap (v 15-16; Rom. 14:4)

l Not one word is said of sin, hence this is no excuse for a man to backslide repeatedly. That is forbidden (Rom. 6:1-23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:16-26; Col. 3:5-10; 2 Pet. 1:4-10)

m Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, lest the Lord permit the same calamity to befall you (v 17-18) n 3 examples of rejoicing over others:

1 Tyre (Ezek. 26:2-6)
2 Ammon (Ezek. 25:6)
3 Edom (Obadiah 11-14)
2 examples of mourning:
1 David (2 Sam. 1:11-12; Ps. 35:13-14)
2 Jeremiah (Jer. 9:1)

o Do not fret because of wicked men, neither envy them in their prosperity for it is only temporary and their punishment will be eternal (v 19-20; Ps. 9:17; 37:1-2; 73:3-12; Rev. 20:10-15) p This is an idiom referring to having no posterity to carry on the family name

o Heb. zar, apostate (note j, 2:16). Not the same word as in 23:27 p 16 characteristics of a wicked heart:

1 It despises reproof (5:12)
2 Is perverse; devises continual mischief, and sows discord (6:14)
3 Devises wicked imaginations (6:18)
4 Lusts after beautiful women (6:25)
5 Is full of subtilty (7:10)
6 Full of deceit (12:20)
7 Proclaims foolishness (12:23)
8 Is proud and abominable (16:5; 21:4; 28:25)
9 Haughty (18:12)
10 Fault-finding with God (19:3)
11 Perverse in talk (23:33)
12 Studies how to destroy others (24:2)
13 Is glad when others stumble (24:17)
14 Full of abominations (26:25)
15 Has increased hardening against God (28:14) 16 Trusts in self (28:26)

q Question 29. Next, 24:12

r Have no companionship with evil men and do not envy them (v 1-2)

s A household can only be built and maintained through wisdom, knowledge, and mutual understanding (v 3-4)

mands: two reasons

●21 My son,[a]fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change:

22[b]For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and [c]who knoweth the ruin of them both?

(2) Fivefold advice

23[d]These things also belong to the wise. [e]It is[f]not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24[g]He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25[h]But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

26[i]Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.

(3) Six commands

●27[j]Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

●28[k]Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

●29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.

(4) The lazy man

30[l]I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

CHAPTER 25

VI Fifty-one proverbs (25:1-26:28). 1 The author

[m]THESE are also proverbs of Sŏl'o-mon, which the[n]men of Hĕz-e-ki'ah king of Jū'dah copied out.

2 God and kings contrasted

2[o]It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

3 Three unsearchable things

3[p]The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

4 A good comparison

4[q]Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

5 Law of humility

●6[r]Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7[s]For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

6 Good advice to neighbors

●8[t]Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

●9[u]Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and discover not a secret to another:

10[v]Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

7 A beautiful picture

11[w]A word[x]fitly spoken is[y]like apples of gold in [z]pictures of silver.

8 The blessing of reproof

12 As an[a]earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.

9 Effect of good news

13 As the[b]cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

10 A big disappointment

14[c]Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

11 Two acts of wisdom

15 By long forbearing is[d]a prince persuaded, and a[e]soft tongue breaketh the bone.

12 Sound advice

●16[f]Hast thou found honey? [g]eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

13 How to retain friends

●17[h]Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

14 Three symbols of a liar

18[i]A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

15 Misplaced confidence

19[j]Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

16 Wrong way to comfort

20[k]As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

17 Law of retaliation

●21[l]If thine enemy be hungry, a Give to God divine honor and worship, and to the king civil respect and political obedience. Have nothing to do with anarchists who are always given to change in government and religion (v 21). Anarchy is the most dangerous spirit that can get hold of men (Pr. 17:11; 2 Pet. 2:10)

b Calamity will come both to those who rebel against the king and those who rebel against God (v 22)

c Question 33. Next, 25:16

d This section (v 23-24) appears to be from another collection of sayings from Solomon and completes the whole section of 10:1-24:34. A new section begins in 25:1

e 10 other things for the wise:
1 Have no respect of persons (v 23)
2 Do not call the wicked righteous (v 24)
3 Rebuke the wicked (v 25)
4 Give right answers (v 26)
5 Make plans for your work (v 27)
6 Build after plans are complete (v 27)
7 Do not witness against a neighbor without a cause (v 28)
8 Do not deceive with the lips (v 28)
9 Do not repay evil for evil (v 29)
10 Profit by observing lazy men (v 30-34)

f See 8 reasons why respect of persons not good, p. 667

g He that justifies the wicked and condemns the just will be cursed by the people (v 24)

h He that metes out justice to the wicked shall be blessed of men instead of being cursed (v 25. Cp. v 24)

i This is an idiom which means doing homage to the man that is wise enough to give right answers (v 26)

j Prepare or plan the outside work. Make or repair your tools in winter so as to be ready to work in the fields in the spring. After this, continue to build and establish your house (v 27)

k Do not take up any cause against your neighbor unless it is necessary. Never do it through prejudice or revenge (v 28-29)

l The lazy man (v 30-34):
1 His personal description (v 30). He is slothful and ignorant, and without courage or mental powers to make proper decisions about work and to carry them out
2 His circumstances (v 30-31). He has a vineyard and a farm capable of producing his own food and prospering him
3 The condition of his farm (v 31). It is grown over with thorns and nettles and the fences are broken down. The whole place is in a ruined state through long neglect
4 The cause (v 30, 33). He is too lazy to prune the vineyard; clean up, plow, and plant his field; or to repair the fences and the residence. He spends his time in sleep and neglect of essential duties (v 33)
5 The result (v 34). Absolute poverty as one who travels and has spent his last money, and as one who becomes impoverished through warfare (v 34)
6 The lesson learned (v 32, 34). To follow the example of the slothful is to come to the same end. See note a, 19:24 m Here we have another section of proverbs by Solomon copied by men under king Hezekiah (25:1-29:27). The word also here makes it clear that the preceding proverbs are Solomon's n The men of Hezekiah were perhaps Isaiah, Shebna, and others (Isa. 1:1; 22:15; 36:3; 37:2; 2 Ki. 18:18; 19:2). These were no doubt employed by Hezekiah in the work of editing the O. T. books, about 275 years after Solomon. There is some evidence that Isaiah was the editor-in-chief of this work. See notes, 2 Chr. 32:32. At the end of the books are Heb. letters: Cheth - H, Zain - Z, and Koph - K, which are the consonants of Hezekiah, and the sign used to identify work done under his supervision. The letters are found in all MSS, and printed editions up to the end of 2 Kings

o It is God's glory not to expose the acts of man, but kings get glory from exposing them (v 2). This verse has no reference to God making His revelation a mystery, for then it would not be a revelation. There are no mysteries in Scripture. The secret things of Dt. 29:29 are those which God has not revealed: but those things which are revealed belong to man and he should know them. God, to be just, cannot judge man for not knowing something that He Himself has hidden from him

p The average subjects of a king can no more understand all the workings of the heart of their king than they can understand the height of heaven and the depth of the earth (v 3)

q Men cannot have pure metal until the dross is taken out; and no nation can have a king that is blameless until the wicked counsellors are banished from the court and the throne is established in righteousness (v 4-5) a Do not be haughty or too bold in the presence of kings and their nobles (v 6-7. See Lk. 18:9-14). It is better that great men exalt you, instead of humbling you. Cp. Lk. 14:7-14

b See 17 "better" things, p. 666

c 6 examples of going forth to strive:
1 Gaal (Judg. 9:26-40)
2 The ten tribes (Josh. 22:12-34)
3 Abner (2 Sam. 2:14-17)
4 Asahel (2 Sam. 2:18-23)
5 Amaziah (2 Ki. 14:8-14)
6 Josiah (2 Chr. 35:20-24)

d Settle your differences with your neighbor out of court, if at all possible; and do not betray to another his secrets that may have been earlier entrusted to you. The one who bears you betray your neighbor will rebuke and put you to shame. You will always have a reputation of being a man not to be trusted (v 9-10)

e Lest you lose your case and men upbraid you (v 10). Even just causes are many times lost due to prejudices and wrong influences upon the judge and jury, or to some minor technicality of law

6 things necessary to win a case:
1 A good cause
2 A good purse
3 Good evidence
4 A skillful attorney
5 An upright judge
6 An intelligent jury

f See 5 kinds of words, p. 667

g Timely or appropriately spoken

h Heb. tappuach, a fruit of the pome order, as the apple, pear, quince, orange, pomegranate, etc. (v 11; Cant. 2:3, 5; 7:8; 8:5; Joel 1:12). All these varieties were grown in Palestine and any one of them on a background of carved silver work or in a filigree basket of silver would be beautiful

i Heb. maskith, used 5 times. Trans. pictures (v 11; Num. 33:52); could wish (Ps. 73:7); conceit (Pr. 18:11); and imagery (Ezek. 8:12)

j Heb. nezem, a ring for the ear or nose (v 12; Gen. 24:22, 30, 47; 35:4; Ex. 32:2-3; 35:22; Judg. 8:24-26; Job 42:11; Hos. 2:13)

k Snow was frequent in Judea and in places snow houses were dug in the ground to lay up snow for summer use l Here we have a boaster bragging on his liberality or pretended gift which he never gives. He promises much and gives nothing (v 14. Cp. 2 Pet. 2:17; Jude 12) m Heb. qatsin, a decider, judge, magistrate; one who decides matters (v 15; Dan. 11:18; Mic. 3:1, 9). Not the word for prince in 14:28; 17:7; 19:6; 25:7

n A soft tongue subdues the most obstinate resistence, or turns away wrath (v 15; 15:1)

o Question 34. Next, 26:12

p This teaches moderation in all things of life - in food, work, enjoyments, etc.

q Too much familiarity breeds contempt

r A liar is like a maul (large wooden hammer or war-club, Nah. 2:2; Jer. 51:20; Ezek. 9:2), a sword, and a sharp arrow - all weapons of destruction (v 18). See other comparisons of a sharp tongue (Ps. 52:4; 57:5; 64:4; 120:4). See also other rebukes of false testimony (Pr. 6:19; 12:17; 19:5, 9; 21:28)

s A treacherous man is like a broken tooth and a foot out of joint (v 19)

t As he that lays aside warm clothing in cold weather, caring more for appearance than health; and as vinegar poured upon carbonate of soda produces immediate strong fermentation, so singing to a heavy heart is senseless (v 20). Carbonate of soda was known to the ancients as nitre u Quoted in Rom. 12:20, which see 2 examples of good for evil:

1 Azariah (2 Chr. 28:12-15)
2 Elisha (2 Ki. 6:19-23)

give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt[c] heap coals of fire upon his head,[b] and the LORD shall reward thee.

18 How to deal with backbiting

23 [c]The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

19 Another better thing

24 [d]It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

20 Effect of good news

25 [f]As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is [g]good news from a far country.

21 A corrupt practice

26 [h]A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

22 Two things not good

27 [i]It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory.

23 Two kinds of ruins

28 [j]He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

CHAPTER 26

24 Three uncommon things

[k]AS snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool.

25 Unfounded curses are harmless

2 [l]As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.

26 Three suitable things

3 [a]A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

27 How to answer fools

●4 [c]Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

●5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

28 A foolish practice

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.

29 Fools and parables

7 The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

30 Honor useless to fools

8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

31 Fools and parables

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

32 God rewards fools and sinners

10 The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

33 Two similar practices

11 As a dog[a] returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

34 Wise men and fools

12 [b]Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

35 Four traits of lazy men

13 [c]The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

36 A bad practice

17 [d]He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

37 Two kinds of mad men

18 [e]As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death,

19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, [f]Am not I in sport?

38 Two kinds of fire

20 [g]Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.

21 [h]As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

39 Effect of talebearing

22 [i]The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

40 A picture of hypocrisy

23 [j]Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

41 Five sins of a hater

24 [k]He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

42 Law of retribution

27 [l]Whoso diggeth a pit shall

a This means to pile up or do one good deed after another for an enemy so as to give him a burning sense of shame for rewarding you evil for good; and to make him feel deep pangs of repentance so that he will make peace and be kind himself (Rom. 12:19-21). A deep true shame is among the first elements of true repentance (2 Cor. 2:7; 7:8-12)

b If one will return good for evil, the Lord will reward (v 2; Mt. 10:42)

c The Arabic version reads, south wind. This harmonizes with Jesus in Lk. 12:55. Regardless of which wind referred to it scatters the clouds and drives away rain. So doth a show of an angry countenance cause the backbiting tongue to cease (v 23) d It is better to dwell in a shed on the flat roof, than with a wrangling woman in a spacious apartment (v 24; 21:9). Cp. 19:13; 27:15

e See 17 "better" things, p. 666

f Good news from home when one is away from home is as refreshing as cool water to a thirsty soul (v 25)

g 3 examples - good news from afar:
1 Jacob (Gen. 45:25-28)
2 Jesus Christ (Mt. 3:16-17; 17:5)
3 Paul (Col. 1:3-4; Eph. 1:15; Phil. 1)

h A righteous man falling down before the wicked is like a corrupt and poisonous spring of water (v 26)

i Like eating too much honey is not good, so is the seeking of one's own glory not good (v 27. Cp. 27:2)

j He that cannot bridle his passions and emotions is like a ruined city without walls (v 28)

k Snow in summer and rain in harvest are as rare as honor to a fool (v 1). According to Jerome rain is an unheard of thing during harvest time in Palestine. See 1 Sam. 12:17 where a thunderstorm appears as a miracle from God. In ordinary years no rain falls at all from the end of the spring showers to October or November l As the sparrow flies around the house, and the swallow emigrates to strange countries, so an undeserved curse being pronounced may flutter about the neighborhood for a season and then disappear (v 2). The curse uttered against an innocent person will have no effect. It will return to those who uttered it m 3 examples of falling curses:

1 Balaam's on Israel (Neh. 13:2)
2 Goliath's on David (1 Sam. 17:43)
3 Shimei's on David (2 Sam. 16:5, 12)

n 10 proverbs about fools (v 3-12):
1 A rod on the back of fools is as suitable as a whip for a horse or a bridle for an ass (v 3)
2 Do not answer a fool like a fool, lest you be considered one (v 4)
3 Answer a fool wisely to confute his folly and expose his senselessness, lest he be wise in his own eyes (v 5)
4 He that chooses a fool to be his messenger or to transact his business has to suffer the consequences of the fool's misconduct (v 6). He experiences in a large measure self-devised injury and deprives himself of attaining his end. Cp. 10:26; 25:18
5 V 7 is rendered several ways: As the legs of the lame are not equal so fools are not capable of uttering parables: as the legs of the lame are useless, so are parables in the mouths of fools: as a lame man exposes his lameness, so fools expose their folly in expounding parables
6 As it is folly to bind a stone to the sling if one wants to throw the stone, so it is folly to give honor to a fool (v 8)
7 As a drunkard is insensible to the prick of a thorn, so are fools in uttering parables (v 9)
8 The word for God in v 10 is rab and may mean either the great God or a great man. If it refers to God it means that He has created all things and will equally reward fools and transgressors according to their works. If it refers to a great man it can be rendered, "A master (workman) forms all things aright; but he that hires a fool hires a transgressor who will spoil the work"
9 Fools repeat their own folly like a dog returning to his own vomit (v 11; 2 Pet. 2:20-22). Here it is not that fools merely make the same foolish assertions, but that they fall into the same course of action after brief endeavors or beginnings at improvement of their own lives, as in 2 Pet. 2:20-22

a This verse is quoted in 2 Pet. 2:22 where it refers to backsliders going back into sin 12 examples of returning to sin:
1 Aaron and Israel (Dt. 32:8; Ex. 32:32-33; 1 Cor. 10:1-11; Jude 5)
2 Nadab and Abihu (Lev. 10:1-20)
3 Korah and company (Num. 16)
4 King Saul (1 Sam. 10:13-24; 16:12-23; 1 Chr. 10:13-14)
5 Many disciples of Jesus (Jn. 6:66)
6 David (Ps. 51; 2 Sam. 12)
7 Judas (Ps. 41:9; 55:12-14; 69:25-28; 109:8; Mt. 26:24; Jn. 13:18; Acts 1)
8 Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-14)
9 Many Galatians (1:6-9; 5:4; 6:7-8)
10 Many early Christians (1 Tim. 1:19-20; 5:8-20; 6:1-21; 2 Tim. 2:16-21)
11 Demas (2 Tim. 4:10)
12 Whole churches (Rev. 2-3)

b Question 35. Next, v 19. This is a lesson on self-conceit, self-importance, and self-exaltation. Man should never overestimate himself for it closes the gate to real wisdom which gives a true evaluation of self. Cp. 19:20 c 4 proverbs against laziness (v 13-16):

1 V 13 is almost identical with 22:13. The lazy man uses this as an excuse for his laziness, that there is a lion in the street so he must stay inside or be killed
2 As the door stays on its hinges and never goes any place, so the lazy man never moves from his bed to fill a useful place in life (v 14. Cp. 6:10; 24:33)
3 The lazy man puts his hand in his bosom, or in the dish, and he is too overcharged with laziness to lift it to his mouth to eat (v 15; 19:24), in both these proverbs the idea is eating from a dish, not the bosom. Cp. 12:27; 19:24
4 A lazy man is more self-conceited and wise in his own eyes than 7 reputable wise men who can truly solve problems (v 16)

d A stranger who delights in strife and wilful provocation and who enters into strife that does not concern him is like one who takes a dog by the ears (v 17). He gets into trouble with all men through his meddling e The man who deceives his neighbor, slandering him and pretending to be in sport, is like an insane man casting fiery darts, arrows, and death (v 18-19).

f Question 36. Next, 27:4

g It is as impossible for strife to begin and continue where there is no tale-bearer as it is for a fire to be kindled and kept going where there is no fuel (v 20). The tale-bearer and the tale-receiver are the agents of strife. If no man receives a slander it will automatically die. Hence, the receiver is as guilty as the tale-bearer

h It is as impossible for contention to start where there is no contentious person as it is for fire to start and continue without coals of fire and fuel (v 21)

i The words of a slanderer are like poison to dainty morsels which are quickly swallowed but cause destruction to the eater (v 22; 18:8)

j Great professions of friendship and warm kisses with a wicked heart are like a piece of broken pottery covered over with the dross of silver (v 23). Such demonstrate hypocrisy and are without moral worth, but such with a pure heart demonstrate true love k The man who hates pretends no harm with his lips, but plots deceitful and destructive acts in his heart. He will be exposed before all men (v 24-26)

l 5 examples of falling into own pit:
1 Jacob (Gen. 27:14 with 37:31-32)
2 Saul (1 Sam. 18:11-26:2 with 1 Sam. 31)
3 David (2 Sam. 11:14-15 with 12:10)
4 Haman (Esther 7:10)
5 Accusers of Daniel (Dan. 6:4-24)

10 There is more hope for a fool than for men who are wise in their own eyes (v 12)

o The point in v 4-5 is that you cannot reason with a fool, because you would have to reason with him on his own level and this would make it manifest that you are a fool yourself. If you answer not according to his folly, he thinks he is as wise as you are. If you do answer according to his own folly, he thinks you are a fool as he is, so your reasoning is defeated. The only hope in such a case is the rod of v 3

a Eccl. 10:8; Ps. 7:15; 9:16 b A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it (v 28). He that injures another hates him in proportion to the injury he has done him. The one who does the wrong seldom if ever feels kindly toward those he has hurt. The debtor cannot bear the sight of a creditor, nor a robber those whom he has robbed. Only in Christ is this law broken c Do not plan or boast of what you are going to do tomorrow, for no man knows what the day may bring forth (v 1). This not only applies to one day ahead, but to all planning and boasting of the future. If one cannot know what will happen one day ahead how can he know what will happen beyond that?

d 8 examples of not knowing the morrow:
1 Jonathan (1 Sam. 23:17)
2 Abner (2 Sam. 3:9-10)
3 Ben-hadad (1 Ki. 20:3-31)
4 Ahab (1 Ki. 22:26-37)
5 Haman (Esther 5:12; 7:1-10)
6 Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4:30-33)
7 Belshazzar (Dan. 5:24-31)
8 The rich fool (Lk. 12:20)

e 5 examples of praise from others:
1 Saul and Jonathan (2 Sam. 1:17-27)
2 The centurion (Mt. 8:10)
3 John (Mt. 11:11; Jn. 5:35)
4 Luke (Col. 4:14; 2 Tim. 4:11)
5 Epaphroditus (Phil. 2:25)

f Do things that will cause others to praise you but do not expect praise even then (v 2). Self-praise is not commendation, but a show of pride

g A fool's wrath is heavier than sand and stone (v 3). Such an ill-temper is injurious but a fool does not have sense enough to know it so he suffers from it h Envy and jealousy are like a cyclone sweeping things before it (v 4)

i Question 37, Next, v 23

j An open rebuke demonstrates more love to a friend than a secret love which withholds rebuke when it should be given (v 5)

k Wounds from a friend are cutting and sharp, but they will do more good than the kisses of a treacherous, deceptive, crafty enemy (v 6) 5 examples of such faithfulness:
1 Nehemiah (Neh. 5:7-13)
2 Jehu (2 Chr. 19:2-11)
3 Jesus Christ (Mt. 23)
4 Stephen (Acts 7)
5 Paul (Acts 22:1-24:27)

l Only the hungry are satisfied with what they have to eat (v 7). To the full nothing tastes good m A restless and wandering man is no better than a wandering bird (v 8). The bird leaving her own brood, places of retreat, and breeding ground behind, and going into strange places, exposes herself to many dangers. So the man who leaves his own home, family, and relatives to become a vagabond or to seek fortunes in strange lands will many times find misery and hardships n An anointing of the head and certain parts of the body with aromatic oil was frequent in the East, and fumigating the beards of guests at the end of an entertainment was almost universal. All this seemed to refresh and rejoice the heart of vain men. So also do the pleasant, kind, and assuring words of friendship or counsel from a true friend (v 9). The hearty counsel means the sincere counsel of the soul

o Do not forsake the long tried and invaluable friends of your family. Never forget or neglect them for they are rare indeed who will stick by you in adversity as well as in prosperity. In time of adversity do not go to a relative living far off whose heart is far from your interests. It is better to go to a near friend and neighbor p MY SON: Live as such an example of your righteous teaching that it will be a rebuke to those who reproach me. You will make me happy when I can point to you as such an example (v 11)

q A prudent man foresees danger and escapes it; but the inexperienced and the young do not, so suffer for it (v 12; 22:3). See note 1, 1:4

r Take sufficient security from strangers to insure their meeting their obligation and not running away; and take a pledge of him who has become security for a strange woman (v 13; 20:16) fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, [q]it will return upon him.

43 How to measure hatred

28 [b]A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAPTER 27

VII Instruction and admonition for sons (27:1-27). 1 MY SON: (1) Three commands: reason

[c]BOAST not thyself of to morrow; [d]for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

●2 [e]Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; [f]a stranger, and not thine own lips.

(2) Three heavy things

3 [g]A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

(3) Three cruel things

4 [h]Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; [i]but who is able to stand before envy?

(4) Better than secret love

5 [j]Open rebuke is better than secret love.

(5) Wounds better than kisses

6 [k]Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

(6) Contrasted appetites

7 [l]The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

(7) Two wandering creatures

8 [m]As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

(8) Advice on friendships

9 [n]Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

●10 [o]Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

2 MY SON: (1) Two commands: reason

●11 [p]My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

(2) Blessing of foresight

12 [q]A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

(3) Double security

13 [r]Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

(4) Cause for suspicion

14 [a]He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, [b]rising early in the morning, [c]it shall be counted a curse to him.

(5) Two things alike

15 [d]A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself.

(6) Two sharp things

17 [e]Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

(7) Reward of service

18 Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: [f]so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

(8) Two kinds of mirrors

19 [g]As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

(9) Three things never satisfied

20 [h]Hell and destruction are never full; [i]so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

(10) Three refined things

21 [j]As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.

(11) An impossible job

22 [k]Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

(12) Two commands: tenfold reason

●23 [l]Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.

24 For riches are not for ever: and [m]doth the crown endure to every generation?

25 [n]The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

27 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.

CHAPTER 28

VIII Fifty-five proverbs (28:1-29:27). 1 Eight contrasted classes

[o]THE wicked flee when no man pursueth: but [p]the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 [q]For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge [r]the state thereof shall be proa Be suspicious and wary of the man who always flatters you with a loud voice and goes out of the way to do so. It will turn out to be a curse instead of a blessing (v 14)

b An idiom meaning excessive flattery. Extravagant public praise to or concerning a friend should always be held under suspicion. It is not to be regarded as genuine and sincere

c Seldom does it fail that men who pretend to be great friends and boast of your friendship are sooner or later to be a curse and a disappointment (v 14)

d 3 similitudes of a contentious woman:
1 She is like perpetual cloudbursts that are overwhelming and cannot be contained (v 15; 19:13). Her contentions engulf the soul and leave one in despair. See note h, 19:13. The Arabic denotes a rain poured out of buckets
2 She is like the wind and storm that cannot be stopped or confined by a dam (v 16)
3 She is like the smell of aromatic oil which your hands have been anointed with. It is impossible to hide. The oil betrays itself (v 15). Both these statements in v 15 show that a man attempts to do what is impossible to be done

e As hard iron or steel will sharpen a knife, so a man may sharpen the intellect and the moral and spiritual life of another (v 17).

f 6 examples of honoring servants:
1 Deborah (Gen. 35:8)
2 Joseph (Gen. 39:2-23)
3 Elisha (2 Ki. 3:11)
4 Centurion's servant (Lk. 7:8)
5 Disciples (Lk. 12:37)
6 The soldier of Cornelius (Acts 10:7)

g As in water the face is reflected, so the human heart reflects the disposition to be discerned by others (v 19)

h Heb. sheol, the place of souls and departed spirits, not the grave which is the place for the body only. See Hell, p. 620; notes, Lk. 12:5; 16:19-31

i As hell and destruction are never full, so restless, lustful, and covetous eyes are never satisfied (v 20)

j As the fining pot and furnace test the gold and silver, so praise of a man tests his real character by the effect it has upon him (v 21). His humility or self-exaltation is soon discovered and thus his true worth is known k Though one pounds, pulverizes, and mixes the fool in a mortar (a vessel in which substances are crushed or pounded) among wheat with a pestle (an instrument for braying and mixing of substances), yet it will be impossible to eradicate his foolishness from him (v 22)

l Do not trust your flocks to the shepherd only, but number them yourself and see that they are well tended and fed. Flocks will multiply generation after generation, but other riches and even the crowns of kings are temporary and will soon pass away (v 23-24)

m Question 38, Next, 29:20

n 5 admonitions to farmers:
1 Make hay to feed the stock for the winter (v 25)
2 Feed the flock on the new pasture in the spring (v 25)
3 Sell the lambs to buy clothes (v 26)
4 Sell the goats to pay for the farm or pay the rent (v 26)
5 Use the goats' milk for the whole household and to maintain the servants (v 27). Milk is here put for all the products necessary for the home

o The wicked may appear to be bold and unafraid, but they are full of fear for the time to face God, because of their wrongdoings (v 1) p 11 examples of righteous boldness:

1 Moses (Ex. 32:20)
2 The prophet (1 Ki. 13:1-10)
3 Elijah (1 Ki. 18:15-18; 2 Ki. 1)
4 Azariah (2 Chr. 26:17-18)
5 Nehemiah (Neh. 6:11)
6 Three Hebrew children (Dan. 3)
7 Daniel (Dan. 6)
8 Jesus Christ (Mt. 27)
9 Stephen (Acts 7:51-60)
10 Paul (Acts 20:22-24) 421
11 Peter and John (Acts 4:18-20; 5:41-q Sin produces many rulers because of the wars and murders (v 2) r 5 examples of good statecraft:

1 Joseph (Gen. 47:15-26)
2 Samuel (1 Sam. 11:12-15)
3 Nathan (1 Ki. 1:11-14)
4 Jeroboam (1 Ki. 12:26-33)
5 Daniel (1:3-5; 6:1-4)

a Heb. rush, one in want of the necessities of life (note f, 6:11). Such a man is so greedy that he leaves nothing to others when he gets the chance to oppress, rob, and carry away. He is like a sweeping rain that takes all things away (v 3, 6, 19, 27). Jesus illustrates this proverb in the parable of the 2 debtors (Mt. 18:21-35). Sweeping rains are frequent in the East; and sometimes carry flocks, crops, and even houses away with them b Heb. dal, an impoverished man; one in poverty. One poor man oppresses another (v 3, 8, 11, 15; note f, 6:11) c Here we have war between lawbreakers and lawkeepers. Lawbreakers are praised by the wicked for their success in breaking the law and because they claim they have a right to do so. This calls for contention with the wicked by the righteous (v 4) d 6 examples of praising the wicked:
1 Saul (1 Sam. 29:21)
2 Absalom (2 Sam. 15:6)
3 Nobles of Judah (Neh. 6:19)
4 False prophets (Jer. 5:30-31)
5 Jews (Acts 12:21-23)
e 5 examples of contending with wicked:
1 Nehemiah (Neh. 5:7-11; 13:11)
2 John (Mt. 14:4)
3 Jesus Christ (Mt. 22-23)
4 Stephen (Acts 7)
5 Paul (Acts 22-24)
f 4 examples of ignorance of judgment:
1 Israel (Num. 16:21)
2 Ahab (1 Ki. 18:17)
3 The Lord's enemies (Mk. 4:11-12)
4 Pharisees (Lk. 11:42; 18:9-14)
g See 7 reasons why they understand, p. 667
h It is better to be poor and righteous than to be rich and wicked (v 6). See 17 "better" things, p. 666
i A wise son who keeps the law blesses his father, but he who associates with riotous wasters shames him (v 7). Cp. 10:1; 13:20; 23:21; 29:3
j A man who increases his riches by unlawful and unjust interest on loans, lending to men in great distress, only gathers it for his heirs who will show themselves compassionate toward the poor (v 8. Cp. 13:22; Job 27:16-17)
k The man who turns away from truth lest he should get to know it will not receive answers to prayer (v 9) 18 reasons for unanswered prayer:
1 Refusing to hear truth (v 9)
2 Refusing to humble self (2 Chr. 7:14)
3 Forsaking God (2 Chr. 15:2)
4 Provoking God (Dt. 3:26)
5 Hardheartedness (Zech. 7:12-13)
6 Lack of charity (Pr. 21:13)
7 Regarding iniquity in heart (Ps. 66:18)
8 Wrong motives (Jas. 4:3)
9 Dishonor of companion (1 Pet. 3:7)
10 Unbelief (Mt. 17:20-21; 21:22)
11 Sin (Jas. 4:1-5; Jn. 9:31; Isa. 59:2)
12 Parading prayer life (Mt. 6:5)
13 Vain repetitions (Mt. 6:7)
14 Unforgiveness (Mt. 6:14-15; Mk. 11:25-26)
15 Hypocrisy (Lk. 18:9-14)
16 Being discouraged (Lk. 18:1-8)
17 Worry and anxiety (Phil. 4:6)
18 Doubting - double-mindedness (Jas. 1:5-8)
l See 20 abominations, note e, 3:32 m He who tempts one converted to God to go astray shall fall into his own pit of destruction; and the upright shall continue to be helped and blessed of God (v 10. Cp. 11:6, 8; 26:27)
n The unwise rich man is wise in his own eyes, but the wise poor man knowing his weaknesses, outstrips him in the struggle for true riches of eternal things (v 11)
o When the righteous rule there is great glory and rejoicing, but when the wicked are in power good men are obliged to retire and remain quiet (v 12) p The man who will not acknowledge his sins and who seeks to hide them and excuse himself will never be converted; but the man who confesses and forsakes them will be (v 13. Cp. Jn. 3:16-20; 1 Jn. 1:9) q 3 examples of covering sin:
1 Adam (Gen. 3:12; Job 31:33)
2 Cain (Gen. 4:9)
3 Saul (1 Sam. 15:19-21)
r 4 examples of confessing sin:
1 David (2 Sam. 12:13; Ps. 51)
2 Manasseh (2 Chr. 33:12-13)
3 Nineveh (Jer. 18:7-8; Jon. 3:5-10) longed.

3 [a]A poor man that oppresseth the [b]poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food.

4 [c]They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law [c]contend with them.

5 Evil men [f]understand not judgment: [g]but they that seek the LORD understand all things.

2 Another better thing

6 [h]Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

3 Two kinds of sons

7 [i]Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

4 Riches only temporary

8 [j]He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

5 Why some prayers are unanswered

9 [k]He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be [l]abomination.

6 Law of retribution

10 [m]Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

7 Four contrasted classes

11 [n]The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 [o]When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

8 Secret of prosperity

▸13 [p]He that [q]covereth his sins shall not prosper: [r]but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

14 [s]Happy is the man that feareth alway: [t]but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

9 Three unmerciful things

15 [u]As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

10 Ten common classes

16 [v]The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

●17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; [w]let no man stay him.

▸18 [x]Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

▸20 A faithful man [e]shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

21 To have respect of persons is not good: for for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

11 Two uses of the tongue

23 [b]He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

12 Result of wrong training

24 [c]Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

13 Eight contrasted classes

25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: [d]but he that putteth his [e]trust in the LORD [f]shall be made fat.

26 [g]He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: [h]but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 [i]He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: [j]but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 [k]When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAPTER 29

14 Sudden end of rebels

HE, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

15 Two kinds of government

2 [m]When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

16 Two kinds of sons

3 [n]Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: [o]but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

17 Causes of stable and unstable governments

4 [p]The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

18 Cause of suspicion

5 [q]A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

19 Ten common classes

6 [r]In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 [s]The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know a 10 characteristics of 10 classes:

1 The oppressor is ignorant (v 16)
2 The covetous is short-lived (v 16)
3 The violent man condemns self (v 17)
4 The upright enjoys salvation (v 18)
5 The perverse is unstable (v 18)

7 The lazy has poverty (v 19) 20)
8 The faithful man has blessings (v
9 The greedy has guilt, an evil eye, and eventual poverty (v 20, 22)
10 The respecter of persons bribes for any small gain or advantage (v 21)
b The man who speaks the truth will eventually gain more favor than the one who flatters (v 23)
c The man who robs his parents is worse than a common thief and a murderer, for he adds to that sin ingratitude and cruelty besides disobedience to God (v 24)
d 4 contrasts of 8 classes:
1 The proud and the humble (v 25)
2 The fool and the wise (v 26)
3 The liberal and the miser (v 27)
4 The wicked and the righteous (v 28)
8 characteristics of these:

n The king who metes out true justice will be established forever (v 14. Cp. 20:28; 25:5)
o A spoiled child will bring shame to his parents (v 15) p When wicked men are given more power, sinfulness is increased in a nation. Their rule will be only temporary for they will be overthrown and the righteous shall live to see it (v 16) q 2 blessings of correction (v 17):
1 Gives parents rest
2 Gives them joy in seeing obedience
r Where there is no vision or consciousness of responsibility regarding keeping the law, the people perish for its lack of enforcement, but the one who, in such times keeps the law is blessed and happy (v 18. Cp. Judg. 2:7-19; 17:6; 18:1; 19:1; 21:25; 1 Sam. 2:12-17; 1 Ki. 12:28-32; 14:14-16) s 2 examples of keeping the law:
1 Hezekiah (2 Chr. 29)
2 Josiah (2 Chr. 34:33; 35:18)
t A stubborn and disobedient servant will not reform through mere words. He needs a more harsh method of correction (v 19) u Question 39, Next, 30:4. A fool has more hope than a fiery-tempered man (v 20)
v He that brings up a servant from a child shall at last adopt him (v 21) w An angry man begets strife, and a furious man (Heb. lord of wrath) abounds in sin (v 22) it.

8 [a]Scornful men [b]bring a city into a snare: but [c]wise men turn away wrath.

9 [d]If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 [e]The bloodthirsty [f]hate the upright: but the just [g]seek his soul.

11 [h]A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man [i]keepeth it in till afterwards.

20 How to increase sin

12 [j]If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

21 The poor and the creditor

13 The poor and the [m]deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

22 How to decrease sin

14 [n]The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

23 How to spoil the child

15 [o]The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

24 How society is preserved

16 [p]When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

25 Rewards of correction

●17 [q]Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

26 Importance of vision

18 Where there is [r]no vision, the people perish: [s]but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

27 An unfaithful servant

19 [t]A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

28 Hot-headedness and fools

20 [u]Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

29 Reward of faithfulness

21 [v]He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

30 Two of the same kind

22 [w]An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

31 Results of pride and humility

23 [x]A man's pride shall bring him low: [y]but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

32 Partners in crime

24 [z]Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

33 Results of fear and trust

▸25 [a]The fear of man [b]bringeth [c]a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.

34 Two kinds of judgment

26 [d]Many seek the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

35 Four contrasted classes

27 [e]An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

CHAPTER 30

IX The words of Agur (30:1-33). 1 His confession to men

THE words of [f]Ä'gûr the son of Jā'keh, even the prophecy: the man spake unto Ith'ī-el, even unto Ith'ī-el and Ū'cal,

2 [g]Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

2 His confession of God

4 [h]Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

●6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

3 His prayer to God

7 [i]Two things have I required of thee; deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food [j]convenient for me:

9 Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, [k]Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

4 His admonition to men

●10 [l]Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

5 Two fourfold enumerations: (1) four generations

11 [m]There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

(2) Two beggars and four a This refers to timidity, the inferiority complex, and to trembling before men b See 2 great snares of humanity, p. 667

c 6 examples of being snared by man-fear:
1 Parents of the blind man (Jn. 9:22)
2 Secret disciples (Jn. 12:42)
3 Joseph (Jn. 19:38)
4 David (1 Sam. 16:12-13; 27:1)
5 Elijah (1 Ki. 19:3)
6 Peter (Mt. 26:60-74)
d Many seek the favor and pardon of rulers, but they will yet have to face God in judgment (v 28)
e 5 abominations to man:
1 The wicked are an abomination to the just (v 27)
2 The just are an abomination to the wicked (v 27)
3 Shepherds to Egyptians (Gen. 43:32)
4 Unclean animals to Israel (Lev. 11:5)
5 Israel to others (1 Sam. 13:4) 10)
f Who the men of this verse were is unknown. The Talmud says, "Solomon was called by six names: Solomon, Jedidiah (2 Sam. 12:25), Koheleth, Son of Jakeh, Agur, and Lemuel." This much is certain. Agur was the son of Jakeh and he uttered a prophecy to Ithiel and Ucal (v 1). We can accept these facts as literal as much as we accept the Minor Prophets, some of whom are as little known as these men g These two verses seem to indicate that the speaker was not the wise man, Solomon, unless the utterances were made before he received his divine gifts of wisdom and knowledge
h Questions 40-44. Next, v 9
10 facts about God:
1 He can ascend to heaven (v 4; Gen. 18:33. Cp. Gen. 28:12; Jn. 3:13; Dt. 30:11-12; Rom. 10:6-7)
2 He can descend from heaven (v 4; Zech. 14:5; Tit. 2:13; Jude 14; Rev. 21:2, 10)
3 He controls the wind (v 4; Eccl. 1:6; Ps. 19:1-6; Mt. 8:27)
4 He controls the waters (v 4; Job 26:8; Ps. 104:6-9; Pr. 8:28)
5 He established the land out of the waters (v 4; Gen. 1:9-10; Jer. 5:22; Job 38:4-11; Ps. 102:25)

7 He has a Son (Ps. 2:7; Jn. 3:16; Mt. 1:21; Isa. 9:6-7; etc.)
8 His every word is pure (v 5; Ps. 19:7; 2 Tim. 3:16-17)
9 He is a protector of all who put their trust in Him (v 5; Ps. 91)
10 He will not tolerate additions to His Word (v 6; Dt. 4:2; 12:32; Rev. 22:18)
i 6 requests in 2 petitions (v 7-8):
1 Deny not my petitions before I die
2 Remove vanity far from me
3 Remove lies far from me
4 Give me not poverty
5 Give me not riches
6 Feed me only my necessary food
6 reasons for his requests (v 9):

k Question 45. Next, 31:2
l Do not falsely accuse a servant, lest you be found guilty and he curse thee for slander (v 10) m 4 classes of people:
1 Those who do not honor parents (v 11; 20:20; Ex. 21:17; Mk. 10:10-13)
2 Those who are self-righteous (v 12; Isa. 64:4; Lk. 18:9-14; Mt. 23)
3 Those who are full of vanity, pride, and insolence (v 13; Ps. 10:4; 73:6; Pr. 8:13; 16:18; Dan. 4:37; 1 Jn. 2:16)
4 Those who are cruel, greedy, and oppressive to the poor (v 14; 14:31; 22:16; 28:3; Jas. 2:6)

insatiable things

15 The [a]horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, [b]four things say not, It is enough:

16 [c]The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

6 Mocking of parents cursed

17 [d]The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, [e]the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

7 Four fourfold enumerations: (1) four inscrutable things

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, [f]four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

(2) Four disquieting things

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for [h]four which it cannot bear:

22 For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an[i]odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

(3) Four little wise things

24 There be [j]four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

25 The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

(4) Four graceful things

29 There be three things which go well, yea, [k]four are comely in going:

30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A greyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

8 His admonitions to men

32 [l]If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 [m]Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAPTER 31

X The words of king Lemuel (31:1-31). 1 Warnings: wine and women

THE words of king Lĕm'u-el, the prophecy that his mother taught him.

2 [b]What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

3 [c]Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lĕm'u-el, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:

5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

2 Admonitions to justice

8 Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

3 THE MODEL WOMAN: thirty-fivefold description: (1) Her personal character and value

10 ¶ [d]Who can find a [e]virtuous woman? for [f]her price is far above rubies.

(2) Her husband's confidence

11 [g]The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

(3) Her ceaseless labours

13 [h]She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh [i]willingly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchants' ships; [j]she bringeth her food from afar.

15 [k]She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

16 [l]She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

17 [m]She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

18 She perceiveth that [n]her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.

19 She layeth her hands to the [o]spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

(4) Her good works of charity

20 [p]She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

(5) Her household

21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for a Heb. alukah, horseleech or bloodsucker. This is evidently figurative of people who are never satisfied and who will take advantage to gain the last portion of good from their victims (v 15)

b 6 quartets (v 11-31):
1 4 classes of men (v 11-14)
2 4 insatiable things (v 15-16)
3 4 inscrutable things (v 18-20)
4 4 disquieting things (v 21-23)
5 4 little wise things (v 24-28)
6 4 graceful things (v 29-31)

c 4 insatiable things (v 15-16):
1 Hell. Heb. sheol, not the grave, but the place of departed spirits (Hell, p. 620). Hell is never full, but constantly opening its mouth to swallow men
2 The barren womb. It always craves a child (Gen. 16:2; 29:31; 30:1-2; 1 Sam. 1:6-20)
3 The dry earth. It longs for water to quench its parched surface (Dt. 28:23-24; 1 Ki. 18:1-6; Jas. 5:18)
4 The fire. It is greedy for everything that burns (Mt. 3:12; Mk. 9:43-49; Jas. 3:6; Jude 7)

d Irreverence to parents is cursed by God (v 17; 20:20; Ex. 21:17)

e The ravens begin with the eyes of a carcase (v 17)

f Eagles feed on carrion (Job 39:27-30; Ezek. 39:17; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:37)

g 4 inscrutable things (v 18-19):
1 The way of an eagle in the air
2 The way of a serpent upon a rock
3 The way of the ship in the sea
4 The way of a man with a maid
How a large and heavy bird can soar through the heavens, a serpent can glide over a slippery rock, a ship can plough through the seas without leaving a trace of its path, and how the man has power over the woman - these are incomprehensible. Such is the power of an adulterous woman over her victims. She destroys them and disclaims any wrongdoing (v 20)

h 4 disquieting things (v 21-23):
1 An insolent slave when made king
2 An ill-mannered overfed fool
3 An ill-tempered woman
4 A servant maid married to her master becomes dominating and haughty

i Heb. sane, to hate. Trans. odious only here, but hate 65 times; hated 35 times; hateth 20 times; hatest 5 times; hateful 1 time; and haters 1 time (1:22; 6:16; 8:13, 36; 9:8; 19:7; 25:17; 29:10; etc.)

j 4 little wise things (v 24-28):
1 The ants. They are diligent in preparing for the future. They have houses, towns, public roads, etc. They have some amazing habits. See note a, 6:8
2 The conies. They are shrewd in protecting themselves from larger animals. Those referred to here were brown and larger than the ordinary rabbit, and lived in holes and clefts of the rocks (v 26; Ps. 104:18). They were unclean for food (Lev. 11:5; Dt. 14:7). Their feet had sharp hoofs which enabled them to leap from rock to rock with great rapidity like a squirrel. They were so wary they were seldom caught by the hunter and it was almost impossible to trap one
3 The locusts. They are harmonious creatures, having no king yet they band together as one and are very destructive (v 27; Judg. 6:5; 1 Ki. 8:37; Joel 1:4; 2:25). They always travel with the wind (Ex. 10:12-13, 18-19)
4 The spider. They are noted for their great flexibility and are curious creatures in the matter of building their houses and taking their prey. Some spiders spin webs, some dig holes in the ground making trap-doors to them, while others having no webs, chase their prey upon the ground. The Bible deals only with those that spin webs k 4 graceful things (v 29-31):

1 The lion who is more majestic than any other beast
2 The greyhound who is exceedingly graceful and fleet
3 The he-goat who is both fierce and majestic as the head of the sheep
4 A king who walks boldly and gracefully among his loyal subjects and against whom there is no hope of rebellion

l If you have acted stupidly in thinking or planning evil, keep it to yourself and confess it to God who forgives, not to man who will ever condemn you (v 32)

m The forcing of wrath brings strife, as surely as the churning of milk brings butter and the wringing of the nose brings blood (v 33)

a What is said of the unknown men in note f, 30:1, applies here. Who Lemuel and his mother were is not known. The prophecy is a second supplement to the book of Proverbs. It is certain that 30:1-33 was uttered by a man (30:1), and 31:1-31 by a woman (31:1-2)

b Questions 46-48. Next, v 10

c 8 commands to king Lemuel:
1 Do not be a whoremonger (v 3)
2 Do not be a drunkard (v 3)
4 reasons given for this:
(1) It is not becoming to kings (v 4)
(2) It is not becoming to princes
(3) Lest they forget God's law (v 5)
(4) Lest they pervert justice (v 5)
3 Give strong drink to the criminal ready to be executed or to one in suffering to relieve him and make him insensible to his pain (v 6). This is what was offered the Lord, but He refused it (Ps. 69:21; Mt. 27:34). It was a custom to give strong drink to condemned men to relieve their suffering in dying. Cp. Job 29:13. It was also used in surgery before modern anesthetics
4 Help such as are unable to plead their own cause in court (v 8. Cp. Job 29:15-16)
5 Judge righteous judgment (v 9)
6 Plead the cause of the poor (v 9) d Question 49. The last question in Proverbs. The verses 10-31 make an acrostic, that is, each begins with a letter of the Hebrew alphabet. The same is true of Ps. 9, 10, 25, 34, 119, and Lam. 1:4

e Heb. chayil, strong in all moral and mental qualities (v 10; 12:4; Ruth 3:11). Ruth is the only woman so-called f 31 characteristics of a virtuous woman:

1 Morally perfect (v 10)
2 Invaluable (v 10)
3 Trustworthy (v 11)
4 Inherently good and true (v 12)
5 Ingenious - proficient (v 13)
6 Thrifty - laborious (v 14)
7 Dutiful - considerate (v 15)
8 Versatile - judicious (v 16)
9 Tireless - healthy (v 17)
10 Joyful - efficient (v 18)
11 Watchful - cautious (v 18)
12 Thrifty - skilful (v 19)
13 Charitable - benevolent (v 20)
14 Generous - merciful (v 20)
15 Fearless - provident (v 21)
16 Clever at decorating - furnishing (v 22)
17 Refined in taste (v 22)
18 Respected - popular (v 23)
19 Industrious - prosperous (v 24)
20 Dependable - honest (v 25)
21 Confident - hopeful (v 25)
22 Wise - discreet (v 26)
23 Kind - understanding (v 26)
24 Prudent - practical (v 27)
25 Energetic - ever active (v 27)
26 An ideal wife and mother (v 28)
27 Honored by her family (v 27-28)
28 Excels in virtue (v 28)
29 God-fearing - humble (v 30)
30 Deserving - successful (v 31)
31 Honored by the public (v 31)

g 5 things said of her husband:
1 He has absolute confidence in her faithfulness (v 11)
2 He knows she will not be a waster, so has no need for spoil of his neighbor to supply his house (v 11)
3 He is blessed by her tireless industry all the days of his life (v 12)
4 He is exalted as a ruler with the elders at the gate (v 23)
5 He praises her virtues and blessings to others (v 28)

h She does not buy ready woven cloth, but spins her own raw materials from her own flocks (v 13)

i She works for others willingly and cheerfully from the heart (v 13)

j She imports and exports. If she buys anything she sells a sufficient amount from her own manufacture to pay for it (v 14, 16, 18, 24)

k She is loving, and considerate of all her household (v 15)

l She is not afraid to venture into new business to provide for her growing family (v 16, 28)

m She keeps herself and family in perfect health with proper food and clothing (v 17, 19, 21)

n She is honest and upright in all her business dealings and not doubtful regarding the sale of her merchandise (v 18-19, 24)

o The distaff on which the wool or flax was rolled and the spindle that twisted the wool into thread were ancient parts of the spinning wheel

p She respects and loves both God and the poor and is good to all in need (v 20, 30) a She is not anxious about the health and comfort of her family in the winter season for she has fully provided all that is necessary for their protection. They are sensible enough to protect themselves with what she has provided (v 21)

b She has coverings, carpetings, and furnishings fit for her station in life (v 22) c Her clothing shows marks of refinement and luxury (v 22) d Her husband is known and respected in public and has a place of authority among the elders of the land (v 25). He is respected not only for his position, but because he is the husband of a woman justly held in universal esteem e She manufactures articles in demand (v 24). Perhaps they included the beautiful oriental dresses, girdles, turbans, towels, linens, and other fine articles of clothing f All the articles of manufacture are perfect, strong, elegant, and satisfactory to the merchants and the trade. She has no occasion to blush over anything she has made. She has no fear that any article will be returned as inferior to accepted standards of trade (v 25)

beauty of form and features will fade, but the woman who fears the Lord shall be praised (v 30)
g Give such a woman praise and acclaim in the public and render her the fruit of her hands (v 31)

Hebrew, marpe, health (4:22)

Heb. marpe, Trans. health (v 22; 12:18; 13:17; 16:24; Jer. 8:15); healing (Jer. 14:19; Mal. 4:2); cure (Jer. 33:6); remedy (2 Chr. 36:16; Pr. 6:15; 29:1); sound in health (Pr. 14:30); and wholesome (Pr. 15:4). That bodily health and healing are referred to is clear in all these passages. Here, it states health to all their flesh, not spirit (v 22). When Christians awake to their full rights in the gospel they can have health of body as well as soul (3 Jn. 2; 1 Pet. 2:24; Mt. 8:16-17; Jas. 5:14, note)

8 commands to sons (7:1)

1 Keep my words - guard against breaking God's commandments (v 1)
2 Lay up my commandments - take them into your bosom and into your heart (v 1)
3 Keep my commandments, and live (v 2)
4 Keep my law as you would the pupil of the eye (v 2, Cp. Dt. 32:10; Ps. 17:8; Zech. 2:12)
5 Bind them upon your fingers (v 3)
6 Write them upon the table of your heart (v 3)
7 Make wisdom your sister (v 4)
8 Make understanding your kinswoman (v 4). These last two expressions indicate acquaintance with wisdom and knowledge. The word kinswomen is used only here and in Ruth 2:1

These commands are warnings preparatory to the longer admonition against adultery, which was an often referred-to subject with Solomon due to his many bitter experiences with strange women (note e, 6:32). He generally gave such commands before dealing with the subject (2:1-10 with 2:12, 16; 5:1-2 with 5:3-6; 5:7 with 5:8-14; 5:15-19 with 5:20-23; 6:20-23 with 6:24-35; 7:1-4 with 7:5-23; 7:24 with 7:25-27; 9:1-6 with 9:13-18)
